ZEUS

171 - Everyone lives with wolves

172 - Love without borders no more. Racial barriers increase.

PRESENTATION

There are lots of seeds detached from “old and leafy plants” that fall into our Servants of Jesus Spiritist Group. Coming from various parts of the world, they are carriers of divine essence, through magnificent messages, full of knowledge, revelations, wisdom and love, all addressed to the brothers of dear Mother Earth.

Long ago, we knew of well-known people in Brazil and worldwide, who stood out in various segments of public life, wanted to communicate through GESJ, in this difficult and troubled time that the Planet is already experiencing.

They wanted to contribute their share of love for others, in promoting themes that we have covered over the years, such as:

Times Arrived, Doomsday, Planetary Transition, Rescue and Verticalization of the Earth's Axis. However, parallel to this magnificent gift, there was fear, rejection and resistance from the mediums (or channels) as they felt they were incapable and poorly trained to transmit the thoughts of such famous people.

But, one day, I was informed by some spiritual friends and workers at GESJ, about what was happening in the mental and spiritual field of our little companions, in becoming celebrity mediators, due to the “fear” of what they would “think, or what they would “say”. They believed themselves to be incapable and poorly trained, simply speaking to channel, materializing, on paper, the thoughts of such important people.

The sisters forgot that there is no perfection in this “world of expiation and trials”, as not even the Group of Our Lord Jesus Christ was perfect!...

Lovingly, the messages were collected by us, soon after sown, sprouting in simple chapters, building this humble work.

We add that among them there are unknown names, but, due to the content of the message fitting perfectly into this precious work, the messages of “Seeds in the Wind” bring in their content the “callings of alert” to the careless ones, the “awakening” for the who still sleep and “spiritual comfort” for the suffering, wronged and desperate ones.

May the mockers, the unwary and “I don’t care” people stop for a moment, reflect and change their paths of life!

There's still time, brothers!

Jesus, the Divine and Beloved Master, invites us to this renewal, through his Faithful Servants and waits for us!...

JUST AS PREFACE

... “GESJ, small and simple at its inception, grew and attracts to itself the Celestial Potentates, gathered by the Kind Rabbi to support and guide this humanity at the end of the planetary cycle.

Many Elder Brothers will still manifest themselves among you, giving Fulfillment of the Superior Designs for this humanity”

Master Ramatis = Master Kuthumi

08/15/09

And these Elder Brothers manifest themselves, sending through communications, messages that encourage us to awaken to make inner changes, leading us to spiritual growth and strengthening, and to facing the difficulties that are already in front of us, in this period in which we live.

Our Mother Earth that welcomed us into her bosom, will soon be elevated to a greater dimension; but first, cleaning will be necessary, which will require a great deal of cleaning, from which will bring pain and snatching of teeth at the end of the planetary cycle.

And, as given above, we present in this modest book, messages that will surprise many of people, due to the communicating characters, but mainly due to the content that each message brings us.

Take advantage of the opportunities given by the Creator through the “Heavenly Potentates”, as our Master Ramatis tells us, making the most of the seeds that are being sown, and which will be able to germinate depending on the care we give them; so that they develop on fertile ground.

We thank everyone who responded to the Rabbi's call, and may God bless each one.

With the blessings of Master Jesus.

PREFACE I

Brothers! Peace from Master Jesus.

Each character brought here shares with you their downfalls and their victories. They had, along the way, opportunities that could take them to the Light, but what you see in some of them are marks of falls that, out of rebellion, they surrendered.

Many anonymous and unknown people, historically speaking, also gave themselves over to dissipation and pride that diverted them from the safe path to a happy home.

There are no privileges when help is offered; Yes, there is a request for help devoid of ulterior motives and free from petty machinations.

Therefore, when a character from your story comes and reports his pain, it is to understand that pain is for everyone and preferences only exist for those incarnate who still live in the illusion of matter.

Learn from these stories, take lessons for your growth and when you apply this knowledge wisely, you will see that the heavy became light, the confusing became clear and the dark became light.

Continue in peace and may the love of the Beloved Master be in you.

Brother Francis, 11/05/10

Note: Brother Francis is the same Francis of Assisi.

PREFACE II

Clairvoyance:

I saw a man in an old uniform approaching me. When I looked more closely, I realized that I knew him and I remembered his name: Marechal Deodoro da Fonseca. Then his clothes changed style to white pants and a long-sleeved white shirt. Then the message came:

Blessed Father who guides us!

Sister Margarida, for some people, it may come as a surprise that a Spiritist House receives messages from men who were once prominent politicians with great relevance on the national scenario. However, for us who no longer guide ourselves with names and rules that apply on the physical plane, there is no surprise, considering that we were not always politicians, and that, when stripped of the carnal body, every position and its importance loses its value.

This is what our brothers want to say, by sending their words, that we are normal beings devoid of the importance of our position, and that we work like any humble servant, without a staff of assistants and sycophants to accompany us.

We are in this Colony, but some are not permanent, some came to improve their studies, and others because of affinities of ideas and ideals.

Once the mask of the importance that human beings give to themselves falls, what remains are the good deeds they performed; and if these are few, it is up to the candidate for regeneration to “fight” and seek their objective, which is to evolve by serving with love and dedication, without expecting honors and advantages, as it was when incarnated.

If messages from men in the political scene are sent to this House (GESJ), it is because, if some reach the hands of a politician or someone linked to him, it will bring about a change, and if that is not possible, at least one reflection of what their actions entail for the population, who are hostage to their deliberations.

But, if this does not happen, let the friendly reader think about what it would be like to live in a Brazil of justice, peace, respect and solidarity, where Laws were complied with and obeyed.

When in physical life, I had mistaken and success; what weighs most on me is that when many of my attitudes reached the population that expected actions from Leaders that would drive them to progress and improve their lives, creating fair mechanisms for this.

Here at Servants of Jesus Colony, we receive politicians from various Times of the humanity and not just from Brazil such as groups of poets, scientists, musicians, philosophers and writers, there are also groups of politicians who work hard, helping the Earth in the area that concerns it, and others still addressing messages clarify one or another issue. Wait and in proper time will come.

Peace in everyone's hearts.

Marechal Deodoro, Fonseca

MESSAGES

ALICE BAYLE

1 – Fortify the door of evil

Fortify yourself against the door of Evil.

May the Light, Love and Power establish God's Plan on Earth.

Frightened the man walks. Distressed, he looks for answers that keep him trapped in the flesh.

Not finding answers to his suffering and anguish, he attacks others, in a vain attempt to be happy.

He does not look inside himself, afraid of discovering, there, the darkness he fears.

He further attacks the environment in which he lives in a vain attempt to be happy.

In the superficiality of his life, he seeks God, wanting an answer that reduces his desire; to find, in others, the origin of their disappointments.

Disappointed, he realizes that Divinity will be him naked and within himself lies the evil disturbing him.

He runs away and once again attacks others and the environment where he lives.

Finally, naked before himself and the Creator, he realizes the mistake of escaping from mud of ignoble regions, into the painful purging of cruel acts.

The Father, all Goodness, once again - the ultimate - grants him incarnation so that he can discover for himself his own mistakes and redeem himself, before his brother of humanity and the environment in which he lives.

If he runs away again, he will be exiled from Earth; if he faces and changes himself, he will inhabit the Renewed Earth.

It is the last chance for each person to close the door where evil lives in his hearts and perpetuate Peace, Love and the Power of God on Earth.

Peace with Christ Jesus.

Alice Bayle
GESJ - 10/28/06

2 - In darkness of times arrived

There are hard trials involving fallen humanity.

Violence and pain make up the scenario for purging latent rebellions in backward humanities.

In these hours of extreme agony, the Earth finds itself immersed in a bubble of light from the emission of the purest energies of God's Love.

Divine Mercy will alleviate lots of pains that even so, touch the fibers of each sensitive heart and we expect that some minds awaken, even if in the last hours.

Bear in mind brothers that only God is Sovereign over all Universes and His most beautiful Heart, Pure Source of Love, involving all creatures everywhere.

Be sure of this Source of Infinite Love and that will be a Beacon of Light guiding you in the darkness of the Times Arrived.

Peace forever!

Alice Bailey
GESJ - 01/30/07

3 - We are one Army

From the High come superior energies to involve this humanity, supplying sensitive hearts with courage and faith to face the storms in the valley of shadows.

Unfortunately, most of human minds remain in another vibrational level becoming refractory to the sublime energies from Heaven.

We need a larger number of creatures with their minds tuned to the sublime forces of love, drawing from there the lymph of life to distribute among brothers of humanity.

From the center of light in God's mind comes light to the Earth, but the wall of evil increases in the human hearts.

May light and Love surround men on Earth.

We are one Army fighting for Peace on Earth.

Alice Bailey

ALVARES DE AZEVEDO

4 - We are nothing before the Creator

Hi, brothers.

Today, after many years of my departure from material life, now with the light in my thoughts, I ask how much ignorance will we still commit in the name of pride, using youth as an excuse for our vilest actions?...

We had everything in that time: name, culture, a highly permissive society and arrogance in abundance, which drove us to shock the conservative ones who censored us.

We did not allow God, Loving, good and Just Father enter in our hearts and minds. We believed that his Friendly Presence would make us weak and foolish.

I myself and a group of friends suffered a lot after our disembodiment, because of the dead ones that we degraded due to the vulgarity we allowed ourselves, we paid in a painful and effective way.

We suffered the same abuses we practiced Now, without concession to modesty or pity, they demand fair measure from us.

We begged and cried for forgiveness until a “good angel” reached out his hands and lifted us out of the mire of bitterness.

Today, after this blessed help, we exert efforts to learn how serve and leave pride behind.

Humbly, I beg Divine Light to forgive us from spiritual ignorance.

