

A photograph of a sunset over the ocean. The sun is a bright, glowing orb on the horizon, casting a long, shimmering reflection across the water. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a pale yellow near the horizon. Several dark, silhouetted rocks are scattered in the foreground and middle ground, partially submerged in the water. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

CONCLUSION: Margarida's words

Our works

AT REQUEST OF MASTER RAMATIS

Beloved disciples! Blessed is the Love that unites all of us in the Universe!

Sparks created unconsciously awaken and renew themselves perennially. Communion with God is the "link" joining all creatures, children of God.

This Humanity is going through the ordeal attracted by its spiritual negligence. While giving up the heavenly abodes, practices iniquity, violence and evil. Attached to addictions and passions, creates a tenebrous future that only the "sandpaper of pain" will be able to clean their sick and dense souls. They will be transferred of planet – and already are – in the current selection with this humanity. Many spirits have already reached the density that "grants them the planetary exile".

It is not punishment, but new opportunity for progress inevitable before the Divine Laws.

The transition occurs, full of turpitude and pain as predicted since millennia ago.

This small Group has bringing to humanity the messages from the High for awakening, comforting and forewarning the soul for new directions and for true and necessary transformation to inhabit a New World. We well know that is a drop into the ocean, but important for the souls already awakened, and others who are just waiting for an impulse to renew them.

We suggest the sisters to gather "one hundred messages" of impact, in descending order of date to compose a small number to be divulged later. Divide you into three groups, each one compiling a number of messages selected to awaken the earthly brothers.

They are messages already posted, but need to be analyzed at this time by the brothers in suffering, so that they know of the Hand of God lovingly leading them. Add to that, many Spirits of Light that abandoned their Edenic houses and are impelling you toward the progress, transformation, forgiveness and love, in the name of the Planetary Christ through His Medium Jesus.

Ramatis is with you ready to answer your questions.

Question: It must to be urgent, is not it Teacher?

Ramatis: All the tasks we ask you, they seek to awaken the of humanity and aid the suffering ones. At this moment, all over the world there are cries for help, without the creature to change itself internally. Let the brothers of humanity know that it only depends on them to reach the New Earth approaching, without neglecting the Laws of God. They cannot do it without avoiding pain, but developing in the soul, the virtues necessary to gain the Earth of Light.

May Jesus bless you all, beloved disciples!

Hail the Light guiding us! Blessed is Lord Jesus!

Master Ramatis, GESH - 03/19/2021

PRESENTATION

This simple work was born at request of Master Ramatis to GESH (Spiritist Shama Hare Study Group), selected from the messages published by GESJ (Servants of Jesus Spiritist Group). It should include 100 (one hundred) of strong impact messages about the Planetary Transition, that is, about the last moments of transition from the Earth of Trials and Atonement to Earth of Regeneration.

Indeed, it was not easy to carry out this task, since each message read contained in itself, beautiful words of warning, awakening or encouragement that impelled us to share them.

Therefore, after reading, inclusions and exclusions, we concluded it.

Here are messages of alert guiding us about the serious and painful moments we shall live at the end of the planetary cycle.

These messages impel us to the urgent inner renewal, which we postponed in past incarnations, as well as the real and loving presence of extraterrestrial and intraterrestrial brothers as evolved brothers reaching out us the hands.

They encourage us for the best we have within us and to overcome the limits we imagine to see.

We hope that each of these messages is a small drop of light clarifying, awakening and encouraging you, reader, as it did to us.

May Jesus bless you all!

GESH - Grupo de Estudos Shama Hare

KNOW A LITTLE MORE ABOUT US! WHO WE ARE?

(According to our mentor and foundress Sister Margarida on 12/23/1970 it was created "Servants of Jesus Spiritist Group" - GESJ with two main objectives:

1 – Study and divulgation of the magnificent Doctrine codified by the notable Master Allan Kardec. I myself, "by chance" was initiated in this knowledge from the age of 13.

2 – Work in the obsession field;

Eleven years later, in the first semester of 1981, for our surprise and joy, we received the first mental contact with one extraterrestrial being during the mediumistic development meeting.

As in that time, the subject was much talked about and researched, we were very happy for that brother of stars visiting us. Thence, we decided to create in GESJ - Grupo Espirita Servos de Jesus, a little nucleus of sympathizers then constituting GER – Grupo de Estudos Ramatis, today known as GESH – Grupo Espirita Shama Hare, since our beloved Master Ramatis obliged us to do a cleaning in the group, separating the wheat from the tares.

The objectives of the new little group inserted in the matrix, GESJ – Grupo Espirita Servos de Jesus, are the same up to now, since its creation.

1 – To acquire and divulge messages about Prophecies, End of Times, Doomsday and others little known or published.

2 – Strengthening of faith and trust in the divine Designs.

3 – Achievement of inner Balance.

4 – Contact with Extraterrestrials (or extraplanetary Beings), Brothers of Stars, Cosmic Brothers, "ET's or others designations) in the physical or mental planes.

5 – Development at any way referred to the practice and love to the neighbor.

6 - Study and research about the Subterranean Worlds (or evolved intraterrestrial beings that inhabit those subterranean worlds).

7 - Similarly, to establish contact with brothers of Submarine and Subaquatic Worlds.

Finally, let me tell you that I began to research and read everything that falls into my hands since the year of 1949 about Extraterrestrials and Subterranean Worlds in the Sixties such the book "Terra Oca".

Gradually, the message began arriving when we published our first book “Intraterrestres de Stelta – Missão Submarina Extraterrestre”. After this, we published the book “Pétalas de Luz”.

Both were simple books, “booklets” that made public the communication received from those evolved brothers experts at Science, Technology and Love.

In the year 1995, we published the book “Extraterrestrials and Us – I” and in 1996 we published the book “Extraterrestrials and Us – II”

On August 28, 1996, we received a following message that touched deeply my heart, when Commander Ashtar sheran offered us a task of large responsibility.

2 – To work on disobsession field.

Eleven years later, In the first semester of 1981, surprised and happy we had the first mental contact with one extraterrestrial brother at a mediumistic development meeting.

At the time, we heard so much about the subject talked and researched. Thence, the visit of the extraterrestrial brother encouraged us to create in GESJ, a small nucleus of sympathizers that formed the GER - Study Group Ramatis, now known as GESH (Shama Study Group Hare) when dear Master Ramatis forced us to clean up the Group, that is, separation between the wheat from the tares.

The objectives of the tiny nucleus inserted in the matrix, the GESJ, are the same until now, since its creation.

1 - To acquire and divulge knowledge about Prophecies, Arrived Times, Last Judgment and others.

2 - Strengthening of faith and confidence on Divine Plans.

3 - To achieve inner balance.

4 - Contact with Extraterrestrials (or extra-planetary Beings, Star Brothers, Cosmic Brothers, Et's or other designations) at physical or mental plane.

5 - To evolve in all aspects of the practice of love to the neighbor.

6 - To study and research about underground worlds and mental contact with the Intraterrestrial Brothers (or evolved intraterrestrial beings), inhabitants of these underground worlds.

7 - Similarly, to establish contact with the Brothers of Underwater and Underwater Worlds.

On August 28, 1996, we received the following message that touched me deeply, when Commander Ashtar Sheran asked us to assume a task of great responsibility.

With you, one of two messages received in chronological order, both with the same request:

Dear brothers,

It is already late to make humanity aware of the nature on Extraterrestrials working in the Planet Earth.

Lately everything that comes up is in the sense of denigrating the image of the extraterrestrial brothers.

The collectivity remains in a state of shock; when at least imagine contact with us. Thence, we ask you to divulge about the work that we are developing and our "Mission" in this current time.

We need receptive minds in society as a whole. The dissemination is urgent in order to make human beings receptive.

The Great Hour approaches; dread and panic may be the biggest enemies of our work.

We shall divulge widely the work of the Great White Universal Fraternity, even by means of small leaflets.

We suggest a small approach about the changes occurred in the Planet during the evolutionary scale of the worlds, soon after a small mention of the Fraternity as a point of support in this passage and then a few words about the work of extraterrestrial beings working here.

Think about the possibility of dividing the book into small chapters numbered in sequence and that contain the necessary for the people to know about us.

Time urges. Do not forget to describe about the practical jobs that you are aware of, like cleaning in the Salvador's atmosphere and work in the health area.

The community needs to see and feel us as friends, not enemies like most of the powerful ones want to introduce us.

Thanks.

May God protect and enlighten us in our work, with the grace of Master Jesus.

Ashtar Sheram, Psychographic - 08/26/1996.

According to the mentioned above, we introduced the first divulgation still in 1996. Now we have already published number 42. We start with a sheet and stopped reaching the seventh. At first, with free distribution from 120 to 150 addresses. Then the number changed from 500 to 600, including Esperanto up to number 24. We stopped for lack of translator, as well as for other languages.

A few years later, we adhered the Internet divulging unpublished messages, every Monday; our books in English, Spanish and Portuguese, and a small divulgation brochure without a fixed date, but it depends when we have spare time, a rare thing among us.

We take the opportunity to reaffirm that the Group was not founded to answer questions about conflicting, controversial issues acquired through other sources of information; as does not publish similar themes received from other Nucleus. Add to that, it neither gives opinion nor discuss anything, although sometimes provoked harshly with that intention, by unbalanced minds.

We act based on "The best answer is one not given."

We never ask, much less impose anyone to believe in our work and revelations in it contained. Our obligation is to divulge the knowledge from Evolved Brothers in favor of the earthly humanity.

Believe if you want.

Another important point that I take the occasion to clarify is that many people ask us to address many individual questions to the Masters, to the extraterrestrial and to intraterrestrial beings, which makes nonsense. Usually, most of the answers are in our divulgations.

We are disciples, students, neophytes or, apprentices, as you wish; and they are MASTERS. "Cars don't go before the oxen." It is up to the disciples to listen carefully, with respect, what the Masters say, by the addition of the Mercy Divine, in these final crucial moments that Mother Earth and her children are living.

True Masters neither advance in Revelations nor knowledge beyond the people can receive and assimilate them.

"For a good connoisseur, a few words are enough."

Finally, to make clearer, we add that, the Father had invited all incarnated beings for the mentioned tasks to which they have committed themselves; but few accepted, others accepted, but soon gave up.

There are neither privileged nor protected in the Father's Administration and much less divine injustice. Faults found in the system come from humans.

*Margarida (in memorian).
She was born on 11/27/1923 and Died on 11/15/2014). She founded and answered for GESJ, GESH and ASJ.*

PREFACE

THE PLANETARY TRANSITION IN PROGRESS brings a compilation of information already presented to the GESJ since the 1980s, through its mediums, by Evolved brothers (Intraterrestrials and Extraterrestrials, Masters of the UGWF (Universal, Great White Fraternity), Mentors, Instructors or Guides of our Spiritist House) and insistently disseminated through all the means available to this House.

These calling of alerts have been presented since the 1950's by our Master Ramatis through his main medium, Hercílio Maes. The objective was to prepare the humanity for the Planetary Transition, when the Earth would reach a new evolutionary level, leaving from a world of atonement and trials to a World of Regeneration. Consequently, would shelter a more fraternal and morally evolved and spiritually population with common gestures of love, affection and charity. To this new humanity, new knowledge would be transmitted and minds would awaken to realities not accessible yet to human beings.

As I already said, however, before the New Age, we shall go through a period of transition that usually is very turbulent and inevitable, even if minimized in any situation of life, until a new order is established.

From our beautiful blue planet, tumors will be removed and wounds healed. It will be prepared to live a new moment accompanied by new people, suitable for this new evolutionary stage.

The fact is that the Earth is already prepared and awaits this moment, but men are not yet!

The planet still suffers due to human insanities. Wars, hunger, misery, disease, struggle for money and power, and no look to the Christ.

Jesus, the FATHER's Major Emissary brought, 2000 years ago, the rules of conduct that should guide the human being life, so that this transition was smoother. But the human being in his foolishness, vanity and others defects peculiar to men have been ignoring the Master's teachings giving an excessive value to material life, without paying attention to moral and spiritual values. Many other emissaries have been here after Him, but humans did not want to listen to them too. Spirits manifested bringing light to the Master's Good News by means of teachings compiled by the Distinguished Allan Kardec, but were not heard either.

Time has come the "Enough!"

GESJ, by its nature, was also called to the multiplication of warnings together with various working groups all over the world, in the last days of this world that we know.

This humble work expresses what our elder brothers have been telling us for long time: "Improve your inner renew in this key incarnation".

Most of us came declined from other places, in other times. We cannot fall again.

This book also brings hope. We still have time to change our behavior and the course of our lives.

After all, Jesus who is pure Love, He neither would not like to see his little brothers suffering unnecessary pain nor to waste more time in inferior worlds. He wishes our improvement on the path going to the Father.

This reading brings warnings about the "three days of darkness", the Intruding Planet approaching and Verticalization of the Earth's Axis.

Read it and reflect. You still have time!

Eduardo Pinho Carpes
President of GESJ – Grupo Espirita Servos de Jesus.

MASTER RAMATIS' WORDS

Beloved Disciples,

The Planet Earth has sheltered you for millennia but you did not yet reward all sacrifice and love granted you by the Gaia. Like ungrateful children continue destroying the earthly body, transforming the plenty into scarcity and beauty into horror.

Your actions based on passions, pride and selfishness have perniciously altered the mechanisms of the earthly life. The terrestrial globe still has its balance, because of the superior forces did not allow the disaster, since your malicious, ignorant and late actions cannot move the Planet in its universal structure.

The Forces of God lead the planetary life!

You are experiencing in the Planetary Transition the blessed resource in the God's Work for the cleaning of the "planets of atonement and trials", when the time comes for you to change and evolve yourselves for the Regenerating Planet.

In the God's mind, life begins, life begins, evolves and changes!

We send to you, callings of alerts about the critical moment of the planetary transformations and selection of the humanity.

Come on earthly men, since the advance of the eternal hour points out the short time you still have. Take the opportunity to self-renewal, brotherhood and love among you.

Love each other as Jesus taught you!

Love each other as God Father loves you!

This is the way to break free!

Jesus is Love! Only with Him, you can reach the Regenerating Earth.

Hail the Force of Light guiding us!

Ramatis is with you!

Blessed is Jesus!

Master Ramatis, 06/25/2021

BLESSED PLANET

Today we render honor to you, blessed planet that sheltered in your bosom, millions of souls, daughters of the Universe's father offering fraternal Love,

For long time, you were beloved mother of so many children who have moved away to other happier homes, others that still accompany you seeking your protection and finally others that may leave you for rebellion, until they come back asking for forgiveness.

Now, when you suffer deeply in your heart the last days of affliction, here we are as brothers planets, on this journey infinite to share with you the suffering the hour requires.

You will not be alone in this transitional moment because "the pain of this birth" is also ours, since we are children of the same Father sharing the same responsibilities.

Tomorrow you will be very happy with new garments in presentation impeccable to sit down one degree above the evolutionary scale of Beings.

You still present the abode of pains and sacrifices, but tomorrow may shelter sincere spirits looking for regeneration.

Blessed Land! Leave behind your suffering, because your expiatory time ends. That may materialize the Hope that many of your children wait from you!

Come to us! We want to support you at this time under the Lord's permission and Grace of your Spiritual Governor!

Involve you in that magical numbness provided by the vibrant Love with faith in this new time.

PLANETARY TRANSITION IN PROGRESS

...The work requested by dear Master Ramatis seeks activating internal devices in those who knew of the work, because while reading the messages triggers devices intimately, psychically, in those who have already decided to change themselves. It is another aspect of the Spiritual Pedagogy to help the numbed brothers of the humanity.

All this material is already in the public domain, however, our brothers of humanity overwhelmed with problems of life, they cannot take a step towards their own spiritual progress, often needing an impel to make them awake and see the Path of Light in front of them.

Those who are far from the spiritual reality, certainly find more difficult to access the paths toward the soul's liberation. Mainly the authentic materialists, not for lack of opportunity, because the Merciful Father pours out blessings over the entire humankind, for all his children to evolve, however is the free will that dictates to each one, the time of awakening.

Margarida,
GESH - 06/25/2021

01. MAKE YOUR LIVE AS SIMPLE AS POSSIBLE

Blessed is Master Jesus who involves with His Love, the suffering humanity!

The Earth going through transitory transformations is gradually creating an elective environment for the three days of darkness.

Some time ago, through messages directed to this Group, it was said about the three days of darkness approaching with a complete chaos in the matter.

Thence, we suggest to all brothers of humanity to prepare their aid kits, store necessary food consistent with own needs, dispensing everything superfluous.

Make your life as simple as possible, because when you open the doors after these three nights of anguish, pain and doubts, you will have to leave behind the society organized, the peaceful family atmosphere, only finding the chaos, very different from everything that you have experienced in your lives.

Faith must be strengthened. Absolute trust in the superior forces, in the Masters and in the extraterrestrial and intraterrestrial brothers. Many beings will feel a total absence of God in their hearts, when will not find in themselves, the strength able to sustain men before of difficulties, when suicides, murders and violence may grow worse.

Christians, already aware of the warnings that are not exclusive to this House, but disseminated in the entire Planet Earth, those who know this message, they must put them into practice and not join the violent mob in search of food, water and self-defense.

The so-called powerful ones will fall in disbelief when see their domains fall undo, as they are being built on weak pillars, over unstable soils, forgetting that everything on earth is ephemeral, a divine loan for the spiritual progress of the humanity.

Now, they take for themselves, the earthly power, forgetting that above them is a Major Power commanding and directing everything.

The course the Earth is taking is not due to unforeseen events, last minute changes and adjustments. For millennia, this programming has been implemented. Master Jesus, in the creation of the School Planet and Prison, with His privileged superior mind, had already foreseen that, with the arrival of the lower spirits that were trapped in the astral dungeons and in abysses, they would be present at the end the planetary cycle.

If the incarnate beings grant them strong intimate renewal, the contact with these beings neither can undo nor stop their spiritual progress.

Prepare your backpacks, although we do not know when the three days of earthly tremors occur. Observe in your society, when the social chaos begins triggering urban revolts, closer will be the three days of darkness, as the first "Enough", and after a period, the Planetary transition will be concluded on the Planet Earth.

Although many beings cannot understand it, as the divine mercy working on Earth, indeed, it is a singular opportunity of transformation for all of you, men and women, incarnated or not.

Pay attention to the prophecies. The work granted by Master Ramatis will put you face-to-face with messages, long ago forgotten and will revive within you, the warnings forgotten day by day in your society.

We remain with you in eternity, because Love unites us and the past coexistence before antagonistic, today it is fraternity, love and conciliation.

Nefertiti is among you.

Blessed is Master Jesus! Hail the Light that leads us!

Nefertiti, 03/26/2021

02. WARRIOR OF LIGHT CANNOT BE SURPRISED

Hail the Light of Master Jesus!

Blessed is His Magnanimous Heart!

I come to inform you about the transformations silently approaching on Earth.

The gear that moves the Planetary Transition cannot be stopped, although many prayers in supplications ask the Father for mercy, cessation of suffering, peace and harmony, return to stability of life they knew.

The request made by the Planetary Governor to the Father of the Creation, in order to give this humanity more time to regenerate itself, and to become Rightists, unfortunately reaches its end, and painful steps may come until the verticalization of the Planetary Axis.

The end of this time at request of Master Jesus, Major Brother on Earth that shall take place in the "three days of darkness" already appears on the horizon and inevitably may reach the physical plane. And so, the predictions contained in the Gospel and in the Apocalypse brought by the Apostles Mathews, Luke, and John are about to be seen with the naked eye by unbelievers, materialists and of little faith men.

In this way, as the Master said, it will not be enough to say: "Lord, Lord, I believe" to be saved, but through own actions and efforts to undertake the intimate renewal.

Based on the Peoples' behavior, it can be seen that many people ignore the Gospel handed to the earthly society for millennia ago and the most painful prophecies contained in its books are already in progress. In these books, the Master warned that at the end of time", there would be rumors of wars, parents would be against children and children against parents, and for affliction of the people, everything is taking place. The Master even warned that there will be Nations against Nations, pests and tremors would shake the structures of those whose faith was not built on rock, but on weak sand where in the first shock it would break into revolts against the Creator.

Humanity has been missing valuable opportunities to strengthen itself in the Light of Christ, and is not realizing the time urges.

The multitude of avengers from the abysmal underworlds approaching the Earth's surface may bring more diseases and chaos, as they believe that the Planet is out of control and the Leaders of the physical plane answer for the social, behavioral, economic and religious changes. They are as deluded as the incarnated ones believing that everything can see and command.

The Nazarene Master, in His infinite goodness, gives them spare-time to convert themselves to the Father's Christian love.

Based on the Apocalypse, it is close to sound the trumpets, as an ultimatum to this humanity. Not all upcoming events can be announced in advance, as there are no privileges, the effort shall be individual. The chaos of weeping and gnashing of teeth may reach in both planes.

Madness and suicides will befall the unbelievers and ignorant beings. It is also necessary to contain the anger for power by the powerful ones. Therefore, everything will take place according to the Divine schedule for the Planet Earth.

We currently monitor the High Commands of Darkness, who believe they are close to subdue the Earth. On the physical plane, few ones resist this power having silenced their voices, since the "Enemies of Light! at this moment, are in a large number conquering many minds that could be acting in favor of others.

The entire earthly population are receiving callings of alert and warnings, and the Light will guide those who believe in it and send to exile the debauched, merciless and unbelieving ones.

All opportunities are being granted. Thence, all those who work in the name of the Light must pray and watch. For some time, they may feel anguished and alone amidst the crowd, but we ask you to keep on faith, even though you live your pain, do not lose perseverance in your own transformation, even if your dear ones do not follow you.

Finally, I say once again, that the three days of darkness will overthrow "the unbelievers and the powerful ones", for they will not be able to support themselves in money and in power.

Remember my words, brothers, all that is writing will be fulfilled, in its time, in the mental and in the vibration moment of the humanity. Never a prophecy overlaps with another, as it may cause rupture in the vibratory layers of the Earth. So, waits the people's psychological moment to so that it comes true.

Pray, watch, be cunning and prudent. Observe the changes operating on the Earth, because a Warrior of Light cannot be surprised.

Honor the name of Christ, even when pain knocks at the door.

Master Jesus, and all of us, his followers, we are with you.

Isaiah, 03/19/2021

Note: Prophet Isaiah was born in 765 BC announced the coming of Messiah 700 years before his birth and that the Lord would give a sign and would be born of a virgin woman.

03. EACH COUNTRY HAS NEGATIVE FORCE BUILT ALONG OF ITS S STORY

May Jave be among us!

I faced difficulties in my life to attest my faith in the Light that guides the humanity.

Today, I place myself again at disposal of our God to clean up the planetary house that sheltered us generously, despite of our ailments.

We are fighting intensely with few warriors experienced in dismantling the millenary ties built by the community in each region of this planet.

Even today, humanity feeds the thought forms, which enslaves through its negative energy.

We received the task from the Hands of our Nazarene Master of, little by little, turning off these thought forms before the period of pain and atonement ends. The Earth cannot enter its new evolutionary level, having remnants of these formations.

Each Spiritual Guide of a country at request of Master Jesus shall disconnect the wires from these constructions.

It is a slow and dangerous job requires sidereal knowledge that no incarnate man on this Earth has yet.

I will name some countries so that those who listen to me may have the dimension of the danger of this task:

In the East, Iraq, former Persia, still has in that region, the thought form fed by the abundant black magic of wizards residing there. Palestine and Israel triggers wars that feedback the beings present therein. In Rome, the thought form of debauchery, lust, profligacy morals. France has the debauchery of its courts, which exported to the world aberrant behavior among men and women. England has Kings and queens in the domain of wars and bloodshed. China, which today lives its moral penury among the humblest peoples, has already dominated the Asian continent with Science and Philosophy. Japan keeps wars of domination of its emperors.

Each country has the negative force built along of its story.

In those countries, we do not find, through their people, united groups able to give us support on the physical plane, but we find individuals endowed with the messianic duty to help the humanity.

Even in the country of the Gospel, there are very few groups that we can count on them, since Brazil too has its negative thought form, which comes through the cities built on basis of the slavery of Indians, Negroes and today, of humble people.

It requires that we comply with superior orders without question or diverge about your need, once that the dark leaders seek their representatives on the physical plane, knowing that this is the last moment of dominion on Earth. After undone the traps that built, their empires will fall and the inevitable exile awaits them in barren lands. They no more will be able more, with their minds, to manipulate the population of a country or a continent.

Those beings who cannot be with us, they must beg to Master Jesus to help the humanity, because a thread is undone in these gigantic beings, the repercussion on the physical plane is painful, as if were removing the bandage hiding the wound, but once removed exposes the pain therein.

There is no gentle remedy for Planetary Transition. There are not more palliatives for the world today, but the bitter medicine, the painful surgery to remove those wounds that prevent the planet of advancing.

The extraterrestrial brothers are ready. Evolved intraterrestrial brothers not known to mankind, work intensely in this task at request of Nazarene Master.

May the strength of His heart, Master Jesus, sustain the selfless workers in this difficult, dangerous and painful planetary task!

Job is among you.

May I have the courage that was needed in lives past, to face once more the approaching danger.

Blessed is Master Jesus, the Nazarene Master!

Job, 03/19/2021

04. NOTHING WILL STOP US FROM WORKING AND FIGHTING FOR THE LIGHT

Blessed is Lord Jesus!

The Father's Love for us is what grants us the strength to continue working on planetary cleansing in all its categories and phases.

We face difficulty in collecting the souls that walk stumble among the embodied and in state of madness.

Although arrive the necessary warnings about what will happen on the physical plane, the brothers have no idea of the reality of what we can see in the invisible world. At random, as they say, disembodied already experienced, in the astral plane, they have their several commands in the neighborhoods and cities, which create ghettos, enlist the disembodied beings, who already lived in a deep violence when were incarnated. The ignorant ones also gather, who let them be dragged out of fear or foolish petty interests. It comes happening so the darkness can create a strong black current seeking to involve and entangle the unwary incarnated as participants in the materialization of their macabre domain in the matter.

In this escalation of horrors, the dark creatures pour out a strong noxious discharge, to manipulate minds and energies that involve the embodied beings, when in moments out of control, they tune in to them.

There is a variety of traps, like those where disincarnate in a violent confront.

There are several ways so that the darkness involves and attracts those associated with its intentions, including those who disincarnate under the ordeal of black magic or in murders cruelly elaborated, so that there is bloodshed and suffering.

All this happening in the infernal cities, where intensifies the attacks on the humble servants of Jesus working in His name. The goal is to gradually weaken and reduce this help, and to restore the loss of domain of their realms that diminishes at each battle.

Some infernal cities have been completely sanitized by light. However, the deleterious forces that unexpectedly incarnate men move, unfortunately sustains the Black Magic and the respective leaders providing the organization of small armies for their battles against the nucleus of light.

However, nothing will stop us from working and fighting in the name of Light and with brothers incarnated and disembodied who volunteer work with us.

We will continue until the end.

Luis Sergio, 11/13/2020

05. FIGHT TO KEEP THE FLAME OF CHRIST ALIVE

Beloved Father, we ask you, mercy for humanity that turns its back to Your Son, who came in sacrifice to redeem sinners.

The Angel announced to Earth that was necessary that there was a scandal, but poor would be the one who provoked it.

Humanity did not understand the deep wisdom of His teachings, as they believe that the Father's children should provoke the scandal. However, the scandal of which the Master spoke is the moral decay of humanity, which has already come to the beloved Planet Earth, with the intellect developed, but in moral decline.

Today, we see several scandals taking place on the planet.

The Rightists of Christ, who try to stand firm, following the Master's teachings, they are harassed by the shadows and unfortunately many are succumbing and others are moving away from those who kept them strong in the earthly battle.

The chaos has not hit completely the planet yet. However, until it arrives, lots of troubles will occur, because it is easier to embrace the illusory world, where it is not required of the creature commitment, resignation, respect, detachment, and work in the name of Light, when, then, they would have to give up privileges, earthly pleasures, easy life, and conquest of gold.

Thence, they are living in the golden calf stage again.

If you examine the lived moment, you will see that life of humanity happens in cycles, and you will see happen again the fall of Babylon, the golden calf and the fall of the Roman Empire, which today is the West.

You will see again the persecution of Christians.

The divine commandments, which were not at request of the Creator to the earthly people, but, yes, an order, a law to be fulfilled, you will notice that everyone is being relegated and eliminated from the behavior of humanity.

However, now that the apex of the Planetary Transition approaches, you will see that waters and storms no longer will reach only in one region, but across the planet, as well as all other elements of nature.

The few ones who resist harassment are like Christians in the arenas facing lions. These lions are the many antichrists that roam the Earth, wanting to del from hearts and minds, the image of the Sublime Master Jesus.

Nations of Earth have already turned against the Master and Eliminate Him from their homes and hearts.

Fight, my brothers, to keep the Flame of the Christ alive within you, as darkness advances hardly, not on those who are in doubt, on those who they have the faith and believe in the messages sent from the High.

These are the ones wanted by the shadows.

May the Light of Master Jesus sustain you all, and may you be ready for facing the chaos approaching.

Those who claim to be Christians, even if everything is against what you believe, remain faithful and believers in God.

Blessed is Jesus!

06. GOD'S LAWS ENCOMPASS ALL HIS CREATION

Blessed is Jesus, Conductor of our souls!

Brothers,

Do not break your steps towards spiritual ascension. Even with your physical bodies worn out by the action of time, your warrior spirits tread the pathway of liberation.

The difficulties and struggles faced in material life are the set of tests programmed for this existence, which will lead you to the path of light. At each stage won in the expiatory trials, your spirits are strengthened in faith, for new conquests that will direct you to the traced by your Master Ramatis, so that you can reach the high planes of the soul.

The Planet Earth advances in its transition. The catastrophic events that generate collective deaths will be the keynote for the emptying of the Earth in the "great selection between living and dead" predicted by Jesus, which already occurs among you.

Do not be frightened or feel powerless to change what is not in your hands. Continue working firm that the Plan of God takes place according to his Sovereign will. If there is suffering, it is a consequence of human beings' choices. It was not forged by the Mind of God, but by the earthly men's works.

Humanity has been alerted for some time about the future events and has done nothing to change the painful predictions that are now manifesting.

Humans attached themselves to the fanciful religious legends of fantastic heaven, blazing hells, eternal punishments and of a vengeful God. They remained tied to the immediacy of perishable matter, fearful of the liberation of the spirit. However, Jesus brought undying lessons that, once practiced, change the soul, bringing it into harmony with God.

Brothers, lift your thoughts to the Creator!

Change your actions as soon as possible. Even today, forgive those who hurt you, love God above all things and do to others what you would like they did to you that have penetrated the "gates of turmoil" leading the Planet to the Renewed Earth. With you occurs the trials of the Last Judgment, which lead souls to their destiny of renewal and progress or to planetary exile.

Our information is not fanciful! You doubt it, because you kept your souls, for a long time, immersed in the illusion of matter, disbelievers of the invisible universe that permeates the physical world, worshiping God exclusively on days fixed in the religious calendar and living everyday life only with lustful materialistic intentions.

A vibration of love draws potentates of Light to you; inferior feelings keep you tied to the currents full of inferior beings, stagnant in evil.

Overcome the barrier of moral and spiritual backwardness is the task of each soul, who must conquer the high planes on their own merits.

God's Laws encompass all of His Creation and, with equal opportunity, establish progress for all creatures.

May Jesus bless you!

Earthy brothers free you for the future of Light!

Paul of Tarsus is with you.

Blessed is Jesus!

Paul of Tarsus, 08/08/2020.

07. SPIRITUALITY IS NOT INDIFFERENT TO SUFFERING

Beloved brothers,

The Hercolubus planet envelops the Earth in its primal energy, but we warn you that it is still not working to its full capacity.

The extraterrestrial brothers obeying superior orders from their commanders and these, from the Planetary Christ control the energy directed by Hercolubus. However, as much as the violence is perpetrated by the society on account of excesses provoked by leaders, the broken families, the generalized madness in the social sphere, barbarism on Earth has not yet reached its peak.

Until the other day down, the Orb will go through very difficult moments in its physical structure, through catastrophes and disruption of the social order. Therefore, Hercolubus acts, but it is not only its energy that moves the Earth's moral decay.

You all will see the break in social stability, which begins with the family, the lack of evangelization and hidden interests, and increasingly, with each passing year, weaker the connection of religions and men with the Reviving Gospel.

When ends totally the influence of messages of the Master Jesus and no longer followed by humanity, then Hercolubus will be fully acting on the physical plane.

Possibly, many of those aware of this information now will not be incarnated to live this period, but will have our words in their minds. However, from the astral plane, they will see their loved ones, children, grandchildren, incarnated spiritual friends, suffering the last rescues in the harsh test of "end of time".

Creation does not do injustice. Superior Spirituality is not indifferent to the earthly suffering. Everything they go through is the result of the rash preterit planting. Therefore, cultivate the good seed today, to reap flowers and good fruits in the future.

May Peace of Master Jesus be among you!

08. JESUS IS YOUR REFUGE

May Peace and goodness be in your hearts!

Bothers, the conflicts and dissonance of actions in selfishness, pride and disrespect are of human nature itself, since creatures form the humanity that constitutes the worlds of atonement and trials are in initial stage of moral and spiritual development.

Unfortunately, the earthly humanity has been climbing its ascension very slowly, not deserving the sacrifices of innumerable superior beings who, abandoning their abodes of peace and harmony, dive into a physical body, in the density of third-dimensional material world, in order to awaken the unwary asleep ones in ignorance.

Jesus, the most sublime Being that came to Earth brought the liberating script to earthly humanity. However, the brothers of humanity attached to matter and temporal goods, unhappy passions and illusory attachments remain tied to this initial stage of the "infinite escalation" in evolution of beings.

The stage that you live in the Planetary Transition – the Apocalypse – is test for defining the destiny of the souls that inhabit the transitory world. The Hercolubus Planet intensely exerts its action in the core of souls, making the choices of the path to follow more difficult. For the materialist one, there is no other path than the satisfaction of the gross and limited senses of the physical world; on the other hand, those aware that wish to achieve progress and elevation of the soul, they face the harshness of earthly struggles and incomprehension of the mob.

Jesus is the Refuge for everyone who wants to reach the Renewed Earth. Change you, in the light of His sublime lessons, and go on, loving and forgiving, and everything else will be sent to you by the grace and mercy of God.

Peace and love in your hearts.

Ramatis, 08/01/2020

9. CHRIST IS THE ANTIDOTE TO EVIL

In the shadow of anonymity, heinous crimes are forged and remain unknown to humanity. However, in the criminal's soul, the deep marks of deformations link him to monstrous beings, which lead him into matter and outside it.

Brothers, the indifference with which you treat the exchange among your souls and others, invisible to your physical eyes, but real and concrete to your spiritual eyes, makes you puppets for the unfortunate and bestial beings of Darkness.

In guilty consciences, the negative connection points multiply, providing more and more concrete means for beings from the lower astral spheres to connect with the guilty mind, triggering obsessions that last for many lifetimes.

Crimes committed by creatures are not limited to what you can see and weigh. No way, brothers! The evil of thoughts and words also attracts, for those who send them, hideous creatures that manipulate them and consider themselves the owners of these souls.

Christ is the antidote to evil!

His lessons and His Gospel is the liberating example!

There are not fantastic miracles able to free you instantly from the invisible enemies that pursue you.

It is by means of continuous effort to change the direction of thought, emotions, hurtful words, that the guilty creature modifies its dense vibrations, raising them to the subtleties of transformation with Christ Jesus, being in a position to repel evil and connect with the Good.

Obsessions multiply in the current humanity, because the intelligent bad beings, using modern tools to manipulate the incarnated ones.

The more connected to matter and to everything that it can enjoy, neglecting the subtlety of the soul – thoughts and emotions – the more vulnerable the creature will be, predisposing itself to various obsessive degrees.

Free you, brothers, from the forces of evil, evangelizing your souls in the sublime lessons of the Gospel of Jesus.

Only Him is Way, Truth and Life.

De Miranda, Manuel Philomeno.

When you feel yourselves prisoners of disaffection or of unhealthy affections and passions attached to despair, sadness, rancor and hatred, know that other minds direct your actions.

It is up to you to initiate your detachment from the "shadows", illuminating your souls with the renewing light while practicing the Jesus' lessons.

Many are the selfless hands that desire your progress, helping you to reach the light of renewal, when you so desire.

Love and forgive!

Only Love sets you free!

Blessed is Jesus!

De Miranda, Manuel Philomeno, 07/31/2020

10. DON'T POSTONE YOUR AWAKENING

Beloved daughters, may the peace of Jesus be with you!

Thousands of lives lived in matter were not enough to heal human minds and hearts.

How long, brothers, will you remain ignoring the Jesus' call to adhere to His sublime postulates of evolution?

The time already reduced for this backward humanity, is becoming more and more restricted. In this process from the "end of planetary cycle" until the beginning of a "new time of peace and love", in which the Planetary Transition continues accelerated, suffering, pain and gnashing of teeth will no longer leave you.

Brothers do not postpone your awakening to the Light! Time urges to you abandon the hatred, indifference to needy neighbors, vices and vile feelings that keep you mired in the mud of spiritual backwardness.

You had with you, the most sublime Being of beauty and blazing light, living in transitory matter, bringing to you the example to follow in kindness and renunciation. Liberating lessons, His Word dictated to your ears.

After so many centuries and millennia, you do not understand yet!

You are still acting like troglodytes, despite your modern outfits. You are no more troglodytes! You have acquired awareness and responsibility for all your actions and then will suffer the consequences for your voluntary delay.

Jesus invites all those who believe in Him to take up the cross and follow Him to the Kingdom of God. Love and forgive one another. Be you one of those who, renouncing the matter, can penetrating in happy worlds.

Beloved disciples, do not postpone your spiritual progress once more. Work more and more with Jesus and see your pains reduced and your spirits strengthened to face the trials and reach the light in the High.

Sacrifice, renunciation, work, study and renewal. It is time to put into practice the knowledge gained from years of study at this initiation school.

We are always with you!

Blessed is Jesus!

From the Master who loves you so much.

Ramatis, 07/24/2020

11. WE FULFILL THE MAJOR LAWS OF THE CREATION

We salute you in the name of Light bringing you peace and love from our hearts!

Blessed is Jesus, Planetary Governor and Divine Light guiding us!
Brothers,

From Planet Patrol leave spaceships to Planet Earth moving at strategic points for the planetary rescue. Do not think that they are actions at random. The Divine Plan, which we are inserted, in obedience, respect and love, fulfills the Sovereign God's Will for the evolution of worlds and beings.

This humanity has, over the millennia, neglecting the superior guidelines, teachings of the universal truths of loving God and the neighbor, but beeping immersed in vices and degrading passions, full of pride, selfishness, hatred, desire for revenge, not advancing satisfactorily in the development of high values of evangelical morality, thus their souls remain dense and deformed by less worthy actions and thoughts.

Historically, over the human evolution on Earth, we have reaching out our helping hands to you, in accordance with the Father's Will. Extraterrestrial beings have reincarnated among you to accelerate 'your moral and spiritual progress.

You did not even recognize the sacrifice of Jesus, Being of Light who, in an unimaginable effort for the unbelieving human creature, took a physical body generated in the womb of a woman, also divine, to answer the appeals of earthly hearts, still so ignorant and in need of clarification to wake up! He was unrecognized and, for that, He was vilely murdered.

Jesus who is pure love and compassion remained with you and sent His emissaries to incarnate among you to encourage your awakening of consciences. However, you reached the "end of the planetary cycle" still delayed and ignorant, full of mud and slime of beings declined in their moral and spiritual development.

The extraterrestrial and intraterrestrial spaceships circulate among you, collecting thousands and thousands of earthly beings spiritually delayed to the planetary exile.

It is not us, your judges, but your guilty consciences that cause the opacity in your souls, smothering the divine light existent in all the sparks, creations of God.

We fulfill the Major Laws of the Creation, which determine the evolution of the worlds and humanity.

The Planet Earth greedily advances its movements to the higher dimension that will bring you peace and harmony. If its wounds deadly do not react, looking for subtler plans to regenerate itself from the aggressions suffered for millennia ended, it could perish in the dimension that suffers.

Thus, brothers, the Planet Earth, the terrestrial globe is a new being, young, that has just started its evolutionary journey, which premature destruction is not included in the divine plans, in this current cycle of life.

The circle of progress of the worlds is extensive and the Earth will still thread it, inhabited by elevated spiritualized humanities, with which it shares the ideals of brotherhood and love of life, in all levels and forms.

The Planetary Transition advances, full of struggles, pains and progress for those who look for ascension.

Be you on Peace and love!

From. Yours,

Commander Yuri, 07/15/2020

12. THE CHRIST'S CALL FOR ALL HUMANITY

Clairvoyance: I can see us on the battlefield (occurred on 07/05/2020), fighting bravely. It was as if we were watching a movie and the same time taking part of it. Indeed, I was watching the battle commanded by a superior Being speaking while walked therein. Only at the end, that Being introduced himself and allowed me to do the same. He was our beloved Commander Ashtar Sheran who seemed "human" close and real beside me.

Then, he said:

See! When we are fighting, we don't think about anything. We must keep the mind fixed on Christ. He leads us!

We are neither the "Crusaders" nor the "Holy Inquisition"; we are the Army of Christ, and in his name that we do the Earth cleaning. While illuminating the darkness with His blessed Light, we rescue the prisoners – who, by the way, are more prisoners of themselves than of their executioners – and we imprison the bestial creatures and the selection of this contingent of fallen and rebellious ones is carried out by beings who conduct life. These magnanimous beings fulfill the Major Laws of the Creation.

