OUR WORKS:

ADDRESS FOR PUBLIC MEETINGS:

PRESENTATION

Dear brothers of journey, may the vibrations of peace, harmony and hope emanating from the heart of Master Jesus reach everyone, always awakening the best in each one.

We are close to the end and sure that this fact is presented in the current Media.

We see all types of atrocities committed against Nature, individuals and communities. There are so many tragedies happening simultaneously that we have consider the degradation of human beings normal. Death has less and less impact and, today, it presents itself in an increasingly cruel way.

In the same way, nations against nations in wars that are often fratricidal. This is supposedly civilized man giving free rein to his most primitive instincts, from when it was necessary to hunt and kill to survive and dominate.

The world as we know it is truly coming to an end. The Beast is approaching with the intention of establishing its reign, even if temporary, because even it knows that the Earth is ending a cycle of suffering and pain to begin another of peace, charity, wisdom and love.

This book presents another selection of messages related to the Planetary Transition, which were published on the website www.extraseintras.com and were forgotten under the veil of the desire for news. However, we tell you: there is nothing more current published on our website than the messages that deal with the Planetary Transition.

The Earth's time is ending... But there is still time!

Time for transformation to seek that which makes us truly Christian!

Time to forgive, love, activate the dynamo that generates good energies and to shine the Divine Light that is obscured within us by our vices and defects. Time to awaken!

May this little book be another impulse for our transformation and for our awakening.

Let us continue with confidence, for our Master Jesus guides us and all the higher spirituality is with us, hand in hand.

May God bless you all!

Enjoy the reading!

PREFACE

IT IS A SONG OF DEATH

The Earth, primary planet is a stronghold of love.

It was overflowing with love that the kind mind of Christ gathered the creative elements that would give rise and life to the Earth, Planet Shan.

In its physical-ethereal morphology, the elevated notes of the celestial music sung by the Creator are housed. As if it were a musical instrument, the Earth sings a sublime song in the evolutions it makes when it revolves around itself and the Sun.

However, wounded in its intimate structure, its song is no longer of love. Now, it is a song of pain, which sounds resulting from turns it takes in space echo in distant distances touching the extraterrestrial hearts of fraternal creatures.

It is a song of death.

Wounded, it falls ill.

Fallen ill, it withers.

Fallen in the 3rd dimension, it will reemerge in a new dimensional guise, cleansed of the shadows by the death throes of its last life.

A new cycle will begin again and another humanity, equally renewed, will take shelter in this new Earth.

Mother and children ready to begin again, having suffered the lesson of the past, will return in unison to the celestial song, praising Creation and announcing in space that life, conquering death, once again begins another journey.

Commander Ashtar Sheran
The brightest star guiding you from heaven

Channel/Medium: What a beautiful message, Commander. There is poetry in your words and they elevate our souls above all that is in matter.

Commander Ashtar Sheran: It is how life is in infinite space, full and free from ties and attachments. Human beings are childish when cling desperately to the fleeting glow of material life. They lose and move away from superior experience of full and profound happiness, of belonging to Creation, and to the universe.

Everything will go away. Only the words of Christ remain, just as the memories of all the events and all the preparation will be marked forever in the souls of those who live in these times.

Therefore, brothers, spread the good news. Your words are seeds harvested in the fertile field of space and thrown into the soil of human minds and hearts. Today or tomorrow will germinate, it does not matter.

It urges that everyone receive their share of instruction, a resource to guarantee them, if not now, then in the future, the certainty of the Divine Plan that supports everyone and guides everything.

Hail the sublime love of Master Jesus and may the peace reign in your hearts.

GOD IS ESSENCE OF ALL GOOD

From the empire of pain, you must tread a long journey toward the empire of love.

Only when you look your brothers and sisters in the face will you be ready to admire the face of God.

A small planet lost in space; Earth, for many, is an important lap.

A place where the human mind seeks, imitating life, to find from its limited vision, the way out.

Progress is a road that cannot be trodden alone; united, we can let us make the path better.

Earthly fellow beings, your path is to make progress. Why do you postpone such a grand future?

Jesus is the valiant brother who gave us His Loving Heart.

God is the Essence of all Good, Light to guide us beyond.

Nostradamus, 03/09/2013

INTRODUCTION

You are not travelers on vacation on planets of atonement and trials!

You are fugitive souls in search of evolution!

Therefore, work more and more for your improvement and progress, because it depends only on you to evolve and deserve to inhabit the New Earth, or to remain dense and go to exile.

Peace and love.

Your Master,

Master Ramatis, 08/26/2022

END OF THE WORLD x TIMES HAVE COME

(Chapter taken from the book Petals of Light - GESJ)

Margarida speaks:

We hear a lot, in everyday life, due to a series of violent and aggressive phenomena of all kinds, that the Earth and its humankind are already living the expression that has become commonplace: "The times have come...".

Lots of people affirm with great conviction that the world will end and many others ask when the D-Day will be.

Lots of people give explanations of all sorts and other already present advice and guidance for the days of suffering.

Old stories, legends and ancient traditions say that civilizations also die, as well as cities, countries and even continents. This happened in the early days of humankind with Sodom and Gomorrah; in the year 79 AD, with Herculaneum and Pompeii, in a violent eruption of Vesuvius, in Italy; and in a very remote time, with the controversial Atlantis, an ancient continent, which scholars of the subject claim to have existed where the Atlantic Ocean is today.

In recent times, the fantastic speed with which tidal waves, earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, typhoons, hurricanes, storms and other cataclysms appear, destroying and devastating everything in their path leads many creatures to believe that this violence, somehow arises from consequences of countless atomic explosions inside the Earth.

Let us present some data that confirms the popular belief: In April 1969, the American Geo-physical Union declared: "Underground nuclear tests cause earthquakes!"

They explained that, after important underground explosions of nuclear origin carried out in 1968 in the United States, there were thousands of tremors up to 1,900 km away from the site of the explosion.

Scientists have also admitted that one of the nuclear experiments, Operation Bockscar (named after the bomber that carried the second atomic bomb to Japan, called "Fat Man", which exploded over Nagasaki on 08/09/1945. (Read more at <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bockscar>) carried out at the Nevada firing range (known as Area 51), had caused a crack in the hard rocks at a distance of 1200 km from the center of the explosion. This crack extended into a fissure for a length of 4000 m.

But, after all, what does “Times Come” mean? They are periodic cycles predicted by the Sidereal Masters, billions of years before they came to fruition.

They are “end times” that, in addition to selecting humanity on the physical and astral worlds also carry out the psychic cleansing of the entire planet, eliminating the deleterious mental content resulting from vices and passions. uncontrolled.

The characteristics that strongly mark “these times” are human disorder, dissolute thoughts that spread like weeds throughout humanity, creating a dangerous environment for the existence of balanced people, thus suggesting a lack of concern for the values of spiritual life. There is an effervescence of primitive energies saturating the Earth, causing a perversion of taste and an increase in spiritual negligence. As a result, the planet’s breeze is also saturated to its star-ethereal limits with neighboring worlds, resulting in the appearance of bad astrological influences - underestimated by scientists - when they are pushed back to their planet of origin, in this specific case, Earth.

An intense sea of aggressive, violent and sensual magnetic forces is formed, expanding around our world, in a vicious circle, becoming increasingly dangerous to people’s spiritual integrity.

The weakest sensual thought finds enough food to strengthen itself and infiltrate brains that are eager for inferior sensations.

There is a voluptuous and perfidious invitation in the air, attracting the unwary, and therefore people easily obey a “perverted command” that pushes them towards animalistic pleasures.

The influence of “Shadows” increases, and it begins to dominate, stimulating and increasing the taste for brutal and licentious sensations, due to the “climate” that is suitable for perverse and destructive suggestion.

In these times, conflicts, fights and disagreements among creatures are accelerated; wars are transformed into terrifying scientific slaughterhouses. Terrifying events unfold, heinous crimes are committed, dangerous perversions appear and the pure good feelings that still maintained the slightest mortification are crushed. as possible.

The Sidereal Builders who create the worlds, obeying the technical direction of the Supreme Law, foresee the psychological times in which the periodic disorders of each reincarnated spiritual group occur; from there they adjust the physical modifications of the planets, the purifications and the rectifications of their humanities when they reach collective insanity.

The corrupted mental mass, also called “magnetic garbage”, which accumulates on the crust of the physical orbs, has to be eliminated so that total disharmony and collective psychic illness do not become consolidated.

This brilliant work benefits the Orb, which improves its physical coefficient and its planetary position, also favoring its inhabitants, who are selected to enjoy a better life in their clean House.

In these prophesied times, the pathological proliferation of harmful spirits that develop in the disordered mental terrain of humanity occurs.

The astral plane of worlds contaminated by the mental impurities of their inhabitants becomes a continuous source of inferior expressions, such as larvae, miasmas, elementals, horrendous forms and colonies of psychic bacilli, which intensely yearn to materialize in the physical environment.

These generated micro forces, which destroy and corrupt, become a living bridge between the astral and physical worlds.

Through this process, the dark beings operate successfully, finding harmony in the minds of the unwary ones. They dominate and take control of human thought and, gradually, compel them to the most debauched and cruel tasks.

They idealize and carry out their satanic festivals of pain and lewd sensations. Even strong spirits often cannot resist the provocations and seductions addressed by the unruly adversaries of the Shadows and end up succumbing.

The large number of hardened souls that dwell and feed on the planet end up creating a panorama of dangerous illnesses for the community in its physical, mental, moral and spiritual integrity.

It is much talk about the “end of the world”; however, what will end will be this anti-Christian, evil, selfish and proud humanity; what will end will be this hypocritical and overly ambitious civilization.

People who are exempt from going through this great test will not be reborn; others, who do not need to face excruciating moments, bitter tests, will be called to the spiritual world before the final events and many beings will have their lives preserved, being removed or “raptured” to safe places. In turn, spirits already freed from the purifying tests of the planet and who belong to the phalanx of the Lamb voluntarily accept the painful task of helping desperate earthlings in moments of bitter pain.

Pilgrims of sacrifice, these selfless missionaries extend their friendly arms in moments of suffering, forgetting their own pains arising from the harsh environment in which they sacrifice themselves, worrying only about helping humans in their afflictions, when the collective pain in all quadrants of the globe, including the astral plane, will gather the scattered “sheep” under the staff of the Sublime Divine Shepherd.

Let us now look at the words of the Beloved Jesus about the End of the World, in popular language:

“Why hear of wars and rumors of wars; beware; do not be troubled; for these things must happen, but the end is not yet.”

Further on, the Divine Master adds:

“Nation will rise against nation, and realm against realm. There will be pestilence, famine, and earthquakes in every place. And all these are the beginning of sorrows!” (Matthew, chap. XXIV, vv. 6 to 8).

The Divine Friend continues:

“But of that day and hour no one knows, only the Father knows.”

And He continues:

“He, who has eyes to see, let him see; for many men have eyes, but they are worse than the blind ones.”

As a sign of the “arrival of the times” predicted, He, the Greatest Prophet, says:

“And the Gospel of the Realm will be preached throughout the whole world as a testimony to all people, and then the end will come.”

Indeed, in the last few decades, a true manner for evangelical preaching has emerged, with more than a thousand Protestant sects currently spreading throughout all nations of the globe.

Bibles are smuggled into some countries where there is no freedom of religion.

The world has become a breeding ground for prophets, pastors, and creators of new evangelical sects, Eastern doctrines, and fraternal movements. And, as signs of the times, false and true prophets emerge.

Few ones realize that, in the words of Jesus, when He said that the Gospel would be preached to all people, there is the manifestation of the love and goodness of the Father providing the last chance for spiritual regeneration. Blessed, therefore, are those who truly evangelize themselves before the events prophesied for the “end of times”.

The outbreak of these events will occur due to the presence of an Intruding planet that moves towards Earth. Its orbit is oblique to the imaginary axis of our planet.

Its magnetic influence continues until the Earth's axis is completely verticalized, the intruding planet will already be far from the Earth.

“The immense procession of creatures that have violated the Law of Progress and Love already senses, on the horizon of human life, the first signs of compulsory rectification responding to the mistakes of the still infantilized conscience. This is not a matter of punishment or Divine revenge, but only of spiritual rectification, an obligatory abandonment of shortcuts that are harmful to the soul and a happy return to the old path of Christian composure, so that your soonest fortune may be consolidated.”

“Your hearts will feel united by suffering, and the vibrations of collective anguish will reverberate, like a single soul thirsting for peace and love...”

“No better or worse places will be found; zone of salvation or escape, nor will the exact moment of events be known, as Jesus himself stated when he said:

Only my Father knows the exact time”. “Each one will be tested wherever he is.

The prophecy says:

“Those from the cities will not reach the fields and those from the fields will not reach the cities”.

“Inflexible karma as an invulnerable, immutable Law is what will dictate the `quantum` of responsibility of each inhabitant of the Earth, destroying all possibility of escape...”

“There is really only one path that can save you; a single hope capable of definitively freeing us from Evil, Pain and Illusion. In any ‘End of the World’ that occurs during your spiritual existences, your freedom will only be found in your absolute integration with the postulates of the Gospel of Christ”.

Note: Everything previously written was taken from Ramatis' book, “Messages from the Astral”, because other authors who were consulted do not address the issue with such clarity and forceful reality, deeply touching the reader's heart and awakening him/her to the current reality.

Now, we will move on to the messages received by the Ramatis Study Group on the subject and which gave rise to this chapter.

The Beginning of the End

Thanks to the Supreme Goodness of the Creator of the Universe, we attended this meeting with an open heart, after receiving mental waves from this group that reached the vibratory range where we were at that time.

We are privileged beings in relation to this world that you inhabit. We come from a distant planet, where the light shines constantly, without no shadows or evil. We are peaceful beings, also like you, participating in a process of constant evolution, but we have already left behind difficult stages like those that humanity on this planet is going through.

We have tried to bring, through the channels of communication, warnings to these suffering people, but we have met an incredible barrier in the minds and hearts of men on Earth. The sacrifice you undertake to carry out this communication is infinitely small compared to ours, to speak here.

Even now, we suffer something similar to physical pain, to adapt ourselves to this mediumistic device and to make this serene hour the expression of our words of warning and, at the same time, of hope and consolation. We have little to add regarding the “End of the Cycle” approaching, because through the studies you have done, you already know what is necessary regarding the future events.

We only wanted to confirm that things will happen, whether the unbelievers like it or not, and it would even be interesting for them to rethink their thoughts, drawing their own conclusions, because the unbelievers will be the most affected at the fatal hour.

On the spiritual planes of this planet, a vast number of disembodied spirits are gathering in an intense movement of preparation for the help that will be necessary in a short time.

People are already getting used to acts of terrorism, to collective trials caused by man himself, and they do not realize that these signs foretell the beginning of the end. Furthermore, a few days ago, the world press reported the violent death of 269 people on board a commercial aircraft, simply for ideological reasons.

Note: this refers to a Korean Airlines Boeing B747, with 269 people on board, which on September 1, 1983 was shot down in mid-flight by a Russian fighter plane and crashed into the sea surrounding the Korsakov region, former USSR. No one survived.

It is not up to us at this time to judge responsibilities, but to show the extreme attitude that leads men to deliberately multiply weapons, placed in the hands of dangerous people spread throughout the world.

Here, social upheaval forces people to steal and kill.

There, war, fueled by shady interests, claims thousands of victims to serve the interests of large nations.

Further on, the mistaken positioning of two neighboring, fellow beings, countries lead to a bloody struggle that increasingly distances men from the Creator.

Further down, across insignificant strips of land, massacred fellow beings fight without knowing why.

Look, fellow beings! Can these events be classified as normal? Where is this planet heading? We follow our arguments to the geographical contours of this Orb and see riots and violence breaking out in every corner.

The selected news that reaches your homes through the communication channels does not represent even a fifth of the misery that is spreading across the planet. And all of this is caused by the hand of man. This is the least. The complement will be given by hands of God. Be sure and expect that the pain will intensify until the end of this 20th century.

We sincerely hope that forces of this group multiply, so that you can help and alleviate pain, maintaining serenity and faith, because to those who seek responsibility, they will be given work to apply for the benefit of others.

Compare what you have achieved since the formation of this group up to now and you will have the answer of what you will receive in the future.

Walk, despite the sacrifice.

Pain will not reach you, because your feet will be on the Earth and your heart in Heaven.

May the Creator protect you all.

LETTER TO PLANET SHAN (EARTH)

Message to be addressed to all humanity

Greetings to our friends on Planet Shan (Earth).

Our presence and our intention are becoming increasingly clear to a growing number of unprejudiced people.

Thousands of earthly inhabitants are impatiently awaiting our visible appearance.

Since you have great reason to believe that we are capable of performing what you call a miracle, we wish it to be understood very clearly that we have nothing in common with charlatans who would have to prove the reality of their existence. Our every gesture is conceived according to a very specific plan.

I speak on behalf of all of us who are committed to this rather thankless mission of providing assistance to the besieged inhabitants of Planet Shan (the Earth is, in many ways surrounded by forces of evil). It would be an immense relief if we, in etheric forms, that we could land simultaneously in all parts of the globe, putting an end to the absurd discord and irreconcilable hatred that nullify the common effort for peace.

The instructions we have received and our principles prevent us from doing so.

A prior resolution taken by the inhabitants of the Earth themselves must precede our massive entry onto the scene. (Ask and you shall receive.) Only then can our superior powers, which surpass those you currently have, be used. Yes, indeed, I am thinking of the H-bomb and other terribly dangerous explosives. It is one thing to manufacture and explode such devices, but where is the mortal who has solved the problem of preventing such explosions or reducing their effect to nothing? There is no such person on the Planet Shan. How dare you, then, release a force of such magnitude without having the slightest idea of how to control it?

Only a childish intellect could conceive of such a senseless procedure. Have you at least seriously observed the results of phenomena in the vast domain of nature?

A large number of sufficiently intelligent mortals continually set in motion waves of destructive thoughts and feelings. These disturbing vibrations travel long distances and continually cause disturbances in the ether.

Do you think that these discords generated by you and millions of your fellow creatures have no effect on inanimate forces?

1 - Patrol of the Space: Faithful to the Universal Laws

What you call “diseases” do not exist, so to speak, on our planets, because we have already eliminated their causes.

Since these desires and bad actions, so heavily laden, disseminate the causes of war in the visible and invisible realms, how do those responsible expect to escape terror and the consequences?

What I wish to make clear is that we, “spacemen,” in whatever capacity we may temporarily serve, are bound by the most solemn oath to uphold the Universal Laws, which alone are responsible for preservation of life at all levels of consciousness. Any deviation from these fixed and immutable Laws would be tantamount to the loss of privileges we have earned through our uninterrupted efforts. However, I would like to give you one piece of advice: shape your lives as closely as possible to the teachings of the One who descended to make contact with mortals through a physical manifestation.

As your friend and co-worker in the service of the King of the Kings, who acts from the High, we salute you and will endeavor to free you from those who seek to oppress you and subject you to a regime of destructive domination. We come as defenders or liberators.

To begin with, we will present a series of revelations as to what will become of the activity of those who are imprisoned in a cage of flesh and of those who will be their associates on the earthly plane. You must understand that your cosmic friends have transposition bodies, that is, bodies that can manifest themselves in different forms (just as water can manifest itself in a state of vapor, snow or ice, depending on natural or artificial atmospheric conditions). This is what allows us to help mortals.

As you sometimes forget, war rages violently on the astral planes, simultaneously with its expansion on the terrestrial plane. The fact that so many men have been killed, but continue to live on the astral plane with the same goals and desires, will make you understand the difficulty of our task.

Today, thousands of souls are trying to follow the path of spiritual evolution. If we do not intervene, they will be condemned to be dragged down the descending paths that lead to misery and degradation.

Is it not worth fighting for a few months in a desperate conflict between Shadows and Light, between hatred and superhuman courage to ensure that modern men have the possibility of continuing their spiritual evolution?

I assure you that victory will not depend, somehow, on a material advantage or on a number superior weapons that lead the wise to believe that they have attained profound knowledge and that they have organized the secret power of Cosmic Energy.

I must say that this is not so. By a Divine Act, such as mortals have never seen until today, a swift and irrefutable conclusion will put an end to this. May your planet place its trust in the only power able to free it from its imminent fate (for it is not in the power of any earthly leader to order it on the entire Earth). Consent imposed by fear or force is worth nothing in the face of cold logic and deep loyalty to higher conceptions.

2 - “black forces” seek to exert control

A long and arduous campaign has been undertaken against the dark forces coming from the invisible, reach the earthly inhabitants and, without being perceived by them, pervert them, imposing ingenious duties of diabolical wickedness on them, in order to subject them to the most abject slavery under their sole command.

As a beneficial consequence of this uninterrupted campaign on the astral plane, directed against the dark forces and the perverted hordes of mortals, it has now become possible to transfer this battle to the visible physical world, where humans can defend themselves more effectively and where the results are more tangible. This cannot be done without physical discomfort and suffering, but victory comes. Mortals must pass their tests.

What does it matter if a large number of you suffer during this final phase of the world transformation, since all who remain just and steadfast, in whatever field they find themselves, will later realize that they have rendered an invaluable service to the Master and his conquering Legions from Space? They will thus have enabled these Legions to pierce the impenetrable density of the Earth's etheric envelope to bring triumph and strength to the friendly powers of the Planet Shan.

A rapid change will then take place on the terrestrial and its inhabitants. Every hour, the powers of evil will reveal their designs, and these revelations will lead humans to a quick decision: to overthrow false laws and replace them with true concepts of constructive action.

Thus, our presence and our designs have no other purpose than to aid you, because your Invisible Guardians are very concerned about the state of the Planet Shan.

We are ten million spacemen, amply equipped with forces of an etheric nature, in order to oppose the intentions of the destructive forces, rendering their means harmless.

We know which regions of the Earth are destined for destruction, and as soon as danger appears, we will send several thousand flying saucers to those places. To give you an idea of how protected you are, I could mention numerous incidents where premeditated sabotage was prevented thanks to the vigilance of our men.

If the chain reaction of atomic disintegration has not yet occurred, it is not because your wise men know how to use atoms, but because we have taken special care to purify the atmosphere by means of balls of chemical compounds after each atomic explosion.

Our means of telepathic communication and visual observation, which encompass every person and every place on Earth, are beyond your present comprehension.

The promises, so often repeated, that those who place their trust in God will be protected are perfectly accurate.

3 - Invitation to experience the delights of the New Age

Our appearance, in a physical form or in the materialization of our spaceships will depend on the instructions we receive from bases far above your stratosphere.

These instructions are determined, to a large extent, by events and human reactions. Other factors also play a role, such as the planetary magnetic influence, astral conditions, and special vibrations coming from forces concentrated within the globe or from regions where humans awaken to danger and make desperate attempts to escape it.

These last considerations are perhaps the most powerful element that draws our forces to them. But they themselves, the humans, must try to win their freedom before we can come to their aid.

We are coming as liberators and await instructions for a more pleasant mission. We will then be able to mingle freely with you, initiating you into the many delights and privileges that we have. Do you want, by your own collaboration, to hasten that happy day? We hope so.

Do you want to believe firmly in our existence, as well as in our impersonal and disinterested desire to serve you?

The sooner these two factors are accepted by men in general, the more quickly and easily we will be able to reach our goal and the fewer lives will be lost.

We are being urged to save all souls who wish to adapt themselves to the glorious transformations dictated by the New Age.

Some of you will be taken from your planet to help for a time on the unseen planes, as thousands are doing at the present time.

Honor those who, by divinely inspired intuition, can grasp the true significance of our mission.

Any effort on our part to acquire any of the values of your Planet Shan would be unpardonably base, in view of the fact that a large proportion of the inhabitants of your planet are in a suffering state of malnutrition.

We intend to increase your resources, not to diminish them.

The contrast among the harmonious conditions of our own planets and the chaotic disorder that exists everywhere we see life as it is lived on the Planet Shan is most painful to see.

I must say that the inability of all, except for a handful of men, to catch even a fleeting glimpse of the Master's Spiritual Message, which would have freed them from all material bondage, represents a blindness that has filled our hearts with anguish as to the possibility of saving the Earth from total destruction. We, who watch over you from our observation posts in Space, have lost all hope of seeing the planet Shan escape its demise. As far as we are concerned, we had resolved to forget about your Earth.

But for your Savior, things were different. To those who believed in Him, He made the sacred promise that He would return to them. Therefore, this dark world will be illuminated by Him, despite all the efforts of the forces of evil to prevent this event. We are confident that this promise will be fulfilled and we will submit ourselves entirely to the supreme guidance of your invisible Savior (He will not come in the flesh) to assist you.

4 - Volunteers are watched

Whether this assistance comes visibly by means of spaceships equipped by powerful beings, demonstrating their authority through the use of forces unknown to mortals, or whether this aid comes by mysterious and invisible means, it is certain, however, that the men and women who fulfill the missions for which they were born on Earth will receive everything necessary to ensure their success and to play the role destined for them.

No one is capable of assessing the true value of the patience and wonderful indulgence with which God bears with the frailty of humans.

No one is capable of measuring their disappointment when they refuse to accept His forgiveness and His mercy.

Everything that is happening of a destructive nature, is the result of human free choice to follow the path of retrogression that leads to oblivion. These retrograde beings cannot exist in the new world that is currently being created.

In the coming years there will be miracles that will lead you to revise your conceptions of nature and its metamorphosis. An age of purification is inevitable, you know, before a more perfect system can be established.

There are ways to make such purification and the elimination of these disturbing residues less painful, although in different parts of the globe only a complete sweeping would make every trace of the old abominations and their residues disappear.

There are, however, in countless cases where determined efforts are being made by individuals, groups or movements for a reform worthy of the New Age, efforts that will prevent such radical measures.

We have traversed the length and breadth of the country. We have met a multitude of upright, generous and open-minded people.

We have taken note of each one of them. We have observed them at home, in business, at work, in leisure, in wealth and in misfortune, in good times and in times of misfortune. On every occasion they have remained calm, resourceful, giving courage and strength to the fearful and the weak. We thank God that they exist.

There are men who regard us as destroyers. Reflect, then, for a few moments, and think of all that makes you anxious, fearful, unhappy, and worried.

The weather, tides of the ocean, the air you breathe, the food you eat, the land you walk upon, have affected human relations, business, government, commerce, and society in general, for their magnetism is charged with harm. All these things will be renewed.

At present, no effort should be made to communicate with us except after special request from us.

We ourselves will choose the time, place, and the person with whom we wish to have contact. However, it would be a great help if you would maintain toward us friendly and trusting feelings and thoughts of welcome.

Our forces would thus find an atmosphere well suited to their work, as they need these "fields of light" to land and rest for a few moments, in order to adapt to the conditions and vibrations they will encounter when carrying out their mission.

I am glad that you are witnessing our mission and we wanted you to know how helpful it is for us to have luminous avenues that will allow us to reach the darkest regions where so much work must be done.

We are deeply grateful to you for your understanding and benevolence.

MESSAGES

The greatest test for the spirit is its transformation with Jesus.

At the end of the journey, the spirit recognizes itself as a tiny grain in the infinite sea of God, and sees how childish its ascension tests are.

Master Ramatis

01. ABANDON YOUR HEAVY CHAINS AND FOLLOW ME!

Beloved children of my Father!

I have been leading you through the Earth since you arrived here, full of vices and deformities!

Your souls, which were not formed on Earth, have already traveled millennia ending in foolish and fruitless rebellion. You arrived here tired, desirous of achieving harmony with our Father on a new path. However, children, beloved fellow beings, you still resist leaving behind your heavy and illusory burdens. You drag these burdens through the shadows, clinging to your souls like red-hot pincers, marking and deforming them.

My cries do not cease, seeking to attract you to Me, so that you may, with My Blessed Love purify your souls, elevating them to the realms of Light.

Come to Me, all of you who are tired of painful expiations!

Leave behind revolt, pride, and arrogance!

Renounce the shadows and come to Me!

Sharpen your ears hear and eyes to see the noisy transformations of the planet!

I make Myself present in projection, in various places, so that my brothers of humanity, feeling My presence, may get rid of the heavy chains that keep them tied to the lower planes.

Why doubt My presence, who love you and desire your spiritual ascension?

Why deny My love?

Only through the illuminated path that I have designed for you will you reach the New Earth, the regenerated planet that is already forming on the horizon.

Get rid of all obstacles, all barriers, all hindrances, and in the simplicity of love for your neighbor, forgiveness of offenses, and love for God, free yourselves from the shadows to the blessed Light of the Father!

Divine Mercy highlights the values of the soul that desires to change!

The fierce struggles you face are the alms you still owe, the last pennies to pay, to leave the Earth of atonement and trials!

Come to Me, all of you that I wait in the Realm of My Father!

Valiant workers, do not rest your arms and your minds in helping those who suffer on the physical and on the invisible plane, whose burden of ragged and hopeless spirits needs your voice.

You are My arms and My voice, which fill discouraged hearts with hope!

Come to Me and I will lead you to the Realm of My Father!

Master Jesus Sananda

02. THE TIME HAS COME TO YOU TO FOLLOW, BY YOUR OWN, THE PATHS OF GOD'S LAWS

Peace in all planetary quadrants!

Peace also in your hearts!

War spreads over the Earth!

Hearts inflamed with hatred, pride and arrogance instigate conflicts and misery on the face of the planet in transition.

The Forces of Good surround the planet, sustaining the hearts of those who vibrate with the desire for peace. However, those whose hearts are vibrating in the ranges of hatred, revenge, passions and vices do not want peace to be established on the earthly Orb, so that more weapons can be sold, corruption is not discovered and power does not slip from their hands.

However, brothers of humanity, the time has come for your immortal, eternal and millenarian souls to follow, by their own choice, the paths of God's Laws. And those who are against life will find, in planetary exile, the doors to new opportunities, in other orbs, in harsher conditions, to harmonize with the Divine Laws.

On the invisible plane, the struggles intensify, for the cleansing of the Earth and the selection of humanity. The Warriors of Light work without ceasing, confident in the victory of Light over Shadows. And the hordes of perverse beings multiply, roaring their lethal weapons against the Warriors of Christ who, fearless, advance on the battlefields, slaughtering the deformed beasts, using their sword of Light and compassion, pity and love for others.

Forward, warriors, to the struggles of these end times!

Do not fear the consequences that may spill over into your physical bodies. The Superior Energies of those who guide you renew your souls after the struggles.

Your spirits are illuminated by work in the name of Christ!

May Jesus bless you, fearless Warriors of Light!

Forward, to the battles that never cease!

Rise in prayer to connect to the Light before disconnecting in restful sleep, so that your spirits, protected by armor and wielding shield and sword, may fight for the liberation of the Earth from the yoke of shadows.

Peace in your hearts!

Your commander.

03. WE WORK TO HELP AND TO WELCOME

Our silence does not mean that we are distant, neither from you, nor from this House of work and assistance to suffering brothers.

There is much work in the Field of Light for those who do not ask what to do, but who offer themselves and work to support and assist the world, which is sick.

Humanity, despite having advanced in technology, medicine, and the arts, has become increasingly ill, mentally and spiritually. Madness is spreading.

in the spiritual world and reverberates in the physical world, causing unhealthy and violent episodes of depression and sadness, without apparent causes.

Unfortunately, humanity does not drink from the source of Light, does not seek to support the boat in the midst of strong currents. One or another stands out in the midst of madness to guide their brothers.

The Gospel was offered, out of love, by Master Jesus, not as a lifeline to cling to only in moments of despair, but so that it could be read and understood, so as not to reach the point where they find themselves today. The Intraterrestrial City of Okay is preparing not only to receive those who incarnate and definitively enter the spiritual world, but also to support, in response to a request from the Higher Spirituality, the incarnates in their moment of rest, to rebuild their strength, because being right-wing creates a distinction on the physical world, setting that person apart from the common mass, making them a target for those who oppose the Light, for those who do not seek to follow high and balanced morals.

Those who remain militant as right-wingers are attacked daily, ridiculed and also severely affected in their spiritual structures, causing physical problems for no apparent reason. Thus, we bring these brothers for treatment in our recovery chambers, in order to face these situations, which are getting worse and worse.

The moment the Earth is living is urgent, but it has not yet reached its peak, when our doors will be momentarily closed to humanity.

Doctors and scientists in our city work non-stop to help the incarnates. Our psychologists – diligent, loving and dedicated – try to ensure the mental health of those who have not given up on moving forward, working in the name of the Light and having Master Jesus as their Master and example of life.

It is for these people that we work, helping and welcoming, making sure that they do not give up the battle, because the heart and mind of the human being are very fragile, where a strong impact or moral pain can make them give up on the journey.

Therefore, we invite you, fellow beings, to come and be with us.

There is an area, separated from the rest of the city, used to receive you for treatment, so that you can face the strong clashes that lie ahead.

We support you in your search for Master Jesus, because from His magnanimous heart radiates strength and Light for everyone.

Hail, the Master!

Hail, the Light!

Orcadim is among you.

Orcadim,
Intraterrestrial of Okay City, 04/02/2022

04. YOUR IMPERFECTIONS ARE NOT OBSTACLES TO SERVE THE CHRIST

Beloved disciples, may the peace of Jesus be with you!

The millennia have passed, a time in which humanity has had many opportunities for moral and spiritual elevation. An infinite time, in which the souls that inhabit this planet have immersed themselves in a physical body countless times. And in each stage of incarnation, most people have not freed themselves from vices and passions; on the contrary, these people have registered in their millennial souls the toxic waste of perverted feelings that keep them stuck in planets of expiation and trials.

The fact is that the Laws of God, dynamic and eternal, impel not only human creatures to progress. All Realms of Creation are subject to the Ascension Laws. And the Earth, as a living being, pulsating with life and energy, accelerating its movements to enter a new evolutionary cycle, determines the end of opportunities for humanity, when it will finally cross the portals of the dimension of the New Era.

Calamities, tragedies and the gnashing of teeth pour out abundantly upon the Earth, causing an acceleration of ongoing karma, inducing and leading creatures to the definitive choices for their immortal souls. Light and Shadows fight within creatures. Externally, in human communities, intolerance, rebellion, racism, pride and prejudice form a trail of hatred and revenge.

Humanity, your steps have led you to planetary exile, because whoever does not comply with the Laws of God becomes, in the automatism of the Eternal Laws, incompatible with the Earth of Regeneration, which is already emerging on the invisible horizons.

Beloved disciples, you face great struggles to stay in tune with the elevated levels of Christ, whom you chose for your redemption, to remain worthy of being recognized as Servants of Jesus, excellent workers of Christ.

We closely follow the intimate struggles that you are constantly face so that love, forgiveness and renewal may truly take place within you. Do not let your guard down, do not allow yourselves to be contaminated by the decadent moral statutes of the society in which you live. Anyone who is not with Christ is an enemy!

Keep this clearly in mind.

The struggles waged on the invisible plane by the Army of Jesus against the horde of negative, deformed and ferocious beings do not cease, and there is no vacation or break in these battles. Fierce battles in dense fields are fought without ceasing by the Warriors of Light. You are part of the Army of Christ and you have been fighting bravely in the wars that occur in the dense plane of the astral plane of Earth. And in the physical world, you fight a greater battle to remain in the ranks of Christ.

Do not let yourselves be shaken too much by the struggles and trials that come your way, because nothing that occurs is devoid of pre-incarnation programming. No fight, no trial, no matter how harsh it may seem to you, is devoid of the objective of enlarging your spirits. And, through the practice of Jesus' lessons, forgiveness of offenses, and love for your neighbor, you will achieve victory.

Discipline and obedience in the fulfillment of spiritual tasks maintain the protection, the protective shield strengthened in the Spiritist Center and also in the workers.

You were warned and trained to continue in the struggles of spiritual work without the physical presence of Margarida and you must practice all the knowledge acquired during the time in which you received the training that enabled you to work in the name of Jesus.

Your imperfections are not an obstacle to serving Christ. Many times you doubt your capacity for spiritual work. However, we assure you that giving up will bring greater harm to your immortal soul, which yearns for peace and harmony.

We perceive that uncertainty, doubt, and a laxity of discipline hover around you. However, daughters and sons, may you be an example of the practice of the initiatory discipline that you received from Margarida.

You know well that the gaps through which retrograde forces can enter begin with the lapse of small actions. Beings of Shadows are alert, watching your steps, your conduct, your actions, and they will not miss any opportunity to intervene to remove the worker from the Divine Harvest.

The year begins with tragedies in all parts of the globe, affecting human communities. Sadness, and lamentations echo through space, coming from the hearts of those who suffer. However, they have not yet been enough to trigger, in humanity, in the group of human beings who inhabit the globe, elevated feelings that drive them towards fraternity, unity and love for their neighbor.

Nations are in wars. There is exploitation of man by man. Families fight in their homes, with parents and children attacking each other and, not infrequently, going to the point of death. And the lessons of Christ Jesus are lost in the deceptive voices of religious leaders.

Beloved daughters and sons, may your voices not be silenced to spread hope and compassion of Christ's for your brothers and sisters in humanity.

Everyone on Earth will face difficulties and struggles.

Physical illnesses are part of the soul's purification to rise above dense patterns, reaching the dimension of Light.

Your conduct in the Spiritist Center must follow the dictates of Christ.

Our presence with you will never leave!