Names, nothing re-present! But I will give this to you know that even though we have marked our names in the earthly books, we are nothing before the Creator.

Álvares de Azevedo
04/30/10

5 - With God in my heart, I go ahead

Seek peace in Master Jesus.

Brothers, I begged the Instructors other opportunity to communicate, because my spirit needs peace to rehabilitate itself in face of countless young people that I still influence with my poems.

If my voice could reach everyone who reads my writings, I would say: change the book, burn what I wrote because the load of bitterness and funereal energy of the words can depress your hearts. When I was young, I cultivated death, I looked for my dear ones that thought me on the astral plane. My constant companions were spirits of suicides, vampires and obsessors. After death, they went to receive me at the cemetery, where I practiced vile acts.

Thank God, I find myself rehabilitated able to help young people who seek morbidity. I try, with great effort, bring them to edifying, comforting and optimistic reading, to get them free from suicide. If they continue along the path of depressive thoughts, will certainly commit suicide, given the increase in the number of youth suicides.

I am not yet a shining star in the universe, just a tiny point in the Vineyard of Beloved Lord Jesus. I fight bravely against the various satanic incarnations of which I was part.

With God in my heart, I go ahead!

Peace and Light

AMELIA RODRIGUES

6 - Oh! Divine Carpenter

Hail, Jesus, the Divine Messenger.

He, who brings His Light for those brothers in despair.

Lighthouse of Hope that shines throughout the neighborhood!

Loving the crowd.

Jesus, Source of Light, Peace and Forgiveness.

Tenderness and Grace, Beauty and Love.

Spread your Light wherever you go.

Augustus Messenger, Heavenly Father,

Brother of Charity

He extends His arms, welcoming the afflicted and desperate ones thirsty for Love.

Jesus, Divine Love, we serve You, wherever You are!

Oh! Divine Carpenter, take care of these thirsty but proud brothers, far from Your Love.

Turn on Light of forgiveness in these hearts.

Taking them with you on the road to transformation.

As your humble servants, we ask for those who are our brothers.

Amelia Rodrigues

7 - When you help a little one, you help Me too!

It was a cold night. The poor girl looks out the window, where sees a clean room, which warms a happy family.

Laughing children, happy eyes and a big piece of cake in their hands.

Sad, the poor girl sits on the sidewalk, dreaming of the day when she also would have such a happy and warm home, for herself, her brothers and her sick mother.

Not noticing the change, she imagines dreaming. She sees a beautiful star approaching, taking the form of a beautiful angel, who extends her the right hand, leading her happily to a beautiful illuminated castle; now warm, with new dresses and bright shoes.

She woke up. At the door of the happy house, a stiff body of a poor girl stretched out, half covered with dry leaves and debris blown by the wind.

Brothers, do not allow yourselves be covered by indifference, extend your hands to satisfy the hunger for joy of the little ones who roam on the streets.

“When you help a little one, you help Me.” Said beloved Master Jesus.
Blessed is Jesus.

AMERICA PAOLIELLO MARQUES

8 - Mistakes of the matter

I see Margarida and America Rodrigues sat down on the beach, talking like old friends. I captured the following conversation:

– we try, momentarily, forget “the mistakes of the matter, and continue with the work, in the greater goal of evolution”.

The ranks of the Lord's faithful workers need of servants and everyone who sincerely wishes work, he must forget about themselves and devote full time to the Great Work of Christ.

Since long ago, I realized that as a spark of God, I must follow the path that only takes me back to the Creator Father's House.

I seek help my dear ones, however, I do not sit on the side of the road lamenting for not accepting the sincere help.

As you know, sister, the immortal spirit is full of life; it is extraordinarily strong when it decides to evolve. When incarnated, despite our knowledge, we are not able to evaluate its strength and importance.

Let us remain confident in our Master Ramatis who joins us as a spiritual family and let us work hard to see the New Earth materialize itself and everything else come by Mercy of Beloved Father.

Jesus is the Way, Truth and Life that we must always seek.

With love.

America

09 – America's Words

To be disciple of Master Ramatis in the full sense of the word means not only acquiring the knowledge transmitted by the Master, but also practicing it. Face the world with courage, not caring about the contempt received, have strength and faith to save you from intense attacks of those who consider themselves the owners of the truth. These disciples are scarce in the world you live in.

The Master regrets the withdrawals, but the Work continues.

Other harvesters appear, not so well prepared, but imbued with good will, throwing themselves into the work, with full confidence and true faith. We must pay special attention to these, because despite their still fragile legs, they advance fearlessly. Keep minds vigilant to face the beasts.

The deserters, those who were prepared to materialize the Work and, either out of material comfort or fear of ridicule, abandoned it, should not be forgotten or despised, but their example of invigilation should be the subject of last minute meditation by the disciples.

We seek improvement in the matter, but we cannot forget that only as an immortal spirit we reach perfection. Matter is limited and transitory, always requiring larger efforts to overcome the dense shackles that bind it to the spirit, preventing it from flying. We must always be free from these chains, avoiding as much as possible that they become increasingly stronger.

He, who deserts the service has heavy chains shackling him, and a difficult path to thread until he frees himself from the bale.

Remain always confident, because, at all times, the intense Light of the Masters guides us.

Peace forever!

America, 03/22/03

Note: America Paoliello Marques, created the “Fraternidade do Triângulo da Rosa e da Cruz”, in Brasília. She was Medium and Disciple of Ramatis likewise the beloved Hercílio Maes. Both already disembodied.

Great human being, dear friend, sister...

On that afternoon, she communicated with us through the two mediums present. As for Hercílio Maes, we received various.

By the way, still on that beautiful summer afternoon, we received another message from dear America, which came to complete:

10 - We knew Jesus

Afterwards the troubled days, when the consciousness awakens to its new extraphysical reality, my thoughts began to adjust, allowing me to act devotedly, once again in the Vineyard of Good.

As a beloved disciple of Master Ramatis, I can see you firm and courageous, seeking to transmit to those around you, the maxims of Universalist Love engraved in your soul. It is happening to me too.

Since that time I met Jesus, we shared with each other our knowledge on the spiritual path. Both of us were reincarnated on Earth, as men, with the purpose of preparing the first molds of the future disciple, who would reveal to the world the universalistic and integral meaning of Master Ramatis' extraordinary mind.

I find myself, every day, better balanced. I have been trying to feed the flame of work, which is still lit in physical life. The work is slow, because my strength is not yet fully under my control, due to past mistakes and, although free, the spiritual body still finds itself imprisoned in inferior bodies.

I have been trying to wake up those who sleep on the “treasure of light” (referring to the “Fraternidade do Triângulo da Rosa e da Cruz”, a group founded and directed by America Rodrigues in the heart of Brazil: my friends, who have raised their voices so many times with me and thoughts of praise and gratitude to the Father are dismantled. They lost their way, for not finding simplicity in the direction.

Master Ramatis also knocked on the door in search of awakened workers trained to serve the Light. Laments and denials he heard:

- We have not the necessary conditions to do so.
- It is a great work and it is not up to us, poor group, to carry it out.
- We have no time.
- We have not mediums prepared for such a task. (receive messages to organize the book about Intraterrestrials).

My friends wished a great Medium (channel) like Chico Xavier. Despite being old in dealing with spiritualist studies, it seems that they understood too little.

A man like Chico Xavier, prepared to serve and open the eyes of the world to spiritual reality, will take a hundred of years searching and, by then, after so much time, the messages that the Master needs to transmit would have lost the meaning, as the reality of intraterrestrial life would be already present.

They barely can understand the material world that surrounds them, how would understand the extraterrestrial world?

How to understand the plans that intersect physical and spiritual realities, bringing hope for unprepared hearts?

Sometimes, I wonder if I somehow failed, for not being able to transmit to you true and unrestricted faith on Master Ramatis and in his always firm and loving words.

The earthly years continue and the creatures aging. We are immortal spirits and only remain immutable as we prostrate ourselves before the materialism of physical life, abandoning the real vocation of perennial ascension.

I leave affectionate hugs to you. I can offer little of my strength, as I am still gathering it, but, from where I am, my heart is permanently radiating strength of faith that moved me for so many years, uniting me with your purposes, dear sister, to serve the Master Ramatis with all the strength of your soul.

Hail, Margarida! God save you!

Remarks:

About twenty years after those extraordinary visions at GESJ, the dear and missed sister America Paollielo Marques, in an unusual and clear way, came to confirm my presence in Jerusalem at the time of Jesus.

11 - The Job Offer

Hail Margarida,

The time allowed was short, so I will be brief.

I took a branch of the spiritual path that put me in clear recovery. I am, more than ever, active. My mind, linked in everything to the Master, serves with the tiny spark of love that lives in me.

Margarida, I come to tell you that in the planes and sub-planes of the Higher Spheres there is great movement in helping the process of disseminating callings of alert, comfort and awakening sent by all friendly spirituality.

I myself feeling in excellent condition, I offered to serve in this sense of opening let many people know that they are not alone or helpless.

Events accelerate more and more. On the astral plane, everything is work and minor things must be put aside. More than ever, humanity must be aware of what is happening, even if they do not pay attention to the warnings.

We expect the workers of the physical plane in this House be ready to bear their witness of faith.

Peace forever!

12 - Pain is temporary

Blessed is Jesus! Blessed is Master Ramatis!

In his adoring presence we bow and salute him, affirming our commitment to work.

Suffering and pain in matter are just a stage to be overcome in the evolutionary trajectory of the spirit that ignores Divine Laws.

Pain is transitory, suffering is temporary, since life on the physical plane is a tiny minute in eternity.

Suffer with resignation and confidence, not making misfortune a reason for giving up on the task undertaken in the Vineyard of Jesus, on the contrary, let suffering in the matter be the driving force of faith and work.