We are a tiny part of the whole, but meaning a lot for the manifestation of Light in the dark regions of the lower planes.

In the soldier of Christ's heart, cannot be resentments, desire for revenge, hatred, greed, pride, selfishness, and vices. Any inferior feeling incapacitates him to exercise the function of soldier of Christ, changing then to the category of those in need of help.

The Army of Christ on Earth is composed of common human beings, like you, incarnated and disincarnated, who have already surpassed the minimum levels of spiritual graduation above the uncontrolled, careless, ignorant, immediate human mass.

Consciously or unconsciously, everyone who has reached minimum levels of spiritual moral evolution that graduate them to join the Hosts of Jesus, participate in uninterrupted and vital activities of cleaning and sanitation planetary in the various functions.

The Christ's call is for all humanity! Thence, the one who awakens to the Light, he reaches renewal.

– And looking at the battlefield the Commander says:

See how many beasts, deformed creatures in their physiological constitution! Their wicked and guilty minds put them in this sad condition of rebels, deprived of love; however, the Divine Light dwells in all beings and a single superior thought, feeling or emotion is enough to activate the inner light and attract the superior universe for help.

The automatism of evolution is operation on Earth, in the solar system, pushing what is below to upwards and what is above even higher. The planetary cleaning advances. Your world changes itself in astral and physically, in the subtle planes, where the change is clearer.

Prepare yourselves for the shocks of planetary transformation, which has shaken the psyche of earthly souls.

Presiding the Great Earth Plane, Jesus embraces all souls leading them to the Lord's house!

"My Kingdom is not of this world" – "material world" – said Jesus! He reigns in the hearts of creatures, in tune with Universal Truths.

Peace and love in your hearts!

I am the One who guides you from heaven! I am Commander, Ashtar Sheran the Guide Star in the dark skies of the third dimension.

Our heart does not rejoice when we fight with the brothers of ignorance. Greater joy is serving Christ and loving God!

In reverence and submission to His Sovereign Will, we rescue the rebels so that, through the Laws of Creation, tomorrow they become the fearless angels.

Peace and love in your hearts!

Ashtar Sheran
He Who Guides You from Heaven, 07/11/2020

13. EVERYTHING THAT HAPPENS IN THE INVISIBLE, REVERBERATES IN THE PHYSICAL

The Energy of Master Ramatis was strong when I hear insistently his words:

Beloved disciples,

Congratulations for another victory of the Light.

‘Your victory is ours too’.

The Light continues invading the dark fields, brightening the Earth and expanding the Father's perennial life.

The clashes on the invisible planes of the astral continue fiercely and, at the same time, in conjunction with the efforts for planetary cleaning, you face them in the matter, consistent and compatible with the burning of your karma.

Disciples, expand your consciousness beyond the limited time that takes you in matter. Elevate your minds to the Supreme Source of Life, drawing strength and vital energies able to supply your souls with courage and faith, with peace and love.

The intraterrestrial cities are illuminated to receive in their lodgings more and more human beings from the earthly surface, most in spirit, after leaving their physical bodies on the cold tombstones.

The intraterrestrial beings rejoice in serving the Almighty Father in His divine job which drives life on the evolutionary cycle.

The extraterrestrial spaceships circulate freely around the terrestrial globe, in rescue of earthly beings and in exile too.

While everything happens, vibrant with transformation, life in all planes and dimensions, the human beings retain their minds and hearts only in the suffering experienced at this time, without realizing that the roots of their pain are in themselves.

You ask the divinity "why" of the stinging pains, without, however fulfill the Laws of God.

Winter, Summer, Autumn, or Spring seasons are confusing by planetary changes.

Everything that happens in the invisible reverberates in the physical.

The macro and the microcosm are transmuted in a perennial dynamic.

You have in your divine constitution the resources for spiritual ascension. Do not be attached to transitory forms!

Devote yourselves to the spirit and so that get rid of the worlds of atonements and trials!

Love one another, as Jesus taught you!

Dedicate a few hours of your time to the development of elevated moral values, transforming your souls to be in harmony with the Creator, who knocks at your door for the "last call".

May Jesus bless you!

The Planetary Christ takes care of the humanity!

Be you on Peace and love!

Master Ramatis, 07/11/2020.

14. THE LAST CALL

Blessed be Our Lord Jesus who with his love gathers all of us, former victims and executioners in the traffic through Darkness, today, regenerated souls in search of evolution.

Bothers, you have heard of death and destruction predicted in the millennial prophecies for the "end of time". This moment presents itself to you – the ultimate call – for humanity to recompose itself before the Major Laws, creating and maintaining Laws of life, in all planes and directions. These laws regulate life from the origin of the spark, present in the infinite evolutionary possibilities, in all realms, whether in higher or in lower planes. The Laws of God prevail, as they answer for the creation and maintenance of life. If we do not apply them to ourselves, we receive the due correction.

Each human being is at a different level of understanding about the moral laws of life, applying them according to his backward and ignorant understanding. However, in your mind hover the Divine Laws, engraved in the subconscious of the spark, being activated at the moment of awakening, flooding the creature with higher purposes.

No creature is deprived of love of the Almighty Father and, in the stage of evolution of this humanity, you could already have reached the collective transformation able to propel you beyond the dimensions of suffering and pain.

Each choice, each step determines the direction of the soul at this "end of planetary cycle".

The Earth moves quickly to abandon its dimension of suffering, causing changes in its geography and instability at its poles. The entire Nature shaken trying to adapt to new planetary realities.

The human being is the most fragile in this evolutionary chain. Attached to matter, he receives, in his inner core, imbalances and maladjustments of the transcendental phenomena of the ascending planet.

Do not look for answers to the many facts that occur in your society, because associated with the great planetary movement, there is the influence of the Intruder Planet, which, increasingly stronger, makes its primitive rays penetrate into souls, potentiating the untamed inferiority in all beings.

To the Rightists, we say: redouble your vigilance, nourish your faith and work tirelessly for the improvement of your Self, serving Christ at all times, as you continue facing many internal battles, until you reach the Planet of Regeneration.

You are called to fight!

Keep in tune with Jesus and His Hosts of Light, because the wild beasts that persecute you can defeat the unwary servant. You have the training and resources necessary to face the battlefield, composing the Army of Christ, which has been illuminating the darkness with the Light of fraternal help to thousands of souls imprisoned by Darkness.

Go ahead warriors of the Light! Renew your faith and confidence in the Plans of God, as you face the "last hours" of the planet of atonement and trials.

Do not think "these hours" are compatible with the earthly hours, which you know. The time of Eternity diverges from yours.

May Jesus, our Master, Guide and Tutor, bless you and lead the victory of spirit over matter.

Paul of Tarsus is with you.

Let us go to fight with Jesus!

Blessed is Jesus!

Paul of Tarsus, 07/03/2020

15. THE FIGHT FOR SPIRITUAL VICTORY IS YOURS

May Governor Sananda's Peace be among us!

The great load of negativity enveloping the Earth had prevented intergalactic armies – us, extraterrestrial beings – if we had faced the armies of the Beast more effectively.

Joining our forces, we are managing to break this negative barrier, acting in small battles spread by the planet. The positive balance of what you are living, brothers, is due to some places where there is convergence of thoughts to the Creator, helping to open holes in this "dense and sticky blanket" that surrounds the Earth.

If you could see this situation, it would be as if the planet were covered with "dirty, threadbare cloth" in which the sun can only penetrate through the holes. However, make no mistake: the negative beings are united and proud of their achievements in this humanity, increasingly materialistic, anti-Christian and oblivious to the suffering of their brother.

If we could compare the spiritual moment you live with others that have already passed on this planet, we would say that we only had seen it during the great wars that took place, with the difference that, today, with the great pharmacological, technological and social advances, panic is increasingly incomprehensible, fear and unpreparedness to live in current times.

If today, in the silent war, many are falling, we believe that you will not be prepared for the overwhelming wave that approaches the Earth.

On both planes, there are painful wars and casualties are high. We, extraterrestrials and intraterrestrial beings are ready for these battles, but we must count on the participation of the incarnated and the disincarnated ones.

This battle is not ours. It's yours!

And we are here, under permission of the Creator, Planetary Christ and Planetary Earth Governor, Jesus Sananda, to assist you. This battle is for your spiritual freedom!

You are not struggling to maintain yourselves eternally in material life, with your homes and possessions. The trouble is greater than your eyes see. The fight is for your spiritual happiness, peace of humanity, for planetary cleaning and for the restoration of this planet.

Lives will be reaped, families will be apart, but try to get out of the limitation of thoughts in which you have placed yourself. Look beyond! Do not be held in fear, the moment you live! There is a greater goal, there are greater achievements to be enjoyed if you can pass this test.

Keep on faith and on perseverance, cunning and prudence, but above all, love and trust that the Light leads each of you on your journeys, and that nothing will happen in your lives that is not programmed or that the Instructors are not aware that the support is not by your side.

Ariadne is among you. We are with you.

Brothers, warrior at the front of the battle do not lower the sword!

Blessed is Jesus Sananda!

Blessed is the Planetary Christ!

Ariadne – Extraterrestrial of Venus, 06/19/2020.

16. JESUS CHRIST, FULL OF LIGHT AND LOVE, HOVERS OVER YOU

Brothers, beloved children, disciples!

Here I among you fulfilling the promise made to Master Jesus of leading you through the sphere of progress.

I never gave up, at any time, to rescue you from Darkness to Light, since many of you were already part of my existence on previous planets and, even on Earth, when I was in physical body, some of you were with me.

You are very beloved disciples and we project for you a redemptive work plan, meticulously traced and supported by the Forces of Good that we represent.

Immersed in the flesh, you are subject to it and to everything that occurs in it, in that gross dimension; however, we assure you that, for the soul's future enjoyments – and we are referring to the soul's ecstasy in moral elevation – the pleasures you now feel are very small compared to those that await you, when you ascend to the higher dimensions, happy spirits, graced by redemptive victory.

The planet you inhabit now reaches its agony. Human attacks on his body, already wounded do not cease. Men go on, unaware of life in the various planes and kingdoms created by God, fiercely attacking it, already exhausted in its strength and vital reserves. You cannot see with your gross senses what happens on the subtle side, around you. However, we say to you: nature will react and you will be surprised with the falling of the storms.

Microorganisms that attack you, they come from dense regions by means of lower openings, caused by the dense energies released from you.

From the bottoms of the Earth to the most advanced civilizations of your society, spiritual physical chaos prevails.

Unbalanced minds, on both planes of life, grow worse in this chaos and lead to violence among brothers.

Never have you seen so many churches, pastors and religious of all stripes who have failed to understand the Gospel, who cannot lead themselves, much less evangelize their mob. They are blind leading the blind!

The Christ Jesus hovers over you, full of Light and Love and you cannot feel Him, remaining with minds and hearts in the dimensions of rebellion, hatred, revenge, pride, prejudice, selfishness and others.

Unbelieving in the Divine conduct, you look for miracles for the material body in cold temples.

Scientists' minds, in the shadows of harmful events for needy populations continue to build weapons to claim thousands of lives at a distance.

Where does so much inconsistency and ignorance come from? From rebellion, we assure you!

Your society will not reach the illusory material balance that you long for, until you destroy the borders of prejudice, animosity and indifference.

Love each other, as brothers that you are, doing to your neighbor what you would like for yourselves and, with peace and love, the world will be enlightened!

You have various means of doing this; what you lack is love to act.

The planet is in ascension! And you, brothers, where are you?

With Christ or against Christ?

Reflect on your actions and feelings up to this moment, as the "planet transition" advances and time runs out for you in this dimension.

May Peace and Love of Christ envelop you!

17. YOU FEEL THE ECHO OF THE SUFFERING

Beloved daughter disciples!

Peace and Love vibrate in you!

Daughters, disciples, you have already experienced this moment in other lifetimes!

The closer the collective trials, the more intense the sufferings.

You feel in your sensitive hearts the echo of the humanity's suffering!

Your hearts, filled with compassion before the sufferings around you, distance themselves from the objective of the soul, because the thoughts are occupied in search of immediate answers that will reduce the sufferings of the brothers of humanity.

You seek paths that, for you, seem safe, and that lead to the cure of sick physical bodies, reduction of penury of the hungry crowd, elimination of corruption and deviations from human morality.

Daughters! under the authority granted me by the Father, I say to you: There is no cure of wounds that afflict you, but the Gospel of Christ!

Look at the mob around you! Are hearts gentle and peaceful?
Are the planetary rulers mobilizing for peace and brotherhood among their equals and with distant peoples?

Is there forgiveness and love?

Make no mistake about the change in human behavior in this moment of panic and collective suffering.

Once the pain has passed, the primitive postures of selfishness, pride, vanity, arrogance and malice will be re-established in those who, for a moment, have hidden in their souls what they are, as there is a part of society that, even in the face of the suffering brothers around them, they managed to humanize themselves.

Daughters, we are with you at all times during the storm, which is just beginning.
Don't you feel my friendly presence?

Do not struggle intimately for this or that illusory truth!

The universal truth is with Christ!

Outside of Him, there is only darkness and pain!

Work in that hour as if it were your last, for in a short time you will no longer be able to do it to your satisfaction.

Your souls already show the soft color of the victory, however, there is a long road ahead, muddy and full of traps.

Do not stop at the struggles necessary for your liberation!

Beloved daughters and disciples!

I speak to your hearts!

Do not let yourself be dominated by the virus of fear, laziness, selfishness, and so on!

You are living in a serious moment and, in order to remain firm in your work, you must keep on faith and on love!

Peace and love to you from your Master,

18. DYE WITH DIGNITY

Sisters, may the peace of Christ be among you!

As my dear Guide said when I was incarnated: "Die politely, Chico!"

Why did he tell me that? Because death is an intrinsic factor in the life of an incarnated spirit.

We can see today, the panic of death spreading among earthly peoples. However, we do not see in the same proportion, the creatures taking care of their spiritual life or physical clothing.

For a humanity so concerned about living longer, we live very badly, abusing the matter entrusted to you, with addictions of all kinds, sexual disorders, inferior emotions controlling coexistence, all of this causes health imbalances.

There are emotions that contaminate the mob, such as: hate, passion, fear, loneliness, revenge and the extermination of enemies.

No longer need the late hours of the night, the dark corners of alleys, much less compromising whispers. No, now in daylight, in the hot sun, on the street, the price of one's life and what weapon will be used in the vile act to be perpetrated are combined.

Humanity lacks love, understanding the limitations of others, cultivating forgiveness without distinction, putting themselves in the other's side to understand their miseries and misfortunes.

But what can we see?

Fear of death is restricted to the physical world, in the loss of material goods that so much work and sacrifice had to accumulate; remain attached to family with intemperate love; one has the illusion that earthly pleasures are what give them happiness.

What we see now is that a single outbreak of threat to physical life is enough for everyone to adhere to matter. However, we do not notice the religiosity springing from the hearts, the intimate reform being implemented, we do not see the search of the spirit in the colloquium with the Creator.

Pay attention that you live is the mass disincarnating before your eyes. It is not Divine punishment or injustice, it is the much talked about separation of the wheat from the tares, the planetary transition in all its action without disguises.

It happens the natural cleaning action is not interrupted, but we do not realize the concern with lives lost in fratricidal wars, in the slaughters of childhood and adolescence, in the murders of unborn children, now so helpless by human laws, we do not see the commotion with old age helpless, with homeless people invisible to society.

There are so many reasons to exemplify selfishness, neglect and indifference to life that we, spiritual friends, tell you: we see no reason for the panic of death, when it is certainty in the life of those born in matter.

Be more fraternal, become better human beings, put into practice the Gospel in your daily life and thus, death will be just a rite of passage, a common act, like sleeping and waking up.

Peace for all.

Chico Xavier, 03/13/2020

19. THE EARTH ACCELERATES ITS TRANSFORMATION

Peace to every quarter of the Planet and in your hearts too!

Earthly brothers, who live in the last moments of the planetary transition, watch out for chaos precipitating itself on the physical plane!

The helpless, hedonists, lustful and ambitious ones ignore the signs that the planet has been showing us that the time has come to send the great warning to this humanity.

However, when hysteria becomes collective, we sorry that even those who read and believe in our messages will also join the planetary mob. It is enough to listen, read or believe in our words, it is necessary, at this moment, to you practice detachment and willingness to serve when the opportunity comes.

Even those who had heard and believed in the Nazarene Master at the time of His holocaust turned their backs upon Him.

The Earth accelerates itself, induced by Superior minds, its transformation from a primitive state to a more harmonious phase, through physical and astral changes, in order to rebalance itself.

However, even with all the opportunities and tools brought by the Superior Hosts, for the earthly population to also surpass this period of intimate renewal, there is no interest in modifying its mental and spiritual pattern. We see more and more barbarisms and antagonisms. The incarnated, averse to gentleness, ignore the help sent by the Messengers, as insights increasing the kinks and violence among nations, broken families transforming homes into incubators of criminals, intolerants, despots, reapers of peace and lives of others. As a result, the society loses its youth to suicide or freak out, committing atrocities to the unsuspecting ones who cross their path; corruption of customs and ethics prevails.

Religious, governmental, educational and family institutions close their doors to the Supreme God and His Agents, the greatest among them, Master Sananda.

And as a result of breaking the rules that maintain the balance of energy that sustains the Earth, little by little, the centers of light are undoing. However, the brave ones who resist, in opposition to what nowadays is considered "normal", the Rightists are today in a reduced number and harassed for not being in accordance with the current behavior.

When this pot of unruly emotions, low vibration energies and total disconnection with the Divine overflows, then will come the time for simultaneous geological revolutions, collective rescues and finally, the verticalization of the Earth's axis, putting an end to the phase of atonement and trials supported by the planet and beginning a new era in a climate and environment far from what you live today.

Therefore, your transformation is necessary and urgent, before the winds of change send you to backward planets with the same rebellious population that today inhabits the Earth Orb.

May the Light be where there is a sincere desire for transformation!

Peace to every quarter of the Planet and your hearts too!

Commander Ashtar Sheran, 12/03/2019.

20. BELHOD, THE NEW AGE KNOCKS AT YOUR DOOR

Beloved disciples! May the peace of Jesus be with you!

The cleaning of the lower invisible planes is in process. Dense negative layers are transmuted and neutralized by light radiating from the Christ's Army.

Many spirits imprisoned for millennia by past guilt, imbalance and madness, enslaved by lower passions, by low vibration feelings and kept slaves of dark beings, receive help, freedom by the Soldiers of Christ who work tirelessly in the planetary cleaning.

These soldiers representing the Forces of Good come from you, humanity! They are those who put themselves in tune with the Sublime Energy of Christ and, voluntarily, exert efforts to maintain themselves at high vibratory levels, linked by the threads of the active will for intimate change and that, while retiring in restorative sleep, their spirits unite with the greater guidance of Christ, in arduous works of cleaning and awakening souls asleep in darkness.

Battles that more and more take place between Light and Darkness take place on the invisible plane and, so, the darkness retreats and the battlefields are illuminated and sanitized by force of God's Love, through His divine emissaries who lead the Army of Light.

Do not think you are too little that cannot contribute to the battles for Earth's liberation. Every earthly humanity, every creature at disposal to serve Christ, can and must join the Army of Light, for the liberation of the planet that accelerates towards the new dimension of Light, Peace and Love.

There will be no truce, no rest for the good servants! He, who longs for his spiritual ascension, take his cross and follow Divine Master Jesus.

That the daily difficulties do not disturb your will in making progress. With courage and faith face the daily troubles, in the certainty of the support we give you, walking by your side, supporting in every moment of struggle on Earth.

Practice the lessons of the Divine Master Jesus, of forgiveness, love and charity to your neighbor.

Reach out the hands to the helpless ones of physical and spiritual planes. These who suffer on the invisible plane need fraternal hands to lift them up, clarify and lead them to new awakening situations.

Be you bearers of liberating words that life goes on intensely and fully, wherever the spirit follows.

God is Love, Goodness, Justice!

Wherever you go, may the Force of Light guide and support you. With you, we continue to work for the benefit of the Earth, expanding the horizons of Light, until you reach the Land of Regeneration.

May Jesus, Master Friend, bless you!

Master Ramatis is with you.

Blessed is Jesus!

Then He added:

To each one, according to his merits.

If you face struggles, physical and moral pain, then more you should give yourselves to the work of spiritual nature, as the development of faith guarantees you courage and strength to face the struggles on Earth.

Hail the pain, face the trials, so that soon you penetrate in the New Earth!

Blessed is Jesus!

Ramatis, 07/19/2019

21. IT'S TIME OF PLANETARY TRANSITION

The current difficult events occur so that the Earth fulfill its ultimate goal of Planetary Transition.

The society, increasingly violent, portrays the picture chosen for the Doomsday. Social, human and family relationships, increasingly bellicose, may become a common behavior on the planet.

Compulsory incarnations are supplanting those of beings who are able to program their reincarnating or a harmonic and orderly readjustment and accelerates the advances the reincarnation of the most indebted spirits for their final rescue.

The inferior astral, with its doors open, facilitates more and more antagonistic encounters. It is tenuous the barrier that separates enemies of the past from enemies on the physical plane.

Wars, violent deaths, revenges are not choices of the Superior Spirituality to break out among the brothers of humanity at that moment. However, giving free course to the program of "end-times", we know that these events are natural in periods of planetary transition on third-dimensional planets.

So, these spirits have the opportunity to drain some of the high toxic charge they bring in their astral bodies, so that be able, when exiled, to bring less weight into their new abode, being able to inhabit a body and continue the spiritual evolution.

The Earth has already lived moments like this, where sexual disorders are becoming so common that no longer cause amazement among its inhabitants; where corruption does not allow the less fortunate beings to lead a dignified life and no longer causes indignation in society; where corrupted authorities increasingly distance themselves from the people, which they should lead, guide and support.

When looking at the mankind history, everyone assure that these reported facts have already occurred at some point in the past.

However, today, the difference is that these occurrences are no longer isolated. This type of behavior, due to compulsory incarnations, becomes common across the planet. And so, when Superior Spirituality judges that it is "the time to Enough", the three days of darkness will come, humanity will experience a more painful period, when hunger, disease and violence will be epidemic all over the planet, until the final moment that will culminate with the verticalization of the Earth's axis.

Do not think, earthly brothers that everything is at "pleasure" of men, as the ones who decide the conduct of the planet, or that the dark command of the Beast dominates the Earth. There is, yes, a Superior Command under the orders of the Planetary Governor, Master Sananda, guiding and leading his Vineyard. If there is no established chaos, it is because this Command exists. If the Earth were in the hands of the Dark beings, Reptilians and Beast, due to the lack of rules of conduct and of responsibility, they would have imploded this Orb a long time ago.

Hold on confident, those who believe in the Master's words. Only those who keep on faith in the Hosts of Light will remain safe on the path.

May Master the Peace of Master Sananda be among us and the Earth remain firm, despite the violence it suffers.

Blessed is Jesus!

Orion Command, 07/07/2019

22. ALERT TO BROTHERS OF HUMANITY

Beloved disciples, peace be with you!

The "World of Caesar" requires extra contributions from those who are immersed in materialism. More and more dependent on comfort and technologies, the modern man sees himself entangled in crimes, passions and vices, gradually losing contact with the Major plans, with the Divinity that sustains life. With an undisciplined mind, empty of superior thoughts and of sublime feelings, man becomes a puppet of the subverted minds of beyond grave.

What are you doing, brothers, with the Sublime Lessons that, with sacrifice, the Being of Light brought to you? Where will you arrive with such insubordination with the God's Laws?

The heinous crimes and barbarism surrounding your environment that make upset collectivities, are coordinated by intelligent rebellious minds from the Beyond Grave. The only way to free you from suffering, chaos and madness is the Divine Script brought by the Being of Light, Master Jesus. Not in keeping by heart, the words of the Gospel, but in its sincere practice, in modification of the soul through the high moral precepts: "Forgive; love your neighbor as yourself; do to your neighbor what you would like to o you; have compassion and mercy with brothers of humanity; be meek, humble, kind".

The "times have arrived" and you cannot stop the avalanches of events, in the fulfillment of the prophecies announced in all corners of the Earth.

He, who is in tune with the Hosts of Light, who seeks to renew himself in the light of the Gospel, keep the mind free from unhealthy thoughts and negative feelings; have control in speaking and acting, for the uncontrolled mob of the invisible plane may invade the minds that vibrate in your lower frequencies.

Alert the brothers of humanity about the Light of the Highest Planes that hovers upon you, bringing vibrations of love and hope from Beings of Light, but you must strive to reach those messages of Love surrounding you, since it is easier to reach the inferior emissions.

Do not rebel before pain, injustice or misery. Have compassion, selflessness and love. Always forgive and work for the improvement of yourself.

The Earth's transformations advance upon you. Take your cross and walk under the aegis of Christ Jesus to fly beyond the planet of atonement and trials, reaching the Planet of Regeneration.

There are many Beings who, in the name of Christ guide you.

Come, brothers! Jesus, our Major Master, will sustain you in your liberation.

May Jesus bless you all!

Blessed is Jesus!

Ramatis, 03/02/2019

23. THE EARTH WILL BLOSSOM AGAIN!

Hail, beloved brothers, children of the Almighty God the Father!

The Earth will bloom again!

The divine promise, long awaited by the superior and friendly spirituality that leads this planet, will be fulfilled. But first, the Earth needs to be plowed and have the weeds removed, so that the flowers and birds can return to the place with their original purity.

Humanity needs to get rid of dirty and of stained garments so that, when entering the flowery fields that will cover the future planet, it will have new outfit, a clean soul and energy compatible with the renewed Land.

The emptied abysses will no longer be useful on the new Earth. When the gates are opened and these fields of pain, darkness and hatred are emptied, when everything is clean, sterilized and sanitized, they will be closed, never to be inhabited again by beings rebellious to the Divine Laws.

The new humanity will not feel the crying, gnashing of teeth, illnesses and moral decay emanating from its depths. This is the scenario that we bring to the brothers of humanity, of what is about to come to Earth, after completed the necessary and fair cleaning for this Planet.

If all those who hear our words yearn for this paradise, which they have never been before, may they offer themselves in love, charity and dedication to work in the Father's name, giving themselves and to their neighbors a moment of their day for meditation and for fraternal word. Wars in the Astral are necessary and, as cruel as they seem to humanity, even more cruel are the wars that take place on the physical plane. On the astral plane, the objective is superior of cleaning and to restore harmony to the planet. Wars on the astral plane are to unite, rebuild and to sanitize. Wars on the physical plane bring chaos, pain, separate families and eliminate brothers, in order to preserve wealth and maintain power.

One day, all human cruelty and pain of those most susceptible to it will cease: of children, animals, plants, seas, elementals. One day, the Earth will be the yearning of the spirits to live the regeneration.

Many spirits, on other planets, who are awaiting their incarnation on the Earth of regeneration, eagerly seek the High in prayer, so that the cleaning takes place as soon as possible, and the Father's promises are fulfilled here, as the elect ones await their new home, recovered and regenerated.

All of you, brothers of humanity are invited to participate in the banquet in your new abode. It is enough that God's plans be fulfilled and that you follow what the Angel of love, forgiveness and charity left for everyone.

Have compassion with those who do not understand yet these words, because they will be the future humanity to be helped by you and by those who will enter the World of Regeneration.

Those who are part of the rightists, who will be rescued until the end of the planetary transition, may they surrender their spirits to the Father, without regrets and without attachment to those remained behind, because the task that awaits you is beautiful and great.

May the Light of Master Jesus, the Greater Angel, be among you!

Angel Gabriel, 02/16/2019 Jacaraípe/Serra/ES

24. NO COUNTRY WILL GO INTACT THROUGH THE PLANETARY CLEANING

The forwarding of facts on the physical plane, precedes the changes that the Earth will have to go through.

Without any date predicted in the schedule made for the planet, we report that dense and dark mass rushes to the physical plane. The Earth axis structure will not be shaken before the necessary time.

It is known that karmas are accelerated and collective disincarnating is taking place and the encounters in matter are increasingly harmful and violent. It is because is not easy to contain the great negativity surrounding the Earth.

Rushing to the physical plane is not carried out indiscriminately. No innocent will be harmed in this process. Everything is programmed and planned for the events that will come in the regions and people that may be affected. Whether in Brazil or in another country, everything is programmed according to the karmic need of the group.

The region of Minas Gerais/ Brazil, where many lives were recently taken, brings in its soil a lot of pain, tears and revolts caused by greed and fever for gold and diamonds. Many insurgencies took place in those lands and in one way or another, each one is fulfilling his/her karma, adjusting his/her accounts with Brazil and with the planet.

No country or nation however powerful, will go intact through the planetary cleaning.

The Earth is under superior and loving protection, even so it is not far and no one will leave it without paying the last cent.

May the Light be among us and each one, fulfilling his karma, move to a new lighter life, but renewed.

That is the function of an incarnation.

Blessed is Jesus!

Hail the Light!

Nefertiti, 02/01/2019

25. HELP TO THE LITTLE ONES WHO SUFFER ABUSE

Clairvoyance: I have seen embodied and disembodied children receiving assistance from doctors on the astral plane and being referred to psychologists in the Servants of Jesus Spiritual City.

They showed me that were children who lived a life of abuse of every kind. I realized that beside the incarnated ones, there were friendly spirits to intuit them to seek the help of trustworthy people; the disincarnated were rescued from their suffering.

However, at all times they checked the children's karmic form and analyzed their past and present situation in fulfilling the karmic law.

Then came the message:

Sisters, may the Light of Beloved Jesus embrace the hearts of those who collaborate in His Vineyard.

We have formed a group of sisters who, united with the Hosts of Mary, help the little ones, disincarnated or not, who live in torment for the abuses suffered at the hands of those who should guide their moral and Christian conduct.

By an invitation of Master Ramatis' loving heart, here we are, looking for help from the Servants of Jesus Home to bring the relief and psychological support for the children's fragile minds and young people who suffer abject abuses, corrupting their childhood and distorting them the behavior in psychological and social formation.

In these conflictive and malicious relationships, there is an influence of shadows over the incarnates in the sense of awakening in the memory of these little beings, the social, especially sexual impropriety, transforming them into generators of energies for their insane actions.

This is because these children and young people carry in their past a very strong harmful behavior linked to sex or to the black magic that awakened the Kundalini energy (note: energy generated by the basal chakra, located at the base of the spine, responsible for the creative energy, very intense in each human being, which can be used positively or negatively, depending on how it is developed).

We seek help for those little ones, through the valiant sister Joana de Angelis and her loving and experienced Psychological Team, bringing caravans of discarnate children and youths, and also incarnated, during the night's sleep, to the Servants of Jesus Spiritual City. All go through long sections of therapy and, if necessary, are also referred for medical treatment in the astral body.

Most of the rescued spirits have already suffered this violence, but also those who live in an environment conducive to such an occurrence. In this way, we help in their awakening and in search for help.

There are many sad stories already in their small stays on Earth, but we always rely on the Divine Light to support the disinherited ones of fortune, because Love is the best remedy to heal the hearts suffered.

Brothers of humanity, join us in prayers, because Jesus and Mary are for all!

Be you on Peace and Light!

Clara de Assis

26. TO TRANSFORM IS TO EVOLVE

From the birth of Stars and Worlds, on the settlement of planets, in the birth of sparks, God is in everything. His mind projects everything; His will drives the progress creating Laws that maintain the stability of the Universes and feed life throughout His Creation.

Children, he, who believes in this Creative Force cannot fear nothing, for without it, we are nothing.

The world you live in, it is full of His Loving Presence, driving the transforming events of sparks and worlds.

The beings of creation represent the Creator.

To transform is to evolve.

Suffering is purification.

The evil, transitory farce of the ignorant.

He, who longs to inhabit the heavenly planes must not be afraid to pour out the bitter cup that converts the sinner, transforming and cleaning his tunic for to inhabit the New World.

We are many who respond to the Creator's call; we come to you, uniting us with Christ in order to assist you in the crucial moment of the Planetary Transition.

We inhabit the Sun which, as a Flame of Life, warms your days.

Do not worry for those who disbelieve in our existence; all of you were once ignorant, and they can awaken too.

Go on to progress, as the Laws of God are dynamic and always drag the rebels to new opportunities, until they reach an understanding of the need to evolve, and take the reins of their own destiny, as you are doing at this time.

Do not regret the pain and suffering, because they represent, for each being, the passport to a better World. But, brothers, reach out your hands to ease suffering, quench thirst, feed hunger, cover the naked, for it is Him you serve, Jesus Christ of God. And, living His Gospel, you will reach the world you built with your will to evolution.

May the Greater Light guide and sustain you in this hour!

Stay on Peace of Christ.

Being of the Sun, 08/6/2016

27. FORMATION OF THE POPULATION OF AN EXILE PLANET

Brothers, hail the Light!

Hail the Divine Presence of Master Jesus in this room!

The marks that corrode at "end-times" societies on all backward planets are the ones that leave the deepest scars in the minds of those who have already awakened to spiritual reality. However, this does not serve as an argument for the new harvestman to abstain of his responsibility for the events that have been taking place in the world, even if his contribution were in past lives.

The fall of a humanity, in critical periods of planetary transitions always comes accompanied by great technological advances, whether in the medical, pharmaceutical, information, energy, transport areas or in several other sectors where, erroneously, material interests are above the spiritual values. But this is not a new event. We see increasing the moral decay of a humanity, which is able to coexist peacefully with social aberrations, which are gaining more and more headlines in newspapers, being, at every moment, run over by others with greater impact.

Thence, the plots subtly constructed and put into practice by the vigilant beings of darkness go, in a subtle way, anesthetizing the crowds, acting as opium for a mass that exalts the beauty and humiliates the simple ones; who flatters the rich and the smart ones and despises the honest man and the good citizen.

And so, by election, constitutes the population of a planet of excluded, or exiles, where all those who despised their neighbor will need a lot of help to advance in their development. Where the corrupt politician will beg for kindness of others; abortionists will have difficulties to reincarnate and then they will form new couples to beg the little newborn who wait anxiously for the unfulfilled desire and those who practice sexual crimes today will be the future deformed and with sick reproductive organs.

And so, for many millennia, they will be seen to beg for Peace, mercy and justice for their errors, without realizing that the chaos in which they live comes in the same intensity as the pain they inflicted on others. They reap the thorns of the past sowing.

Many beings who listen to us today will think that we are here as a form of torture, threat or frightening the most sensitive beings

No, brothers! What we say is for the mercy of God, who allowed us to alert you, while incarnated when are offered every opportunity to have a new future, which is in your hands. Do not doubt that your destiny has always been and will always be in your hands.

Therefore, be more and more meek with your neighbor, and more severe with yourself, when you go to judge any actions.

May the Light be with you.

Archimedes, 06/10/2016.

28. WE ARE CLOSER TO YOU THAN YOU MIGHT SUPPOSE

Brothers, may be on Peace the people of the surface!

We, from the Intraterrestrial civilization, are not - as the surface people says – out of your sight and you are not far from our hearts.

You are, all of you, our affections that we take care of for successive lives, in the midst of encounters and disagreements, throughout the various plots that Fate has placed over you. We also have for this planet – who sheltered us in her bosom – an immense gratitude, because as all creation of the universe, we are also eternally in evolutionary process, seeking our spiritual emancipation.

Our work inside the Earth goes beyond preparing shelters for brothers of the surface in periods of transition planetary and verticalization of the Earth's axis.

We have also the function to application of the vast knowledge acquired in different planets, in the maintenance and preservation of earthly life.

We operate in more specific processes, such as, in protection of fauna and flora, sustaining and recovering their environment from the aggressions received from inhabitants of the planet.

We have highly trained scientists who work to reverse, when and as long as possible, harmful actions of men in the aquatic environment, such as seas, rivers, lakes, swamps and mangroves. We also act in the control of atomic energy used irresponsibly.

However, what is not possible for us, even at the cost of human lives, is to interfere and modify the free will of embodied beings, because the mistakes and correct that promote the transformation of each being are necessary for creatures to reach the high levels in the spiritual hierarchy, being the natural path to follow.

So here we are, closer to you than you might suppose. We walk among you, we study your actions, we study your actions, tendencies, vibrational changes, customs and so on, because at the end of this humanity, many of you will live together in our cities, participating in our day by day and thence we have an invitation: study to learn more about us, so that, in case of rescue, you come to our house and may have a pleasant surprise without the disturbance caused by ignorance of ignoring our people, who have been here on this planet longer than you.

We are brothers and our interest and work dedicated to you and to the environment in which seeks love, fraternity and universal harmony.

May Peace and Light unite us in the same interests and ideals of progress and of helping others.

Peace for you all!

Intraterrestrial Orcadim, 04/05/2016

29. PRAY AND WATCH IS WHAT WE RECOMMEND

Brothers! Peace of the Masters to you!

The Earth faces serious moments. We invite those that have already awakened the spiritual mind to receive the incoming messages. Those who believe without seeing do not lower the guard in wartime, because, we sometimes, notice negligence and imprudence dominating and making you to made decisions and actions not justified given the information you already have.

We assure you, the planetary peace is not yet part of everyday life on the Earth, while you live the "End of Times". But you can find yes, in places like GESJ- "Grupo Espírita Servos de Jesus", an oasis of peace and harmony to recover you for facing what life calls you, either as testimony of your faith, or to fulfill your karma in process.

We alert you, not to so that the panic and fear freeze your emotions and annul the evolutionary evolutive jump of the children of the progress, but because of those leaving from the Abyss - including your fiercest enemies. They won't come with flowers in the hands and pardon in their intentions, but to apply the justice they believe in the right of imposing, longing for retain longer, the physical sensations of hunger, thirst, sex and power that their bodies no more can satiate.

Then, not better that be attentive with those around you coming from the darkness, seeking those in tune with them in thoughts, ideals and energy. Bear you in mind what you think, want, attempt, speak and how you act in your lives, appear in the astral as a great neon sign for those with which you are compatible, in likeness and behavior.

Brothers, you don't give your future, full of fortunes, in the collector's hands that didn't understand yet that hate can become love, and revenge can be annulled, if the pardon - without pride is offered willingly.

We know that you did not reach yet the landings of blessings, but we assure, be to the unhappy one beside you, as to yourself that it won't be denied or impossible to reach, since you come to our direction for us to free you from the chains that arrest you to the past.

We unceasingly repeat to you do not forget so that the humanity does not live yet the peace wished by the Masters to their pupils.

Then, pray and watch is what we recommend.

John the Baptist, 06/30/2015 - Vitoria/ES - Brasil.

30. THE EARTH OSCILATES DANGEROUSLY

May the Universal Light I strengthen the Planet!

More and more strong is the energy applied by the Masters to keep balanced the Planetary Axis.

The Earth oscillates dangerously due to the strong noxious energies spread by the earthly atmosphere. They are energies of hate, lust, revenge and power affecting the Earth's balance, which have high sensibility and susceptible to that denser energy.

For that reason, it also demands a larger effort by the spaceships of sustentation, so that the geophysical chaos doesn't occurs before the hour established by the Sidereal Engineers, under the Creator's Orders.

The increase of collective deaths also seeks to reduce the impact of negative forces over the Power of Light. The reduction of the earthly human mass, after great catastrophes, brings a sense of solidarity and quick harmony, necessary to break the dark structures and, then the Rescue Parties win precious time for the rescue.

Brothers, all this is carefully planned, without damages or surprise.

Blessed is the Planetary Christ! With Him we will go on in our Stellar Mission.

Patrol of the Universe - GESH - 05/03/2015 –

31. WORK AND UNION

Brothers, at this time, the puddles of the inferior astral plane are in tune with the physical plane, exerting an intense influence over the earthly inhabitants.

The bitter sufferings poured upon this humanity must be seen as the necessary cleaning of the Earth's psyche, cleaning of souls to follow in the progress mat.

Collective deaths will become commonplace, as the Sidereal Technicians gather souls alike by the failing in their commitment to others and to the Planet, grouping them so that, together they leave from the physical plane.

Natural catastrophes that trigger collective deaths do not generate hatred, but clean the soul from past faults.

The apparent planetary balance is illusory, since the continental layers seek to adjust and the intense pressure that the Planet undergoes – due to the proximity of the Hercolubus Planet and increase in the psychosphere density – creates a favorable atmosphere for the geophysical structures to settle down seeking a new formation provoking chaos.

Sufferings that plague the humanity mean heal for the sick soul; bitter medicine that must be ingested by each one, in proportion to they need.

Do not blame your neighbor for the misfortunes you face. Those who voluntarily sow chaos will inevitably have to adjust with Divine Laws on this or other Planet. Those who suffer the disastrous consequences of wrongdoings with themselves or with the neighbor reap the past sowing.

Therefore, brothers, you must resign yourselves to the sufferings you cannot avoid.

Seek to minimize the pain of your neighbor who shares with you the painful harvest.

Exert efforts to forgive offenses and love your neighbor connecting your minds and hearts to the Sublime Spheres where the Beings of Light dwell; and Jesus, our Master sustains you in this suffering hour.

Each incarnated being may face the troubles necessary for his/her evolution. Thence, the suffering unites all humanity in the rescue of their faults and whoever does not let himself succumb to the Forces of Evil, by revolt and crime, overcoming his own inferiority, will find the Earth of Regeneration, which is not long in being born.

Beloved brothers, Jesus is with us. Do not doubt his Love! Call Him to you feel Him, sustaining you in this hour of trials.