Forward, warriors of Light, beloved disciples; the Planetary Transition is accelerating, and you cannot escape the expiatory tests.

May Jesus bless you in your daily struggles.

We bless you and support you in every moment of your existence.

Blessed is Jesus!

Master Ramatis

05. YOU HAVE FLED FROM THE FATHER'S LOVING LESSONS

I did not come to revoke the human laws!

I came to fulfill the Laws of the Father, who is in Heaven. You are My beloved fellow beings and I watch over you.

You refused My love, fleeing from the loving lessons sent by the most loving Father for your transformation and evolution.

Fellow beings, you denied My love, imposing the painful cross on Me as punishment for My coming to awaken you.

I humbly accepted the God's Will and fulfilled My task, walking with you, facing the struggles in a perishable body.

I gave My life and My death to you, in the hope of reaching your hearts.

My words, which I poured out abundantly among you, are not mine, but those of the Planetary Christ and, once practiced, provide the soul with the joys of peace.

Beloved fellow beings, pour out, at this hour, the bitter cup of pain, suffering and gnashing of teeth. Do not rebel against the inevitable visit; make her the fortunate friend who propels your soul to the planes of Light, where I await you.

Come to me, all of you, brothers of humanity, and I will lead you to the Realm of My Father.

I am Jesus, brother and friend of yours.

Come to Me, who am with you, at all times.

I say Farewell to you, but I remain with you forever.

Master Jesus, 12/17/2021

06. EXPAND YOUR CONSCIOUSNESS BEYOND ALL DENSITY

May the peace of Jesus be with you!

From unlimited space, we came to Earth!

And, incorporating ourselves into the Great Plan of Redemption of this humanity, under the command of the Master Nazarene, we have been working with people of Earth, helping to reduce the dense levels of their psychosphere, maintaining it at levels that make life possible for the conclusion of the Planetary Transition.

The decadent humanity that inhabits this planet distills feelings, emotions and thoughts of lower energy vibrations from its hearts, creating a dense blanket that covers you and the planet, saturating the environment in a harmful way and making it difficult for the Light to penetrate.

Your backward moral development and ignorance about life beyond material limits make you incredulous of our friendly presence with you in your daily struggles.

The majority of the inhabitants of this tiny planet still live by matter and incorporate only it into their lives.

Brothers, the time you inhabit a material body is insignificant.

Your soul, perennial, pre-exists the dense body and will continue to exist when it perishes. And when free, without interruptions, the soul wanders from one side to the other, in dense regions, deeply marking your psyche with painful memories of the lower planes it travels. However, to escape the dense invisible layers, you must strive, when incarnated, to expand your consciousness beyond the density that surrounds you.

Throughout the planet, borders of racial and religious prejudice are being erected. Pride and arrogance separate nations. Even if your ancient souls immerse themselves in incarnations in all corners of the globe, your ignorance and spiritual backwardness do not allow you to tear down the borders that exist in your hearts.

We come from worlds far from yours, yet we belong to the same “universal family” of creatures guided by God, the only Lord of life and the worlds.

In the limited dimension in which you inhabit, you must strive to reach higher levels, to impel your evolution.

There are many of us here in this time of difficulties, helping the planet to enter the new dimension. Jesus is our greatest guide.

Wake up, fellow beings, for the grave and supreme hour, because souls are selected according to individual and collective choices and, to enter the New Earth that is being built, you must illuminate your soul through the practice of the elevated lessons of Jesus.

May the Forces of Good support and guide you.

May Jesus, Greatest Master, illuminate your paths.

Wake up, fellow beings!

There are no secrets for the Superior Hierarchies that guide you. Your “secret projects” are known to us and we will not allow the destruction of the Earth.

May Jesus bless you all!

Wake up and follow Him for your liberation.

Artran is with you.

and, Jesus!

Extraterrestrial Artran, 11/19/2021

07. BLESSED ARE THOSE YHAT STRUGGLE TO REDUCE THEIR MORAL INFERIORITY

Peace in all planetary quadrants!

Peace also in your hearts!

Earthly fellow beings, you have been invited to join the Army of Christ!

Jesus' call echoes in your consciences to change your destiny, based on shadows, ignorance, passions, and moral and spiritual backwardness. His blessed Light shines on your hearts to impel you to renew your thoughts, emotions, and actions.

Blessed be those who, heeding the call of Christ, fight to reduce their moral inferiority.

In the invisible planes, those who have adhered to the Great Earth Plan and are part of the Army of Christ, work under the loving guidance of elevated instructors, guides, mentors, and masters, fighting bravely to clean up this planet for the Advent of the New Age.

Battles and struggles are waged in lower regions of the astral plane to reduce the density of the Earth, illuminating vast regions of the lower astral.

Cells are opened, freeing spirits imprisoned for millennia; beings of shadows are slaughtered and taken to spaceships, prepared to take them into exile.

Cities, colonies, and spiritual emergency rooms are transformed to adjust to the "Redemption Plan" of humanity.

Awaken, fellow beings of Earth, to the supreme hour that represents planetary transformation and selection of humanity.

Open your minds and strive to see the vibrant life that exists beyond the material density surrounding you.

Struggles, pain and suffering will become more intense in the destiny of this humanity that walks through the stormy valley of the Apocalypse.

Try to take advantage of every moment in matter for your own transformation and adherence to the Realm of God.

There will be no truce for the warriors of Light!

Remain vigilant in the work with Christ.

Your Commander is with you.

We continue in the final struggles of the Earth.

Hail Jesus!

Peace in your hearts.

08. MAKE EFFORTS FOR YOUR OWN IMPROVEMENT

Hail Jesus, our Master and Guide!

The Earth is a School Planet, a hospital, a prison, a planet for the improvement of souls that have strayed from the Laws of God. Many of those who are here have already gone through other “planetary cycles” in different orbs and were transferred here, by the mercy of God, for the painful purging of the deformities of their souls.

In the cycles through on Earth, souls were grouped together by vibratory affinity. As some advanced, others stagnated and, in large numbers, fell even further. In these millennia that have passed in which they have been inhabiting the planet of atonement, these spirits have been slowly following the path of progress or remaining in denser regions.

In each incarnation, the soul transfers lots of its ills to the physical body, purifying itself. And, as it progresses, it receives an increasingly healthier physical body. Making good use of its free will, it acquires knowledge and elevates itself, increasing its spiritual knowledge, slowly climbing the path of progress. And at the end of this expiatory cycle, the number of souls that have reached vibrations compatible with the New Earth is reduced, because creatures have not developed enough “goodness” to renew themselves with Christ and escape the whirlwind of suffering.

Many souls remain ignorant and primitive, still struggling with rudimentary elements to develop in some parts of the Earth. While superpowers create increasingly advanced technologies that transform the lives of their societies, other human communities remain rooted in backward and primitive cultures, which impede their intellectual and moral transformation.

Such is the Earth of expiation and trials, and such are the inferior planets that populate Universes of God.

Humanities walk in glorious ascension, in the stages in which they live on inferior planets, dragged by their own inferior tendencies and character. Each individual, through their own efforts, ascends in the cycle in which they live, reaching increasingly higher levels, which allow them to advance to new evolutionary levels, less painful, more pleasant and gentle.

The Earth advances in its ascension struggle and humanity likewise, through individual and collective struggles, through ongoing karma. Wherever they are, immersed in the dense body or free in invisible planes, each individual follows the path determined by their will, through their choices.

Brothers, this is a unique moment, in which you must make ever larger efforts, with sacrifices and renunciations for yourselves, in the development of moral and spiritual potentialities, based on the love of God and the love of Christ to rise above the whirlwind of the planet of atonement and trials.

No soul is lost in the work of God! Each one has a guardian guide, an instructor who patiently takes charge of his ward, guiding him towards awakening. However, in the laws of God there is no imposition, but rather the path of one's own choices in the use of each creature's free will.

Therefore, my brothers, make efforts to improve yourself. By helping others, you help yourselves to climb the path of progress, because strong planetary events are announced that will undoubtedly propel you either higher and forward, or to greater falls, by your own choice.

Jesus is with you and His Love, His Light, His Sublime Energy envelop the entire planet and its humanity, in His eternal sacrifice for the planet He loves so much.

Peter, with you.

We have already walked the path that you are walking today, we also were in error and suffered a lot, until we reached the awakening of consciousness and with Jesus we advanced in the evolutionary graduation that allows us, today, to help those who remain behind on the journey.

Go, fellow beings, with Christ, advancing along the tortuous paths of the Apocalypse, until you reach the Renewed Land.

Hail Jesus!

Hail Love that joins us!

Peter, the Apostle
11/13/2021

09. WE ALL GO BACK TO THE FATHER

The virtues that most please God are kindness and charity without subterfuge. Those who love their neighbors love God and follow His Sovereign Laws.

God's love is poured out abundantly upon His children who, ungrateful, fail to follow His greatest guidelines for evolution, attracting present and future misfortunes to themselves.

Ignorant of their own responsibility for life, in their coexistence with their fellow human beings, creatures commit atrocities and acts of violence against themselves and their fellow human beings, harmful actions that will have devastating consequences for their own souls.

My fellow beings, the Laws and Commandments of God are engraved in the consciences of all of us, human beings. During creation, the various guidelines of evolution are ingrained in the cells of the nascent sparks.

As the spark develops its consciousness, the Eternal Laws directing life manifests themselves in its core of Light, compelling it to kindness, fraternity, and abundant love. However, it is impregnated with the animal character that dominates it for a long period, in the extensive evolutionary trajectory.

Under dominion of passions, human beings wallow in vices, ignominy, and evil. Going through endless cycles of opportunities, each creature advances towards God toward its spiritual moral purification. However, we assure you, fellow beings, that all beings walk towards God, inevitably.

If animal passions, pride, and selfishness still dominate your actions, renew yourselves with Christ today. The planet of atonement and trials is renewed and transformed, and in this way, you will not be able to keep up with it!

You will be transferred to another world! In the various and infinite mansions of the Father, you will go to the one that is most appropriate to your primitive and vulgar posture.

My earthly fellow beings, advance in the love and kindness of serving God and loving your neighbor, so that you may deserve spiritual ascension.

Everything in the Work of God is love.

Peace and love!

Saint Augustine, 11/13/2021

10. THE GOSPEL OF JESUS IS THE ITINERAY OF THE FAITH

Blessed Jesus!

There is no true peace on Earth, because human beings insist on their own conflicts of feelings and allow themselves to be dominated by degrading passions, deforming vices, hatred, resentment, and revenge. Petty interests dominate society. Each one seeks to take advantage of his neighbor.

Humanity walks lost in illusory materialism, without seeking, through forgiveness of offenses, to reestablish the bonds of fraternity.

Painful moments are advancing upon the Earth.

The planet wants to enter a new dimension, as it continues to be attacked continuously, without respite. It is moving towards adjusting to a higher dimension, where its pain will be extinguished.

Fellow beings! Jesus, the Greater Power guides this planet and its humanity, urges everyone to transformation, fraternity, and love, because the planet's limited time of atonement and trials requires souls to accelerate their transformation. Those who wish to evolve should not allow themselves to be defeated by the arduous and necessary struggles for the improvement of the soul.

Those who are still in doubt about the path to follow should use the Gospel as a basis for the roadmap to solidify faith in their hearts. And, thus, the great mass that remains in ignorance is invited to awaken.

May the pain, which defeats everyone, be the driving force for the transformation of the soul, on the true and sublime paths of Light.

Jesus is not a fictitious figure! Jesus is the personification of God's Love, and we are all His beloved children. Wake up, fellow beings, for the final hour of the "key incarnation".

May Jesus bless you all!

Thomas, with you.

Hail, Jesus!

Thomas, 11/2/2021

11. BE READY FOR THE COMING YEARS

Today, Earth is experiencing the rise of the Beast.

And the consequence is the ease with which it manipulates the minds of incarnates and disincarnates. You will also see a major moral decline as time advances on the planetary transition.

Do not be surprised, you who struggle to walk on the safe path of Light, by the aberrations that will arise, by the moral, religious and administrative irregularities that will guide Earthly Society. What is happening on Earth today is not the defeat of the Light, nor of the Gospel of the beloved Master, because everything was already expected when the doors of the Abyss opened, in the supreme opportunity for human hearts to choose Shadows or Light.

It was expected that morale would decline, that mental bonds would loosen, since, as we have already told you: the world lies in the evil one that is much more intimate with the behaviors of Earth's societies, which have already fallen from other planets.

Very few ones will be able to get through this difficult phase without becoming contaminated by the mud of iniquity, corruption, vanity, indifference and prejudice. We reaffirm, once again, the number of compulsory reincarnations until the end, until the "Enough!", increases for an orb that sees its apex approaching the verticalization of its axis.

If there is a door of reincarnation, it will be given to an inferior spirit, in debt, with an unbalanced morale and a mind completely dulled to the Light. It will be heavier, more difficult for those who fight to win. It will not be an easy path for those who work in the Light. In fact, they will be the ones who will suffer the most from the death throes of the last hour. They will be the ones most judged, most reprimanded, most accused and violated in these End Times. They will see again, Babylon emerge with its power of gold, sex and corruption, and see again, Atlantis with its aberrant experiments, with mad and egotistical scientists.

Divine Mercy is great for earthly suffering, but there is no way to stop the wheel of progress that the Earth is going through.

A warning to all of you: be prepared for the years to come.

Every year, difficulties will increase, hunger will spread, disease will no longer be able to be controlled by backward earthly medicine, local wars will break out, one country contaminating another, forcing an increase in weapons power and domination.

Sexual decadence will be increasingly present in your daily lives.

We do not bring you this information to cause panic, since we believe that nothing else we tell you will bring panic or fear to your hearts, because you have already been prepared in your minds when you accepted the invitation of Commander Ashtar Sheran and the call of Master Jesus to work in His Vineyard.

Those who truly accepted carry within themselves the certainty that an enlightened hand, a magnanimous heart, guides everything.

Panic only those who have faith built on sand, those who lose control of their mind and heart when something goes beyond a supposed normal pattern, panic. Those who have firm faith, who believe in the Father, even in the midst of a storm, are certain that everything is under the control of the Light.

It is natural for you to feel fear at some point, because fear is what keeps you sane. The person who is not afraid is devoid of the internal control that arises from prudence and cunning. You should not allow yourselves to be overcome by fear that annihilates and paralyzes, but rather use fear as a tool that prevents problems and gives you the strength to move forward. We expect this from you, that even in your suffering hearts, you do not stagnate in the middle of the journey and move forward.

A part of this House of Light is under strong internal attack and you must, steadfastly, go through this phase, since we can shield some attacks. However, those that are directed at your weaknesses must be under your control. You must not let yourselves succumb, since it is up to you alone to repel the attack, when you perceive that it is coming or has already arrived. Hail, the Light.

Blessed the Divine Master Jesus.

Nefertiti, 10/08/2021

12. MY LOVE PERMEATES YOUR SOULS!

I have not come to undo the laws of men. I come bringing Peace!

Children of My heart, fellow beings, children of the Most Loving Father, your hearts are inflated by hatred, revolt, and sadness. The lack of love makes you easy prey for the fellow beings of ignorance.

The Cross, which represents the suffering that liberates, has become a sterile symbol for you, because you have allowed yourselves to be led by vile souls who deny the Laws of God and instigate prejudice, separation, and discord among you.

The blessed planet, divine genesis, represents a small particle of Creation, and you are souls who are still traveling the prodromes of the Creation, since your consciousness contains only rudimentary knowledge of life.

Come to Me, all of you who suffer! Come to Me, all of you, inhabitants of this tiny sphere, Earth, and I will lead you to the Realm of My Father.

Suffering, imbalances, the supreme hour of pain reflect the transformation that is taking place on the planet and the selection of your humanity.

Only in pure and unconditional Love will you reach the path of liberation!

Come to Me! I am always with you.

My Love permeates your souls.

I am Jesus, your Brother!

Come with Me to the Realm of the Father.

Jesus, 08/27/2021

13. JOHN THE BAPTIST's WARNING

Hail, Master Jesus!

I am the one who, authorized by the Highest comes to speak to my brothers and sisters of humanity, so that you may strengthen your faith in the Highest, in Master Jesus and in His Emissaries.

Very few ones are prepared for the serious changes that are approaching the Earth.

Brothers, are you prepared for your lives to be changed by the winds of change?

Which of you is ready to go through hardships?

Which of you is prepared for the great social, moral and physical transformations that are approaching?

When we say that you should prepare for what is coming, do not think that this is a dream kept in your minds for the future, that the transformations will await the future. So, let your home be strengthened, your mind be prepared, your children be educated, emancipated, your health treatments be completed, and your work be satisfactory.

As the Gentle Rabbi said: transformations will come like a thief who comes in the night, causing damage without warning.

Regarding the world, your lives are still moving along in an orderly manner according to your schedules, with your commitments being fulfilled. But what if revolutions come to your cities, to your country?

Look at your brothers and sisters in humanity, who are experiencing painful trials in their homelands, many of them imposed by human madness, but some resulting from planetary transformations caused on the physical world. Look at them and think: it could be me; it could be my son.

Do not wait for the Apocalypse to arrive with a date set on the earthly calendar; It is already happening in your world, and it will grow more and more intensely and strongly, until Divine Order is reestablished on the beloved planet Earth.

I notice that many minds are becoming materially complacent, without reflecting that, from one moment to the next, everything could change.

The moment that the Earth is going through is serious and urgent and does not allow for distractions, much less indifference to the suffering of others.

What you see happening today in some isolated regions will be a planetary event and you are not prepared. I can see all of this.

The messages that are sent to increase mercy sometimes pass through your hands as mere papers, words thrown into the wind. But the day will come when you will experience everything that the messages warn about.

Laments and cries of those who receive this source that arises from Above will not be accepted by the higher spirituality, because "to whom much is given, much will be required".

When pain knocks on your door, remember that you have been warned.

When you leave your comfort zone due to the changes, remember that you were warned.

When losses befall your home, and I don't mean loss of life, because this has been happening since the beginning of time, remember that everything was warned.

There is not a single comma in the messages that was not prepared in advance by the Higher Ones, so that you can remain firm in the trenches.

May we look at this House and see that you are not a concern in the eyes of the rescuers, that there will be no one here in despair to be helped, but that you will be our companion, one more worker in the Field of Master Jesus.

Do not rest your arms or your minds. Be alert!

The Spiritist Center needs you, but it survives in spite of you.

Whoever runs away from the clash will not bring about a decrease in the Spiritist House; On the contrary, he will also have another burden to carry into his next reincarnation, like remorse weighing on his soul.

This warning, this cry that I pass on to you, is the concern of a Brother who has walked a long way, who has seen a lot and feels that some are distracted, not paying attention to the changes.

The coming year will be a great test for humanity and for this friendly country. So, work now on your spirit, on your family life, because, once the transformation begins, there will be no turning back.

John the Baptist is among you.

May the Peace of Master Jesus comfort your hearts!

Blessed is Jesus!

John the Baptist, 08/18/2021

14. THE INFORMATION WE BRING YOU IS NOT FICTION

Peace in the hearts of men!

We are beings different from you, but our moral and spiritual progress was also made on this planet.

We live inside the Earth, not in the physical dimension of human beings on the crust, but in a subtler dimension; many of us already live in the third dimension and, as we made progress on the ascension path, our bodies have become subtler, but we remain on Earth, in another dimension, interacting with the ascending planet.

Our technology has developed in conjunction with the change in our minds. We interact with extraterrestrial brothers who have helped us in our technological and scientific development.

Beings of Light, responsible for development of the planet and humanity, have brought us revelations and, through studies at Sidereal Universities, we have expanded our intellectual and scientific capacity to contribute to the Earth, improving and making its cells subtler, supporting its framework to continue in the Work of God.

Over millennia, we remained hidden from earthly humanity, but we were sought out by higher hierarchies that guide the destinies of the planet, who informed us about the Planetary Transition, triggered by human actions devoid of love, reaching disastrous levels for life on Earth. And we were then invited to extend our hands to our brothers who remain behind on the path of progress.

We mobilized most of the intraterrestrial cities on the planet, forming study and work groups, visiting the earthly surface living in human communities to learn more about the customs, intentions, thoughts and emotions of our brothers of the terrestrial surface to better assist them.

In the intraterrestrial cities, we built lodgings in conditions and affinities with the people of the surface, because we were informed of the planetary rescue and that we would help the brothers on the crust who reached the minimum graduation, those whose vibrations rose to a point that allowed them to enter the intraterrestrial cities.

And today, my brothers, many of the shelters are already occupied by incarnate beings. They receive treatment that allows them to live in environments of high frequencies, so that they can live with us, study and learn, preparing themselves to inhabit the new Earth: Earth of Regeneration.

The information we bring you is not science fiction. It is the reality of the Earth that our incarnate beings are unaware when they choose to vibrate in matter and remain rooted in it.

Brothers, open your minds to what is hidden from your eyes, because life pulses intensely and vibrantly on the invisible side of the material plane.

The Mind of God is inaccessible to His backward children, but the Father offers us infinite opportunities to reach higher levels, and as we advance in progress, our vision of the colors, feelings, and knowledge of God's Work expands, becoming increasingly elevated.

We extend our hands, as older brothers who walk with you, side by side, on the path of the planet's progress.

Come, brothers, without fear, to meet us, so that you may be our guests, remaining protected until the conclusion of the expiatory cycle and the birth of the New Era.

Onsã is with you!

We greet you, in the name of the Light of the Divine Master who guides us!

Blessed is Jesus!

15. YOU ARE LIVING A KEY INCARNATION

Hail the Strength!

Hail the Light!

Hail the Divine Master Jesus!

From space, we send you vibrations of peace and love.

Nothing we have said in these years of communication with you is devoid of reality!

The Earth's population is experiencing important moments of definition and direction for their immortal souls.

The Earth, a living being, pulsating with life, increases its vibrations, accelerating its transformation to evolve on the scale of the worlds.

The cells that make up its body, altered by the disease that threatens its life, seek ways to restore its health, to break through the dimensional portals and vibrate at the high powers of a new dimension.

In this transformative process, humanity suffers the injunctions of the discharges of its own feelings and thoughts, emotions that are out of alignment with the harmony of God. It has not learned to know itself and to transform itself, to climb its spiritual ascension. Throughout the millennia, it remained disbelieving in the life of the soul and, despite religions teaching the eternity of the spirit, it was unable to make connections with the material world, allowing itself to be frantically attached to the transitory world.

However, fellow earthlings, the time has come to fulfill the Prophets' prophecies and the Apocalypse manifests itself with its procession of pain, suffering and gnashing of teeth.

The choices you have made have placed you in the current position you occupy within society and the future that awaits you will be the reflection of your current choices.

All the suffering and all the chaos that has been instituted – and that will still increase – will be a blessed opportunity for you to make new choices that bring transformation and enlightenment to your backward spirits. Each choice, each step towards progress or towards new falls will have its result multiplied a hundredfold, because you live the “key incarnation” that defines the destiny of souls, in the separation between wheat and tares, wolves from the sheep, the Light from Shadows.

The invisible plane around you is full of souls who have failed in their desire for progress. And, tormented, they cling to the incarnate being seeking ways to satisfy their passions and vices. And the two humanities, of the physical world and spiritual plane, walk together, sharing ideals that are not always beneficial to either one or the other.

The planet makes progress in its search for liberation and humanity, in general, which remains rooted in passions and materialism, will succumb to planetary exile. Those who consider the warnings of “End of Times”, “Planetary Exile”, “Verticalization of the Earth's Axis” to be fictitious and continue their lives oblivious to their own evangelization, can be sure that they will no longer find, on the planetary home Earth, the comfortable shelter for their spirits to continue on the opportunities of reincarnation.

They will wake up, surprised, on different planets, spread throughout the universes, and will repeat the hard lessons in rudimentary and primitive bodies so that, in new struggles, like primates, they recognize their smallness and praise, contrite, the Creator Father.

Wake up, brothers of Earth! Wake up!

Open your minds to the Infinite Universe of Creation and recognize your spirits as divine sparks in a purification process. Immerse yourself in the love of the Divine Master Jesus, to drive You are destined to progress together with the Earth, the blessed planet that has guided you for millennia.

Nothing happens in your existence that is not planned by the Creative Mind, God.

Free Will gives you the right to choose the path you wish to follow until the inevitable encounter with the Divine Light.

In this closing of the “planetary cycle”, you still sow war, fear, and pain. The degradation of your soul is still intense.

Wake up, brothers, for the unavoidable progress!

May Jesus bless you!

Ysh-Wan is with you.

We are present throughout the entire globe, helping those who desire peace and love and who do not rebel in the face of the final tests. Our advanced technology is used for the benefit of the planet, in the cleaning and sanitation of the invisible counterparts.

We are present wherever the Loving Father directs us, to safeguard life on Earth.

Pay attention to the information!

You are either with Christ or against Him!

Do not postpone, once again, the progress and evolution of your souls.

May Jesus bless you.

We leave you our love and our peace.

16. CHINA IS HELPED BY THE GREAT LOVE OF JESUS

Hail, the Light of Master Jesus!

I revere and salute His love and all the sacrifices made for the benefit of earthly humanity, past, present and future, for His love extends beyond one orb and also accompanies the exiles of this planet.

For the first time in communication, I come to inform you that China, despite denying the presence of Christ and the loving Gospel of Master Jesus, is helped by His immense love.

The programming for this country was diverted throughout its history of battles, bloodshed and the scheduled interruption of incarnations.

It must be understood that the Chinese population is all gathered together over the millennia, since they were part of a planet whose territorial extension held twice the current population. Therefore, it is not surprising that the population of this country increased, which responds to, in part, to the number of inhabitants that existed on the planet from which they came.

However, the path they took was already a deviation related to the recognition of the presence of the Greater Father, the Planetary Christ. And, rebels, they did not accept the loving guidance of Master Jesus, erasing His gentle advice and His gentle yoke from the minds of its inhabitants.

However, since the Shadows does not have the power to block the entrance of Light where it is needed, courageous religious leaders still give their lives to this day, so that the Gospel may be present in the hidden dungeons of this country.

They volunteered before incarnating, so that they could shelter, under the light of the Gospel, the greatest number of people, so that they could free themselves from the recurring painful exiles they had been suffering.

We, from the intraterrestrial city of this country, also perform the function of rescuing and helping the needy population, freeing them from the atrocities they suffer at the hands of their leaders.

Many of them enter our cities voluntarily. If it were not for this, if it were not for the Father's permission, the world would see a wave of bestial beings, bent on destroying a population that naturally learned to obey without question. They are submissive by nature, a meek population, given that they lived under the iron hand of their rulers long before coming to this planet.

Since reincarnation is the opportunity for regeneration, the leaders of the extinct planet from which they came continue to exercise power here on Earth, since collective karma allowed this to happen. These are leaders who, together, will be taken together into planetary exile and will no longer exercise dominion over these people.

Unfortunately, the attitude of submission of the Chinese people to this authoritarian command, of fierce domination, has awakened antagonism, hatred, and contempt from the so-called "evolved peoples," and the Chinese are being harassed in every corner of the planet.

They do not understand that this population suffers as much as they do; they suffer morally, religiously, physically.

Do not confuse the people with the leaders, because if you do so, you will always be committing injustices. You do not know what happens in the rubble of the Chinese monuments.

The life they lead is regrettable, of absolute misery, where the food that is foreign to you is their last source of survival.

Ask the Father for divine mercy for these people.

My name is Chen Li, Priest of the intraterrestrial city (he did not give the name of his city). Due to the great harmful load in the Chinese urban areas, we live in the regions of the still virgin forests of that country.

We will shelter a large contingent of beings during the rescues and the Planetary Transition. However, because of the disbelief in the Divine and the absolute faith in men, many refuse our guidance and help.

We place these rebellious brothers in the loving hands of Master Jesus.

May the Force of Light sustain and support the Chinese people!

Hail the Light!

Chen Li (Chinese Priest), 06/12/2021

17. DO NOT DELAY YOUR STEPS

You are perfect sparks, for the Creative Source is perfection.

Coarse matter can only house the divine spark because, throughout the realms through which it passes (mineral, vegetable, animal, elemental and human), its brightness diminishes, until it is possible to house it in matter prepared for a planet of pain and atonement.

The spark grows darker with each step taken in the primitive worlds, in the bloody and sterile planets through which it passes, in the abysmal falls. Then comes the effort to escape the clutches of those to whom it has rendered worship of pain and suffering, until it reaches the category it finds itself today.

Breaking this third-dimensional barrier is to make the divine potential that is within you shine once again.

This opportunity is not denied to anyone. It pulses within the mind, the heart, in all the bodies that you still have. But the day will come when it will necessarily shine. And at that moment, when you leave behind a whole history of violence, injustice and defeat, you will be ready. It will be as if millions of stars were shining inside you. Oh. And what you will glimpse will enchant you and drive you to be participants in the divine construction.

Brothers, do not delay your steps, when something so beautiful awaits you.

You know very well that eternity is inherent to the spirit, but do not settle for this idea, because while you are struggling to free yourselves from the gross planets, the idea that suffering has no end will remain in your mind.

You were created for happiness, to be part of the divine plans. Pain and suffering are not the creation of our Creator, but of rebellion, misunderstanding and stubbornness in pride.

One day we will be together to remember these words, when you are completely free from the backwardness of matter.

Master Saint Germaine is among you.

Hail the Great Governor, Jesus.

18. THE WONDERFUL EVOLUTION

May the Light of progress lead you to places of love and higher vibration!

Brothers on the journey, the spark, once extracted from the Source of Creation, is launched into the Universe so that it may evolve, acquire wisdom and experience and then, in advanced times, it may be a co-participant of the Light Force of progress. However, until this fact is established, its evolution is tortuous and slow. Their experiences – still incipient – and their evolution are guided and controlled by evolved minds, so that, in the observance of the Laws and conditions of learning, and within the time determined by the Sidereal Engineers, the body and energy accumulated in each Realm gain volume, until, in an irresistible impulse, this monad is led to the subsequent Realm that responds to its evolutionary need.

Time is not a factor considered in this stage of evolution, since the progress of the spark obeys parameters and adjustments that are difficult to understand for the limited minds of human beings, who live in the reality of a material world.

Thus, after this distant phase of indeterminate time, the spark, through effort and observation of the world that surrounds it, begins to stand out from its peers and, then, by its merit, develops its intelligent principle, which highlights its evolution in its Realm.

From there, the long and arduous journey of the greatest marvel of Creation begins: the evolution of its thought. The spark becomes an active participant in the progress of a planet, of a society and, in the moral, intellectual and material impulse of humanity, at some point in the Universe.

In this extraordinary evolutionary journey, the being learns to hate and love, to avenge and forgive, to slander and bless, to ignore and help, to cling and give, acquiring the wisdom to combat shadows, revolts, insults, violence, unbridled feelings, exaggerated attachments, obsessive loves and learning not to eliminate his brother as a form of power and authority.

Although for the minds of this humanity, the behavior of many people today is considered violent and abusive, for the beings of the Pleiades, the Planetary Christ, Devas and Engineers of the Universe, it is a behavior understood as compatible with worlds of atonement and trials, making it necessary for this entire procession of horror to be impregnated in the mind and in the living soul, creating the will and need to develop feelings and behaviors contrary to everything that is evil, unworthy and inferior.

Beings learn to love because they have hated and been hated before, they learn to forgive because they were unjust and slanderous before, they learn to help because they were selfish and lazy before and so they slowly continue, in the time of each creature, with the Light overcoming the shadows, until the Force of Divine Love, so strong in the intimacy of the being, propels it again, no longer to a new Realm, but to a new vibratory stage of Light and evolution, in dwellings considered paradises by those who still inhabit third-dimensional planets.

However, this entire journey is controlled, observed and guided by Pedagogues from the schools of the most advanced planets. If, for a moment, one of these Avatars from a higher dimension, out of love, incarnates and brings to the beasts and beings who are still brute in behavior and delicacy of soul, to the primitive mass, codes of teachings, statutes, didactic laws, examples of love, charity and fraternity that spread throughout the home of a planet. Thus, the most advanced return to teach the most backward.

This was the life of Master Jesus and the missionary beings who were here, before and after His coming.

In this way, brothers, everything is happening today, according to what people have assimilated from the divine lessons and the way they practice them.

Regarding the Higher Plane, there will be no indignation, lamentations or feelings of loss when the majority of the earthly population is exiled, since in the journey of the soul there is no time for it to evolve; They simply know that, at some point - and it does not matter when- it will advance and follow the natural course of the necessary programming in the lives of all beings who were once just sparks.

Love and hate, Shadows and Light, everyone has been and sensed, but the universal certainty is that the return to the Creative Source is inevitable in Creation.

May the Light dwell in everyone!

19. IT DOESN'T MATTER IF YOU BELIEVE US OR NOT

Hail, Jesus!

Brothers, the planetary transformation is a reality that even the most unbelieving ones already perceive!

But, despite their denial, the Laws of God continue in the planning of the evolution of worlds and beings.

The great nations, in the shadows, prepare their nuclear warheads, believing that their reprehensible acts, carried out in the basements, in the underworld, are not monitored, that they are hidden from the Eyes of God and His Sublime Host, which commands life in the worlds!

Foolish creatures, who allow themselves to be dominated by the illusory power they hold. Maya, the great illusion, dominates their souls. They momentarily forget the fragility of their material bodies and believe themselves to have the power of life and death over other creatures who share life with them on Earth.

Nothing belongs to you, brothers! Not even your physical bodies, which you mistreat out of ignorance! Not your life, nor your material goods, because you are led, supported, guided by a Supreme Force that you deny to exist and, in this denial, you wallow more and more in shadows, in moral and spiritual backwardness.

Few ones believe our words, judging the minds of those who receive them to be fanatical and those who spread them to be fanatics.

It doesn't matter whether you believe us or not!

Here we are on Earth, serving the Higher Hierarchies, who are responsible for this tiny globe and its humanity.

Our spaceships circulate among you, and the fact that you cannot see them does not diminish the reality of the facts indicating that the Earth will soon be promoted, due to its ascension on the evolutionary path.

Humanity, still so backward, is already undergoing the "selection of the living and the dead" and is being subjected to the "final tests", which will define its course as an eternal spirit, to continue wandering in suffering through the worlds of atonement or below it, or to finally advance in spiritual ascension.

There are so many unimaginable beauties that hover within your reach, while still on Earth! However, you prefer the shadows of baseness, passions and vices.

From the most powerful to the most insignificant creature living on Earth, all are subject to the Greater Laws that govern life.

Wake up, brothers, because there will be no truce in the planetary transformation and you are the most fragile in the evolutionary chain. Therefore, prepare yourselves for the painful impacts that increase day by day, so that the Earth can reach the new dimension.

There is no Divine punishment or preference from God for any creature; each one must strive to deserve the quantum of light reserved for you.

You are not primary souls! You arrived here thousands of years ago, having fallen from other worlds, because you came from different points of the universe, having fallen to Earth, still in its primitive formation.

You have traveled a long path and, at each stage, meticulous programming was carried out by Tutors and Guides, aiming at your moral and spiritual progress! However, you failed, clinging to the transience of the material world, to passions, vices, pride, selfishness, and arrogance. And even today, with hearts weighed down by the density of inferior feelings, you drag yourselves across the Earth, compelled by vile passions and animalist, refusing to humble yourselves before the Eternal Consciousness, God.

Have faith and trust in those who believe in the Greater Force that is within you, supporting and guiding your stumbling steps through the planet in transition! May the Planetary Christ renew your strength so that you may reach the New Era, when a new order of peace and love will be born on Earth. And at that moment, in communion, all beings on Earth, inside the Earth, and outside the Earth, will live on peace.

From dense, abysmal planes spring dark creatures, human beings in the most abject condition of moral backwardness. Their developed intellect, however, is filled with hatred cultivated in the shadows of the abysses, fed by the bloodshed on the Earth.

And in uninterrupted, constant, daily battles with the Army of Christ, they are defeated and sent into planetary exile.

The Army of Light is made up of beings from Earth, incarnating human beings who have already awakened their consciousness to the desire for progress. Beings who have chosen themselves, because, once they have connected with the Forces of Good for the progress of the humanity and its planet, they have striven to maintain themselves at high, minimum vibratory levels that guarantee their permanence in the great Army.

And, we say to you, brothers of Earth: all of you are capable of joining the Great Plan in progress. To do so, even today, kneel down on the ground, connecting your minds and hearts. actions to the Divine Master Jesus who, permanently sacrificing Himself for you, extends His Luminous Hands to rescue you from "shadows to Light".

Forward, warriors of the Earth, for the battles of planetary cleansing are fierce and we must illuminate the Earth, so that it may be reborn gloriously in the subtle planes of Regeneration.

Your Commander is with you.

I disconnect and leave you in the Peace of Jesus.

20. DO NOT DESTROY THE EARTH!

Peace and brotherhood among men!

Pride dominates incarnating beings!

World rulers believe that their projects considered “super-secret” are not known by the Hosts of God!

You are very ignorant about yourselves and the environment in which you live!
You are unaware that the thoughts and intentions generated in the consciousness of creatures reverberate in space.

Colors, lights and perfumes, pleasant or not, that instantly reveal who you are and your intentions.

We come from far away, from distant universes, from parallel dimensions, but intertwined with your dimension. Our eyes see what your minds do not even imagine exists among you and with you.