Only working more and more anonymously and voluntarily, in the Vineyard of Jesus and Master Ramatis, will you be worthy of overcoming the incarnational wheels of suffering.

I greet you in the Name of Light! Peace be with you!

13 - The dawn of a new day coming

Incarnated friends and brothers seeking to evolve in a transitory body granted them to ease the burden they carry; we know of their efforts exerted on earth to return free to their Spiritual Homeland.

There are countless obstacles that human beings must overcome, even being beside their beloved pupils, the guides cannot, in their hands, make the decisions or change the paths that those decide to follow.

Yes, we hear the requests for clemency for those who suffer; We feel in our hearts, pain of mothers who see their children being cut from their lives; we suffer for families annihilated by power of hatred and pride and yet, even with all this “apparent celestial distance”, we inform that nothing and no being is far from the eyes of the Supreme Beings.

The world is not at random. Those that answer for earthly destiny, they did not abandon the sparks that fight to redeem themselves and the incarnated brother who, even though he believes himself misfortune, by throwing just a spark of thought praying for help from the High, friendly hands come to help him, guiding, intuiting and directing the traveler to safely reach their destination, which is to be among the Rightists who overcame the inferiority that corrupted them.

Be strong! Be brave and courageous because the dawn of a new day is coming, and we will be celebrating in peace and harmony as true brothers.

Peace and Light

Angel Raphael

Clairvoyance: I saw a very strong light and tried to know who was. In my mind came the name of Angel Raphael. I thought he was very important Being to communicate with me, I was unsure about signing, and in my indecision the Brother concluded with these words.

Doubt only delays and prevents the light from clarifying and indicating the path that opens the mind to the new. Without prejudices or barriers, the creatures should behave.

14 - Prophets were not crazy

Hail the Peace today!

Brothers, prepare your spirits, before the body, because in the passage of time, the day will come, to everyone realize that the prophets were not crazy, the prophecies were not false, and that not one stone will be left upon another of this civilization surrounded to lust, power and lack of love for others.

He, who listens, but fear Divine Wrath, change your behavior. Cleanse your minds of the “song of the sirens”, who whisper the messages of Darkness and lead multitudes of hypnotized beings under the Beast’s power.

Even those who survive the cataclysms will have their faith of their hearts tested at every moment: in the bread and in the water they share, in the shelter they offer, giving up the comfort and provisions they manage to store; Even so, they should be grateful for the gift of life, for having seen and lived these scenes. May they remain engraved in your spiritual memories, so that there is no need to go through these harsh tests again.

God bless you all and may you have, day after day, the faith that illuminates the darkness.

Clairvoyance: I have seen a man raising a staff and then he spoke to a crowd that was waiting for him. At first, I thought it was Moises, then his name came to my mind in a strong voice:

15 – Have Faith and Love is imperative

Sisters and friends,

May the peace of Our Lord Jesus Christ be with you!

It is imperative to evolve!

The speed of events will inevitably lead creatures to the access tunnel to dimensions related to their evolutionary progress or delayed fall.

Dissatisfied with the goods of life, beings travel blindly through the valley of storms on Earth, focusing only on their pain and wounds, chasing away the flies.

However, without looking for the origin of the pain, they remain trapped in the flaming feelings that ulcerate their “astral tunics”, such as hatred, resentment, revenge, lust, pride and lack of love.

Intoxicated by the rustling of the silks in the halls, blinded by the artificial light of material progress, deluded by the facilities, they remain with their souls immersed in the puddles of darkness, feeding them that stops them to evolve.

It is imperative to have faith for courageously overcome the final moments of agony and pain, until reaching the calm sea of the new dimension.

It is imperative to unconditionally love your brother on the journey, undoing the reincarnation cycles of atonement, through forgiveness, countless times.

Had they learned to love!...

But, desirous of “having”, they lost themselves in the whirlwind of millennia and now, in the final fulfillment of the “planetary cycle”, the souls who, even when misled, the delayed souls, Divine Mercy also opened new opportunities for them to evolve.

Brothers and friends, let us awaken, in the hearts that still flicker the flame of faith, hope of calm, after the storm that presents itself.

Many storms and strong winds of destruction can devastate the earth. But, for those who have faith, keep the certainty in your hearts that above the misfortunes that plague you, a starry sky shines and peace and harmony will descend upon the Earth.

Storms are consequences of wrong choices. You must strive to achieve the merit of the bonanza.

The chaos of the “end of the cycle” represents the approach of a new time of peace in all planetary quadrants and peace, too, in your hearts!

16 - It's not revenge, it's adjustment

Brothers and friends, peace be with you!

The Earth is a sanctuary, a transformative laboratory for your souls.

Defend and love it, because the Earth, as a living cell of the Cosmos, reacts to attacks and launches itself into combat in defense of its survival.

The Earth neither recognize borders nor races, only the vibrations of love and hate. Unload, back to its origin, all the harmful load that was poured onto its soil by unfaithful and unworthy people.

It's not revenge, it's just defending life itself, which is the greatest good offered by the Creator to His children.

You were mineral, vegetable and animal and the instinct of the lower kingdoms drove you to evolutionary progress, necessary for monads (souls). But, as humans, you forgot Creative Love and became hideous, destructive creatures.

The Earth defends itself and expels its ungrateful children, severing the threads that identify them as “children of the Earth”. Once the ties of sidereal identification are broken, the soul becomes stateless, until a new humble Orb, fulfilling the Designs of God, shelters it in its bosom, hopeful that there, in the comfort of a new home, the “hidden light” will awaken in the blackened heart. Thus, Earth's links with the exiles are broken, so that their blackened souls do not hurt the sick and exhausted Mother even more.

The Planet, in its defense of its own survival, involuntarily and within the Law of Action and Reaction, imposes the same pains on its rebellious children.

It is not revenge. It's adjustment. It is the Law of Progress that overwhelmingly drags the Planet to its new condition.

Jesus, all Love, leads everyone.

Peace in your hearts!

Archangel Gabriel

Clairvoyance:

I see our Solar System and the movement of the Stars that make it up emit sound, a musicality that is interrupted, from time to time, by a noise that clashes with the harmony that surrounds everything. And the Intruder Planet that is already in our Solar System, among the Stars and their emanations launched into various directions.

It seems to affect with greater intensity planets with a still primary evolutionary degree, such as Earth. Planets higher in rank than ours seem untouchable. From them, vibrations of peace and harmony come towards the Intruding Star and planets that are influenced by it.

The Archangel Gabriel very serious hovers among the Stars.

Once again, I hear him:

Brothers!

Nothing else will interrupt the cycle of pain triggered for this humanity, predicted millennia ago by Sidereal Mentors.

The desire of Beloved Jesus slowed down events, giving more time and opportunity for the rebels and recalcitrant people to give up the Darkness for the Light. But, once this time has ended, the acceleration of the facts and events triggered will not be interrupted.

Each creature must seek to serve and love, engaging in the ranks of Christ, not as a disengaged and inattentive volunteer, but as a sincere candidate for regeneration, carrying out the tasks assigned to him with seriousness and responsibility.

It is not enough to apply for the Armies of Christ and maintain the same rebellious stance. You have to be active and, at the same time, work and renew yourself to provide spiritual ascension and moral elevation.

Peace in your hearts!

17 - Pain frees the person

My warriors, when you are in combat, do not retreat!

Fight with the strength of your hearts and for the Light that guides you.

Try, in every way, to reach the opponent's heart with your sword. Only when you manage to drive the Sword of Light into his heart, he will awaken. With compassion, think about the sacrifice of the Divine Jesus.

Pain frees the person so that be ready and he will be ready to be reborn and relearn the cosmic lessons of Truth and Faith.

The dormant “critical consciousness” will only be awakened when all ties are released.

You are warriors of Light and Love, and your battles are difficult tests, but you will have to face them.

Pity, in this process, is not help, it does not bring progress.

Love, yes, frees.

Your tired bodies ask for rest, but it is not time yet. Raise your swords, expand the love in your hearts and fulfill your mission.

The war has not come to an end, as humanity has important battles to win, but the glory of the Father will be the reward of the good warrior.

18 - The “Beast” continues attacking fiercely

Do not let your minds clouded with worries. The silence of ours comes from channeling energies in intense combats and protecting the works of revelation to reach all of humanity.

We all are exerting large efforts together with different “groups of workers”, for publication of the book: From Darkness to Light, Infernal Cities. When launched, it will fall on the “hosts of evil” like a true and powerful bomb of light, which, when exploded, with accurate and deadly blows to the “great force” that commands them.

Knowing this power, however, without understanding its superior nature, the Beast ordered the armies coming from the abyss to advance against you, exposing you to confront us.

The Superior Spirituality that coordinates everything, ordered us to intercept them before they reached you, causing interference in their ranks, so that only the least prepared could reach you. Then, with these you will be able to fight; with others, you would spend years releasing energy, which for us at the moment is very precious.

Therefore, fulfilling the Superior Order, we are protecting you're so that you can face obstacles proportional to your strength, and bring light to human consciences, wisdom and truth, dictated by the mind of the Creator.

We are all mediums of His Will.

Hail the Light!

ARIMATHEA

19 - Fear dominates the soul

Peacetime is over.

Men kill themselves and fear dominates their souls.

The Planet dies, ends the phase of excruciating pain.

Men ignore that their destructive and predatory actions have exhausted the Planet's vital forces. They are not willing to impose themselves on a discipline that is not destructive of their fellow humanity and the world they inhabit.

The limitation of rapacious actions and overwhelming depredation of the environment brings, for their petty and greedy interests, material losses.

“Let lives be lost! “Let the Planet explode!” However, material and economic losses must be avoided.” They have a selfish and arrogant conscience; they reduce the chances of survival of the Earth and its humanity and accelerate more and more the final torments.