The Masters of the Universal Great White Fraternity), gathered nearby the Earth, send their healthy energies to supply their disciples and all those in tune with the Good with strength and courage, as the hour is serious for this humanity and for the Planet, and you all need the Superior Energy to move forward, transforming your souls, overcoming the mires and achieving peace.

I am your Master and Guide who have sought to gather you since millennia.

You arrived at the Apocalyptic time with your souls still immersed in shadows, and now, in order to reach the light of renewal, you must exert much efforts to lift yourselves above the current darkness.

The tests are many, and more intense will become, since you have chosen, the end of the "planetary cycle" for your definitive transformation.

You walk safe with our presence, guiding you through storms and gales, because it is necessary to clean your spirit. In the pains suffered while facing the trials, you must ignore them and go ahead resigned and grateful for the blessed opportunity, and you will be victorious in fulfilling the tasks of a moral-spiritual nature.

The dark beings prepare traps against you, but daughters, you have strength enough to overcome them and, when you have the bodies hurt, do not let pain hurt your minds.

Join around the work with Jesus! Join around the Christian activities by means of doctrinal-mediumistic practice, since the chaos is settled down on the invisible plane, where arrive the souls collectively maladjusted with the Laws of God, ignorant of life after death. They beg and accept help offered by the Hosts of Light, on the invisible plane.

Sisters, work tirelessly in the Vineyard of God receiving the suffering brothers with love and charity, so that they awaken and achieve the balance necessary to evolve. There are thousands of suffering spirits walking with you, making life in matter even more difficult.

Behold the message we bring you: work and union.

Work more and more, beloved daughters, that is what we ask for your own progress.

Hail the Force!

Hail the Light! Blesse is Divine Master Jesus!

32. THE ANTICHRIST PRESENCE

Brothers,

Intolerance among men is the most painful reality of the Apocalypse.

Since thousands of years ago were foreseen the signs identifying the Doomsday: brothers ignoring each other; parents and children becoming enemies; hunger and war devastating the human collectivities. It is the Antichrist's presence manifested into bloodshed, violence and barbarism nowadays.

The whole Planet is suffering, and all humanity shouts for peace. The human voices join in laments of pain and suffering due to the human losses by savagery actions among men.

It is the time we announce, not as punishment of the Creative Father, but as disastrous consequence of human actions over millennia inhabiting the beautiful Planet Earth. Waves of terror grow more and more; the innocent victim by the crowd driven by the Beast's perverse mind; brutality among men and family groups fighting to the death.

The fragile human constructions, prisons that shelter the detractors of law mean nothing against the ferocity of those that, without school, homeless, without government support were created free on the streets, without discipline for their rebellious souls. They are Beings with intelligence improved over existences in crime that find the ideal conditions at this time, to conspire and commit crimes, deviations, and diabolical plots against the rulers and the whole terrestrial society.

Wherever has a creature with wrongdoing tendencies, therein have groups to usurp the one's property. They acquire fortunes without effort to blemish the innocence, plotting diabolical revenges. The physical and spiritual planes show the painful picture of the Doomsday in which you live.

The extraterrestrial spaceships circulate among you, pouring up positive vibrations to minimize the violent impacts of your emanations, assuring the Divine Plane to follow its course. This way giving opportunities so that all human beings embodied or not, to make new choices, and to leave from the dark areas of the Planets of Atonement and Trials to a better world.

However, brothers, few are those able to access the high vibrations emanated by Sublime Beings that drive and govern the Planet and the whole humanity; few ones may reach the Promised Land.

The chaos in which you live, it is not divine punishment, but mere consequence of your negligent sowing.

Lord Jesus who governs this humanity, He is nearby the Earth, as it advances to end of the Apocalypse, and pains more strongly visits all earthly creatures.

Keep on faith, he, who believes in the Supreme Presence conducting life, controlling the events of the Planetary Transition, because will see shaking the civilization structures, and broken the barriers of sanity provoking madness and foolishness even larger in human actions.

Faith that will guide you in the turmoil of the final proofs, in which you live.

Each one who resists to the attacks of Darkness, he/she strengthens the soul, in order to face and to win all battles, and, finally reach the victory in the Light.

Here is your brother John the Baptist alerting you to keep your thinking and acting based on Christ's Gospel, because only Him is the support of all souls, against the painful Apocalypse.

Blessed is Lord Jesus! Love and Peace forever!

John the Baptist - GESH - 03/07/2015 - Vitoria/ES - Brazil

33. THE STRUGGLES GROW WORSE ON THE EARTH

Beloved daughters, peace be with you.

Struggles grow worse on the Earth. It refers to the materialization of the intense battles in the invisible plane.

The dense negative charge surrounding the Planet, arising from embodied and disembodied human beings and the strong influence of the Intruding Planet provides the means and conditions necessary to materialization of intense battles and presence of negative beings in human collectivities.

Many spirits attached to earthly passions and material goods, besides the dark spirits roaming among humanity, all of them have managed to materialize on the physical plane, not only through mediumistic sessions of black magic, but wherever human collectivities gather, and revolt and hatred are manifestations of the majority. Therein, beings that inhabit the lower invisible planes find favorable environment to manifest themselves, often without the incarnated person being able to discern whether what he sees is a materialized spirit or another incarnated being.

The beasts are closer to the embodied beings 'minds, due to the dense psychosphere of this humanity with conflicts, wars, abuses of all kinds and vices that degrade the soul. Few are those who address thoughts of peace, love and kindness to the Planet and its humanity. However, those who keep on faith, they reach the Light of the Divine Master who, from the High sustains the drama of the Apocalypse.

Those incarnated at this time, are millenary souls that neither overcame their own inferiority nor were victorious from redemptive trials and, at that moment when ends the Planetary Cycle, they receive from Divine Mercy as the last opportunity to reach a better world.

Rightists struggle against the opponents of the Light and each one will face the battles and tests necessary to evolve their spirits.

Once, you neglected opportunities to advance, and at this moment of greatest difficulties, you have to face the perverse and dangerous mob, the dense and cruel environment and overcome own pains and difficulties in order to win. Those who have been prepared will find the way of liberation.

Keep on faith, beloved daughters, Jesus is with you.

I leave you on peace and love, and we remain with you.

Blessed is Jesus! Hail the Light guiding us!

Yours,

Master Shama Hare, 03/06/2015

34. I DIDN'T COME FOR THE HEALTHY, BUT FOR THE SICK ONES

In the fulfillment of the Greater Purposes, also the ignorant, rebels and the sick ones lingered, deluded by the transitory sensations provided by matter, they are our brothers.

I did not distinguish among you, better or worse creatures, but I treated all as equal, as we are for the Father.

More responsibility and duty to love the neighbor has the one who more walked and overcame, in himself, the darkness. Larger dedication in caring for those who remain behind on the pathway.

I didn't come to Earth for the healthy, I came for the sick ones. If the Earth is Hospital School that promotes the spiritual ascension of its patients, then, you all are brothers in need, some today, others tomorrow, of each other's fraternal support.

Be charitable with those spiritually less evolved and have compassion with them. Compassion helps you in healing and to improve your spirits. However, beware, charity and compassion neither mean recklessness nor carelessness.

Be careful with the dark beings whose propose is annihilating the Forces of Light. They attack you, blind with hatred, thirsty for revenge, and animalized by the most primitive instincts.

The fight is necessary for them to awaken and for you to affirm at every moment which side you wish to be during the Planetary Transition.

The more weakened and fearful your bodies are, if there is within you sincere will to definitively leave behind the past of errors and ignorance, gather with all your strength and firm will and fight in my Name. Wherever has a warrior lifting the sword in name of the Light, Servants of Jesus will be there guiding and protecting him.

It is in My Name that you fight, and in My name the Workers of Light are with you.

Do not judge, my brothers! Work with love and dedication.

Upon you I pour out the blessings of the Most Loving Father and among you, I am.

Master Jesus, 02/21/2015, Jacaraípe/ES

35. THE ARMIES ADVANCE

Clairvoyance: I feel a very strong negative presence. I can see approaching a black smoke around my neck. I felt suffocated and a strong vertigo. The smoke begun disappearing changed by thick chains. It was the Beast that had been allowed to come. Shama Hare advised that he would simultaneously incorporate in another medium, necessary to indoctrinate the bestial being.

The Beast speaks:

We will increase our dominion.

You will be annihilated, without the warrior Margarida. it's just a matter of time.

We are expanding our army. It grows, and the bloodshed feed my children, who also grow and bring new members, as strong warriors that blind obey us, and will be our Antichrists spread by the world.

The Antichrist's insurgency will be under my command, throughout the earthly Orb, and those who follow the Lamb will be sacrificed and whose bloodshed will soak the land.

Everything existent may disappear and new time will reign on this planet that again belong to me. as it should never have ceased to be.

Armies advance, there are no more chances. Give up!

Your little children will be our shields.

Beast of the Apocalypse – 02/20/2015

Master Shama Hare speaking to Beast:

Shut up!

You were brought here, in this hour, by Mercy of God. You are tiny in the Creation! Your strength is illusory, and you were created by the Father of all things, Lord of all Worlds, Creator of all lives. We brought you here so that you could hear and feel the illuminated Presence of the One that you insanely persecute. He, Jesus, Elder Brother, Beacon radiating with Light wishes to convert your heart from darkness to light radiating with love and goodness.

It will neither be on this Earth nor on this beautiful Planet that you will kneel down before the Divine Presence of the Creator; however, brother, in wild planets you will live and undergo the necessary transformations of your deformed soul to become human again, as you are, indeed.

He, our Teacher and Guide, invites your reasoning to undertake the path ascending to the Greater Light.

If today, your nefarious presence makes ignorant creatures to fall, it is because they still remain under your control in the inferior bands of evolution.

However, son, you are "divine creature" like all of us, and those that you enslave today, will be your enemies tomorrow, claiming the right of revenge, until they reach redemption and under your tutelage, they manage to reach the regions of Light.

You will suffer so much, shed tears of blood and the more is your rebellion at this time, you will become an angel, because in the path of progress and evolution there is no stagnation or giving up of the Light, in favor of the little ones who remain behind.

Take the occasion of the planetary transformation to house within you the desire for change, it is not long before you leave the Earth, and no more will impose your negative presence. You are led by the Greater Force of the Creator, against your will, for the transformation of your rebellious soul.

With you is Jesus, whose Love involves the entire Planet and its humanity, sustaining everyone in this supreme moment of planetary transformation.

Brother, do not follow the path of a precipitous fall, of hatred and of revenge, because those who fall under your influence will reap the bitter fruits of their negligence. Change your actions before the last hour is sounded.

Wherever you go, Jesus is with you. Free you, brother, from the Dark to the Light, behold, Christ Jesus calls you.

Master Shama Hare, 02/20/2015

36. GO BACK IS NOT GOOD OPTION

Sisters, the faith that moves the rightists will be the shield that will protect them in the battles until the end of the Great Armageddon.

Jesus said to his brothers, "Even with Nation against nation, brother against brother, it will not be the end, yet".

Prophecies and warnings left by the Beloved Master will gradually unveil in the harsh reality of the "last days of the Earth", but it will not be the end yet, due to the great light radiated by the Great Universal White Fraternity on Earth, so that the events do not break out before the time of the great hecatomb scheduled for the end of the Planetary Transition.

The so-called Lords of the War are welcome in nations anxious for power and domination from the strong to the weak. They find in the great ungoverned mass and in the primitive instinct, the necessary energy to implant in the physical plane, their actions and projects to retake the Planet.

Wrong are those thinking that dropping bombs and invading lands are the most harmful actions of Darkness.

Know that the highest Social levels give them support and subsidize their plans and, through the Media, advance corrupting and seducing children, making them sex appeal projecting their instincts and icons in children's minds, in a subtle and hypnotic way, by means of music, visual arts and clothing, building new behavior patterns, promoting pedophilia, instigating the powerful Kundalini energy that, used wildly, is a "bomb" with a huge destructive effect on the astral.

However, brothers, the light surrounds the Earth and redirects these actions, so that the impact is in the right measure with unleashing collective and individual karmas. Those directly or indirectly affected by dark plans are nothing more than brothers highly committed with the Law of the Planetary Balance. If today they suffer the action, which they think to be painful for themselves and their dear ones, it is because, in the past, their actions and decisions collaborated so that now, they received and felt in the flesh the misuse of the free will.

We shall have mercy with the children brutalized and usurped in their childhood, whether for the abuse of their bodies or for the violence in which they are inserted and do not consciously participate in the moment, but the Father's divine force does not create the expiatory worlds for His children to suffer deliberately.

To these worlds are brought those who, lightly, did not know how to incorporate into their spirits, the lessons they had access in the various dwellings they passed through, when were taught the universal language of love, forgiveness, brotherhood and recognition of the other as brother.

On Planet Earth, the greatest Master was the Beloved Jesus, who at high costs of sacrifices and renunciations granted to humanity the lessons circulating in the Cosmos.

However, the time has come to end another stage for the third-dimensional population, which will be directed to other Schools in the Universe, in order to study again the lessons, they had forgotten.

Let's go on, because going back is not an option for the spark created by the Father.

Apostle Matthew, 07/25/2014

37. YOU ALREADY LIVE THE APOCALYPSE

Clairvoyance: I have seen our spirits out of the body as if they were balls of light joined to Mrs. Margarida who was a bigger ball and together we went to Planet Patrol, where there was a meeting with Beings of Light about the future of the Earth.

I could not bring anything else from that extraordinary encounter.

Then, I received the following message:

May Peace and Love be with you, beloved daughters!

Union of yours is necessary to you continue divulging and enlightening the humanity.

You already live on Earth the horrors of war, immoderate violence, materialism, corruption of habits and moral values, and an entire range of foreseen and announced events by ancient and modern prophets.

Many of the "news" we sent to you, they are materialized in your time.

Do not stand on fear!

Hosts of Light need to send to the earthly inhabitants, news about current events for preparing them to life future.

Jesus is with you. His transparent and sovereign Light illuminates your walk, not mattering if you believe or not in us.

Let your Brothers of humanity know that the planetary cycle is finishing and another comes soon full of light and harmony. Then all of us can inhabit this new Land that no long will appear. It is enough to wash the soul in the turbulent waters of pain and gnashing of teeth that already visit you without rebellion.

The assertive "You will not leave from there without paying the last cent" determines you have to "quit the debts" with the Planet and with the neighbor. There is only one way, which is the practice of Jesus' Gospel that guides through love and pardon of offenses.

The fireballs already fall from sky setting fire on the Orb. They countrymen flee to cities and these cannot escape.

Science advances in search for perfect body, in creating superman, in healing of diseases formerly incurable, however, the inversion of moral values allows the conquests of the Science be just for a reduced number of creatures.

Waters of rivers and seas invade a lot of lands; but in many places, waters disappear and the drought punishes the population.

Freezing cold and the torrential heat are commonplace events demonstrating the great unbalance of Nature.

Brothers, where are you going without faith and hope?

Your world tumbles, because of the rotten moral foundations.

A new society may appear from the ashes of this decadent civilization, and you cannot calmly wait the Advent of the New Age.

In the name of Jesus, we invite to the work all you who look for progress and to reach the Regenerated Earth.

Love, forgive and assist others through the charity with Jesus.

A wave of violence will reach the peoples. Intolerance and prejudice incites actions devoid of fraternity and respect.

Pray, watch and keep you on faith. You live the Apocalypse!

Work courageously with the Emissaries of Christ because already blunts the future of Light and Peace.

Jesus and His emissaries joined you in the name of Love.

38. BE READY BROTHERS!

Sisters, the planetary events announce difficult times and imminent tragedies.

Collective deaths are also announced due to human intolerance denying love and peace, inciting hate and separation among men.

Where comes from the dark force to move the human hearts? It comes from selfishness and pride they cultivate in their souls.

Millennia of years go on, earthly brothers remain attached to the terrible inferior worlds created by themselves and expand the density beyond the invisible borders, spilling on Earth, violence without control.

The world will be affected by the horrors you are going to face sooner.

It is not come from Father's will, the merciless suffering spreading among you. The immoderate cruelty is a human creation, in the deviations of the soul immersed in hate.

We did predictions based on what the Sidereal Engineers projected before our amazed eyes, and even without understanding well, we wrote down what our mind, still very limited of knowledge at that time got to translate.

But, what happens today is worse, because of feelings of hate increased over the time, and the human violence practiced against others is unimaginable.

Suffering and gnash of teeth is the reality for our terrestrial brothers are going to face until the end of times.

The carbonized fields won't germinate food; the polluted waters by human dejections won't satiate thirst; the turbulent seas will flood the lands and the amazed men will dive into chaos.

The dark events approach. Be ready brothers! Be ready!

We greet you on behalf of God and Jesus who is our Lord and Guide. We leave you the peace that much lacks you.

We walk side by side in the invisible planes trying to help our earthly brothers, so that the overpowering storms wash their guilty souls and free them to the highest planes.

Let the Earth behind and throw your souls into Infinite, where the lights are perennial and eternal peace awaits you.

Nostradamus, GESH - 07/11/2014 - Vitoria/ES - Brasil

39. PAY ATTENTION TO THE SIGNS

Beloved brothers,

Peace in your hearts.

From Space we observe the Earth and the disastrous events of the Doomsdays in process.

The dense clouds covering the Planet and advance more and more in the Earth darkening the human psyche, thus limiting even more his flights of spiritual elevation. Great efforts must be exerted to reach the Higher Plans, where the pure light of love vibrates intensely.

The Love of Superior and Sublime Beings, pours abundantly on Earth, however, the tune of embodied souls or not, inhabitants of this Planet is not high enough to reach the pure vibration gushing, even having the environment saturated with dense vibrations.

Larger efforts must you exert to keep in tune with the Superior Plans, and to persevere on the path of the Good and transformation of the soul.

Spaceships remain parked around the Planet, supporting the Planetary Axis.

Wars spread throughout the continents and barbarism manifests itself in the brutal actions of human beings.

Prophecies of End Times are materialized before the stunned look of the scientists.

Sooner, the use of the atomic bomb will be suggested, which will be armed and aimed from one nation to another. We will not allow to occur it, if a bomb explodes, other will be detonated in a chain of aggressions of nations against nations.

Pay attention to the signs.

We will give the notice to prepare you for the arrival of the end of this civilization, which will not be by exploding the Planet.

We watch closely the rulers' souls, in order to avoid the planetary destruction; but brothers, we can interrupt the fulfillment of the collective karma in curse, while stopping the pains and gnashing of teeth.

Abdicate from evil and live under the Aegis of Jesus, practicing His lessons and more will come in addition to the Father's Mercy.

Do not be afraid to face the evidences coming to you for the liberation of your souls, from the reincarnation cycles in Planets of Atonement and trials.

Your society has reached the highest spiritual moral decay, and be assured that there is no way to go back and to avoid the pains and sufferings foreseen for this moment.

From Space we observe the bursts of hate and revenge circulating among you, earthly humanity, and nothing we can do before your choices.

He, who accepted Jesus and vibrates in the high bands of love, humility and forgiveness, he is not free of suffering, however, carries in the bottoms of his soul the certainty of victory of the spirit, in liberating ascension.

We do everything to minimize your sufferings, however, your inferior actions and feelings do not allow us to act different.

We are guided by Superior Hierarchies that you ignore, and still remain in ignorance of the Sublime Lights that exist beyond in the limitless Superior Universes, while you remain attached to the Underworlds.

Believe it or not, we remain helping you on behalf of God and Jesus.

Pay attention to the signs that come to you and be prepared for the end.

From yours,

Commander Yuri, 06/14/2014

Abrigo Servos de Jesus - Vila Velha/ES

40. YOU HAVE CHOSEN TORTUOUS PATHS

Dear brothers, sisters and disciples!

Resign yourselves before the physical and moral pains.

Pains and sufferings will be marks of this humanity at the "End of Times".

The blessed love was offered so that you to you could transform thorns into flowers; but, you were not able to transform your souls in the simplicity of the Redeemer's Gospel, preferring words full of hate, repelling peace and sowing war.

You have chosen the tortuous paths of gnashing of teeth for your last days in the Planet of Atonement and Trials.

Jesus is pouring on you, His Light and Love to reduce in you, pains and bale. Only those who accepted Him in practicing His Lessons will be comforted in the last hour of suffering.

Hercolubus that is the same Intruding Planet is approaching. The Beast leaves from the Abyss when the humanity submits itself to the determinism of separation between the wheat from the tares, and in groups leave through collective deaths toward the planetary exile.

Do not be afraid. Work more and more to free you.

Hercolubus and the Power of Light are hoisting the Beast of the Apocalypse. Its displacement provides instability in the Earth's nucleus, in the internal pressure, and in the deep cleaning of its ethereal counterpart.

From within to outside, the Earth is cleaned provoking in the physical plane, displacement of lands due to the instability of internal pressure, thus provoking maladjustments in the deep seas, volcanic eruptions, sliding of lands, mobilization of the tectonic plates, and others.

The Earth is cleaned from sludge, debris and poisons sowed by the humanity along their terrestrial path. From the deepest Abyss to the highest peaks was necessary cleaning for its change of dimension.

The Planet penetrates a subtler dimension and does not support the debris, for absolute vibration incompatibility.

While the humanity quits its debts and makes their choices, as Rightists or Leftists of Christ, the Planet at high speed in order to leave behind the its suffering dimension, transforming its landscape compatible with the plane more evolved, in which penetrate.

There is no way to avoid the acceleration of the events toward the Doomsday.

The Verticalization of the Planet's axis will determine the total change of the planetary dimension.

The Planet will not abandon the Solar system.

The Planet evolves from Inferior to world in Evolution. Regeneration is the first step towards the Superior Planets.

In its evolved body will be born who already have the Mark of Christ.

The Final Battle to banish the "Darkness" from the Earth will happen as foreseen by the Sidereal Engineers; and from it take part the Warriors of Light already prepared under a severe discipline of trainings offered by the Highest Hierarchies.

Sure is the victory of the Light however, each member of the Christ's Army must deserve to participate in the warriors' platoon that will free the Earth from the "yoke of shadows."

Watch your thoughts, words and actions; because we are at war against the Forces of Evil and any negligence of your part can lose the opportunity to struggle in the rows of the Lamb for installation of New Age of Peace.

To the little Nucleus of Light Servants of Jesus, we address our Love and Light, so that you are among the most courageous combatants of Light, in the Last Battle approaching.

Margarida bravely will lift up her sword. Jesus will be with her on that hour, when the Great Beast of the Apocalypse will be abated interrupting his/her path of cruelty and violence, dizzy fall of the perispiritual form at the end of the Planetary Cycle.

Jesus is with you, as well as many Beings of Light under His Command.

We are always with you.

Be you on Peace and Love!

Ramatis - GESH - 05/06/2014 - Vitoria/ES - Brasil

41. THE ARMY OF CHRIST ADVANCES OPENING CLEARINGS IN THE DARKNESS

Peace on all planetary quadrants and in your hearts too.

Women warriors of Light, since you accepted the offer of working in the Divine Vineyard, in Armies of Christ, your swords remain raised in the healthy sanitation work on Earth.

Your unfolded bodies in the bottoms of the Abyss, advance quickly, placing you in strategic positions for confrontation with the Beast.

Right now, this humanity works hard in the invisible plane. Criminal strongholds and dark phalanxes are destroyed, when suffering souls are set free by fraternal hands. These, refresh your aching souls, from the long time enslaved, in dense zones of the inferior astral.

Mutilated bodies are rescued and reconstructed with your help and hard workers.

Teams composed of terrestrial, extraterrestrial and intraterrestrial brothers search in refuges of lower Astral Plane, souls lost, by millennia immersed in fetid and rotten environments, forgotten of themselves, but not of the Beloved Father who everything sees and knowing where all creatures are, He sends last aid to heal and take them to "new planet", where after had reached the necessary conditions, they dwell to renew themselves, in new vows of progress.

And so, my sisters, among battles and aid to the suffering brothers, the Army of Christ advances, opening clearings in the darkness providing the necessary conditions for the Planet Earth to renew itself sooner, since the intense catastrophic events advances and the Planetary Transition goes to its end.

Margarida, one of the most skillful warrior with a preserved body, you can assist your earthly brothers in those moments of intense suffering after the "three days of darkness", as you wish.

Margarida: Since a long time ago, I knew that there was a body of mine preserved; now the brother is saying I can use it to help others. Is not it?

Ashtar Sheran: Yes, your courage, determination and faith will greatly help the incarnates lost and unbalanced, without direction will follow "that vibrant voice". Shen will lead them leading them to those places already prepared to receive the brothers of surface, rescued to interior of the earth or to spaceships.

Margarida: I believe that inside the Earth, without mentioning the spaceships, is the most appropriate place, since it is a more evolved city.

Ashtar Sheran: You can assist them with a body already prepared, as if you were an incarnate spirit visiting an intraterrestrial city, even not staying there for long time, but just to drive a part of the rescued brothers.

Margarida: It means much work!

Ashtar Sheran: The work will be intense; unfortunately, few incarnated brothers had adhered to the "great call" for renewal and helping others.

Margarida: Does it means; we need many workers to assist all those people?

Ashtar Sheran: Swords sound into space in fierce struggles, as the «Dark Commands», unhappy before many losses in their Armies, attack the Center of Light seeking to defeat the honest workers, because each worker of Light who falls, is celebrated by Beings of Darkness, as usual.

Margarida: They think to be owners of the world!

Ashtar Sheran: Yes, only the strongest faithful ones will survive, those whose faiths is stronger. They must be a steady light not overwhelmed by fear, by falling morality and corruption that reigns among human beings

Onward warriors, there is a lot of work be done, before the end comes.

Margarida: While we are incarnated, we will do our best, and in the astral plane, we are always available while sleeping.

Ashtar Sheran: We count on you and equally, we are always by your side.

Blessed is Jesus! Hail the peace!

Commander Ashtar Sheran, 02/15/2013

Clairvoyance: When Commander Ashtar said that Mrs. Margarida would use a preserved body after the "three days of darkness", mentally, I have seen her in the preserved body with appearance of an incarnate strong woman of about 30 or 40 years old.

She was in a place where everything around was destroyed: with ragged, dirty, and disoriented people; men, women and children, who roamed on the dusty streets. Mrs. Margarida arrived, called and spoke to them with words unknown to me, and she started to walk down a dirt road followed by other people.

They arrived at a cave. Mrs. Margarida ordered them to follow her when appeared a soft blue light that touched her deeply and then arrived in an intraterrestrial city.

42. THE GREAT HOUR IS APPROACHING

Brothers, it approaches the Great Hour wisely foreseen by the Sidereal Psychology about the sad planetary events.

The leftist souls were snatched by the insistent Power of Evil appealing and touching the inner core of blamed and morally backward souls thus inciting more their wild instincts.

A total inversion of moral values distort the infantile souls of doubtful moral structure seduced by materialism and degrading addictions.

Drugs transform the human masses into "traveling rags". Nations become weakened when their populations are morally failed, and then predestined to fall.

The Planet depreciated and attacked mercilessly, in turn, reacts turning the planetary environment completely transformed and unbalanced confusing the sensitive animal and vegetable kingdoms.

Perhaps humans from their higher prepotency judging themselves too smart, they cannot glimpse the hecatomb worked with their unworthy and antichristian actions. Even the Fauna and Flora already show signs of unbalance, without possible readjustment along the intense transition of the planetary transformation.

Both Poles are slowly inverted acting intensely in the climatic conditions: too cold, too hot, floods, droughts, seaquakes, earthquakes, tsunamis, volcanoes and so on. Why humans cannot see the planetary agitation?

The human infantile technology cannot break the mechanisms triggered by their insane actions: atomic bombs, deforestations, burning, pollution of rivers and seas, corruption, violence and others. They still judge themselves superior to each other.

Our terrestrial brothers do not understand yet that only by means of union of purposes of serving, loving and practicing God's Laws, they reach the world of peace, fraternity and balance.

Poor fellows! They face the last opportunities on earth, without reaching the least levels of improvement in loving able to free them, thus condemning their violent and hatred souls to new exile.

The slow pulse of the Earth no more allows it to control the Nature, which elements loosened act instinctively for self-defense, thus provoking human tragedies.

Brothers, it is not time of judging the neighbor tuned in with the Beast acting as bestial creature.

It is time to connect the soul to the Sublime Emissary Jesus' vibrations, who is the Way, Truth and Life guiding the hesitant steps for ascension of the suffering souls.

It is time of struggling for maintaining as Rightists of Christ, so that certain number of souls reaches the Regeneration.

Connect your souls with Lord Jesus; "

Take your cross and follow Him toward the liberation."

Are you ready to face the Great Hour approaching?

May Jesus bless all of you!

Gautama, Buddha

For the undisciplined soul attached to the matter, it is not easy to reach the balance.

The soul often projects itself toward the right or left road with larger facilities, pleasures and personal satisfactions.

The middle way represents love, hope and peace. It must be pursued by the soul hopeful of building new karma without suffering and pain.

Jesus brought to Earth the detailed instructions to keep the soul in the right path toward the Kingdom of Light.

Gautama, Buddha, GESH - 01/25/13 - Vitoria/ES - Brasil.

43. THE RESCUE ADVANCES AND THE PLANETARY CLEANING APPROACHES

Sisters, we send you waves of love and peace to soften the shocks of dense waves around you.

May Jesus be with you!

Diabolic minds united seek the destruction of related countries, with nuclear devices (atomic bomb).

Maximum alert of Intergalactic Forces and all Beings of the Hierarchies of Light that work with Jesus under the Planetary Christ: it is the plan in progress to deactivate "nuclear warheads" through the natural catastrophes.

The "primary force of Elementals" will assist in the karmic adjustment plan of the Planet and respective humanity.

The "Intruder Planet" exerts a fatal influence on the minds of Leftists, who feel more strengthened and encouraged in actions of violence, hatred and war.

Observe in your Planet, if there is not concomitance of tragedies.

We can hear the crowd's moans begging to Father to abbreviate them, the pain. Their laments echo into Sidereal Space like a cry of pain. However, neither there is regret in their tears nor forgiveness in their supplications.

They just want to get rid of suffering, to continue with their moral deviations and rebellions.

Our spaceships are ready to intervene. Soldiers and Warriors are also attentive to act under the Christ's command and complete the Planetary Transition.

Speed up the process to eliminate from your hearts any residue of negative feeling able to distance you from the Superior Vibration of Jesus.

There will be no time for doubts or questions.

Everything will be fast.

"The Rescue" is fast and the "Planetary Evacuation" won't be long.

We send you peace.

I hang up.

Commander Yuri, 11/16/2012.

44. IT IS THE HARVEST MANIFESTING ITSELF

Sisters, hail the Peace, Love and Light!

Those spirits still reincarnated at this time of atonements and trials, they begin to feel themselves arrested, and no way out. Despair dominates many spirits afterlife when see the horrors of the spiritual world materialized in the physical plane.

Many souls already get mad due to the suffered shock; and when return the physical body, the nervous disorders make them believe affected by diseases. The earthly Medicine demands long time to realize the imbalance manifested by those beings neither refers to disease by virus nor other microorganisms. It is psychic imbalances because of the contact with the extra physical world that already begins its degenerating at third dimension.

We are carefully following up the rescue of beings already about to abandon this Orb. They cannot remain a minute beyond the time allowed, because of their presence concentrating large negativity on Earth.

There are "Negative portals" opened connecting with "beings of abysmal regions". Those allow groups and true armies of "Negative beings" in reaching the terrestrial surface. They are violent imbalanced creatures deprived of moral values. They serve the Beast in the terrestrial surface for sucking blood and energy from victims and everyone in tune with them.

They incite violence, hate, fights and every sort of discord able to transform the human groups into battlefields. Due to the human fall in the material world deprived of moral values, they find a way to satiate their bestial instincts.

The accelerated decomposition of the Earth's psyche is reaching the physical world; the human imbalance grows worse with doubtful mental health (*).

Happy are those who have eyes to see! The time has come for the adjustment with God's Law in practicing above all, the teachings recommended by the Nazarene Lord to "Love the neighbor, as if he were you". Help the fallen, starving, and thirsty ones; aiding, guiding and embracing the sick, lost ones and others begging for Jesus Mercy. Be you brothers of those that faithfully serve in name of the Planetary Christ with love.

Behold the words we bring to you today.

Commander Yuri speaking.

Margarida: It is a great joy for all of us receiving the Brother coming from the Higher plane amidst the dense astral plane for bringing us words of comfort, explanation, strength and courage for us to face the daily troubles.

Taking the occasion, what does the Brother think about us taking a trip to Sao Paulo in order to talk with those brothers still arrested in the place where they were practically sacrificed?

Yuri: Those places where for long time, violence, hate; disorders of every order and especially bloodshed were not free from the Beast's performance.

As you know, conducted by the Beast, many subterranean "negative portals" were opened from below the "prisoner groups" already described through other messages we published before. That place remains full of negative load driven by the Beast's followers that blindly serve it.

Your presence with sincere work voluntarily will be the cleaning channel to settle down Lord Jesus' Power therein, rescuing large number of spirits. Some spirits will be indoctrinated for new life; others will be assisted to purify the local psychosphere, which center represents important imbalanced nucleus for the whole planetary group.

Margarida: Do you mean; it affects the entire Continent. Not only Brazil?

Yuri: Yes, because you only can see a little portion of the whole, but below the terrestrial surface, the tunnels opened by the Beast's followers connect many negative portals. That place has special importance for those beings, because allows the passage of creatures from various parts of the Orb.

Margarida: Is it like the “Big Island” that received vampires from Europe?

Yuri: Yes, you understood well. We cannot yet tell you more about it, but, through the small scenario showed; you already understood the importance of the work. Your presence is very important not just to aid the desperate, suffered, wounded spirits over there, but to own wounded Planet. That region with the presence of Workers of the Light will receive you as balm for the suffering Planet Earth.

We know that total cure is not possible, without removing the deepest root of evil of this Planet. It means much suffering, but necessary. It is the harvest after long crop.

May Peace of Lord Jesus involve us!

Margarida: We will do whatever is possible.

Yuri: Our spaceship will lead you going and back in safety by the Force from the High guiding us.

Commander Yuri, GESH - 10/26/12 - Vitoria/ES - Brasil.

Note (*): Margarida: since long time, we have been noticing and commenting on that subject, due to the vile crimes and unexplained accidents.

45. JESUS SPEAKING FOR LEADERS OF DIFFERENT RELIGIONS

Clairvoyance: I have seen together in an assembly, rabbis, pastors, bishops and many other leaders of different African, Asian, European and American religions, all gathered Jesus. Masters of the Universal Great Universal White Fraternity were present over there.

I understood the following words of Jesus addressed to the listeners:

Beloved brothers!

In order to achieve spiritual light, you shall deprive yourselves from the bellicose apparatus in the heart.
shield used in confronting the

The armor that you have chosen as shield to face the world, it also makes difficult for you to see your brothers like you.

We know that, each of you, have received high knowhow, which you have been transmitting to your students. However, the “ancient knowhow” transmitted to the new generations result into misinterpretations from those sublime messages transmitted before.

Looking at the world today, you can see that wars and small conflicts absorbing strength and resources that should be destined for the humanity progress.

Fraternity, daughter of tolerance, is absent from your coexistence.

The world interests mobilize beings to such an extent, distorting the purpose of the incarnation and opportunities offered are wasted.

So, as a last appeal addressed to the religions existing on Earth, which in the name of God seek to lead the human beings, I ask you to return to the simplicity of the "original doctrine", and assume, under the Command of the Hidden World Government, the "Fundamental Doctrinaire Teachings" for facing the last tests the humanity will go through.

You must serve as faithful intermediaries of the Laws of God and "conducting your flocks", otherwise you will fall into the depths of unfathomable pain: "to that which was given much, much will be charged".

The gift of redemption was given to needy souls linked to you, throughout countless reincarnations; and now, not by chance, they place themselves under your surveillance and care. Before teaching the precious lessons, practice to love others, as a living example.

Leaders of countries around the world are late, attached to transitory material appeals! Do not follow them that will pay for the mismanagement. Upon you will fall the consequences of the mismanagement of your millenary souls, given to your spiritual guidance.

You are under God's Love that granted men new chances to awaken. Be faithful tools of Beloved Father acting in the spiritual stage in which each religious group finds itself, in order to favor your "angelic ascension".

Seek and you will find!... Knock at the door.

it will be opened for you!... This is the promise we make to you.

He, who wants to reach the Father, do it through Me who is the Way, Truth and Life.

No more apartheid discussion!

No more selfish struggles to make one religion over another.

No longer hidden interests that relegate a lower level of importance, the spiritual guidance to human beings.

No longer the denial of God's Son who is among you, as He ever been before with the purpose of elevating this humanity above the condition of primary development, and elevating it to the Spheres of Peace and Love.

Beloved Disciples, for you face the Earth's final agony, get you rid of unreasonable prejudice and join in preservation of life.

May the Peace of the Lord of the worlds involve you darken minds and hardened hearts, awakening you to the light.

Jesus Sananda
Presiding the Confederation Conclave
Intergalactic that studies and guides the earthly destiny.

Clairvoyance: At the end of His words, Master Jesus shows on a large screen, images of catastrophes that may devastate the world. The audience remain sad and stunned by the scenes. Many of them cry!

Then, Lord Jesus highlights in the images, the wild behavior of many people who attack their brothers with uncontrollable violence and fury. The Master identifies which Religious Group each of the highlighted characters belongs to.

The respective Leaders, ashamed, felt enormous grief. Many burst into tears.

The meeting ended with the following words uttered by Master Jesus:

Go and review your guidelines.

Get rid of everything connecting you to the "transitory material world" and return to the simplicity of the Divine Laws.

Serve your neighbor with dignity, in the name of the One God who governs the world. You are brothers, children of the same Father and, as such, you must live.

May Peace envelop you and inspire your acting on Earth.

Jesus Sananda

The meeting ends.

Each Master of the Great Universal White Fraternity gathers and leads his disciples back to the terrestrial planes. Everyone is deeply touched.

Then, Jesus look at the ordinary people attracted to the place. I don't know if these people were on another plane than those of the Leaders or in the same.

He continues uttering words full of light: Here is the Cross you have chosen as a symbol of redemption of this humanity.

Take it for yourself as a source of life and, immersed in the Force around it, direct your actions making them as a living presence in your existence.

Jesus Sananda, 09/07/2012
Peixoto de Azevedo, Estrada para Região do Xingu/MT

Clairvoyance: While He spoke to everyone attracted to his presence, something was happening and scenes from the past of each person were elucidating historical facts of those participants, before and after the Master's birth. I mean, at the same time He spoke to everyone, each one whose remarkable incarnation was in this or that historical time, perfectly understood his participation in the high purposes of the Spiritual Government of the Planet.

46. DOOMSDAY ADVANCES TO THE END

Brothers, millennia have passed on Earth, and the humanity has not yet surrendered to the Divine Laws.

Submitted to the deepest teachings brought by several Entities of Light, Guardian Spirits of human collectivities, and Jesus the Enlightened Being who thought them directly, in person, lessons of immutable wisdom. However, no effort on the part of the Divinity to restore balance and peace in human hearts, was successful in preventing the advance of the rebellion of human beings.

My brothers, if the people contrary to the Christianization remain ungoverned towards the exile, there is a small number of human beings who have finally reached the discernment of liberating truths.

To these we say: keep on faith!

The turmoil of events triggered by the Doomsday advances fast over collectivities and there is no way to prevent the fulfillment of karma to reduce their debts with the Creator.

This humanity suffers, because chose to do so!

Groups of beings who claim to be Christians, followers of Jesus, deny with actions devoid of reason and moral, what they say to be.

Groups of religious, opinion makers and responsible for leading souls to balance and inner peace, have been acting against the Christ's Precepts and Laws that govern the Creatures' spiritual and moral development.

By using their power over the peoples, they despise the Divine Laws; and making usage of free will granted by God, they use their faithful followers for insane satisfactions, abuse innocent and unprotected minors, act against the Sovereign Laws of human development, preaching licentiousness and sexual deviations at costs of "golden rules of balance".

Groups of "savage" politicians for temporal power and practices distorted morally impose on the people, a government of violence and despotic submission. Contrary to their insane desire in governing, they use the machine gun to annihilate their opponents, indiscriminately reaching the entire population.

Religious wars still annihilate many souls in full atomic century.

Successive of acts of corruption tarnish the conduct of politicians in various countries, undermining moral and inverting high moral concepts.

Excessive violence spreads among creatures, due to the widespread addiction among young people, inexperienced and easily manipulated by chiefs of crime and trafficking.

Sowers of discord, violence, evil and disaffection, widely spread among human collectivities, give the touch of horror among creatures without faith, who, letting themselves be dominated by fear, park their minds in the horror of barbaric crimes made commonplace, keeping prisoners in their own homes, whose fragile locks do not prevent break-ins by criminals.

The perplexed world sees the fall of the "great economic powers" changed into "bad payers", causing the bankruptcy of the world's banking institutions.

The devastated Environment, polluted rivers, needy populations involved in hunger and vices.

Children abandoned, murdered, disrespected, raped.

Natural catastrophes become commonplace throughout the Planet, causing the "flight" of souls in collective deaths.

Bear you in mind that, broken homes, devaluation of the family and multiplicity of "new family institutions", where there are two fathers or two mothers, or no one, the children remain at mercy of blood relatives or not.

Those who live in the countryside, they flee to the city due to the dryness of the soil; and those in the city join in increasing promiscuity, due to the lack of space in the cities.

Brothers of mine, it is the sad scenario of the "Doomsday" on the planet you live.

Do not complain about the Divinity, the Creator: it is the materialization of prophecies!