Do not be naive, earthly beings in thinking, even for a moment, that you direct the destinies of the planet and humanity that now inhabits it! You are far from dominating anything!

Your physical bodies are fragile, perishable and limited in this dimension. And the soul, an eternal fortress, you despise.

You cannot destroy the Earth!

Your desire for power and dominion exhausts your spiritual strength, attracting to you, humanity, the toxic waste thrown into the invisible, dense garbage, which turns into diseases and natural tragedies.

Our extraterrestrial presence is known to many governments, who systematically deny intelligent life outside of Earth. If you want something to compare your backward intelligence with, you can compare yourselves to the inhabitants of backward planets, because life is unlimited in God's universe. And the Earth is a tiny sphere, a grain of sand pulsating with life and strength in this system in which you inhabit.

You take advantage of the panic of human beings devoid of faith to devise destructive projects, insane wars, and impoverishment of the population, through laws that exploit the poor and enrich those who have everything.

The devices of God's Laws that guide your destinies are not within your reach, so that you can manipulate them according to your convenience and inferior desires. You do not hold any power that guarantees you eternal life in matter.

Transient matter transforms around you that do not see it.

We have come to warn you that greed, pride, and selfishness bring destruction to the people.

The Earth continues its transformation to leave the gross dimension.

Transform yourselves, earthly brothers, because the moments when the planet will enter turbulent zones, when your society will transform, are drawing ever closer.

Your laws, which govern human conduct and the exchange among peoples and beings, will mean nothing in that moment that is approaching, when all the illusory structures on which you base your society will fall apart.

Wake up, brothers of the Earth!

Christ Jesus, Planetary Governor, calls you to love peace and mutual aid, which will attract the blessings of Light to guide you along the tortuous paths of planetary transformation.

May Jesus guide and bless you!

We are Gardeners of Space.

Hail Jesus!

21. WE COMPLY WITH THE MAJOR LAWS OF THE CREATION

We greet you in the name of the Light and bring you the peace and love of our hearts!

Hail Jesus, Planetary Governor, Divine Light guiding us!

Brothers!

From Patrol Planet, spaceships depart for Earth, circling strategic points for planetary rescue. Do not judge that these are random actions. No! The divine planning in which we are inserted, in obedience, respect and love, fulfills the sovereign Will of God, for the evolution of worlds and beings.

This humanity has, over the millennia, neglected the higher guidelines, the teachings of the universal truths of love for God and for one's neighbor, remaining immersed in vices and degrading passions, full of pride, selfishness, hatred, desire for revenge, not advancing satisfactorily in the development of the elevated goods of evangelical morality, their souls remaining dense and deformed by less worthy actions and thoughts.

Throughout the history of human evolution on Earth, we have always extended our helping hands to you, in accordance with the Father's Will. Extraterrestrial beings have reincarnated among you to boost your moral and spiritual progress.

You have not even recognized the sacrifice of Jesus, Being of Light who, in an unimaginable effort, the unbelieving human creature took on a physical body generated in the womb of a woman, also divine, to answer the calls of the hearts of Earthlings, still so ignorant and in need of enlightenment to awaken!

He was not recognized and, for this very reason, he was vilely murdered.

Jesus, all love and compassion, remained with you and sent His emissaries to incarnate among you to encourage the awakening of consciousness. However, you have reached the "end of the planetary cycle" still very backward and ignorant, full of the mud and slime of beings who are decadent in their morals and in their spiritual development.

Extraterrestrial and intraterrestrial spaceships circulate among you, collecting thousands and thousands of spiritually bankrupt Earthlings for planetary exile.

We are not your judges! Your guilty consciences cause opacity in your souls, muffling the brightness of the divine light that exists in all the sparks, creations of God.

We comply with the Greater Laws of Creation, which determine the evolution of worlds and humanity.

The Earth accelerates its movements, eagerly advancing towards the higher dimension that will provide it with peace and harmony.

Its wounds are mortal and, if it does not react, seeking subtler plans to regenerate itself from aggressions suffered over millennia, it may perish in this suffering dimension. However, brothers, Planet Earth, the terrestrial globe, is a new, young being that has only just begun its evolutionary journey and its premature destruction in this cycle that it is experiencing is not in the divine plans.

The path of progress of the worlds is extensive and the Earth will still travel it, inhabited by more spiritualized humanity, with whom it shares the ideals of fraternity and love for life, at all levels and forms.

The Planetary Transition continues, full of struggles and pain, but also of progress for those who desire ascension.

Peace and love!

Your Brother,

22. THE PLANETARY TRANSITION IS ACCELERATED

Clairvoyance: I see Master Ramatis standing, radiating light and love at the Shama Hare Study Group meeting. He was so big. His presence filled the entire meeting space.

I heard the following words from the Master:

Beloved disciples, may the peace of Our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

You are inserted in the context of life to which your choices have led you. Choices from this and from previous lives. Nothing that happens to you or those around you are devoid of the greater guidance of Divine Light. Connected to the minds of the higher hosts, under the command of the Great Master Jesus, you are the “last-hour workers” who, taking steps in divine harmony, continue to be guided by the Light.

Suffering ravages earthly humanity, but the cries of revolt, the ignoble acts of violence and corruption have not ceased. Evil advances, claiming victims daily. In supplications to the Creator, creatures wish for their pain, suffering and anguish to cease, without, however, improving their humanity.

Few are those who, devoid of rebellion and pride, elevate their minds and hearts in sincere appeals to the Creator, not only for themselves and their dear ones, but for all of humanity. Therefore, children, disciples, the Planetary Transition, full of suffering, anguish and pain, continues accelerated. From Heaven, from the sublime regions of peace, waves of light-love, soothing energy, descend to Earth in luminous cascades, pouring over humanity. Few beings, however, are able to drink from this inexhaustible source of peace and goodness, health and love.

Brothers, Christ watches over you!

Connect to His presence-light to endure, with gallantry and fearlessness, your suffering in the Land of the Apocalypse.

Hail Jesus.

Ramatis, 07/17/2020

23. INTRATERRESTRIAL HELP IN THE RESCUE

Brothers, the humanity is more and more moving away from practicing the lessons of the Gospel of Christ!

It was to be expected that, faced with the difficulties, pain and painful karmas being fulfilled on the terrestrial men would turn their minds to their safe haven, which are the messages of Master Jesus, for in them one finds encouragement, security, the certainty that nothing that happens on Earth is in vain.

Master Jesus did not promise salvation at any cost!

He offered it to everyone, saying that each one, with their own effort, with detachment from material things and with the inner desire to love and forgive, would receive the happy life that awaits the children of the Father.

Earthly fellow beings, the intraterrestrial cities are receiving a large contingent of disincarnate and incarnate beings, some of them in a state of disorientation.

You might ask us: why are these fellow beings being taken to the intraterrestrial cities, when upon arriving there, some of them become disturbed because they are removed from their habitat? We explain: Throughout the lives of these fellow beings who were helped, they practiced, worked and were sincere in helping others. Although, during their existences, certain men and women were not religious, in the strict sense of the word, in their way of acting, they nevertheless earned the merit of being in our cities. Thus, it will only be a matter of time before their minds disconnect from earthly life on the surface and integrate into their current reality.

The greatest difficulty that our intraterrestrial brothers encounter in their actions is in the big cities, where selfishness, materialism, violence and greed are creating difficult barriers for our brothers in charge of “rescuing suffering beings”, whether incarnate or not. Since we cannot intervene in free will or impose our help and presence, or even force our brothers to go to our cities, we let Divine Intelligence guide these creatures to the destination of their choice.

The obstacles we encounter in the moments of rescue for the intraterrestrial cities are great. The earthly population is, gradually, becoming more and more materialistic, with an exaggerated appreciation of matter and science.

Every day, they are disconnecting from what is divine and what makes them human, from the spiritual concept of immortality, and the importance of material achievements is growing. With all this, a large contingent of cold, despotic, indifferent beings is created, lacking feelings for the pain of others and for the planet that sheltered them. And so we see that more suffering awaits this contingent of men, due to the symbiosis of ideas and actions with the ignorant beings of the lower planes, as they are finding fertile ground to act.

In the American continent, in some countries, we have achieved greater access to ideas and coexistence with the population, and Brazil is the country where we find it easiest to spread our messages and our warnings.

The Asian has been lost in the dust of time and is moving away the great teachings that their masters, instructors and guides have passed on: immortal life, detachment from matter, reincarnation and other teachings of high spiritual content.

Those responsible for these teachings are unable to approach the people destined to receive this knowledge, because they have locked themselves in temples and placed themselves on high levels, forgetting that the greatest objective of the message is to transform the creature, stripping it of any type of social, material and religious prejudice.

When these prejudices are in those who should spread the messages, the Hosts of Light move away from the so-called wise creatures and go to work among the humble and ignorant, because they do not impose barriers to the expansion of the foundations of the messages of the Masters of Light.

Let us continue the task we have embraced, of working in the rescue, aid and shelter of our fellow beings of the terrestrial surface because it was an invitation from Master Jesus.

Orcadim is among you, working for humanity.

Question: What can you tell us about the African continent?

Orcadim: This continent is suffering a strong attack from the Shadows through the religious doctrines brought there by foreigners. But there, too, through the intraterrestrial cities of those lands, we have managed to embrace a large number of fellow beings who have disincarnated due to violent attacks, whether by human action or by the agents of nature.

These are suffering people, but, in essence, they are peaceful.

Some of them still work with primitive procedures of connection with the Divine and, at this moment, the Shadows finds open ground to act. And, even in the face of the passivity of these people, we have managed to work on their minds in resignation in the face of their suffering fellow beings.

There are few intraterrestrial cities on the African continent.

Most of those rescued are sent to extraterrestrial ships.

At the advent of the Planetary Transition, the intraterrestrial cities will have their doors blocked, and the extraterrestrial spaceships will work on the rescue of those people.

It is a subject that is rarely discussed, but gradually, at the right time, more messages will arrive from the Intraterrestrial cities on these continents.

May the peace of Master Jesus be among us and may those who receive our messages redistribute the bread of knowledge.

24. THE APOCALYPSE ADVANCES RAPIDLY

Blessed be the love that unites us around Jesus!

Blessed be the Divine Light that sustains us on our evolutionary path!

Blessed be the union of Sublime Forces that strengthens souls in helping others!

Once the lower portals are open, the crowd of ragged, unbalanced and violent spirits sets out in a frantic race, in search of their enemies and inferior sensations.

Magnetically, by the Laws that govern life, these spirits are attracted to their kindred spirits, whether they are incarnate or not, and they engage in fierce battles; and where there is inferior harmony, there will be the union of nefarious ideals, providing abundant food for the creatures that inhabit the lower regions.

It is time for harvest, a painful harvest for earthly humanity that, despite the warnings and messages of consolation and hope, the Sublime appeal of Jesus, who brought the roadmap for the transformation of souls, still, the human fellow beings remain rooted in vices and emotional imbalances.

No matter how great the disbelief of the human fellow beings, the Apocalypse advances rapidly.

Closer to you, are the beings that work in the name of God, forming the Army of Light. They seek to help you at all times, but few reach the high level of harmony to draw from the Light that emanates from Divine Army.

Brothers, surrender your spirits to the Vineyard of Goodness when you disconnect into restful sleep, because the work to help humanity incarnated in the invisible plane is intense.

Many brothers who lost their lives in the catastrophes that unfolded in your physical panorama are led to friendly assistance, in varying degrees of merit, and there are few incarnate spirits who help in this work of support and awakening of brothers who have recently disconnected from the physical body. These are tasks that the incarnating beings are unable to perform due to the lack of discipline of their spirits in surrendering themselves to the work while sleeping.

Therefore, those who have awakened and consciously project themselves to the spiritual plane, with their will activated and in connection with the Forces of Light, are used for the work of rescuing their brothers on Earth.

Those who, by merit, are sent to the intraterrestrial cities, count on your help in their awakening, even with their minds still confused. It is you, incarnate beings who help the Evolved Brothers to lead them to the intraterrestrial cities. It is a task that few are able to accomplish, as most incarnate beings do not believe in their extraterrestrial and intraterrestrial brothers, and are frightened when they come across one of them. These brothers during tasks on the spiritual plane, returning frightened to the physical body.

The tragedies, the bitter fights and the gnashing of teeth are in geometric progression, as the planet has accelerated its movements towards the new dimension.

Renew your faith, courage and trust in God's designs.

Here is your sister Nefertiti speaking to you.

The tasks are increasing and, as the expiatory tests advance, the contingent of incarnating beings who work in the name of Christ is reduced. All of you, brothers of humanity, are subject to the rectifying Laws of life and many have deserted before the final tests.

Forward, warriors, servants of Jesus, to fulfill God's designs for your liberation.

Hail Jesus!

Hail the Light guiding us!

25. FAITH AND WORK

The following message was initially dedicated to GESJ by Sister Margarida, guiding the need for training for the difficult days expected. However, it may also serve to guide other groups and people who accompany us throughout the planet.

Hail Jesus!

Sisters, we know the difficulties you have encountered in coming here, to this special place, because it is a difficult test to travel this long path, full of traps in the two planes of life (1). However, these meetings in places where the atmosphere is cleaner allowing the manifestation of Light with greater intensity among you.

Fights more and more will be face by Humanity of “end of times”. Without a moral limiter to restrict the thoughts and manifestations of personalities out of tune with Divine Harmony, Earth’s society finds itself compelled to adhere to the distortions of the unbalanced mass. In this way, you no longer need the masks of hypocrisy covering up the malevolent intentions or moral imbalances of your brothers.

In this scenario, remaining “rightist in Christ” and defending the sublime truths of Jesus’ high morality is one of the most difficult tasks for those who wish to ascend to worlds of higher categories; however, you have chosen this path and must follow it with courage and faith, with full certainty of the friendly protection of all the Evolved Beings that we have gained through the humble work we carry out in our Spiritist House.

Do not be afraid to defend the truths solidified in your hearts through the teachings of Jesus and Masters who guide us, the Messenger Spirits of the Lord, who send their lessons, guiding our lives and actions. With those who still waver in their faith, you must have patience and love, because your examples of work and dedication to tasks are necessary to maintain the balance of your companions.

You are not superior to anyone, but the work you do places you in a more experienced position, and you must set an example of firmness and faith in your conduct.

You also know that none of you are immune to the influences of “warlike beings” who wish to destroy the Points of Light bringing awakening to our brothers and sisters of humanity.

The enlightening messages of warning and revelation that we have received over the years of work, with sincere dedication, faith, sacrifice and renunciation, giving credibility to the mediums in receiving the guidance of our Elder Brothers (2), all that we have received is the reality of this time on Earth and, if everything is reality, confirming the messages of the Elder Brothers, what will come also be a painful reality for this humanity of the “End of Times”: The “three days of shadows”; the “verticalization of the Earth’s axis”, the exodus to “planetary exile”.

In view of all this, sisters, speed up the training of the Work Groups (3). As you train, you will feel more confident to act in times of total imbalance in society. You will not necessarily find yourselves gathered together to practice what you have trained for, and so that each servant of Jesus knows what to do, he/she must practice now, while peace and harmony still permeate your living environment. Training is necessary for the integration of team members, as well as for strengthening the faith and courage of your companions in earthly struggles.

Start as soon as possible!

We know that you have been thinking about this lately, but you must put into practice the idea of activating work teams, because it is in carrying out the task that the servant will find the skill to act at the right time, as well as to face a hostile environment, the painful reality that is getting closer and closer to all of you.

The work is voluntary and should only be undertaken by those who truly want to change and believe in the work of the GESJ.

We know of difficulties of putting into practice the tasks that we firmly believe are necessary for your future, that of your dear ones and those around you.

However, overcome the difficulties and Carry out your tasks, because when pain knocks on your door and the time of peace has ceased, you must be ready to act.

You will not always be able to come together to support each other. Therefore, it is necessary that you develop within yourself the potential of faith sufficient to face pain and support those around you who are unbalanced.

Have faith and trust in our friendly presence, wherever you are, at any moment of your existence. Masters, Guides, Instructors and Spiritual Friends that we have gained over the years support us unconditionally and wish for our victory, the victory of the spirit.

The Beast, enemy of humanity and of the planet, puts into practice its fatal plans that aim at war, violence, planetary imbalance and all their consequences. Acting surreptitiously, it controls the minds of the incarnate and disincarnate ones who have not reached the minimum vibrations with the harmony of the Gospel of Christ and, like a herd, follow the roars of the “Beast” that echo in their minds and hearts, further agitating their inferior tendencies.

Forgive, daughters, those who hurt you, moving forward with Jesus at your head. He, the tireless Servant of God, leads us in this arduous struggle of spiritual ascension.

Our friendly intraterrestrial brothers open the doors of their cities of Light and welcome us with affection and love.

The extraterrestrials, our ancient brothers, come to aid us reducing our share of suffering in the work of rescuing souls and reducing the serious consequences of the actions of human beings on this planet.

And our Elder Brothers, Guides, Tutors, Guardians, Protectors, lovingly care for all of us. Consciously, we are connected to all of Them. Thus, let us work for the benefit of those who, in an irresponsible way, walk on Earth.

Our Master Ramatis, the Greatest Tutor of our souls, holds our hands, pulling us when the obstacles seem too great for us, illuminating the paths that, at times, become winding and dark. He, our beloved Master, does not abandon us.

May Jesus bless everyone!

Do not be discouraged by the struggles! Keep going, courageous and full of faith and trust in the greater plans!

Blessed is Jesus!

(1) She talks about the difficulty in getting to Pedra Azul, the place of the vigil.

(2) it refers to the time she was incarnated, leading the GESJ and GESH, leading all the work of receiving and disseminating messages. These messages already addressed the difficult times that everyone would experience at the end of this planetary cycle for humanity, whose contents proved to be true.

(3) These are groups created within the GESJ to help in the days that will come after the catastrophic events. The trainings deal with first aid, which range from caring for people who are in despair to carrying out procedures to save lives, among other things.

26. WE'LL NOT ALLOW DESTRUCTION OF THE EARTH!

From Planet Patrol, we closely follow the unfolding of the events of the "Doomsday" and, as predicted by the Sidereal Engineers and Psychologists, humanity is fighting in wars. Hearts, filled with inferior feelings, are moving towards collective revolt and dangerous global conflicts that put planetary stability at risk.

You know our thoughts and we shall not allow the destruction of the Earth! No matter how great human insanity may be, the Force of God commands everything. The Army of Jesus marches fearlessly, fishing out souls blackened by hatred and the extraterrestrial ships collect them for exile.

The Beast of the Apocalypse rises ever higher towards the surface increasing the degree of inferior vibration that circulates among you, humankind.

You have not managed to maintain high levels of faith and love able to sustain the Network of Light that surrounds you, connecting each creature on Earth, in all planes and dimensions. Those who are able to sustain the higher vibrations are not capable of avoiding the unfolding of planetary events.

Every action has a reaction of equal force, and the inferior blows launched into the Earth's psychosphere will be reversed in storms, tidal waves, earthquakes, hurricanes and other cataclysms, because the inferior discharges emitted by hearts devoid of love remain around the planet and will return to humanity in the form of natural catastrophes that will shake the Earth's structures, intensely modifying its geography.

Only pain could change the course of dire events of inferior actions of humans.

The bestial violence inflicted among brothers reflects the inferior degree that you still have.

United with Jesus, beings from various orbs and distant galaxies, from enlightened worlds work for the good of humanity and for planetary liberation.

Brothers, do your part in spreading hope to those who have awakened and have the flame of faith sustaining their lives. Spread knowledge about the times you are living and the measures that exist for your rescue.

Organize your aid centers, so that they are prepared to help the helpless that have nothing and will have even less.

From Planet Patrol, we follow every step of the earthly rulers and we know their intentions; and then, we will act before madness turns the Earth to dust.

We greet you in the Name of God leaving you peace and love to sustain you in this moment of transformation!

Hail Jesus, your Greatest Master!

Your Brother Yury is, with you. Our exchange is always joyful!

May the Light sustain you until the end!

27. WE RECOMMEND: PRAY AND WATCH

Brothers, the peace of the Masters!

The Earth is going through serious moments. We call on those who already have an awakened spiritual mind to pay attention to the messages coming. To those who believe without seeing, do not let your guard down in times of war, because we have noticed that, at times, lack of vigilance and recklessness take control, causing you to make decisions and take actions that are not justified in light of the information you already have.

We can say that planetary peace will not yet be part of everyday life on Earth, while you live in the “Times Arrived”. However, you will be able to find, in places like GESJ (Grupo Espirita Servos de Jesus), an oasis of peace and harmony to regain your strength to face what life calls you to, whether as a testimony of your faith or to fulfill your ongoing karma.

We warn you, not so that panic and fear freeze your emotions and nullify the evolutionary impulse of the children to the progress.

We bring you, warnings because those who rise from the Abyss – among them your fiercest enemies – will not come with flowers in their hands and forgiveness in their intentions. They will rise to apply the justice they feel they have the right to impose, with the desire to feel, for some time more, the physical sensations that their bodies no longer satisfy, such as: hunger, thirst, sex and power.

Therefore, it is only fair that you be on alert regarding those around you, because those who advance to the earthly surface coming from shadows, will seek those with whom they are in tune in thoughts, ideals and energy.

You must understand that what you think, desire, intend, speak and the way you act in your lives, show themselves in the astral like a great luminous sign for those with whom you are compatible, in affinities and behaviors.

Brothers, do not hand over your future, full of happiness, into the hands of the debt collector who has not yet understood that hatred can be transformed into love, that revenge can be nullified, if forgiveness - without pride - is offered willingly.

We know that you have not yet reached the heights of happiness, but we assure that both to the unfortunate person who walks beside you, and to yourselves, that it will not be possible. It will not be denied, nor will it be impossible to achieve, you only need to take steps in our direction, to free yourselves from the shackles that bind you to the past.

We repeat incessantly so that you do not forget: humanity does not yet live the peace desired by the Masters for their pupils.

Therefore, pray and be vigilant.

This is what we recommend.

28. HARMFUL ENERGIES FEED VAMPIRES

Clairvoyance: I saw, in a room, several young people lying down. Their ages were around 10 and 20 years old, boys and girls, and most of them were boys.

In their heads, there were tubes connected to vampires, one for each young person. From the head of each vampire came a dark liquid that entered the head of the young person, through this tube, remaining still in his astral mind.

Afterwards, I saw these young people leading a normal life on the physical world, until the vampire leader needed an extra dose of energy, when he would then activate the minds of these young men and women, making the liquid gradually fill their minds, circulating and nullifying the spiritual mind.

At this point, the vampire would induce the young people to do whatever he wanted: suicide, rape, murder, creating confusion that involved aggression and generating revolts and hatred.

I asked the Instructor who these young people were and Rochester – the Instructor – informed me that they were former vampires who had been compulsorily reincarnated, but who had not completely cut off their connection with their masters of the shadows. Then, Rochester sent a message:

Hail the Light and peace of Master Jesus! The movements that give rise to the “End of Times” open space for the beings of shadows to act more closely with human beings who do not monitor their minds, favoring the reunion with former masters and lovers who, tragically, have become enemies.

The vampires, noticing that their reign would be shaken and they were about to losing part of their control over the minds of the incarnating beings have launched increasingly intense attacks, especially against young people who exude strong and vibrant energies easily detected by cunning masters of shadows.

They have ordered their henchmen to enlist their incarnating beings to provide them with sap to nourish their bodies, with the aim at resisting the long battles against the Armies of Light, because without this extra dose of energy, they would not be able to fight long-lasting battles.

Wrong are those who believe that their main sources of food are only black magic, slaughterhouses and the increase in murders. Faced with this difficulty, they have turned to new forms, which unfortunately are offered abundantly and unpredictably by incarnate beings.

Therefore, it is not only the energy of blood that feeds vampires; they suck the energy of sex, uncontrolled emotions, especially excessive sadness, inducing their victims, preferably young people, to commit suicide, sucking the energy accumulated in their young astral bodies.

In the battles against these beings, we seek to free the young people who are under the control of their vampire masters, especially those who are imprisoned. Hence the growing number of atrocities committed by young people, where rape is a precious source of food, as it provides the ingredients to revitalize them for many days, such as fear, lust, hatred and, at the end of the act, the food is still provided by the victim, with the revolt and sadness that trigger depression.

For them, this is an inexhaustible source of energy.

Let us fight with faith and love, because the moral decline of humanity has served as opportunity for the mentors of evil to create their “zombie armies.”

Peace to all.

Count Rochester

29. FREE WILL

Brothers, may Divine Peace envelop everyone!

The spark progresses through the realms, acquiring knowledge and experiences that will mature man, who will become the patron of his progress.

In each realm there is a lesson to enable the spark to face adversities that will make it a future master or the pure energy that will spread over needy populations. It learns from the stoicism of the rock, the perseverance of the oak, the courage of the felines and the obedience of the Elementals.

When a particle of Light acquires the certificate that enables it to receive the intelligent principle, it gains its autonomy.

And the being, previously commanded, from that moment on, begins to direct its actions, becoming the master of its mind.

Along with reason, it also receives free will that make it responsible for all its acts, being the main element distinguish it as an intelligent and thinking being.

This ability to make one's own decisions is such an important step in the development of the spirit that in the Universe, in all realms, there is no force or evolved mind that debases it or restricts its use.

It is through its free choices that the spirit travels the immensity of the abyss, dominates itself and falls again, hurts itself and then heals itself. It kills its brother in one life and, in the next life, fights so that everyone may have life.

On Earth, the ability to choose and act is a right guaranteed by God and the Great Universal White Brotherhood (GFBW), with the aim that, by exercising this right, the children of progress can become increasingly spiritually independent. This is one of the functions of free will: to emancipate the soul so that, in the future, it may be independent of the evolved minds that guide the destinies of humanity.

To impede its use, regardless of whether they do it for good or for evil, is to delay the steps of beings, which may cost them, who knows, centuries of learning. However, those who walk stumbling and getting up will gradually improve themselves before the Law, until, upon looking back, they realize that in the succession of acquired knowledge, they will no longer need to use free will in future lives, because they already understand that freedom, true spiritual maturity, is no longer running the risk of breaking with the Laws that compose and direct the Universe.

It is learned that free will is not doing what one likes and when one wants, but realizing that one's words, actions and ideas modify the behavior of thousands of incarnate and disincarnate beings who accompany one.

There is not a single divine particle without the power to decide what to plant. And having to reap, based on having freely exercised the choices of one's actions, pain or happiness, Light or Shadows.

However, know that, when the spark is created, it will be a future man, who, freely exercising the right to choose and act, will inevitably reach the Light.

30. INTELLECTUAL PROCESS DID NOT OPEN SPACE TO THE MORAL TRANSFORMATION

Brothers, May the peace of the universe and peace of the stars!

Since time immemorial, we have traveled the earthly astral space.

We guided those who came here in a primitive state, in order to adapt their bodies, and also those who rejected the opportunity to learn on the planets they traveled to. After this phase, we continued to guide those who continued in the reincarnation sequences, to reach higher evolutionary levels on the Orb.

However, we noticed that during this millennial journey, many of those who walked through the inhospitable landscapes of the Earth before, they were unable to free themselves from the heavy bale brought from exile.

Indeed, some people have evolved, however, the intellectual capacity they have expanded has not opened up space for moral transformation, which was the objective of reincarnation.

They have become intoxicated with power, they have enriched themselves in positions, whether they were high-ranking, commanding the masses, or low-ranking, oppressing those of lesser power who accompanied them.

Even though they have been your friends for many ages, working alongside you in intimate coexistence, whether in family, work or love, it is not possible for us to answer your pleas, when you ask for relief from trials or to be freed from them, because we know that if we were to intervene, we would be contributing to your continuing in the same way, with erratic steps.

It is not necessary you to look at the stars to find us, to feel us by your side or in your thoughts, because we live there. And if you do not hear us, it is because the distance separating us was determined through your conduct.

Winning a race requires an effort comparable to that of athletes. Therefore, look at them, observe their dedication, sacrifice and discipline, often self-imposed, in order to achieve a goal.

Apply this program to your spirits, in your daily life, because no one wins without personal effort.

Friends, today we encourage you; tomorrow it will be all of us, together, in the rescue campaign, treading the space in search of work wherever there is a home, a planet that needs our hands.

You all have eternity, but do not settle for it, so that one day, freed from the backwardness that you stubbornly insist on continuing, united, we can fight for peace.

We are souls, earthling friends. Move forward and conquer your freedom.

31. OUR CITIES ARE READY TO WELCOME YOU

Our cities welcome you.

Some of you, terrestrial brothers have already entered there unconsciously, because you deserve to be welcomed in our facilities, in physical body or in spirit.

We have sheltered our brothers from the Earth in intraterrestrial cities of this country, Brazil.

Unfortunately, the brothers who have reached the conditions to enter the intraterrestrial world do not yet have the psychic conditions to interact with us, without a violent shock to their psyche disturbing their mental state. For this reason, they are subjected to special treatments while they sleep and, gradually, will be awakened, to get to know us and receive from us the information necessary for again populate the Regenerated Earth.

Many Portals of communication have opened to our world. The “access tunnels” are free and, soon, convoys of earthly fellow beings will be conducted through them, entering a world of Light that we have prepared. And while the Earth is in geophysical convulsions, altering its geological structure, we will protect these brothers, like precious seeds, within it. After the verticalization of the planetary axis, when the lands are settled, they will be able to germinate again and flourish in a New Land of Peace, Unity and Fraternity among peoples.

One People, one Nation, one Race, one God!

Hail the Light guiding us! Hail, love.

32. INVITATION TO THE INCARNATE BEINGS

Sisters, may the Light strengthen us in our purposes.

With the increase in collective deaths, the work of the rescue teams in the astral plane to bring those who perish to our cities becomes more intense.

We invite the incarnate beings who feel touched by the suffering of their fellow human beings to make themselves available to the work teams in the spiritual world (it must be done before going to sleep, after prayer, making yourself available for charity work in the astral plane during sleep).

I would like to emphasize that this is a request made exhaustively by countless spiritual workers, because, at the same time that planetary chaos intensifies, with an increase in the number of individual and collective deaths, morale is reduced and the race for material achievements is growing.

This whole set of imbalances on Earth proportionally reduces the number of workers incarnated in the astral plane, showing that the increase in pain has diminished faith and the will to serve.

The incarnate man, selfish and materialistic, believes that his pain is the most important and recovering from his material losses prevents him from making an effort in favor of his brother, because he no longer has energy or time for spiritual and charitable work.

Exhausted, he does not have the strength necessary to leave his body or even leave his room while sleeping.

The work will not stop being done, of course, but the involvement of incarnating beings is the certainty that, on the physical world, fraternity will reign more intensely.

However, we will continue working in the name of Light, and our cities will always have their doors open to shelter more and more the Father's children who, helpless, need only love and hope.

Peace and Light!

33. BUDDHA OF COMPASSION ENTERS YOUR WORLD

Earthly brothers, what have you been doing with the habitat that the Father offered you?

When we arrived, we saw the dense fog covering this Orb. Each time we return, it became denser.

The garbage produced by your foolishness accumulates around the terrestrial sphere, and if the extraterrestrial spaceships did not help humanity, it would be bombarded every day with what falls from space and enters the earthly atmosphere.

It is human folly to produce so much waste and throw it around one's own home. It is human folly to produce so much mental garbage, and then live immersed in it, absorbing the low vibrational frequencies provoking mental storms that deafen human beings.

How much ignorance we still see among humans on Earth, despite all the knowledge that has already been sent by the Creator's Messengers!

What are you doing with all the knowledge that reaches you?

How have you treated those who arrive, handfuls, bringing you enlightenment for your spiritual progress?

Oh, backward humanity! Wake up! Look outside of yourself and see how beautiful life and the world that surrounds you are!

And, gratefully, seek inner renewal and harmony with the Higher Spheres.

The cleansing of the Earth's psychosphere demands hard work by the spaceship crews that patrol your psychosphere and, the more they clean, the dirtier you become. It is a gift received and wasted at every moment.

Unwary humanity! You are given over to your foolishness and already reaping the fruits of bitter sowing. The Buddha of Compassion enters your world, bringing liberation through mercy he offers you. And what do you do with such a great gift?

Reflect, foolish men, and change your ways.

Tuella is visiting you.

Behold, I recognize your leader. Now, she is among the spirits.

However, you are not ungoverned, because the Supreme Government has you under Its protection and, if before the firm hand of Margarida guided you, now, allied to that hand, the firmness of all of us, watches over you.

You are Warriors of Light, servants of Master Jesus. We are with you.

Hail, Love! Hail, Light! Hail, Divine Jesus.

Tuella (Extraterrestrial friend)

34. MANKIND IS DEAF

Hail Jesus!

Humanity is deaf. Even so, we speak, because the perseverance of our Love will break through the thick and hard shell that human beings have built as a covering for the Divine Spark, received as a gift and inheritance from the Creator.

Brothers, only one path will lead you to evolve, and that is the path of fraternity among beings. Learn to look at your neighbor, whoever he may be, human or not, as an equal and to dedicate to him the same love that you would dedicate to yourselves. The day you manage to accomplish such a feat, then you will be ready to be led to new worlds. And until you learn, you will not leave, because this is the lesson that this World presents to you.

You who work dedicatedly for religions spread throughout the world, pay attention, because it is not your words that free the Divine Spark imprisoned within you, but your actions in harmony with the love of God.

There are no mysteries that cannot be revealed, because humanity is at a psychological stage that is appropriate for the revelation of all truths. It is necessary to leave behind the stage of the childish man and courageously enter the spiritual maturity that invites you to renewal and elevation.

So many fights, struggles and wars have never led you to any elevated purpose, and they never will. Have compassion, accepting the condition in which you place yourselves and then you will have found the true religion.

May the peace of the Lord of the Worlds be with us!

35. BEHOLD, THE TIME HAS COME

Birth and death, two sides of the same coin, apparently antagonistic, experienced by the immortal spirit.

For millennia, you have been reincarnating, dying, freeing yourselves and once again returning to physical matter.

To be born, to grow and to die, to be reborn once more, such is the Law that spirits follow on Earth. However, for millennia, repeating the lessons, humanity has not yet achieved the discernment necessary for its liberation, reaching the end of the millennium with the same erroneous ideas of “heaven and hell” and of a punishing and ignorant God, just like his creatures.

Brothers, the spirits have brought you liberating teachings that are capable of illuminating your soul, propelling you towards infinite progress. However, a small portion of humanity has adhered to the liberating postulates and many still remain rooted in the shadows of childish dogmas that disturb the psyche, altering the course of progress, trapping souls in millennial backwardness.

The time has come to unite with the thought of Master Jesus, so that you may reach the illuminated portal of a New Time.

It is not only the spirits who speak to your consciences. Other beings, more enlightened, coming from other planets, enter the earthly psychosphere crying out for your awakening. And from within the enlightened Earth, the helping hands of evolved beings, are extended to you, with compassion and love that you, earthly brothers have denied your fellow human beings.

Come, brothers, to join us in the fellowship for peace on Earth.

Love one another, as Jesus loves us! Love one another, as the Father loves us!

Hail, the power of love that frees us and unites us!

Hail Jesus.

Allan Kardec

36. LOOK THE EVENTS FIRMLY

Brothers, in man's continuous effort to overcome his faults, disappointments and pain, all caused by rebellion and pride, he goes through several tests that aim at preparing his spirit for the tasks to be carried out during the pilgrimages of progress.

Each transformation suffered by a planet in its change of planetary category, the convulsions that modify its physical aspects, the days in which it spends in total shadows, the adjustments in its axis and in its orbit, all are part of a meticulously planned program, with carefully linked events, perfect and intense in its objective: to convert a world of atonement and tests into a world of regeneration.

Humanity could not be far from these planetary events, as it is an integral part and main character in the scenes and plots that, astonished, feel are happening for the conclusion of the 3rd dimensional Earth Project.

Instead of clinging to the pain of separation, of feeling helpless in the face of the sadness of losing the objects you cherish or the home you earned through the sweat of exhausting work, see these events as the campaign of progress to which you committed yourself before the Masters who guided your incarnation. Keep your head on, strong and persevering so that you can overcome the trials that you asked with hands in supplication.

Each stage of the transition that you gradually overcome is a victory that you conquer and record in the books of your lives.

We know that these are extremely difficult trials, but the pain caused to others and to the planet throughout your existences was also superlative.

Then, when a new day dawns, after the isolation imposed by the shadows that will envelop the Earth, may you leave your homes and places of shelter, like the butterfly that awakens in a new condition, transforming itself into a tireless worker of nature. Go out ready to work, not forgetting the actions that placed you among human and material ruins, because the cause certainly lies in your criminal past.

Take advantage, brothers, while the clock still dictates your steps, to strengthen yourselves in the hard tasks that await you.

We are with you, because the mind does not fade with the onset of shadows and your pleas reach us. In observance of the superior orders, we will be by your side.

Peace to you all!

37. YOU STILL ARE IN THE CATEGORY OF EXILES

Sisters, benevolence among brothers and peace among you!

There is no way, at the moment, to stop the steps of incarnate and disincarnate beings who are walking towards the final outcome of a humanity that has received, in its bosom, the Angel of Love. Before Him, several Masters and Instructors came, slowly, to prepare the minds of the people for what was to come: pain, and redemption.