Jesus and His Lessons represent just another way to obtain money, a source of income. Ritualistic pomp, medals, figs, bottled holy water, rosaries, wooden crosses, gold, metals and diamonds. Nothing and no possibility is neglected to raise resources and material goods.

The immortal spirit is forgotten in the face of intense material appeal. They think: “If money is needed even for holy things, why not exploit it?”

People's dark and negative intentions emit vibrations attracting dark beings that, combined with the negligence and disrespect of human beings for themselves, their neighbors and Divinity, make the dark ones believe they already have the power to dominate the world. Deluded, they travel on the invisible plane, investing more and more in careless humans, in their perfidious energies and intentions.

The Planetary House is saturated with lower vibrations, emanating from incarnates and low vibrational beings that inhabit the lower invisible planes.

This intense negative pressure contributes to acceleration of the disastrous events of “end times”.

Those who believe in a peaceful “planetary transition” free from cataclysms, from the throes of the Earth, are immersed in deep self-hypnosis and do not see the real world they inhabit, pretending not to hear the global news of imbalances and horrors of this hour.

But the Magnanimous Father sends His Extra and Interplanetary children to help, alleviating the pain of humans, even if they reject and deny them.

This planetary cycle ends and, unfortunately this humanity will change from planets, except for a few courageous souls who remain faithful to Christ.

The sacrifice of Jesus remains alive in the sensitive hearts that have already awakened their consciences and believe in the warnings that are pouring from Above on the Earth. These creatures seek to practice the Master's Lessons and will inhabit the Renewed Earth.

Brothers!

Jesus is no longer the Being nailed on the cross.

He is Life pulsating around you.

He is Life of the Earth.

He is the Way, Truth and Life and only through Him you be free.

20 - Forgiveness and Love no longer exist

Muslims, Jews and Christians are the other side of the same coin.

They fixed their minds on radical and fanatical ideals that do not allow their spirits to free themselves from the wheels of painful incarnations.

The burden of pain no longer awakens them, because as they are anesthetized, they think the Divinity is taking revenge, or they are taking revenge for Divinity.

They do not allow access to free ideals of Forgiveness and Love.

Forgiveness and Love no longer penetrate hearts impermeable by religious prejudice.

Dogmas, fanaticisms and religious submission. Each of the creatures is immersed in their sectarian world, contributing to the Humanity's backwardness and responsible, once again, for the fall and exile. The prophecies are confirmed and the lights unlit are painful and cruel. The Earth, the spaceship that guides the destiny of this humanity, finds itself without command, according to the distorted vision of many of people, as they have broken the shackles of balance and common sense and given unconditional release to the primitive and primary instincts that should have been dominated centuries ago. Tormented by guilt or indecision, these brothers remain at a low frequency vibratory level, like leftists of Christ.

Neither Allah, nor Muhammad, nor the Prophets nor Saints, only Jesus, Simple and Humble is the Path of Light and Progress.

Only He is the Way, Truth and Life.

Arimathea
GESJ – 04/13/07

21 - Here we are for Master Ramatis and Jesus

The simple people who lived at the time when the Master was in the flesh felt touched by his Sublime Words.

Those people are no longer on Earth.

To the region where the Master was born, grew up and died, a large contingent of backward and cruel spirits was also attracted, many of them led by Phalanges of Good.

There, they all incarnated together linked by ancient bonds contracted on planets from where they fell. Those spirits were part of the wild roots that were brought here during the Planet's formation.

After the presence of Jesus in that region, new wild groups were taken there, in order to reduce the inferior burden of their feelings, in those places impregnated with the Master's superior vibrations. However, they were not able to absorb anything into their Sparks of Light, from the high concentration of Superior Energy in the place. Upon recognizing each other intimately, they launched into fights and quarrels, fueling differences and hatred.

They separated into similar groups and up to now day they fight each other insistently.

Such antagonism had repercussions on the astral plane, attracting more and more the intrusion of the Beast, which feeds on fury of the uncontrolled inferior feelings of those people.

The antagonistic brothers no longer have enough strength to stop the violence spread disastrously. Some of them realize that they will end up exterminating themselves if they don't unite. But, unfortunately, they know that it is no longer possible to stop the uncontrolled power of hatred and revenge.

The Sidereal Engineers and the Masters who guide Earth's destinies often sent Superior Souls to those groups in order to stop their hatred. But the attempts failed, as the negative force built millennia ago in that extensive region no longer allows the Light to dominate.

Those responsible for the backwardness of those people will be violently uprooted from the Earth.

The Beast (Dragon=Beast) and his educated minions will no longer have the chance, on another planet, to dominate unwary beings, as they will inhabit an extinct planet, a dead, arid world, absent of any life that would alleviate their exile.

Over There, their inferior forces will be exhausted for many planetary cycles, until they beg for the Father's Help and Mercy.

Poor brothers, who today rejoice in the misfortunes of others, because a near future of unimaginable suffering awaits them. They had every chance to change their path of life, more opportunities than they deserved and didn't take advantage of any of them.

Bitter darkness and madness reserves the future for them.

Jesus leads everyone, with His infinite Love.

Jesus, the Strength that sustains us.

Jesus, Love and Light.

22 - They are slaves to fanatical religions

All over the world, intentional evil dominates human minds and hearts.

In antagonistic races (such as Jews and Muslims) there is hatred from generation to generation, fueled by the most savage groups. Deviations of the fescenine soul and vampirism did not exist among them. They are souls that do not allow their destiny to be changed.

They are greedy and, at the dawn of the modern centuries, they were contaminated by “Darkness and manipulated by the Beast”. They lost control of their actions and direction of their lives. Death squads gained strength. Fanatical terrorists have created schools, where they entice children, forming separatist citizens full of resentment.

They sail in a rough sea, on a moonless night and with the rudder adrift.

They can no longer discern which “Lord” they serve. Long ago, the words of their preferred deity, repeated mechanically, lost their meaning, as hatred, dominance of power and imposition of ideals already occupy time and mind. The heart is anesthetized to superior, nationalistic or planetary feelings.

They are slaves to fanatical religions that impose a rudimentary and backward life on them and demand bloodshed in their defense. They arrive at the gates of the “planetary transition” under total control of the Involutionary Forces, despite religion dominating their lives.

They do not know how to distinguish the “higher vibrations” that could tame their rebellious spirits and lead them to gentleness and universal love, achieving freedom from the immortal spirit, from enslaving surrender to a vengeful and cruel God.

They follow the Beast, which incites their inferior feelings and increases their vile intentions against their good brothers. Deluded, they head towards exile.

One day, inevitably, they will find the Light of Progress.

Eternity has no end; Only one planetary cycle ends and the followers of the Beast will inhabit another planet, equal to or inferior to this one, among the billions and billions of planets in the Father's Infinite Universe.

Hail the Light Force.

Blessed is Jesus.

Arimathea
GESJ – 04/13/07

23 – They let escape the chance to inhabit Earth

The intense unruliness that occurs in this “end times” humanity was predicted by Seeing Mediums and prophets in the distant past. Humans did not know how to take advantage of all the chances offered by the Magnanimous Father and change the situations that were predicted and announced so far in advance.

On the astral plane, as spirits freed from the shackles of the flesh, even if they made oaths and promises to correct the path of spiritual redemption, when diving into the flesh (reincarnate), the instincts, cultivated for thousands of years, intimately began to dominate their consciousness. They are currently working harder to satisfy them and are losing their last opportunity to progress on this Planet.

The majority of human beings, aware of their internal deviations, driven by the Light of Master Jesus and of so many Avatars who came to Earth to awaken their consciousness, could now participate in the Celestial Banquet. But, they preferred “the Beast’s song ” and with it they will leave Earth, each one, to a place compatible with their merit and vibratory frequency.

There are still those who are in a “positive inner climate” who may awaken before the end, and become worthy of new chances on this Planet.

See, brother, if you are not one of those able to remain in this world. Deserve it and launch yourselves into practicing the Lessons of Master Jesus, even today, until the gnashing of teeth does reach you.

We leave you on Peace.

Peace with Jesus.

24 – Many of us are attracted by the Universalist character of the Servants of Jesus Spiritual Colony

Hail the Light of Jesus that supports us.

Brothers, there are many of us on the spiritual plane with the blessings of the Creator, and thanks to this House that, through Divine Mercy, does not silence our voices, we transmit a little of what we learned, in contact with Instructors of great evolution and knowledge.

It has long been planned for us to transmit make public the certainty that we have survived matter and that, despite our deeds being studied, we are still imperfect creatures; For this reason, we suffer now, and we reincarnate as those who read us.

We searched for other Spiritist Houses on several occasions and found barriers imposed by ignorance or fear, which prevented us from transmitting the messages.

It was God's grace for us to be in this place and I reaffirm: there are many of us who, attracted by the Universalist character of the Servants of Jesus Colony were able to feel the ease of transmitting our knowledge.

Brothers, you who still pilgrimage in the flesh, embrace the current existence, which is one of the most important that has ever gone through the reincarnation cycle, lived on Earth. Make this life the instrument of your rehabilitation, so that, relieved, you can, in a happy reunion, in a new incarnation, feel within yourself the joy of loving, living and respecting what a “good man” should be like. Understand the meaning of forgiveness and take into your heart the friends you have made and no longer bonds of hate that magnetize you to others.

Understanding these simple messages, you will have the certainty in your soul that love makes us one with Christ.

Peace and Light in everyone's hearts.

25 - Around the Earth's Dimensional Portal

Clairvoyance:

Now, it seems like I'm already outside the spaceship, watching a landing and takeoff runway. I saw a light platform, as if it were an airport with its runways illuminated.