You got rid of "moral reins" imposed by the Law of Evolution and Progress; you avoided to practice the lessons of the Holy Books dictated by Beings of Light. Now, you must face courageously the end of "cycle of pain and gnashing of teeth".

However, we warn you of the serious hour so that, being aware of the current planetary transformation, you awaken and right now, start your inner renewal, which can greatly reduce your future pains.

There is neither hell, nor heaven nor any other creation of your minds to house souls that ascend or fall spiritually.

There are Laws of Progress and Evolution. There are evolved and delayed dwellings for souls, according with the good or bad usage of free will.

There are many "Abodes in the Father's House" waiting for you, as the Earth in its transforming turn no longer allow to be hurt, mistreated or vilified by backward souls.

The Earth physically renews itself and will only receive in its renewed bosom, souls that have already reached the Christian standard of Love.

"Love God above all things and your neighbor as yourself". As taught by Master Jesus

Do not be afraid.

Keep on faith and transform your souls, because the "Doomsday" accelerates to its end.

Hail the Forces for Good! Hail the Light of Jesus!

Nostradamus

In the past, we made Prophecies such as allegories and codes, due to the threat of excommunication of priests, and fear of the fire.

Lots of them have been deciphered and the modern man knows our prophecies and of other eminent Prophets.

Now, we only attest the materialization of the reality we prophesied in the past, transformed into the harsh and cruel reality of the Apocalypse you live.

We do not regret it, we only attest the Truth and Sovereignty of the Creative Laws that foresee, millennia in advance, the psychological conduct of the humanity of backward planets.

May Jesus bless and give you courage and strength to reach the New World.

Nostradamus, 07/14/2012

47. THE THREE DAYS OF DARKNESS WILL IDENTIFY THE SURVIVING PEOPLE

May Peace be with you, dear sisters and daughters!

Slowly the Earth's axis moves to its full verticalization.

The daily life of creatures on Earth is not affected, and even in great catastrophes, after the first impacts of cataclysms, life remains normal for those who were not affected by damage and loss.

However, gradually, all peoples on the Planet Earth will be affected by the changes of the Globe, until the human beings of all earthly latitudes and longitudes have their lives completely changed, no longer able to retake their routine tasks.

At that hour, the dark cloud will cover the sky, and the suffocated populations will have their reaped lives, due to their unprepared souls.

The "Three Days of Darkness" will deeply mark the soul's survivors on the physical plane, however, "suicides" will multiply a hundred times.

Life in matter will have a new meaning, different from what you have today with money, entertainment and addictions.

It does not matter, earthly humanity, whether you believe it or not. The time is up to you in this dimension.

The proximity of the "Intruder Planet" is already felt, causing in the creatures the effervescence of bad inclinations, since is enough a spark of misunderstanding to provoke barbarism among human beings.

Thousands of souls touched by the primitive vibration of the Intruding Planet give vent to their mal instincts, barely contained within them. Their souls are attracted to the Intruder Planet, as the spaceships in convoys have taken the creatures in tune with it to exile in the Primitive Planet.

Brothers, the pressure over the Rightists is growing on the part of those beings against to the Light, as the Beast of Apocalypse predicts its defeat and do everything to stay on earth dominating its humanity.

Believing or not in this reality, creatures with a certain degree of observation, have already realized that something abnormal occurs on the Planet and with their fellow beings with an evil tendency, bad actions, violence, crimes and vices. They noticed, without understanding, the Earth and its inhabitants are in process of transformation; the Planet shakes by stronger catastrophes and its population increasingly disbelieving, materialistic and violent.

Even those who see the obvious, have not yet managed to define themselves as tares or wheat; however, they will be dragged into exile, since only the creature who became Christian sincerely practicing the Lessons of Christ is classified as wheat.

To stay in "doubt zones" drags the creature to the left side, there's no doubt about that.

Blind faith stimulated by false prophets may snatch many souls and their religious leaders.

Diseases, moral deviations, hunger, misery and materialism multiply as characteristics of backward humanities at the "end of a planetary cycle" multiply.

Those who are in zones below the Gospel of Christ, predicting the end of opportunities for satiating their vile desires, they struggle diving themselves deeper into deviations and immoral tendencies, making the planetary environment suffocated and oppressive for the followers of Jesus.

These must exert larger efforts to keep themselves at high levels to guarantee them release, as they are last-minute workers who refused work in the Divine Vineyard for long time.

The both fields at the last stage of "planetary transition" are clearly defined: the field of Light with a reduced number of creatures, but with unbeatable power and strength; field of Darkness full with rebellious human beings, deformed, decayed in their moral and powerless to brake the advance of the Light and its natural expansion. As the Planet enters a new dimension, they will be unable to prevent their own planetary exile.

Every day, confrontations between the Beings of Light and of Darkness, become fiercer, as the Beast sends its select army trained under its supervision, and forged in the darkness of its realm.

Brothers, the Cycle of Atonement and Trials begins to decline, and the final stages are going to be marked by the strength of the intense struggles within you, to deserve ascend to a Better World.

From the Master who loves you,

Ramatis

To GESJ:

The ASJ – Servants of Jesus Shelter attracts the servants of evil daring to extinguish its Light, however, it must be that way, because the closer they are, more easily they are imprisoned and taken to Prison Ships. If you had to pull them out from dark regions where dwell, greater would be your suffering in matter.

You are the "fresh baits" to attract the Beast's servants to battlefields.

Jesus guides us and his Light protects your bodies. You will not perish if it is not the Father's Greater Will, since no creature of darkness have the power to intercept your steps, preventing you from fulfilling your karma.

Hail the Force! Hail the Light!

Blessed is Divine Master Jesus!

Ramatis,
06/18/2011 Abrigo Servos de Jesus – Vila Velha/ES

48. HE, WHO HAS EYES TO SEE, HE SEES!

From North will come the first signs announcing the end.

Bodies in decomposition immersed in putrid and fetid slippery mud, which flows from the highest peaks are going to flood the soil turning it unproductive.

The sky will be full with mortal fires and populations will perish by war.

Nations again are going for the last battle by means of power and domain.

The so wanted "black gold" (petrol) will provoke large environmental imbalances and fauna/flora may disappear.

Seas will become red.

The Beast of the hunger, of the thirst, and desolation will embrace many people.

Many people will emigrate toward the South where the soil is still alive, green forests and mighty rivers.

A "rusted cloud" will hide the Earth and the powerful Nations see themselves impoverished and crazy.

When there is no stone standing, the light of spaceships shines ready to hoist those who accept it before the end comes.

Within the earth will have light, but darkness on its surface.

The Planet will drag crowds to itself, and come true the prophecies.

Nor all are prepared to hear, to understand and believe.

He who eyes to see, he sees.

Nostradamus,

GESH - 05/17/2011 - Festival of Wesak - Vitoria/ES - Brasil.

49. BORDERLINES DISAPPEAR

Dear sisters! May peace and love be the shield to protect you from evil.

May Jesus, Greatest Power of the Earth, bless us!

When the borderlines among men no longer exist;

When all weapons of destruction are neutralized, inactivated and exterminated;

When Love permeates all hearts, you will be living a New Age.

Today, imprisoned by fictitious borderlines, humans struggle and destroy each other for the illusory conquest of power and dominance. They tear down borderlines with iron and fire, to expand territories and conquer wealth, massacring innocent peoples.

Cruelty, arrogance and pride make their last victims in this planetary cycle in its end.

Borderlines will disappear, dragged by forces of Nature out of control; and peoples, innocent or not, will be dragged by natural catastrophic phenomena, devastating with greater violence and force, the entire Orb. The time has come for Earth to abandon its dimension of suffering, being born in a superior atmosphere.

The telluric energy weakened and contaminated by waves of harmful energies invisible and visible to your limited physical senses, accelerates the process of planetary transformation.

External magnetic forces of Superior Beings control events, according to the Father's Sovereign Will, and even under lack of control of natural action, the "Doomsday" the Universal Laws of the Creator governs accelerating or reducing the events foreseen millennia ago, which attest the ineffectiveness of your predictions and total ignorance about the issue.

External chaos indicates the internal chaos of creatures. Disarrayed souls of the Angelic North become playthings to Retrograde Forces.

The "fear" that dwells in hearts will not be able to save souls from planetary exile. You will not be able to remain in the higher planes, if darkness still is in you. The "fear" of the announced "End of the World" will not save you.

He, who wishes to be reborn to the Light, and to remain in the Renewed Earth, "take up his cross and follow Me" said Jesus.

The storm of transformations will drag the unwary, deprived of love and of faith to worlds where their neglectful nature of backward souls will suffer a new cleaning.

Forgetting of the criminal past does not del your guilt, but the practice of the Lessons of Jesus lead you to progress. Even if you are still in debt, if your transformation is true and sincere, you can get rid of the Valley of tears and gnashing of teeth.

However, we alert you brothers that the renewed souls will be naturally attracted to a higher dimension; but souls that remain below the minimum vibrations necessary to ascend to a better world, will be repelled by the higher planes, and automatically sucked to dimensions that vibrate in the tone of their soul.

You cannot pretend to change behavior, because the subtle dimensional barriers do not allow them to be surpassed by beings averse to progress, love and forgiveness of offenses.

Get you free of false moral posture; abandon the darkness that adorns your backward souls, so that you finally know the happy world, where love reigns among beings.

The Apocalypse is a reality that you neither can deny nor scape!

The greater the physical and moral pains you experience, the deeper you immerse in Christ's Love, and full of faith and courage, be sure that the end is near, and soon you will be free from the ties connecting you with Planets of Atonement and Pain.

Keep on faith and on Love! Resignation and forgiveness! Practice the Lessons of the Divine Conductor so that you be free.

The Earth, immersed in apparent chaos, frees itself. Free yourselves too.

Nostradamus

From heaven will come confirmation of the end.

The Sun will be covered with "dark cloud" (3 days of darkness), thrown to the sky because of lack of control of minds and emotions.

The "iron birds" (airplanes and helicopters) will fall out of control, due to the magnetic interference by the Intruder Planet.

Technology will be useless in the uncontrolled and clash of the magnetic forces between the Planet Earth and Intruder Planet.

Without spiritual strength to hold on the final pains, the souls will be free by means of premature and shameful death, encountering even greater chaos and exile.

The Intruding Planet will show itself to the stunned eyes, as farewell to this dimension. Renewed Earth with established Peace.

The Seven-Headed Dragon will fall.

The red-robed woman will drop her golden cup on the shaky ground of the boiling land.

The Immutable Laws of God are fulfilled.

"Margarida, we met at Notre Dame, forgotten past, live stories in our souls."

50. OUR SPACESHIPS BROUGHT YOU TO INHABIT THIS PLANET

Peace on all planetary quadrants!

Peace also in your hearts!

Brothers from Planet Shan, you are distorting our messages, and the purpose of our presence on this Planet;

You are using your means of dissemination to denigrate the extraterrestrial presence on the Planet Earth;

You are spreading fear in the fragile hearts of this humanity, against extraterrestrial messengers;

Do you think, by chance, you have the strength to defeat alone the evil that you have created?

Do you think to have the necessary knowledge to solve all the problems that you caused?

Your history of persecution, bloodshed, brutality, violence and misunderstandings attest your incompetence to solve problems of environmental, political and religious whether collective or individual.

We have been on Earth since its formation, assisting in its geological construction.

We are present since before primitive human creatures manifested themselves on the physical plane.

We brought you in our spaceships to inhabit this Planet, exiled from your planet of origin; and again we take you to new exile, if you do not reach the minimum standards of spiritual elevation to you remain in the Renewed Earth.

We contribute in your intellectual and technological progress and in the development of your cities. We often sacrifice ourselves incarnating among this humanity to impel it in its psychic, moral and social development. However, you continue denying and avoiding us.

We exist indeed! This is an indisputable fact!

The Science of this Planet is very late in its development, since its experiments aiming at discovering intelligent life outside Earth with researches in other orbs, seeks the bloodthirsty conquest of borders beyond those of the Earth orb.

You are naive to think that with the evolutionary level you have today, you would be able to dominate another Planet! You cannot even take care of yours, how dare you to invade another one?

Our presence seeks to call attention to your destructive actions against Planet Shan and your brothers in humanity.

You neither learned to love nor respect your neighbor! You have thrown hatred and revenge over your similar brothers, and you fear the unknown by denying it, or misrepresenting it, with values of oppression.

We follow up your actions, without interfere, since the free will governs the evolution of creatures in your Orb; however, we will not allow you to destroy the Planet, because it would affect the entire Solar System in which you are inserted.

Thousands and thousands of extraterrestrial and intraterrestrial beings act in this apocalyptic moment that you live in order to prevent the destruction of the Planet Earth.

Whether you accept us or not, we are part of your history. We are not your executioners; we only free you! You are executioners of this humanity and of yourselves too.

Brothers, elevate your thoughts to the Superior Entities and to the Creator!

Practice the lessons of Master Jesus and thus, free from any inferior influence, you meet us, children of God like you and belonging to the Higher Hierarchies of the Universe.

We wish that peace, unity, love and fraternity settle definitively in your Orb, when then, we will be introducing ourselves directly to you, so that we can work together for the planetary transformation and evolution.

Attacks and contempt of yours neither surprise us, nor do they hurt us. However, our concern is for your well-being and progress. "Accepting us as brothers is not essential for your evolution; the greatest obstacle for your progress is lack of love in your hearts".

From the High, we guide you, and in our hearts you remain like little brothers, whom we help out of love.

The end of the Planet of Atonement and Trial is approaching, and perhaps it is too late for us to share the same ideals of progress, for you have delayed your steps in understanding facts and life beyond your limited physical senses.

The Earth evolves, and you will again be deported into exile.

The end approaches! Reject hatred and in love renew yourselves.

Peace on all planetary quadrants!

Peace also in your hearts!

51. MANY SOULS HELPED AND TAKEN TO INTRATERRENAL CITIES

Sisters, peace and goodness in your hearts!

The planetary rescue is a reality.

While the natural catastrophes destroy the Planet Earth, thousands of creatures lose their physical bodies, and extreme pain breaks the hearts of those remained on the physical plane.

The "rescue" takes place.

A large number of rescued souls are taken to Intraterrestrial cities for due balance and preparation for the future days of the Renewed Earth.

The majority remains asleep and unable to make any contact with the new reality. Few ones remain awoken but unaware of the place in which they are, judging themselves to be in a Spiritual Colony, soon they will understand the new reality and accept the new tasks.

Unfortunately, the mind not used to study and to understand about the of extracorporeal life, rooted in distorted concepts and prejudices about the reality afterlife has made it very difficult for the rescued people to adapt to the reality of their new habitat.

Disbelief about extra and intraterrestrial beings, is even the greater barrier to be overcome; but, as the rescued creatures have credentials of high spiritual content, we hope to be not long their adaptation and action in the new environment and that do not disturb them mentally, preventing them of fulfilling the tasks programmed and relevant to new humanity of the Renewed Earth.

At this time, in the invisible plane, Intense and feverish are the activities of those taking part of the Army of Christ, whether in the rescue of souls selected for their own merit, or in the intense sanitation of the lower planes, or in fighting hand to hand with "beasts" leaving from their lairs to attack the workers of the Lamb of God.

Renew you in faith and work with Christ, as you live the end of this "cycle of atonement and trials".

The Planetary Christ takes care of you.

52. TURMOIL AND DESPAIR WILL DOMINATE THE HUMAN HEARTS

Peace on all planetary quadrants!

Peace also be in your hearts!

For a long time, we have been transmitting to the humanity, through our messages, knowledge and information that would give you conditions to face the hard trials destined to all humanity, in fulfilling of their collective karma.

Many individuals ignore our warnings, others, quite numbed by the illusions of life, perceive us and the veracity of our words, without, however, deviate them from the wrong path of perdition they have chosen. A few ones dedicated Servants of Light spend their time in studying and working to evolve them spiritually to improve the vibrations thus elevating their souls; they don't know how far they can go, but wish to advance.

And for these few dedicated Servants of Light, apprentices of the Gospel of Jesus, neophytes in Art of spiritual progress, we dedicate our words, once the acceleration of events and natural phenomena taking place on the earthly surface put all creatures in fragile conditions before the "forces of nature". It is in this time that confuse the servants of the Love of Christ with the furious mob. Bear in mind that in order to distinguish you from others, you have to keep calm mind, clean heart and your hands working with Christ.

Even dispersed under adverse conditions, apparently deprived of all resources, connect you with us. Keep your thoughts elevated spiritually to the superior spirits. Keep on calm to allow you to capture from us, the instructions for the final moments you will live on Earth, such as many guidelines, information and knowledge already sent to you.

Moreover, when the Social Institutions are disorganized, and you need certain choices or definitions, look for us and we will be here to guide you. It is enough you be in tune with Spirits of Light that you must cultivate in your mind.

We hope that nothing surprises you of the violent reactions addressed to you by Mother Earth. Remember how much She, as the provider and sustainer of life was violated and assaulted in her peaceful nature.

We hope we remain with us until the end; and do not get lost amidst the accelerated despair, which will spread among men. Always keep your balance at service of the Servants of Jesus.

Hold on to the Master's Lessons, and amidst the darkness, groping for a way out, apply them sincerely and in front of you a flash of Light will open to show you the way to follow.

Believe in us with you until the end.

May Peace be on all planetary quarters and in your hearts too!

You can ask questions.

Margarida: Are you Commander Ashtar Sheram speaking?

Ashtar Sheram: Yes, I am.

Margarida: My brother, first of all it is always great joy to hear your advice. Could you tell us better about that clairvoyance of a friend of ours in relation to GESJ (Servants of Jesus Spiritist Group)?

Ashtar Sheran: We are here with you to clarify regarding the times of turmoil and despair that will dominate human hearts, pushing creatures to the maximum of wild reactions. Moments in which your brothers and friends, and disciples of Master Ramatis must keep their souls attentive and elevated vibrations connected to the Superior Beings, even if alone, involved in adverse troubles.

We bring the guidance to you remember the time when you studied and worked together in the name of Jesus, so that you keep the same attitude of worshipping the Creator, at service of others, and of unconditional love as a prerequisite for ascension spiritual.

Lots of adverse conditions of life waits you, and we need, according with the Greater Spirituality, to keep with you the same harmony and care that has brought us in communication from the beginning.

It is not because of disturbances, of natural phenomena disorganizing the social structure you have created, that our presence will be more or less far from those who have shared with us all this time, the work of rescue and planetary transition.

We hope that everyone who signed a work commitment with us, keep it, even in the face of the most adverse conditions.

Margarida: I have just said it to my work companions. It is amidst the difficulties that we can see if have or not unshakeable faith. Even with all the difficulties and sufferings, we must keep calm our minds and hearts to face the storms.

Ashtar Sheran: You have found the way, when you joined forces as a Working Group.

At the moment, we are concerned to tell you in this edifying communication about the episodic events involving the readjustment of the balance of forces in nature on the Earth's surface, that you remain separated facing an unusual condition for which you were not directly trained; therefore, you need to understand that the knowledge acquired, the work carried out and the psychic conditioning developed in each one of you must be applied, even when you are separated from each other.

Margarida: We understood perfectly, my brother. Thank you in the name of Jesus for bringing us these instructions. From now on, we will exert our best efforts to prepare ourselves to face the pain in any situation we are.

Ashtar Sheran: After the period of separation due to the events, again the disciples of Master Kuthumi are gathered and happy with the Encounter will celebrate the victory of life and victory of Light. And, at that time, many of those, whose faith wavered like a small flame, will show inner luminosity, when suffering, anguish and loneliness feed their inner flame.

As your question, the sister understood the future situation, when a strong shock resulting from a negative attack will cause disturbance in the Spiritist House.

Since now, we advise you to take care of explosive temper, whose fuel can be inflated by less worthy spirits, manipulated by Draconian beings, in order to destabilize the sisters' spiritual balancing.

Dedicate yourselves sincerely to work, but bear in mind that work does not mean miracles of transformation. It is the temper cultivated in many incarnations that reached the current condition. It takes long time to be tamed, mastered and finally transformed.

Perseverance at work.

If disappointments reach your hearts, see on the work, the necessary medicine while working more and more, leaving behind the easy solutions in your mind, because nothing, in the ascending progress is easy for those who recognize themselves as imperfect and wrong when immersed in matter.

May the Peace of the High bless us all and extends over the entire Planet and in the human hearts too.

We remain with you.

Ashtar Serra, 03/13/2010
Jacaraípe – Serra/ES

53. HUMANITY REAPS THE SOWING AFTER CYCLES OF EXISTENCE ON EARTH

Beloved daughters, may Peace and Love involve you!

You live moments of intense restlessness and instability on the Planet Earth. Fear is within the people's hearts, placing them in the position of suitable victims for bestial beings, as fear demonstrates the little faith they have and vulnerable to harassment of evil.

Human beings too attached to perishable matter, they do not vibrate in accordance with the Law of Love.

Fearful of the apocalyptic events that occur, due to their negligence with the Planet and with their own life, they connect themselves with creatures that promise safety in heaven and wealth on Earth.

They sell their souls to the wolf disguised as a sheep!

In these days of insecurity and cataclysms, work tirelessly to spread the truth, awakening consciences to the mistake and illusion in which they are immersed.

You must concentrate your energies on redemptive work. Your family members and loved ones fulfill, each one, their karma, and follow the path determined by their own choices, thence, you cannot help them.

They are all protected by the Father's Major Law. Nothing will happen, with any of them, devoid of karmic merit.

Spend your energy on the work and avoid the "empty hours".

The dynamic of accelerated work is in accordance with the time you live.

On the spiritual plane, your spirits work and fight relentlessly, fulfilling the schedule established for the Warriors of Light.

The perverse beings, aware of the "end of empire", attack with immeasurable violence and with blind hatred hitting everyone within reach of their sharp claws.

This Humanity gets back what have sowed. Millennia of tyrannies, moral deviations, hatred, revenge, and intense deleterious charge thrown on the Planet and its psychosphere, returns to its origins in full force.

You are protected by the Major Force of God and no obstacle is big enough to break your steps towards liberation.

Sufferings, physical and moral pains go away, and only remain, the quantum of faith that you have developed in your hearts, leading you to the Major Plan.

You are not yet at epicenter* of the final storms, but where you are in the "planetary transition", pain and suffering remain until the end.

Humanity reaps the sowing carried out in cycles of existence on Earth.

Hail the Forces for Good!

Be you on Peace and Love!

Blessed is Jesus!

Ramatis, 03/13/2010 - Jacaraípe, Serra/ES

54. NOTHING WILL AVOID THE PLANETARY RENEWAL TO ADVANCE

Clairvoyance: I can see the Planet Earth and intense natural catastrophes happening everywhere. I do not know if they occurred in the same time or not, but those strong and real events touched me deeply.*

I felt the presence of Nostradamus with his words echoing in the entire Orb.

Rays and storms are going to devastate the Earth!

Waters will flood lands, hills and houses bringing diseases and death.

From interior of the land, incandescent lavas may emerge on surface burning miasmas of cruelty.

Fire and water, as essential elements of life will destroy the rebel creatures.

Moral torments will reach those beings proud and insensitive to pain of other brothers.

Diseases will multiply; leaving completely disturbed the medical scientists.

The superlative rebelliousness of ignorant creatures will echo throughout the atmosphere, returning as fire to their cold hearts.

Nothing will avoid the planetary renewal advance.

Pain, tears and gnashing of teeth will be mixed to the rotten mud, watered with blood of creatures that will pay their debts to the Divine Justice, thus ending a cycle of pain and atonement.

The Planet Earth cries while human beings ignore and hurt it more and more.

The Stellar Angels send their spaceships to stop the hemorrhage of the Planet on those painful moments, while humans ignore it.

Only the gold seduces and enslaves the human hearts.

There is no divine punishment, but Law of Progress.

New Era is coming.

Nostradamus, 12/30/09.

55. MASTER RAMATIS = KUTHUMI ANSWERING VARIOUS QUESTIONS

Hail the Force of Love that joined you in this spiritual family!

In the name of the Planetary Christ, we are among you, for the instructions necessary in this period of transition of the earthly humanity.

Prepare yourselves, brothers, so that in the Name of Light bring comfort and hope to human hearts, clarifying the troubled, confused and obscured minds by material passions.

The events triggered by the human presence on this planet do not go back.

As much as awaken the human beings are, their delayed actions cannot reverse the planetary cleansing process initiated by their own will. It is from the Law of Progress that once the planetary cleansing events take place, there will be no turning back.

Humanity needs to evolve; it is necessary to separate the wheat from the tares, because at that time, the vibratory levels on Earth are no longer compatible. For this reason, messages, instructions and directions come to you from everywhere.

To face the difficulties at this time is unavoidable.

Let blossom in your hearts, from the seeds we have sown, a large garden of fragrant flowers and distribute to your earthly brothers the perfume of knowledge to wake up the unaware and forgetful ones of the greater Laws who are hypnotized. The Creator wishes that His Light reaches everyone. His Heart of all Goodness and Perfection does not wish the creatures suffering. Rather, He sends the Blessed Workers to ease the pain planted by human beings, childish minds and hearts rooted in passions.

Brothers do not let the treacherous doubt grow within you. Work in favor of peace, goodness and love, taking to each creature the knowledge that comes to you, as this knowledge for many beings will be the only salvation board at the time of rescue. Do not let weigh on your heads, the negligence and disbelief of having received from the High by means of Hosts of Light, the sublime knowledge that frees and you have locked it in your heart, for fear of sharing it with others.

Everything that comes to you, in this hour of suffering and gnashing of teeth is an important tool of redemption, renewal and progress for all creatures, brothers and sisters in humanity. Make it reach each one of them, so that they can, finally, recognize the Creator's Magnanimous Presence taking care of each creature and of each creation.

Put bewildering despair out of your thoughts. Pains will come, yes, and reach everyone, and each one in the harvest of his karma will fulfill the Law. However, do not let rebellion and anguish stay in your hearts. Take advantage of the suffering to reverse the negative polarity present in your souls, boosting the force of good within you. These are the words we bring to you to think about.

Now, we are at your disposal for your questions you may wish, beloved pupils:

Question: Master, you said the word rescue. Will there be this rescue of intraterrestrial brothers taking us to their cities while occurring changes here on the Earth's surface?

Ramatis: Many creatures are already being rescued in the invisible planes and we assure you that many brothers in physical bodies are also being taken to dwellings prepared to receive the earthly beings. But in the future, in general, the whole humanity will be rescued, whether in the physical or the spiritual plane. You do not know your condition at this time, you are building your way, reaffirming each day, through your work in the Vineyard of Christ, the place you wish to inhabit in the future.

Work in the name of the One who guides you from the High and at the appropriate time, according to the merit of each one, you will receive a visit from the one who will lead you to the rescue spaceships or Intraterrestrial cities, to live there temporarily, gathering strength and energy, learning and knowledge, to restore on earth a new time of unity, peace and love among peoples. Keep you on faith and believe in the message coming to you.

The rescue approaches, as the way of life of the spirits of Light, and of those who remain in the darkness of ignorance, no longer is compatible. Separation is necessary, and the events triggered by human action will be the path determined for this to occur.

Q: In addition to the divulgation we have an obligation to do, what else could we do in terms of vibration for the Planet and to prepare ourselves for those moments?*

Ramatis: Sister, much closer to you than you think are the job opportunities. On the spiritual plane, torments and pains, atrocious sufferings, excesses and persecutions dominate the atmosphere. The earthly psychosphere suffers from the neglect of human beings that only focused on physical life, forget that true life is not in the matter, but beyond it, and forget about the greatest lesson of the Beloved Master to "Love the Neighbor as to himself", they forget to help those who, going to spiritual world, they remain lost, confused, bewildered, afflicted, becoming easily captured by forces organized and commanded by the Realm of darkness.

Help the afflicted and the lost ones, guide the souls that wander desperately through the darkness, and thus, you will be collaborating to build the Kingdom of Light. Do what is within your reach, nothing beyond your strength. Start by helping brothers who are suffering, who are crying and wandering in the darkness. Today, if you are happy to glimpse the Light of Divine Love, take it too, to those who are not yet able to see it, and may the light be born from your hearts to so many brothers, lost, confused and sad.

Q: Master, currently, with so much information in Media, what does the Master suggest for us to exercise discernment and distinguish the messages? How to practice this discernment?*

Ramatis – Daughter, discernment is an individual conquest of each creature acquired through effort, struggles, faith, resignation, study and dedication in the work of good.

Enlightenment only comes to the one who puts himself at work helping others. He, who works tirelessly to correct his spiritual mistakes, not looking at what is lacking in your neighbor, but within himself. He who sees what needs to improve his spirit and strengthening of his faith. He who seeks will find, he who asks will receive the answer. Seek and you will find.

Q: Great Master, will the Science find a cure for "Alzheimer's disease"? I lost three wonderful dear friends last year, but God gave me a lot of strength. Thanks to Him, I survived to those losses.*

Ramatis: Daughter, the disease is blessed and remedy for the spirit. Those who are incarnated and attached to material life see in disease the fierce enemy against which they must fight, but they forget about the harm caused to others in the past; they forget to guide the mind in the logical understanding of the Law of Action and Reaction, of Sowing and Harvest.

We assure the disease is a blessed friend, through which your spirits purge the toxins that impregnate them, cleaning them, thus allowing the acquisition of higher vibration wished by all beings.

In the Renewed Earth, place of regeneration, no longer will have need for the atrocious suffering you face today in this Planet. However, reflect about the necessary presence of a friend illness helping you in spiritual improvement.

The suffering that plagues your heart also transforms it, making it better every day, more resigned, humbler and more compassion with the pain of others. Instead of lamenting, say thanks, because the transformation is a blessed grace to you.

Q: Master, for our work in the Group, both collective and individual, how could we increase the channels of capturing messages of, extra and intraterrestrial Beings and power of intuition? How can we expand in day-to-day practice within our Group?*

Ramatis: Eliminate doubts and let faith grow within you, and you will be expanding your consciousness and reaching places beyond you know today. There are not barriers separating you from the Superior Forces; the obstacles dwell within you. Remove the obstacles and be permanently in contact, in communication with us. Eliminate doubt that is like an acid that corrodes the fibers of faith, preventing the spirit from taking flight into the "higher realms."

Master Ramatis, 11/02/2009 – Olinda/PE

56. PRESENCE OF THE INTRUDING PLANET

Clairvoyance: I can see the sidereal space and hear a strange noise. I see Hercolubus moving free into space. Its snoring echoes vibrations involving all* adjacent Planets, each one receiving its influence, according to its degree of evolution.

I can see Nostradamus as giant as Hercolubus (intruder planet). The first one extends his arm to the second one. I hear his words:

Which strength is this you think has exacerbated the primal and animal forces within the creatures?

It's Hercolubus! Yes! The Intruder Planet.

Its powerful primitive force acts on Planet Earth.

He, who has not prepared himself intimately, seeking to be guided by Christ, he is still dominated by wild instincts; he, who did not protect his soul in the discovery of ignored moral values, submitted in vices of all kinds; the one who is still ignores charity and love to the neighbor; the corrupt of every kind, politicians and religious, merchants or doctors, any individual who has corrupted his own soul, selling it at the material feast. All these are under the primitive, powerful influence of the Intruder Planet.

It already acts on the Planet and on its inhabitants, and it is not in symbolic way. Its action is real and intense, not able to be seen by the limited senses of the incarnated ones. It is felt by the soul, in the aggravation of vices and moral deviations of leftists.

In those who are on the way to spiritual ascension, the rightists perceive it, because of the larger intimate pressure and efforts they make, to remain faithful to the purposes of progress.

The presence of the Intruding Planet (=Sanitizing Star) in your planetary system and its very strong and intense influence on the Planet, is the confirmation that you already live the apocalyptic times, which many beings see as a biblical allegory.

Those who neither see nor wish to see the harsh reality in which live, they are at the mercy of time and of vigorous forces at this time driving the Planet to a higher dimension. At the same time, these forces select the embodied and disembodied people to follow to dimensions similar to their vibratory pattern.

In order to stay in a distinct range from Hercolubus, the creature must exert larger efforts. But whoever is at the mercy of material life, oblivious to the intense and fateful events around him, will be governed by vibrational force of the Intruder Planet.

Brothers, hear our words of warning so that later, in the course of your future existences, in conditions of suffering and madness, you do not, again, blame the Divinity for having kept under "mysteries", what you already had conditions to understand.

The "mysteries" are being revealed right against you, and "he who has eyes to see, can see and who has ears, can hear"

You cannot deny our warnings, but we wish you can understand our words and activate the inner dynamo that provides the awakening of consciousness and desire to change.

You can read our words and understand us.

Seek in the Lessons of Divine Master Jesus, the answers to your doubts and the liberating script, because He taught us that to reach the Father, that is, the Superior Plans, it is through Him who is the Way, Truth and Life and it is only in practice of love to the neighbor and forgiveness, we manage to keep you above the lower scale of the Hercolubus Planet.

Do not worry! Those who have chosen Christ Jesus will find the way toward the liberation.

Do not fear sufferings, which you cannot avoid. Pain will be the common presence in all earthly creatures. But, those in tune with the Forces of Good will bear all the pains and trials to finally get rid of the negative karmic wheels.

Free yourselves, brothers, through love and charity and forgiveness.

May Jesus bless this humanity and may everyone answer to His call of Love!

Nostradamus, 09/25/2009

57. THE SUN COVERED BY SOOT ANOUNCES THE END APPROACHING

Clairvoyance/Astral trip: We enter in a spaceship.

I was surprised when I have seen us inside our cars on board of spaceship, as never before.

We were asked to get out of the car and stand close to viewfinders or screens that allowed us to see outside.

We have seen at distance a rectangle being built in space, close to Earth. The rectangle was a dimensional Portal, where we entered.

It appeared in front of us, a vast burned field. An (atomic) bomb had fallen on that place of the USA. Everything was desolation, wreckage, burned bodies and black smoke.

I have seen Venezuela and Colombia on the American continent, in civil war.

Europe was in disarray, people on the streets, struggles, dissatisfaction and the same black smoke in the air.

Africa with high temperatures and deaths.

The rough seas seemed to be red.

A dull red sun covered with strange black smoke kept the day gray and dark.

Throughout the Planet, the black smoke formed a denser "black net" which "wires" were thicker in some places.

At the end of clairvoyance, everything was desolation, smoke and death.

I could hear the communicating Being, but the images were so impressive and real, that only after a while, under so much emotion, I started to write what he said:

The black net involving the entire Planet represents the materialization of the Beast's thought.

The workers of Light must exert larger efforts to remain unharmed by this powerful "black network" that invades and embraces the Planet, ignoring borders, races or creeds.

When Evil is above good in human hearts feeding the "dark net" by the lower, broken feelings of human hearts and minds.

The Battle between Light and Darkness is constant and uninterrupted, and the first victory will take place in the hearts of those who wish to free themselves from the gross forms of the Worlds of Atonement and Trials.

Victory over the instincts within each creature and in the gradual domination of inferior tendencies, which gradually change their garments and strengthen the Liberating Forces of Light.

In the battle occurred in that time, day or night, it means nothing, because the fields swarm in confrontations of attacks and defenses, and constant attacks against the Nucleus of Light and to respective representatives, on both sides of life.

Wars take place one after another and, in no time, there will be complete peace on the Earth.

At that moment, Nations find themselves in internal or external wars or against other Nations, supplying and strengthening the intricate "Net of Evil" that surrounds the Earth, born by the Beast's will. This one, despite feeling cornered by losses in its army and feeling so close to the presence of the Light of the Lamb, it still thinks able of triumphing and taking the Planet at once, expelling the Lamb's children, extinguishing the sunlight that keeps the flame of life.

Desolation and misery, violence and cruelty is its dominating force. Its fetid and poisoned breath contaminates everything it touches and, together with the devastation of the Planet by humans that modifies and disturbs the growth of plants in all planetary areas.

Brothers, painful and difficult are the days of the Apocalypse!

The "great selection between wheat from the tares" will occur and the Planet, ignoring human disputes, it continues accelerating towards a new dimension able to heal its pains, and get it rid of the heavy burden, the cruel and bloodthirsty beings that housed in its maternal body for millennia.

Avoid small disputes; get forces to forgive and love them all, improving your own evolution.

Get you rid of the comfort that keeps you tied to the lower dimensions. Nothing and nobody will be able to intervene in your choices, but the entire universe drives you if you choose the path of regeneration.

The Father's Love sustains you and the Son's Love guides you.

In this part, the images of war and smoke on the planet become clearer.

He continues:

The dried land will no longer germinate fruits.

Wars will invade the Earth, tearing down borders and burning bodies.

Many people will go mad, deprived of the faith that everything faces and supports.

Lack of water rationed will be the reason for the greatest animosities among Nations.

Few ones will remember God, for the unbelieving majority will be subdued by the darkness.

There will be nothing left for those who believe, except to humbly submit to the Greater Designs, fulfilling with strength and courage the path of liberation.

The sun covered by soot give signal of the end approaching.

The tares will burn, and the wheat will ascend.

Nostradamus,
08/15/2009 - Pedra Azul - Domingos Martins/ES

58. YOU ARE NOT CHARGED FOR WHAT ARE NOT DEBTORS

May the Peace of the Lord' be with you!

The disastrous actions practiced by humans to the neighbor are above comprehension of this materialistic humanity.

With negligence, you have trodden the path of opportunities granted by God Father, thus satisfying the primary desires that maintain you, attached to feelings of hate and revenge, power and ephemeral glories.

Since you only wish "to have", you ignore yourselves as Souls under evolutionary refinement and so, you only thought about yourselves, never of other suffering neighbors.

My brothers know that afterlife, at the "End of the Times" you will be chosen as rightists or leftists of Christ, and as leftists you choose the immoderate violence of inferior creatures that no longer will inhabit this Planet.

To choose uncontrolled violent actions of lower creatures define you with the lower vibrations of those that will be banished from Earth.

You have countless tools to evaluate the same action of the neighbor used at your convenience. Even so, Great Father granted you the only Way possible through His Son Jesus. That is the measure used by the Superior Spirituality to act on Earth.

Do not fear, you will not be charged with debts not yours. Your conscience let you know the "quantum" of blame you have, as well as your lower vibrations will automatically lead to compatible dimension.

The demoniac actions practiced do not belong to any other creature, when you feed the "beings of lower vibration" and joined attacked other neighbors. The dark beings join you in perversions.

You will inhabit other planet compatible with your vibrations such as prisons, hospitals, regenerating and developed schools.

The suffering of Jesus demonstrating sacrifice and pardon is the example you must practice to evolve.

The sinners struggle for domination, and yet ignoring the presence of the Lord Jesus always protecting them.

The "End of the Times" brings dreadful pictures until the Father wishes.

The "Enough!" from Superior Spheres will reach wherever you are to fulfill Father's Will.

Love and Trust on Christ so that you face the final storms and advance in the route of fullness.

We leave you on Peace that you do not cultivate yet.

Work and love each other to own benefit. Forgive others so that our "spaceships" rescue you for spiritual regeneration.

Be on Peace!

Yuri, GESJ - 07/10/2009

59. NO PROVOCATION IS LAWFUL

Brothers, may the Peace of Jesus be with you and guiding the existence of all incarnated and disincarnated spirits at this time on Planet Earth.

From the High leave radiations of Light reaching you by adding of Mercy from the Creator emitted of loving hearts of countless Beings enlisted by the ascended Masters that together involve the entire Planet in benefactor aura of kindness, compassion and love.

Such energies are sent to everyone on earth seeking to understand the purpose of life, and raise their energies above the lower vibratory pattern existent on earth.

As you know, we work incessantly, and long ago we are with you revealing the knowledge allowed by the Creator. We said before that when your prisons no longer could support the large creatures far from path led astray, you would be already living the Times of Transition.

Dear friends! Recognize in the current scenario of your world, "callings of alerts" that we sent you in the past and compare our words with the current reality. You are prisoners in your houses and the delinquents of life, free around the world disturbing the order, coexistence and routine among men and women, young and old, who seek to work and lead their lives within the moral and spiritual precepts suggested by the Nazarene Master.

Compare our words of yesterday with the current reality and pay attention to the words we bring you now, so that, in the future, you are not disturbed by the reality that is about to be unveiled, because more aggravations will come. The terrestrial psychosphere is agitated and anxious to drain into the Planet's material body, the toxic density of life on its surface.

They are mental radiations with a dense and negative charge forming the black carpet surrounding the blue sphere, needing to be sanitized and, then, like natural disasters, a certain amount of toxins will be drained, relieving the heavy burden, which the Mother Earth transports.

Brothers, the more the psychosphere of the Planet is shaken, the more the Forces of Good and Evil are confronted, more you need to define yourself to be on the side of the Light or Darkness. It means to define with attitudes and not with words; define by the work that hand builds, not by the intentions of heart and mind.

May the speed of events be to you, a lesson in the speed you need to make your decisions and inner renewal IN this accelerated time of Planetary Transition.

Your sick Orb stirs in search of health and will naturally expel all contaminated cells, only remaining healthy cells fluidly connected to it, able to growing again, when they are finally sanitized and clean.

The "forces" stir on your Planet. Dark armies join against you. Torrents of "dark forces" will increase more and more, in numbers, destined for the Working Nucleus resistant to the Darkness.

Do not get discouraged! So will happen until the end, army against army. The Commanders of both Armies will rise for the final confrontation. Then, after the last battle, after defined the Sovereign Force on Earth, there will be a restart.

The forces in the Earth's psychosphere are stirred. Be you ready to fight or to flee. Keep your consciences with clarity and discernment at this time.

Peace we bring and we leave you in the name of Jesus.

Margarida: Are you Brother Yuri speaking?