In a lapse of time, after the Angel Jesus left the physical world, humanity lost its way. They did not know how to cultivate the teachings He left in their hearts; they did not keep in their minds the words of love, forgiveness, resignation in the face of difficulties; they did not understand their neighbor and the warnings that they should not make their imprisonment in the flesh (incarnation) an opportunity to increase the extensive gap of errors and hurts that already existed in their lives.

Humanity has not understood yet that the shackles that bound it to the world were not to subdue or humiliate it, when incarnated in reparative exile; they would serve to contain it in a brief period of intense learning, with qualified teachers who would prepare it for higher flights, more serene stops and more fraternal coexistences.

The earthly brothers for several civilizations acquired advanced knowledge. However, what did they do?

They threw everything up in the air for the ephemeral glory of power, for the dubious joy of physical sensations and for the unequivocal conquest of the dominion of life, forgetting that it was not their property to dispose of as they pleased, but that it was donated by the Father so that they could make use of it and return wiser and in a purer state of light.

To the leftists who indulge in material goods, we ask: Have you forgotten the centuries you spent wandering in the abysses of iniquity, where light does not penetrate, where the company you receive is from beings who are as much or even more indebted than you?

However, by your own hands, you will be irremediably drawn to the landscapes you preferred to forget when you begged for reincarnation.

With a heart filled with sadness, we inform you that the next journey of those who choose the left of Christ will not bring happy reunions, material comforts, powers and absolute commands that will lead them to high positions.

No, brothers! The future that awaits the recidivist leftist will be painful and, for the most part, lonely, with a life barren of the blessings that, in the past, he received and abused.

However, you will not be walking helpless, because the Father does not abandon His children. However, the Mentors and Guides will help you, since you will lose the right to relax your tests, and only sincere repentance, the transformation of wheat into weeds, and forgiveness of offenses will be included in your letter of recommendation in the millennia to come.

We ask the rightists to persevere, because many, convinced of their victory, have relaxed their vigilance and observance of the Creator's Laws and have fallen drastically into the Shadows.

Do not forget that you are still in the category of exiles and that you have failed past tests. Therefore, do not take the title of "Rightist" for granted.

Demonstrate that you are rightists through your actions, through your sincere will to make progress, through your desire to serve, and through your search for freedom from the bonds that only you know, in the bottoms of your mind, how much you struggle to free yourselves from.

Today, we bring you these words, harsh at times, because in the past, we were in a similar scenario, with similar concerns, and only perseverance in goodness, love and forgiveness led us to better worlds.

Although a leftist, one day he will be an enlightened being, the journey will be difficult until he reaches victory, and we, through love, mercy and the permission of the Father, warn you of the dangers of the path and lead you along the narrow but straight road with no deviations, which we already know where it will lead.

Do not lose heart, children of the Creator, brothers in humanity!

It is not long before you enter the portals of good fortune, and break the banner of victory, because the title of rightist on Earth is ephemeral, but in the Sublime Abodes, it is a right of those who, with great difficulty, conquer it.

May the Lord of the Worlds bless you!

Saint Germain (Master of GFBU)

38. SOWING IS FREE, BUT HARVESTING IS MANDATORY

Sisters, May the peace of Jesus be with you!

Humanity will face harsh punishments as a result of its reckless actions. They will lately understand that here on Earth, one reaps what one sows, and the Doctrine of the Spirits will also be understood by those who did not embrace its ideals, as we did.

Even the most layman of the Earth's inhabitants will understand that sowing is free, but harvesting is mandatory, as the planet is going through a transition zone that will elevate the mental understanding of all beings, an opportunity for transformation offered by the Creator to His creatures.

To clarify, to disclose, to make others understand that is what you are called to do at this time, as many, lost in the materialism of the world, will go mad in the face of the barbarities to come.

The immediate objective of this time will be to contain madness and collective insanity, so that humanity is not convulsed by waves of mass suicides that are extremely harmful to the Divine Plans, because in such unbalanced mass deaths, the opponents of Christ take great pleasure in the abundant food that we must avoid with the greatest effort of our souls.

To prevent this from happening, to pacify and calm the minds, to nourish the faith, to mentally project scenes of a happy future, when the storms will have passed and the Earth will be Renewed.

To remind each brother that free will is the most extraordinary tool for renewal that the Lord has granted us, it is freely available to each creature, and it may, at this time, be useful to us in the definitive transformation of our destinies.

Peace and kindness among men is what we desire.

Your brother John the Baptist, who speaks to you.

39. PAINFUL HARVEST

Hail, Jesus! Hail, the Power! Hail, the Light!

The Roman circuses burned, slaughtered and bled many beings at that time, whose spiteful and vengeful minds persisted in the intention of making them suffer, in the same way they suffered, refusing all attempts to understand the Supreme Laws that govern the Universes.

Despite the countless efforts dedicated to awakening their minds, they gave in to the heinous plans of revenge, which are about to be realized on Earth. It is the Law of God that it be so, for each one is given free will.

In return, the painful harvest is perpetuated by insane act, contrary to the preservation of life.

May men not forget that the pain that plagues creatures does not come from God and that His Justice is perfect, and there is no injustice practiced in His name.

He, who perishes, fulfills the painful harvest of his past planting, a supreme truth that should be remembered at all times when the extremely hard trials of the end of times that advance upon Earth present themselves.

May Jesus, in His infinite goodness, have mercy on earthly humanity.

Hail, Jesus!

Hail, the Power!

Hail, the Light!

Your brother Shama Hare is among you.

Master Shama Hare, 02/20/2015

Clairvoyance: I saw, in the Roman circuses, the sacrifice of children. Later, I saw, in the East, the children who had been sacrificed in the past, reincarnated as terrorists. They carry in their perispirit painful marks of the past, in the form of deformities and revolt. They are incredibly cold. How sad scene!

.....

40. REMEMBER THE LAW OF DESTRUCTION

Beloved brothers and sisters,

Your steps are recorded in the cosmic ether. Every thought you emit, whether in accordance with the Law or not, every word you emit filled with intentions, often unknown even to yourselves, every attitude you take when faced with the challenges that life presents you with on your journey, all of this remains recorded, like the trail of the snail that cannot deny the path you have taken.

Pains caused will return as new pains to hurt your spirits, which, once awakened, will feel them more intensely. Shame, fear, doubt and discouragement overwhelm all who face their own inner “earthquakes,” seeing the egoistic building erected with such care and dedication over millennia crumble.

However, remember the Law of Destruction, which indicates the necessary undoing of the old man in favor of the renewal of the soul that will animate the new being. As you see the inner structures that you have become accustomed to clinging to as the image of who you are crumbling, remember this Law of God that is applied to you, raise your prayers of gratitude to the Highest and wait, confidently, for the blossoming of the life full of love that is reserved for you. Water the new sprout that emerges from the seed, breaking through the hard shell, with the pure water of the Gospel of Jesus, so that it may grow and blossom, perfuming the paths and, with its fruits, feeding the hungry ones.

Accept with humble resignation the vibratory duality of the old that is leaving and the new that is arriving to settle, definitively, in your inner home. Conducting the symphony of spiritual evolution, Jesus corrects the chords, raises the timbres and adjusts the beats, so that your spirits vibrate at the frequency of the Music of Universal Love. Peace among us.

Clairvoyance: I saw us walking among the mines of a minefield.

I saw a body with its back turned and it was cracking as it advanced.

From this body, dry pieces like clay were falling and, underneath, another body, new, was shining.

41. FRAGILE SEEDS

Clairvoyance: I see a very tall, strong being, with long blond hair, wearing golden armor. In his hands, a sword, also golden. On the chest of the armor there is a red cross.

He approached Mrs. Margarida, greeted her and transmitted the following message:

Brothers, we are humble workers in the service of the Father.

The Earth is approaching its final hours and the work involves creatures who have already awakened their responsibility to carry out the tasks, with the urgency that is demanded in the current times.

Forces of Light, with their entire body of Warriors, Instructors, Guides and Masters have already defined their actions, aiming at involving all their pupils in the “planetary events”.

However, it is not possible for us, at the moment, to overcome the barriers of the invisible and be present, acting by your side. To this end, we count on the brothers who have overcome prejudice, religious pragmatism, the rigors of pride and vanity, the preponderance of the strong over the weak. It is to these rightists brothers that we refer at this moment, because our ranks of workers that once surpassed the horizon, today are reduced to embarrassing numbers.

Brave rightists fight daily, so as not to stray from the path that will lead you to the serenity of the Cosmos, to the coexistence with fraternal and friendly souls, to the discovery of knowledge never before imagined by you. This victory will come about through goodness and the struggle day after day, to control your spirits, which in some cases have plenty of knowledge but lack the true Christian union so preached by the Divine Jesus.

This call is for you to be vigilant, because the temptations of the material world are many, diverting the worker from his evolutionary path. They are presented as success at any price, consumerism, vanity, selfishness and usury, which the human being of your time translates as “professional and social success”.

We hope, brothers, that our voices speak deep into your hearts and minds, because you are fragile rightists seeds that take the first steps, still hesitant, towards the greatest objective of the soul: to free yourself from shackles of matter.

The Sun lights the path of those who take up their cross and set out without fear of falling, who fight for a world of peace and harmony, without stopping to count their losses and who, finally, upon crossing the threshold into a New World, can look back and say, as a rightist that they are grateful to the Father for all the difficulties, pain and disappointments, because in this way the armor of the Warrior of Christ will have been forged with the strongest steel.

We are with you, rightists!

You know that this road has already been trodden by us and today, the steps are yours, but the friendly hands to support you are ours.

Peace and Light.

42. THE SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNTS MATERIALIZES

Clairvoyance: I heard the following words insistently: "Only through pain you will be freed". Then, I quickly saw catastrophes happening in various parts of the Globe: tidal waves, earthquakes, hurricanes, tsunamis and so on.

In Brazil, I saw a building in flames and heard the following phrase:

"Those who set Rome on fire will pay the last cent".

At the end of the meeting I heard the following words: "Innocent children will pay thousand-year-old debts". I don't know what it's about.

Message:

The world is at war!

Transient governments insist on being eternal, oppressing and massacring people.

The law of retaliation applies: "An eye for an eye; a tooth for a tooth". And yet, the peaceful lessons of the Nazarene Master are forgotten:

"Love your enemies. Forgive not only seven times, but seventy times seven".

Bruised by the struggle to maintain material standards above their financial capability, human beings allow themselves to be dominated by fictitious illusions of eternal heavens and hells.

Modern man, an ancient and experienced spirit refuses to progress on the path of spiritual moral ascension, which allows liberation from suffering.

The psychological moment that you are living demands larger efforts to educate the soul in the high moral standards, instituted by the Creator so that the spirit can ascend, causing the crowd to loosen moral bonds, distort elevated spiritual values, lowering the vibrational level, incompatible with evolution.

The planet evolves, even when it is bombastically attacked and violated in its balance, independently of humanity, of living beings that are sheltered by it. The planetary framework, obeying powerful and incorruptible Laws, advances rapidly to assume a new shape, less dense, more ethereal, fluidic, and far from human aggressions.

Pain and suffering that manifest themselves in all latitudes where there are living beings is the cauterizing fire of the wounds generated by human ills.

Therefore, brothers, those who have already achieved discernment about the imperative need to evolve, should “take up their cross” and follow the Divine Master Jesus, for He is the Way, the Truth and the Life.

The settlements of accounts among incarnate beings materializes in search of the necessary adjustment with the Divine Laws.

Those who know how to forgive and continue loving others, working for their own moral improvement and for the benefit of needy communities will know how to face the harsh ascension tests to free themselves from the reincarnation wheels of suffering, reaching the Renewed Earth.

However, brothers, the accelerated process of the Final Judgment has caused the flight of spirits to exile, planetary exile.

Hundreds of thousands of souls, not reaching minimum quotas of higher vibration are removed from Earth to new destinations.

It will be a new beginning of planetary cycles of evolution far from Earth.

During this phase, dear brothers, hatred will ignite the flames of destruction and humanity will be extinguished, becoming ashes that will be swallowed by the boiling planet.

Natural catastrophes, which have become routine, will make human beings realize that the planet, as before, is in a phase of transformation.

There will be no rain without floods; there will be no winds without hurricanes;

There will be no sea storms without the raging sea advancing through the cities.

The Earth will split into cracks;

The dry fields will not sprout food to satisfy hunger;

The flooded plains will not be ideal for pastures and the flocks will drown.

All over the world, catastrophes and wars will dry the shed by creatures and, without hope and without faith, people will rebel against God.

Moral misery will drive the masses to suicide.

The fear of death will drive them to worship the god Moloch, who is hibernating and waiting for the moment to once again dominate hearts.

Perverted and lost between materialism and disbelief, you will see chaos grow.

The “Intruding Planet” will suck up the immoral remains of this humanity, determining the end of the planet of atonement and trials and the birth of the new Earth of Regeneration.

Only the hearts that have prepared themselves to face chaos, in the sincere practice of Jesus’ lessons, will not lose faith and hope of inhabiting the new world.

As time advances, closer will be you to witnessing the end of this civilization.

From the top of the mountains, the “Spaceships” will shine.

The great peaks, without snow, will expose the fragility of the science that foresees chaos, without, however, ending it.

We leave you on peace.

May the peace of Jesus be with you!

Nostradamus

He continues:

Once again the sea rises in gigantic waves, which will swallow the sowers of war.

Their gold will not prevent their downfall, for they have grown in power at the cost of exploiting the nations of the world.

The paralyzing fear will cause the erection of ever higher borders; however, there are no borders that can intercede the manifestation of Divine Laws.

The evil sown returns in just retribution, snatching from the Earth those who are excluded from forgiveness and love. If the coming days seem sinister to you, it is only the manifestation of the Law of Progress.

.....

43. YOU ARE ALREADY LIVING DAYS OF PAIN!

Beloved children, peace be with you!

Remain loyal to the Codes of Love, Truth, Justice, Charity and Forgiveness.

The world in which you live is heading towards chaos.

Forces of Shadows are attacking forces of Good and the hand-to-hand confrontations of the spiritual planes are materializing on the physical world.

Hordes of incarnating beings with minds devoid of sincere ideals, find themselves manipulated by beings of Shadows, dragging them into confrontations in scenes of violence and horror, which you already experience routinely.

The government agencies of your society no longer have control over the bandits that operate in all sectors of the current society.

Groups of vandals roam the streets, attacking passers-by without interruption.

Ordinary people are trapped in their homes and hungry wolves are loose in the streets, spreading fear, panic and excessive violence.

We have warned you for a long time about the final events of the Planetary Transition, and today you are already experiencing them in all their painful reality.

If you have prepared yourselves properly, you are ready to follow Christ as rightists and you will happily land on the Renewed Earth.

However, children, if your minds and hearts are still rooted in the old human being, full of repressions and doubts, you will be swept away by the negative wave of fear and terror and it will be difficult for you to reach the New Earth.

Activate the dynamo of urgent transformations within you.

Work tirelessly to free yourselves from bad tendencies and unhealthy feelings, antagonistic to love and forgiveness.

You are living days of pain and gnashing of teeth, and only those who have faith, courage and a heart free of inferior feelings will face the final pains without perishing.

Love one another, as the Father loves us.

Love one another, as Jesus loves you.

Your Master,

Ramatis, 11/02/2013

44. FALSE PROPHETS WILL MULTIPLY IN THE FINAL JUDGMENT

In the beginning was the Word, and then all Creation.

Due to human imperfection, the sacred texts were distorted and what you know today as "Sacred Scriptures" is far from the reality of the simple, yet profound and true accounts of the lessons and life of Jesus.

The bad-intentioned religious leaders manipulated the Truth according to their hidden consciences to control the human masses and attract treasures to their coffers.

The preserved essence of the Christian revelations is only understood by those whose souls have already achieved a conscious awakening of the practice of love, humility, charity and forgiveness of offenses.

By abstracting from Evil and practicing Good, the creature finds the Creator, because God is within us and, as the human being abandons external worship, turning to the inner temple in search of the Truth that liberates, he will reach the Creator of all things.

He who, until now, has allowed himself to be deceived by the childishness of religious dogmas, will still have a long way to go to mature his soul.

However, those who deceive the masses with “fake news”, “worshipping God for themselves and the devil for others”, will discover themselves to be leftists and will automatically be exiled from Earth in this final phase of the “Apocalypse”, when the “separation between wheat from the tares” will occur in an accelerated manner.

“False Prophets will multiply at the Last Judgment”, as predicted by the ancient prophets. And these false prophets, after their moral downfall in the distortion of the Christian Evangelical Lessons, will find themselves tortured by pain, in compulsory exile.

Brothers, free your souls from the illusory attachment to matter and the ephemeral pleasures it offers. Embrace the greater cause of evolution, through the sincere practice of the Lessons of Jesus, eternal Lessons of Love.

“I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through Me”, Jesus told us.

Seek Him and find peace.

Peter, the Apostle, 10/04/2013

45. YOU ARE OUR VOICES AND OUR ARMS

My children, behold, I am among you.

The construction of the Worlds is a sidereal event, coordinated and governed by evolved minds of beings who no longer have their individuality, supreme flashes of the Creator, who launch their thoughts into the Cosmos, attracting the nebulae to unite, fusing their microscopic particles in explosions of atomic constructions, generating worlds to be inhabited by souls, divine sparks of the Creator.

Assisted by eminent elevated creatures, we participate in the construction of this world. And with the Masters that you know today, we planned to bring souls from different worlds, linked to us by the threads of the Creator's love.

Fallen souls, who did not adjust to the divine chords, still crawled in the dark and sticky recesses of evil.

We met many of these elsewhere, in other worlds, where we polished our souls under the greater symphony of divine chords.

Dear souls that remained backward, rebellious, and we brought them in the greater plan, so that would awaken under the crucible of the new nascent planet.

We also met the Masters in other worlds. Friends and brothers that agreed to help us polish the rustic souls.

Here you are at this moment, in tune with us, helping us in the awakening of other souls that remain tied to the dissonant sounds of evil.

You are our voices and our arms. Speak words of comfort and awakening, as others once did for you, and in My Name distribute the bread of enlightenment that gives life and evolution.

We are all brothers and sisters sailing in the limitless sea of evolution.

Come, sisters, to be with Me, forever and ever. I am with you!

Alert your brothers, our dear brothers, of this serious hour, so that they may feel My Love and not give up on always progressing in the name of God.

We are brothers known in the wake of evolution, and in new clothes we will meet, when your transformed garments will no longer show the stains of guilt.

Free from torments, we will be together at the dawn of the New Day.

Go, beloved daughters, distribute the bread of liberating knowledge, for souls need to know the truths of the multiple planes of life, of eternity and of the opportunities for progress.

Those who, in My Name, instill fear in unwary hearts, plunge deeper and deeper into shadows, and the “gnashing of teeth” of this planetary cycle will not be enough to wash their souls of such guilt, trapping them in the shadows of fictitious illusions and slavery to sin.

May God, our Creator Father, Architect of the Universe, Divine and Perennial Light, bless you all!

I leave you My Love, and My Presence will never depart from you.

In times of supreme trials, raise your foreheads to the limitless sky and, even if the leaden clouds obstruct your vision, launch yourselves in spirit into the immensity of space, for we will be very close to you, guiding and sustaining you in the final transit of the Planet of Atonement.

I bless you, beloved daughters*.

Jesus Sananda
04/20/2013 - Vigil in Jacaraípe-Serra/ES

* - There were only women at the meeting.

46. NOT EVEN YOUR PHYSICAL BODIES BELONG TO YOU

Clairvoyance: I saw a “gigantic black form” in North Korea.

Someone told me: “The Lord of War has awakened and with his army he is already dominating the unwary.”

The gigantic spectral form came and went on Earth; it walked through the ranks of the marching army of the incarnates, igniting a dangerous fanaticism in their hearts.

The strange form traveled the seas and islands around and returned; it remained as a sentinel for the one who awakened it. Horrible!

Then, I received the following message:

It is too late for this humanity to know us!

Your magnifying glasses and ultramodern microscopes do not penetrate the dimensions where we live.

You will see us with the eyes of the soul.

Seek to explore your dimension, because there is still much that you do not know about the planet and about yourselves.

“Know yourself and free yourself”, said Jesus.

We are not the “usurping aliens”, as you judge us.

We are friends and brothers!

If there was once an association and union among your humanity and negative beings from outside the Earth, this no longer exists. The Father, who can and sees everything, cut off access to this planet by dangerous creatures, “bandits from sidereal space”.

However, your brothers in humanity (terrestrials), taking possession of alien knowledge, used it to establish sovereignty and power over other peoples. These selfish and proud feelings they had were not absorbed from the visiting negative beings that already existed within them, they already shared an affinity with those beings; therefore, they gave in to their impositions, of using the lives of some Earthlings in exchange for “Advanced Technology”.

Once again, it was not the extraterrestrial beings, including the negative ones, who brought war and disharmony among nations. The negative seed already existed within you and was stimulated by the shrewd beings.

Once again, you are spreading the intention of nuclear war. Haven't you suffered enough from horrors of past wars and holocausts?

Do you want more? To slaughter more? To seize more of other people's property, to rule even more through terror?

You are nothing, brothers! Not even your physical bodies belong to you, for you can detach yourselves from them before the Greater Will of God. However, your arrogance is so great that you ignore your material fragility and insist on repeating mistakes!

Deprive your minds and hearts of the bad intentions of nuclear war, for you will come to know a Greater Force that you did not believe to exist. You will be collectively dragged out of this orb, Mother Earth, which vehemently desires to evolve.

Stop the fratricidal struggles and institute love in your actions! By doing so, you will have incalculable strength, unlimited progress and eternal peace.

We greet you in the name of the Planetary Christ and in the name of the Divine Jesus, He who is unlimited love for you.

Intergalactic Confederation and Orion Command - 04/12/2013

47. THERE IS NO DETERMINISM; THERE IS FREE WILL AND ITS CONSEQUENCES

Hail Jesus! The Greater Force that governs the destinies of earthly humanity.

Brothers, we are ready to fulfill the Will of the Father.

We are carrying out the initial phases of the Planetary Transition: disclosure and clarification of our presence among you, aiming to prepare you for future events. The future has already arrived, and this humanity finds itself on the threshold of difficult events.

We have registered the awakening of some souls, however, the majority is far from the necessary preparation to face the force of nature, caused by the imbalances arising from human thoughts and actions.

They will perish in great numbers and this causes us sorrow, but it is the harvest that is in accordance with the sowing.

Free will has led you to the present moment and you will recognize the presence of the Father in the application of His Laws. One last call will still come! Pay attention to it, for you will need Christian elevation to understand that there will no longer be a Land of Trials and Expiations, just as there will no longer be a backward humanity inhabiting it.

Sick minds are advancing on rulers, encouraging them to trigger conflicts of great global proportions, accelerating chaos on Earth.

The perverse Command of the Black Forces that dominate the dense forms of life on Earth incites hatred and greed, so that conflict may be established and war may break out, for this will bring intense pain and bloodshed that the vampires eagerly await.

However, the Superior Government of the Worlds determines that before this outcome planned by the inferior beings, the Will of God will be fulfilled and humanity, still asleep, will suffer the effects of its ignorance.

Get ready, because the pain will worsen and the way of life will no longer be as before; you will observe many changes, and the difficulties will increase.

An Escort Ship protects those who live in your houses and whose free will puts them in tune with the Superior Forces. They will be under the vibratory field of our protection. But if you, who are Light workers, were already careful beforehand about your vigilance, double it, because, as you rise from the “lower astral”, terrible forms of life will mingle with the inhabitants of the astral plane on the earth. And if the wave of crimes that is unfolding among you today is terrible, it will become even more insane, because without the presence of Master Jesus in your lives, creatures will allow themselves to be dragged along by backward and merciless ways. Everything is in accordance with the Law of God and the Larger Planning.

Do not lose your faith, our brothers; recognize in the events, the advance of the end of an age of ignorance and shadows, and the approach of the dawn of a new time of Light and spiritual elevation. When pain hurts you, direct your mind to a wonderful future, where a bright star will guide the regeneration of a people who chose the right of the Christ.

Finishing our words, we are at your disposal for any clarifications, if you so desire.

Question: I understood that we were already being prepared for this moment, what I can now understand is the closing of this stage, for the beginning of the conclusion of this Age.

Commander Yury: The imminence of a war that is being provoked on the invisible plane by evil beings is hastening the unfolding of events on Earth. The Greater Spirituality is prepared for the order to finalize the Planetary Transition Project, as the possibility of a “armed world conflict” advances.

There is no “determinism”. There is “free will” and its consequences. Once again, humanity chooses its destiny.

Question: From what I have read in the messages from the other Brothers of the House, I have concluded that, if this war goes ahead, before the bombs are detonated, the Earth's Axis will become vertical, that is, it will force the Forces of Good to anticipate a situation that was not planned, but that will be necessary so that evil does not become worse, because the bomb will destroy everything. Is my reasoning correct, my Brother?

Comm. Yury: Correct. The sister, through the work she does, keeps her mind directly connected to us, therefore, fed by pure intuitions that come from Higher Planes. Just like us, you also receive Higher Instructions; the difference is that, once immersed in the flesh, the memory of the information received takes longer.

It is true that, given the risk of total degradation of this planet and the conditions of balance that it represents in relation to the Solar System where it is located, the direct intervention of the Higher Forces is necessary, preventing human madness from advancing beyond the limits of its own existence.

We are many Brothers watching over Earthly humanity, because at the same time that we take care of you, we are taking care of many homes where many other brothers of ours live, because everything in all Universes is connected.

No Orb suspended in space is disconnected from its neighbors, from its brothers. You are still ignorant of the superior knowledge that governs life in the Universes. Our presence among you fulfills the superior determination to rescue you from ignorance; however, we affirm that only a small veil has been lifted on human blindness and there is much to be revealed about extraterrestrial life.

We are grateful for the opportunity to contact you. May humanity find in our words the key to the awakening of its consciousness and the path to reach us.

Question: Brother, can I ask you a question?

Comm. Yury: Yes.

Question: I had a very clear dream: I saw many people who were heading somewhere. That place was very wide and airy, it looked like a hangar, or a landing place for a spaceship. People were heading there to be rescued by spaceships. Everyone was calm and there were a lot of people.

There were several floors. People who were coming were walking down there; others were already upstairs, sitting calmly, waiting for the transport to take them somewhere.

I had the impression it was about the “evacuation of the planet”. Some people were known to me, but most of them I didn’t know.

Is this interpretation correct? Everything was so clear, so real, that I woke up impressed.

Comm. Yury: You know very well that the work on the astral plane is intense, both in terms of cleaning this planet and in preparing spirits for the higher realities of life.

The sisters work hard during their sleep, accompanying our teams on the work fronts where they are called to assist.

The sister did indeed accompany the access of many spirits to the rescue spaceships. Those who have already completed their stage of work are now preparing for a new phase, which is to receive a large number of people who will collectively disincarnate, whose spirits will be quickly transported to our spaceships, where they will receive the necessary care.

The evacuation of the planet has begun. Those who disincarnate during the final periods of the Transition will be cared for largely inside our spaceships, to alleviate the congestion of “negative forces” on the Earth’s surface. Few groups are prepared and in a state of sufficient spiritual elevation to remain in the support centers, emergency rooms and hospitals installed in the astral plane of the Earth. They will only be those people who will not be affected by the negative waves that will circulate on the planet. The Earth will be completely out of balance, both on the physical world and on the astral plane.

Do you understand, sisters?

The sister accompanied the boarding of the rescue groups that will work on our spaceships; Hence, our proximity to the Earth so that the teams of spirits can embark. Those who have not yet disincarnated, but who have been seen, taken in the astral body, have been recording in their memories the path that connects them to us, because, if they need it later, they will have direct access, through their minds, to the recorded records of our presence.

Question: Take a backpack, put it on your back and go following your intuition.

Comm. Yury: Leave everything behind, trusting that what remains will be taken care of by the Father, because what they could do has already been done. Only those who achieve humility, resignation and faith in God will have the detachment to understand that the time has come to leave.

This is the selection that will be done this way.

Brothers, the time is serious and you correctly understand that it is necessary to spread quickly our messages about the preparation and rescue of our brothers.

We will be with you as long as Divine Goodness allows us.

We have already been, once, in the place where you find yourselves today; and it is out of love that we walk with you.

May the Peace of God be among you, calming your minds, pacifying your emotions, and soothing your souls.

Hail the Force of Light guiding us.

Hail Divine Jesus.

48. THE ORB SUFFERS TRANSFORMATIONS

Beloved brothers and sisters,

The destiny of Earth is a result of the way this Planetary Home has been used by its inhabitants.

Created with the purpose of sheltering countless species, in different stages of evolution, Earth has harmonized with the Laws of the Universe, providing all creatures with relationships appropriate to their needs.

Of all the beings sheltered here for their unavoidable progress, human beings were those who could best obtain opportunities for elevation of the whole.

Through their choices would achieve harmonious conduct that would guide their steps in the future. However, stronger, dense vibrations dominated human actions.

Subtler, the vibrations resulting from presence of Messengers of Light brothers were slowly being noticed by some human beings who, by tuning into them, had their steps accelerated in direction of progress.

Delay in understanding the Laws of God also delays progress and increases the time we repeat mistakes. Repeating mistakes, in turn, commits us to karmic cycles, together with the karma of the planet itself. He and us are indissolubly linked until we have restored the usurped and misused forces.

Divine Providence, which has never stopped accompanying the ascension journey of human beings on Earth, has determined that there is no more time for repeating the mistakes made insistently for millennia.

The orb suffers from transformations imposed on it by unbalanced human minds, and with it, other beings suffer, whose development have been harmed by such transformation.

A Higher Command stops the insane march and redirects the deviated forces, tracing with them the destiny of the Earth. And you, ancient spirits, who have been reincarnated on this planet for centuries, using its resources and disturbing its balance, will be led back to “new dwellings”, adjusted to your moral condition and mental frequency.

The Father does not impose progress on his children; as a Law, it comes at the end of one stage and the beginning of another. Therefore, when shadows fall and your eyes cannot see anything, turn your gaze inwards, in a sincere attempt to understand the spiritual condition that the reincarnation exercise has allowed you to reach. Without excuses, daydreams or deception, seek the evidence demonstrating such spiritual condition and, like the gardener who prunes the tree to favor its growth, pull out the invasive weeds protecting the good plantation, prune your defects and uproot your bad tendencies, restoring to the inner landscape the integrity that the presence of the Creator inspires in you.

Cold and hunger will fertilize your garden of intimate transformations.

Thirst and pain will water the seeds of love that have been distributed to you.

And, in fertile hearts, fraternity will germinate, distributing fruits of solidarity, courage, kindness, tolerance, forgiveness and resignation.

You will thus cross the desolate earthly landscapes devastated by acid rain, precipitated with help of the Sidereal Engineers, as a way of discharging the psychosphere from poisonous gases, originating from the combination of elements produced by pollution, volcanic and solar explosions.

Wherever you go, you will see the human hecatomb.

You will then understand the mistake in the chosen path, being invited to practice love for others as the only option for a new path to follow, in the reconstruction of your destinies.

Only those who place themselves in the humble position of apprentices of the new human condition will see the lighthouse in front of them to guide them.

It is from Him that the Light will come and, united by new ideals, you will begin the formation of a new humanity, born from the ashes of this old and failed one.

The rescue of your souls resistant to progress will be completed and you will be invited to return to Earth to colonize it according to superior guidelines.

A new home for a new people, whose new beginning will be based, on one hand, on learning from the mistakes that caused their downfall and, on the other, on Divine Mercy granting the opportunity for a new beginning.

By reinforcing the three pillars of support of the Renewed Earth, you will know the humility that will enlighten you on the true meaning of God's love and the imponderable Truth of eternity.

Only peace and happiness, joy and work will await you, for you will have advanced on the scale of the worlds of Regeneration.

May the Forces of Light illuminate your understanding.

Nostradamus, 03/09/2013

49. DISCHARGES OF ATOMIC EXPLOSIONS ACCELERATE THE CATASTROPHES

We congratulate you on your activities with the Hosts of Good in favor of this humanity.

Flashes of light open up in the dense earthly psychosphere giving way for the Star Fleets to advance upon humanity, as great catastrophic events are approaching, where souls will collectively abandon their physical bodies, heading towards the infinity of invisible space.

We encounter barriers in human minds, which are not receptive to our presence, remaining in bands of disbelief and fear, because they have not trained their minds to detach themselves from earthly goods, freeing their souls for the eternal life in the sublime planes afterlife.

There is no way to prevent the tragedies that will violently take human lives, because the choices of this humanity have led them to situations of pain, suffering and gnashing of teeth.

They disbelieve in God and Jesus and reject us.

If we could, with our materialized presence, touch their hearts and minds, transforming them in the Light of the Gospel of Christ, we would make all possible sacrifices to make ourselves visible.

However, we know that our presence on your material plane would bring panic, despair and war, because any nation that managed to imprison us and obtain our technology would use it to dominate the planet and human beings.

We are those sent by the Planetary Christ to guide, assist and rescue you, and we shall not allow your childish minds to take hold of weapons that you are not capable of handling without causing yourselves drastic injuries.

Our spaceships are penetrating the Earth's psychosphere to help, reducing the chaos that you have created with your destructive actions.

At this moment, we are reducing the harmful vibration launched upon the Earth, so that the deadline for the events programmed by the Sidereal Engineers can run in a way that gives opportunity to those who wish to transform themselves.

However, brothers, you are experiencing dizzying transformations and the materialization of intense suffering that we cannot avoid.

Our spaceships will appear in various points on Earth, where catastrophes will manifest themselves, in the not too distant future.

The planetary evacuation is a reality and the selection between living and dead is already occurring rapidly.

Your Brother Ysh-Wan and your Sister Mahyr are greeting you in the name of Jesus.

The discharges of atomic explosions drastically accelerate the catastrophes upon the Earth.

We are mitigating the impacts of the unfolded atom reaching the material and invisible planes. We remove fauna from the seas, transferring it from planet to planet; those that remain, stunned by the imbalance of their environment, change their migratory actions.

Margarida: We thank you from the bottom of our hearts for your fraternal presence and, I ask that at least some of the people here, from our Nucleus founded in Salvador, accept, believe and divulge these words about the current situation of the planet, because whether or not they believe in what has already been determined, it will not stop happening because many of them do not believe. Thank you, my Jesus and Mother Mary. Thank you, brothers.

Ysh-Wan/Mahyr: Margarida, we know that limitations of your physical organism impose suffering in carrying out tasks, but you also know that it is imperative to serve at this time, regardless of sacrifices, renunciation and suffering, because you came here in this incarnation to work more and more. We are with you, brothers and friends. Do your best to alert your brothers on Earth, and may they, in tune with the Hosts of Light, see us and accept our outstretched hands for last-minute help.

Hail Jesus, the Greatest Master.

Hail the Light.

50. IT IS NOT DIVINE PUNISHMENT; IT IS A HARVEST...

Beloved children, my disciples!

You must have faith!

The Divine Messenger Jesus calls you to transform your soul so that you do not succumb to the pains of the “Final Judgment”.

It is essential that you have courage, because the dire events will affect everyone: wheat and tares, in all geographical latitudes.

It is not divine punishment; it is a painful harvest of the careless sowing of this humanity.

You met with us before this key incarnation and we made plans for each one of you, in particular, and for all of you together, schedules of spiritual tasks necessary for your moral and spiritual progress and collective tasks that would benefit humanity.

Bearing the ideal conditions to faithfully fulfill the divine plan, you were sent to the presence of Margarida, whose open mind for knowledge would guide you toward the fulfillment of the planned tasks.

Today, the knowledge sent to you, combined with the Gospel of Jesus in its transformative practice, places you in the condition of rescuers of the desperate ones.

Place yourselves in tune with Jesus and His Luminous Hosts to face the future as sowers of balance in the face of the despair of the crowd.

Detach yourselves from everything that might hinder your steps toward spiritual asceticism, postponed so many times.

Do not judge us as sowers of panic and fear. Does the world around you announce lasting peace and harmony?

No, beloved children! It is a time of work and sacrifice to secure a place in the Renewed Land.

The materialization of the prophecies announced millennia ago determines the urgency to make definitive choices, to be wheat or tares, rightists or leftists of Christ.

The selection of souls is already taking place and planetary exile is reality.

No one is above Divine Laws, and there will be no salvation for rebellious souls in the Renewed Earth.

Only exile awaits the rebels.

You are my disciples and, for millennia, we have accompanied and leading you along the slow and tortuous paths of your choices.

The “end of the planetary cycle” is before you that are already living the key incarnation that will launch you into a new exile or into Regeneration.

Pay attention to your soul, seeking to purify it by practicing the Gospel of Christ and we will meet for the banquet of renewal.

I greet you in the name of Jesus.

Yours Master,

Ramatis

51. PETER’S HOUSE COLLAPSES FROM THE INSIDE OUT

Hail, Oh Beloved Master Jesus!

To everyone who follow and profess the Third Revelation (Spiritism), you are the apostles of the End of Times. Testimonies of faith, renunciation and courage will be expected from you that will be warned, not so that you may shelter, in order to protect yourselves from evil and fear, from having your lives taken away, but so that, fearless and courageous, you may support the weak, guide the lost and feed the hungry ones.

The testimony of faith is not given in a protected place, far from suffering and cries for help, but by helping the lost who seek a word of comfort and hope.