Before the final takeoff, brother Archimedes speaks to the beings grouped inside the spaceships through a mechanism similar to a microphone. Everyone listens.

Then, a spaceship turns on its thrusters and, gaining speed, is launched, through the Dimensional Portal, out of the earthly psychosphere.

The visual field in front of me expands and I see that there is a line of spaceships; Many of them bringing beings from other collective disincarnations. The flow of spaceships is intense and the work is incessant; Many arrive and depart through this Portal, whose guardian is brother Archimedes.

Archimedes
GESJ – 12/20/08

26 –Withdraw of souls to exile

Clairvoyance:

I left the body and was taken into a spaceship that floated in space outside Earth. From inside the spaceship, looking forward, through a panoramic window, I saw that there was a Dimensional Portal, which energetic activity was intense, as it was possible and a movement of lights as if it were an Aurora Borealis.

I thought we were going to cross this Portal, but I started to hear words coming from behind and, when I turned around, I noticed that the nave was full of people: some of them, sitting; others, lying apparently asleep, and others, caged.

An Extraterrestrial Brother, who seemed to me to be responsible for the groups, said the following words to them:

Dear friends!

We have known for a long time that when the deadline for redeeming yourselves before the Law on this Earth ends, you would embark on a journey to new worlds, inhabited by beings similar to you, or uninhabited, depending on your needs.

Humans die and follow a destiny that was not determined by the Father; rather, yes, chosen by the children.

You are part of that group, who, given every chance to renew themselves, chose the left of Christ. Material attachments spoke louder than Christ's words. The passions shouted calls for conviviality with you, more than the gentle vibrations of the Master.

Recalcitrant in pride and selfishness, your minds chose the blindness of darkness, instead of the vision of light.

Follow the chosen path and you will inhabit other worlds, taking pain with you, as the field you chose is full of thorns.

At this time, he turns to another group and continues:

As for you, childish and weak souls, you left behind the opportunities for progress, neglecting the plans programmed with the Superior Spirits. Now it is too late to repent; your time has run out and you will be reborn in a new world similar to Earth where the vibratory shock will produce inconstant waves of primitive magnetism.

Despite the knowledge you have, you will be forced by your choices to put up with each other's delay and rebellion, resuming tasks precisely from the point where you abandoned them.

Go and work, because no one circumvents God's Laws and progress is an unconditional task.

Thus, the Extraterrestrial Brother speaks farewell words to the earthly brothers who are being deported to other Orbs.

Firstly, they received spiritual care; They were then undergone to other treatments, but, despite the violent death and the assistance received, they continued to persist in their petty feelings. Therefore, they will proceed to their destinations.

Behind these, there were others who will also be deported by this Being that I heard speaking.

Most of the exiled ones were lucid and heard the Light worker's words, which remained stuck in their minds, like a period of time in their evolutionary journey. As the subject was very complex for me, I decided to ask.

- Yes.

– Who are you?

– Guardian of the Dimensional Portal of access to your World. I was appointed by Commander Yury to accompany the removal of fallen souls, definitively disconnecting them from the Earth's psyche (as if cutting the umbilical cord).

– What's your name?

– Archimedes.

– Are you an extraterrestrial brother?

– Yes. I was also deported and I really rebelled against this system, not accepting being away from my home planet.

I spent millennia wandering the Orbs seeking approval and help; but, in the end, I succumbed to the Sovereign Law, to the Greater Will. Today, I work serving Him using all the wisdom acquired.

– Thank you, brother, for the clarifications. Just one more question: Are these brothers who are going into exile aware of what is happening?

– Consciousness, yes, however, regarding the real dimension of the seriousness of the facts, the mind is still incapable of understanding. However, the events will be recorded in their memory and, one day, they will understand.

– Why am I remembering the Tsunami catastrophe while you are talking?

– Because it is the strongest image that remained in the minds of these brothers. The proximity you are to them, in a large number and the state of extreme anxiety in which they are, make the sister capture the mental frequency with the last impressions of death.

– So, they all come from the Tsunami?

– Yes. These groups here are brothers disembodied during that catastrophe.

– What will their trip be like?

– The planets that will receive them are already prepared. Teams led by Commander Yury are already awaiting the arrival of these souls in their new planetary homes. They will leave here, in groups of spaceships traveling through stellar paths on routes defined by the High, being separated in the dispersion area, when immersed into infinite space, they will be guided to their destinations.

Each spaceship will lead a group and each Commander will receive instructions on where to go. Everyone works together and in perfect harmony. There are no unforeseen events. The Rescue Plan flows smoothly and fairly, as is the Father's Will.

Let us also continue our work of meeting the imperatives of this troubled time for earthly humanity and let us make our final moments in this world an expression of our faith and love for God.

- Thank you, brother.

– Be on Peace!

Yours friend.

GESJ - 12/20/08

27 – The Intruding Planet

Peace will no longer be found in this advanced of End of Times.

Brothers, let us praise the Creator, who is the living manifestation of Love!

The pulsing of His Love creates life in all dimensions of the universe!

Let yourselves be guided by God's Love and reach the Heaven!

The emanations of the Intruding Planet reverberate over the four corners of the Earth. It does not carry any evil in it. Being primitive, its "grief", reaches the primary ranges of the lower dimensions, and makes “animal primitiveness” vibrate within the depths of all souls, stimulating and releasing the corresponding feelings.

The impact of its vibrations has already caused functional dystonia of reason and beings that are carried away by its magnetism lose control over themselves.

Suffering more direct action, this humanity responds to its primitive impulse and sheds all animalist contained by moral bonds. Once the containment dikes are broken, the torrent of bad behavior spills over and manifests itself in physical matter, dragging thousands of beings into madness, imbalance, addiction and crime.

See that Hercóbulus emanates primitive strength from himself and the beings, “enhanced” in evil, correspond to its vibration, pouring evil from himself.

Animals, whose primitive strength is still unconscious, do not suffer as much influence as rational beings. Since the magnetism of animals corresponds to the primary magnetism of the Intruding Planet contact with the magnetism of the Intruder Planet does not trigger any exacerbated behavior on them.

All creatures that remain in a certain lower range, of oscillating vibrations and degrading attitudes, are influenced by the primitive force of the Intruding Planet and subject to being attracted by it.

The entire whirlwind of evil tendencies, not dominated by the creature in his evolutionary lifetime dominates its reason and actions.

At this stage, the degree of difficulty encountered in leaving the lower leftist bands is much greater. It demands a larger load of energy to become vibrationally superior to primitive magnetism, which seeks to impose itself on terrestrial magnetism; and larger effort on the part of Rightists of Christ, to stay on the enlightened path.

The dark Beings that inhabit dominating the lower regions, they feel strengthened in this stage of greater action of the Intruding Planet’s primary strength and the beings enslaved in those negative bands will feel hopeless about achieving freedom.

The Great Beast feels almost happy and thinks it is about to free itself and dominate the Earth.

The Beast's manifestation is more intense among its minions, as its pernicious energy "rolls" more easily among dimensions; unlike Light, which finds a disproportionate magnetic barrier to manifest itself on the Planet.

This entire process that you experience is part of the Greater Planning of "planetary transition".

While humanity finds itself suffocated by low-level vibrations, which it does not know how to define; while manifest violence descends into collective madness; while the forces of nature gradually go astray, human beings make their choices and define their vibratory pattern as regenerated or exiled.

The automatism of God's Law reveals itself before the stupefied gaze of the rebels.

In the clearings of Light, spread across the Earth, the Servants of Jesus work tirelessly in battles against "wild beings", in the sanitation of the lower astral regions, in helping strayed and powerless souls, and in recovering their own path of Spiritual asceticism.

Peace no more will be found at this advanced stage of "end of times". Peace and Love must be cultivated in each one, keeping the inner being illuminated to go through the paths of ascension struggle, until achieving regeneration. Each creature will face fierce struggles, on both planes of life, until the dawn of the New Age.

Jesus who is tireless and all Love, sustains everyone.

Archimedes

Question: Are you Archimedes, the Guardian of the Portal?

Answer: Yes. From the position we remain as Guardian of that Portal, we clearly see the Intruding Planet and its breeze that already "touches" the Earth's breeze causing a tremendous shock on the weak structures of human morality.

Jesus guide you! Sustained by the Father's Love, the Son guides us.

Clairvoyance: I see Helena Blavatsky's body in a crystal dome of a spaceship. Someone starts talking:

Her mind is in an accelerated process of reducing memories.

In turmoil, the memories stored in her brain core are reduced and archived so that they remain forgotten for the necessary time, until she is fully adapted to the new planet and incarnated there, carrying out her redemptive task.

She does not suffer in this process, but a feeling of pain and longing remains latent within her. She will miss indefinably, like you feel, and which you now know is from your planet of origin.

She will feel this indefinable longing and an indecipherable sadness, until her psychic centers are fully established by intellect-moral development in the programmed tasks.

She will also know and be comforted, in the hope of reuniting with distant friends.

In the sphere of redemption, hard work and sacrifice, in the form of renunciation and pain, are part of the rehabilitation of the creature before Divine Consciousness.

Jesus leads her and the Planetary Christ sustains her.

Peace, with you,

Archimedes

Question: Did you led her to Planet Suplastio?

Answer: Yes, just like this sister, many other terrestrial beings who failed in their collective tasks, causing humanity to be set back without, however, hurting anyone, as soon as they became aware of their mistake and threw themselves into hard work, they accepted the sacrifice of temporarily transferring themselves to another Orb, similar to your planet today, to redeem themselves returning later to the Renewed Earth. They are not part of the fallen ones.

We wish you peace! Jesus bless you!

29 - I know of my arrogance of not forgive the other's mistakes

Brothers, what brings us together in this spiritual school is the desire to evolve morally and spiritually, and thus be able to advance on the long path of progress.