Yuri: Yes, I am Yuri.

Margarida: Do you refer to the last battle with the Dragon?

Yuri: It is the great battle of Armageddon. The final Apocalypse.

Margarida: After this, won't there be any other great battle?

Yuri: No, because all offenders and rebels will be deported. There will be no more insurrection of dark force on this Planet, after the Beast's downfall.

Margarida: In other words, Commanders like the Beast and Reptilian Chiefs at this point, all of them, will be exiled. Is not it?

Yuri: They will be uprooted from this Planet.

Margarida: Thanks God!

Yuri: And their perfidious intentions no longer may land on Earth, as the Planet will be sanitized and cauterized by the Force of Christ's Love, repudiating every evil presence in this Orb that has already received so much negativity, and suffering deep damage in its planetary body. The "enemies of light" will be deported.

Margarida: Will the days of suffering continue until the total "verticalization" of the Earth's axis?

Yuri: Once the cleansing process starts, a long period demands, because just as it took centuries to bring the Earth to its current condition, it will take a long time for the Planet's Forces to readjust in new vibratory bands, exterminating in full all negativity adhered to your Planet body.

The human suffering shall lead you to understand your real situation in the face of the Cosmos magnitude.

Margarida: We would like to know, if our attitude of bringing in a public meeting, a letter received about the Reptilians and a certain Portal in MT, as well as sending copies of the letter to certain Spiritualist Nucleus interested on our Divulgations. Are we in the right way?

Yuri: The current phase of the work seeks to face "negative forces". As you said, it is of union between both nuclei that until then becoming stronger, reaffirming themselves as Warriors of Light, fully defining the members of each Worker Nucleus.

Those who continue facing annoyances, attacks, traps and those who reaffirmed their will to evolve with the Hosts of Light, must unite, in the same way the Forces of Evil join under less worthy intentions. Together are the Draconian, Reptilian Armies and others of all "forms and types" of different Negative Leaders, commanded by the Beast. They join surpassing pride and vanity that dominate them for then to face the Lambs of Light. Likewise, you must unite consolidating the Forces of Good on Earth. In this way, the growing confrontation is inevitable, and in view of the imminent final confrontation, it is up to you to assume openly the position of workers facing whatever is necessary to attest the choice you made.

We want to say that your attitude is correct, consistent with the purpose of the work in the new phase you are. No provocation is lawful, however, every position taken reaffirms the warrior of light.

May the Peace of the Nazarene Master be with you.

Margarida: Thank you my brother for these explanation. May the Beloved Father and our Elder Brothers like you continue helping us.

Commander Yuri - 05/26/2009

60. INTRUDING PLANET

No more will be found Peace at this advanced phase of End Times.

Brothers, let us praise the Creator who is the living manifestation of Love!

His pulse of Love creates life in all dimensions of the whole Universe!

Let God's Love guide you to Heaven!

It may reverberate over the four sides of the Earth, the emanations of the Intruder Planet, which does not bring evil in itself. Once it is primitive, its "grimace" reaches the primary bands of the lower dimensions, and makes its "animal primitiveness" vibrate in the depths of all souls, stimulating and releasing the corresponding feelings.

The impact of its vibrations has already caused functional dystonia of reason, and those beings carried away by its magnetism, lose control over themselves.

Suffering more directly its action, this humanity responds to its primitive impulse and spills from itself all animalism contained by the moral bonds. After broken the containment dikes, the torrent of bad behavior overflows and manifests itself in physical matter, dragging thousands of beings to madness and imbalance, addiction and crime.

See while Hercolubus emanates its primitive force and beings, "immersed" in evil, correspond to its vibration changed into evil.

Animals, which primal force is still unconscious, they are not as influenced as rational beings. Then, since the magnetism of animals corresponds to the primary magnetism of Hercolubus, the contact with the magnetism of the Intruding Planet does not stimulate them any exacerbated behavior.

All creatures that remain in a certain lower range of oscillating vibrations and degrading attitudes, they are dragged by the primitive force of the Intruding Planet (=cleaner Star) and subject to be attracted by it.

All the whirlwind of evil tendencies not dominated by the creature in its evolutionary journey surely dominates its reason and actions. At this stage, larger is the degree of difficulty to get rid of the lower left sides. A greater quota of energy and goodwill must be undertaken to become superior to the primitive magnetism, which seeks to impose itself on terrestrial magnetism; as well as larger efforts are necessary on the part of Christ's rightists to keep themselves on the lighted path.

The Dark Beings that inhabit dominating the lower regions, they feel strengthened in this stage of greater performance by the primary force of the Intruder Planet; and, beings enslaved in those negative bands, will feel hopeless of reaching freedom.

The Great Beast feels almost happy thinking to be about to be free and dominate the Earth.

The Beast's manifestation is more intense among its minions, as its pernicious energy "rolls" more easily between dimensions; different of the Light, which finds a disproportionate magnetic barrier to manifest itself on the Planet.

This entire process that you experience now, it is part of the Greater Plan of the "planetary transition". While the Humanity finds itself suffocated by lower vibrations, which it does not know how to define; while violence manifests, it grows the collective madness; while the forces of nature, gradually are ungoverned, human beings make their choices and define their vibratory pattern as regenerated or exiled people.

The automatism of God's Law is revealed to the stunned eyes of the rebels.

In the clearings of Light, spread over the Earth, the Armies of Jesus work tirelessly in battles against "beasts" such as in cleaning the lower astral regions, in helping the deviated and powerless souls, and in recovering their own path of spiritual ascension.

No more peace will be found at this advanced stage of "end times". Peace and love must be cultivated in each creature, because keeping the inner illuminated, it will go through the ascension struggle until reaching regeneration. Bitter struggles will face on both planes of life, until the dawn of the New Age.

Jesus who is tireless and all Love, sustains everyone.

Archimedes

Question: Are you Archimedes, the Guardian of the Portal?

Answer: Yes. From that position, we can clearly see the Intruding Planet and its aura that already "touches" the Earth's causing tremendous shock able to hit the weak structures of human morality.

May Jesus guide you!

Supported by the Father's Love, His Son guides His Flock.

61. IT IS YOUR CHOICE

Beloved brothers,

Your lives are already marked by events that define the "planetary transition". From explosions of violence in the Middle East to the climatic catastrophes in Brazilian lands, the disturbing episodes of peace in your lives grow worse.

For those who are distracted in the present life like travelers on vacation, the episodes are just commonplace events that have always existed, gaining great repercussion today due to the increase in connections circulating faster through the Media.

God Father, in His Infinite Goodness and Mercy allowed that "revelations of high content" also reached everyone to expand your consciousness, and deep understanding of the close connection of such occurrences, due to the current conditions of the Humanity and the evolution of this planet.

Our job, as Messengers of God's Love, is to lead you to the "higher psyche" to allow you understand the Greater Plan. Your task consists in the effort to reach such knowledge, extracting from them, important lessons of His Infinite Goodness and the Eternal Love, humbly knelt down you before the Great Creator Mercy.

However, if your hearts, whose fibers are still hardened and not accepting our messages and sublime vibrations we send you, refuting the logic of reasoning, which we insistently try to develop together with your minds, then we can do nothing. It's your choice.

We continue carrying on the rescue work, including all the degenerates, unbelievers, attached, lost and distanced from God's Laws.

Small bursts of rain, light tremors, subtle climatic variations are consequences of the great changes that you provoked in the earthly psychosphere and biosphere.

Impassable areas, homeless families, lost goods, limitations in terms of the way of life for all of you, are signals of difficulties that you will face, on an ever-increasing scale.

Brothers, change you!

There is no joke, deceiving or alarming in the messages we bring you. We will not give you dates of the occurrences to which you must be prepared.

Choose always less of material life.

Dedicate yourselves to the "service of good" donating loving energies.

Never blame Nature or the Creator when you suffer the consequences of your wrong choices.

Love each other as brother!

Hunger, cold and pains that you will face will not recognize the skin color, level of education or material condition.

Be brave and courageous, building in the intimacy of your soul, the fortress that will face everything without shaken; and, after the episodes of the "planetary transition", you will join again in the name of Jesus, for the reconstruction of your House. (The Renewed Earth).

Brothers! We remain with you in the fulfillment of our "Earth Mission". Even if you do not have faith and trust in us and in the work we do, we assist everyone, indistinctly, until the "planetary transition" is completed.

Here or in other orbs, we shall meet remembering these current moments and celebrating as brothers.

We await such opportunity, when at last, we shall conclude the transition of your souls.

Peace forever!

Love and sublime redemption!

Commander Yuri, on 01/13/2009
Rescue Mission X Planetary Transition

62. LITTLE YOU KNOW ABOUT THE PLANETARY TRANSITION

Hail the Force of the Light!

Blessed is Divine Jesus!

Brothers, the Plans of God are perfect, and from His Perfection comes the same treatment to all his children.

Your minds used to make judgments will find it difficult to accept, however the lesson must be transmitted, because if there are many beings who neither understand nor wish to understand it, there are those who wish to know and for them, we speak.

All the people of this current time you live in, they are children of God. Every worker of darkness, every deformed spirit dived in mud of voluntary ignorance, every Reptilian or Draconian, indistinctly all them deserve the Divine Mercy.

However, there are differences in the way we treat each other, as well as in the answers we get from the loving energies given to everyone.

The turbulent days in which you live demand that it be so, for there are wolves among lambs; and, if we address to the lambs, light of revelations, and we see such light reflected in the form of prayers, work and correction, the same does not reflect the wolves, which benefited by the Presence of the Almighty, they return the energies in the form of heavy blocks of negative forces, dense emanations and all kinds of harmful vibrations that someone could possibly produce.

Hence, the use of other weapons and equipment we are obliged to use in the name of Divine Mercy. Everyone must understand the serious moment they live now and recognize the antagonism of "forces" confronting each other on the planet, so that everyone may exercise the right of using their free will to become leftist or rightist of Christ.

For this reason, we cannot simply invade your Orb and snatch your humanity from the social and environmental madness in which you are.

Every human being who lives on Earth is responsible for the conditions of the planetary psyche.

No action, thought or word is pure. They are loaded with your emotions, producing vibratory frequencies graduated by the spectrum of frequencies and located in the generative source, under a certain evolutionary level of the planet and its humanity.

We have our spaceships around all the continents of the terrestrial globe. On each continent there is a spaceship, which we call "anchor" and from it leaves the smaller spaceships circulating through terrestrial airspace, monitoring the conditions of the planet and the movement of communities immediately located under them.

The anchor spaceships are directly connected to the Mother spaceship commanded by the Distinguished Ashtar Sheran and from it depart the forces maintaining the magnetic currents of the set of spaceships they serve.

We neither interfere in your way of life, nor disturb your peace nor your wars. We rarely allow ourselves to be seen and when we do, it is for the purpose of familiarizing you with our presence.

As a primitive people, you have still reacted strangely to our presence. You still have doubt whether we exist or not, when the discussions among you should be different, for example, about the efforts in the world should be to eradicate hunger on the planet.

From the spaceships working on the African Continent, we receive the hardest vibrations, which content reveals the degree of primitivism to which you are imprisoned.

The basic nutrition need of the material body does not occur there and few beings care about this situation. The same reality can be seen in other parts of the globe, however, the concentration of hungry souls producing violent forces, which manifestation on the physical plane is inevitable, since they come from vibrations produced by men.

Not only the temperature differences are responsible for the production of devastating hurricanes which suck and then spread, but also the strength of the laments due to hunger reproduce the emptiness of the human soul in the planet's body.

Q: Could I make a question, Brother?

Yuri: Yes, If the question is to clarify what we are presenting to you.

Q: It's just what I didn't understand very well. Are you saying that natural phenomena can be produced by the set of sufferings generated in a certain area of the planet?

Yuri: We don't say it can, but so it is. Your understanding of life is restricted to what your Science explains, but we affirm that in addition to the knowledge produced by your Science, there is other knowledge even more complex and profound, such as the interaction among feelings produced by the psychic metabolism of your humanity and the phenomenal conditions of nature on Earth and vice versa.

The Earth's environment also influences the human psyche, with the difference that it is up to human beings to establish the vibratory connection they have chosen; and Nature is only responsible for governing the movement of energies set in motion by human action.

Q: Now I understand well. Does it mean that each Continent generates a vibratory frequency and a magnetism that, when interacting with others, generate planetary phenomena?

Yuri: Yes, the global natural phenomena is result of magnetic forces, produced by living collectivities, in each of the planetary continents.

Q: And what are the spaceships doing in such context?

Yuri: The spaceships monitor the psychic conditions of each Continental collectivity, seeking to dilute the negativities, inducing magnetic discharges and tensions on the own Continent that generated them, thus avoiding of concentrating forces on the Planet's deleterious psyche.

This work has been fundamental so that the complete disorder have not yet settled on the terrestrial psychosphere and consequently manifested by the phenomena of Nature.

Through this mechanism connecting all beings to all energies in process in this orb, we affirm the natural disasters may increase, because despite all efforts, incessant work, revelations and sending forces of positive polarity that we have been employing on each continent, human beings respond more readily to negative forces, discharging increasing volumes of low-frequency energies, de-harmonizing what we are constantly trying to harmonize.

Our job is like building a sand castle by the sea, where rough waters always come and undo what we've done. But no matter how many times or with what violence the waters of your energies in disarray undo our work, we take it up again out of love for you, out of obedience to the Father, out of dedication to Master Jesus, and so it will be until the end.

About the "planetary transition" you still know very little, as we cannot advance with more profound lessons when there are so many beings drowning in the shallow waters of knowledge that we have presented to you in droppers.

May the Beloved Master, Governor of humanity and Lord of our hearts, enlighten your minds so that you can understand and change yourselves.

There is no distinction among creatures, we are all children of God, and as such, we deserve the illustrious treatment as heirs of the Worlds.

Peace over borders!

Peace comes from heart!

Commander Yuri, 0103/2009.

Clairvoyance: When Commander Yuri spoke, I have seen the world map on a table and like a three-dimensional film with spaceships destined for each

Continent and above them the Mother Ship almost in size of the globe. The Mother Ship lit kept electric currents circulating on the Earth's astral; wherever it crossed, it generated a magnetic field around it, which cleared the astral, forming a path of light.

I believe that in those places where the current goes, none of us incarnated, while in spiritual work, can transit; but, in the immediate magnetic field, I can see brothers circulating quickly, driven by the strength of light over there.

While landing the anchor spaceships, this electrical current feeds its field of force keeping it stable, and this, in turn, primarily supply again the smaller spaceships that have generators of automatic forces, but periodically are submitted to cleaning and calibrating of its worn and corroded equipment because of the acidity of the aggressive psychosphere of the planet.

I can see the spaceships flying over the continents and over the sea. They work incessantly, circulating through the area predetermined, one not invading the space of the other, unless when requested.

They suck the air of that area, pass it through gigantic filters coupled to force generators of force and then return them a little bit cleaner. It is a beautiful work!

When they see it in their worksheets, occurrences such as collective deaths, are go towards the place, and, without interfering, wait for the proper moment to act; if the period of death exceeds the capacity of own strength, then ask support from other Commanders.

Another type of occurrence refers to the attacks by opponents of Christ, to which the extraterrestrial brothers react with storms of rays that immobilize and disperse exaggerated concentration of the Beast's followers and others.

It's really amazing to see, the organization, timing, harmony and beauty of this work done by extra e intraterrestrial spaceships in favor of the humanity.

It's so much love and dedication beyond our understanding.

There are many spaceships and I have the strong impression that each one of us, inhabitants of the Earth is already registered in a kind of "vibrating frequencies catalog", as reference for our rescue.

We all are monitored, not in the sense that we do every hour, but as to our psychic condition and the position that our acts are situated.

01/03/2009.

63. WAKE UP BROTHERS. DO NOT IGNORE THE REALITY END OF TIMES

Beloved disciples, we beg the blessings of Jesus so that your courageous spirits may be strengthened in facing the humanity, in the dissemination of the Truths and Callings from the High to you.

The Call is urgent for all peoples who walk carelessly, ignorant, materialistic and without love.

A large contingent of "bestial spirits" arrives in the astral plane, close to the incarnates, increasing the violence, exposing even more the fragile and unvigilant creatures to the animalistic domain. They have superficially developed the faith that makes them weaker and insignificant in the face of the overwhelming negative force around them. In "Cold Temples", they do not absorb the energy from the High to them, making Sublime vibrations impermeable, and materialism dominates minds and hearts.

Conductors of souls and their followers are blind walking in stumbling steps towards the Abyss, to meet the "Bestial creatures" that will lead them straight to planetary exile.

The Spirits brothers are not saved by simply adopting the Doctrine of the Spirits, which they have not yet understood, judging it to be a simple manifestation of spirits for the satisfaction of themselves. A large number of wrong and tormented Spiritists are part of the leftists exiled from Earth to worlds similar or inferior to this Planet.

No religion can save any individual who is far from the practice of love and charity and does not abandon the old prejudices.

Jesus and His Lessons are the greatest Code of Liberation for this humanity, and not even His powerful Love did not yet reach the vast majority.

The Abysses are populated, the thresholds overcrowded, and the Rescue spaceships leave daily leave from the Earth full with failed spirits towards exile.

Wake up brothers! The End Times is a reality that you cannot ignore. Love unconditionally each other, be charitable and loving with your neighbors. Jesus invites everyone to self-renewal and to follow Him toward the Land of Regeneration making progress together with the Planet.

This is our message to you follow as mediators of the Spirits Doctrine. Awaken brothers and break down the borders of prejudice. We are all brothers, children of same and only Father inhabiting in the same planet.

We lovingly work in the name of Jesus and for you!

Ramatis, 12/06/2008

64. LAST MINUTE REGRET WON'T FREE THEM FROM EXILE

Beloved disciples,

Behold the "great hour" presents itself to this careless humanity ignoring the warnings that, like a strong alarm triggered, call attention to the current important moment.

It is the last time to your renewal in sincere practice of the Commandments of God and Lessons of Christ.

The cold Temples, the hypocritical Priests, the venal Pastors and all sorts of bad Religious Conductors keep the followers' minds attached to dogmas and lies. Thus stagnating the mind in fear, and the souls imprisoned by bad inclinations, thinking to be eternal punishments to which they will be subjected after death, they do not encourage a radical change of lifestyle, which they will not be able to achieve, to not be thrown into the avenging flames of "eternal hell".

People have not improved in themselves, the ability to reason within the simple and clear lessons of the Master Jesus, without the need of intermediaries, other human beings, like themselves, full of defects and ailments. Therefore, they cannot reason within the logic and simplicity of love and forgiveness. They are attached to hypnosis of mad Conductors, who manipulate the Universal Divine Concepts, distorting and despising them, in order to subdue the ignorant crowds.

The great spiritual backwardness of this humanity reverberates in this last hour, when the number of "exiled leftists" to planets inferior to Earth, is far above the rightists on the way to regeneration.

Conflicts among Races, Religions and Nations, intolerance among peoples, and the cult to the matter, to the detriment of the immortal spirit, are the natural consequences for having reneged the teachings of Master Jesus.

There will be no extemporaneous salvation and whoever wants to be saved must give his quota of suffering and renunciation in favor of the needy neighbor; he must renounce himself in favor of collectivities; to give up vices and ailments acquired in the lifetime on Earth.

Last-minute regret will not free them from exile.

Planetary exile is not God's punishment, it is Divine Mercy in favor of the rebellious against His Laws, it is the restart of a "new cycle" in another "House".

The Creator's wise Laws brought to this humanity by many Avatars, including the most enlightened Rabbi of Galilee, Jesus, are like a most powerful beacon to shine the way of redemption. However, it is avoided by the majority of humanity, because His Light unveil his soul, and imposes correction and work in favor of himself and others.

Few ones look for the difficult path of transformation; only a small number achieve regeneration. It is not enough to access the path, the traveler must fight to remain firm, because on the side of the illuminated path, there are many appeals that lead individuals to abandon it, at any part of their journey.

Ramatis, Vila Velha/ES - 11/27/2008

Beloved daughters, faithful disciples of my heart,
The journey of yours includes struggle, courage and faith attracting to your Nucleus, wherever you are, the powerful energies of the Enlightened Servants of Jesus and the Beloved Master, by your side, shining the redemptive path.

The Earth is sick, whose responsible for its agony are heard throughout the planetary system, attracting more and more brothers from other galaxies, answering to the for help sent by the earthy Orb. There are many races from different worlds landing on Earth, reaching out their hands in friendly help to the brother planet and its humanity. Only human beings responsible for their own downfall do not understand the cry for help.

More than two thousand years have gone and they have not learned to love and forgive yet. They have the hearts filled with hate, lust, revenge, immoderate pride and vanity. Material opulence is the goal of their lifetime; they deny the immortal spirit.

This is the key incarnation of every earthly creature, whether they believe it or not.

Exile is a reality from which they cannot escape. It is not divine punishment; it is the mercy of the Beloved Father so that in the beginning, in a primitive body, they have new opportunities to learn how to love.

Struggles on Earth will not cease, as men's irascibility grows worse. meanwhile, the Beast rises from the deep Abyss and its pestilential emanations reach deeply all who remain in lower vibration. It will use fear and the entire arsenal of vices, which are at the mercy of its nefarious influence.

Referring to GESJ Director:

Dear sister disciple, your work is solidified in the hearts of those who accompany you. You won hearts on the physical and mainly in the spiritual plane. An "army of servants", of grateful brothers for the friendly help and opportunity providing by this Group to all souls, gathers around the work directed by you, dear sister.

On the physical plane, the number of servants is still small, because of brothers who refuse to accept the divine opportunity to evolve, and of disciples attached to errors that give up the work, when they could also evolve so much evolutionary.

Your work is very important to this humanity, even if you think it is small. You haven't reached yet the great repercussion in all planes of life.

Your tired body remains intact with cells cohesive and organism functioning, within the expected wear and tear characteristic of age. The tasks are many and you must complete them before the end of the earthly journey.

We assure you of our constant presence at your side, supporting, guiding and leading your steps on Earth, as it has been up to now.

You can ask your questions and inquiries.

Margarida: I had asked my questions mentally, and the Brother answered all them. I'd like to know, if we have already done the work of opening the Portal and if there is any indicated place to concentrate and carry out the spiritual plan outlined?

Ramatis: The battlefield is full of negative beings, brothers who remained in darkness and were killed while fighting. On the side of the Light, certainly many Warriors are wounded, which is natural in a battle; however, all will be helped. Those who remain rooted in corrosive hatred will be driven into exile. Each will receive treatment that deserve.

After concluded the stage of battles, the opening of the Portal will be carried out. The contact you had with indigenous peoples of the Region took place in a satisfactory manner. You may also be able to concentrate on the riverbank.

Margarida: I thought to rent a little boat at our disposal for a little walk on the white river praying with nature in gratitude to the Father, greeting the forest, the waters and animals.

Ramatis: In this opportunity, your forces and energies will be restoring, as your spiritual bodies are also wounded and worn out.

Many tasks will still be presented to you for this new working time.

I greet you in the name of Light and may the blessings of the Divine Jesus embrace you to go ahead faithful and courageous until the end of the journey.

I bless and leave you on Peace.

Ramatis, 11/27/2008 GESH – Boa Vista/RR

65.CATASTROPHES SIGN THE EARTH's EXHAUSTION

Brothers, may the peace of the Lord of the Worlds be with you!

Souls committed with the Law of Karma walk ungoverned over the Brazilian territory.

It is not from God's will for suffering to come. Men, ignorant and passive, spiritually speaking, await events, when they should create the conditions to carry them out, according to their own condition.

Crime spreads.

Catastrophes sign the Earth's exhaustion.

Living conditions grow worse.

And what do they? They continue persisting in selfishness that imprisons, pride that overthrows, lie that blinds, greed that makes the mind insane, and so on.

Friends! Listen to the voices that cry out to you. Reach out the hands to those who weep, and have compassion with the suffering ones. Share with your brothers what little you have and, without waiting for a reward, donate from yourselves, time and service.

The fights will never end.

In the presence of the Master, you were when such lessons were engraved on souls. Therefore, you were chosen to work at that time, like many others, because, within you, in the core of your spirit, live the glorious hour when the Master Himself, reincarnated, looked at your eyes, transmitting all sweetness and tenderness of His Soul filled with love.

You have trodden by different paths until you met Him again, and now you are called to attest His words, confirming the plan you outlined for millennia by Him.

Be strong, brave and fearless.

There is little time and few workers. However, the One who leads us, transforms the water of difficulties into good wine, which will make happy many beings in the feast of the Renewed Earth.

While carrying out your task, continue transforming your outfits, purifying your souls, preparing you for the Great Encounter, where those "Loving Eyes" will again look at you, welcoming you in the definitive meeting.

May Peace and kindness remain with you!

Nostradamus, 11/25/2008 GESH – Boa Vista/RR

66. THE HOUR APPROACHES AND 'FORCES OF EVIL" ADVANCE UPON YOU

Clairvoyance: I have seen above the car in which we were traveling, a transport similar an airbus described by Andre Luis in his book "Our Home".

When we stopped, it also stopped in the air landing softly on the ground. Inside it were: Zambi, Shama Hare, Andre Luis, Dr. Samuel and a driver unknown to me. Everyone were in a state of concentration and I began to feel very strong presence of Master Jesus. An intense beam of light descended from the High and the Beloved Master gave us the following message:

Beloved ones! I told you that whenever you were gathered in My Name, there I would be with you.

I come to you, how our Father determines. I come to the little ones, the poor in spirit and debtors like you.

Why do you doubt of mine manifestations?

Why do you doubt of mine presence?

The doubt is in you, in the distance you built between My Loving Heart and of yours, taking tortuous paths and criminal practices, distanced you from our Father's Laws.

Come brothers to me. Take up the straightness of the way, according to God's Laws and observe what these Laws determine.

Reconcile each other! You are brothers that must live in brotherhood and mutual fraternity. The troubles reaped by you are fruits of your ignoble acts. Do not blame one another; rather, remember your repeating mistakes that you have not yet mastered, and now, the end of time has come granted by the Law of Progress.

You all are who make up this humanity that I have led for millennia, called to awaken; and yet what do you do? You doubt of mine Presence, thinking that above you are "Heaven and Hell", determining the direction you take. You are wrong on your discernment, overshadowed by clouds of ignorance.

I am closer to you than you imagine, searching each soul, begging the Father for help and support for each one, guiding workers and benefactors of the Army of Light, so that with you they may be supporting, guiding, clarifying and healing the wounds you cause, out of ignorance that drags on.

Brothers! The time ends for doubts. Come to me! I am with you. I speak to your consciences, without mediators, it is just enough that you wish to be with Me communicating with you.

Come, beloved brothers! The hour ends and evil advances upon you. The Kingdom of Light awaits everyone, for you are all, a flock worthy of This Shepherd.

May your aching consciences be no greater obstacle than how much my Love of liberation.

Loosen the ties of disturbing emotions and come to involve in the Sublime Feeling of Fraternal Love.

Be reconciled with life and, in the name of God, who guides us from the High, and deny the Forces of Evil.

May Peace reign on Earth among good willing men!

Sananda (Cosmic Name of Jesus),

67. HIDEOUS CRIMES GROWS WORSE AND THE BARBARIY SETTLES IN COLLECTIVITIES

May Peace of Jesus be with you!

Sisters, God's Plans are manifested on Earth, despite the unwillingness of human beings to follow the Creator's wise Laws.

The borders of imbalances are broken making the coexistence among creatures unsustainable. Brothers against brothers fight fiercely and bloodshed staining the sacred ground, body of the Earth. The Beast manifests itself in wild actions of careless human beings dominating them.

As storms destroy multitudes in the dramatic earthly scenario, each one fulfills his karma. Victims and executioners face each other, increasing their debts with the Divine Accounting. The few ones who forgive, quitting their debts to the neighbor, they follow the ascending march of evolution.

Hideous crimes multiply and barbarism settles in communities; it is the he Intruding Planet stirring and removing from the Being's inner core, the primary instincts not tamed by the rebellious spirit. With greater intensity the force of the Intruding Planet is present, forcing the Beasts to appear in the daylight. The masks fall, no longer able to contain themselves in hypocrisy and manifest themselves in a rictus of unrestrained evil and cruelty.

Nations against nations, brothers against brothers, the Planet seethes in fall and horror. However, because of the reigning chaos, explosions of Light and Hope, here and there, manifest themselves, filling hearts that have faith in a different and peaceful future with courage.

The creatures are guided by the materialistic compass and build sand castles that fall apart even before becoming real.

Brothers amidst of the prevailing turmoil, only faith can prevent madness. Love can sustain life and courage to remain faithful to the Teachings of Christ able to guide the "rightists" to the end of their journey.

Suffering descends its veil over the Planet attracted by the human rebellion. To remain faithful to Christ, despite the pain and suffering that reigns, should be the purpose of the trustful beings. Working and serving in the Vineyard of Jesus will guide your steps far from the cycle of suffering and pain taking you to a new dimension.

The working groups march fearlessly on the "battlefields", slaughtering the beasts that dare to subdue human beings, thus helping the unfortunate and weak ones, breaking through the dark soil of the Abyss, instituting a new order of "light and peace".

Faithful servants of Christ, fearless Warriors, march with courage, working hard for the Planet and its humanity. Unpretentious Warriors only want to complete the learning course at this time.

The School Earth will have a new sidereal graduation and the repeating students will have to move. Speed up your steps and be an example of faith and courage to set you free.

The Amazon Forest must still survive to fulfill its role in containing the ungoverned Forces of Nature. Once its strength is extinguished, Nature will break its control floodgates and the Planet goes to its final agony.

The Retrograde Forces think to be victorious and expose themselves in time to be dominated. Contained, they will take a while to remake themselves before the final attack. However, it will be the time necessary for the fulfillment of the Highest Designs. The Great Army of Christ is strategically positioned and the "Planetary Karma" will be fulfilled, and the individualities will adjust in the fulfillment of their destinies, choosing to remain like tares or become wheat.

Peace forever!

Master of yours,

Ramatis, 11/07/2008

68. GOD NEITHER IS OFFENDED NOR AVENGED FOR THE DELAY
OF HIS REBEL CHILDREN.
HE GRANTS THEM OPPORTUNITY TO EVOLVE

The Divine Mercy wanted this humanity awaken of the lethargic sleep that sent it to darkness, and thus, Jesus descended incarnated in the supreme sacrifice to touch hearts hardened in evil and to light up the way of the earthly travelers.

However, the intense torpor in which the unvigilant beings immersed themselves, did not allow them to see the Radiant Light spilled over their foreheads. They continued in insanity and crime, perpetrated evil on the earth, disrespected life and settled down chaos.

Most of the brothers in humanity forgetful of the Law of Love and hypnotized by material facilities, by the illusory glow and cold of gold, full of hatred and revolt, remained rooted in the darkness where they created strong and deep roots on the Planet, attracting most of the humanity to the dark side of unfulfilled desires, foolish vanity, pride and arrogance, lust, hatred and revenge.

Deaf to the warnings from the High for the need to change the trajectory of madness and vibratory fall, the creatures continued fighting each other, as far as they could.

They ignored the advanced hour and continued in the practice of iniquities, ignoring the limits of free will, devaluing Life as the greatest good offered by God for the progress of creatures.

The end is coming!

The dangerous saturation of harmful energy fed on vices and turpitude of beings turns against its authors. There is instability in Nature and on people's lives. The unknown manifests itself, therefore, no human science is capable of containing the advance of catastrophic events triggered by human actions.

Accelerated, the Selection Process continues its course, ignoring race, sex, religion, and so on. May everyone know that the downfall of this humanity is due exclusively to their own actions of remaining in rebellion against the Universal Laws and disobedience to the Creator's Laws.

The physical and intellectual of yours do not represent anything against the Force of the Law of Progress.

There are vibrating bands of spiritual graduation, and each one chose the elective band for his intentions and actions. The lower ranges are full and saturated with creatures; all, indelibly, on the way to the planetary exile. The upper bands of spiritual evolution are empty; few ones have managed to reach them.

There is no divine determinism in the concentration of creatures in this or that band; each one chooses where wish to remain. The tools to evolve were offered to everyone, which use depend on each one.

The Dark Forces fed by this humanity, rise from the Abyss to surface, increasing the degree of violence and imbalance in human actions. The Earth needs to be clean, and for that, "beasts" fed on human wildness are being freed from the domains of the Abyss to join with their pairs in intentions and desires, magnetized in the same vibrations, can go to compatible planets with its ferocity.

He, who chose the path illuminated by Christ, loving and forgiving, working for the benefit of others, he will be able to reach a new home, superior to the one you inhabit today.

It will be the Renewed Earth!

Where is the injustice of God in this selection that takes place?

The imperfections are in human creatures of less worthy intentions and desires.

God, the Uncreated Creator, is beyond the understanding of most people who remain in the lower ranges of spiritual evolution. God neither offends nor get avenge for the delay of His rebellious children; but offer them opportunity to evolve.

The "planetary transition" is a reality that you live. Events that trigger on the matter, on the physical plane, even if you do not believe it, they show weakness and expose the fragility of your will.

Awake, awake!

Only in the practice of love you will be able to migrate to higher spiritual evolution bands, ascending to better conditions, on both planes of life, obtaining the necessary skills to inhabit a superior planet!

Love and Peace forever!

Blessed is Jesus.

Yours Master,

Ramatis

He looks at us saying:

May nothing arouse fear in your hearts!

Battles that you face on the physical plane and wars on the spiritual plane are compatible with your strength and spiritual level.

Your delay in the evolutionary journey exposed you to reincarnate in these days. Do your best for the Mission you embraced for Christ Jesus.

You are protected with Love of the Planetary Christ who governs this Solar System. Our love accompanies you wherever you go and Jesus, all Love and Light, watches over you.

Keep on Courage, faith and work, renunciation and sacrifice, as you experience the end of this planetary cycle that will be for you the last stage in the scales of the reincarnation of suffering and pain.

Do not regret the lost time, take advantage of the time you still have.

Work, work and work.

With love,

Yours Master,

Ramatis

Now he speaks to Mrs. Margarida:

Margarida, your strength is ours too. Your mind is ours thinking.

We are for you and no one will dare to interrupt your steps before the appointed time.

You are all beloved daughters of our hearts.

May Jesus bless you!

69. UNGOVERNED SPIRITS TRANSIT ON EARTH

Dear friends and disciples,

In name the Light, we bring our loving greetings of Peace to the entire humanity.

The opportunities granted to the embodied spirits in this hour seek them to renewal. A large number of good spirits, from the lowest to highest in evolution work in favor of the humanity.

There are many ungoverned spirits on Earth. They only think of living happy way, as they imagine the happiness is.

They waste precious energies in constructing the sand castles, and when, wise and experienced Instructors try to teach them how to construct the future happiness, they disagree, preferring the vicious circle of ephemeral happiness.

Dear brothers, the efforts exerted in joining you as beginners at School of occultist wisdom, it aims at providing you, through the edifying experience of your souls, the lessons that together, you neglected in various of the past incarnations, by family or friendship ties stronger or weaker, in agreement with the program for each incarnation.

The dependence you feel today in relation to the Evolved Spirits, it results from negligence cultivated along of past lives, when you should fulfill your karmic program but postponed it. Now, when the Earth leaves from its third dimension, you are again invited to perform the same work postponed for several times, we can see and listen again many excuses for not fulfill it, looking for mental ways to avoid the last call.

It was not for that purpose you were gathered and allowed to reincarnate at this time of "planetary transition."

Again, you have opportunity to give the evolutionary jump able to become you as "Spirits of Light" free from the expiatory condition, which keep you attached to the lower planets. Each one receives the key for own awakening, and to activate the key when necessary, it is an individual task. Then, it neither depends on this House nor its manager, mediumistic or doctrinaire Group. Finally, it is not depending on any incarnate spirit, religion or human doctrine.

To activate the key is an independent task granted to spirits at the proper time. Beloved are the forces involving you in this place. They are spirits devoted fulltime to strengthen energies, cleaning and edifying the psyche of yours. Even so, they cannot fulfill the task that only depends on you, such as inner renewal, as individual and not transferable, postponed for many lives.

The serious moment requires no apology, postpone or any other impediment put in the way by your childish minds.

Exert efforts on studies and understanding of messages that we send to you. Be aware of the current serious hour you live.

As infantile Spirits, do your best to accomplish the task that only depends on you.

Now, I am at disposal for answer your questions.

Q: I wonder about the best procedure to apply for our children and youths that still ignore most of very important information?*

Ramatis: First of all, bear in mind, if your hearts that are still little in spiritual understanding, they have compassion with youths and children, much more referred to the "wise, evolved spirits of light", seek to prepare them with edifying teachings, while sleeping, or with games, films and programs gradually introduced in simple language, appropriate for children, so that they get the knowledge necessary.

Q: Referred to the dependence we often have on our "older brothers" it was said, we would know, in advance, about the three days of darkness. The Media informed that on October would have a large manifestation of extraterrestrial spaceships and of evolved brothers for to do global call. Does it make sense, my Brother?*

Ramatis: The dependence of yours results from doubts about the Vineyard of Light. The pilgrim's minds jump from knowledge to knowledge, because the intellectual development of the mind is also way for those with difficulty of facing their own troubles. On the contrary, they look for external resources to solve their inner afflictions from inferior worlds. The journey of progress gathers with simplicity the human reality, which means facing the inner reform according with Gospel of beloved Jesus.

Those who want to construct their own destiny with light and renewal, it is enough them to accept the blessed opportunity granted them by Our Great Father to continue working, studying and serving humbly. Everything takes place in due time. The simplicity provides wisdom; humility provides force of renewal.

Q: Dear Master, I am sorry that about 15 years ago, I did know of you yet. Sometimes, in contact with people that ignore the Spiritist doctrine, I wonder how I should tell them about it. Could you help me?

Ramatis: dear Daughter, as I told you, everything happens in its due time. The delay referred to meet me must represent joy, instead of sadness. The encounter with old friends provides us enlightenment and regret enables us to restart. This way, my sister, after deciding to retake the path of progress, you are developing strength based on faith and determination. On those moments do not regret of past mistakes that delayed you in returning to the Father's House, however, the unsafe footsteps, often cause you to stumble. When it happens, do not justify the guilty of the delay in returning to the Father's House. Thence comes the strength.

May you renew the determination in going ahead. Despite the past mistakes, there are still many opportunities so that, more than works of enlightenment to others, you have example of living in irradiating strength of renewal to those brothers close to you. Only when we irradiate edifying energies to the neighbor, we can touch them the hearts to the awakening, not being that, the task of ours mind or intellect, but the dynamo from mind linked to the heart, force and light able to irradiates beyond our energy field, the incentive so that others join us.

Thankful for this blessed opportunity to be here elevating the thoughts to the High Spheres where the Light reigns, we leave you with Jesus that will do everything we have not done for you.

We address our blessings of Peace for all humanity.

Ramatis, GESJ - 09/30/08 - Vitoria/ES - Brasil.

70. THERE IS NO WAY TO INTERRUPT THE CYCLE OF PAIN AND CATASTOPHES

Brothers,

The catastrophic events unfolding about this humanity continues with pains and suffering. The planetary exile is a reality, and, as they detach from physical bodies, the spirits that have not reached the minimum vibrational level determined by Sidereal Engineers, they are placed in the rescue spaceships and exiled to worlds compatible to their vibrations.

The noble and sublime feelings brought by the Divine Emissary Jesus to the Earth, were not cultivated by this humanity. Lessons of elevated vibration, capable of lifting those who absorb and practice them. The Lessons of Master Jesus changed the vibrational tone of those who experience them.

Unfortunately, the majority of spirits land in the spiritual plane, due to any type of death, but mainly violent deaths caused by the creature's moral irregularities, suffer fast banishment, as from a certain descending vibratory range, they are attracted for prison ships and hospital ships that will transfer them from a planetary orb, or even from a solar system.

There is no way to stop the cycle of pain and catastrophe.

You are spirits matured in the planetary journey, whose creation was lost along of many planetary cycles, and yet you continue against the Divine Laws. In the automatism of events, you continue in a new exile, since everything in the universe is dynamic, and life proceeds in all vibratory bands. Each one will be dragged into the elective dimension by their choices.

Brothers, there is no way to change the course of planetary events, but you can change the course of your lives: exile or progress; to park in lower planes, or advance struggling to institute in oneself, a new order of peace and harmony compatible with the Lessons of Christ.

It is up to you, the separation between the wheat from the tares.

Peace forever!

Yours Master.

Ramatis, 09/23/2008

71. THE GREAT HOUR APPROACHES!

The "great hour" approaches! Due to this announcement of this hour, the procession of negative beings, experts at provoking the tribulations that characterize the "end of a planetary cycle" is already among you.

New waves of violence, bitter pain and imbalances of all kinds deprive the human beings of the apparent balance granted them by material life.

Those that besides the matter know of spiritual life establishing contact with it, whether by doing good or by choosing a religious ritual, will have an opportunity to control their anguish and stop fear, thus elevating the minds to God help them.

For those who disbelieve, only remains them to be attached to the illusion of what is to come: promises of science, which answers have contributed nothing over the years to solve the origin of human diseases.

The earthly beings have nothing more than analyze their history, counting the lessons learned, try to spiritualize themselves in a last effort to become vibratory compatible with a world of peace.

We salute everyone who heard and answered to our call to serve, and has given a little of themselves in favor of others, spreading the messages of Christ. Stand firm until the end serving with Jesus, and we always continue with you divulging without prejudice, the presence of extra-intraterrestrial civilizations on Earth, and reasons that lead us to be with you dedicated and loving "Fleet of Workers".