Now, on Earth, there are not only twelve apostles, but thousands of them, and you only need to tune in to the Divine Hosts.

Do not get lost, asking the Father what you can do. Throw yourselves into work, trusting in the enlightened minds that will be intuiting your tasks.

Brothers, the palace built by men, the monument of power and corruption, is slowly falling. From its shaken foundations, the House of Peter is crumbling, from the inside out, and then you will all know that this is one of the signs hidden from the people by powerful hands, although the faithful, comfortable in ignorance, prefer to believe in opulence, and not in the simplicity lived and exemplified by the Beloved Master Jesus.

Get ready! The signs are already materializing on Earth.

Peace and Light!

Apostle Paul, 02/15/2013

52. SCIENTISTS WILL NOT FIND ANSWERS TO MANY CHANGES ON THE EARTH.

Pay attention to the signs!

From heaven, balls of fire will fall to Earth, causing despair.

Iron birds (airplanes) will collide, disturbed by magnetism of the Planet (¹) that is approaching Earth, confusing their flight instruments.

Melted glaciers will reveal new lands hidden by ice caps.

Dry lands will be flooded by muddy water.

Mountains will be covered in soot from volcanoes.

Collectivities will perish without men knowing the cause.

Religions weakened by the struggle for power, by moral decadence and corruption will not be able to guide the unbalanced people. And the enraged mob will launch itself upon the cold temples and the fragile religious structures, supported by the illusion of matter, will collapse.

The brightness of the spaceships will be seen and repelled, taking the exiles far away.

Disturbed, lost without direction, the scientists will not find answers for so many changes on the Earth and will turn to the spirit, but it will be too late, for dawn has broken and the New Earth is emerging.

Their spirits, broken by the effort to find answers, will perish in disbelief before the Greater Force of the Father.

I see beyond!

The flames consume the houses.

The earth trembles, knocking down the fragile vertical constructions.

The wind blows relentlessly, bending the frozen bodies.

The earth opens in cracks, swallowing the unbelieving humanity.

He, who sowed love and charity will live to enjoy the Renewed Earth.

The slow awakening of this humanity will cast it into a new exile of expiation.

The luminous announcements of Christ about the change in direction of the axis of the soul did not reach the rebellious hearts; and, once again, deprived of the Light of Christ, they will be exiled.

Love, as Master Jesus loves us.

53. THE PLANET EVOLVES AND NO LONGER ALLOWS AGGRESSION

Men judge themselves as gods.

They want to control life, time and planet.

They can do nothing in the face of their smallness.

Life does not belong to them, because it is cut short by the determinism of the Laws of God, within a pre-established schedule.

They understand nothing about time, which is beyond the reach of their meager and limited intellectual resources.

The planet is alive and your actions hurt it deeply.

The human beings that make up this humanity are still in the range of moral and spiritual backwardness.

Consisting of backward souls, they do not yet have the evolutionary resources to understand, in greater depth, the mechanisms of God's Laws.

However, brothers, the resources and opportunities necessary to achieve evolution and progress are given, all we need is to and activate the dynamo of will to reach higher heights, towards the higher planes.

The planet evolves and will no longer allow aggressions. The accelerated time leaves no room for doubt that the limited life of the third dimension is approaching its final stage.

If you wish to evolve, practice love, charity and forgiveness.

Peace to all.

Deva Hu, 10/12/2012

54. CHAOS IS INVISIBLE TO THE EYES OF UNBELIEVERS

Brothers, you have anchored the “higher energies” in strategic points of the planet, allowing and facilitating the entry of our spaceships to help and rescue your brothers of humanity.

You have fulfilled your tasks, helping us with your actions.

Your Brother Yury is connected to you!

Hearts united, minds raised in communion in the higher spiritual planes and in the physical world, attending to the Great Commander, Jesus, who coordinates and works for His terrestrial flock.

Our spaceships are prepared, in defined positions, awaiting the command of the Divine Master, so that everything may occur.

Chaos is visible to the eyes of incarnating unbelievers. Even those who are oblivious to spirituality, who consider themselves happy, immersed in the illusory world of matter, already feel threatened by the torrent of disastrous events in Caesar's world.

Nations that command the world economy find themselves on the brink of civil wars. Populations, maddened by economic bankruptcy, by the disaster of their rulers, rush headlong into conflicts that generate even more hatred and violence.

There is no escape from chaos.

Violence emerged in the wake of hatred that spread rapidly across the globe, reaching populations that believed themselves untouchable, due to the power and dominance in which they maintain themselves, displaying the symbol of strength to dominate their brothers.

There is no security, because catastrophes intensify, tearing down fragile human constructions. Only those who believe in the true transformation of themselves and the world know that destruction (') precedes the new.

This is Progress, dragging the planet and its humanity to new levels of evolution, leaving behind “expiations and trials”, suffering and shadows, and launching itself into Regeneration.

We are with you, beloved sisters, and we will continue until the last human being on Earth is taken. Then, we shall meet again, when, in communion, we will bring back the seeds of the New Age.

May the Forces of Good that guide, support and sustain you receive you in the beloved bosom of the higher planes.

Hail, Jesus, the Greater Force that guides us.

Margarida: Brother, is that “deal of ours” still in place?

Does Brother remember?

Yury: Yes. You will take a trip on one of our spaceships to the Planet Patrol and, from there, to your home planet.

Margarida, you will have many surprises.

Hai, the Light that guides us!

Hail Jesus!

55. THE OUTBREAK OF A NUCLEAR WAR WILL NOT BE ALLOWED.

Clairvoyance: I saw the Middle East surrounded by the Army of Light and, coming from Abyss, gigantic black tentacles dragging souls, inciting hatred and violence. Then I received the message:

The intense transfusion of energy from Divine Master Jesus to Earth has repercussion in the dense sub-planes, neutralizing inferior discharges from the Beast to the earthly surface softening the dark discharges of violence, cruelty and war in matter.

The Master wishes to prevent a war of global proportions from gaining strength, causing the premature extermination of this humanity.

Natural disasters generate commotions of solidarity. Fratricidal wars generate waves of hatred, violence and fear, further compromising the karmic entanglement of souls.

The Army of Light has surrounded the areas where people are fighting each other in disputes, quarrels and governmental and religious dissatisfaction.

The outbreak of a nuclear war will not be permitted on this planet. The sequence of acts of violence and intolerance reveals the strength of the Beast, reverberating its influence on the human soul, combined with the increasingly close presence of the Intruding Star.

Those who can already see the illuminated horizon of the Renewed Earth should connect their minds to the Forces of Good, where Jesus commands the beneficial actions for the planet.

The pestilent waves of hatred, generated in the conflicting communities, reverberate in space and reach human targets devoid of faith. Souls that are not themselves swept away by the negative whirlwind that surrounds the Earth.

The planet, in turn, will shake more strongly, to tear from its body the sharp barbs with which they wish to kill it.

It is not the end: it is the arrival of the Light!

The dark nuclei are shaking, due to the urgency determined by their commands to accelerate the processes of attack on human beings.

You will increasingly hear and see the cries of war of excessive violence and moral misery.

Those who have faith should not despair.

You are living the completion of your harvest and the sowing of the rebels.

Jesus commands everything and we await His orders for the completion of the Planetary Transition.

The Middle East is a burning barn and the force of explosions could set the planet on fire.

Brothers, pray and be vigilant for the barbarity of the primitives insists on dominating the inhabitants of the Earth.

Vibrate in love and forgiveness of offenses to ensure your soul in the ranks of the Army of Light.

The burning fields burn the wheat and the weeds; however, the weeds will not return to the plowed fields, for the sowing of the New Millennium.

Hail Jesus.

56. IT WAS NOT FEAR THAT SILENCED MY VOICE

Beloved brothers,

May the peace be with you!

I begged the Eternal Father and, with the authorization of the Superior Hierarchies, I come to share with you this sublime and joyful moment, of fraternization of evolved souls with earthly spirits eager to evolve.

I am no longer a prisoner of the Peter's House. My suffering ceased with the end of my physical life, since I found myself freed from the restriction of the word.

I was prevented from saying what our beloved Mother dictated to us in a clear, precise and logical manner, certainly not understandable to us, pure children, but revelations of crucial importance for the Humanity's moral and spiritual development.

The errors committed by the Church of Rome deeply wounded the evolutionary statutes of this humanity. However, if this was permitted by the Beloved Father, it was because it should be, and this humanity did not deserve greater efforts to reverse the wave of distortion exercised by religious regarding the revelation of our Mother.

It was not fear that silenced my voice, it was the bare and cold walls of the convent, the hypocrisy of the priests and the papal arrogance.

I do not judge them for this, however, they prevented me from carrying out what was meticulously planned by Elevated Minds.

Important facts for humanity were revealed to me and to my fellow children, and nothing related to the Roman clergy or the Popes.

The very clear and logical revelations were about the future of the planet and its humanity, about the "end of times", extraterrestrial and intraterrestrial beings.

However, today I understand that, as small as I am, I could not prevent the powerful force of Shadows from aborting the Project of Light. If Jesus was crucified, who am I? Just a humble servant, ready to once again immerse myself in the flesh and carry out the task of divulging the extra-material revelations to our brothers and sisters in humanity.

Unfortunately, there is no time, because the work of "Planetary Transition", Project Earth, is in its final phase. However, I am extremely happy to find fellow creatures like you, who, filled with courage and faith, fulfill the tasks of divulging what I was prevented from saying.

May God bless you all and may Mary, our beloved Mother, protect you.

Lucia (From Revelation of Fatima) 0 5/05/2012
Festival of Wesak – Vitoria/ES

57. I ALSO SUFFERED LIKE ALL MOTHERS

Beloved children, here I am among you, as if I were with you in the material world.

I was on Earth to receive my beloved son in my womb, without knowing his angelic potential, without remembering all the pre-established programming before my incarnation.

I suffered, as all mothers today suffer the loss of an innocent son. Tears I shed of discontent, but with my conscience intact, knowing that I fulfilled my duties as a zealous mother, trying to meet all the material needs of the “group gathered” by blood ties.

Always ardent in my faith, I tried to act in accordance with the laws of the time, loving God above all things and doing for others what I could do within my limited possibility.

After some time, I also left Earth, as is natural for all creatures on the physical world. On the spiritual plane where I am, I continue working, now knowing the entire history of the Beloved Jesus and sharing with Him the desire to help the earthly humanity.

Little you know about the tasks carried out on the invisible plane by all the brothers who have awakened their consciousness and have elevated conditions to help in the name of Jesus. What you know is a small reality of everything that occurs under the invisible veil.

In the past, I manifested myself to three children in the form in which they could recognize me, as the mother of Jesus. To them, in a language that they could assimilate and retain in their physical and spiritual memories, I related the Divine Plan for this humanity.

Moving forward a little, I revealed to you that there are many evolved beings in the Realm of God who seek to help the little ones, like their earthly brothers, to overcome the phase of suffering in order to achieve renewal.

I told them that evolved beings, coming in spaceships, would arrive at the time of great planetary disturbances, to help the creatures of Earth overcome the dramatic moments of the Doomsday.

I revealed to them that life pulsates within the Earth and that the physical world is only a temporary passage for souls to evolve; that souls of various evolutionary degrees live on the same planet and that, within the Earth, many creatures live, with varying degrees of evolution, from the highest to the most primitive. That we are all a great universal family, children of a single Father, the Uncreated Creator.

The childlike souls accepted my words naturally; they understood, within their childlike knowledge, and faithfully transmitted what I said.

Unfortunately, human beings, devoid of knowledge and elevated feelings, betraying themselves and a program established for humanity, distorted my words and transformed them into “oppressive mysteries” to subjugate and seduce the human masses.

I revealed that the transitory world of Earth will go through intense chaos when the Final Judgment comes to manifest itself. It was expected that, knowing the future realities, long announced by the prophets, human leaders could warn their children, and these, the children of the future, so that today, my brothers, when the Earth finds itself suffocated by human aggression, continuing rapidly in its transformation to reach a new dimension so that this humanity could also transform itself.

As before, they remain ignorant and deluded, massacring their fellow humanity, distorting the Gospel of Christ, distributing violence, wars, and horror.

I come to you, my children, to plead in the name of God that each one make their own effort to retain the lessons of Love from the Divine Master and answer the call for transformation of the Law of Progress.

The faults you have committed can only be attenuated by facing the harsh trials of the Apocalypse, which is manifesting itself on Earth at this moment.

Love and forgive the brother who walks the earthly journey with you. Spread hope for a New World.

Do not judge the faults of others so harshly, but make it clear to everyone that there is an opportunity for transformation.

Those who remain in error will answer for their actions that go against the Divine Laws, which are antagonistic to Good, and will be sent to other orbs, distributed throughout the Universe, to pursue new opportunities for transformation, as is already happening with many who are being exiled.

Exert effort to remain on the right hand of Christ.

Love and forgive everyone.

This is what I have come to bring you on this beautiful afternoon.

Each one of you must recognize your own mistakes, seeking to transform them into virtues.

Support and guide your children so that they may see the imbalances and moral deformations that ravage the Earth. Light the Flame of Truth in their hearts so that they may choose the path of Progress.

The deformations of the soul, transformed into a material banquet in human actions, devastate the Earth like a destructive whirlwind. But may each one of you present here, my brothers, be among those who combat madness through practice of love and charity.

Love, forgive, work in the name of the Divine Master Jesus.

He, who leads us all lovingly.

I leave you in the Presence of Him, who is the Way, the Truth and the Life.

Mary from Nazareth (Mother of Jesus)

58. CIRCUS SHOWS WE LEAVE FOR THOSE WHO DESIRE THEM

Brothers, peace and goodness in your hearts.

The extraterrestrials did not come to benefit this or that group of humans.

We are linked to Evolved Hierarchies that, in your evolutionary stage, you cannot imagine to exist.

For loving the Creator Father and this backward humanity, for loving the beings of creation, here we are, legitimate representatives of the Forces of Good.

We do not submit to the ridiculous spectacles that many human beings wish to put on with extraterrestrial forces.

We help, support and rescue living creatures, human or not, who can be removed from Earth, due to their own merit, because Divine Justice, instituted on Earth by the Gospel of Jesus Christ, is the salvationist script for human beings who wish to reach a higher spiritual level and leave the worlds of trials and expiation.

We leave the circus shows to those who wish to show up, out of vanity, using the image of extraterrestrials, deceiving so many others who are in tune with them in intentions and ideals.

We do not feel offended, because we understand that in the evolutionary stage of this backward humanity, there is a total subversion of elevated spiritual values.

We are on Earth to help you in the painful process of the "Final Judgment", led by the Superior Hierarchies. We will be present when permission is given by these same Hierarchies that guide us.

This apocalyptic humanity is too skeptical and proud and we do not waste our energies to worship foolish vanities. Our energies are very precious and are directed to the work guided by the evolved minds that govern the Universes.

Whether or not to accept our presence is each one's choice, since you are governed by free will, but it is certain that you will not be able to escape the final selection that is taking place on your planet. Wherever you are, your actions and feelings will dictate the vibratory "quantum" that will place you in the position of rightists or leftists of Christ. You will feel and see our presence when you are passengers on our spaceships, heading for exile or to a planet of Regeneration.

Brothers from Planet Earth, only love can set you free.

Brothers from Planet Earth, your actions are already destructive enough for you to still seek help of extraterrestrial and intraterrestrial beings for nefarious deeds. You will find help with your peers, beings deprived of love and any human feeling. By connecting with these beings, you will be decreeing your planetary exile to an Orb of an evolutionary condition inferior to Earth.

Perversions of love and fraternity on the physical world reveal your condition as leftists, wolves and weeds.

Only love sets you free. Love one another.

Most humans who claim to be scholars of extraterrestrials do not understand that we are in another dimension and that they can contact us mentally. They criticize those who do so, believing themselves to be superior.

You are vain!

Seek to study the doctrines that can reveal to you the various extrasensory contacts daily occurring in your world, truer and realer than your material life.

We are watching you and know your intentions.

Be careful! We can intercept your steps and actions when harm innocent communities.

From a material point of view, you want us to make ourselves visible; but from the perspective of spiritual evolution, you do not deserve to see us.

We remain fulfilling our objective of helping and rescuing this humanity. If our materialized presence in your dimension could Christianize you, we would have done so already. However, you have denied and crucified Christ! What would you do with us if you could see us and aim your cannons at us?

Experience proves that you want to have our technology to enslave your brothers!

You want to dissect us, to learn about our physiology.

You want to expose us, like a rare animal, to accumulate wealth and power! And we want to remove the crust that covers your souls, preventing you from shining.

You may one day reach us in technology and evolution, but to do so, remove the veil from your eyes and your blindness will be cured. See us with the eyes of your soul and you see that we are, simply, older brothers, seeking to help you from the immense chaos that you have created.

Evolution is not the privilege of any being. It is a non-transferable achievement of every living being. Seek to take the reins of your own progress for yourself, not waiting for someone else to do it for you. Love and transform your being and, one day, in the wake of the progress of worlds and beings, we meet.

Then, now, we extend our fraternal hands to you; however, if you reject them, we will regret, but your will be respected. The Divine Plan, in progress, will follow its course, which was programmed long before you arrived on Earth, as exiles.

Those who reject us or wish to use us for less worthy purposes have already made their choices to remain in backward worlds.

May Jesus, the Sun that shines brightest on Earth, bless you.

We are all children of God, brothers in universal humanity.

Hail the Divine Light that guides us.

We leave you love and peace.

59. KNOWLEDGE SETS YOU FREE; IGNORANCE IMPRISONS

Hail the Force of Light!

Brothers, knowledge frees, ignorance imprisons.

Seek knowledge to become you men and women free. Settle into ignorance and you will be prisoners of yourselves.

The arms race granted to humanity the discovery of the atomic explosion, as elevated knowledge and representative of scientific authority over the world.

However, the scientists and scholars of the time did not know that they were only beginning timid attempts to unveil the mysteries of the nature of atoms.

Even so, from the height of its arrogance, human intelligence, although still primary used its limited knowledge to provoke successive experiments using this nuclear arsenal.

With the excuse of exploiting the energy resulting from the manipulation of atoms, large sums of money were allocated to manufacture and exploitation of nuclear devices, with terrible consequences, in addition to those whose unspeakable effects exploded upon the heads of the Japanese people.

As if the harmful results and pain generated by those atomic bombs were not enough, others continue to be tested on the body of Mother Earth.

What you do not know is that, with each test, electromagnetic and radioactive waves remain invisible acting; and, when they encounter the electromagnetic waves of the Earth's body and others produced by human beings, they react, causing unimaginable disturbances in the planet's psychosphere, which, gradually generate accumulation and interference in the mechanisms and dynamics of the forces of nature.

The pressure inside the Earth changes, and the movements of the planetary bones and its rocky body change. Then, the core is overheated with sharp explosions that reverberate, producing new waves of opposing force, coming from the center of the Earth, in response to those that arrive, coming from the explosions carried out on the terrestrial surface.

The sea heats up through the heat released by the explosions, and then is released through the sea cracks in the abyssal regions.

If you could see what we see, you would certainly be paralyzed with fear, because supported by ignorance and guided by arrogance, you are physically and psychically imploding the only home you have that feeds and shelters you.

When you know how to bend before the Magnitude of Creation, in an attitude of Reverence to the Creator, then human beings will be prepared to deserve the peace of a “New World” and happy, where, under equal conditions, all beings experience the harmony and perfection of life.

Until then, brothers, prepare yourselves, because from your ignorance, translated into insane acts, the healing knowledge of your sick spirits will be revealed.

Peace on Earth!

Paulo Nagai

Clairvoyance: I saw an atomic explosion and concentric waves that came from the center of the explosions, traveling through space and reverberating their force. Everything in their path was affected by these waves.

Where there were volcanoes, the pressure of the volcano changed and the explosions accelerated.

Where there were cracks in the earth, there were also changes in pressure and a force caused the rocks to move apart, widening the crack.

Where there were tectonic plates, the waves caused them to move more intensely and quickly. In the interior and center of the Earth, these waves hit and caused a reaction of equal intensity, in the opposite direction, and the waves generated restarted their path back to the surface causing the same types of reactions as the waves from the nuclear explosion.

Note: After reading the message, Margarida spoke of the “coincidence,” because throughout the morning, while she was working on organizing the next book about the atomic explosion in Nagasaki and about Doctor Paulo Nagai, she thought the following: “Dr. Paulo Nagai could give us a message for the Preface of the book.” She had not said anything about this to us, except after the psychograph of the message above.

Then, we concentrated again and the brother told us the following:

As attentive workers that we are, from the Vineyard of the Planetary Christ, we have captured the appeals of your minds and faithful to the Rescue Plan in which we were invited to participate by the illustrious Commander Yury, we hasten to transmit to you the knowledge necessary for your liberation.

Hail Love of Jesus that unites us into one spiritual family. wow!

60. ATOMIC BOMB AND CONSEQUENCES

THE EXPLOSION OF THE ATOMIC BOMB

PART 1

It was the year 1945.

The Second World War continued, with its caravan of horrors, tragedies and cruelty that only war has the power to unleash.

August 9th dawned, beautiful as any sunny day, with birds singing, young people walking to school, farmers taking care of crops, animals and other routine tasks, housewives busy and so on. In short, an ordinary day like so many others.

I was two o'clock when something different exploded in the air, 500 meters high, in that peaceful city. Then, a very strong wind, with a speed of 2 km per second, dispersed, destroyed and crushed everything in its path. An immense vacuum was formed in the center of the explosion, which, like a gigantic vacuum cleaner, sucked the debris to a great height, releasing the entire mass that it sucked up, which in turn began to destroy everything around.

The temperature rose to 9,000 degrees Celsius, burning everything for kilometers. While all this imbalance of the elements of nature unfolded, the fragments of the "thing" fell incandescent, causing fires everywhere. The sun was covered by a cloud of smoke and debris so much so that it resembled a total eclipse. After a few minutes, the cloud lowered and a faint light began to illuminate the field of carnage.

There were more than 30,000 deaths and more than 10,000 serious injuries, in addition to tens of thousands of other people who became ill due to the effects of radioactivity. It was a horror!... Trees were uprooted, all the greenery was burned, houses were destroyed; some people had their heads cut off, others had their stomachs ripped open and their entrails removed; everyone was left naked, as their clothes turned to ash. The skin of their bodies was torn off like strips. A woman was found with her stomach ripped open and her unborn child between her legs. Three kilometers away from the fateful place, people found their bodies an hour later, covered in blisters from burns. First they sensed intense pain, followed by extreme cold.

The fragments of the bomb varied in size from a marble to a football. And to think that this terrible instrument of death, the atomic bomb, was created in the mind of a human being, whose privileged brain, due to spiritual negligence, worked in the service of the "Shadows" on the physical world, represented by corrupt political forces, greedy for power, cold and insensitive to the suffering and misery of the less favored people.

Who was the father of the atomic bomb?

But who was the "father" of the atomic bomb, this destructive monster? Who was this man? Briefly, we give the profile of this character so talked about in the post-explosion era of the bomb.

His name was Julius Robert Oppenheimer

(04/22/1904 - 02/18/1967). An American scientist who lived for science since he was a child, unconcerned with political, social and economic realities. At the age of 11, he already belonged to the Mineralogy Club. Later, he graduated in Chemistry and went on to study Architecture. He graduated as an architect and went to study Physics in England and then in Germany. At the age of 25, he was already known for a discovery called the "Pooheimer Phyllips Process", based on the collision of atomic particles.

He studied Astronomy, focusing on "quasars", the small cosmic portions that emit light and radioactive waves of great intensity. At the age of 25, he was already teaching at the California Institute of Technology and at the University of Berkeley. He spoke 8 languages and mastered Dutch in 6 weeks, just to give a lecture in Amsterdam. He learned Sanskrit just to communicate by letter with people who knew the language.

As a man, he was very lonely, aloof, naive, emotional and easy to fall in love. He was not given to reading newspapers and magazines, he had neither a radio nor a telephone; his friends were people from the University.

He was severely wronged when the American government labeled him a communist, stripped him of some of his rights and kept him under close police surveillance. However, his inner tragedy did not result from this political persecution but from the awakening of his conscience that exploded at the exact moment when the terrible mushroom-shaped fire rose into the sky in the first atomic experiment and he realized that he had invented a deadly instrument. He then repeated the phrase from the Bhagavad Gita, the sacred book of the Hindus: "I am become death, the destroyer of worlds."

His colleagues, insensitive, euphorically celebrated the invention with a glass of wine. He did not celebrate. From that moment on, Oppenheimer became aware of the most serious problem that men face today: "Is it lawful to pursue knowledge to the end, if with it one destroys millions of creatures at once"?

The manufacture of the super bomb

At this point, the Americans began to think about manufacturing a super bomb and Oppenheimer began to defend the sharing of atomic secrets with other nations, to ask for the intervention of the Organization of the United Nations and to discourage his colleagues from working on the manufacture of the Hydrogen Bomb. He was the man who protested the most in 1950, when Truman, president of the USA, overrode the Nuclear Energy Committee and ordered the manufacture of the super bomb.

The H-Bomb was built by the North American scientist of Hungarian origin, Edward Teller (01/15/1908 — 09/09/2003). In a few months, it was ready and was detonated. However, soon after, the Russians detonated of theirs.

He was already humble and became much more

It was during his years of suffering, as he died of throat cancer, that Oppenheimer devoted himself to the most profound studies, gave the most beautiful lectures, wrote the most noble works and was a master of clear and elevated ideals.

He explained that science is good and should not be feared, that science is culture and that there is no need to isolate it, because from a great misfortune great happiness can be born. He was already humble and became much more so.

When someone one day asked him:

- Teacher, why don't you write the truth (he was referring to the injustices he had suffered)?

He replied:

- I will never do that. The truth is within us, there is no need to account for it to others.

To conclude this brief summary, we will add that Oppenheimer recited Dante Alighieri, author of the "Divine Comedy", in Italian; he read "Homer" in Greek; He knew pieces by Bach and other geniuses by heart; he discussed painting as an art critic; he was passionate about French medieval poetry and Hindu philosophy. This was the man defined as a genius, loved by some, hated by others and misunderstood by many others.

Considerations:

All the damage caused by nuclear explosions during the Second World War and the countless tests that up to now have repercussions on all living beings, on the Earth's surface and its interior. And the propagation of these radiations reaches other planets and their humanities.

Oppenheimer, even in his worst nightmares, could not reach the horror of his creation, because it is not up to us, but only to show the richness of human complexity, the risks of the enormous waste of talent, especially when it comes to scientific potential. Science must walk hand in hand with ethics, otherwise man, in his omnipotence, will set himself up as "partners with God". Instead of the scientist being a pilgrim of the "absolute", he will be a pilgrim of the absurd.

PART 2 - ASTRAL TRIPS

I saw a gigantic mushroom

Clairvoyance: On my mental screen, everything went dark. Then, light appeared, like a summer dawn. I saw a distant horizon flooded with light.

Then, incredible thing, I saw an enormous mushroom take over the entire atmosphere: it was the center of the explosion. The fire seemed like a living being, such was its power. I saw objects and beings disappear instantly. The fire was one thing, spreading everywhere. Then, as if I were in the astral plane, I saw a "flame" in front of me, as if it were being carried by the wind. I suspected, or rather, I had the impression that it was a human being who had died at the epicenter of an atomic bomb explosion. I immediately had positive confirmation.

A rescue spirit appeared and tried to hold the "flame" in his arms, and it now took on a different shape and consistency. However, the rescuer was unable to hold it, even though the deformed spirit did not avoid it. The rescuer was crouched down, as if kneeling on one leg, trying to hold the flame in his lap and then place on his knee that unrecognizable human shape that was falling apart into pieces, disintegrating, completely oblivious to the situation.

It was not something like a fight or alienation; it was a state of total absence, strange, terrible, that I had never seen before, as if a double death had occurred instantly: the death of the physical body and that of the perispirit, or astral body, or bioenergetics body. The rescuer brother was disoriented when he saw that energy, that "formless thing" melting, breaking apart in his hands, falling into pieces on the floor.

In fact, he was desperate because he couldn't do anything, because I believe the situation was unprecedented. He certainly had never seen anything like it.

I think these pictures were projections from the Akashic Record of the atomic explosions in Japan in 1945, during Second World War in Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Margarida's words:

A vision that occurred on 12/2/1991 was described above, and now we will read some considerations of the medium, in a mental conversation with evolved fellow beings, which resulted in the following conclusion:

Mental dialogue between the Medium and Extraterrestrials

The therapy for the disembodied beings under the impact caused by a nuclear explosion is an unknown for the spiritual workers of the astral plane. It must be said that there are beings so evolved that could solve these problems, however, for earthly humanity to receive this help, it would need to deserve it. "To each one according to his merit". Nothing is given for free.

Extraterrestrials who are more advanced than us in technology, science, morality and spirituality, without interfering in our free will, help us a lot in the area of health. However, they encounter difficulties in this field, when faced with planetary elements foreign to their environment, to their world, since the planets have different constitutions.

On the other hand, there is the problem created by earthly scientists when they developed new mechanisms to minimize the effects caused by their senseless creations. If the Father allowed science to develop to this stage, it was not to be used for evil, but for the progress of humanity. It is God's Law: "Thou shalt not kill".

I am in mental contact with beings from the last trip I made about problems arising from nuclear weapons (words of the medium who was already concentrated).

Below is the dialogue between them.

Question: Why do you insist on a subject about which I have already received several messages?

Answer: Because we need to publicize that earthlings run the risk of causing a holocaust on the planet through nuclear detonations. It is extremely important for you to know that it is extremely terrible, indescribable suffering for the spirit of the human being who dies in a nuclear explosion.

Question: Why don't you bring spirits who passed away in this way to talk to them, in order to alleviate some of their suffering?

Answer: In most cases, these spirits, due to the summarily drastic way in which they were disincarnated, believe, in their immense pain and madness that they no longer exist. An approach on the spiritual plane is almost impossible and incorporation would put the life of the medium at risk, given the gravity of the problem.

Question: How can I, for example, who do not understand nuclear bombs, who am not famous in any social area, who do not edit a newspaper or magazine, who am not a journalist, how can I spread this issue in a convincing way?

Answer: You cannot imagine what we can do with a sentence. We only need them to leave the mental plane and penetrate your world, the physical world. Your Group should spread them to other groups, and publish them in their bulletins, newspapers and magazines. From hand to hand, these revelations can reach the "hands" that hold power; to men who legislate and are open to our appeals. Keep working and leave the rest to us. In this way, we will all be able to avoid this hecatomb until the "end of time". Together, we can see what a fantastic, great thing we have managed to overcome. We cannot explain the details of the process to you now, because many things are beyond your understanding, under such conditions. How can we understand that many of them will remain centuries without being able to reincarnate due to real impossibility, losing a lot of time and opportunity for spiritual elevation?

Question: By any chance, dealing with new problems, or rather, with the disintegration of the bodies that envelop the divine spark, the spirit? Is this the first time that this has happened in the Cosmos as a result of atomic explosions?

Answer: No. This has happened many times and will happen more and more.

That is why we try to prevent this from happening, because the consequences are disastrous for beings. In any case, our role is to instruct and warn of the dangers.

The merit, the victory, belongs to humanity itself, which, by absorbing the advice, manages to overcome its instincts, vices, pride and interrupt the process in progress. We are not the ones who will stop it. We are now giving information about what will be unleashed in the depths of the half-destroyed spirit.

Question: So many people speak out warning about this subject and, however, it seems to produce no results?

Answer: Let us use one of your sayings: "Soft water on hard stone, it beats so much until it breaks through." We shall not stop of calling attention to this fact, sending repeated messages to the whole world. Even if we have to repeat them hundreds of times, we need one of them to reach the right place.

Question: I feel weak and discouraged about this subject. I feel as if there is no point in talking about it, because the people targeted are deaf.

Answer: Have faith in God, courage and strength. We are starting.

May God be with you all!

Note from Margarida:

This mental dialogue between a medium and an Extraterrestrial Team, took place on May 18, 1987. Since then, much has changed on this beloved planet of ours, which is so troubled, and among them, the race for nuclear disarmament.

Our Elder Brothers were right. This issue of the effects of radioactivity, more or less intense, on human beings, is a reason for our Extraterrestrial and Intraterrestrial Brothers to send messages from time to time. This is what happened with the "Cesium Case", in Goiania, which made Brazil and several countries around the world turn their attention to the issue.

Other revelations: the "Cesium Case" in Goiania

From our Spiritual Work Group, we received, through mediumship, or a communication channel between the physical and hyper physical worlds, the following revelation:

"A team of approximately six extraterrestrials was over Goiania at the time of the "Cesium Case" and, taking advantage of a rainstorm that was falling in the region, threw a solution into the contaminated area to minimize the effects of radiation. This is exactly why the predictions of the German scientist who was there did not come true.

Since nothing happened as expected, the Brazilian government said that the scientist was sowing panic among the population."

On the spiritual world, a cleaning was also carried out to minimize the effects that are much more disastrous there than on the physical world. They also worked on the warehouse they had built to store nuclear waste. They also revealed that the people affected by the Cesium capsule accident were settling debts from a past existence.

This knowledge was sent us through clairvoyance on 05/24/1988.

On 02/28/1992, a treatment was seen for spirits who had passed away in nuclear detonations, in order to recover them.

It consisted of the application of a substance that resembled ice and had a low temperature. This therapy, they implied, was a recent discovery in the spiritual world of our planet. They also showed a cancer treatment with chemotherapy and radiotherapy, here on the physical world, being counter-attacked by them with the same substance similar to ice, in order to eliminate or neutralize the damage caused by harmful radiation.

61. FIGHTING TO REMAIN FAITHFUL TO CHRIST IS A HARD TASK FOR THE INCARNATE!

Brothers, may the peace be with you!

Although we recognize that the physical world is extremely violent and cruel, it may become even worst as the hordes of bandits from the abyssal world retreat to the earthly surface.

This apocalyptic moment, programmed in the Divine Planning of the history of this humanity, occurs in tune with the Laws of Progress, foreseen for this world.

This humanity, despite the appeals from the Highest and intense sacrifice of many avatars, the greatest among them, Jesus, bringing the script that strengthens and frees creatures from the wheels of suffering, has not prepared itself for this moment, remaining on the borders of skepticism and spiritual backwardness, becoming permeable and in tune with the beasts freed from the Abyss, coming from surface.

These hateful creatures, who come close to human beings, are creatures devoid of love and any feeling of mercy. They belong to this humanity and, despite the strong bonds that bind them to other people who are already in a better vibratory pattern, they continue without achieving liberation; They still remain in the exiles' bands, suffering their perverse influence, which manifests itself in the materialization of violence and cruelty, which reign on Earth at the "end of times".

The Portals that allow the emptying of the Abyss are gradually being opened, and increasingly horrendous creatures are being freed from shadows to surface. They are built in a dimension above the Abyss, in regions closer to the crust, environments suitable for their habitation and suitable for the ascent to the nefarious and dense abysmal regions.

These "Nuclei of Shadows", built close to the crust by the Beast's faithful henchmen, receive the creatures freed from the deepest abyss, allowing them to adapt to a new, less dense condition. These creatures, supported by perverse minds linked to this humanity, act by influencing as many as they want, in the practice of cruelty, dissemination of hatred and in the inversion of the moral values that elevate the creature to the Creator.

These cruel scientists multiplied around the humans who did not know how to take advantage of the opportunities for spiritual asceticism, plunging ever deeper into the ignominious mire of barbaric crimes and the enslaving domains of their brothers.

The gnashing of teeth manifests itself in the Land of Atonement.

Praise be to Our Lord Jesus Christ who, at the height of His martyrdom, forgave everyone and remains hovering over the planet, protecting and supporting everyone with His Love.

At this point, the energy intensified and Nostradamus continued after a brief pause.

Dive into the "Source of Knowledge" we see flames consuming the Earth. It is the purifying fire.

Waters grow in volume and invade the cities, cleaning the lands soaked in blood.

The wind destroys human constructions causing ruins.

Beyond that, we can see the Earth opening up in deep cracks, swallowing up the spiritually bankrupt creatures.

In this whirlwind of events, we see, above the chaos, various "spaceships" carrying the precious cargo of beings who built the history of this humanity and who will go to different destinations. The majority remain in painful exile, however, only few souls ascend to the places of celestial lights.

We return from the "Source of Knowledge" and we are faced with the predicted reality, manifested in all planes of the Earth of Atonement.

Fighting to remain faithful to Christ is a difficult task for the incarnating being.

Fighting to sow Light in the hardened hearts of humans is a difficult task for elevated spirits.

Let us fight for the liberation of souls and for the evolution of the Earth.

Let us fight for peace to be instituted in all planetary quadrants.

62. RAISE YOUR FEELINGS ABOVE THE VIOLENT PEOPLE

Brothers, peace and kindness in your hearts!

There are treacherous creatures among you, wild beings, deprived of the human condition and of any noble feeling that elevates beings.

They have multiplied like weeds and circulate freely among you, humanity. They are not spontaneous creations of any nature; they are creatures that come from dark regions that you are not capable of creating in your limited imagination, from the deep abysses that are being emptied. The creatures that live there are magnetically attracted to the company of this humanity, which has made possible their treacherous presence so close, on the astral plane, feeding them and, at the same time, feeding themselves, on vile animalized instincts.