We often return to the spiritual plane exhausted thinking about throwing ourselves into the madness of oblivion when we realize the opportunities lost to pay debts, alleviate hurts, and forgive.

I dedicate myself intensely at this moment to my spiritual development, because when in the flesh I am aware of my arrogance, which I did not forgive other people's mistakes.

We are all trainees, and, in this House of Love, I am transmitting to young people and children the beautiful lessons in singing, music and poetry that guided me in life, transforming them into drops of hope in their fragile hearts.

I continue learning, and with love I say goodbye.

30 - It's Christmas

Christmas on Earth is coming

Christmas of Master Jesus

Despite the Peace it contains

Peace is far away, closer the cross.

It's Christmas of Jesus

Next to Him comes to be
Knowing that many people suffer
When they want to transform.

In the night that many people sing
Celebrating the gift of life
Think about those who suffer
Praising life without measure.

Time goes on; hours go on
In the clock of vain men
Distracted, they run foolishly
Behind the shadows of illusion.

The Master and Good Friend came to teach us.
He gave his life for us on the cross,
But He reborn every year
Reminding us of His Light

Don't forget during the festivities,
That Christmas, more than a party, is Hope
Of love, Kindness and Faith,
That He left us as an inheritance
Give yourself
With the perfect and pure act
Leaving selfishness and Loving, reach out.

31 - To love is always forgiving and smiling

Through happy roads

Children of God walk

Remembering cheerful partridges

Walking through their gardens

Broken and sad

They stumble all the time

Navigating difficult tunnels

Searching through useless flowerbeds

There are splinters left, they cut thorns

Among the children of ignorance

Traveling along paths

In search of supply

Always subtle and friendly

There are the teachings

Easy, useful and applicable

Sweet lights of the firmament

Love and serve

Donate and leave

Help and redeem

BATUÍRA

32 - Brazil is the most spiritualist country in the world

Brothers, Peace be with you! Mediumship is not just receiving spirits without control. It is a disciplinary process for the medium and a tool for evolution, both for those who possess it and for those who coordinate and direct its disciplined exercise.

Thousands of suffering souls are undergoing a purification process in the “ponds of the beyond”, or prisoners of Darkness, already in a position to be helped, needing the support of the medium so that they can awaken more quickly and help for own recovery and balance.

However, they delay in the Recovery Houses of the spiritual Colonies, due to the lack of commitment of the mediums with the Spiritist Houses and mistake of the Coordinators or Presidents, of the Spiritist Institutions, where they wait for the mediums to memorize Kardec's texts to then practice mediumship in the disobsessive process. They also keep the doors closed for meetings, as if in mediumistic practice there were veiled mysteries.

Long ago, mediumistic processes were laid bare to humanity by the renowned Allan Kardec, who, unfortunately, was misunderstood in his homeland, but exported to the world the simple and effective methods of balanced mediumistic manifestation, revealing the invisible to the physical world.

Brazil is the most spiritualist country in the world and, as Homeland of the Gospel, it should have long ago assumed the appropriate responsibilities in the Spiritist Houses to alleviate the negative pressure of the astral plane, caused by excess of suffering spirits, in need of “- Laying on of Hands” through mediums for their awakening.

Each medium has a program for their existence and each Conductor, Coordinator and President of the Spiritist House has their responsibility in correctly managing the development of the mediums who knock on the doors of the Spiritist Institutions, which they direct.

Brothers, Free Will is the most reliable tool for measuring the degree of evolution of each being, because through its use, each child of God has been building their path of progress or fall.

Help the suffering beings, because the “Planetary Transition”, “Doomsday” and “Apocalypse”, are accelerated and in the clear process of separating between wheat and tares.

May Jesus bless you all!

33 - Extraphysical reality is far from incarnating minds

Blessed Jesus, the Divine Friend of all times!

Batuíra, was my name on my last earthly pilgrimage. When I arrived on the other side of life, I was amazed at the scale of the tasks to be carried out on earthly thresholds. Beyond the thresholds, in a rugged descent, in an even denser region, the perispiritual forms lie in total disharmony and deformity.

Therein, the disfigurements are more intense, as one advances in the darkness, as the density is complete and the light rays, when they arrive, due to the thought of some Superior Arcanum, cause disgust and fear, terror and flight of the disfigured inhabitants from the place.

Creatures that were once human, and today from human have nothing, not due to divine injustice or any external force that has acted on their subtle constitution of the soul; but, due to intrinsic force, a vibratory fall of feelings into the corners of vices, hatred, and persistent rebellion against the Laws of God.

As I became aware of the existence of such a region, I studied and prepared myself and gradually immersed myself there.

With Superior permission and help from Divine Emissaries, I underwent intense training to, within my limitation, live there temporarily, for study and work to help brothers deprived of human form and consciousness. Despite being human, as their sparks have already traveled through the various kingdoms in automatic evolution, when they achieved the blessing of awakening from animal consciousness to the human consciousness, they rebelled and even in the flickering of their first steps, they “brake” their souls in superlative deviations, which generated madness and anomalies.

I remained there for the time stipulated by Superior Brothers, who know of our intimate constitution, at times better than ourselves; and in this dense work environment, we meet other creatures who, like us, voluntarily seek to serve the Work of God, anonymously, in the darkness, where pain and gnashing of teeth have made their home. We made friends and “fished” for some souls.

But here I am and I made a point of introducing myself, because I was brought to this House to “decontaminate” myself from impurities that I naturally acquired in the superficial layer of my soul, due to the prolonged time in the dense region. An “Angel” brought me, when he ascended from the Abyss.

Thank you for your help and assistance. I am now in the final phase of the “treatment” I underwent to restore perspiritual balance.

I did not remain inoperative, as my soul is dedicated to work and, with the permission of the Superior Spirituality that leads you, I was with you in Fernando de Noronha and could observe and work on your activities.

I say goodbye, because just as the work in the Abyss has enriched my soul, the short time I spent in this House of Work brought me new knowledge, and different friends, from other races and cultures, of whom I had heard, but who had not I the honor of meeting the Extra and Intraterrestrial Brothers.

Do not mind if the Spiritist confreres do not accept my words as true, but the extraphysical reality is far beyond the imagination of incarnated beings, limited in their beliefs and way to see life.

We greet you in the name of God and leave you the peace of the Divine Friend Jesus, He who simply loves us.

Peace, with you.

Batuíra GESJ – 01/22/10

34 – Study deeply the Postulates of the Third Revelation.

Dear Spiritist brothers do not be surprised by my revelation.

Study hard the postulates of the “Third Revelation” and find much knowledge that, until then, you had not noticed, about the underground worlds and extraterrestrial brothers; about those exiled to and from Earth to other worlds, equal to or inferior to it, in the “Doomsday” selection process.

The paradigm of this humanity is evolution and few ones will reach a better degree to allow them a higher dimension; therefore, thousands and thousands of earthy beings from both planes of life will be exiled.

“The Father’s House has many mansions.” You should better understand this statement by studying it deeply through the Distinguished Master Allan Kardec.

I'm not criticizing, just stating facts.

Just as renowned spirits on earth train phalanxes of spirits that use their name to distribute charity, Divine Kindness has also allowed other brothers who, like me, seek to practice the Lessons of Christ, humble Servants of Jesus, to use it. remember the name I had on earth and serve me as if I were myself in the various activities of the Spiritist Houses spread across Brazil.

We are many anonymous servants who work in the name of Jesus and, if a name has a lot of meaning for you, for us, spirits, it means nothing.

The spirit is free and blows wherever it wants and the more we learn, the less individual we are.

Jesus leads everyone who, in his Name, works.

BEETHOVEN

35 - The Angels ‘sweet sonatas no more sound in the Universe

Clairvoyance:

Right after we recited the 6:00 pm mantra, I started listening to classical music. I started paying attention and was transported into space. There, I recognized Beethoven's 9th Symphony. He appeared in front of me like in his photos, and suddenly his appearance changed to that of an extraterrestrial very tall, thin, head a little big. During the clairvoyance I didn't feel that Beethoven was in our colony, it was as if he were sending his message from afar:

Blessed is Christ who allowed us this meeting.

Sisters, the sweet sonatas of the Angels, who sang the Glory of the Father, no longer sound in the Universe.

Planet Earth, a much-loved and much-suffering planetary house, no longer sings the sweet notes of harmony of its creation. They reach us, in these sad hours that precede sunset, the lament of abandonment, the mercy out of pity for the suffering and helpless.

We emit at all times, through the winds, in the murmur of the sea, in the songs of birds, the messages of joy and love that each creature receives within itself in the creation of the spark.

We act lovingly in cleaning our once beloved Home, and with it we commit ourselves to healing its wounds.

All of you who listen to me, do not abandon at random, the house that serves as your spiritual shelter. Take care of every part of this friendly Planet, because who knows, it will shelter you again in the future?

Let us unite in love with the great Creation.

Light on your path!

36 – Everything will be computable in the Divine Accounting

We establish contact.

Cold night precedes sunrise.

A rainy day is followed by the wind that blows.

You must calm your impure souls, washing them with the sweat of your bodies in your incessant work for Good.

Raise your hands in gratitude, for the chance granted to you to redeem the evil you have done.

Raise the eyes and thank the Father for so much you have received.

You are much loved children of Beloved God.

Raise your arms in hard work, because even if you work every minute and every second, it is still little.

Cry, but do not abandon your work.

Be tired but neither close your eyes, nor lower your arms.

Lift your forehead and go ahead. You shouldn't even allow your mistakes to impede your progress towards work.

Be sure that that everything will be counted in the Divine Accounting.

37 - Fear

Of the many lessons I learned, it was this one that I gained the most: never allowing the seed of hatred that is born from the fruit called fear to settle in the sanctuary of my heart.