We thank those whose faith is lucid and strong.

Those whose faith is not strong yet, we invite them to seek in the disinterested charitable work, and while reading our messages, the inexhaustible source of the Presence of God, so that faith may be strengthened.

For those who "think" have faith, we suggest them to analyze their reactions to life's adversities. After deep reflection, accept yourself as you are, humbly beginning to build a solid and reasoned faith.

For those without faith, we send our signal for when this absence weighs heavily in their lives, they can individually change the way, seeking the Father where will meet us happy when at last, we will have them with us.

Commander Ashtar Sheran, 09/05/2008

72. WAR BETWEEN LIGHT AND DARKNESS ON THE PLANET

Sisters, great is the Work of God not recognized by this humanity.

Great are the Workers who, out of Love for Jesus and planet, approach this humanity emitting vibrations of love, peace and harmony among human beings.

The Earth is in a process of transformation that will not stop, once the accelerated mechanisms of "end of times" were detonated.

If in the past, the humanity had accepted the influences from the High practicing the lessons of Evolved Beings who brought messages directly to the physical plane; if they had accepted and practiced the Teachings of Jesus, they would have been able at that time to reverse the painful mechanisms of the transformation that took place now. But war, hatred, revenge and selfishness were the weapons used by human beings in the conquest of the planet and of other brothers, allowing the power and dissemination of dark beings in the lower regions.

Thus, along of the human history, the Lower Astral Plane strengthened and expanded its territory throughout the Earth, involving its humanity that began to spend a greater amount of energy to overcome the darkness and launch itself to the light of progress.

Among the beings that proliferated in the Orb are the Reptilians, who arrived here already full of hatred, and this humanity allowed to spill over the Earth. They became more strength, my sister, in this "end of cycle". They are more and more close to human beings with promises of wealth and domain, advanced technology and control over the births of human beings, through the genetic control of bodies.

The illusory matter, for the moment, dominates the ignorant creatures, who do not perceive the danger of leaving their souls under control of these dark Forces.

But, the time has come for each creature to make its choice, because as an eternal spirit, everyone had the same opportunities for learning and transformation.

At this time, when the Dark Forces, strengthened by inferior emanations of humanity expand their ideas able to manipulate the creatures that were negligent and did not accept Love as a vehicle for renewal and progress. They clung to hatred, selfishness, foolish vanity and to perishable physical matter.

There are Reptilians present on the planet.

Wherever there is genetic manipulation and suffering for the spirit. They are where there is advanced technology that brings destruction to humanity and manipulation of human creatures in favor of a privileged minority.

The Beast imprisoned in the abysmal regions cannot by itself be present in the less dense planes. However, Reptilians, as fierce minions, accept its ideas, taking advantage for themselves, mercilessly attacking the Center of Light which is contrary to such ideals and domination over other creatures.

You are targets of these Beings, however, you are working with Forces of Light, in the fulfillment of God's Plans, creating in yourselves, defense against those beings unable of reaching you in the way they would like, because there is no fragility in your shields of protection or in your desire for progress.

In your work there is sincerity and Love for Jesus.

The hatred of these Beings for you is intense with cruel traps and attacks every day, more ferocious, because you are strengthened by the fulfillment of the tasks granted to you.

Nothing can harm you from what we can defend you. Keep your privacy against these Beings of reaching you. Watch your most secret thoughts and desires, from where they seek the fragility to destroy you.

The astral war on the planet is between Light and Darkness. The Darkness believes able to advance in dominion over this humanity, but in the dense band in which they are, it is not possible to perceive the intensity of Light not the end of time for them in this Planet.

Would you like to make questions, Sister?

Margarida: I would like to know what happened in relation to myself, Reptilians, and Mr. X.

Setun Shenar: the work of dissemination of yours clarifies the humans about the presence and intense activity of "negative beings" against the incarnated humanity, from which you are most targeted. "Reptilians" negative beings" remain on constant alert in attacking you. The mentioned brother, whose task on the physical plane is to spread lies about these beings, as protectors and superior brothers, he remains always in contact with them. Every time some creature directs his thoughts, questioning him about the veracity of his actions and words, he connects with your Group with and his presence attacking you.

When a thought is sent towards that brother making connection with your Group, he appears in the vain attempt to silences, since he represents the most negative force on Earth.

Nevertheless, this brother is weakened in strength and performance, since he did not know how to take advantage of the opportunity, not even the first chance, when the Beings of Light offered him means of dissemination and work in favor of the humanity. He also didn't take advantage, as Darkness would like, when they convinced him to use his own image as if it were good friends of humans. He did not get to remain in the Light and overpowered by Darkness, failed too.

Defeated he tries to get back on the path, but failed again.

Margarida: I think that not only is he in this situation, as well as other uphologists known in Brazil and around the world. His voices were silent and there was no mention of anyone of them, at least here in Vitoria city.

SS: All these brothers had tasks that would benefit humanity, clarifying them about life after death. It occurs due to the inferior feelings cultivated within them for millennia, which supplanted their will to make progress and were dragged by Forces of Darkness that stimulated vanity, Self and arrogance, making them fail again.

They all committed themselves to work hardly with Forces of Light in this "end of cycle", so that other human beings reached the minimum vibration that would make them able to inhabit a better world. However, they failed and committed themselves to thousands of creatures that could awaken now, but will be dragged with them to worlds of atonement and trials, thus continuing the interrupted evolutionary journey.

Margarida: It means a war declared among us (GESJ), Mr. X and Reptilians and this subject no more can be hidden?

SS: There isn't, since in the past, we divulged the reality about these brothers. At that time, we declared war against them and you became the clearest target of theirs attacks.

Margarida: We are not afraid, my brother!

SS: We know well!

Margarida: If I were afraid I wouldn't be ahead of this work. I don't do it out of pride, vanity or domination over other people. None of that. We believe in God and in other Brothers of Light who assist us full time in the invisible planes. We neither are afraid nor weakened, even defeated as a soldier in war, defending his homeland. This is my goal, commitment made with beloved Master Ramatis before my incarnation. I believe this is the same ideal of other companions of mine.

SS: You are brave Warriors. You and others had the work opportunities to advance; but, like you, few ones managed to work for the Light, overcoming the barriers of fear, selfishness and foolish vanity. We are always with you. There is no distance for those who love each other.

We are all united by Master Jesus' Greater Force of Love.

We continue working and fighting to become clean the dense invisible planes of this beautiful Planet, in divulging the liberating truths to this humanity.

He who has eyes to see, ears to listen may chance himself, walking towards the Land of Regeneration.

I greet you in the name of Light and leaving with you, the Master Jesus 'Peace.

Commander Setun Shenar
(Vice of Ashtar Command), 08/16/2008

73. YOU DIVED IN PAIN, BECAUSE YOU DID NOT CULTIVATE LOVE

We greet you in the name of God, Lord of All Universes pulsating life and love!

Great expression of His Power and Strength are the planets, where souls live in evolutionary transit.

The Earth is a tiny transitory cradle of souls reflecting the immense Love of God for His children, generated by impulse of His Love. The Earthlings will never be able to understand the meaning of the Creator's loving Force. Little ones, brothers fleeing from Divine Laws, still debate about to be or not to be children of God, ignoring as Unique and Perennial, the Great Force of Life.

Brothers, the screams and moans that were a constant only in the buttons of the invisible plane, now they are around you in the material plane.

You are dived in pain, because you did not cultivate Love.

You did not recognize the Guardian Angels sent by the Supreme Being to elucidate the consciences; moreover, you created the Dark Beings, with whom you had sunk into ignominy.

You refused to evolve through love, and by rebellion you threw yourselves into corrective pain, as a vehicle for progress.

In all latitudes of this tiny planet has the material life cultivated in the human hearts, instead of spiritual life. Few ones recognize the immortality of the soul as responsible for the activities of life in matter.

The Planet agonizes because of constant aggressions suffered throughout its lifetime!

The planet created to house fugitive souls in evolutionary transit, as a refreshment landing for guilty minds, it is not recognized in its real importance, and is punished without guilt by all delinquents of the soul.

Indebt sister souls, daughters of God, your rebellion destroys all the life around you and keeps you prisoners in the lower bands of darkness.

You are at the door of a new dimension illuminated by an intense light, which will not be supported by cruel and insane debtors that refuse Love.

There are superior criteria to penetrate in the New Age approaching, and the established order is of love and brotherhood. He, who did not forgive yet, he is not welcome, but expelled from the Planet Earth to a world compatible with his spiritual delay in not recognizing the Laws of God.

Humans attached to vices that deform the soul, they will not reach the new dimension to where will be transferred only those whose outfits are constituted in accordance with the Divine Creation.

You who accept moral deviations as sensible and correct, forget about the New Land, which you cannot even glimpse it.

There are various crimes around you, committed against the neighbor committed by those who will not be admitted to the New Land.

The planetary exile, once again, is the resource to save those souls enable to love in the way it will be installed in the new planetary order.

Exile means spiritual delay, moral pain and millenary longing.

The choices have already been made. Every creature of this humanity heads towards the pain or to the lighted path of regeneration.

Angel and devil, two faces of the same creature, at different times of its lifetime.

Limitless are the chances of progress for the spark created by God, but the planetary evolution cycles are limited! Always, at the end of each cycle, the soul shall go to a new planetary cycle or "Manvantara" of evolution or atonement and trials.

You are not alone, suffering souls. Crowds of Evolved Brothers are always with you at any evolutionary stage you are. Even not knowing or refusing to believe that the Creator Father's Love is within you as a spark of light, waiting for the opportunity to expand until reaching the Great Focus of Light, Creator of Life.

Jesus, Noble Entity of Light, responsible for this Planet of yours, He remains as a Guide Star, illuminating your nights, guiding you through the storms, hopeful of your arrival at the safe haven of intimate transformations, which guarantees you penetrate the New Land of Regeneration.

Margarida: Who are you?

Answer: I am a space traveler, a space gardener, sent by Commander Yuri.

Margarida: We greet you in the name of Jesus. We feel great admiration and respect for Commander Yuri. We send him a kiss in the heart, as well as to his disciples.

The Patrol Planet is in intense activity into space, since the Planetary Transition attracts several negative beings, gangs from Space, in search of vital energy from primitive worlds in transition, to suck the energies of beings and to imprison many guilty and degenerated souls on their way to exile.

Planet Patrol sends its army to many Sectors of this Universe, in constant surveillance and space battles, since no negative creature is authorized to penetrate in this Universe for purposes of enslavement. They are, like true "slave ships" looking for slaves to use in the cruelest ways that you cannot even imagine.

The earthly people are still very ignorant of things occurred in this tiny planet. They will not be able to understand the intensity of extra planetary events.

For those who believe, we send energies of Peace and Love for their own superior support in the final chaos.

We greet you in the name of Lord Jesus!

Agamemnon – Gardener of Space, 06/06/2008.

74. YOU NEITHER CAN STAY BETWEEN GOOD AND EVIL NOR BETWEEN LIGHT AND DARK.

Medium: I can feel around us, a strong energy of Commander Ashtar Sheran. Soon after, he speaks:

Peace in your hearts!

Brothers, this is a planetary call so that the Warriors of Light linked to the Centers of Light working in the sanitation of earthly thresholds and in the cleaning and transformation of deep Abysses, reiterate their vows of work and put themselves in tune with the Force-Light, The Divine Jesus, who commands everyone.

It is not enough for the Warrior to accept the invitation of the Liberating Forces of Earth; it is necessary the commitment of each creature in the sense of self-renewal and readjustment to the Laws that govern the Earth.

Warrior is not one who constantly calls the name of Jesus, but he, who, with his actions, he practices the Divine Lessons of the Christ's Legacy.

Do not be you deceived by the False Prophets who, wrongly promise heaven, paradise and material wealth. The Superior World is neither conquered with screams nor ritualistic gestures, but with sacrifice, renunciation and transformation of each creature.

All of humanity was called to participate in the last battles of planetary transformation, however, few ones responded to the call positively and of these, a contingent could not remain under higher vibrations, and then abandoned the task. But, there are still various of ours tutors who maintain themselves with larger efforts in the minimum vibratory ranges of acceptance in the Christ's ranks.

To you, brothers who still keep you at critical levels of faith, we reiterate our invitation to you to exert larger efforts in goodwill and dedication to the tasks that depend on you, as an exercise to evolve your spirit.

The battles become more intense, therefore, Warriors of Jesus, you shall dedicate yourselves even more to the work of Christ and sharpen your edges, because the smallest lower vibrations that you still keep lit within you, will be the bridge with the Retrograde Forces we are fighting against, and can drag you amidst the combat.

We do not look for perfect beings to compose the Army of Christ, which actively fights to free the Planet and its humanity from the yoke of ignorance and darkness; but to remain in the ranks of the Army of Good, you must remove from your heart and mind, those feelings not consistent with your desire to evolve. Feelings such as: lust, selfishness, pride, greed, hatred, and all the "sins" known by the humanity.

Identify and abolish them, because the effort of self-renewal keeps you in bands of Light; however, ignoring own defects, when you see only the defects in others, will make you exposed to "beings of ignorance", who delight in the deviations of the soul.

Brothers, if you wish to remain in the Army of Christ, whose Major Commander is Jesus, and to accept the call to fight, abandon the trenches of ignorance, map your moral deviations and eradicate them from your soul. It is with dedication and persistence in the good and in love for your neighbor, you will definitely be rightist of Christ. However, if are not sincere your efforts to understand yourself and the transformation from defects into virtues that enhance the soul, you will fall, once more, into exile. Even with your mind connected to the Light, without love and dedication in self-renewal, you cannot keep yourself at minimum vibratory levels, which guarantees your spiritual liberation and to evolve.

Address your mind to the higher bands, avoiding inferior thoughts, because even if your words do not hurt your neighbor, even in thinking, you will be infringing the Creator's Laws, because thought is active energy with power and strength, once emitted hits the target and causes well-being or agony.

You must answer for your actions and your thoughts that may lead you to glory or to downfall.

The Beast feels itself cornered, it emits pernicious vibrations able to reach the unwary who think they can serve "two masters".

You cannot remain between Good and Evil, Light and Dark.

You do not yet have the necessary strength to guarantee you, immunity.

Your quota de darkness is still greater than that of Light. Then, to remain in the Light you have gradually extinguish the Darkness that still inhabits your souls.

Nothing and no one can prevent your flight to the Highest, but yourselves.

Raise your sword of Light and advance to the battlefield that is full of opportunities, through fierce struggles, for your spirit to ascend to the light of a new World of Regeneration.

Go ahead warriors, it's almost daylight!

Go forward fearlessly, and soon the first rays of dawn come full of peace and harmony.

Do not give up in the face of obstacles, as these are proportional to your strength in overcoming them.

Don't interrupt your steps once again!

The sun that shines, soon comes to bathe your spirit happily elevating it to regeneration.

Peace in your hearts.

Peace on all planetary quadrants.

Ashtar Sheran
He, who from heaven, guides you.

At the end of the message, the Commander took the form of an angel, opened his white wings and beating them spread some substance that banished many dark spirits that were there.

I myself heard in a very energetic way, the following words from the Commander:

The weakest of faith will fall at the call of the Beast.

The deluded ones are already guided by the deceptive song of the Beast.

The proud ones who dear to humiliate themselves, will be swept away by the whirlwind of deceptions produced by the Beast.

The fanatic ones represent the Beast's howl.

The corrupt, the immoral and the violent ones carry out the Beast's instructions.

The Beast believes itself able to subdue the Earth and its humanity, because, deceptively, evil seems to dominate everything. But, beings and the Beast itself forget of the Vital Energy that provides them Life, it is the Creator's energy, Creator, and everyone, someday, must give an account of their actions.

Eternity awaits everyone.

Peace forever in your hearts!

Commander Ashtar Sheran, 11/30/2007

75. YOU MUST SERVE CHRIST TO EVOLVE

Servants of Christ, may the Peace be with you!

If the voracious beasts, free of the Abyss, look for earthly creatures of the Superior Plans, the Celestial Beings linked to the Earth, lovingly bring help to humanity.

Notable creatures of rare beauty and brilliance penetrate in the swamp of the inferior astral nearest to embodied and disembodied spirits. Those benevolent, dedicated and loyal Servants of Christ emit the best vibrations to the earthly beings.

The Sublime Beings cannot be visible to crowd that terrified would run away, but their tender vibrations may touch the hearts in ideal conditions of helping.

The salutary emanations of Evolved Beings involve the planet, however, the dense psychosphere at "end of times" demands sacrifice to maintain in activity in the abysmal areas is dense too.

The majority of earthly creatures does not exert efforts in emitting sincere thoughts and feelings towards the High, and few ones able to do it, find in these Superior Brothers the necessary comfort and strength to supplant the pains.

They are the God's Emissaries who struggle for one's neighbor.

The Eyes of God are everywhere and, no creature is alone. Never a son of God is abandoned. In fact, the rebellious creatures prefer excuses for their lacks, but hurting one's neighbor.

The Armies of the Good join in benefit to the planet and humanity in this "end of planetary cycle", in the attempt of "fishing" the largest number of souls.

Unfortunately, the hatred expands turning impermeable people to the superior vibrations.

How many warnings does each individual need to wake up? Will be necessary grow worse the violent disturbances in his/her emotional, psychic or physic life to wake up?

Catastrophes, wars, and cold murders without apparent cause, extreme violence, lost bullets and other events act as psychic detonator against creatures, when they should awake many beings, in this restless world in which you live.

Nevertheless, the social injustices and excessive violence have been provoking more and more rebelliousness, hate, revenge and unbalances of any luck.

Suffering hinders the creature of enjoying the material and social pleasures, provoking more rebelliousness and dissatisfaction against Divinity.

"Knock at the door, and it will be opened". Interpret these words of Christ as open door for satisfaction of your will and not as answers for balance and progress.

In the present time, the incarnate human being wants to see satiated material desires, considering that he works exhaustively for such purpose. They are spirits of little faith stagnated in inferior vibratory steps and, exposed the devastating force of the Intruding Planet and negative power of Darkness.

Brothers of mine, we can glimpse a painful future, largely announced for you, through the prophets of formerly and by modern visionary ones. Your scientists already attest the destruction of the planet and humanity, for the own human being's actions.

If you cannot avoid other brothers stay in the shortcut, encourage them for self-renewal. Nobody can accomplish tasks of progress for somebody else.

Actions that determine the evolution only depend on each one responsibility. Efforts of progressing are arduous and demand sacrifices. I

The Law of Progress is implacable. Those that did not reach the superior vibratory level yet, they will not remain in this planet and yes, transferred, summarily, to planet similar and compatible with their rebelliousness.

This is the road to serve Christ and to evolve.

Blessed is the Strength of Light!

Orcadim,

Intraterrestrial city of Okay, Chapada Diamantina/BA.

76. SEEDS OF THE NEW AGE

Master Ramatis = Kuthumi, answering a question of a friendly reader:

"How can Brazil be the Country of the Future, the Promised Land in face of the current situation we live?"

Master Ramatis, as always, answered us, in his clear and precise way, below:

Throughout the human trajectory on earth, many revelations have arrived about "end times" and man has ever mocked and forgotten them.

Due to so much disregard for the warnings brought by the superior Hosts earthwards, man remained stagnated moral and spiritually, and only in the present century, due to confirmations of ancient prophecies, fear has supplanting the negligence to such important warnings.

What does it matter to know at this moment about the truth of facts without the necessary desire for inner renewal in order to contribute for implantation of the New Age of Peace?

You are on the eve of the planetary transition event, and only now there is greater interest about the issue. Unfortunately, the events in course about "End of Times" cannot be reversed.

Seek, each of you, discover the truth of facts and to struggle for self-improvement, before that uncontrolled external forces stop you.

Brazil is the Heart of the World and Homeland of the Gospel made up of a meek, peaceful, believing, full of faith, fraternal and loving people. On its land, most of the intraterrestrial cities shine to welcome those who deserve to be rescued.

Brazil has the Earth's Heart Chakra and, if the heart dies, its body also dies. Then, to intraterrestrial cities, some human seeds of the New Age will be brought. Brazil is a young country, not yet contaminated in its eagerness for power, ambition and dominion over other peoples, like many nations that have already lived for millennia.

The extraterrestrial spaceships may collect another portion of Earthlings able to populate again the Land of the future. The smaller spaceships can also lead the rescued ones to the Mother spaceship prepared to receive and to install the earthly brothers and then, to lead them, according to a previous selection to planets prepared for receiving terrestrial beings in transitory dwelling, and later, they return to the Earth.

A reduced number of earthly brothers may go back to their original planets still by the intergalactic spaceships, but the majority of those who will be rescued, deserving to inhabit the New Land cannot yet return to the original planet.

Therefore, brothers, Brazil is the Promised Land.

Brazil may have much of its present territory preserved and more other part that may emerge to replace the part that will be submerged with the final cataclysms.

If Brazil today is so much contaminated by corruption, the peaceful nature of its people remains not affected, which guarantees it as Nation of the Future.

With one people, one nation, one race, one language, one God, the Brazilian territory will be represented in the Land of the Future.

Referred to Brazilian men and women, each one should strive to evolve together with the planet and become part of the Land of the Future.

Man can use his free will to unchain a nuclear war, however Forces of the Good will do everything to avoid a fateful event of catastrophic proportions unimaginable by the humankind.

Bothers you must work for dissemination of the Good and neutralization of the Evil. Awaken the sleeping love within you and see the truth with your vision clouded by foolish feelings that consume the lifetime in matter.

Wake up! The Light of the Great Sun shines brightly upon you. Work to reach it. This is the Light of Master Jesus! Seek Him who is always waiting for you!

Master Ramatis

GESH – 03/16/2007 – Vitoria, ES – Brasil.

77. PLANETARY TRANSITION OCCURS FULL OF TURPITUDES

May Peace be with you!

The Beast stirs up the bellicosity of the humankind.

Regardless of geographic distance or difference in race and language, antagonistic peoples seek each other in fratricidal wars, often unfairly with their destructive resources.

The Beast goes up from deep regions, where has been rooted for millennia, ripped off by force that neither can control nor resist. However, deluded, she thinks about taking the occasion to directly throwing her deadly poison over the earthly surface dominating it.

It means to subdue and to enslave, in a devastating way, thousands and thousands of unwary souls, incarnated or not. Its perverse and powerful mind attracts unfortunate and unwary humans. Her minions spread pain among men. Its victims reap the bitter fruits of spiritual recklessness. However, the Law of Progress will reach and banish it from Earth to new exile.

There are no innocents, but creditors and debtors of each other, and all inevitably involved in debts with Law of Cause and Effect.

Time goes on relentless and untouchable when the creatures must take the occasion in the matter to evolve themselves spiritually, or compulsorily sent to exile.

The magnetic force of Hercolubus = Intruder or Sanitizer Planet triggers the inferior tendencies of incarnated and disincarnated beings and the Beast rises from the Abysses attracted by the "hoarse singing", stirring even more over the creatures, the wild fire of inferior feelings and the human beings answer to their animalistic appeal, launching each other.

The transition happens full of turpitudes practiced in a vile and infamous way.

You cannot imagine absence of storms scheduled for this humankind at this end of times. Only one who refuses to see and hear can remain deluded and wake up in planetary exile.

Jesus is our Shepherd and we will lack nothing.

Samuel, 10/27/2006

78. PRISONS EXPLODED LIKE POWDER BARREL

The strong presence of Commander Yuri' was projected like a flaming ball of light that right against us.

Sisters, I greet you on behalf of the Planetary Christ who allows us to meet you at this time.

Longo ago, we have been warning about the manifestation and increment of the Dark Force among you and inhabitants of the beautiful Planet Sham.

To our spiritual eyes, on the Earth's astral plane, the wounds caused by violence become necrotic, as an ideal culture for virulent creatures to multiply under the Beast's command and to manifest in matter, in the form of several diseases that intrigue and surprise the current Medicine.

The prisons, which we told you to be the warning sign (see Divulcation 11), like powder barrels exploded with devastating force, because were not contained in time.

Fear is a hundredfold in hearts and no longer have material means to contain the devastating force that spills over society, since the "diabolic plots" creating the "Criminal Fortresses" in those places, no longer allow the control by the authorities.

Men no longer can contain the devastating fury leaving from prisons and these are not the startup of the Dark Forces, since their manifestation is allowed by of this humanity's lack of love. The hearts empty of compassion for others allowed the construction of Criminal Strongholds. As well as manifestation of the Beast among you.

The Planetary Transition goes on. The centers of light established as receivers of the light that pours over the Earth, suffer with continuous attacks of Darkness.

Honest men are scarce and the "Beast" gains strength as it reaches the surface.

Warriors of Light, today, we meet you more experienced and strengthened in faith and work, radiating from your superior energy. Do not worry. The Planetary Christ is with you.

Do not be surprised with the Dark Force occupying the Command Posts in public offices. They are signs of the end.

I greet you in the name of the Lord of the Worlds, peace and joy for meeting you again.

Commander Yuri, 06/10/2006 - Vila Velha/ES

79. ABOUT THE FATIMA'S REVELATIONS

Dear Daughters!

May the Light from the High shed upon you, molding your soul with the sublime love of Master Jesus. We came to remember the moments of communication lost, when I spoke to you about the third revelation of Fatima, which should be divulged to all humanity, so that it could prepare, in due time, the renewal capable of elevating creatures above material and illusory life.

If had the consent of those responsible for the matter been foreseen at that time by Superior Spirituality and divulged in accordance with the Major Plan, many people today would have a clearer vision of spiritual life. If the Church Body itself consented to the disclosure of the revelations we have been with you, the credibility of as many as allowed themselves to be led by the dictates chosen by the Major Magistrate on Earth would be much greater and thus, the Institution erected by men would also have rescued many of their debts constituted over stocks of deviation and inclination to evil.

Unfortunately, the voices fell silent in the face of the redemptive task.

However, no force is able to silence the Voice from Above and this is not finding the vehicle initially planned for its manifestation, it seeks the means so that the greater objective is achieved, regardless of the will of men, regardless of their interests or interferences. And today, spread around the entire planet, countless creatures unveil the matter, accessing information from space, transmitting it to those who wish to advance and to evolve.

Many people planned by collective karma, to find support for their growth in the Church's position, are today afflicted, lost, looking everywhere for what should be in front of them, according to their life plan.

The end of this Structure, which has incurred many debts, has come to an end and which should bring even more disturbances to all its followers, as, surprised, they will find themselves when they discover the fragility of their "conductors", when they realize the criminal humanity of his minions, finding there to be no extraordinarily pure creatures there, as they were accustomed for convenience to believe. Behold, the greatest disturbances will come, and many with unbalanced and unprepared minds will seek madly for answers, becoming easy prey to the usurpers of peace, to the profiteers of the misfortune of others.

It is necessary for everyone to know that this phase is also provided for in "planning the transition of this planet". It is necessary that minds that have prepared themselves, reach out to those who suffer.

Be charitable to your brothers, just as you would like them to be with you, if the situation were reversed and unbalanced and unprepared minds were yours.

Do not judge or condemn infant souls tied to transitory dogmas, for you too have already been imprisoned in the short wisdom of those who cling to primary sects.

Be charitable, as all brave warriors must be and help when you can in the painful moments that will go through.

Here is what we told you in short words in past years, referring us to the revelations of Fatima. Regarding this matter, we are at your disposal to clarify subjects at issue that may be urgent or necessary.

Margarida: From what I understood, that piece of communication we lost that day in "Lençóis", the Brother came to tell us.

Answer: This is what you have been doing through Divulgations over the years. (Since the second half of 1996)

Margarida: Another thing that came to my mind now is about the Pope's passing to the other side of life and consequently, the followers of the Catholic Church will have troubled minds, there being some disagreement within the Vatican.

Answer: You clearly understand the content of our communication. This is precisely what we are referring to. Pleading with you to be charitable to those who will feel lost and helpless, seeing the "structure" on which they have trusted the growth of their spirits to collapse.

Master Ramatis (Kuthumi), 02/26/2005

Note: In October 1997, we visited Chapada Diamantina, BA, for the first time. In Lençóis, a city in that region, where we stayed; and it was at the hotel at 9 pm, the night of the full moon, when at we received a long message from our dear and kind Master Ramatis = Kuthumi. Unfortunately, despite being warned, we failed in our recording because the tape ended and we had no other to hand. From everything he said and was not recorded, the word Fatima and something related to the revelations remained in my memory. Time passed and it was only in 2005 that we managed to get what we had lost on that occasion, in the wilds of Bahia. Today, on 07/28/2009, rereading old messages, I found this one that we revealed to the public. (Weekly 566 and Divulgation 37)

80. NO FORCE CAN STOP THE FAITHFUL SERVANT

In the Name of Light, we come to you, once again, confirming our commitment to accompany you in all stages of the "planetary transition" that is now taking place.

As always, we have been clarifying to everyone that our presence among you neither intend to cause nor spread panic, but to touch you inwardly, awakening the sleeping consciences.

Rise from the egoistic inertia in which you got used to thinking and acting, throughout your incarnations.

You had a long time to understand and act in accordance with the Greater Law, with the dictates of the Gospel of Jesus, and it is not now, at the end of the cycle, that you will receive more time.

Lessons learned advance the student. Unlearned lessons make you go back to the beginning, to learn it all over again.

Rise up voluntarily! Come and enlist in the Armies of Light!

We call and clarify to all who have knowledge in their minds, that it is not given to you only for your spiritual redemption, but that with it you may reach out to those who know nothing, because they have neglected their opportunities.

The moment is serious and whoever wants to rise above the current vibratory patterns in the majority of your humanity, enlist and work, leaving aside the lamentations, attachments and sorrows.

Many of you who are here (referring to our GESJ), carry with you in troubled hearts and in disordered minds, unnecessary feelings and harmful to the health of the spirit, because, if you are here, what do you most need, whose absence could cause so much disturbance?

How many would like to be able, with their own legs, to walk towards the Light, but they can't, because they don't have legs and if they do, they don't have the strength to move them, or are mired in the mire of unscrupulous actions that they adopted as conduct to over the years.

Others, wanting to see and hear, but cannot, are blind and deaf to the cries of Good, confused by the brightness of the matter that seduces and imprisons so many.

How many would like to offer the strength of their own hands in the correction of their younger brother, in building the collective work in charitable assistance, but cannot or do not know how. And you, gathered here, attracted perhaps by the hope of the transforming miracle, you have achieved hope, yes, but through the renewal that can do everything and that moves all your forces in favor of the weak who wish to grow. Therefore, before our eyes, you are all qualified to work, and it is enough for your will to be your master and guide your steps, still trembling, on the path of Light. There is much pain and regret, not only on the physical plane, but also especially, among the fleshless creatures, who transited the Earth like happy travelers, on vacation in spas. Unprepared, the traveler crosses the tunnel of death and reaches another world, without baggage, empty. It falls, and the screams of pain and wails we hear are terrifying.

Come, brothers, work in the name of Christ! It is He who calls us at this end of the planetary cycle to renew life on the Earth. Have faith, accept death with resignation and humility, for death is your destiny. Life on the physical plane represents nothing more than a small passage of learning and struggle for the earthly human being.

In this assembly, we open the contact for clarification from those who wish to ask questions, pertinent and matured by the study of the Gospel of Christ and the lessons that we have been transmitting over the years.

– We were instructed to offer ourselves, during our sleep, to work in support of the disincarnated in this catastrophe in Asia and Africa. If, the next day, we feel negatively affected by the task, what should we do? (Question asked by a person present at the meeting.)

– Strengthen the faith, because it is the faith that you lack. Having faith, no harm can come to the kind brother who offers the strength of his own heart in behalf of his neighbor. Any attitude moved by sincere and disinterested love can never result in damage to either party. Have faith, for no harm will befall you in the charitable help to those who suffer, whether on the surface, in the Earth's astral or in the hideous abysses in which perverse creatures inhabit. No harm will come to a Servant of Jesus.

May your minds receive the Blessings of Light sent by the Father and, strengthened, decide to join the ranks of the Army of Work that all of us compose, in favor of Love, Light and Good.

Margarida: Brother, our thanks for your friendly, enlightening visit, in such difficult moments that the Earth is going through, and it seems to me that these moments will continue for a long time to come. Thank you so much, Brother!

Com. Yuri. We have been with you for years announcing our presence and our commitment to work with you while the seriousness and sincere work were here and we reaffirm at this moment that no force will be able to stop the steps of the service

We are with you, even if pain disturbs your surroundings.

Commander Yuri, 01/04/2005

81. THE “ENOUGH” APPROACHING

Peace in the Planetary Christ, sisters!

Again, I am transmitting you the necessary orientations to the work in course. I count on you.

I have been in the past telling you about the coming events, from which you deduced the events experienced intensely today.

By the terrestrial point of view, we bring sad messages. Nevertheless, the Liberating Forces advance on Earth sweeping all evil and disappointments, as pains still necessary. We are not extraterrestrial bearers of energies to devastate the terrestrial humanity, but bearers of wide vision offered us by the Cosmos. Vision of a sick Earth, on account of man who mistreat, consumes and removes its precious energies for maintenance of the planetary balance, and of the whole system where is placed.

Men can intervene in everything, once it is allowed by free will of each creature; however, there are limits even to human species. And, when human choices disturb the stability of the Cosmological System, superior forces intervene with "Enough!"

Here is the message we bring you.

The” Enough” approaching.

Humans must understand the limit of the insanity imposed by the Universal Law of Love, Progress and Justice.

We are not here as bearers of sad news, but of hope that shine into space signaling you the road to proceed.

We wanted to bring you other news, but we have not them, therefore, quickly disperses on your Planet the news of dislike, disrespect to the neighbor, greed, immoderate power with lots of consequences due to the misunderstandings committed on behalf of inferior passions.

You already face insecurity and fear in your society. You are going to see on the Earth the Command of Evil to assume important and decisive places for conducting life in the Planet.

Do not lose hope when you see satanic, dark, perfidious creatures in the positions of Larger Command in this globe.

Calm down! Do not let you be submitted by insecurity or distrust of abandonment to involve you. God Father never abandons His children.

We will never abandon you, even if it seems you difficult to believe.

The energies stir up in the Astral Plane and war patrols the Planet. There will be pains and gnash of teeth. The whole Globe will be wrapped with dreadful darkness.

Be you like fireflies to blink the lights of life and love persisting, regardless of pain.

They will blink their lights, even as last action. You don't discourage, never!

From Brazil will emerge the Light to sustain life, hope of many beings, but from you will leave little; however, persevering work of removing the darkness covering the Planet.

"Dark energies" advance on Earth believing to subdue it and so must be. The more they believe, more mistakes commit, then, we can have them as easy goals to defeat them in the opportune hour, dictated by the Major Command of the Lord Jesus' Loving Heart always guiding us in this painful task work for the embodied ones, but liberating for the spirits whose faith is above the terrestrial things.

Cultivate forces, courage, perseverance, union and love in your hearts!

Blessed is the Force of the Light!

Extraterrestrial Commandant Yuri,

82. THE INTRUDING PLANET WILL NOT COLLIDE WITH EARTH

Astral trip: with my astral body I met Ysh-Wam who reached out to me and we take vertical flight towards the stratosphere. Around, the empty space gave me a feeling of indescribable freedom!

We crossed through all the space between the crust and the boarder of the atmosphere, always guided by Ysh-Wam who skillfully deviated us from the dense dark clusters scattered along the path in front of us.

When, at last, we left the Earth's atmosphere, he made me to see the sad scenario of the planet, wrapped in dense clouds that moved together, forming a layer that already prevented the cleaned sunrays of penetrating our planet in many points.

After a short observation, we advance over the solar system, crossing close to several planets, until, when near to Uranus, in another dimension, I saw a celestial body with grotesque, big and noisy appearance.

It was the Intruder Planet!

Its desolated appearance emitted a hoarse sound. I could see that, despite the high speed at which it was, it was stuck with two spaceships by strong cables, like cables of steel, preventing the influence of its strong magnetism on the other planets and their orbits. Its aggressive breeze in reddish-brown color emitted energetic rays aggressive at all times, like immense thorns growing on its surface.

I believe Ysh-Wan meant the following:

The Intruding Planet belongs to another system, hence the name intruder. It's in another dimension and it revolves around a star stronger than itself.

It will not collide with Earth, but will pass closer it, making it shake attracting its axle to its direction.

Closer to Earth, it will cross the dimension where it is located and, for a brief moment, will materialize in the same dimension as the Earth is. Then the Earth will start to shake and slowly its axis will move towards the star, as it passes by.

Every astral black plate over the Earth will break into millions of pieces, which will be attracted and stick to the Intruder Planet's atmosphere. The Intruder Planet's breeze will act like a vacuum cleaner sucking up all the dirt on Earth.

After this process, the Earth will be beautiful in blue shiny, like a very large blue marble fixed into space.

The Intruding Planet follows its trajectory through Venus and Mercury. When it reaches the Sun, it suffers a strong repulsion, which sends it, again, to its true dimension and route.

Ysh-Wam tells us that in the moment the Intruding Planet magnetize the Earth's axis, verticalizing it, it will be vibrating in the same dimension as our planet, that is, in the 3rd dimension. Only this way will be able to provoke the influence already described.

Ysh-Wan goes on to clarify:

According to the initial planning, the Intruding Planet would start its route of collision with the Earth, however, at request of beloved Jesus, Technicians of Space began the work of slightly deflecting its orbit traced, without any major change in its original route. However, avoiding the destructive shock, causing only the disturbances predicted and already divulged among you.

Moreover, by intervention of the Loving Rabbi, your humanity gained the chance to know the future events so that, once again, could rescue their souls from exile.

Jesus is known in the Sidereal Space as Pure Love, whose Acts are always revealing His Majestic Essence and in favor of the creatures, altering the events outlined by the laws.

We ourselves obtained the grace of the work that will represent quantum leap, impossible at the moment of transmitting it in human ideas. Like us, everyone involved in the Rescue Project of the Planetarium Earth will gain the opportunity to advance on the scale of evolution of your worlds of origin.

Only Love is capable of fulfilling, with just one act, the huge benefits achieved by an enormous number of beings. Therefore, all the honor and all the glory we surrender to the Major Being on the High, thanking Him for the task He offers us. It is so that you know why we salute you in His name, who everything and all lovingly leads.

Blessed is the Light of the Glorious Master Jesus!

Millions of beings attuned to the Hosts of Light and looking for Planetary Peace tenderly under our command, they would be able, with the power of mantra to resist the magnetic influence of the Intruder (also cleaner) Planet as it happens with the Planets which humanities are already more evolved than yours.

But you well know that you would not be able on time dedicate yourselves to the deep meditation and spiritual opening that made this opportunity possible. We would like such a spiritual technique had been developed by you. Unfortunately, most of humans vibrates in a dense band, similar to that of the Intruder Planet, and these people will be inexorably drawn to it, like filings are attracted to the magnet.

Only will be safe from natural exile, those who, having heard the Master's lessons, raised their vibration band at levels incompatible with that of the Intruder Planet.

You could say: but in these current days is very difficult to rise to the vibrating band! Then we answer: you do not live just one life and your story told by you, was also built by your own choices. You are authors and interpreters of your own luck, therefore, today you receive the result of your history from yesterday.

Before the Father, you are nothing more than children at an early stage of development, to whom will be given a new opportunity, and from whom nothing will be taken away, that each one has not already distanced himself to deserve.

Ysh-Wan, 2005

83. SEPARATING BETWEEN THE WHEAT FROM THE TARES

Clairvoyance: I can see around and starting from Servants of Jesus Shelter, intense waves of energy that, in concentric circles, expanded beyond the physical borders of the House. The strong energy circulated and burned miasmas, small negative thought forms, and other similar elements.

The waves left in light color and as they got farther away, they darkened. The protective shield became stronger and brighter.

After the clairvoyance above, came the communication:

The exiled ones arrived on Earth were not the fiercest who left from their planets to exile. We could say they were part of an average classification, which included magicians and scientists who did not know how to keep themselves in the straight line of higher laws. Also included were their direct subordinates who complied with his orders. On that home planet, on both planes of life, magicians and scientists took turns in their activities.

Each planet that underwent evolutionary transformations, just as the Earth is suffering at the moment, had its selection between tares and wheat. And just as it currently occurs in this orb, in those planets, the exiled were directed to worlds similar to their vibration and karmic merit.

So it happens with the exiled that leave from Earth to planets adequate to their evolutionary state. Evolution is dynamic and incessant, and no being of any vibratory level will be able to escape or cheat it.

Everything inexorably follows an evolutionary course and make progress slowly or hurriedly, according to its choices. There is no favoritism or patronage that will give conditions to the being to take evolutionary leaps.

The course, direction, dynamic, accelerated or slow, is the choice of each spirit, divine spark, immortal and ascendant.

These spirits did not have a choice. They were compulsorily transferred to worlds compatible with their spiritual graduation.

Groups that arrived on Earth by the thousands were not homogeneous, but there were criteria, according to their vibrations, for everyone who arrived here.

Many of the arrived black magicians and scientists formed black brotherhoods and caused a greater downfall, later coming to belong to a class that you now call "reptilians". However, before it will be reported, in more detail, categories of beings who had already committed a lot to the Divine Law in various worlds.

The Earth, at the moment, is the last opportunity they have to coexist with living beings. From that next exile, they will remain in the new exile for long ages, imprisoned in a sterile place, until all the negative energy of their delinquent souls drains away. The choice in evil so far pleases them, the pain of others feeds their energies and chaos is their home and their favorite environment.

Now, they will be detained "incontinent", without resources and without parole.

His pupils will also march towards the sterile exile, fulfilling the determination from Above and corresponding to their choices.