It was you, brothers, with your unbalanced actions, your uncontrolled vices and less worthy feelings that provided the ideal conditions for the wild beasts to approach you, eager for the harmful energy that keeps them alive.

Wake up, brothers! The advanced hour of the "End of Times" urges you to fight evil and sow good, loving and forgiving everyone.

May God bless you in your purposes of elevation and progress.

Peace in your hearts.

Elsim

Question: Are you intraterrestrial Elsim? You are so different!

Answer: We have studied your civilization a lot and, with sadness, we have seen how primitive you still are.

To those who have awakened, we say: raise your feelings above the violent mob and love always.

63. A NEW WAVE WILL RISE

The sea will rise again
And men will finally believe
A Greater Force governs the Earth
It is on a collision course.

There will be no collision
But the Intruding Star will be so close
That its magnetism will shake the Terrestrial Organization.

A new wave will rise
It will sweep over two continents
And unbelieving men will see
That their struggles for money are in vain.

In a second, the ruling force will destroy
What hands spent centuries to build Unbelieving men will see
Their beliefs crumble into vain values.

Many will fall to their knees
Others will flee. There is nothing left to do
The change will come too late
Without wings, they are unable to fly
And they will face the fury of nature
A reaction to the fury from their hearts.

A wave will rise
And a trail of destruction will be left
It will sweep many men from the Earth
Carrying their bodies out to sea.

It is the charge that arrives with certainty
And does not fail in the decision it will make Prepared from Above, the "spaceships"
Line up to help everyone
Without knowing, they will be taken back
To their new home.

A deserved destiny that they will have Conquered, by their own hearts.
The churches will never understand
Because they cultivate blindness without reason
The destruction will pass through them
Of the Law that must renew everything.

Go men and announce
The good news that will arrive
A new Earth, light and life
A new beginning of existence, so it may be.

Nostradamus, 05/22/2009

64. KEEP YOUR MIND BALANCED, YOUR HEART SERENE AND YOUR HANDS AT WORK

Peace in all planetary quadrants!

Peace also in your hearts!

Brothers, events are approaching you that are increasingly disturbing to peace and sanity.

The magnetism of the Intruding Star is connecting with the magnetism of the Earth; this is what our great effort was trying to postpone.

As two sides meet, the auric fields of the two stars will now mix, causing a growing fusion of the vibratory tones, which will bring even greater harm to your planet, because since the Intruding Star (also known as the Cleansing Star, Hercolubus or Nibiru) is a more primitive planet and the Earth's magnetism is contaminated by "deleterious forces" coming from human mental activities, the natural tendency will be for this Star to dominate the Earth, accelerating an increasingly perverse influence on the spirits that have not managed to free themselves from feelings of low vibration.

By this we mean that more violent crimes and natural catastrophes may occur, accelerating the process of astral cleansing of your planet (more suffering of all kinds).

You know well, because we have warned you for a long time, that such occurrences are foreseen in the Earth's Cleansing Plan. However, when you witness the events we have mentioned, be careful not to let yourselves be carried away by the wave of commotion that will come.

In all circumstances, keep your mind balanced, your heart serene and your hands ready to work, reaching out to those who need it most. In this way, you will be selecting yourselves to tune into the vibratory bands of different frequencies to those that are dominant in this time of death throes on Earth.

May Jesus, the Master of Masters, bless and protect your humanity!

Peace in all planetary quadrants!

Peace also in your hearts!

Commander Ashtar Sheran, 12/31/2008

65. THERE IS NO DIVINE DETERMINISM THAT IMPOSES PAIN AND SUFFERING.
THERE IS CAUSE AND EFFECT, ACTION AND REACTION

Intense energy surrounds us and the presence of Master Jesus is everything. I am gently immersed in His Light and, at the end of the message, I find it difficult to return to our reality.

Daughters, the environment in which you are called to work is full and impregnated with dense beings and energies that destabilize the psychosomatic balance; however, there is nothing between Heaven and Earth that cannot receive My energy and remain unharmed.

Your bodies are impregnated with My love, which you carry as protection in your bodies, with reserves to distribute to failed, backward and magnetized spirits in the shadows.

As you walk towards the deepest abyss, the Designs of My Father, who is in Heaven, are fulfilled in accelerated time. Even if all the children and brothers who walk in sacrifice, in the dense and lethal environment, are unable to reach the end of the task, everything will be accomplished according to the Will of the Father.

The Beast, as you call it, represents the sick soul that cannot heal itself due to persistent rebellion. It represents the evolutionary delay of the “sparks” created for progress. Like it, other “beasts” exist in human creation in other star systems. They do not harm God with their impertinence, which represents a death blow to their own development and spiritual progress.

The Divine Laws are dynamic and ascending, and no creature has the power to change them.

Only those who are deluded and blind believe themselves to be above the Creative Laws, which in reality they do not understand, because it is enough to understand them to feel driven to practice them.

In Him who can do everything, we place our Love and He envelopes us with His power and Light so that we may fulfill His determinations.

When the final hour comes, nothing will remain unchanged on Earth, in all its dimensional planes and sub planes.

The “spark,” created to evolve shall be magnetically attracted to where its vibrations take it.

Do not fear, for you are part of the Great Earth Plan of Redemption for this humanity, and if today you face the dangers of the physical and invisible planes, it is due to your delay in your evolutionary journey and due to the mistaken choices you made in the past.

We were together and you recognized Me as the Way, the Truth and the Life; however, your will took a long time to solidify and your faith was built slowly. But today, with faith the size of a mustard seed, you are already capable of recognizing Me and following Me, practicing My Lessons, defending and disseminating the profound meaning of My Words.

The Great Plan in progress will not be interrupted or altered. The poor, misguided and weak-willed mind will awaken before the end, and everyone will know of its inability to see without seeing, and hear without understanding.

I am for you. Everything you experience, I am with sustaining, guiding and supporting you.

I am love!

Come to Me, forever and ever!

In the past, you did not understand My gaze, but you sensed My spirit. Today, you can see, feel, understand and evolve.

Addressing the planet:

Brother planet! Friend planet!

Your final hour of suffering is approaching.

You will be elevated to the Category of Regenerated Worlds and I will be with you. I myself who was and are with you, since the beginning of your formation.

Do not hold resentment against the ungrateful children who, in your midst, forgot love and sacrificed their fellow travelers.

Launch yourselves into progress, forgiving and loving as the Father teaches us, and let us follow the Path of Light of Evolution that is unlimited and eternal.

Planet Earth! Cradle of this humanity of rebels, open your floodgates of love and await the redemptive transformation.

Speaking to mankind once again:

My Father's children who are stubborn in their errors, despite His Will, will not remain on this planet. Their attempts to dominate will succumb and, due to the total absence of love in their hearts, they will inhabit a desert and lifeless planet, arid and stony like their souls.

It is the Law, the vibratory reciprocity of the being with its habitat, and your similar vibratory aridity will be attracted to an arid and lifeless planet.

You are My sheep and the good shepherd does not allow the wolves to devour His sheep.

It is time for the wolves to leave from this fold to regions where there are only wolves; and the sheep must be separated according to their vibratory tone. But all, wolves and sheep, will remain connected by the thread of My love, which binds everyone.

There is no divine determinism that imposes pain and suffering.

There is cause and effect; action and reaction.

It is time for the wheat and tares to grow in different fields, providing them with opportunities for progress, within the choices they make.

Only LOVE will survive above the chaos and storms.

I guide your steps; I lighten your burden; I heal your wounds.

Follow Me, for I am with you forever and ever!

In the same day, in the last concentration, the Loving Jesus continued:

Beloved daughters, (we were 7 women) there is no war that does not bring negative consequences to the psyche of creatures.

The psychic and physical after-effects are inevitable. The weakest cannot bear its horrors; the ignoble ones profit from the storms. And the warriors, despite the suffering and pain of wounds, in the physical body and in the soul, continue to fight and defend the true frontiers of Good.

You feel the effects of the struggles on the battlefield, which are natural consequences of the clashes.

You are warriors that fight in the ranks of the Army of Light that I represent and the wounds on your bodies, in defense of Good clean your tunics.

Remain on the battlefields until your clothes, clean and shining are drawn to My presence.

I am always with you!

66. SERVE CHRIST TO EVOLVE!

Servants of Christ, peace be with you!

If the wild beasts released from Abyss voraciously seek out the creatures of Earth, of the Higher Planes, the celestial beings linked to Earth, out of great love for its rebellious inhabitants, come to aid this humanity.

Remarkable creatures of rare beauty and splendor enter the mire of the lower spheres, to be closer to the incarnates and to the brothers of the invisible plane. Delicate and pure, benevolent and gentle, dedicated and faithful Servants of Christ emit their most sweet vibrations to the earthly creatures.

The sublime beings cannot make themselves visible to the crowd, which would run in terror, but their sweet vibrations may touch the hearts that are in ideal conditions for help.

The emanations of the fluid of the evolved beings envelop the planet, but the “planet of the end of times” has a denser psychosphere and the sacrifice of the Superior Hosts in remaining active in the dark regions of the inferior spheres is quite intense.

The majority of the earthly creatures do not make an effort to send sincere thoughts and feelings towards the Highest and those few who do, find in these greater brothers the comfort and strength necessary to overcome their pain.

They are Emissaries of God who sacrifice themselves for love of their neighbor!

The Eyes of God are everywhere and no creature can say that they are abandoned, because a child of God will never be helpless. The reality is that rebellious creatures prefer to excuse their faults by throwing barbs at others.

The Hosts of Good unite for the benefit of the planet and its humanity at this “end of the planetary cycle”, in an attempt to “fish” the largest number of souls.

Unfortunately, hatred expands, making people impervious to higher vibrations.

How many warnings does each individual want to receive in order to awaken? Will the violent shocks in their emotional, psychic or physical life need to intensify in order for them to awaken?

Catastrophes, wars, cold and unexplained murders extreme violence, stray bullets and countless other events act as psychic triggers in creatures and should provide the awakening of a larger number of beings in this phase in which you live. However, on the contrary, social injustices and excessive violence have provoked greater rebellion, awakening of hatred, desire for revenge and imbalances of all kinds.

Suffering prevents the creature from enjoying material and social pleasures and generates more rebellion and dissatisfaction with Divinity.

“Knock and it will be opened to you”. These words of Christ are interpreted as an open door to the satisfaction of their desires and not as a real sense of sincere search for answers that bring balance and progress.

The current human being needs to have his material desires satisfied, since he works exhaustively for the pleasure of having, in order to live well. They are spirits devoid of faith, creatures stagnant in lower vibratory bands who expose themselves to the devastating force of the Intruding Star and the pernicious vibrations of the beings of the shadows.

In the present age, human beings live for material achievements.

Brothers, we foresee a painful future, widely announced to you by the prophets of old and modern visionaries. Your scientists already attest to the destruction of the planet and its humanity by the actions of human beings themselves.

If you cannot prevent your brother from remaining on the path, seek to launch yourselves into renewal, because no one can carry out tasks of progress for someone else.

The actions that determine evolution are responsibility of each creature. The effort to make progress is arduous and demands sacrifices.

The Law of Progress is implacable and those who have not reached higher vibratory bands will not remain on this planet.

They will be summarily transferred to a similar orb that is compatible with their rebellion.

The path is serving Christ in order to evolve.

Hail, the Force of Light!

67. THERE IS NO WAY TO STOP THE PLANET’S DEATH

Clairvoyance: I see one of the Guardians of Light and Love City who takes me to travel through the Amazon Rainforest. The landscape is very sad.

Extensive areas have been devastated. The place looks like a large bruise on the Earth’s surface.

The forest seems sad, withered and sick.

Afterwards, we went to a place with ancient trees, gigantic trunks, and crystal clear springs. I don't know if it was on the surface or inside the planet.

Then, she spoke:

Brothers, I greet you in the name of the Planetary Christ!

Dense clouds surround the Earth and prevent the planet from breathing. The ducts through the orb, carrying the lymph of life, are obstructed by garbage and contamination from human presence.

The negligence of the creatures allowed the expansion of the Realm of Evil, which takes over, with its destructive arm, everything that is alive and can suck its vital sap.

The forests, once so exuberant, agonize in the face of bloody feuds to have them not to preserve them. They tear them from the land, making it arid and converting the life of the forest into material consumer goods.

The damage to human and wildlife is incalculable.

Rivers dry up contaminated by human fury, revealing parched riverbeds, rotting animals and garbage.

The Earth agonizes and its song of pain generates the revolt of the less evolved beings and joy of the dark ones.

There is no longer any way to stop the death of the planet that, like a Phoenix, will be reborn to the peaceful life of the New Age.

Brothers awakened to the Light, vibrate in love for the Earth, alleviating its pains.

Remember that you are children of the Earth and must love it.

The "tentacles of Shadows" try to destroy it, thinking they have it; However, the Light that never goes out may shine with greater intensity at the dawn of the New Earth, surprising all those who are unaware and think they have achieved victory over domination.

Hail Divine Jesus.

68. THE INTRUDERING STAR WILL NOT CRASH WITH THE EARTH AS MANY THINK

We bring you friendly greetings from the stars.

The Earth's time is short, as you can see. Events confirm the predictions we made to you in the past time. Once again, we come to you, renewing our vows of work and strengthening the bonds of friendship that unite us in this spiritual family.

Within your reach, the redemptive work extends. Many are called, but few can be chosen to serve, because many are unprepared and others are scattered by frivolous material interests.

Peace, sincere love and brotherhood among men are not valuable commodities, and therefore do not mobilize the strength of inhabitants of this planet, who could change everything if they were given the spiritual vision that we have of the orb. Their energies quickly fade away.

All orbs have an energetic charge, similar to the vital charge of living beings. At the end of a planetary cycle, this charge of energy ends and another begins renewing the vital forces of that world, indirectly preparing the cradle for the new humanity that will develop there. This will also be the case on our beloved Earth. It fades away, struggling in the final throes of its cycle, but in the depths of its essence, a new charge is preparing to erupt.

Only human beings with a vibratory affinity to the new earthly essence will be able to inhabit it, standing upright and again shall work on the construction of the buildings that will house the new race, the new people. The differences will be noticeable, since, in the New Earth, there will no longer be the discomfort of the unstable climate, nor the suffering and pain present on the current Earth.

There will no longer be violence in the perpetuation of life, and everyone will be invited by the Greater Father to collaborate with the existence of the whole, giving, not of their bodies, but rather of their efforts in joint cooperation, to maintain the cycles of planetary life.

A lot of water, liquid crystal, will be at your disposal and will be the main food of the beings, inhabitants of the renewed Earth.

The strong and intense light of the Sun will renew the cycles, sustaining the chemical balance of the maintenance of life.

Unconcerned about survival in constant struggles, people will be able to dedicate themselves to the regeneration of their souls, aiming at a future of angelic asceticism.

This is the Earth that awaits you, gentle and serene, in every way different from the one that is in its death throes today. However, until you reach it, lots of tears will shed, because of the separation that will increasingly distance human hearts, and with each new day, creatures will recognize themselves less and less as human.

The animal force lives among you, dominating many beings, and shall dominate many more, since they voluntarily surrender themselves to the service of the Beast, releasing their abundant and unruly instincts into emotions in disarray.

They are minds driven by matter. The human mind is a high creation, and yet human beings have not reached the splendor of this divine creation.

Evolution has led you to conditions of high mental capacity, but not to subdue instincts and passions, but to dominate them and guide them in an appropriate manner, using their driving force in the progress of their own soul.

The great majority did not achieve their initial purpose and now find themselves completely dominated by their own passions.

The thought-forms of repeated emotional compulsions gain strength and life, fed by the astral field, bathed in negative forces, whose polarities no longer find any reversal possibility.

Those who voluntarily drag themselves into this field of animalistic existence will find it difficult to be rescued, as they have strongly attached themselves to the retrograde forces existent on this planet. They will inevitably be dragged by the magnet of the Sanitizing Star is rapidly approaching you.

The Sanitizing Star will not collide with the Earth as many think; however, as it moves, it will cause great disturbance, cleaning the Planet's surface. It shall remove the inferior magnetic field that covers it, taking with it all the spirits in tune with its strength. Before that, you and us will gather the brothers who desire change, who believed in the existence of a life above earthly sensations, in a life devoid of immediate interests and dedicated to spiritual activities, because the spirit is eternal.

On our spaceship, we have already detected that the vibratory frequency of beings in this positive range is much lower than initially predicted.

The planet is saturated with perverse entities that greatly influence those who have not yet made up their minds.

Those who have already chosen the path to follow are currently finding it difficult to advance amidst the enraged mob. However, I am addressing not only this Group, but all our brothers and sisters who work for the Light, present on the planet, that you must redouble your efforts in overcoming difficulties, so that a greater number of confused brothers and sisters can awaken and join the ranks of the workers and warriors of the Light.

"Traps" are spreading everywhere. Dark traps that aim to trap the workers of good; but also in large numbers, traps of Light are emerging, aiming at capturing and deport dark spirits, especially "leaders" who incite violence. More and more, the disorder installed in the battlefields of the planet is favoring the rise of highly prepared leaders and their coexistence among you will greatly worsen the situation of your societies.

These are spirits devoid of any higher human vibration; cold and calculating, they have only one goal in their minds: to destroy the Forces of Light. So, they will do everything to reach the workers, because this is their purpose.

In addition to taking care, all of you, beloved workers, children of the Light, must dedicate yourselves, body and soul, to your spiritual tasks, surrendering yourselves into the Hands of the Father, accepting with resignation, any and all pain and suffering that may be imposed upon you. All weapons will be used in to stop your steps. Once again, I emphasize that I am addressing all the beloved children of Christ who work in the name of the Light, and not only this Group.

The more the trumpets of war sound, the more you must take care to alert those around you, with unconditional love.

Love that expects nothing in return and is free to continue, even if the dear ones do not wish to follow you. It's true that many beings will ask: should we leave behind those we love so much? And we will tell you: it is right to make progress, for this is the Law.

Everyone has the freedom of choice. It is necessary to clarify and guide, but it is not mandatory to delay the steps, because this time it is not a common incarnation, like there have been so many others throughout the 28 thousand years of the planetary cycle.

The one you are currently living is the "key incarnation", of spiritual definition, and therefore should be seen as such. The choice made at this time will not only have repercussions on the next incarnation, but on the whole of humanity to which the creatures who made their choices are directed. This incarnation that you are living is therefore different. For many, the matter is still not clear, because believing, through doctrinal precepts stagnant in time, that one incarnation will be succeeded by another of equal weight and measure, they forget, or have never known, that this cycle ends and a new cycle will begin, with different characteristics from those of today.

Do not worry about those who laugh at you, with the discredit of the majority, even if they think the statements we bring you are crazy. Time, which is getting faster and faster, will gradually prove each of these statements.

To the attentive worker whose faith is greater than his reason and who walks side by side with it, there is no need for proof and his steps are determined by the friendly words that guide the way.

To those who await proof before deciding which path to follow, it may be too late, because ahead of them the paths may be destroyed by the explosions that, from now on, will be caused by human beings, through bombs, or by nature itself, through the collisions of tectonic plates and volcanic force.

Your planet is entering its final cycle, dying and being reborn.

May Jesus, infinitely good and just, guide our steps in our friendly work.

I leave you on peace, but I remain with you in love.

69. THE EARTH NO LONGER SINGS IN ITS ROTATING MOVEMENTS

We send you, fraternal greetings, earthlings, wishing you peace in all planetary quadrants and also in your hearts!

The Earth, in its rotating movements, no longer sings.

From its wounded body, the sounds produced are more like the crying of someone suffering the death throes of a life that is ending.

There is no longer any return to the primary condition of health of the planet, as when it was delivered to your humanity.

Life of the orb was granted you by the Father as a greater gift so that you could evolve, sanitizing your own bodily morphology through the salutary fluidic emanations, freed from the earthly body. However, not only have you neglected the necessary cleansing of your spiritual bodies, but you have also mortally wounded the one that was created and given to you as a source of redemption and renewal of your lives.

The time has come when you will also cry, and your cry, as humanity, will echo in space and be engraved in your souls wherever you go, because the Divine Plan has been diverted by improper and inappropriate behavior and by infractions committed against the Major Law.

For this planet, there is no return to health. Suffering will ravage the Earth and its humanity until the end. Only after the last negative element has been eliminated will a new stage be reborn for a new cycle of existence.

Clean and sanitized, your Earth will enter the “dimensional portal”, no longer accessible to primitive and backward minds. Only the children of Earth who go through the cleansing process will be able to develop the superior qualities of souls, once again through this planetary cradle, beginning a new song of peace and fraternity among the beings who inhabit the new Earth.

Until the happy hour arrives, we recommend that the consciences surrendered to the paths of no return renew themselves while there is time, understanding that life in matter is fleeting.

From space, spirits and beings from many places, attracted by the sounds of pain emitted by your planet, work incessantly to assist in the necessary transformation.

No word of warning and preparation will be pronounced in vain, for it will be sent toward the hearts and minds of those who need to renew themselves, for there they will germinate, even in the distant future, serving as an example of the Father’s Goodness and the Plan of Creation.

We greet you in the name of the Light, grateful for the reception of your minds and hoping that the energies generously offered by the Planetary Christ may allow the progress that is urgently needed in this moment of trials.

70. Verticalization of the Earth's Axis

Greetings, earthlings!

We come to you in projection, addressing in person some thoughts that occur to us at this moment of dissemination. Lots of beings believe that we are inciting fear and panic among men and, thus disbelieve our communications. Others go so far as to consider us terrorists spreading terror among men. Isn't hatred enough to bloodshed of our brothers and sisters for you to understand that we are at service of the Divine Governor of your planet, the Beloved Jesus?

We do not establish panic among you, but hope of a new life, attending to the objective for which you were created: "love for one another". You are brothers and sisters, and therefore, there are none among you who are privileged or despised by the Father Creator.

Everyone who hear our words and welcome them into their hearts must take action, spreading our ideas among your people, with faith and courage. This is an act of charity and deep love for our brothers and sisters, and not terrorism, as so many think.

These are minds disturbed and deluded by density of the matter.

Raise your minds and hearts to the height so that you can see beyond and be free.

Walk toward the Light and spread the same strength and energy that reaches you around you.

Become aware of what is happening on Earth, because you are equally responsible for the enlightenment and support of so many others who are still ignorant. Then, activate within yourselves the dynamo of progress and walk toward a new, renewed, transformed world. A world of peace and sincere love among creatures.

Brief is our communication, however, we are at your disposal to clarify questions that seem important to you in the process of understanding and work, to which you are invited at this time.

Question: When will the verticalization of the imaginary Earth's axis occur?

Answer: The Master has already told you: "Only the Father knows the day and the hour."

All those who are in tune with the Higher and with the work and teams of rescue on the planet will notice that the final events have arrived.

Question: We, who are imbued with this task of study, even with our small capacity for understanding, if we continue in this effort that we have made for learning, will we have the opportunity to be warned with considerable advance notice?

Answer: In the same way that you are warned when your understanding deviates from the Laws of Progress dictated by the Higher. However, you often do not hear the voice of your conscience calling for renewal. The moment of verticalization of the imaginary axis of your planet will not be a secret to any creature. However, only those who are renewed within themselves will perceive the signs, vibrating at a frequency that allows them to tune into the minds of the workers of Light, tireless brothers who, despite their refusal to be accepted as peaceful workers, will remain by your side until the final stage of the rescue and repopulation of the Earth is completed.

We greet you in the name of the Light, leaving you to reflect on the words that were spoken this afternoon. Believe us, they are words of clarification, guidance and a call to renewal and work. They are filled with the sincere love that we have for the inhabitants of your planet.

We are all brothers, guided by the loving mind of Brother Jesus-Sananda.

I leave you on Peace of the One who created us.

Fraternal greetings.

Ashtar Sheran, 02/25/2006

71. END OF THE TIME

Brothers!

We have brought the message of a life that will be lived in love, peace, and forgiveness of offenses.

I walk among you offering the greatest message capable of keeping the eternal flame, the Father's Spark burning in each of my brothers.

The time of this humanity on Earth is coming to an end. Although I was the Way, the Truth, and the Life, they did not follow me.

The Earth created with the purpose of offering you the opportunities you deserve, as beloved children of the Father that you are, finds itself in planetary imbalance.

The first sign will come from the death of little innocent beings who will fall lifeless to the ground.

This is the first sign that I bring you understand that the times are ending.

Other two other signs I bring when a new time arises, so that they may be blown to the wind and reach those who can be reached.

Do not worry too much about the “blind” and the “deaf” ones that have already had their opportunities to awaken.

Strengthen the courage, strength and discernment in the awakened hearts, so that their eyes and ears do not close to My Presence, so that they believe and accept humbly, with resignation, the “Enough” that arises from the Father and so that they serve as instruments of help and assistance to those who have interrupted their journey, stopping in the mud and in pain.

All who have chosen the path illuminated by the Major Love will be united and sustained by the loving force of extraordinary spirits who are busy with the transition of this planet.

The Dimensional Portals open and the final cycle of the Transition has begun.

This sign that I bring you will come from the sky, from the death of the little birds.

I will bring you two more for you to spread.

The Father protects you. Be good children and heed His command.

Love your neighbor as if you were loving yourself, and do not forget to love God above all things.

*Jesus Sananda,
Festival of Wesak, 05/23/2005*

72. BROTHERS AND SISTERS, LOVE ONE ANOTHER, AS THE FATHER LOVES YOU

Hail Jesus, the Master of Light!

Long ago, the seed of love was sown in the hearts of the earthly creatures.

Most of the seeds found arid ground and passed away.

Others found cold and hypocritical hearts, where the seeds germinated, but were unable to take deep root in this sandy and uncertain terrain.

A small part of the seeds found fertile and plowed ground. There they germinated and took deep root.

The dry and arid hearts will be launched for new plantings in other spheres of the universe, and these creatures will be plowing in terrain similar to that of their hearts.

Those with sandy hearts, hypocrites and indecisive people will find themselves trying to cultivate the crops of faith in lands compatible with their ambition.

Only a small group of kind hearts, humble workers, whose faith allowed the seed to germinate, cultivating a beautiful garden, will be able to reap the fruits of evolution.

Out of control, earthly humanity can no longer maintain itself. The sparks, created to evolve, get lost along the way, because they do not allow the seed of love sown in their hearts to sprout and lead them to higher spheres.

Only the love awakened in the depths of each creature will propel them to ascending progress.

Nothing else matters to the creature who loves, except to awaken other creatures to love.

Love is charity, it is forgiveness, it is giving.

Does anyone want to give themselves for love? Few believe in the power of love that transforms everything, breaking down the barriers of infinity.

Love one another, brothers, as the Father loves us. My sisters, you have already understood the meaning of love and you have been struggling with benevolent work to awaken the sleeping consciences to love, out of unconditional love for the Father.

Continue to perfect your souls through arduous struggles on both planes of life.

The Loving Master Jesus gave us His adorable example of love and work, of unconditional giving to others.

We continue with Him and for Him, along the tortuous paths of awakening our brothers and sisters and of our spiritual asceticism.

Love one another, my brothers, as the Father loves us.

John of the Apocalypse

73. JESUS SPEAKING TO MANKIND

Clairvoyance: I began to see a strong light growing in size and intensity. It seemed to be already present in the place, but it was becoming increasingly denser, taking the form of light, so that I could distinguish it from the rest. Later, when it was already quite dense, from a certain point, other small focuses of Light began to individualize themselves, starting from the first. They were much smaller, but they also shone.

The emotion I sensed was indescribable, a mixture of admiration, veneration and sweetness. I then noticed that the focuses of Light were the projections of Master Jesus and His Apostles. Enveloped in the soft light of His Presence, I heard the following words:

Come to me!

I am the Flame that, once lit, never goes out.

No one goes to the Father, but through Me, who I am Love.

All is peace in My Presence and nothing can shake you.

Of all that you know, nothing is more valuable than the love I devote to you.

I Have watched over your steps since your embryonic existence was still in the subtlest planes.

In all the lives that you have lived, I have guided you.

When you made mistakes, falling into the putrid mud, the perfidious quagmire of the soul, I was by your side, patiently waiting for your voice to cry out to Me. I made sure that the period would be brief, the final effort to rise above worldly miseries.

When, finally, you decided to walk, I went ahead of you, lighting your path so that you would not fall again.

In vain, there were many voices and efforts, because in spite of Our Presence, how many successive falls you had. And each time, there I was, again, waiting for you.

Now, I am with you and, using the Father's Magnanimous Goodness, I reach you through words that speak directly to your minds. Can you hear Me?

I have been transmitting My teachings for a long time. Have you followed Me?

Look, poor sick people, and see how contaminated your robes are. Soon, you will be invited to the great feast and how will you show up wearing such clothes?

Purify it, giving value to what it really has. Love one another.

Undo hatred, put aside differences, cultivate joy, so that, recovered from the dark night, you may enter the dawn of a new day, free from the vile memories and unpleasantness of the past.

I was, I am and I will be with you.

For the love of you, I made Myself present in the flesh and, for love, I remain among you.

I am all love for you, so that you may be transformed into pure love, the crystalline source of your eternal monad.

Here I am at your side. Give Me your hands and follow Me.

Let us go together towards the stars. You are beloved brothers and I will always watch over you.

- At that moment He turns to the Heights and says:

Jesus's plea to the Father for Humanity

Father, I beg you for these men and women. Their children and old people are crying. There are those who are sick in body and sick in soul. They are eternally suffering, when the path is all light.

I ask you for a little more time, Lord of the Worlds. A few are listening. I speak to them with all love and I believe they will know how to hear My words and understand their meaning.

They will kneel down before Your Greater Presence. Give them, once again, the generous opportunity. Oh, Infinite Love!

In Your Presence, I place My Little Will and I surrender My Strength to You.

May Your Will be done above all things. Oh, Eternal Love!

Jesus Sananda 02/13/2004

74. YOU ARE LIVING THE TIME DECISIVE FOR YOUR SOULS

Peace in Jesus, the Greatest Master.

Waves of violence and lack of love are growing uncontrollably on Earth.

Humans feel oppressed, without knowing why.

A pressure that cannot be defined in words, but in the explosion of animal instincts that come to the of the soul, attracted by the intense inferior magnetism of the aura of the gigantic Cleaner Planet.

“The bestial forces of the abyss”, released, also attracted by the same magnetism of today, enrich themselves with the inferior human instincts.

Christ Jesus is the refreshment of all souls who follow Him sincerely.

Souls whose hearts are already flickering with the silvery light of love, allowing divine protection to take place, making them impervious to the intense negative pressure.

To these courageous souls are left with the Herculean task of helping others, distributing light and fraternal help, which guarantees them the security to continue, in the name of Jesus.

The time you are living in is decisive for your souls.

Do not hesitate, do not let yourselves be carried away by the reigning madness!

Only in the love of Christ will you find energy necessary for your balance now.

We continually send waves of energy-light that guide, supply and heal you around you; even so, your bodies suffer, your souls cry out for peace.

Only when love comes in unison from all hearts, through one people, one nation, one God, you will find the desired peace.

We are carrying you within our hearts.

I leave you on peace.

Hail Jesus, the Master of Peace and Light!

Commander Yury, 11/07/2003

Note: Dear readers, see how much kindness, love and tenderness emanate from the words uttered by a Being that has no form, for it is pure light: "We are with you, bringing you within our hearts."

.....

75. YOU ARE EXPERIENCING THE PLANETARY TRANSITION

Clairvoyance: After the mantra, I see Commander Ashtar Sheran standing behind Mrs. Margarida. He says that one of his bodies will remain with her this week, due to the intense and ferocious attacks she will receive. I then see an intense ball of fire, or something similar, coming from the depths of the abyss toward her.

Then came the communication:

Hail Jesus! Hail the Light!

My sisters, we have told you for a long time that you are experiencing a "planetary transition" and that it would be one of pain and suffering, intense struggles and battles.

It is at this time that enemies and tormentors meet for the final settlements, each one deciding whether to be on the right or the left of Christ, as wheat or as weeds.

The encounters occur among all the inhabitants of the Earth.

Many go mad; others allow themselves to be dominated. Still others hide behind the illusion that "it will end".

A few ones, like you, recognize the importance of the moment and fight to change themselves and face the enemies of the past as brothers in need of enlightenment, but who, for their own good, must be fought and defeated.

The struggles in the material world intensify under the leaden weight of the negative atmosphere that surrounds the Earth.

The fierce struggles in the astral planes do not cease and the transition advances. And when you least expect it, you will be surprised by the "new dawn".

Fill yourselves with faith in the One who can do everything and in His Loving Son who guides the destinies of all on Earth.

There are many of us guiding and protecting you, towards the victory of Light over Shadows, freeing the planet from the black clutches of evil.

Hail Jesus.

Nefertiti, 10/24/2003

76. ABOUT THE THREE DAYS OF SHADOWS AND RESCUE

Hail Jesus, the Greatest Master who guides our path!

Sisters, disciples, friends, beloved daughters.

In these days, humanity commemorates two thousand years since the Master's torture, when He passed through the Earth.

Up to now, human beings have not learned to practice even the least of His magnanimous teachings. They have transformed the planet into a great battlefield, where the "forces of evil" use, as much as they want, the unwary minds that only think about material security. They have forgotten that the spirit is immortal, needing special attention to evolve and transform itself.

They throw grand parties and humiliate the little ones who live in their slums, day after day, with no prospects of a better future. However, within these humble hearts, the Light of the Master is already rooted. These, yes, will be great in spirit, while those who dress in gold will still have a long way to go before they can remove the enormous weight that their spirits carry.

This small group (GESH), which could be very large, but when it was large did not have as much strength as it does today, has been cleaning up a large part of the astral, transforming the immense fields, previously inhabited by Shadows, into areas suitable for the new planting of the future, of the Renewed Earth.

In last night's battle, the objective was fully achieved, and the great "thought-form" was destroyed.

Those who were imprisoned in its womb were freed and sent to help, according to the situation of each individual.

Master Jesus blesses you and we bless you too.

Do the sisters have any questions?

Question: Regarding the three days of shadows, will they be before or after the rescue? We would like to know in more detail.

Answer: Many people who should not have to go through the suffering of those days of shadows are gradually being rescued. Until that moment, many of them will be sent to help, according to their vibration.

Those who have to go through those days of horror - and that will be the majority of people - and deserve to be rescued, will be rescued after the days of shadows, in the new phase that will be installed on Earth.

After the three days of shadows, when terror will dominate the unbalanced minds, many people who, until then, doubted the existence of God, will definitively make their choices (right or left of Christ).

After the return of the light, with chaos installed, those who survive will have intense struggles in the difficult new beginning, however, the tests they must pass will be the passport to redemption.

After a period of intense madness spread over the globe, the Earth's axis will become vertical, however, before this inclination, "the final redemption" will come.

- Thank you, dear Brother. Now that we have advanced a little in knowledge, everything has become clearer.

Shama Hare: May the Force of Light envelop all of you, beloved little daughters, keeping you on the difficult path that is the trajectory in the physical body, in these days of struggle. May the Light guide your souls so that you remain on the redemptive path that you voluntarily sought.

Hail Jesus! Hail, the Force of Love!

May the peace envelop this planet!

Shama Hare

77. WITH EVIL THERE IS NO PEACE, ONLY FEAR

Hail Jesus, Divine Messenger of Peace!

How much more will this humanity want to suffer in order to recognize the words of the Gentle Rabbi and turn back from evil?

How many more children will they have to see lost in evil, to recognize the Light?

There are no longer physical walls, prisons that contain evil, violence, because, like a great octopus, its tentacles have expanded to such an extent, invading the entire planet that barriers no longer exist. Even those trained to defend the population are part of these tentacles, acting for Evil (Referring to the "rotten band" of the police, politicians and justice).

With Evil there is no peace, only fear.

With Evil there is no love, only hate, desire for revenge, power and domination.

All this is intensified by the magnetic aura of the planet (the Intruding or Cleansing Star) that is approaching Earth at high speed. However, it will not physically collide with the planet. The Earth will not be destroyed, only a profound transformation may occur, which will make it reborn clean and victorious.

From the depths, more and more dirt emerges, which for many millennia has been depositing itself in the puddles, swamps and planetary abysses of the astral.

The Army of Good has grown and expanded, undermining the bases of the Dark Commands, which believe they are solidly rooted and secure.

The Divine Plan continues as conceived by the evolved minds, no matter how much the perverse and proud minds think they are the powerful of the world. Mere illusion!

Your bodies are tired, because you have been working exceptionally hard. As you well know, your various bodies are divided and active in various situations, without rest. You receive extra energy charges so that you can keep them firm and healthy, and you will remain that way as long as you are willing to remain an integral part of this army, the Army of Light.

The Light continues to shine intensely on the planet, supplying the energy reservoirs so that they can continue to cleanse the densest levels with ever greater intensity and acceleration. The manifestation of the Forces of Good closer to the Centers of Light becomes more difficult every day, but never doubt this loving presence with you, because it is this strength and this Light that sustain you at all times on this journey.

It is always pleasant to be with you and it is always a joy to be with you.

Margarida: Is our dear brother Yury who is among us?

Yury: Yes, in projection.

Margarida: We have missed you very much. You know how much we love and venerate you, not only you, but all our Elder Brothers, with great respect and affection.