Fear to lose.

Fear of not to be.

Fear of not having and wanting.

Fear of knowing nothing.

Fear of simply accepting, surrendering myself

Fear of being humble, simple, pure.

38 - They will wake up in Primitive Planet

Men sleep over time and it slips through their numb fingers.

They forget the Law of Love and rejoice in the matter.

They will finally wake up, in a painful fall, in a primitive abyss on a Primitive Planet.

Wake up, dear brothers, Jesus extends His Hands to you.

Wake up from this illusion of feeding on money and power.

The earthly glories are ephemeral; the celestial glories are eternal.

Come with me, come to the Light.

39 – Do not complaints of difficulties

Clairvoyance:

Siddhartha Gautama, Buddha, visits us. He appears on a flower with a thousand petals, a lotus flower. His look is serious, but he says nothing. He circulates among us and stops when I hear the following words:

The path is often made of sharp rocks, hurting passers-by's feet and also consisting of a steep slope that consumes their energy.

However, despite being difficult, it is the safe path to salvation.

The path free from obstacles is not always safe.

Each person must follow the path compatible with its task and its guilt.

Abandoning the difficult path for the obstacle-free path will cast the creature into dark cemeteries of perdition.

Give up the complaints of difficulties.

Don't waste time looking for beauties along the way. Close your eyes and see the right path to salvation.

Thus, free from scenes that distract the traveler, you will clearly follow the path of ascension.

Siddhartha Gautama – Buddha

40 - Seeds of Love and Hate

Brothers, peace be with you.

The human mind is a favorable ground for the seeds of love and hate to flourish.

The human heart is the driver of positive or negative feelings that water the seeds of the mind, providing favorable conditions for them to flourish.

Words are fruits of the sowing of the heart and mind.

If the seeds are of Light, the words emitted will be of love; but, if the seeds germinated in the mind were watered by feelings of hatred, the words that sprout are of perfidy and war.

Therefore, brothers, do not allow your minds, already clean of bad seeds, to be contaminated by low vibrations that could activate latent seeds, which you must neutralize through good actions.

Seek to emit positive feelings of love and kindness, resignation and faith to keep your mind free from weeds and the words you speak to be filled with good feelings that can repel the dark vibrations.

Jesus is our Shepherd and we will lack nothing.

Siddhartha Gautama – Buddha

41 - Sowing and reaping

Sowing and harvesting are actions practiced by all creatures.

Sowing hatred, reaping torments of misunderstanding.

Sowing revenge, reaping gales of insanity.

Bad sowing leads to painful harvest, and good sowing elevates the creature to evolve.

The harvest of this humanity is painful, making the Earth, a Valley of tears and gnashing of teeth.

The majority of beings continue to sow badly and a tiny portion of humanity practices good deeds.

Sowing and reaping is an ordinary process of an evolving being.

Therefore, sowing is free, but harvesting is mandatory.

Gautama - 05/27/10

42 - The Spirit's challenge is returning to its purity

In the search for perfection of the spiritual being, the creature cannot forget its imperfections.

Knowledge, pure and simple, does not elevate the creature to the status of angelic being.

It is in the perfection of virtues, in the emptying of guilty conscience and in the forgiveness of offenses that, automatically, the Spirit acquires the brightness and lightness, ideal for full ascension.

Angel Jesus returned man to Earth and then ascended as Archangel.

Imperfect creatures must become MEN and then, truly transformed by the Law of Love, become candidates for Angel.

Returning to the purity for which it was created is the spirit's great challenge in its long evolutionary journey.

Peace for you all!

Caio Miranda - 11/27/09

43 – The human narrow mind

The human mind is too limited. He doesn't know himself and judges others.

He does not control his own Self and seeks to dominate the Planet.

He does not know how to love and demands to be loved and respected.

Not knowing himself, he ignores the environment around him, destroys what he sees and does not accept what he “does not see”.

Poor brothers, who still need to suffer to then awaken.

Poor brothers who, immersed in Creator's Love, do not know how to love.

Knowledge and Love must be in communion to achieve ascension.

Peace for you all!

44 - Nature in thankful celebration

Brothers!

Blessed be the Divine Friend Jesus who, under His Sublime Energy of Love, leads us back to the Father's House.

The Earth throes are heard at distance.

Its groan of pain touches the hearts of the Superior Hosts of the Mansions of Light in distant Planets.

It does not complain about his sad fate; it is a deep groan of sadness.

When it rushes to help Mother Earth in her pitiful groan, it is seen that she is immersed in dense clouds suffocating her. She reacts, trying to shake off the thorns that hurt her. In this act of defense, she expels from herself the attacking agents who, unfortunately, are her rebellious, stubborn and disrespectful children of her generous kindness. She expels them with regret, but her aggressions trigger self-defense mechanisms that are uncontrollable by the will of the generous Mother Earth.

Wounded by death, she resists, because she wants to live and nurture her children in the glorious renewal approaching.

Brothers, bless the Earth and send the best thoughts and actions in favor of it so that it feels loved with a sincere desire to see it healed, without any excuse. Do not despise the one who, for thousands of years, welcomes you and accompanies you in your progress or your fall, silent and friendly.

Nature in thankful celebration.

45 - Only Love frees

Earthly Signatories, the time comes to adjust accounts of your reign.

The borders of the horizon expand, so that a new dawn pour light over shadows and appeases the hatred hearts.

He, who remains in sowing of storms will be sent to “other fields”, where the plowing difficult by rocky terrain, will direct them to Love.

Others, still undecided about the Gospel’s lessons will go into exile, where will repeat the lesson neglected, still in conditions of expiation and pain.

A small contingent of souls manages to clear the ground and sow some seeds of love before the hour ends; and they will greet the new sunrise on the horizon.

Only Love can free.

Only Jesus, the personification of Love, is the Way, Truth and Life.

46 – Difficult “End of times “for whoever wishes to evolve

Much of what is hidden reveals itself to this humanity of “end of times” but few ones manage to lift their eyes from the dense matter and reach knowledge beyond.

Stunned and lost, not finding the answers they seek in official religions, they search in the dense bands of palmistry, to know the invisible, and get rid of the bad energies. However, ignorant, they attract undesirable company to themselves.

We do not perceive any opportunity for renewal in the hardened, proud, vain, addicted, cruel, perverted, selfish hearts. Minds stained by the inferior pulsation become impervious to the Light.

Hatred and revenge gain strength and, like flames, consume creatures. Fear besieges beings in their quicksand castles, and those related to vibratory falls are recruited by the dark ones.

“End of times”, difficult for those who wish to evolve; tormenting for non-believers, and ideal for explorers.

47 - The veil of pain spreads over this humanity!

Brothers, I greet you in the name of God!

The veil of pain spreads over this humanity.

The time has come to adjust accounts between victims and perpetrators. Those who have already achieved a better spiritual condition will face the confrontation with resignation and confidence in God's Designs, however, those who remain in the lower moral and spiritual ranges fight fiercely in the inevitable confrontation with their tormentors.

Victims and perpetrators who remain trapped in resentment and revenge will inexorably lead to planetary exile.

He, who has forgiven and continues his existence, guided by the Light Force of the Divine Master, when reached by the pain that redeems, will free himself from the wheels of suffering and happily reach the Land of Regeneration.

No one will escape to adjust the accounts owed to the Law of Progress.

“You will not leave there until you pay the last penny”, the Kind Rabbi explained to us, and this is the time to pay off your debts to others, achieving balance, harmony and peace with Divine Accounting.

Be sure that only your debts will be paid by you, as the Law does not allow anyone else to do so in your place.

May Jesus sustain you in the supreme hour that you live, which will define your destiny of spiritual ascesis or of continuing as a rebel transgressor of the Laws of Balance.

Blessed is Jesus.

Hail the Peace.

CARDINAL RICHELIEU

48 - I am small in the face of the Father's Greatness

Dear Brothers!

At great risk are men, who attached to old dogmas, do not seek truths in the sources of clear waters of the Gospel, always revitalized with the messages of Sublime Teachings.

The "old man" (an expression that translates the countless existences already lived by human beings, sometimes as a man, sometimes as a woman) throughout all time, still clings to proud ideas, in closed circles, composed of men who proclaimed themselves to be the "Seekers of God" to transmit to a totally alienated humanity to which occurs in the occult side.

Religions, churches and their leaders take on great responsibilities when proclaiming their conclusions to their followers, which most of the time come from their most intimate self.

These are concepts completely contrary to those preached by Master Jesus, but which, when repeatedly disseminated, become absolute (true).

The religions recommended by official sources on Earth as the most honest, their bases are completely corrupted and already worn out in the face of so many scandals, distortions, possessions and riches that are not justified in the face of the proof of humility and simplicity that was the example left by Master Nazarene.

Let each one seek their truth, investigate, consult, dedicate themselves to increasing their spiritual knowledge and not give themselves like sheep to a blind shepherd, like the flock he leads.

We see hordes, hypnotized crowds, who do not discern right from wrong, follow blindly in the belief that will not be held responsible for what they do.

Therefore, these messages that are brought by merciful effort of friendly spirituality, fall like a watershed in the minds of those who allow themselves to be “guided” by their leaders.

If only they could have a vision of what is proclaimed to everyone.

Wake up, be brave, break religious ties and don't be like I was, at a certain point in my time, proud and cowardly, who believed in a heaven specially created for the enlightened ones of the Holy Church.

I hope I can grow in the time I still have.

I am small in the face of so much of the Father's Greatness and only with this thought, we will gradually become great, and be able to reach a small part of what God is.

Reflect and act correctly.

Light to you all!

49 - I still hear the screams of my suffering people.

Clairvoyance: At the beginning of the mantra, I saw a weakened woman being led close to our group.