Question: And what will happen to incarnated people who continue to be in frank disarray, violating more and more the Divine Laws?

Answer: Those who refuse to listen to the incessant appeals that come from Above, for love, brotherhood and peace, delighting in evil and feeding the beasts, will undergo the just correction of the Law. They will depart with its commands for the sterile worlds.

The Father allowed these brothers to reach such a point of moral and spiritual decay, strongly influencing this humanity, because the collective karma of the planet allowed it, respecting the Law of Free Will that governs the planets of atonement and trials.

Throughout the evolutionary ages of this orb, the earthlings have been consciously neglecting the Universal Laws and even after the sacrificial descent of the Angel of God to Earth, man continues to evade the same laws that sustain life.

Many brothers, who are today in higher spheres, are still connected to the planet, where they took their great evolutionary leap. Their consciences so determine, because in the dark ages of the distant past, they also contributed to the installation of chaos and the spread of evil.

Those who have already returned to their home planets, happy worlds, where only Good is sown, turn their eyes to Earth and send waves of love from their minds, today evolved, neutralizing the negativities of the past.

Others still prefer to dwell on the peripheries of the Earth's astral, sacrificing helping the Mother who sheltered them for so many millennia, helping them to drain their inferior instincts, turning them into beautiful freed birds.

There are many beings that have passed through the Earth and are already in an advanced degree of evolution. Everyone at this time emits their positive energies for the benefit of Mother Earth.

This should be the case, as there are many who have never incarnated here and who contribute voluntarily in this difficult moment of transition. Voluntarily, they sow goodness, brotherhood and love for others. So what will those who were once terrestrials say?

All efforts of the Superior Hosts are made for this time of transition, as the uncontrolled human mind must be under severe surveillance, so that they do not take drastic actions that could compromise the entire solar system.

It is enough that they harm themselves. Severe punishment will suffer the unwary through exile. A 28,000-year planetary cycle for the return Home, if you take advantage of it.

All those souls who remain in error are aware of their choices, but immeasurable pride, vanity and arrogance do not let them see how ephemeral they are.

Fish-Wan in 2005

84. WAKE UP MEN! EVOLUTION CALLS YOU!

Tormented by suffering, creatures flee from the commitments made in the Superior Plans, contributing significantly to the aggravation of events that inevitably spill over to earthly peoples.

It is necessary to gather forces, so that the awakened Spirits of Light can contribute, helping them as much as possible in clarifying and elucidating the doubts of those who walk unsteadily, without, however, being able to discern what is hurting their souls and body.

Surely, not everyone will be able to understand and reach the necessary degrees for lifting and transporting to our spaceships. However, the Christian duty invites us to incessant work, until all, or many of those who are in conditions, can reach the essential vibratory levels able to maintain the balance of forces, inside the spaceships or in the Interplanetary Cities for which they will be displaced, as you come to know through the countless communications that come to you.

Like other Groups contacted by us, it is certain that you have already widely disseminate the communications that come to you. However, it is necessary to exert efforts in dissemination, generating in the creatures the conditions for awakening so that they reflect and seek to change themselves through their own will.

We are here with you to clarify some doubts. Doubts that are not only generated by you, but carried by the human collective unconscious and led to you to manifest them through questions, which we put ourselves to answer:

Question: I would like more clarification on the about the three days of darkness. When are we going to cross a gas dust? I wanted a clearer explanation, what will it really be like, and why?

Answer: In fact, the thick and intense layer of negativity will have to manifest in matter. It was generated by the obsessive and violent behavior of many beings who passed here and the many who are still here. They will immediately tune in to it, giving vent to the instincts and passions that dominate their inner core. Only those elevated above the vibratory attunement of disturbed hatred and violent passions will be safe from its nefarious influence. Materialized as gases, it will cover the entire Orb, preventing the Sun's natural irradiation from reaching the earth's crust, relieving and sterilizing its surface as usual.

Nothing that affects you will be an episode created by Superior Spirituality as a punitive action for your faults, but only the perfect reproduction of the Law of Action and Reaction that has been accompanying you, as well as accompanying everyone who is in the proper stage for such. What belongs to you does not come from outside, it comes from the return after a long period of providential withdrawal, whose objective was to preserve you even a little more, beyond the time you determined for your own ascension.

Like you, many of us have already faced moments of transition, where pain and suffering devastated our souls, spilling over us, like moments of intense apprehension of the Greater Laws.

It is necessary to divulge, so that many, or a greater number of people, discover the reality of current events and do not let themselves be fooled by the small advances and achievements they make.

It is a time of unity, unification and union among men. Only the search for uniformity can give you the precondition for understanding and accepting the phenomena, which will affect your planet and all humanity on it.
Wake up, men! Evolution calls you!

Awake while there is time and walk voluntarily towards it, before its strength in everything superior to yours, pulls you out of inertia, and compels to walk.

May the Peace of the Lord of the Worlds embrace you in this hour!

I leave you in the name of Light and under the Aegis of Master Jesus!

Yours Brother and Friend,

Commander Yuri, 2004

85. YOU ARE JUST SPARKS IN SPACE-TIME

Beloved children of My Father!

I have sought you in the dark nights of the millennia and you avoid Me.

My yoke is gentle and of Love.

My children, time is up for useless rebellions and giving up on unavoidable attitudes.

The matter is just a vehicle for the spirit to take higher flights, in a continuous transformation, just like everything in the universe changes and evolves.

You are just sparks in space-time that inevitably walk to the Loving Father's arms.

Why repentance in error, if the Light falls on you?

I have visiting the "Earth's dark abyss" that should never exist. I embrace everyone in a friendly hug, seeking the hearts, so that, touched by the Light, they renew themselves and change the trajectory of pain, which they have been treading for so long.

Time is up! The Earth changes at high speed, as the time of transformations happened many millennia ago when you arrived here. (I think he referred to our arrival in exile on Earth). Since then, you have been receiving all fair opportunities.

I bring you into my hart and I will not give up on you, even refusing me.

Work tirelessly for intimate renewal and for your own progress, contributing to the renewal of the Earth, a friendly and welcoming cradle that will always be your Home.

Brothers, children and friends, I invite you to work!

Invite you to distribute peace, love and tenderness.

Be humble! Be meek!

Come to Me and I will lead you into My Father's Arms, for I am the Way, Truth and Life, and no one goes to the Father except through Me.

*Jesus Sananda, November of 2003
Chapada Diamantina - BA.*

86. PLANETARY TRANSITION: BEGIN, MIDDLE AND END

Peace on all quarters!

Peace also in your hearts!

The light that always shines, brighter it will shine when greater the pains are.

Everywhere in the terrestrial globe, survival groups are organized among the incarnated ones, instructed by our crews to the difficult tasks that await them. To make it easier for you to understand the blessed rescue plan, we've broken it down into stages.

The first stage and most extensive is the preparatory one, which we have been intensifying with our appearances on this orb from the fifties of the last century based on your earthly calendar. This stage will culminate with the warning about the imminent action of toxic gases over the psychosphere (three days of darkness).

The second stage will be a chemical work to delay the decomposition of the bodies, the majority of disincarnated, your brothers that not believing in the warnings received, will find death with unprepared spirits. In addition to physical support in the sense of slowing down and containing the rapid decomposition of bodies, we will assist in the selection and transfer of those disembodied spirits, as the great disembodied mass will represent work superior to the service capacity of traditional spiritual help groups that have always assisted on occasions of collective deaths.

In this stage, several groups of spaceships will carry out a specific job. While some will be in charge of controlling the decomposition of bodies, others will collect and select the disembodied spirits and will direct them to a third group of spaceships that will lead them to the appropriate place according with their spiritual category and situation.

Meanwhile, a group of spaceships will be in the rescue of victims of suicide and madness, seeking to reduce and alleviate the sequence of insane acts that will surely grow worse; another group of specially prepared spaceships will collect and receive the seeds of the new age, children whose karmic planning will not force them to bear the endless pains that will devastate the planet's surface.

Finally, they will be placed over cities, energy generators with free access to the balanced and prepared minds that will have to draw strength from there to cross the darkness and survive amidst the chaos and human madness. At that time, elevate to us, your thoughts, because everything you need will be offered to you by the Father's Mercy. This moment will be crucial in the redemption of humanity.

Once the initial pain is overcome, we will then be in another stage of the rescue, where the survivors will have to look for each other, forming support groups and reciprocal assistance. Friends and relatives will look for each other. To find themselves, they must face the pain of leaving their shelters and verifying that the prophecies and warnings given were correct, in the sad scenario around them.

His love will be greater and will move them towards the rescue centers, as these are recorded in their unconscious that were worked on by us during the preparatory phase.

IMPORTANT: only those who accepted and allowed our contact during sleep received this instruction, which is engraved in their minds, as it is the law to respect the free will of human beings. Therefore, we cannot impose our presence and the reality of our existence on any creature. They must believe in us and accept us, of the free will of their hearts.

Once gathered in the rescue center, some individuals will take some time to mold their Christian attitude in facing adversity, as many will connect with us through the energy generators due to be fear and not because they have been renewed.

These creatures will need to purify their prejudices and ailments throughout the hard ordeal of living together, restricted in their food and in their actions, until the time comes when the tectonic movements denounce the approach of magnetic forces destined to definitively verticalize the Earth's axis.

At that time, those who really deserve it will be hoisted to our spaceships or sent to Intraterrestrial cities, so that they can move on to the stage of mental reprogramming and learning necessary for the reconstruction of the Earth.

The Earth will be washed and the bodies of unbelieving people, piled up and in a state of putrefaction, will be turned into compost for the sowing of a new civilization. Your pain will be forever imprinted on the Earth's body, as a record of your spiritual inadequacy and evidence of all the opportunities offered by the Father for your redemption.

We were present at the creation of this planet. We follow its childhood and planetary development. We were present in the awakening of rebellious adolescence, manifested by the humanity that developed here, and, now, we will continue to be present in the evolutionary leap, which will lift the Earth to the fullness of spiritual maturity.

Once the rescue stage is over, when many who are spiritually rising will be sent to Intraterrestrial cities, the disturbing element of the planetary order, the Cleaner Planet will be slowly pushed away by the magnetic force of our spaceships and will penetrate in the orbit of another system. Just as happened with the Earth in the past, there, on the Sanitizing Planet, the dawn of a new cycle of karmic evolution will begin, in which the beings transferred there (exiles) will have to restart their dense and poor evolutionary journeys, as they managed to store nothing of the intense learning that was given to them on his previous planet.

Question: Will this other system be close to Earth, in the same galaxy?

Answer: Yes. The distance that separates these two sister planets cannot be too great, despite the fact that they meet magnetically in different dimensions, because many of the surviving beings on Earth will also be instructors, able to clarify the most varied subjects to the fallen.

Save the Light!

May God bless you!

Ashtar Sheran, 10/19/2002

87. WHEN NIGHT FALLS AND DOES NOT DAWN

Save the Light of the East!

Save the Love of the West!

When night falls without dawn, don't despair, do use panic as excuse for your unprepared spirits. Two thousand years ago, beloved Master Jesus, together with his apostles, especially his friend John, already warned: – "There will be 72 hours of darkness, the angels of the trumpets will make them sound, the serpents with the tongue of fire will take the earth." And you prefer to ignore it.

When night falls and does not dawn, keep calm, feeding your spirit in prayer, quenching your soul's thirst in prayer, purifying your higher essence in silence and recollection.

When night falls and doesn't dawn, don't cry for your children, for your parents, for your husbands and wives. Collect your tears in order to wash the wounds of your brothers with them, who in their vigilance chose to ignore God (Athon).

When night falls and doesn't dawn, don't wake up the innocents with your disbelief, don't bind them with the shackles of matter, because you've already been warned: – "Your children are not yours, they are children of the Light. Some will work in the rescue, others during sleep will help foolish souls, but they deserve divine attention and help."

Do not be selfish, in mad hopelessness, if your child is lifted into the sky. He doesn't deserve the pain.

When night falls and it doesn't dawn, calm your mind, calm your heart, and lock your doors and windows securely. With damp newspapers and cloths that are not very porous, they seal the cracks and crevices. Speak as little as possible, just as much as necessary. Exercise your senses: sight, hearing and touch, because darkness will not only be external, physical, it will be internal, for those who preferred the sleep of ignorance, ease, orgies, and the wide door.

When night falls and doesn't dawn, vibrate in tune with the Father and help with your loving emissions the Extra and Intraterrestrial brothers, who will be helping the terrestrials, working in a mission of Peace and much Love, collecting, rescuing, isolating, neutralizing, creating field protective energy for those who believe in Divine Mercy.

When night falls and doesn't dawn, don't be disturbed by the brothers who live on stilts, makeshift houses made of crates, cans and plastics, or by those who are in the streets under bridges and viaducts.

According to their vibrations, they will create around them and their homes, a protective magnetic field, completely isolating those who need to pass through the transition in this way, to complete their Karmic Rescue.

Anyway, when dawn and the sun shines, give thanks for the opportunity of the work and come out to help; do not indulge in lamentation and self-pity. Give thanks for the opportunity to work and go out to fraternal help, without ever asking: – Who you are, where you come from, if you accept or believe in God. Help unconditionally, even if there is someone at your door who has harmed you, hurt you, even if you recognize a brother who has broken the law. Help with Love and at the end of the journey give thanks for the opportunity of redemptive service, for you are the ones most in need. And so, they will pay off their debts, they will be able to wear the nuptial tunic and go to the weddings prepared for all the Prodigal Sons of the Earth.

Save the Light of the East!

Save the Love of the West!

Nefertiti, 10/26/2000

88. STORE FAITH AND COURAGE

The fire that burns and purifies may consume a part of your land, harvesting some lives in a painful way.

From the sky rays and rains of ice will destroy your vegetation, spreading hunger and terror.

Your waters will overflow, in a polluted flood, bringing diseases, despair and chaos.

Finally, when you are too much tormented, desperate, and massacred, you will doubt of the Presence of the Father protecting you.

At once, we will appear to rescue you as brothers that you are.

Store Faith and Courage in your hearts; you will need them sooner that you imagine.

Have faith, therefore in those painful moments, the Force and Light of the FATHER will be strong, felt only by the hearts that stored love.

Be sure you will never be alone, even before the worst the pain and suffering.

We lovingly guide you.

Commander Yuri

GESH - 06/03/2000 - Serra/ES - Brasil.

89. IN CASE OF EMERGENCY

We are now in space, from where we speak to you.

Our strategies are many to keep the Divine Plan up and running.

There is no force in this or in other Universes greater or superior than the Father's will.

We are with you 'until the end of our tasks.

We made contact to tell you that the sequences of pains are unleashed on Earth that will gradually undermine the faith of many and the understanding of the Father's designs. Then you must, strengthened in hope, help through prayer, your distant brothers from other continents who suffering will find themselves weakened to fight. Fight for them through your minds firm in faith and hope.

Nothing happens on the face of this Planet that is not known by the Most Loving Father.

We present as a suggestion that everyone in their own home start cautiously, without fanfare, the storage of first aid materials that could be useful in an emergency. In a corner of a closet, in a reserved place, keep instruments and utensils that may be useful in the future, always remembering that they are not being kept for personal use, but to help many that you will meet along the way. Something that it is possible to carry without difficulty, regardless of the validity period and that is useful to alleviate the suffering of those who may have fallen in front of you.

Think of everything you can do for your neighbor, for God watches over you and takes care of yours.

You are in our hands wonderful instruments of help to those who chose to remain distant from the Divine Reality.

Be, each one of you, a sharp instrument, getting ready for a job. Don't worry about what they might think of you. Occupy your mind and heart in developing the attunement that links you to the FATHER, so that He can speak through you and thus fulfill your role as messengers of the FATHER.

Remember that it is very small before Eternity what you do for those who, far from the Light, live in the illusion of the material world, in the here and now, forgetting that they are all inhabitants of Planet Earth incarnated at this time, but in transit passenger.

Remind men how infinite and wonderful Life is.

Remind men that the time they live in matter is very short, and today it is up to the inhabitants of Earth to take advantage of this time by dedicating it to activities that involve the growth of the immortal spirit.

We are in space, from where we speak to you and for now we leave our greetings.

May the Peace of the Masters befall all, supporting your hearts today and always.

Yuri, 02/28/2000.

90. DIVORCED FROM DIVINE LAWS

Dear brothers, '

May the Peace of Christ and the Power of the Commander Ashtar Sheram involve us now!

I am Setun Shenar designated to bring you information on extraterrestrial beings that are on Earth distant from the least Laws governing the Universe.

Months ago, I brought some information on those Beings; today, I complement them.

They come from a planet already extinct and migrate from Orb to Orb trying to suck the last energies of planets in transition. They are very different from negative beings existent here that you know as "Reptilians" acting in the astral and physical plane and dominate techniques of mental control.

They manipulate embodied leaders throughout the world and practically monopolize the decisions, as well as the beings that hold the economic power of the Planet.

Humans associated with Reptilians are aware of the pact done with Darkness; however, ignore the extension of their harmful actions. The main rulers are fully aware of origin and harmful intention of their partners.

Humans, holders of power are deceived thinking to manipulate Reptilians. These are more powerful than humans are.

I am here to clarify to you that they are already acting for some time, in strategic areas of your humanity's safety. They have been acting in the mechanisms of energy, as well as in the genetic engineering and cybernetic. They have high technology, which transfer to some governments; and in exchange, obtain rights to suck the energies of the planet.

Humans are like pieces in a chess game in the hands of those negative beings.

They know deeply the human beings' behavior, weaknesses and all characteristics of the planet and humanity. They exploit the world commanders and holders of the economic power to manipulate the whole Planet in a direct way, enslaving people, because poverty and chaos are spreading fast in your dear World.

Brothers, those beings have no mercy. For the time being, they cannot be converted due to state in which they are. They are aware of the existence of Groups of Work; however, the Great Universal White Fraternity (GFBW) preserves those Nuclei.

Those Beings dominate the physical and astral matter, with extreme ability, moving from a point to another, from the astral to physical plane, not being necessarily under their original form. They can take other bodies, to create other bodies and to camouflage bodies.

Their high technology and great experience on genetics facilitates the creation of bodies without soul used as living puppets for their evil purposes, as well as, they create "artificial elementals" in the astral plane for their disastrous actions.

I know of many doubts, because this matter is new and then, we continue bringing information over a relatively long time, so that you understand the depth and seriousness of the matter.

A very important point that should know and publish is that Reptilians, in spite of having their arsenal in the terrestrial underground, they cannot be confused with intraterrestrial beings.

The intraterrestrial brothers have a very special function on that hour of "planetary transition". Thence, it requires legible information for not remain doubts.

Reptilians, as extraterrestrial beings are not inhabitants of the terrestrial underground. They built artificial cities with their science, advanced technology and knowledge to subdue the material and astral world, but have not moral evolution.

Since they can take forms wanted, they can also present themselves as intraterrestrial beings or evolved Extraterrestrials. Only the bearer of a high spiritual vibration, unshaken faith in Almighty and surrounded to the spiritual work is able to immunize the individuals from their perverse action. Hence is necessary knowledge and understanding to deal with those Beings.

A deeply painful destiny waits for them. They think to have free access to all Orbs to practice their insane actions, because they act as "hyenas" swallowing everything remained from the chaos, pain and suffering of sick people. However, it is not true, because the Great Universal White Fraternity limits their actions, being constantly monitored.

Brothers, bear in mind that the Celestial Government Central will stop those Beings in the right moment. However, all that have associated and gotten benefits from those beings' malicious performance; they have to answer for their actions.

91. THE APPARENT CHAOS

The Planet's surface will undergo intense transformation. Nothing will remain standing.

It will suffer intense cooling and high temperatures.

There will be a sterilization of the entire Orb, removing all living beings, viruses, bacteria and any harmful elements from the 3rd dimension.

After the Verticalization of the Earth's Axis there cannot have human beings inhabiting the Planet's surface.

And where will your humanity have gone?

They will be, human beings in various places, according to their vibration and merit: in spaceships, in prepared planets and in underground worlds that await them.

Most will disincarnate and will be taken to related worlds with their vibrational degree, with their subtler or heavier density.

Everything, all apparent chaos is ruled by the Pulsating One in All Universes.

You present here, beings that vibrate in superior tune, are those who will be rescued in a situation of helping and not being helped.

Many are the tasks of all those who are really interested in returning to this modified Orb, or wish to ascend to superior worlds.

Be with your minds open and benefactor action be your banner to ascend along with your Orb.

The intense Light that comes from Above sustains and supports you in these final moments.

Onward Warriors, the hour is over!

The apparent chaos is just the Sidereal Construction of new Era of Peace.

Follow your intuition, continue the work of the Shelter.

This is the time to make relevant decisions for future security and protection.

The Light is guiding you.

I say goodbye, leaving you with the certainty that you are not alone.

Even immersed in chaos, involved by it, you are not alone.

Keep your inner Light lit and we will be there.

Commander of the Planet Patrol, 07/30/1999*

92. THEY WANT TO SEE OUR SPACESHIPS

Dear Friends, we are working with you due to affinity in pursuing a "major objective". Evolved beings meet around the work that aims to help all kingdoms of this Planet, the mineral, going through the Elementals and Devas to the human being. All will receive the energies produced and maximized in this place.

I am bringing a message for all human beings. The persons that consider themselves believers of our existence - extraterrestrial beings - beg for any phenomenon, they want to see our spaceships, want to touch us and know our technology and reality. However, they do not perceive the essence and reason why we are among you, human beings, which is for helping in your evolution. To guide you, when you want it, to discover your inner light and bright by yourselves with own combustible, doing the interior reform and improving yourselves, practicing the charity and love to the neighbor so predicated by the Christ when was in Physical Presence among you.

They did not recognize that Magnanimous Being who was present incarnated on Earth so would not be our materialization that could bring benefit to the terrestrial.

We have not the purpose to satisfy curiosities, is not to astonishing the eyes; it is yes, of awakening souls! In the e same way, they doubt about our existence, love and tutelage for you, still more would doubt of the existence of Intraterrestrial Beings, Evolved Brothers, many of them originated from several distant points of the Universe that also are here to help this beautiful Blue Planet.

Men ask the reason for those Beings inhabit the underground of the Earth and how is that possible since it is absurd before the eyes of the Science. I answer them: Human science, so ignorant of the Cosmic Laws, Science that is instrument of the "retrograde forces" instead bringing benefits for humanity facilitating the existence of people and giving them better life conditions, it degrades the environment and only concentrates money.

Few beings keep almost all the richness of the Planet while the great majority suffers miseries without having the minimum for sustaining life! If the Intraterrestrial beings could show and open their cities for the human beings to visit them, they would be destroyed and slaved or would have to defend using weapons of high technology. The Intraterrestrial beings want to help them, reaching out them the hands to evolve.

Wake up, children of mine! You still have time. Open your eyes to the immaterial reality. Recognize in you something more than a body of flesh, that after death barely serves of food to inferior creatures from the dust of the land. You are not only that! You are Spirits and Light making part of the Creator's Magnificence. Recognize your divine essence and begin the fight against illusion.

This beautiful planet that serves you as blessing home, it is dissipated by your ignorance, ambition and lacking of love. Your brothers are ignored and massacred by yourselves. Due to money you are able to descend a vibratory level so low that this makes you transform into monsters. This is not the major objective offered by the FATHER.

We come to bring help for your growth. These are the last messages of alert! Wake up!

This is the last calling! I want also to say to the human beings that scream to the four cardinal points that believe in the Planetary Transition on account of the catastrophes that will happen, but when aware of the information divulged by us, they stock large provisions of food to wait for the "great hour", sheltering in their sumptuous houses, in regions that they consider safe, poor fellows! Our information is not passed along to be safe from the pain and hungry while your brothers suffer all kinds of lacking. Pain will reach everybody that has to pass through this process regardless where he/she is: under fortresses or under bunkers the suffering will knock at the door and their structures will fall down.

So many marvelous beings of splendid spiritual developing, came along the millenniums to warn you that did not achieve to learn the minimum lesson, the Basic Laws! The Love is to be given; if the suffering arrives this humanity is to redeem it. We are not passing information for you to run away from the events but to realize and make modification to growth and help your brothers. Do not escape from your commitments, do not get hide! You are not away of the catastrophes, suffering and chaos that will come to this Planet and even less on account of our information.

We are here among you hoping you can wake up your minds so greedy and small. Look at the skies and see yourselves as part of the Universe and learn to distinguish this existence just as a passage. However, have acknowledgement and compassion for your "temporary house", the Earth, and with your brothers either plants, minerals, animals or humans.

Until when your hardness has to persist? Until when has to be? Make your meditation human beings, Your Master Jesus Sananda in His Infinite Mercy uses all His Force and His Love to wake you up giving you the last opportunity and make the Last Calling. Do not remain deaf to the claim of your Master.

I say good bye telling you, Group of Work, that I am and will be here supporting your task. Who speaks to you is your brother Yuri very happy for the reencounter.

Margarida: With so much joy we welcome you in this journey; you already know about the deep love we feel for you; it is something like gratitude due to the great distance that separates from us on account of your level of spiritual elevation. We know you have so much difficulty to transfer here projecting your mind and heart until us. God blesses you and your Partners of the Planet Patrol.

Yuri: So much work we have, dear sister, for tuning up the instruments of work, however we will do it the times would be necessary to send our messages and help you on this divulging task to the populations about the realities so physicals, however not perceived by ignorant minds. Our work of help during this painful phase of Transition has to remain until the last moment, when the movement of Earth's axis takes place and later to its recuperation. Once this mission is completely done then we will follow our route to return to our normal activities in our Planet. We left you our affection and Love.

Yuri, Commander of Planet Patrol
03/31/99, Rio Negro/AM.

93. HARD WORK

We come to bring you information necessary for the development of your work.

It is necessary that all Beings involved in the work of Christ and in the redemption of this Planet are aware of the events that occur on the hidden and inferior side of this surface humanity.

There is a species of beings called Reptilians, coming from other orbs, decayed countless times from different planets, to which were given countless opportunities for work and evolution, but unfortunately, have not yet reached a minimum of moral elevation.

They are beings that take advantage to suck the decaying energy of the end of civilizations and intended to dominate this Planet. They are experts on very advanced technology, dominate cybernetics, atomic energy and genetic mutations.

They know the natural sciences very well and are able to advance technologically in a short period of time, bringing several innovations that fascinate the most incautious beings, those who only wish technical and material evolution and who do not have enough moral evolution to turn away from ambition and longing for immoderate and insatiable power.

They found in this surface humanity several open wounds through which they penetrated like worms and are taking care of various sectors that dominate this Planet. There have been pacts sealed for some time with several powerful countries on Earth. They incessantly sought the domain of this Orb through war, political and financial power.

However, from a certain point onwards, these beings advanced steeply in the field of genetics and atomic energy.

Terrestrial men, leaders of different peoples are allied and subjugated to these negative beings only by thirst for power and domination. But the time has come to quickly cease this action, as there is a general harm that advances to such an extent that you cannot even imagine. There are creations of true monsters, jettisoned beings of superior evolution and devoid of spiritual life; also the creation of dematerializing machines, machines so powerful that they can compromise not only Planet Earth, but the entire Solar System.

There is a limit that was imposed by the GFBU that will be respected, whatever the cost. There is deep and serious work in this regard.

What the Fraternity asks of its servants is that there is detachment, deep moral evolution and total integration into the work, so that they can be at a level that these beings cannot reach. That they are vibrating in a band where they can be used during sleep for work and combat.

Brothers, awaken your conscience to the seriousness of this work. You are well aware that the world, in general, is not interested in higher evolutionary work. Men are caught up in the illusion of materialism, they are blind and lie waiting only for material riches. Awakening these souls is hard work. We need your support, your constant effort to evolve as embodied spirits and facilitate the arrival of spiritual energies through you.

Have faith and trust. Now, more than any time, it is necessary to give yourselves seriously to the work.

Who speaks to you through projection is your brother Setun Shenar. Do you wish to ask a question?

Margarida: There are other groups of negative beings at work, aren't there?

S: There are several groups. The citation of this specifically is necessary due to its direct influence on your science and technology. But there are countless beings, including allies who work and who want, by any means, to sip some kind of energy, to pick up some crumb from the wreckage of this humanity.

Keep in your mind, open enough, to perceive that the decay of this surface humanity is like a wound attracting countless insects that want to suck up the remains of this lamentable wound. Therefore, there is no other way than intense suffering to initiate redemption.

You know that you are being intensely trained for actions that will have to be taken from now on.

Brothers, be attentive and vigilant.

The Earth is as if jettisoned from the Higher Energies. It is very, very difficult to descend from higher energies to this Planet. There is a huge effort for us to communicate and bring information. Meetings of groups of people are necessary so that little messages can be sent. You know that everything that is possible to be done in the Superior Sphere to keep the Group Eggregore is done, but it takes a greater individual effort from the creatures.

May the Light be with you, may faith and perseverance not fail you. Brothers, we beg you: take a step towards Above and the Superior Energies will walk miles and miles towards you.

Be open because your humanity needs you.

If you could get a glimpse of the planetary situation, nothing would matter to you but the Spiritual Path.

94. LOVE AND LIGHT!

Dear brothers and sisters, tonight let us join in prayer to the Creator Father so that this study may be performed in the light of His Divine Love.

Dear Father, we ask Your blessings especially in this hour when the minds of those who gather here are touched and that they may absorb the information they will receive.

Father, may we be instruments of Your Peace and of Your Love today and always!

I myself, Nathan, have been instructed to tell to you tonight about the Intraterrestrial Civilizations.

First of all, let's define what Intraterrestrial is.

Intra - It means Interior.

Terrestrial - inhabitants of the planet Earth.

– Who are they?

They are people in different degrees of evolution like terrestrials, with the difference that they do not mix: advanced beings live in advanced cities, beings in an evolutionary state and primary beings, each in its habitat, compatible with its vibration.

- What does it mean to be advanced?

They are those who are now in a more developed degree of moral, spiritual, and scientific development, fully aware of the existence of God and of the Divine Laws, but above all respect them first. They do not use their free will to transgress or violate these laws.

- And beings in an evolutionary state?

They are those who, knowing the Laws, do not practice them in their integrity, but still use their free will to satisfy themselves. They respect the laws according to their conveniences and are still subject to participate in the karmic wheels. Their scientific development is of a medium level, in order that it does not compromise them, the future.

- Primal Beings, how are they?

Many of these beings, quite primary, are completely unknown to the Divine Laws and act as autonomous, their needs are very primitive and linked to matter to defend their space or their properties. They do not hesitate to act aggressively, cruelly, for in them the need for power is much greater than the need for love. Some still have an animal form, others a little different, but in essence the will prevails before the sense of respect and love.

- How do you get to these civilizations?

Access portals to these sites are camouflaged when they are on the earth's surface, such as caves, craters, volcanic cavities, mountain, meadow or small hill in certain regions. Many entrances lie deep in the oceans.

- Is there interconnection between these civilizations?

In some points yes, but most of them are independent.

- Is access and transit allowed, that is, free access between civilizations?

Yes, when these are on the same evolutionary level. The evolved peoples are allowed to exchange with civilizations in a lower evolutionary state up to primates, but these are forbidden to migrate to a more evolved civilization because, as is well known, the evolution of being does not jump. To the one who reaches the summit of the mountain, it is the task of guiding, and, if needed, descending to the needs of those who seek the Light with sincerity and purity of heart. Even in the scientific field the progress of uncivilized worlds is by the "infiltration of evolved beings" who have chosen as their mission to help them.

- What is the need to publicize the existence of these civilizations?

The Earth, according to its Divine Programming, closes a cycle of 2160 years and also parallel to this one, a much larger one, because it is not only of the Planet Earth, but of the whole Solar System, Galactic, where together with the Earth all complete this cycle of 26000 years. It represents for the Earth the passage from the third to the fourth dimension, but this passage is successive, since for some planets it represents from fourth to fifth, others from fifth to sixth, sixth to seventh, and so on.

– But then tell me the need for divulging to become known by the inhabitants of the Earth's surface?

THE RESCUE. Everything I have said before, that is, the planetary transition brings with it many physical, moral and spiritual shocks to those who are involved in it. Complete bewilderment of climate, volcanic eruptions, earthquakes, major earthquakes. It would be like preparing for a change where everything is removed from the place, the selection is made, the needs are prioritized; then sweeps, shakes dust, sprays, sucks, washes, dries, waxes and then when everything is clean and ready, go slowly, rearranging, structuring, until everything returns to normalcy, calmer, subtler, happier.

- What is the role of the Intra-terrestrials in this context?

The guardians of the good seeds, protecting ng those who pass through the selection, that is, the wheat, prepare it for when they return to the fertile house, all, without exception, fulfill, play their part.

Medium: We still have many questions.

Answer: do not worry, we will come back and be sure that throughout these lectures will be clarified.

We thank God our Father for the gift of this encounter that has allowed us to advance in our task and to bear the seed planted here today.

Thank you all!

Intraterrestrial Nathan

95. THE UNIVERSE DYNAMIC IN EVOLUTION

The facts indicate the presence of life, strong life, evolved life in the Underground Worlds of this Orb

Note: The draft of Divulcation 17 was almost ready when we traveled to Serra do Roncador/MT. From there we brought many messages among them, the one that follows, which is from our dear Mentor Ramatis=Master Kuthumi.

He asks for urgency in divulging the matter.

Here it is.

Brothers, your journey, once again, is over.

Hope victory of hope.

Victory of delivery.

Victory of humility.

Victory of love.

To you have been given difficult tasks to be fulfilled in the material sphere and, despite the difficulties, you come trying to fulfill your commitments.

Be assured that this is the way. Nothing more is expected of you than a sincere effort to progress, even though, at times, setbacks and obstacles stand in your way.

Falls and stumbling do happen, even so, it is the effort in the performance of your tasks that makes us maintain confidence in the work you do.

Important revelations were made.

A new cycle of work begins emphasizing the Intraterrestrial life existing on this Planet.

It is time to unveil before earthly humanity the reality of the facts indicating the presence of life, strong life, evolved life in the Underground Worlds of this Orb. It is time to face discredit, distrust, fear and ignorance and advance with knowledge about your peoples.

Universe is dynamic in evolution; time does not stop. The knowledge and evolution of beings must accompany the rhythm of life.

Your humanity ignores the others existences in different worlds, distributed in your system, in your galaxy, in other galaxies, in other universes parallel to yours.

It is time to expand consciousness and the first step is to inform you of the existence of these brothers.

The time is approaching when they will be present, helping the Rescue of many incarnated beings and it is necessary that your humanity is prepared to receive such help.

May they hope that fraternal hands will come from heaven to help them, but may they also hope that tender hearts will spring up from Earth to welcome them; that they know, that everywhere, wherever the FATHER desires, life manifests itself, contrary to poor human thought, limited in its form and structure.

Do not think that the change will happen suddenly, but the work needs to start so that it gains strength, shape and body.

To you, faithful work group, who have come over these years, receiving and carrying out our guidelines, we bequeath this task of informing your humanity about the presence of Intraterrestrial Beings.

Your channels must free themselves from fears and shackles to penetrate in various subterranean worlds that surround them. May the opening and expansion of consciousness begin in your Group and that all those who work there find an irrefutable reality in the manifestation of Intraterrestrial life.

The worker is no longer given at this time, when battles are being fought in space, the whim of doubt and fear. One who wants to work on this specific task must surrender, trust and follow.

Our presence among you has been marked for all these years. Anyone who is still in doubt is not prepared to follow us, it would be better to dedicate himself to other tasks.

This is a moment of great seriousness, a lot of work, a lot of effort, with no room for doubts or personal whims.

Concentrate your efforts on the practice of charity, which guarantees you a firm and secure foundation in the endeavor you carry out. Also, focus your energies on disclosing the existence of the Underground Worlds.

Appointed and in charge of the task of clarifying the main points to be developed, is your friend Fawcett. He will be your Guide in this task. The reading of clarifying works on the subject must be carried out by all those who wish to carry out this work. It is the minimum knowledge that will entitle you to the most complex understanding of the subject.

In your minds you must record the moments you have lived when your faith is put to the test, and then confirmed.

Only faith will remain for those who wish to follow.

Faith strengthened, work done.

Faint faith, mental confusion, parked work.

Ramatis: Is the matter clear or would anyone among you want to ask a question?

Margarida: My brother, does this work have to be done only in GER?

Ramatis: There are among you, in the different work groups, brothers prepared to work with us, who should be taken advantage of, not necessarily in the days of the GER. That the entire mediumistic body be invited to this task, but that, as a fundamental principle, the study of related works should be established.

Margarida: As far as I know, little written exists in this regard. I know “Mistérios do Roncador” and two more books that are part of this series of 5. I also know “Raça Futura”, “Cidade dos 7 Planetas” 3 works by Trigueirinho and our modest booklet about the intraterrestrial City Stelta. Many other works I have read, they speak lightly on the subject, including Intraterrestrials that mentions an Intraterrestrial City in the Amazon Region.

Ramatis: This is why we developed this work plan. Many earthlings will think they are being swallowed by demonic beings, as ignorance creates fatally negative images about the unknown. It is natural for man to project through his ignorance all his fear anxiety.

Margarida: My brother, what can you tell us about the case of Varginha city? They drew two hideous beings and said they were extraterrestrial beings, but there were those who claimed to be intraterrestrial beings. After all, were they extraterrestrials or intraterrestrials?

Ramatis: They were the result of the sick imagination of ignorant minds.

Margarida: Did they appear or not?

Ramatis: In mental form accessible only to some beings with the ability to perceive. In fact, they sought contact, however no materialization was carried out.

3Margarida: Where were they from? From outside or here on Earth?

Ramatis: Intraterrestrial Beings.

Margarida: How was the battle with the outsiders of Light last night? Did we play our part or we were scared?

Ramatis: Within you, in your hearts, fear resides and it is natural that it should be so, however, the strength of Faith courageously leads you to the performance of your tasks, overcoming fearful human nature.

Your performance was satisfactory for the level you are at. From the beginning, when this work was designed, which is in progress, you have responded to the trust we place in you; that is why we once again report to you offering you a new opportunity for redemptive work.

It is up to the Light worker no longer for his own benefit, nor for the benefit of lesser interests, but I work in the name of the Light.

Margarida: Every Monday, as you well know, we irradiate messages to a prison, a hospital, an abortion clinic and a reformatory for children and adolescents. Could we, for example, replace the hospital, for the benefit of the tribes that are revolted on the spiritual plane, who are on the Astral Plane of the regions we visit, in order to dialogue with them? What do you advise us?

Ramatis: As has already been said, the charitable work you carry out is the sure foundation of the tasks we entrust to you. The greater the number of beings (spirits) rescued, whether in hospitals, clinics, schools, reformatory units or indigenous tribes and homes, the greater help they will provide. May one not occur at the expense of the other.

Margarida: We will organize in such a way that everyone is satisfied.

Ramatis: In the name of Jesus, our Greater Master, Celestial Guide of Our Lives, Scope of our existences, Supreme Beauty, Pure Love, Radiant Sun of Light and Brightness, I say good bye leaving all our blessings.

Stay in the Peace of Christ.

Margarida: Knelt down, we are grateful for this blessed communication granted us during this trip.

May the Peace of the Divine Master Jesus and the blessings of the FATHER fall on all of you, of the G.F.B.U.

Ramatis,

96. WHERE HAS ABSENSE OF LOVE, HAS ABSENSE OF LIGHT

Dear Brothers!

The attention paid to our orientations has to be made with clean and courageous hearts filled with faith in the Almighty.

Revelations never have been easy to be transmitted to past or current humanities so incredulous and lacking of a minimum of faith to recognize the chaos surrounding them.

If was possible for every one of you to distinguish the reality at the spiritual plane covering this humanity, you would beg the Father to apply extreme measures to solve and clean the several planes of life. Meanwhile, when we approach you, bringing orientations, we cause doubts in your minds and anguish in your hearts. Indeed, our revelations and us is not what is causing such discourage; it is your so little faith what put you on difficult situation before the spiritual reality and the purest truth. Why is it so difficult for you, terrestrial humanity, to distinguish the truth approaching you?

Would it be in fact our presence necessary to show you at every moment the absence of love?

Where there is absence of Love there is absence of Light and if there is no light, what we have then?

Until when would it be necessary to tell you what is happening for not to doubt about our words?

Until when will you be blind before the superior truths?

When each of you, children of the same FATHER and fruit of so distant and long evolution, have to rise your eyes to the High searching for happiest days, leaving behind your primitive feelings?

If we are not reaching you out the hands then you remain blocked; if we reach out our hands as result of our sincere love, you reject to believe in our words and remain blocked as well.

When would you awake brothers? When would awake of that dream, of that illusion in which you remain? When you would leave behind all your miseries? Would it be when all is happening, with major or minor intensity, all around the world? Then, you would recognize that the prophecies were true and you did not pay attention; may be in that moment could be late to return to the point where you had recognized the previsions.

Do your reflection about these words!

You had among you 2000 years ago a Being of Supreme Spiritual Beauty who was spreading a sweet message of Love, for loving each other, like the FATHER loves you; so, what have you included of this in your daily life?

Do not wait until the suffering overturn you and at the end you could distinguish what was so obvious. Do not wait until your neighbor believes for you to believe. Look to recognize in your hearts the certainty of the current events announcing the future events.

Do your reflection on these warning and advising words coming to you, since when the events lift the sad veil of pain on the Earth, then at that moment would be as late as to want to recover the lost time.

A new time will establish in the sowing done. The madness will be among you. There would not be clarity among the human who, animalized by the presence of the Cleaner Planet, would return to the primitive attitudes fighting each other just as natural tradition as dispute for food, territory and mate.