We also know and trust in the energy that you give us, but as you told us a little while ago, our bodies are suffering due to the unfolding, especially my physical body, which is quite worn out. There is this resentment clear due to the very adverse climate, as well as the constant fighting, but, as long as the Father gives us energy and health, there will always be a great joy of serving Him and of living. We will always be ready and we will not disappoint our Mentors and Guides, spiritual friends and older brothers who trust in all of us.

Yury: During this period in which you are fulfilling a work, which is a stage of a great battle, some of your bodies remain descending in increasingly dense levels, in abysmal regions and will not return until the battle is over.

They return only to “Aid Stations” that exist on the descent and there they are supplied with energy coming from Above. Then, they continue descending, increasingly, until the point where they must cleanse – through fights, battles and confrontations – to rescue the bestial beings that live there.

Margarida: Do you mean that we have been in this work for days with our bodies unfolded, since that first stage?

Yury: Yes, and you will still have to face two more stages until the end of this battle.

Margarida: We will face it with much love and courage. I speak for myself, for my companions and for other people from GESJ who are engaged in this great task. I affirm, once again: we will not disappoint you.

Yury: We understand and comprehend, because we know the most intimate fiber of your being and that we can always count on you, because you are fearless, courageous and have faith.

Margarida: Indeed, because it was we who, over the millennia, also helped to “dirty” the Earth. This task is very much ours!

Yury: Nothing more fair than that you clean it up now. It is the Law of Cause and Effect.

You must remain united, because the bonds that unite you are strong, powerful and you were prepared even before you were born, as you well know.

After the Wesak Festival, which will take place this weekend, you should start the diet you are already familiar with, free of animal products that could harm you during this stage of your descent.

Margarida: We appreciate the warning and will follow the recommendations.

Yury: May God bless you all!

Margarida: So be it!

Yury: Our presence is constant and uninterrupted in your hearts, for you are our beloved children. I leave you on peace.

Margarida: So be it! Our joy is great, for despite being small and imperfect, such evolved Brothers of such a high spiritual hierarchy love us and watch over us. We have no words to express our love and gratitude.

78. I HAVE SEEN SAW WITH THE EYES OF THE SOUL

Clairvoyance 1: dry weather - I saw fields of wheat on fire sprouting from the roots of the plants. The sky was covered in smoke and many people were running from one side to the other, trying to contain the fire, but they were unable to do so.

Clairvoyance 2: Flood - Then I saw a huge mass of ice break off from a glacier and fall into the sea. It was as if a mountain had split in half, the block of ice that had broken off was so big. The waters of the oceans rose and several areas were flooded. One thing caught my attention: in the place where the block had broken off, a green area appeared.

Clairvoyance 3: War - I see wars, bomb attacks, many people injured and dead. Chaos had taken hold of the world, accompanied by much sadness and pain.

Then came the message:

Ah! Little children, you cry out for the “end of times”, for renewal, for the concrete hope of a New Age! You cannot imagine how vile are the hearts broken by material comforts.

They cling to this existence as if it were their last, where their most intimate desires could be satisfied. They eat gold, drink blood and do not have, like you, a profound knowledge of the truth of life.

If you knew well the depths of these thousands, millions of hearts that suffer, but take pleasure in suffering, because for them this is the materialized illusion of life. You too would beg the Father for mercy and beg for a little more time for these ignorant people to awaken.

Like Jesus, you would fertilize and irrigate these hearts, in one more attempt to see the sincere desire for transformation germinate there, calling them to Divine Consciousness.

Tied to the bonds of illusion, tied to the service of external contemplation, they did not realize that the Earth that was offered to them for the cultivation of union, consolation, love and peace, still remains sterile today.

Having lifted the veil of ignorance from their spiritual eyes, they did not seek study, knowledge, transformation. They ignore the Divine Laws; they ignore the Holy Gospel of Jesus who is your dedicated Tutor.

Ah! Little children! I saw with the eyes of my soul the sad end!

I saw the pouring of the angelic bowls and heard the fury of the trumpets announcing the awakening of the forces dormant in the abysses.

I saw the serpents, I saw the waters and the fire.

I saw and heard the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.

I saw the Shadows extinguishing the Light of your sky.

I saw insanity invade streets and unwary homes.

If you knew how your prayers and the selfless and selfless work of any reward think illuminates the dark and cold tombs of the prisoners of the abyss, you also would pray to the Father for more time and, thus, doubling the work, free from the millenary bonds brothers who, drowned in blood, power and revenge, have allowed themselves to be numbed by the illusory vision of this earthly existence.

Beloved, we are with you in yet another battle, which, as you well know, will not be like the others. It brings with it many more difficulties and the pressure you will suffer will be greater than all the trials you have gone through up until now. Jesus be with you! Peace!

John the Evangelist 02/22/2002

79. THE SIGN WILL COME FROM THE EAST

Hail the Light of the East! Hail, the Love of the West!

Dear brothers! Your planet of trials and expiations has suffered greatly from the actions and attacks of intergalactic beings of low morals. They want the Earth itself since their home planets have long since been extinguished under the purifying fire of blessed mercy, turning into cosmic dust in infinite space.

Without a homeland, they offer knowledge, technology and power in a patient attempt to dominate. They hope to see Earth beings destroying themselves on the surface and, while they watch everything, they await the crucial moment of their actions: the extermination, "The Sweep", as they call this operation. They hope to see human beings disconnected and expelled from this planet by them.

They want the Earth and you, Earthlings! Despite all the warnings and alerts, you have not protected your Home as you should have. You have exchanged safe assistance, patient evolution, care, clarification and knowledge from the Brothers of Light, Love and Wisdom, for the techno-social science of amoral politics.

You could not wait for assisted evolution; You wanted to go further, skipping important stages of moral-social and intellectual learning, instead of evolving through the interconnected competition of science, morality, Light and Love.

The invasion conspiracy was carried out in deep caverns in the Earth's subsoil, where brotherly beings, using their destructive and selfish will, subjugated the evolving beings. They preferred to feed the pain and increase the weeping and gnashing of teeth, instead of fostering Peace.

You will receive the wheat of your harvest or you will receive the tares of your careless planting. Today, the separation is fair, because the mixture of beings (tares and wheat) makes this action difficult, given the high power of influence of those allied with the Shadows. They propagate their theories in accordance with their interests, confusing the unwary minds.

It is necessary to fight against the blatant attack, which every day becomes more visible and closer to you. The most difficult times are yet to come and, as has been said many times, the sign will come from the East, and this is already being sensed.

Be alert, unite your hearts with the thousands of hearts that long to see peace, unity and universality definitively established on Earth and to exile the perverted, fallen and homeless invaders from here, who will receive from the Father the chance for a new beginning, on a planet lovingly prepared for them, which will allow them to purge all hatred, vice, pride and arrogance.

Do not let scape this opportunity again, and may the difficulties only add to the development of morality and the spirit of solidarity.

May this Earth be a Promised Land!

May this Earth be a land of regeneration!

Hail the Light of the East! Hail the Love of the West!

80. WE ARE EXILED BEINGS

Behold, I bring you, as an offering of Light, the certainty that you are with Jesus, who is with you too.

Thousands of years later, and, since then, you have been developing on the Earth. The dedicated following up that we have given you since that time, now is beginning to reveal itself, in what predicted the first signs of the long-awaited change, since we brought you here, exiled from other worlds.

Contrary to what many think, not only from “Capela”, as you call it, but also from other worlds came fallen beings, bearers of superior intelligence, however, still weak in moral and love.

Lot of beings left behind extended families, as well as strong bonds of love that, even so, were not enough to prevent their fall.

Likewise, your humanity is now preparing for a new planetary cleansing and transfer. Many of today's fallen ones will find themselves on new and more suitable planets, joining other exiled beings who are already being collected from worlds parallel to this one. This time, however, there will not be as much mixing as we did on this planet.

We will arrange beings of similar vibratory tone, so that each world will be filled only with kindred souls.

In these cases, contacts between dear ones who are separated by the degree of vibration will be established only in the astral body, in the moments of rest for those considered weakened by the fierce struggles they will face. In exile, far from their dear ones, they will be able to reflect and seek God, Source of Infinite Love.

Greater than moral exile and vibrational descent, the voluntary isolation of these souls will represent for each of them a painful, slow and obligatory climb towards progress.

Therefore, be all of you, announcers of these Messages of Light so that those who still fear or doubt, may believe. Through faith and trust in Divine Justice, they may conquer the right/merit of rightists of God Father.

The exile, in the current situation, of beings who are stubborn in their errors and have already fallen, will represent a test infinitely more painful than the current human mind can evaluate.

Behold, I speak to you and bring these words, in the name of Master Jesus.

On Peace I leave you, greeting you humbly.

Your servant and friend, Vice Commander of Ashtar Sheran.

Setun Shenar
02/09/2001

Explanation: Taking advantage of the opportunity given by Brother Setun Shenar about the fallen beings, we would like to include here a question we asked Commander Yury in another situation, but which is related to the subject.*

Margarida: Why do we like our brothers, the Xavante Indians, so much? Is it because of their role in the intraterrestrial city of Letha, or because of some incarnation of ours as an indigenous person?*

Yury: The fallen beings who currently use this planet for purification were initially grouped together and went through certain stages throughout history as a collective.

The Egyptian pharaohs, and when we refer to the pharaohs, we always emphasize that there are individuals following different paths, but the majority of the pharaohs of Egypt, the group to which you belonged, are reunited once again, after a long journey of work in spirituality, as an indigenous collective reincarnated in what is now your country. Just as you were gathered at that time in ancient Egypt, you were also gathered here as indigenous people.

From there comes the vague memory registered in your unconscious, translated into the affinity that manifests itself in contact with those Xavante people.

Margarida: Thank you, Brother, for the revelation. We have great affection for those little brothers with whom we made contact and became friends.*

Yury: We recommend that your questions be recorded and deposited in a nearby place, so that you can clarify them whenever possible in our contact, because given the extreme increasing density on your planet, the projection of our messages becomes increasingly laborious, dispensing a lot of energy.

Margarida: So that there may be communication?

Yury: Yes. I brought you Peace, I leave you Peace and immersed in Peace.

Commander Yury

81. STRUCTURES OF EVIL WILL COLLAPSE

Clairvoyance: I see human beings, deformed, horrible. Giant dogs with huge, sharp teeth, open mouths, drooling. True beasts.

Then came the message:

In the desert regions in the astral plane of the Earth's, Arabs and Jews, beings who disincarnate violently, with their hearts filled with hatred and revenge, end up acquiring animalistic, bestial forms and instigate violence, hatred, and the bloodshed of two peoples who hate each other.

These human beasts, commanded by the Hidden Government of Evil, will not rest while this empire lasts. We know that this is still permitted by the will of the Greater Father.

In that place (Middle East) is the underground base of the Hidden Government of Evil, which although "rooted", will be painfully torn out, in a bloody and painful birth.

The GFBU (Great Universal White Brotherhood) and all the Warriors of Light associated with it are gathering to begin the rapture at that point, which is the darkest place on this planet.

Violence is growing all over the surface of the globe, but in those places, there have been few moments of comfort and peace.

The rotten structures of evil will crumble, and the Light, with maximum intensity, will reign throughout the globe.

Brothers, friends, do not wait for gaps between this and that moment of definitive cleansing of the Earth.

You are experiencing planetary cleansing.

Stay connected to the Greater Light of the Father that sustains his followers, humble servants of Jesus.

Peace and love.

Your brother,

Commander Yury

82. STELTA AND PEDRA AZUL

Peace, my warriors!

You were drawn to this region with the purpose of helping us, with your vibrations, in carrying out a rescue - transporting beings who, through the power of prayer and the work of Groups like yours, help in the cleansing of the Earth's astral plane.

These beings who are here, many still numb, will go to the Intruder Planet, which is much closer than you can imagine. In return, generals of Shadows are present here, in a last attempt to gather their own. This area is of great energetic power and here is also one of the openings to the intraterrestrial cities of this region.

There are 7 (seven) entrances. The stone (Pedra Azul-Domingos Martins/ ES) that you see is the mast, a marked point of passage for ships that come from the Himalayas and head to the central plateau of Brazil and vice-versa.

Your senses, now subtler, facilitate our contact a little. If you saw the planet today, you would cry, because it is now blue and beautiful, but now it is gray, black, and smoky, with thought forms that are formed every day at an uncontrollable speed. The human mind is diverted from the beautiful and the sublime to the fantasies of orgies. Sexual energy, which is an extremely important creative energy, is being used to satisfy the most unreasonable desires and insatiable fantasies, which are becoming crueler every day.

One day, Commander Yury said: — When the Earth's police lose control over their criminal offenders and the roles are reversed, the time has come. And from what you are experiencing today, you can say: — It is closer than we expect.

Jesus begged the Father for mercy for you. But the children did not respect the request, they did not know how to absorb the shed by the Master, for you, and, using the condition of freedom that they have, they brought forth even more violence and disbelief. They consider themselves judges of the Earth and believe they have the right to destroy it.

The serious groups are shrinking. The primary condition of a good warrior is discipline, and many do not want to follow this.

I greet you, on behalf of Commander Yury.

Peace.

Ian (Extraterrestrial from Commander Yuri's Planet Patrol Team)

83. THE SHADOWS

I see shadows and gloom. There is an eerie silence in the air.

Everything seems inert and dead.

The world reminds me of a great scene of morbidity and fatal images. It seems that something very serious is happening or has happened, because shadows reign.

They are saying that there will be three days of complete shadows, where nothing and no one outside their homes will be left alive in this scene of horrors. Approximately a third of Humanity will disincarnate in the cold night of the unwary (certainly those who did not heed the divine warnings).

Another third will have difficulty keeping their minds lucid and balanced, in the face of the screams and tumults coming from outside.

Madness and despair will ravage homes. Women, men, young people and the elderly will take their own lives and those of their fellow men during the despair.

Creatures will live through sad moments.

The remaining third will be at the mercy of an Earth devastated by pain, and it will be up to them to help the wounded and afflicted survivors.

Your task will be similar to that of the Apostles who, after the Master's departure, went out to spread the Good News.

You will be walkers through the barren desert of an Earth mortified by inconceivable pain.

You will see scenes of destruction and horror, and in the face of so much sadness, desolation and madness, you must remain serene and imbued with Faith in the FATHER.

Nothing and no one will be left helpless.

Do not refuse to serve at this time. Lots of beings will need your arms and your eyes. Many others will need your soul and your words. The little you have will then be a lot.

At this time, you must reflect on what really matters.

Be walkers from now on, rid yourselves of the vain needs of matter. Dedicate yourselves to serving your fellow man, thus improving the instrumentation that the FATHER will use at the appointed time. I am speaking to you of what I see, because many of us are being recruited as last-minute workers to help and support the countless mass deaths that will occur as best we can.

We are an army of souls in debt, offering ourselves to support the earthly holocaust. Be you the disseminators so that many may prepare themselves and that all of us may be blessed by the Hosts of Light.

84. CRUCIAL MOMENT FOR THE EARTH

I am Nathan greeting you in the name of the FATHER and pray that He grants us peace and harmony in this meeting of ours.

Question: How will the crucial moment of this Orb be like?

Answer: This moment will come when there is no longer any living being on the surface of this planet. The crucial moment, as you say, will be one of cleansing, sterilizing the astral, surface and interior. The seas will stir their waves, the earth will be torn into fissures, blown by winds, hurricanes and typhoons.

Higher temperatures and, on the other hand, lower temperatures. Your terrestrial Sun, which has been warming and giving life to this orb, it is old and is gradually losing its stability.

Its energetic radiations reach you in a way that no longer builds or maintains natural balance, but rather destroys, or rather, cleanses.

Question: What could you tell us about the cracks in the ocean floor?

Answer: The frequent and systemic movement of tectonic plates, combined with war experiments, the saturation of low-vibrational negative energies and thought forms with great explosive power have formed what you, channelers have known for a long time, and your scientists are now beginning to study.

Question: What can earthly scientists do?

Answer: Nothing regarding these cracks. They feel powerless with all the technological and scientific advances. They boasted of being able to predict catastrophes with great advance and precision, and now they are faced with an emergency situation with very little time to act.

Question: Could the Intergalactic Commands in charge of the earthly surveillance not have structured these affected soils?

Answer: Yes. As you know, there are groups that act to neutralize and restructure in some places where an action of this magnitude, devastation and destruction, is not foreseen. However, there are places where the collective karma of its inhabitants requires, as a correction, the corporeal transition through seismic events, such as tidal waves and earthquakes. Man, using his intelligence, decided to conduct atomic experiments at the bottom of the oceans and underground, as if they were safe places to discharge and test his great inventions. Insane experiments that have been carried out for many years.

Question: Will your civilization be affected if a disaster of this magnitude occurs in an area not foreseen by the Divine Plans?

Answer: In terms. All these areas have already been monitored, duly mapped and the teams in charge of this type of action are racing against time. If they are unable to seal all the cracks, an Intraterrestrial Emergency Evacuation Plan is already being set up, because Our scientific community still manages, amidst the chaos they are experiencing to actively act in planetary self-destruction, with their war experiments.

However, our equipment and technology are beyond what you know today as modern, state-of-the-art.

There are people who cannot see beyond the limits of matter and set themselves up as gods, believing that their creations and inventions are more important than their own lives. However, there are people who, in their humility, recognize the sovereignty of the FATHER and gather in prayer, asking for help from those who cannot feel the Light, Peace and Love that the Supreme Divinity gives us.

We thank the FATHER for this fraternal meeting.

I also greet you, in the name of Jesus.

Intraterrestrial Nathan

85. INTRATERRESTRIALS AND OPERATION RESCUE

Warriors of Light!

Many battles have been fought in the millennia of Earth's existence. However, no man has ever seen a battle like the one that will soon be fought among men and spirits. All of you, all of us, will be directly or indirectly involved in this, which will be the greatest and most intense battle that this planet has ever experienced. Everyone is being prepared, according to their possibilities.

While sleeping, energies are transmitted to you through the manipulation of living principles existing in plants. The more your consciousness awakens, the greater the receptivity, consequently the greater the accumulation of strength, that is strengthening of the soul. Believe me, my brothers, you will need every drop of energy that you have.

You, “intraterrestrial brothers”, are tasked with gathering and welcoming beings into your midst, into your dwelling. You know well, you are being prepared for the retreat and intimate coexistence with humans, which will last a long time. They are being guided to raise their vibrations for contact with you and we address these words to you so that the inhabitants of the intraterrestrial cities can prepare themselves for this contact.

Many of our brothers on the surface will not be able to ascend much to the evolutionary stage in which find yourselves; it will be up to you, exercising Christian understanding to receive them without discrimination, accepting the task that falls to you, without fear.

Yury - Commander of the Patrol Planet

Question from an Intraterrestrial: But, if the set of heavy vibrations that they bring contribute to the vibratory descent of our work groups, could this not become, like a virus, an epidemic, within our cities?

Yury: Brothers, it is up to us to practice love, this medicine that cures and prevents the onset of any and all diseases. Fear not! Work and prepare your hearts to love.

At this point in the dialogue, another Being of Light from Yuri's Team speaks up, adding:

"Some techniques will be used to isolate possible viruses brought by humans. Preventive treatment of physical diseases will include the burning of astral residues that may contaminate your cities. Rest assured that the balance within your homes will be continually monitored and guaranteed.

Protecting yourselves from fear and anguish is your duty in this grand rescue operation. Extending our hand is our task and we will do so, certain that, beyond the stars, others will always and unconditionally extend theirs to us."

Commander Yuri's Assistant

Question from an Intraterrestrial: How will we know who, when and how to rescue? We have seen scenes of future events several times and everything will happen very quickly. We have seen many screams and panic, countless deaths all at the same time.

Yury: Your contact will be visual. Each Light worker will be attached to a visual identification device. You will be teleported to the precise location where you will carry out your share of the rescue and will be teleported back, bringing your cargo. At the location, when you establish visual contact, you will notice an identification signal similar to the one you will receive at the time of the operation. This identification will lead you to the rescuable people for whom you are responsible.

Question from an Intraterrestrial: So all contact will be visual?

Yury: Yes.

86. THE EARTH CRIES

Beloved Disciples!

At this moment, I am present among you.

How much pain will be necessary to wake up your brothers?

Nature suffers because of human wickedness.

Birds migrate from one place to another without finding a safe haven to shelter their nests.

Clear waters are hit by all sorts of waste produced by this humanity.

The sky darkens due to the uncontrolled action of minds dominated by ambition.

The soil becomes impoverished and, exhausted, has no strength to make its plant brothers sprout.

Everything has been devastated and destroyed by humans, so far removed from the evolutionary path.

The Earth is crying, but its destiny has already been set.

The Age of Light awaits it and the sacrifice it has undertaken will be rewarded.

It will be flooded by love, warmed by the fire of compassion, cooled by breeze of gratitude and reestablished by affection of friendly hands of brothers from stars.

And you, men, what reward will you receive?

Poor you, little ones!

Your reluctance is holding you back. Your ego and disbelief brings anguish and terror to you. Your souls are wandering because you are unable to see the treasure hidden within you.

You are missing a precious opportunity to be lifted up from deep abysses.

Do not be indifferent to our call.

Let our love rescue your souls.

Let charity purify your bodies.

Let the Light restore your sight.

We love you very much.

Master Ramatis

87. I COME TO WARN YOU

Brothers!

I come from far away. My name is Asjourim.

I come from Alpha Centaurus. I am part of the Council of Extra-Planetary Beings who are here for a “periodic meeting” that is taking place in order to be instructed and receive the latest information about the Planetary Transition process.

I have the mission to warn you, because the chaotic situation on your planet will be accelerated in a very profound way.

New diseases and illnesses that were thought to be extinct will decimate a large part of the world's population. Drinking water will reach a minimum limit. Cataclysms, apparently isolated, will make life unsustainable. Much pain will devastate your hearts before the final moment arrives.

These situations of tension that you are already experiencing in some parts of the planet will be multiplied, but humans still do not see the chain. They think that these are isolated situations, referring to distant peoples and places. People will only become aware of the process when the loss reaches their homes. The energies of Light will withdraw from the planet in the most critical period, which will happen in the not too distant future.

You have been informed about this period, when there will be no direct communication with us. You must prepare yourselves internally, strengthen yourselves, and become aware of how difficult the mission will be.

Many of those who claim to believe in the information will cowardly leave the ranks of Good and run in search of shelter, in search of a comfortable situation, which they will not find. Others, desperate, will let fear invade their souls and, trembling, will not be able to access their inner light. Do not let such things happen to you. Those who have already walked, who are ahead, must help their sick, fallen, and desperate brothers and sisters, who will need help and someone to guide them.

Pay attention to the collapse of the economic structures built on this planet: they will collapse, one by one. Barbarism will devastate much of the terrestrial surface. You must learn to live with a minimum. Brothers, you must simply live. Begin your training, accustom your body to little. Make your life as simple and humble as possible. Do not direct your will to acquisitions and acquisitions. Learn to get rid of them, so as not to suffer even more. Learn to divide and save your supplies. It will be a very difficult time for all of you, beings who inhabit the surface of the planet.

Margarida: How long, my brother, will these most difficult days last, until rescue arrives?

Asjourim: We are not authorized to give you periods. Stay alert, sisters. It is not up to us, extra or intraterrestrial beings to establish periods of time, because the dynamics in the transition processes are very great.

We have periodic meetings to update ourselves on the guidelines that must be followed. This was said at the beginning of this message.

Margarida: I brought up this subject because there are people who insist on setting dates, months, etc. Not from our group, but from others we know. I asked this question because, due to the knowledge we have about the facts, we are certain that they will not give us dates.

Asjourim: Everything possible is being done so that the greatest number of people may awaken, and you know that the awakening will happen with the hard suffering that you will go through. The maximum amount of time and opportunity will be given so that you may awaken to the spiritual life and make your choices. However, this period will also represent an increase in agony and pain. Be prepared, with an open heart, and do not hesitate in the face of any difficulty that may arise.

I am also allowed to tell you that all karmic debts will be collected. There must be a readjustment, humanity must be in balance with its debts to the planet. Beings who are in the process of evolution and who want to ascend spiritually must settle all their karmic debts on this planet.

The amount of payment will be great. Do not lament the difficulties, do not cultivate any type of resentment or injustice in the face of the events that will come. Thank the FATHER for the opportunity to rebalance yourself with the Karmic Law, to break the shackles and move forward, leaving the cyclical wheel of purgatorial reincarnations. It takes courage! It is necessary to give back everything you have taken! It is necessary to transcend and elevate yourselves.

The Devas greet you, the Elementals thank you, and we leave you, happy and satisfied to be among you at this time.

88. PLEA OF THE DIVINE MASTER NAZARENE

Margarida`s words

We had not yet completely recovered from our trip to Chapada Diamantina (2nd time) and we were already sailing along the majestic Rio Negro, in the Amazon Region.

How magnificent! Nature imposed itself upon our eyes through its exuberant beauty, reflected in an apparent calm and in its unfathomable mysteries!...

In those days, we sensed very small, both we and the boat, in the face of so much charm and grandeur! The river, with waters so black that it looked like a river of oil; the jungle, with its immense forest as far as the eye could see; the mysterious silence, broken only by voices of wild animals; the blue sky, adorned with clouds from the tallest and whitest, forming strange patterns, to the lowest and darkest, foretelling lots of rain.

And the storm arrived. It hit hard, violently and frighteningly like any self-respecting storm. A completely dark night, unforgettable for all of us, humble travelers in strange lands. On that full moon night, amid lightning, thunder and strong winds, anchored in a stretch of a creek, which more resembled a nest of trees, made to measure, for our boat to sleep in, which exactly like the other times, at 9 pm, He also arrived.

While still fasting - only water for 24 hours - we received a short message from a Being from Venus informing us of the presence of our gentle and beloved Master Kuthumi, our dear Mentor Ramatis.

Words from the Being from Venus

My dear brothers!

The manifested energy of your Master Kuthumi is already among you, enveloping each of his disciples with His Love.

I have come to call upon you, with Unconditional Love, for all creatures, for all beings and for your entire Planet Earth, to let yourselves be enveloped by this pure energy of Love.

May the Blessings of the Greater Father guide you.

Being of Venus
03/31/1999, Rio Negro

Words of Master Ramatis (or Master Kuthumi)

My disciples! Peace in your hearts!

May the Light of Divine Master Jesus illuminate the heart of every man on the Earth.

Only the infinite mercy of a sweet, sublime being of infinite love would be capable of giving such a rare testimony of sacrifice to all men.

Once again, the Divine Nazarene Master begs that new chances of redemption be given to men who constantly turn their backs on Him; But He knows that in the heart of each Being beats the living flame of Universal Light and that the Divine dwells in each being.

Pain have already begun, but He begs that the climax be postponed, even if for a brief moment.

His heart still bleeds from the thorns stuck in it by humanity that insists on not redeeming itself, on not bowing before the higher orders and persists in disorder, in the massacres of its human brothers, animal, vegetable and mineral.

The water springs crystal clear from the springs and is stained, contaminated, by the diseases of the human soul that extend to all existing things on the planet.

Oh, Beings! Do not insist on your mistakes. Reflect on the appeals of the Divine and Beloved Master Jesus.

The Cosmic Essence Creator of the entire Manifested Universe calls upon you to your inner modification and, hand in hand, your evolved brothers, coming from the most diverse points of the Cosmos, are here to extend their hands to you.

Your intraterrestrial brothers with outstretched arms await your decision and your Master Jesus weeps for your inertia. Meanwhile, your body of flesh and material illusion dominate your mind.

You ask for proof, it is given to you and you despise it.

We tell you, at all times, everywhere that you must wake up from this deep sleep that takes you to unfathomable abysses and you insist on turning your backs on us. Endless opportunities have been given to you!

The Divine Master's Plea is always welcome among the Universal Leaders, but this does not mean that you will be exempt from suffering; on the contrary, the period of suffering will be prolonged.

Physical and moral pain will force you to meditate on your choices, on your reluctance to give in to the invitation of the Light.

Through your ducts, which you yourselves have opened, the backward forces enter and use you, human beings, manipulating you, bringing violence to the Universal Laws. These forces spring from the ground, like worms devouring the remains of your material energy.

They want your energy, humanity! And you open your souls to these beings through your personality, which prefers to delay on the path, rather than adhere to the Light.

How incoherent! We will not abandon you, but you must look to the Light and no longer turn your back on universal realities. It is necessary not only to talk about love, but to live it. Even groups of human beings who claim to be emissaries from the High, when the time comes to prove their adherence to spirituality and help their brothers in times of despair and pain, disperse and also turn their backs on us.

When they ask for confirmation and do not see it, they doubt us and also turn their backs on us.

We do not want you to be automatons; we want you to grow, to learn to walk on your own two feet and to meet us, voluntarily.

You will suffer, yes, humanity, because only in this way will awakening come.

You will beg for the cessation of pain and it will continue, because your souls require it! (...)

Note: This message was interrupted here, due to an unforeseen event. Then some instructions were given to the Group and then He closed the session:

(...) "At this moment, I want to envelop you in my Light and Energy. I want to tell you that the Extra-Planetary and Intra-Terrestrial Commands and the Great Fraternity are present and leave their Light to you. Feel Our Energies and envelop yourselves in Our Light.

May the Light of the Nazarene envelop you all."

At one point, a projection of Jesus was seen. He was very sad. A tear was running down His Face.

At another point, they saw Jesus on Calvary. Mary and other women were at His feet, praying.

They also saw the projection of Jesus extending His Hands to us, saying: "I forgive you and I bless you, humanity!"

*It was too much emotion for our poor hearts. continuar aqua

89. MANY BEINGS WILL FAIL THE END-OF-CYCLE-TESTS

Another year of your calendar is about to end and a new year is about to begin.

The events that will come are part of the choices made by men throughout the centuries they have been on the face of the Earth.

The transition is approaching and the direction must be taken more quickly.

During the seven days leading up to the end of this year, on the Earth's calendar, a meeting is taking place in the higher spiritual spheres with the beings representing the various sectors that are leading the planning on the direction that will be given to Operation Earth.

As you know, the planetary situation on the physical world is chaotic; however, its reflection on the spiritual plane is much greater than you can imagine and bear.

All the channels of communication between the beings of the Intergalactic Confederation and planet Earth are very congested. There is immense difficulty in communicating with the minimum level of purity. Advanced technology equipment is used to enable the descent of information and the meeting of channels with the information that is passed on. However, this is just one point.

The mental area of the Earth is saturated and is beginning to expand beyond what is permitted within the Intergalactic Laws.

The degree of destruction and negativity on the astral plane, as well as on the mental plane, is unsustainable.

Shady agreements between various commands of countries on the Earth's surface and the Dark Leagues (Reptilians) are causing a huge imbalance in the already chaotic situation on the planet.

It is important that people who are performing spiritual tasks are aware of these facts and permanently connected with Forces of Light (Confederation) to receive the necessary instructions for the activities that precede Operation Earth, in its final phase.

The plans are being updated every day. All efforts are being made to ensure that the "original Planning" is modified as little as possible. Effort, cooperation and the utmost seriousness are needed in the development of spiritual work, so that groups are not invaded by negative forces.

We would like the message offered to humans at the end of this year to be one of congratulations. However, the only message that can be offered is one of reprimand and warning, because in the tests at the end of the cycle, many will fall.

May you be attentive; may you be alert!

I say good bye on behalf of the Ashtar Command. You will receive more instructions throughout the journey.

Remain in the Peace of Master Jesus!

90. GENERAL WARNING

You must be prepared to hear the sound of the trumpets announcing the Hour. They are already being announced in the celestial Pleiades and will soon reach your terrestrial surface.

My warriors, I call you to the responsibility of urgency.

Many of this group, as well as of others connected to you, have not yet realized the importance of this planetary moment. They still think everything is too distant and cannot imagine being separated from their dear ones.

What are these so-called family ties? How can you associate the term “family” with such a small circle, if the universe is infinite and you certainly have little brothers and sisters of yours spread throughout every corner of Divine Creation? Why do you not also worry about them? Some, like you, are in the same vibratory range; others in higher ranges. But the vast majority are in lower vibrational ranges. Harmed by you who, in other eras, placed obstacles in their evolution, treating them with contempt and violence. You have cultivated hatred in their hearts.

I ask you: Why do you only care about those whom you shelter today in the comfort of your arms, in the comfort of your roof?

Wake up! Wake up!

Be alert, for it will not be long before Michael calls you to the battlefronts of the Light and you must be ready to answer.

Or will you let the weight of indifference weigh on your backs?

Could you bear this?

Then, be alert!

Warn your fellow men, your brothers and begin, if you have not already done so, to “take out of your backpacks” the indispensable!

If you have already classified your priorities, I ask you to redo them and you will see how much uselessness you still carry, how much useless weight you have prepared.

My dear ones, starting in October of this year (1998), you will see more tears and bloodshed. Many things will happen, the signs will intensify and the call to order will be made for those who still insist on covering their ears, blindfolding their eyes and hardening their hearts. You will see the sky open in fire among nations and who knows, you will see blood from your bloodshed in deep sufferings that you think you might not be able to bear.

Take care of your hearts, that is all we ask. Take care that it expands in love for all nations, for all creation.

Take care that all hurt and resentment are eradicated before the final hour.

It is with great sadness that we have to act and see you suffer. It is with hearts overflowing with love and compassion that we will remain by your side until the Hour of the Resplendent Dawn appears. Remember: this year's Christmas will not be a Christmas of celebrations only.

You must make Christ reborn within you, and I tell you: Only Universal and Unconditional Love, combined with selfless work in favor of the Light, will save you.

May God bless you!

Peace in your hearts.

91. MAJOR PLANNING

Peace, on all sides!

Peace also in your hearts!

As has already been said, we greet your arrival in the name of Jesus, who guided your steps to "this meeting" and of HIM who guides you in the performance of the work developed on this planet.

The time of cleansing is approaching and it is necessary that all human beings be warned of the events that will come, even if they do not believe it; but Divine Justice foresees that everyone will be aware of the upcoming events.

All those who wish to help in the work of expanding the Light that must reach all points of the planet are being used for this purpose.

You and the group that you represent here are allies in this sense.

The information received in this and other communications that will be made must remain confidential until the time when they are to be distributed. Precautionary measures within the Greater Planning.

Few beings who inhabit the Earth will be able to receive the information that we have to transmit to humanity.

The majority must be fully prepared to understand the meaning of the planetary transition, not as a divine punishment, but as an opportunity for spiritual ascension and growth.

Unfortunately, millennia lived incarnate have not yet been enough to achieve this objective. An intense stage of suffering is necessary so that those who have not reached the Light may have a new opportunity to reach it, holding on to it, which will propel them into a new cycle of spiritual development.

Your material life greatly limits your understanding of what is already occurring in space, on the spiritual plane, and what will sooner occur among you on the physical world.

You must not be frightened by the increase in the quantity and intensity of violence that will spread across the Earth's crust.

In the time that follows, day after day, atrocities, perversities and cruelties will occur that were never imagined by hard-working minds attentive to Christian Laws. Men, never think for a single moment that the "Divine Presence" is not there helping and organizing the "apparent chaos".

May there be no doubt in your hearts and of those to whom you will take such messages, about the massive presence of Evolved Beings watching over your spirits, over your incarnated souls.

May faith be present in all the adversities that you will face in the coming days, in the coming months. May all creatures recognize that only ONE is WHOM they should revere, greeting Him in the name of the Light and all beings in service of the Planetary Christ, of Master Jesus and His Workers.

The great separation between the wheat and the chaff is underway with the approach of the Cleansing Star that, about to pass over the Earth, sharpens the lower vibrations present in the unvigilant, incautious souls, allowing their manifestation.

Do not excuse or judge; it is the Law of the Force of Attraction acting on all men. Such a force (of the Cleansing Star) would also act within you, if you were not facing another direction. Therefore, may your minds and hearts remain raised to the High, at all times, in the face of all situations of pain, panic and suffering.

Keep always your mind firm, in the belief that Divine Justice prevails, has prevailed and will always prevail on Earth in all events.

Injustice shall never occur.

We are among you guiding your steps.

Peace, in all quadrants! Peace, also, in your hearts

Farewell, in the name of Jesus.

92. PEOPLE OF THE UNIVERSE

Welcome to Metaria!

Welcome to Antares (Antargo)!

Welcome to Zenit!

Welcome to Turtot!

Welcome to Orkan!

Welcome to Stut!

People from other parts of the universe greet the people of Earth!

Our spaceships represent extension of our planets.

We are happy to welcome you to our people for instructions and guidance on how you should proceed during the planetary transition. You, who have received in your hearts the messages we sent you and who have spontaneously established a bridge of mental contact with us, are beginning the work of preparing the population to face the difficulties that are to come.

Our instructions remain in your mental subconscious until the moment when the need calls them back, bringing to the zones of physical memory the procedures that should be adopted to maintain life and help those in need.

Do not be surprised if disconnected memories come to your mind that seem more like a science fiction film that you saw in the past but that, however, you do not remember in detail, as they are reminiscences of the night classes that you have been receiving. Nor should you worry about knowing or remembering what has been happening to you each new night.

While you are vigilant, you must act according to the norms of good Christian conduct, seeking to correct yourselves where necessary.

Each work group is in charge of identifying its former compatriots and developing with them the awakening work initiated by the Divulgations.

We are not alone; we follow superior guidance. We are under the Commander of the Rescue Fleets Yury of the Patrol Planet.

We are united with you by the High Command of our brother and friend, Commander Ashtar Sheran, and we have come to you to warn and instruct you.

Do not fear! We are with you.

Remain in Christ who is in you and in Him you will find peace.

Diotrix-Antares, 08/28/1998

93. THE RESCUED BEINGS

May the Peace of the Lord calm the hearts of afflictions and pains, dispelling fears and renewing hope.

Would you like to ask questions and clarify doubts? I am here to answer you.

Margarida: If the floods predicted to hit the face of the Earth, what will happen to the underground worlds?

Yvan: Sister, in view of the upcoming events, we cannot say anything with such precision. However, as far as we can reach and plan, I can tell you that everything that makes up your earthly world is the product of combinations between elements, to which we have full access and control.

The intraterrestrial cities that exist on this planet (within the work we do), according to the will of the Father, will be protected by the magnetism of separation between the external and internal worlds. All entrances will be closed by electromagnetism, preventing the passage of water or any other substance that could affect the existence of human beings who will not have to go through the same ordeal as the people on the earth's crust.

Margarida: As far as you know about rescue, there are people who deserve to be taken alive before the great catastrophes and who will be able to take the following paths:

a) Rescued and taken to Intraterrestrial cities already prepared to receive them. (Read our book: The Intraterrestrials of Stelta)

b) Rescued and taken to planets that have climate, atmosphere, water and other requirements compatible with those of Earth.

c) Rescued people who will stay in spaceships.

What could you tell us about this?

Yvan: Many functions await those who will not be living their final moments in physical bodies, incarnated on Earth.

The distribution of beings among these various receiving areas will be done according to the work pattern that each one must perform.

a) Those gathered in the intraterrestrial cities will be used for constant and arduous work in the aid and recovery of the strength of those who were rescued and sent there.

b) Those rescued and destined to remain for some time in our spaceships that will be orbiting around the Earth will be prepared for the recolonization that will be carried out.

c) Others will be taken to superior worlds where they will be undergoing improvement, aiming at later reincarnations on Earth, bringing more advanced technology so that the "New Earth" can achieve physical progress and, moral progress that should be perpetuated more and more after the great cleansing.

There is a large distribution of tasks among all the peoples who inhabit this planet. Many of them are being chosen and taken for training and later work on this same planet.

While the rescue team prepares earthly humanity for the difficult times it will face, other work teams, no less important, are preparing the future humanity that will continue to inhabit the New Earth.

Everything happens at the same time, because time does not happen as you perceive it.

Margarida: I heard that there is a planet still primitive that has not yet been colonized and that is being prepared, including by evolved spacemen and Japanese who were taken from here. Is that true?

Yvan: Absolutely, just a mistake about the people who are being taken. However, despite the Japanese people having received from their ancestors the possibility of converting our space technology into terrestrial space technology, not only the Japanese people are being taken, but other peoples as well.

Although they received the possibility of converting high technology, these people underestimated it through decadent moral attitudes. Hence, many others began to be prepared and receive this information as they did in the past. This was done to ensure that all of Earth's humanity would be served with that which does not belong to us, but is given to us by grace and mercy from the Most High.

Margarida: Thank you. Are you a brother or a sister? Do you already know us?

Yvan: This is the first time I have spoken in your presence, although I have already been in this House under the command of our brother Yury, who requested this communication from me.

Margarida: It is very good to know that he is with us and does not forget us. We thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Yvan: May the Peace of Jesus be among you.

Margarida: Can you say your name?

Yvan: Call me Yvan. May the Peace of Jesus remain among you, easing the pains of the world in your hearts. May it be so.

Yvan (of the Team of Com. Yury)

94. NEFERTITE SPEAKING

We are, once again, before you, with the intention of enlightening you about the events that will come. You can ask whatever you wish. We have come to bring you some further clarifications regarding the days that will follow the shadows.

In those coming days that will follow the shadows, you must look for the graves opened by the action of nature itself, to bury their those who are dead, fallen to the ground.

Question: Do you mean already existing trenches, or will they be dug after the shadows?

Answer: They will be built by the action of nature during the period of shadows, when Superior Forces will be working to prepare the planet for the cleansing that will follow. There will be a cleansing not only of Humanity, but also of the entire globe, which will have to be purified of the contamination caused by human presence, inhabiting it for millions of years.

Question: What is the nature of the gases? What will the shadows come from? From pollution caused by human beings or pollution from other factors that will be added to those already existing?

Answer: The degradation of your living systems continues intensely and will contribute to and intensify the clouds of dust and poison that will be thrown on the Earth. Bodies will also appear from space and fall onto various parts of the planet, contributing to the rise of dust that will cover the sun for three days.

Man, always eager for power and possession, when he perceives the chaos created by the forces of nature, will take the opportunity to establish power and domination by force and violence, using his weapons to do so, which, combined with natural forces, will create for you, humans, an atmosphere of poisonous gases that will begin the cleansing. Not just one factor will act in this process, but a set of actions and reactions established by human behavior, which is characterized by a large part of humanity as being destructive behavior.

The New Earth will also have a new time, different from the one that exists today. People who are not committed to returning immediately after the natural catastrophes and cataclysms that will occur throughout your world will receive the necessary guidance and instructions for a certain time.

These people will be led to Earth in the next moment, bringing a technology that must be developed simultaneously with love and respect that they must develop. Not only for each other (relatives, friends and others) but also for all beings inhabiting this Earth, whether they are compatible with their evolutionary levels or not. They will be relocated a few years later, bringing with them the fruits of the learning developed during the years they will be away.

The colonizers will be those whose karmic commitment requires effort, struggle, tough battles, and facing situations that are still difficult for survival.

Your children will also be relocated at a later time to the colonizers, whose purpose is to guide them back on a path of spiritual angelic ascension. Some bring with them, in the depths of their little beings, the lights developed over many incarnations. Others bring the lights, divine offerings, carried to you from other worlds.

Many of these beings already live among us and are under our surveillance and special care, because the new destinies of the New Earth, will be linked to the guidance they will bring to the new humanity.

Question: And what about the dates of the events?

Answer: We are not given to know the day or the hour. We simply follow orders received from high spheres so that we do not even stop to question or speculate about the day or the hour.

We give you what we are supposed to do each day, seeking, in our actions, to help others, to love all creatures and to spread peace wherever we go. Harmony, balance and light that we were given to achieve came after a long period of struggle and inner suffering.

For thousands of years we have used your current Home, dear Mother Earth, and for this reason we are linked to you, because our gratitude is eternal.

We owe what we are today in spiritual advancement to her, who endured our inferiority in the past.

Question: Then, I understood that the unleashing of the forces of nature could occur at any moment, like tomorrow, in a month or in 10 years. Is that it?

Answer: Yes, my sister.

Question: I think we should be prepared morally and spiritually for difficult situations when they present themselves before us?

Answer: As if they were going to happen in the next moment. We are among you, always present. Our objective is to reassure you about events, bringing you information, clearing your minds about what will happen, so that, understanding future events, you can immerse yourself in the blessed service of helping and assistance at all times. Should you wait for the proper moment to help, clarify, assist and mitigate pain, expanding the "Light" that comes to you through the addition of Divine Mercy? Never keep it to yourself, do not keep it locked up around you, but share it with whoever knocks on your door and seeks your help.

You must begin the rescue now! When the physical transformation of the world takes place, you and many others will be found to have been transformed from within, and you will then be prepared to overcome all adversities, at any time, at any hour.

Be at Peace, preserve Peace, for it is through Peace that we speak to you. Deep within you, you will be able to feel us present, ready to help you at any time, whether in facing your difficulties at home, or in your work or leisure environment.

- We thank you with all our hearts for your offer of help.

- I send you equally loving vibrations of Peace.

Your dear sister

Nefertiti, 05/23/1998

95. RUIN OF THE ARROGANCE

The direction of a new globalized world economy is being discussed and there is no consensus among experts on practical activities that, if implemented, would help alleviate unemployment in industrialized countries or hunger in developing regions.

Peace treaties are being drawn up, involving the most respected jurists and diplomats in organized nations, but they soon reveal their fragility, since not even a few-hour truce is successful in countries where conflicts have their roots not only in the issues that are the object of conflict, but also in the psyche of the collective embodied there.

Agendas of discussions are being planned around commercial and political issues involving the various nations of the world, laws are being drafted to resolve their differences, while lawsuits are being filed in the respective bodies, denouncing the disagreements that exist among the governments.

Discoveries that propose improvements to human health, such as vaccines and alternative treatments for incurable diseases, are deliberately denied, in the interests of large monopolies, prolonging the pain among the people of this Earth.

In light of these concepts of priority, it is easy to understand the silence of the rulers of large nations when the subject refers to visits by extraterrestrial beings to planet Earth. Naturally, transparent information about what is known would put at risk, not the emotions of the creatures, which in our view are not a cause for great concern, but rather the interests that they insist on preserving.

However, the level of awareness already acquired by a large number of human beings will cause the arrogance of these pseudo-monarchs, whose decisions hinder the progress of humanity to collapse, like the dividing wall between the two Germanys, amid celebrations, applause and thanks to the heavens. And since the Father knows everything, He waits for the right time to make His representatives act firmly, so that everything that is written is fulfilled, for the good of all humanity on Earth.

Peace, in the name of the Great Architect of the Universe.

Rama, 05/08/1998

96. CHALLENGE: LIGHT AND SHADOWS

It was Monday in January 1997.

In the Spiritist Group Servos de Jesus (GESJ), this day of the week was dedicated to spiritual assistance to the spirits of people who had suffered violent deaths of any kind, including suicide, because they suffer a lot on the astral plane (this day is now Wednesday).

In the last three years, together mentally with the GESJ Spiritual Rescue Team, we have visited hospitals and prisons in our Espírito Santo State.

On that Monday, as usual, I asked one of my companions which prison we would visit, long before we began our evening mediumistic activities. He answered: Last week we went to Linhares City, today we will go to São Mateus City (neighboring cities located in the north of Espírito Santo State.

- Okay, I answered. We began the work by reciting the mantra “AUM”. During the entire time we were reciting it, approximately seven minutes, the painful and sad episode that had happened on Ilha do Governador, RJ, in a state reformatory, kept coming back to me, like waves on the beach. There had been a major rebellion in those days, in which several teenagers had been burned to death, many were seriously injured, and the rest were terrified or revolted.

The chants were over. Without further ado, I told my companions: We are not going to São Mateus City anymore. We are going to that institution on Ilha do Governador (RJ). They were surprised, because up until that date we had only visited institutions in Espírito Santo; however, they said nothing. We focused our minds on the aforementioned location. At that moment, I remembered the popular proverb: “Man proposes and God disposes.” And that was exactly what had happened, because we had not yet finished mentioning the address and all the mediums received a visit from beings of Shadows: cynical, perverse, cold and cruel, largely responsible for all that misfortune.

Today, a month later, writing about the episode, because I think I should record it, I am certain that the Spiritual Team of the House had already imprisoned them and was holding them in our GESJ, just waiting for the right moment to incorporate them into the mediums.

We add, for better understanding, that this part had been drafted a month after the events and saved to be a possible chapter of a possible book (The Extraterrestrials and Us, vol. III) that we should publish.

Hence my unusual attitude in changing the script at the last minute.

As the leader of a team of mediums and doctrinaires on the physical world, it is my task to talk to the Leaders of the Dark Phalanxes when they present themselves. However, before we begin the dialogue with one of them here, we need to provide some clarifications regarding this spiritual work, which also takes place in the disobsession meetings. Our spiritual colleagues who work in this area know very well that we have a human and Christian duty to help unhappy spirits who suffer in the swamps of the lower astral, in the regions of the Umbral, in the abysmal regions, imprisoned in the temples of sorcerers, imprisoned at crossroads, or even wandering the streets among us, lost, confused and desperate, without knowing that they have already passed away and what direction to take or do with their lives.

Those who read us should not be surprised, but this is an undeniable reality. Believe it or not, it is one of the many “mysteries” that need to be unraveled.

The poor ones are our brothers, children of God like us and are part of the same Group of Master Jesus! How can we close the spiritual doors of our Group to these unhappy ones?! It would be the same as doctors not accepting patients with infectious diseases in their offices, hospitals closing their doors to seriously ill patients and gravediggers refusing to bury them!...

The brothers, needy spirits of any kind, are brought to our workplace by our elder brothers, Guardians and Spiritual Guides of the House. They bring them at the right time to be attended to and receive help offered by us.

How could we close the spiritual doors of the Group to them? How could we not make our small contribution to these poor souls that are sick?

Beings of Light densify themselves, sacrifice themselves and descend to dark regions of pain and revolt to bring them out?! How can we deny food to those who are hungry and medicine to those who are in pain?! Why not squeeze a boil that is already “ripe”, providing relief to its bearer?!

Today, we are ahead of them on the path of evolution; however, in the not so distant past, we have already deviated from the path, lost the right direction and entered the shadows.

*Hands of Light, charitable and friendly hands were extended towards us, intertwined with ours, supported us firmly, pulling us out of the abysmal regions! We are all beings in continuous spiritual growth. We should progress through the paths of love, but we almost always give preference to the tortuous paths of pain. The arrival can be delayed, postponed, interrupted, but never canceled. Our encounter with the Father is inevitable.

To the brothers who condemn and criticize us, claiming not to understand how we can deal with pure, sublime energies and also with heavy, negative energies, we say: The Beings of Light, when asked why they descend to us, simply answer that it is for Love. Love, a sublime feeling that encounters no barriers and sees no boundaries in its infinite trajectory to help the fallen brother.

Who we are?

Beings still in debt, incarnated on a planet governed by the Law of Free Will, souls carrying burdens of guilt and frustration, pride and prejudice, intolerance and lack of love, lust and excessive ambition. With all this weight on our shoulders, we cannot bend down to pick up “the stone”, especially because not even Jesus bent down to pick up the stone. The Master gave us a beautiful example of compassion, mercy and infinite love. We currently live on a dense, viscous planet, dark from a spiritual point of view, due exclusively to our bad thoughts and senseless actions; however, beings of Light sacrifice themselves, abandon their planets, suffering with this gesture of love and kindness and come to warn us, encourage us to practice good, cultivating, deep within us, the hope of gentler incarnations, in worlds superior to Earth.

We would also say that, if we were beings “so evolved”, we would not be incarnated on Earth in these days of fear, insecurity, despair and chaos on an increasing scale.

To close this parenthesis, we affirm: we do deal with clean and soft energies and dirty, viscous and heavy energies; with beings of Light and beings of Shadows when they are brought to us by our Mentors, for some very important purpose. Just as we were helped in the past and are still receiving help in the present, why not join hands with those who come from behind and need us?! ... Ramatis-Kuthumi tells us that the "angel" of today was once the "devil" of yesterday.

Caio Miranda, in his admirable book "Thus I Heard from the Master", writes this lesson from his Master that we transcribe below:

... "Creatures who intend to unite themselves with God without first becoming Men are foolish. They want to be gods without having even been men.

*And what is man after all? He is the individual who is solidary, honest, simple, loyal, sincere and authentic. He, who does not lie, does not steal, does not hurt, does not kill, does not use sex only for pleasure and is not blinded by the illusion of material things. Tell me, my son, do you know many men like that?"

Margarida, January 1997

Let's go on the dialogue:

It went like so many others we have had with leaders of dark factions; serenity and mutual respect prevailed, but without fear, without lowering our guard and without giving in even a millimeter in our beliefs and convictions. War is war and the follower of the Lamb, as they pejoratively call us, in a meeting like that You cannot be cowardly or hesitant in the face of the enemy. In this case, our conversation, which was not recorded, took a strange turn, different from anything that had ever happened to me in mediumistic work.

It went something like this:

We were talking like two good fighters, one looking for the other's weak point to bring him down. On my part, I wanted to bring him down, in the sense of attracting him to the Vineyard of Jesus. In turn, the adversary of Good used his profound knowledge of human weaknesses and tried to demoralize us. He claimed that Jesus was defeated, a coward, for allowing himself to be crucified, and therefore did not deserve to be the Spiritual Governor of the planet.

He claimed that the Earth is populated by "men" and that it is up to "them" to govern it, since most humans have the same vices and defects as them and enjoy the same pleasures, therefore, the world belongs to Shadows and not to Light.

At one point, he told me that he would really like to settle the score with "someone from the Light" (but he did not say his name), by having a duel. If he lost, he would come over to our side.

I do not know if he was being sincere about changing his life if he lost, but I sensed that he was telling the truth about the duel. I promised to help him, but I was not sure if the event would happen.

In any case, if the Being of Light accepted the challenge, I knew that our rebellious little brother would lose, since the Greater Force is that of Light. And with this line of thought, I evaluated how important it would be in this acute phase of Planetary Transition to bring into our ranks a companion like him, who had a deep knowledge of the Laws that govern Nature, was courageous, had a firm mind, and was strong-willed and determined.

Have you ever thought about what would happen if all this experience in the service of Evil were to be used in the Vineyard of Good!?!...

I now remembered Saul of Tarsus who, with the same strong will that propagated and protected the Principles of Jewish Law, to the point of cruelty, began to spread and defend the Good News brought by Master Jesus, whom he never even met in life, with the same vigor, with the same tenacity.

And it was that Gentle Nazarene, now resurrected, who touched him, curing him of his blindness: of the body and of the soul. From this paragraph on, you will read the testimony of the medium who embodied that leader of Shadows.

Words from the Channel or medium

- We received a visit from a spirit who led the madness in a juvenile detention center in Rio de Janeiro (Ilha do Governador). He was brought in subdued, but without rebellion. I found this attitude strange, but later I understood that he wanted to force a situation to get to us.

I sensed from his vibrations, that he had immense power in evil.

He spoke to the president of the House who, in a way, did not know who he really was, much less his camouflaged intentions.

He listened to everything impassively, but at a certain point, he said that he knew everything she said and even more. And that even so, he was not interested in stopping his way of life or going back to where he had started.

When warned several times to change while there was still time, he replied that he was not interested. After all, he said that he would only agree to stop if he was defeated in a fight. It was when I understood that he had been in the rebellion inside the prison to provoke his own arrest, because, as the boss, he could command his subordinates from outside, without having to expose himself. If he went in and stayed, it was because he wanted to send a message to "someone". There was a moment when I sensed compelled to punch myself in the face and I knew that it was he who was causing such anger, and at that moment, in his thoughts next to mine, I glimpsed the ridiculousness of that situation, because if he were embodied, the face that would be slapped would not be his, but mine. Secondly, he was constantly trying to appear calm and powerful and a second of weakness could reveal his fragility and, who knows, the despair contained until that moment, because he knew he was trapped.

I have never embodied someone with such coldness of heart.

As someone who is deeply knowledgeable about the subject of the “transition” that Earth is experiencing and with a very broad, I would say almost specific, knowledge about the activities of extraterrestrials at the present time, there was no point in talking to him, keeping him any longer. As a medium, I let my body be enveloped by a light drowsiness, while the indoctrinator said a prayer. Then I saw him being taken, as if sedated, to some place in our astral space.

In the 2nd stage of the work that night, I saw an assembly of about thirty people somewhere in the space. There they were discussing the case and deciding how the fight would be and who would face our unfortunate friend. I sensed the presence of Ashtar Sheran in that assembly.

In the 3rd stage, I saw a large circular field. Half of it was completely illuminated; the other half, as if by magic, was completely enveloped in dense shadow. In the central part, under the light, there was someone standing, but I did not recognize who it was, because I saw him as if from afar. Behind him, here were other beings around him that I didn't know either, but I knew that they were spirits that knew and loved the challenger of the Shadows and that had been taken away from their tasks, summoned especially for that special moment. They were all surrounded by halos of light. A small crowd, under the shadows, was in the other half of the circular field. Three nurses then arrived and handed over the challenger, lying on a stretcher, which was sliding silently.

I understood immediately that the challenge had been accepted. I had a slight intuition of how it would be, but I wasn't sure what would happen.

The challenge came from the Shadows, so the challenger would not have the right to choose the weapons, especially since he had not imposed any conditions.

The night's work in our Group ended and so did the mediumistic concentration and I didn't see anything else. At the end of the meeting, then, I mentally asked the Spiritual Team of the Group that, if possible, I would like to know what would happen in the meeting that I had seen being organized.

I went home and, when I went to bed, I asked permission to be in my astral body at the meeting place. That was when “someone” told me that the work that night was an unusual one, where it would not be possible for beings of light who had not yet reached a certain minimum level on the evolutionary scale to be present, because this could ruin everything. In that space, there was also no place for neutral beings, or beings on an intermediate scale between Light and Shadows. I could not be on the side of Light because I had not reached the necessary level of evolution. I could not be on the side of Shadows either, because I was not one of them, nor in the middle, because there would be a risk of being sucked in by the strong magnetism of the dense forces. Therefore, I could definitely not be present at the rare meeting, but later, I would know everything that had happened.

Promise fulfilled

Monday, September 21, 1997, Mediumship Meeting.

- I saw, as if in a video, the battlefield where the fight between “Light and Shadows” took place. On the dark side, the defiant Brother woke up. Anxious, his advisors asked him with questions: What did they do to you? Did they give you some kind of drug to weaken your strength? He answered: No.

I was simply induced by the medium, without any special artifice, into a state of drowsiness, which I thought would benefit me, leaving me more rested.

He, then began to make recommendations to his subordinates:

- a) I want you to continue forward, in case I lose the battle.
- b) This war today is a private matter and I do not want the work to be interrupted.
- c) I am warning you, because in a duel like this, there is no guarantee who will win.
- d) It is something I have wanted for a long time: to stand before “him” and face him.

The advisors then said: We believe that perhaps it would be better for you to give up, especially since you have not defined your weapons and they will have the right to make the choice.

He replied: Give up!? Absolutely not. If I cower now, the entire work will fall apart and I will also compromise, in addition to my own, your freedom. I only ask that you remain united.

After the small, tense and confusing meeting, where many were speaking at the same time, but all with the same concern, the Being of Shadows walked to a point in the dark semicircle, keeping the same distance that the Enlightened Being kept from the line that divided Shadows from Light, in the circular field.

I continued to watch from afar what was happening.

I then realized that the battle would take place in the mental field. The challenger did not hesitate when he understood that this was the weapon chosen for the fight, but he was somewhat surprised and fearful when he realized that there would be no fight with heavy weapons, with illusory projections of abilities of forces from the physical world, an art in which he was the greatest in the Lower Astral. He was heavily armed. But despite everything, he did not give up. He had given his word and, from what he said, he had been waiting for such an opportunity for a long time, perhaps millennia, although that seems impossible to us.

I realized that the fight had begun when I saw a beam of light come out from the height of the Being of Good's head. The beam encountered resistance at the limit of half the circle and when it returned, it bounced off the minds of the companions who were behind, forming a golden flash, fast and powerful like lightning.

The second beam of light was spectacular! Many beings of Shadows staggered, others fell to the ground, as if they had received a very strong impact.

The third beam was increasing so much that fed itself; it was a light so strong that it gave rise to another, stronger and more powerful one, and it began to illuminate the dark area with small flashes of lightning. When the light reached the challenger's body, strange armor and weapons that he had not gotten rid of began to melt under the increasingly intense light. I didn't see the challenger make any move, there was no chance, I believe that the whole time he was just trying to stay on his feet and resist the impact of the waves of light.

Another burst of light and his body began to be dragged towards Ashtar Sheran, who had also not moved until that moment. And only at that moment could I recognize, in the Being of Light, the imposing figure of Commander Ashtar Sheran.

The man's body came slowly, crossed the boundary point of the field, already destroyed by the Light, and went towards Ashtar, who opened his arms and received his defeated and unconscious brother, pressing his heart to his. At that moment, the light that surrounded the two men blinded them with a power comparable to a Sun, and Ashtar supported the man who had fainted.

The Assembly of Shadows, now completely distraught, ran off to find a way through distant shadows, which had retreated with the shining of the Light. Others dove into abysses of mist and viscosity that were revealed, with their mouths wide open on the earth. Yes, now I understood, we were all in an improvised space in the Lower Astral, because that field could never be set up in a space of Light. That arena had been built in the domains of Shadows, because the challenger and his advisors did not have the spiritual conditions to ascend to the planes where the Beings of Light travel, but they could descend into Shadows.

Final Decision:

Soon after, the defeated was taken to a place reserved for him, in a deep well, dug in the ethereal double of the Earth.

When he woke up, his condition was revealed to him without deception, without detours, although he already knew almost everything. It was held as a small ceremony, including with witnesses, and the following was decided:

- a) That he would not leave there again until he chose to change his life, or else he would be taken directly to the Cleansing Planet.
- b) He would not try to deceive himself about dominating or enslaving other beings in the new orb to which he was exiled, because that would not happen.
- c) They also made it very clear that his conditions for rebirth or future reincarnations would be very special and evaluated by an extremely rigorous team, aiming at ensuring that he would not lack free will, but always in conditions of learning through a physical body that would hinder new expressions in the field of evil (which we would say in deficient physical bodies).

d) That the degree of knowledge, strength and strong will that he possessed gave him the conditions to choose the side of Good to stay and work. All he had to do was put his pride aside and rethink all his actions.

e) That all the destructive power he had developed and held had been built on pride and that this would be the great chance to free himself from that very negative feeling.

f) That he was not ignorant of the Divine Laws, nor of the Eternal Wisdom consolidated throughout the Cosmos, hence being able to decide on such a change.

g) That he had in abundance: discipline and knowledge of the Divine Laws, he only needed to reestablish the balance through the cultivation of humility in his heart, recognizing in the Cosmic Hierarchies and submitting to Their Rules.

h) That his exile would be monitored and at the slightest sign of change in his mental field his possibilities would be reassessed.

And so ended that list of warnings in that simple meeting.

I saw him, for the last time, locked in his cell with cold, gray walls. The white skin of his face and hands was highlighted by the black of the clothes that covered him from head to toe.

Like the light of the full moon, I saw a bluish light illuminating the tall figure that, impassive, looked upwards, as if thinking about what to do, what to decide.

Thus ended the story of that unfortunate brother in the Astral Plane.

But is it really over? I think they will still give us news of the former Black Magician.

Imagine if we did not do this type of work?

We would lose the opportunity to be useful to him and to many others. We know that we are responsible for the “good” that we could have done and did not do.

As soon as I finished the draft of this work, I had the idea of asking my Spiritual Guide, Shama Hare, what decision the brother who had lost the battle had made and where he was now.

The following day, on October 23, 1999, was the day of the Shama Hare Study Group (GESH) vigil. I took the opportunity and read the entire story to my companions. We discussed the facts and, trusting as always in our Elder Brothers, I waited for an answer. And it came quickly, not through Shama Hare, but through Ashtar Sheran himself. This is how it happened, reported by another channel:

- “While we all listened to the reading of the challenge and fight between the Distinguished Commander Ashtar Sheran and the Black Magician, I saw our dear Commander in an attitude of concentration, as if he were remembering the facts that were being narrated and as, upon finishing the reading, our sister leader expressed the desire to know news of the challenger, Commander Ashtar told me the following”:

Words of Ashtar Sheran:

You know very well that our time is different from yours.

After much reflection, the brother requested an interview with the “Leaders of Light”, as they call us, and proposed that, if he could remain on Earth, from where he has never left, he could contribute in some way.

His request was analyzed and granted. Today, he belongs to the Group of Workers of the Vineyard of Jesus.

He is still under special care and observation. This being, who was a Black Magician, today fights with all his strength to keep his word and carry out superior orders.

We are convinced and have Faith that the day will come when he will be a sincere and faithful worker of the Light.

As for our story, one day you will know it.

Peace to the Warriors of Light. Peace, in all quadrants.

Ashtar Sheran,
He who guides you from Heaven.

97. THE CRY FOR HELP

Good evening, brothers!

The arrival of beings from other planets to Earth more frequently occurred after the materialization of the atomic bomb.

Earth scientists have never accepted the truth about parallel dimensions with life on the planet. Therefore, they have never believed that nuclear energy would affect these planes. It was the deep cry for help emitted by the disembodied scientists, inhabitants of the Astral plane, who, having knowledge of the harmful effects of radiation caused in the planes where they lived, that made the Great Universal White Brotherhood seek external help to minimize the damage caused by the rupture of the vibrations that separate the interconnected worlds from the earthly dimensions.

The resources used may seem strange and even elementary to you, but it was the mechanism we chose, considering the great knowledge in the scientific area that you acquired and also considering that most of the time, we would have to work not letting you even suspect our presence in the area. We could not place in the dimension where you live, neither machines nor devices that differ from the daily life of the crust, nor from the relative historical time of this humanity. In fact, it was as if we were going back in time to reconstruct solutions from our remote past.

Indeed, to do this, we have the help of many earthly scientists who are already in the spiritual world.

Fortunately, for a few years now, we have only been managing the damage, making repairs and mapping the control of danger zones and forgotten, abandoned or lost weapons and projects. One of the sad occurrences, but which you may notice, because the earthly science does not explain the fact, is the suicide of whales and dolphins. From time to time, they are hit by radiation in the sea waters. This radiation affects their neurological system, being fatal, as it directly affects their survival instinct, and they throw themselves against the shore and almost never accept being taken back to the sea.

There are many facts that occur that you do not know about, many of them in the astral world.

May God give us the strength to carry out our task and to a successful conclusion. Panic and fear will only exist for those who do not wish to listen.

Our presence among you aims at clarifying the events so that each one, situating themselves according to their evolutionary level, determines their action towards their own redemption. As long as there are afflicted hearts, we will be present.

So be it.”

98. THE HARDSHIPS OF A CIVILIZATION

The curtain rises!

The show begins!

A frightened crowd runs in disarray in search of refuge or an exit that will allow them to reach a safe place.

Distressed mothers grab children by the arms, indifferent to the atmosphere of terror, trying to protect them from the human mass that threatens to trample the less agile.

There is no possibility of clear reasoning and there is no voice of command that can impose control over such disorganization.

Everyone runs in a disorderly fashion, resembling a bunch of madmen, leaving behind material belongings that were the main reasons for their lives and that they now ignore.

No one knows where they are going. They are all lost. The images are distressing. Screams of terror, bombs exploding, the earth shaking, the sea rough. A gigantic wave swallows up part of that crowd. Other waves approach and annihilate many others, sweeping away an entire fortress that seemed solid and indestructible to mortal eyes.

And the tragedy continues. Unspeakable details make the spectators close their eyes, as if trying to avoid also feeling the pain of the actors present there. Suddenly, everything is destroyed. Deformed bodies, ashes, mud, deathly silence. The curtain falls. The show ends.

Powerful hands, instructed by God, prepare the beginning of the reconstruction. The desolate gaze of those who survive is filled with sadness, but they will not be indignant, because the stage of flourishing of the true implantation of the Realm of God among men on Earth will have begun.

One day, the curtain will open again, but for a beautiful show.

We invite you to be the actors.

We are with Jesus.

99. THE WAVE

The gigantic wave will invade the places where the process of decomposition of humanity is currently developing unbridled.

It will first bathe the refuges of pleasure, energetically warning the weak spirits, giving each one the inner awareness that "it" will return.

Its impact will discharge upon the cities all the storm retained and imprisoned in the bosom of the elementals, returning the morbid charge directed into space over the course of these centuries.

It will affect poor and rich, black and white, educated and uneducated, wise and ignorant alike, because through the immense amount of experiences on the physical world, men are the same ones who, before the Greater Law, must fulfill their commitments to Space. However, if you are concerned about "it" and have committed yourselves to the Law in spite of this, let yourselves be enveloped by "it" and in an embrace of total surrender, so that "it" may lead you as a blessed agent to the return to the Spiritual Home, awaiting the next stage of manifestation of the New Earth.

It will be a dwelling place for some people.

100. THE CHAOS INSTITUTED IS WORK OF MEN

May the peace of Master Jesus be with you!

Another year begins in your earthly calendar, with few reasons for celebration, as war, hunger and violence spread throughout the planet, transforming hearts into flames of sadness, hatred and fear. Stomachs are empty and souls are filled with discouragement, with no glimpse of hope for the future.

The picture of the Apocalypse, predicted by God's emissaries, advances as a painful reality of the current situation on Planet Earth. The chaos that has been instituted is not the work of extraterrestrials or intraterrestrials, or even of your guides and tutors, who always seek to awaken your consciences so that your steps may follow firmly towards spiritual progress.

The planetary chaos is the work of human beings devoid of elevated ideals, of those who place all their strength and energy on the physical world, in material life, in the world of Maya, to amass money and power, feeding the foolish desire to dominate, exacerbating pride, selfishness and vanity.

However, beloved children, brothers and sisters of the Earth, the planetary transformation and the selection of humanity are accelerated.

The clearly defined fields of Light and Shadows have been dragging creatures to wallow ever more in the ignominy of hateful acts, while a small number have been striving to adhere to the postulates of Christ.

This House of charity and love is a point of light on Earth in transition, and those who are here must do their utmost to remain at minimum high vibrational levels, which guarantee their own impulse for renewal. And this guarantee of high vibration occurs in the exact measure of each one's effort to work and serve the cause of Christ, developing the elevated goods of the soul, transforming their inner self in the struggle between Good and Evil, Light and Shadows, which still inhabit each spirit.

Each task accomplished with responsibility, love and dedication is an additional tone of vibration and light for the creature itself. Your destinies are in your hands. The effort is yours to tread the path of progress and abandon the planets of expiation and trials. For our part, we guarantee our presence and our love to support you in every moment of your life on Earth, because we have been with you for millennia, we know each of you in your most intimate thoughts and intentions and your potential. And we guarantee that if you remain focused on the purpose of transformation and work, you will finally reach a higher dimension for the new stages of struggle.

Falls are natural, even at the stage you are in. However, you must strive at every moment to expel the shadows and illuminate your heart.

Study the Spirit's Doctrine as well the messages we send you, because they are full of strength and energy that, once understood, adhere to your consciousness and help you on your path. And work, unpretentiously, humbly, without ulterior motives or demands, in the service of others on the physical and spiritual planes. In the invisible plane around you, creatures like yourselves swarm, but even more lost, disoriented and sick, as well as a very large number of perverse creatures who desire the moral bankruptcy of humanity.

It is up to the creature itself to erect a protective barrier that prevents access by those who walk in the lower regions, in its mind and in its heart. Watch your thoughts, transform your emotions, following the luminous path of the Divine Master Jesus.

More struggles and pain are advancing on Earth and the laments can already be heard in all geographical latitudes.

As predicted, the Apocalypse advances.

Work more and more in response to the call of Jesus, who wants all His flock to reach the Realm of God.

May Jesus bless you!

We bless you.

Your Master Ramatis.

Hail Jesus.

Master Ramatis, GESJ, 01/07/2023

CONCLUSION

We conclude this simple work with the words of Margarida Pinho Carpes Founding Leader of GESJ – Grupo Espirita Servos de Jesus – and currently Mentor of GESJ and GESH – Grupo de Estudos Shama Hare.

DIFFICULT TIMES

Dear brothers, friends, and readers.

May the Blessings of Love, Peace, and Light continue to descend from the Greatest Father upon our beloved Mother Earth, strengthening us and all the beings who inhabit her.

Difficult times: fear, disbelief, distrust, even in the Goodness and Justice of God.

We still continue firm, transmitting the enlightening messages that come to us, through the Father's Mercy, through our evolved elder extraterrestrial and intraterrestrial Brothers and also through many brothers who were born, lived and passed away here, today on the spiritual plane, participating with the most evolved in the Planetary Transition process. All of them bring enough material for study, analysis and understanding of current events.

Whatever happens, near – Brazil – or far away – the rest of the world – let us not lose faith and, consequently, hope and trust in the Lord of All Worlds. Hence, we conclude with the message "Have Faith" by Rama Schain, for those who are still reluctant; and the key that opens the door to understanding, through the message "Beings Take Turns", by Akhenaton, clarifying the apparent cause of divine injustice. The two complement each other. Whoever has eyes to see, let him see, and spiritual sensitivity to understand, let him understand!

Margarida (1923 – 2014)

Have faith!

Even if plague, famine and desolation ravage your Earth, have faith!

Even if the “greatest beast” of destruction rises from the deep abyss, have faith!

Do not lose hope and trust in the Father.

Do not disconnect from the sacred cord that connects you to Jesus.

You are under the turmoil of the “black warriors” and they will spare no effort to try to eliminate the few who are still capable of resisting their attacks.

They try at most to reach your nervous center and your physical body.

They will try to destabilize your inner balance.

Even if it seems like the world is falling down on you, remain firm in your faith, because when the last bell rings at night, the sun will rise again.

I recommend caution, because they are watching you.

The Earth can no longer bear the flow of bloodshed and this deep and heavy slime destabilizes the “support ships” that you already know, have been taking turns for some time, waiting only for the signal.

Have faith, even if your shed like rivers from deep springs.

Have faith, even if your hearts are torn apart by pain.

Have faith, this is the secret of your success.

Only trust in the Divine Guard will lead you to victory.

Rama Schain

Beings take turns:

Conquerors, conquered.

Oppressors, oppressed.

Victims, executioners.

Beings take turns, in different postures, in the most diverse existences, always seeking outside, in matter, the resolution that is in their soul.

They decline more and more until the FATHER no longer allows it.

Humankind needs forgiveness to make the verdant and colorful flowers of the New Age bloom on the terrestrial crust.