Would it be necessary that humans return to that point?

It is not by divine determinism that the suffering temporary has to remain on this planet, but by election of this sleepy humanity.

The choice is yours, brothers!

Remember, from these words, the ways you have been walking all along your reincarnations and perceive that it is time to modify your attitudes in favor of the Light, Harmony and Peace for this Planet.

Do not think that what is happening to you, terrestrial beings, is restricted to your world. All your Planetary System is influenced by your pernicious layer of vibrations that, day after day covers the Earth. You are, as collectivity, responsible for the effect of those deleterious emanations around your Solar System. Be prepared to withstand the effect of downs and unbalances of your emotional bodies.

I hope these words could reach the great amount of individuals and remain aware we are among you sending our messages and orientations through this and other Groups of work.

The influence of the Cleaner Planet is felt in the terrestrial crust. Its inferior magnetism is already influencing several people, whose vibrations would not reach the minimum as to be above the influence of that Planet. Such beings are far from our capacity of protection and by that way they would be subjected to their own vibrations. It is necessary in that phase; to be maintained at differentiated vibratory levels. Those who wish the light have to make an effort to remain at the proper vibratory level in order to be immune to the influence of the inferior magnetism of the Cleaner Planet.

Those who still have doubts, try to experiment remaining at superior vibratory levels to do, indeed, their choices. For those who do not believe, we invite them to do a reflection in the sense that they discover where they are and in which vibratory level they are tuned.

The measure you have to take into account is the Christian values.

Those who follow the commandment of the God's Law, looking to act according to the Major Spirituality and its orientations and following their neighbor's Love, are then in conformity to the Law.

Those who are thinking only in themselves have to find a major sense for their lives and to be sure that, with major intensity the Father thinks on them.

Stop thinking so much in yourselves.

Delegate that task to someone so Superior. Look for act in favor of the neighbor. Be an instrument of the Father in the modification of the destiny of your neighbor, intervening positively, helping, giving the needed support, either in the affective, psychological or material aspect. Do the charity.

In that is what the first phase consist. It is the Phase of Great Selection that is occurring now among you; however, many people could not receive nor accept the events.

So much worries us the incredulity of people, no because we want they believe us, but because our major worry within our field of work is the suffering that each of you will face.

The following moment (2nd phase) would be the three days of darkness that will represent for each being the return to their internal world for a confrontation of the Darkness with the Light. While the external world be obscured by the direct or indirect action of the human, this latter would also be in contact with its interior world and would verify if it is obscured or illuminated by charity and Love attitudes that its spirit will feel.

During this 2nd phase so many people will not withstand the reality they have to face in the darkness made of egoism in which they live and they will try to find the death as a way to stop the pain of the sad discovery to see them covered by darkness. However, the certainty of be alleviated would be substituted by affliction, many times so major and for a longer and continue darkness more than the necessary.

I hope the humbleness could be present in your hearts at that moment that you are facing your wounds and your reduced light.

I hope you have the enough humbleness to recognize your faults and mistakes made, begging to the High one more time for a new opportunity for progress and be sure, whatever you are, light will be there and you will be rescued by it.

Those who could achieve a step further that period would be already ahead in the process of selection. I hope, in the moment you hear these words, you are spirits benefited by the clarification to ascend to happiest worlds leaving behind a past of failures.

The Divine Mercy will reach you wherever you are, although you had made whatever fault. Believe and trust, since the Divine Mercy, coming from the Infinite Love of the FATHER to all creatures, is the most powerful force of this, others and all the Universes. Only the most powerful force of that Love could be able to lift you, rescuing you from yourselves, since the rescue will occur and it will represent your own rescue.

After that period, the confrontation among the Darkness and the Light will materialize (at the physical world). Battles will be performed among the Groups of work of Master Jesus and the vandals in groups spread out by the different points of rescue that have been established previously. For that moment you have to be prepared as much as possible for the helping of souls, who through the suffering could deserve rights to that attention. It is that way, by means of intense pain; you would be in conditions for a new opportunity of choice.

Many of you, who are now listening or reading these words, would need, for our sad, to feel in your body the pain and suffering in order to understand what we are talking about. We know and understand that it has to be.... (We lost the phrase).

We do respect the moment of your humanity. We do it. We hope each of you do your choice according on what the heart is telling you.

It is our task that all of you receive the information about the events.

Finally, after the phases where the physical and moral pain would remain among the humans, there would be the chaos apparently total, when even those immersed in the light could think that all is lost. In that moment, our spaceships that are flying to the Earth, with billions of trained beings so prepared under strict orientations by the superior spiritual hierarchies will reach the souls that at the end could achieved the vibratory level. This either through their own will or that they are reaching the 1st phase, either through the confrontation with their interior world or that arrived or will arrive the 2nd phase, either through physical and moral pain or that arrived or will arrive to the 3rd phase.

Understand my dear brothers that we are not spreading the fear, horror or panic. As an adult advising the unprepared child we are just indicating you the consequences of your egoism, proud and lacking of charity and absence of Love.

You have in your hands your own destiny; modifying it is your task; helping you is ours and here we are among you to assume it, being this your will or not, since we are following a very superior orientation that even you could imagine.

Remain in the Peace of the Planetary Christ and we hope HE could cover your Planet with vibrations of the purest love, touching you heart.

Town of Earth! Awake! Abandon your vices and be pure and clean of heart.

I greet you on behalf of the Great White Universal Fraternity.

I greet you on behalf of Master Jesus, Sananda.

Master Ramatis = Kuthumi

97. NOTHING WILL BE AS IT WAS BEFORE

We transcribe a communication of Commander Yuri, who, with blunt expressions, warns us about what is to come, while pointing out the remedy to bear the pain: "Love your neighbor as yourself". A tremendous wave of horror approaches the Earth.

Dread and despair will spread among men. Nothing will be as it was before.

Waves and bombs of violence will explode over the Earth, invading cities.

Hordes of evil and animalized beings will appear, attracted by the magnetism of Hercolubus (Intruding Planet = Cleaner), which presence will stir up the ferocity of incarnate men and these, taken by hatred, by the heavy vibrations of their own primary spirits, will be swallowed up by the thirst for violence, cruelty and pain of these unhappy brothers.

Many will believe that the end of human existence on Earth has come.

Codes of ethics and respect for human rights will no longer be observed by individuals guided by the beasts of the Astral.

Terror and hate will ravage the Earth!

Revenge will attract revenge and hate will attract more hate. For many, it will be the much talked about and feared hell they will be living. However, the disciple who observes the Laws of Master Jesus knows that there will be little left for the beginning of a New Era. They will be immersed in the Divine Light of His Protection and will remain connected in it, according to their own will, as well as the choice of vibration to which they wish to belong.

May your trust in the Father's designs never fail, even in the face of the most primitive atrocities.

Remember, eternally, that matter is a depository of pains and sufferings that rinse the spirit, cleaning it of its impurities.

When, in your minds, it becomes impossible for you to bear the pain that will spread around you, return to the House of the FATHER, which is your own heart, surrender your life to God and everything else will become clear and alive around you.

Understanding and comprehension will only come after the events. During the period in which you are immersed in the atrocious pains and sufferings that will sweep the surface of Planet Earth, keep your mind connected to the Lord of the Universes and HE will assist you in the crossing.

Always remember to also offer your hand to those around you, no matter if this is your blood brother, relative, intimate friend or any other person; I helped without looking at whom. Surely, someone will be guided to help your loved ones.

Make an effort, not to understand what will happen, but direct your energy towards persisting in the very high vibration of faith, trust, courage and charity.

Always Love!

Work as much as necessary. Keep vibrations up!

Commander Yuri, 09/28/1998

98. ON THE PATH OF DIVINE LAWS

We salute you Warriors of Light. Salute you Warriors of Michael.

Answering to the magnetic attraction of the planet that is approaching, your planet is being saturated with negativity, deleterious and sticky substances and mortal gases emanated from the awakening of the consciousness that decided to ignore the Father's Divine Laws.

Since this is a planetary moment, including all the astral inferior planes and the abyssal prisons, all receive influences not only from the Cleaner Planet but also from the Christic Breeze of the Beloved Master and the answer to these callings is determined by the vibration of each Being.

The way you have recorded your life in the Eternal Book in the Superior Astral you also have made it recorded in the inferiority your steps when you were ignorant of the Natural Laws.

The Smart Inferior Commands, under pressure of the Divine Light, have seen that the Threads of Mercy Goodness of the Father are taking some members of their "High Commands". They have been taken away by the regret and recognition that until now they were no other thing than puppets in hands of the bearers of the false truth.

Your steps have been monitored by the servants of the darkness, however preserved by the guardians of the Blue Sword that determine to what army you really belong. Many people disguised of false gentleness predicate love and goodness while hide under the false bright of their eyes the malice and bad intentions.

So, warriors, put your eyes in the eyes of those people who are looking for you and based on the answer of your heart separate from your circle the wheat from the tares.

For us the time has arrived. You will see to appear at all points of the planet not only the answers of the Light, but also the purifying energy of the Karmic Christ. Also you will see the appearing of misunderstandings, of violence, of vices, of illnesses, of outbreaks, pains, fights, hungry and moral misery.

Your shield is the pray and your armor is the actions and practice of moral virtues, always following the Natural and Divine Laws taught by the Divine Friend Jesus.

Peace in your hearts!

Yuri, July 31st 1998

99. THE EARTH SUFFERS!

Beloved brothers and sisters, the hour approaches and we are ready.

The human attitude before the catastrophic events is always of skepticism and mostly humans do not understand why certain events that threat their lives would occur.

It is even more skeptical their position regarding the Divine Justice, when in pain and suffering women and children are involved.

Some of them forget and others do not know what is wrapping the spirit - physical body - is barely the mean or material instrument for the moral improving.

The human promptly discards the possibility that those beings who suffer are really harvesting their senseless sowing from the past and distant time, when they were living intoxicated for the hungry of power and mundane pleasures.

All of us had on Earth, the opportunity to readjust and we left deep scars on Earth's body of that that so many times received us.

So many people could learn throughout years and then ascended to celestial places. Today, they are looking for the balance, because they have huge debts with this Planet. However, there are even others who still today are killing, wounding and destroying this place that is sheltering them.

And the Earth is suffering!

There is not any possibility to alleviate a dolorous body, without extracting from it, the painful cancer of annoyance and human deliriums that wound and corrode its body.

Day after day, more and more vampires are engrossing lines to suck its vital forces, and destroying its subtle body. More and more its matter is rarified making life in the planet harder, and consequently attracting for its astral wrapper, more and more afflicted and unhappy people.

Brothers, life on the Earth is difficult for some, soft for others and intermediate for the great majority; however, from here the Earth is becoming day after day a horror scene".

At this moment the communication was interrupted. The medium did see several mutilated bodies, lumped and several energies in conflict with a huge flow of sexual energy spreading up, crapping and covering the Earth, activating through its path the animal memory awakening the animal instincts of those beings already going to their spiritual advance.

Retaking the communication.

"...it's painful to see how the life is going for that sister (the Earth) that formerly gave us a place to live in and helped us for the transmutation from inferior to others subtler stages.

If today you are receiving our communications, is because a great love each one of you is moving us and inviting us to awake you to the plentiful life that goes away from the matter.

It is up to us to awake you to an imaginary phenomenon. On the contrary, we want to prevent you to give more from you, in order to reach the salvation.

That is the reason why we invite you to the working until now is here for you, inviting you first to an intimate reform for each one. That reform needs to be huge, since eternity is not given to the little ones who do not know how to use it. They are under a temporary cycle by the Sidereal Engineers and your humanity will promptly reach one of those cyclic conditions again.

The Earth does not support more the presence of inferior beings. It needs care and to get it. Their people have to find another planet, a new place to live in to begin a new cycle. Part of the humanity will be elevated to spaceships while the blessed remedy will be administered to that is serving you now (Earth).

Listen to your hearts in case you forget we are here. We are so many and could not locate around your planet working together if the moment was not serious and of concern.

You have believed until now in just that your material eyes can distinguish. Elevate your immaterial eyes and pray the FATHER to give you the sad vision of the Earth that claims for a change. Attempt to open your mind for not be eaten by the shadows surrounding the blindness.

Give the love back you have been receiving for centuries.

Spread the love for all and everybody approaching you and let the spark of light in your hearts is over them."

Nefertiti - GER - 02/21/1998 - São Paulo - Brasil

100. AFTER THREE DAYS OF DARKNESS

Margarida: we received the following message on the side of a road that connects Xique-Xique do Igatú to Andaraí, in Chapada Diamantina, BA on 10/19/1997, at 9 am.

"Dear brothers!

It is a pleasure to meet you!

It is a divine gift to be able to share this rich nature, energy that permeates all beings, although few ones can bathe in this sea of life that surrounds you. Unfortunately, the inferior instincts that still prevail among men do not allow them to know the wonderful world where they live. The destruction of Nature represents ignorance and absence of love among men; however, in many places like this, there are "Communities of Special Intraterrestrial Beings", living in perfect harmony, studying, improving their knowledge about Nature and its functioning, in contact with the purest energies that enable them to grow and evolve spiritually.

This place (referring to a plateau) surrounded by ancient rocks, adorned by a variety of colorful and flowering bromeliads and also other species of rare beauty) is the "Entrance Garden" for one of these Underground Cities, where peace and harmony with the natural environment is permanent. Respect for life remains intact, preserved by the desire for evolution of the people gathered there.

This "community" has little contact with embodied human civilization and therefore understands little of the much it sees through its receptors.

It doesn't understand why human beings on the Earth's surface so destroy their own "home", setting fire to the woods, digging holes in the Earth in search of deposits, killing their fellow men, mistreating and killing animals even for pleasure.

The inhabitants of this City are already preparing to help them in this transition. They don't ask why they should help, when the man himself doesn't help himself. They only serve and obey the larger commands, with their humble nature. They live a peaceful existence and form a family. Its main objective is to deepen the knowledge of Nature. With their research they have already managed to produce excellent medicines and foods that will be useful in the awakening of the New Earth.

Large lodgings are already being prepared to receive the wounded, the mutilated, and those in need of help who can be brought to this place, as their "home" is open to serve others.

The more they study, the more they discover the purity and simplicity of the Divine Laws and, amazed, they integrate into the reality of natural life.

Medium: I mentally asked the name of the Intraterrestrial City and the person who received me.

Answer: You have asked the name of this city and of the "Being" that showed you a small part of the environment in which they live, but it is not yet time for such a revelation to occur*.

You have known the "entrance" of a world different from that you live in and for the moment this is all we can reveal.

However, you can ask questions.

Margarida: Who are you?

Nefertiti: I am Nefertiti speaking to you.

Margarida: It is great joy in having you with us on this trip. Of all that is to come, the three days of darkness will come first?

Nefertiti: Yes. The callings of alert must occur with intensity and fast until the moment the darkness covers the Planet, for an approximate period of three days.

Margarida: What will happen after the three days?

Nefertiti: After this phase, nothing will be as before. The rescue work will begin with the grouping of people with your action in clarifying those who are able to be rescued to have their lives preserved.

Margarida: What will we do?

Nefertiti: During this period, it is necessary connection with the Forces of Good, forgetting what your life was like up that moment, as nothing will come back. There will be nothing more important than fraternity and cooperation.

In the beginning, you will feel pains in the soul, due to the lack of contact with family and friends; however, in your hearts must remain "love" that must be developed by all creatures.

Margarida: How will those times be?

Nefertiti: In those times to come, everyone you meet along the way are your brothers, parents, children or friends. The current people's life structured by this society ends when those days of suffering and pain begin.

When the sunlight returns, the most crucial and decisive days of the planetary transition will begin.

Margarida: Could you tell us what will come next?

Nefertiti: there will have a grouping of people who can be spiritually recovered and, then rescued. Finally, the "last call" to make the selection that will take place after this period, which will last as long as possible.

Thus, seek to establish the Sidereal Technicians that work intensively in this process. Many people, by the addition of the Father's mercy, will have the last opportunity in that worst hour of pain, to make their choice.

Do not be deceived.

Only pain will wake up those who sleep!

Margarida: How shall we act?

Nefertiti: In the same way you already doing today divulging the work. It seeks to awaken those who are already awake but are not aware. The pains come then so that, awaken, make their choice.

Margarida: What is the role of the Group (GESJ) in this context?

Nefertiti: It is up to all the Groups that work with the Beings of the Stars to guide and explain the countless questions that may arise.

Margarida: What must be done?

Nefertiti: It is necessary to inform and study, but I don't think there is more time for many workers to go deeper into the subject. That's why they will not be able to answer all the doubts or solve all the questions.

Margarida: So, what will they do?

Nefertiti: When the necessary knowledge is lacking, they must double the charge of love and through it touch hearts so that they wake up in time.

Margarida: How long will this period last?

Nefertiti: It will be more or less a year of struggle, pain and suffering, then, persevere. Do not be discouraged.

Margarida: How to protect ourselves from the poisonous gases during the dark days?

Nefertiti: keep the doors, windows and shutters sealed with newspapers or clothes moistened, as the water will not allow gases to enter the interior of the residences... (a few words were lost here).

Margarida: Which procedures to adopt?

Nefertiti: Do not open the entrances for any reason.

Do not give in to the fear and panic generated by screams and moans of pain that you will hear from outside.

Do not give in to anguish or to affliction of not being with those you love.

It is important to keep an open mind and prayer in order to receive the help that will arrive from Spaceships placed over your cities.

Margarida: What else could you tell us?

Nefertiti: While it's raining, there will be changes in the structure and placement of the Earth's Axis. On that occasion, many beings will be rescued.

Everything will be very fast.

Finally, I can tell you, this will be the easiest stage, the success of which will only depend on re-establishing calm in your hearts to receive help. By then, the most difficult and painful period will be over.

If messages reach you, warnings coming from the unexpected... (we lost words) ...all those who can be contacted, they will be contacted, even if only once, in a single instant. They will be guided to you to also receive those small communications that we manage to establish. We hope they are welcomed and integrated into the work.

I would like to leave you a message about LOVE that shall be your biggest and strongest working tool during the stages rescue plans. May LOVE be before you as a condition, as a sign that will attract and comfort all those who need help.

LOVE

May LOVE be among you, permeating your actions, your words, your warnings.

Finally, may LOVE represent your struggle wherever you go, wherever you are. (say it twice)

Bathed in the Light of LOVE, there will be no destruction, as it is the only universal indicator, a language that allows communication among beings throughout the Universe and at all evolutionary levels.

It is LOVE that makes the road wider for those who know how to use it. May LOVE be your flag, your struggle and your life. In it, you will find no stumbling blocks.

I leave you in the Peace of the Masters.

Beloved brothers and sisters, receive each one of you and your Group, a loving hug and the certainty that I have each one kept in my heart.

Wherever you are, I will be loving you, protecting you and helping, if the FATHER allows.

Nefertiti,
10/19/1997, Chapada Diamantina, BA

Margarida: In the previous message, Nefertiti speaks of an Underground City near to Xique-Xique do Igatú, Chapada Diamantina, BA. Then, we present the report of an astral trip made by the channel/Medium the night before in that city.

Channel/Medium: I was meditating, when I saw a Being who was waiting for me and introduced himself as Ersam (Intraterrestrial friend of our Group). He had a thin body, round head, immense almond eyes of indescribable sweetness, resembling the eyes of a small child.

I left the physical body and followed him. I dressed the astral body with a kind of metallic-colored overalls, like asbestos. It resembled astronaut clothing, but thinner. Accompanying this outfit was a helmet resembling a small inverted aquarium.

We walked out into the silvery moonlight. I highlighted in the landscape a tree with a tall trunk, a thin and wide crown that attracted my attention. I soon deduced that it was, perhaps, the reference for the entrance to the Underground City. We got to the tree and changed the direction we were going, changed the angle and we started to go down. We entered a kind of lake where we submerged. Afterwards, we went down a ladder and then we followed a tunnel that ended in a room. In this environment, my clothes were changed and I was cooled with a type of gas so that I could penetrate in the Intraterrestrial City. My body was practically frozen and in such a way that I walked and moved like a robot.

Then, I crossed the ground downwards, guided by another Being. He told me that there was a very narrow opening for us to go out and reach the surface. One of the reasons for going out is to establish contact with people of the surface and to who live in the crust, to get them used to their vibrations, in order to avoid a vibratory shock if they are taken there.

The other reason is the study and chemical research carried out with raw material of the surface such as leaves, fruits and roots of vegetables in the region to future use by inhabitants of the surface. With sophisticated devices, they read the chemical formulas of substances produced by insects and plants. It is done without killing the animal. The device looks like a chemical X-ray, which is tuned to a certain frequency that encodes a certain category of substance.

When I crossed the ground, I didn't reach the City itself. I went to a kind of hangar lined with transparent material, where two spaceships were parked. When I asked my guide about the inhabitants of that Intraterrestrial City, he ordered me to stay in a certain position and to look ahead. Then I could see Beings similar to those who guided me. There were adults and children that looked at me curiously.

I asked him if humans had ever entered the city and he answered no. He also told me that only the scientists leave from the city, so the population is unaware about the surface humans. They have large, almond-shaped eyes, thin, copper-colored body, and I can't tell if it was clothing or skin. I couldn't see the name of the City or the Being that guided me.*

After this quick and distant contact with the inhabitants, I boarded a spaceship. That place radiated a warm light that seemed to burn. Then I understood why they had frozen my body, and that I would stay for short time therein. There was in the "air" a certain rush to develop the work. I boarded a spaceship that left upwards and soon I was in the meeting room.

For people who are learning about the subject through this reading, of course they will find it all very strange, absurd, fanciful. However, for those who have been with us since the 1st pamphlet, they realize how the process was "gently" prepared for the great revelations.

About six years ago, a message received by Yolanda Rodrigues (former sister of charity), Brazilian residing in Montevideo, was divulged in Brazil.

Let's transcribe an excerpt from that long message:

"There will be three days of darkness that will be the last call of the Father's Love. Two thousand years ago Jesus came, then several messengers came and no one listened to Him.

The three days of darkness mean s a great shock to awaken the humanity. This shock means Love from God Father to prepare us spiritually to new times..."

Note: the messages of Yolanda Rodrigues were dictated by Masters of the Great Universal White Fraternity. In these last times have increasing the divulgation of booklets including the third message of Fatima published by a catholic Priest authorized by the Roman Catholic Church.

Let's transcribe another excerpt from the long message:

"...There will be darkness on Earth for 72 hours. One third (1/3) of humanity who prays, will escape the 72 hours of darkness, will live in a new era, will be good people..." (words of Zanira, Paraguayan through booklets published in Brazil)

"...The 3rd Dimension Planet Earth is already in the Age of Aquarius. The impressive Epoch of the Apocalypse takes place on this, during which the global darkness of the whole world. Not wanting to panic humanity, but only to warn them of the last call for their definitive transmutation to light, since in a short time, the entire Orb will be in darkness, for three consecutive days and nights..."

Note: We do not know if this message it was dictated or it was Zanira's clairvoyance, through the Register of Probabilities that projects the medium or channel into the future. In these difficult times, the best way to be happy is to practice charity and love, taught by Jesus. Let's love and be supportive, every day. Be Happy, this Christmas and always.

101. EVERYTHING WILL BE FAST!

The following message was received by a "channel" or "medium" at GER/GESH on 10/03/97.

Note: For those who do not know who Yuri is, a friendly Extraterrestrial, read the chapter "The Barriers of Fear" of our booklet "The Intraterrestrials and Us, I".

Yuri: Save Warriors of the Light!

Margarida: You are welcome in the name of God, Brother!

Y: Once again I am among you.

M: Are you Brother Yuri?

Y: That's right. I myself came to clarify subjects at issue.

M: It is a great joy. It has been some time since we were graced with your friendly presence. We missed you!

Y: I dedicated myself to other tasks, developing them while I wasn't in your midst; however, keep the certainty that, by force of thought, I brought you with me.

M: Thanks to the FATHER! We are very happy about it!

Y: Your unbelieving humanity has been falling into traps, in an attempt to demoralize the Extraterrestrial consciousness that exists on the Planet.

It is important for all Groups that work under the guidance of our Commander Ashtar Sheran, to clarify and disseminate, not allowing erroneous ideas to settle and spread in the hearts of those who are still on the path to understanding the brotherhood that exists among the inhabitants of the Universe.

Attempts are born from hardened hearts, with the aim of denigrating the mission that we now carry out in the midst of your humanity. It is true that they are born before in dark hearts, far from the LIGHT, desirous of instilling fear and discord, inducing unsuspecting men to forge evidence of a possible passage of negative extraterrestrial beings to your Planet. There is no foundation in this assertion as the Earth Portals have long been closed to intruders of any category. Do not allow this to go on. It is up to you, Messengers of Light, to enlighten the unwary and strengthen the faith in the weak. The order is to persevere, despite the attempts that are made to overthrow the idea of brotherhood, love and service that we are trying to implant, to facilitate this very humanity to pass through the natural cataclysms that the Earth will face very soon.

It is necessary to receive us in your hearts so that we can help you. This is the prime condition.

Without Light, no matter how much love we have for each one of you, we cannot do anything, because if you avoid us, our action plan will not reach you. If in your hearts there is not a single spark, however small it may be, but that serves to open the way for help, our plan will not work.

Does the sister want to ask something?

M: We would like to know, if possible, about future events in relation to the period, even without specifying dates. Could it be that the most serious phase, of all that will occur, will take place in the 2nd semester of 1999?

Note: We lost many words due to recorder failure, before what we will write below:

Y: ... the heavy vibrations, negative as you call it, that vibrate intensely in these places of human agglomerations, such as in prisons, penitentiaries, institutions for the recovery of children and adolescents, they will give you the signals. These places will explode like real bombs. Waves of violence and pain will spread uncontrollably into your society.

So be attentive for this sign.

M: Brother, we are already living this time. There is daily rebellion in Penitentiaries or Houses of Detention. On the other hand, isolated or collective murders, vices of all kinds, violent passions and hard work in Black Magic, leave a trajectory of pain, despair and revolt in gigantic proportions. I believe, for all that, that the passage of the Intruder or Cleaner Star is very close. What do you say?

Y: With all due respect to your considerations, which are very attentive to the reality of your world, I assure you, with the authority that was granted to me, that what you live on this Planet today is still the beginning. These violent souls will no longer be contained in prisons. Your police will not have the power to control them. They will be among you, for the most part, in your daily life and will be scattered over the surface of the Earth, like animals in search of their prey.

Today they already live with you, but they still need to disguise themselves, however, at that moment we speak, it will be time for the separation between the wheat from the tares. At the time mentioned, coexistence between beings of such different vibrations will no longer be bearable. It's time to act. It's time we intervene. It's Rescue Time!... Time when we will make ourselves physically present, in whatever way possible, to reach everyone who can be rescued.

At this moment, my brothers, do not worry, do not disturb your hearts by fear, attachment and doubts, for there will not be time to solve them. There will be time, yes, just to rescue those who can be rescued. The moment is serious and very serious, therefore, it is up to everyone to clarify, whether they believe it or not, so as not to claim that they were not warned, at the right moment, their hearts are prepared to receive us.

Everything will be fast!...

M: Brother, should we continue with the Dissemination work, or should we stop at number 12, and from the material we have with those who will probably come, publish a book?

Y: The restructuring of the work of the «Divulgations» that you are developing is already underway, however, new guidelines will arrive in due time, and I can say that for a new task, among many values, that of «UNION» will be necessary. It is necessary that the scattered «Cells» start to join together in the dissemination work, because once strengthened in the ideal, they can offer greater resistance, to the stronger and greater attacks that your work will provide.

M: My brother, from about 4 months ago, on the left side of my brain, upper part, I don't know exactly where to place it, strong palpitations similar to heartbeats appear. This is not continuous, it comes and goes without my interference. Did they put a kind of chip or something inside my head, or is it a physiological matter? And the intense heat I feel from the inside out?

Y: Your physical body is distancing itself every day from that natural freshness of everything that is new (74 years old) *. Due to the work that you develop, it is necessary to keep the physical cells with a little more vital tone so that you remain receiving the information, ideas and intuitions that come to you from the outside, but that also spring from within, brought by the knowledge accumulated for decades of millennia.

These are changes in your metabolism that are being made and maintained by Space Technicians to conserve you.

What we are doing is nothing more than calibrating an instrument so that its use can be prolonged.

M: I already suspected that. I thank you as well as everyone who cares about my physique. I will try more and more not to disappoint you. For me there is no tiredness, hunger, sleep, cold or heat that prevent me from "updating writing", when it comes to a spiritual task.

Y: The time allowed for this communication has expired. Any more questions?

M: I have had a question in my mind for years, but it leaves the subject a little. I'm not even brave to ask. Can I?

Y: Yes, my sister.

M: What do you say to us about the sucking goat phenomenon? I think the matter is very serious and I am researching it. Do you have any information about it? I know that you are preoccupied with high things to dwell on such matters.

– It wanted the designs of the FATHER and permission of the Major Mentors that I came here today to clarify exactly you on this topic. When I referred to the tenebrous attempts to denigrate our image among the people of this Planet, that was the subject I was talking about.

M: Do you mean to say that this phenomenon is part of these attempts?

Y: Those phenomena are natural, pertinent to issues of survival and interrelationships of the beings that inhabit the Earth, but there are also other phenomena that are insuflated by powerful minds, willing to create discord. These minds have been forging among your undesirable situations, misleading, involving the presence of Extraterrestrial Beings.

Do not believe nor let people believe in the presence of Extraterrestrials and Intraterrestrials causing such phenomena. There is not even an Intraterrestrial City on this Planet that is causing this harm, much less coming from other neighboring orbs; not because they don't try, but because they have long been prohibited from reaching out and accessing living beings of any kind.

Fanciful minds, less informed, end up receiving the perverse vibrations within them, cultivating the doubt that it would not be by chance a failure of protection in which a being of this nature could have entered their orb and caused this evil. Many of those who work to clarify are precisely those who present this opposite hypothesis.

M: What we can do, we will do, starting with the publication of this message. I believe that these beings are people who over many lives have been drinking animal and human blood in honor of their gods (Moloc, for example) and in witchcraft works.

Y: Perfectly. The sister understood well.

M: I did understand, because I've been thinking about this enigmatic subject for a long time, but I was sure that they weren't Extraterrestrial Brothers, when this hypothesis arose.

Y: Continue your investigations, continue studying, especially putting yourself at service. No one will be able to master complete knowledge, but the set of your experiences, your activities and the development of virtues, will be able to constantly show you the paths and lights of enlightenment.

With great satisfaction for having been among you, I bid you farewell, leaving you my affection, my appreciation, waiting for the next opportunity where we can walk together a little further.

Stay in the Peace of God.

102. THE PATH OF THE AID

Without Light, nothing we can do, even having so much love to each us.

Here it is the following psychographic message received by a medium in GER, on 10/03/1997.

Yuri: Soldiers of the Light!

Margarida: We welcome you in God's name, Brother!

Y: Again, I am among you.

M: Are you Brother Yuri speaking?

Y: Yes. s it. I came here to clarify some issues.

M: Great is our happiness. There was some time we were not so graceful with your friendly presence. We missed you!

Y: Other tasks I was involved while I was not present among you; however, keep sure that, in my thought, you were with me.

M: Thanks to FATHER! We are very happy of that!

Y: Your incredulous humanity attempting to distort the extraterrestrial consciousness on Planet Earth is falling down in traps. For those groups working under Commander Ashtar Sheran orientation is important to elucidate and divulge, not allowing false ideas settle down and spread into the heart of those who still are on the way of understanding and discernment of fraternity prevailing among inhabitants of the Universe.

Those attempts emerge from petrified hearts wanting to denigrate that mission we perform at this time with your humanity. As matter of fact, those attempts emerge firstly from fearsome hearts far away from the LIGHT, wanting to originate fear and disharmony, instigating those so unprepared humans to ask for evidences regarding a possible passage of negative extraterrestrial beings to their Planet.

That asseveration is baseless since long time ago the Portals of Earth were closed for any kind of intruder. You do not allow this situation keeps going. It is up to you, Messengers of Light, to clarify those incautious humans and fortify the faith in weak people. The given order is to persist, despite of attempts made to break down the idea of fraternity, love and service we are attempting to establish, in order to facilitate this humanity a better passage through natural cataclysms the Earth will promptly face.

You have to receive us in your hearts to let us help all you. This is the primordial condition.

As much as possible love we have for each of you, without light nothing we can do. If you avoid us, our action plan won't reach you. If within your hearts there is no spark, although so tiny but being useful to open us the way to help, our plan will not work.

Y: Does the sister want to ask something?

M: We would like to know, if possible, about the future events in respect to the period, even without an exact date. Will the most serious phase of everything to occur be during the second semester of 1999?

Observation: We lost many words on account of a recording problem before we wrote as follow:

Y: ... the heavy vibrations, negatives as you call them, intensely vibrating in those places of human agglomerations like prisons, institutions of recuperation of children and teenagers, will give you the clues. Those places will blow up like bombs. Waves of violence and pain will spread in an uncontrollable way for your society. Be prepared for that!

M: Brother, we are already living that time. Daily there is a rebellion at prisons or penitentiaries. On the other hand, the apparently isolated or collective murders, viciousness of all species, violent passions and heavy works of black magic leave pain, despair and distort into an extraordinary proportion. I guess, on account of that, the Cleaner or Intruding Planet passage is coming so soon. What do you say about that?

Y: Attentive to your considerations to the reality of your world, I do affirm you, with the authority granted to me, that what you are living today in this Planet is still the beginning.

Those so violent souls won't be contained in the jails anymore. Your police will not have any control over them. They will be among you, daily and disperse over the Earth surface as animals inquiring after their preys. Nowadays, they already coexist with you, but they still need to disguise themselves, nevertheless, at that moment from which we have already spoken, the hour for separation between the wheat from the tares will come. At that moment, the companionship among beings having so much different vibrations will not be tolerable. It will be time to act. It will be the hour for us to interfere. It will be Time for Redemption!... We will make ourselves physically present, through all possible ways, to reach any one of you that can be rescued.

At that moment, my brothers, do not worry, do not disturb your hearts for fear, affection and doubts, because it will not have any time to solve them. It will have time to rescue those of you that could be rescued.

The moment is of concern and serious, so, it is up to clarify to everybody whom believe it or not, so later on they would not allege they were not warned; at the necessary moment, they need to be prepared with their hearts to receive us.

Everything will be so fast!...

103. LETTER TO GOVERNORS

The commitment made must be fulfilled.

Duty almost always presents itself to us like a beacon illuminating the road, but we rarely stop to look.

Where do you think you will go? What do you think to do with all that power?

How do you plan to build the Nation of the future, deviating its present from the routes traced in unimaginable plans by human minds?

Brazilian rulers, you are collectively living a decisive moment, not only for your people, but also for the other peoples of the world.

Brazil is the Cradle of Light.

From their astral spheres, space travelers can, in the distance, glimpse the multicolored radiations that expand in all directions. It is a spectacle of life that enchants all passersby, from this or other worlds.

Graced with praise, these people were chosen and prepared for the transformations that will take place on your planet. Prepared to receive in Mother Earth's bosom, around your territory, the destinies of the New Earth.

Promising homeland.

How many emissaries willing to fight!

How many Christians involved by the desire to work for this transformation.

But what a great surprise and displeasure, when, at the ready in your place of combat, desertion comes and you disband to the other side.

One by one we are seeing it disband.

The reasons are all those linked to the weakness of the poor human senses, which do not forgive the unwary soul.

SEX – DRUGS – FORTUNE – POWER.

Ah! The power! Where do you think you are going with all that power? Have you forgotten all the lessons taken exhaustively at the Universities of Love and Victory?

Have you forgotten your important role to play in this decisive moment for your Planet?

It is no longer possible to postpone decisions that should have been taken a long time ago, favoring equality and brotherhood among men.

Put aside this petty policy, whose central theme has been power, and finally adopt the policy of Love, which will define the destinies of your Planet.

Friends, brothers, until yesterday were among us! You have been prepared, many of you, to perform the function entrusted to you in this life. Do not forget, for you will give an account of it. Accept the invitations that your consciences have made to you, rulers of that country of Brazil. The destinies of this Planet are in your hands and you are playing with it.

Adopt the sincere and effective policy of Love and spread equality and brotherhood among men. You have the conditions to do it, for the people you govern were chosen for you. So do your part.

Blessed be this Earth.

Blessed be your homeland.

Blessed be Brazil.

May Brazilians be the cradle of the world!

Keep on Peace.

104. TASKS FOR THE THIRD MILLENNIUM

Dear Brothers,

- Promote the well-being of humankind on earth by redistributing wealth for the benefit of all.
- Make the right of all citizens prevail, regardless of creed, race, religion or nationality.
- Re-establish social order, decimating violence, through the path of general disarmament.
- Calm down the conflicts existing in the fights between brothers and discourage new ones, observing the spots where they are born.
- Make the culture, tradition and religiosity of peoples respected, instructing those in the rear to abolish primitive practices.
- Introduce respect to ecology in primary schools.
- Make individuals aware of their status as planetary citizens, abolishing the divisive idea of nations and borders.

- End protectionism in economic transactions, which massacres the most sacrificed countries.
- Abolish any and all prejudice.
- Review earthly codes of justice, molding them in accordance with the Moral Laws of Life.
- Facilitate access to instruction at all levels by providing information through modern means of communication. Tasks for the 3rd millennium ahead, but which can be trained from now on.

Today's human beings, responsible for the Planet's destiny, still tied to social commitments, are more concerned with externalizing the theories of a just and peaceful world, than actually promoting the necessary adjustments to materialize them.

It is therefore up to us, your more experienced brothers, together with the forces of those who are enthusiasts for a better world, to guide you in this arduous task.

We know you are tired and anxious, however, have patience. The events that will mark the final times will resurrect from the ashes the noblest sentiments of brotherhood, which will intensely reverberate in the depths of each one.

The powerful will feel weak and powerless.

Material wealth will lose its value.

Wars will no longer have reason to exist.

A single feeling will unite the creatures: Fraternity.

The intense pain that will befall the Planet will lead to the revision of the values hitherto attributed by men to earthly goods.

And each item mentioned at the beginning of our message will certainly not be elaborated by the man still addicted to violence and obsessed with power.

There must be hands and minds with more experience and a lot of love, as the man of the new century, the century of the development of mental forces, needs to start his lessons, supported by the balance of justice and love, so that he can be fulfilled and rediscovered. your true Self.

We want to be those minds and offer our hands and, with the Father's permission, be together in rebuilding this wonderful Planet.

Peace to all Beings in the Universe.

Peace to men on Earth!

Peace in the name of our Master Jesus. "The Master of Masters".

Ranquilau, 10/13/1995

105. DAYS OF HORROR

When our doors need to be locked with special security and our homes need sophisticated alarm systems, it is possible that we are no longer relying on our spiritual defenses.

When we can no longer offer the comfort of our automobile to transport an as-yet-unknown brother;

When we offer a plate of food to the hungry child but do not invite him to sit at the table;

When we are afraid to go out into the street at certain hours of the night or avoid remote places, preventing us from being robbed or attacked;

When distrust guides our thoughts in the hasty interpretation of the comments of our fellow men;

When we need to face the sadness of showing our children that life outside our home does not correspond to the lessons of love taught by us, as they can already identify the violence we have not yet discussed;

In fact, it's just that we're already living in horror days.

Therefore, whatever the events foreshadowing painful changes for humanity, we must first remember the happy future that awaits us, with homes with open doors, streets with leafy trees, fraternal population, work without enslavement, in short, happy humanity.

Let us look forward to the future with confidence, and may the Father bless us.

Marcos Novaes, 18/04/1991

CONCLUSION

MARGARIDA'S WORDS

I have been thinking for days about the possibility of writing a few words for the presentation of our booklet (Nostradamus), small in number of pages, but great in its content:

I was so concerned with the issue when I found myself singing a very old song, below, recorded by Carmem Miranda.

Announced and guaranteed

That the world would end

On account of that

My people at home

They started to pray...

And they even said that the sun

It was going to be born before dawn

On account of it in that night

There was no drum-beat on the hill

I believed in that idle talk

I thought the world was going to an end

And I was trying to have fun

And without delay I was treating

To enjoy...

I kissed on the mouth

from who I shouldn't

I took the hand of someone I didn't know

I danced a samba in a swimsuit

And the so-called World is not over...

My God what horror!...

I mentioned the song because, in a recent message, one spiritual instructor of GESJ reminded me of it. And I ask myself: why are people so insistent on knowing the date of the terrible event?

Why so much interest and concern?

When we ask, they say it is mere curiosity?

So why know the day we're going to die?

All beings in nature, including human beings, at birth, are already on their way to death.

By chance, will the anxious ones change the course of the Divine Designs?

Will they make a testament for the goods they have and cannot take with them?

But leave it to whom, if everyone is part of the same situation?

Do they plan to hide in some cave, forgetting that they will disappear, being equally destroyed?

"There will be no stone unturned", words of the Divine Master. So, if they can't take it, if there's no one to inherit, it's clear that most will enjoy them without restraint, without responsibility, giving vent to their bestial instincts. From there, chaos will ensue.

And this, the Father does not want.

We are born with the fate of dying one day, whether alone, isolated, or collectively.

What matters, in any circumstance, is that as an inhabitant of the physical world, we live according to the sublime lessons of the Gospel of Jesus.

We hope we live today as if it were our last day of life on the Earth: loving God above all things and loving our neighbor as ourselves. Knowing the day and time of the "great trip" is not pleasant for our humanity.

Much peace, love and forgiveness.