She had a posture of humility and repentance. Then came the communication:

Sisters, Peace in Jesus!

If we knew what our decisions would bring to those entrusted to our hands, we would not call ourselves "Representatives of God", as kings and queens were called.

In our absolute arrogance given to us by the Roman Catholic Church, that our actions and decisions were supported by God, we thought we would not suffer punishment, since Hell was for the ordinary people and Heaven was] for those crowned from Above.

After painful and bitter suffering, I try to rehabilitate myself from years of dissimulation, authoritarianism and certainty of impunity that power brings.

How much hunger I failed to satisfy, how many bodies I failed to clothe, how many lives at my disposal, which I used for private benefit.

The Church was my ally in the Court's collusion and in maintaining my power.

But I can blame no one other than myself, as she connived at vile acts and had the authority for my decisions.

I still hear the screams of pain and suffering of my people. Every cry is a thorn in my soul.

I, gradually I know the fate of each one who was under my care and, in this way, I am aware, through the selfless brothers, of my responsibilities regarding the path they have taken.

I am still weak, but with the desire to change myself and begin a long journey of a new beginning, in the reunion with the Greater Father who, at times, judged my servant.

I ask Divine Mercy to help me alleviate the suffering of others and that, once restored, I can write a new and fair history for humanity.

Peace for all.

50 - Mother Nature

Mother Nature will give man the answer for his careless living.

She gave him the stars and he, with his polluting agents, hid their shine.

She gave him the star-king, source of life and creation that attacked, today kills his own creations.

She gave him pure water and humanity throws its waste into its beds.

She gave him replenishing air, the blessed food that sustains life, and he polluted it with his experiments in the name of progress and science, intoxicating its atmosphere.

Nature will respond with fury to all aggressions, with the aim at seeing itself purified and cleansed, to offer men the opportunity to start over again.

SIDEREAL SCIENTISTS

51 – They are infinite hours in time

Peace of Christ that allows this approach.

Sisters, we are beings from a universe that is far ahead of humanity's time, and we will call ourselves Sidereal Scientists because the name is no longer important among you.

In our studies and work, we have been developing techniques for recovering of the astral bodies of beings, said by you, Reptilians.

Some of us have been Reptilians in other times and after millennia and millennia of internal struggles, we managed to free ourselves from the chains that tied us to the errors and hatred that led us to this form. We are working with several Reptilians who will be exiled from Earth, but who are in different stages of transformation of their reptilian body.

We do not take care of their future reincarnations, we only prepare their astral bodies so that they can return to the flesh.

During several successive births, always under our monitoring, some will be born into the flesh as aberrations. They will maintain, in their structure, a form that will resemble a reptile, this will happen until an incarnation in a body that can interact with the society of the planet to where were sent.

There are infinite hours in time for this to happen. A difficult subject to transmit to the skeptical men of Planet Shan, but, by the Father, no son is lost.

Under His tutelage, we work on the recovery of our brothers.

Peace from the Great God, to you all!

53 - In the Lion's den

Blessed Father who guides us!

Brothers of humanity, when human beings understand what pain is, they will then begin understanding the need for troubled family relationships, physical and moral pain; and, through this already assimilated lesson, the faith will be solidified that will strengthen the Being in the face of the tests necessary to go through. In this way, no Lion's 'den will shake the conviction that the Father watches over us.

Therefore, to believe in God's Designs, the creature must rid itself of the burdens that bind it to the worlds of pain and suffering. Get rid of pride, vanity and presumption that the mistakes committed will be forgotten, and that these will be lost in forgetting the pain we made our brother go through.

Brothers, live each day as if in the next moment everything was taken away from you, leaving you with only the immaterial goods: Love, forgiveness and compassion; and at this time turn to others understanding that whoever gives love receives love.

Light of Master Jesus to everyone!

Daniel (in the lion's den)
GESJ – 06/08/10

When I was going to write the name of the communicating brother, I asked if he was Daniel from the Bible and he answered positively.

Today, the beasts are in the caves of human minds, and these, unfortunately, were created through unfortunate actions over time. It is up to everyone to fight and eliminate them.

DANTE ALIGHIERI

54 - Only those prepared in faith can face the storms.

Glory to God in the highest, peace on earth and kindness in the hearts of men!

Brothers, creatures take turns on the two planes of life; victims and executioners pursue each other without rest, ignoring the friendly and welcoming time, eager for revenge, in their implacable hatred, in the insatiable pursuit of animal desires and passions. They lost themselves in the whirlwind of millennia, ignoring the call from the High to cease fighting and seek peace.

The time established for this humanity to progress within high moral standards, in accordance with Superior Moral Codes, is running out.

Now, accelerated time ignores the disputes and the rebels, and thus the Father's Greater Will is fulfilled. His established Laws are manifested, and the rebels face exile, the last stage of their spiritual delay.

Storms more and more will arise and only those who have prepared themselves in faith will know how to face them.

God's Designs are immutable and men, fallible and failed in their purposes of progress, approach the end of the expiatory cycle and will succumb without finding regeneration.

Brothers, be free, find the Christ who is Light and Goodness,

Peace and Love for all of us!

Alighieri, 10/05/09

55 - We have seen the Abyss and awful living scenes

Brothers, the hourglass of time hangs over this humanity and there is little time left for the creatures to make the right choices.

Time is running out and, in lamentable moral conditions, the earthly creatures appear, greedy for power and material goods, forgetful of God, driven by instincts and blackened by the lack of love in their hearts.

Humanity is dominated by “dark beings” magnetized to fiery spheres of the abyss that lead creatures to fall, darkness and spiritual delay.

Brothers, you have the essential chances and opportunities to make progress.

Your delay has been going on for too long!

It is the last hour to positively change your lives, seeking the opposite of the wrong choices you have been making.

The Divine Light of Master Jesus, lit like a Sun on our foreheads, guarantees victory for those who seek Him with the resources of sacrifice, renunciation and practice of His Lessons.

Do not wait for the turbulent events around you, drag you in the whirlwind of pain, to finally seek the Sun that shines brightest.

This is the time to strengthen faith, to practice solidarity and anonymous charity without expecting anything in return. It is time to modify the vibratory tone of your souls to reach the vibratory levels of the “Rescue spaceships”, otherwise you will only reach the “Prison spaceships” and, once again, exile.

Accept your material limitations and conditions that the Father offers you to evolve and walk towards spiritual ascension.

Choices are made in each action you make in your daily life, building the acceleration of cells in your bodies, subtilizing them for ascension, or depositing the blackness that intoxicates your soul, preventing it from flying, keeping it trapped in the karmic wheels of suffering.

Brothers, come to meet Christ!

He always guides us.

Dante Alighieri

We have seen the Abysses and the horror of the living scenes, we carried them in our souls.

And we guarantee you: Better are sacrifice and death, in the name of Christ than a wealthy life and satisfaction of instincts for coexistence with the Beast.

Jesus guides us!

DEMOSTHENS

56 - Only true Love overcomes the trials

Clairvoyance: I saw a serious man, with a strong presence, speaking to an assembly.

Hail the light!

Men of little faith, humanity will only understand the value of solidarity and working together, when pain knock on their door!

Catastrophes will have a more destructive character and, with each passing day, they will encompass thousands of victims along their paths who, with nothing to cling to or support themselves, will feel in their hearts the need to turn to others.

The construction of a fraternal man accelerates in moments of pain and loneliness, stripping him of vanity and fragile pride.

The person when sees himself vulnerable in the face of storms, he turns his eyes to heaven and realizes that the Greater Force comes from God and that He, even in all His Magnitude, does not work alone, he makes use of the Enlightened Ones who have overcome all the barriers of inferiority.

Incarnated and disembodied brothers, only true love will survive the difficult tests that are approaching the Earth. Let us unite, so that in a collective effort, larger number of brothers can be assisted.

Peace and Fraternity.

57 – He who more studies Spiritist Doctrine, less he knows

The study of the Spiritist Doctrine is systematic and must be done gradually, so that knowledge is achieved.

Often, a single life is not enough to be able to understand the complex intricacies of spiritual life and in fact, they are often bizarre in the eyes of the incarnate.

The sincere student of the doctrine of spirits, the more he studies, the more he discovers that he knows nothing. Consoling doctrine that awakens the incarnate from the materialistic hypnosis to which it surrenders, due to the armor of flesh (physical body).

Misunderstood, it is a fall vehicle. When applied well, it is a renewing impulse for the spirit.

Any candidate to become a Spiritist, in the meaning of the term, should not be in a hurry to devour the extensive Spiritist Literature compiled by brilliant minds. He must, rather, seek, through gradual understanding, the definitive transformation of the spirit.

To become truly free, the soul must attain the Angel's wings: Knowledge and Love.

God bless you all.

Edgard Armond, 03/02/09

58 - The spirit is free to manifest itself wherever it wants

Peace forever!

Hail Light!

The problem with mediumship is seen as a mission and not as a task. Let us analyze the situation in both cases:

As a mission, missionaries descend to Earth, whose psychological profile is on the verge of karmic detachment, if they have not already accomplished it, so that the energies used in their descent represent gains in progress for a large number of souls linked to them.

In this case, the preparation on the astral plane is intense and requires careful planning, which will identify the most appropriate historical moment for the dissemination of the ideals promoted by the Missionary.

Such a measure is necessary so that is not lost the effort to bequeath a set of values to humanity, maintaining coherence with the evolutionary stage in which incarnated beings find themselves.

The Missionary is committed to opening the way for the descent of Superior Forces and, in the simplicity of his actions, planting in fertile soil, the seeds of faith, hope and truth, wherever he goes.

It is also the role of the Missionary to transmit a character of continuity to the work of his predecessor, because, as missionaries, workers follow one another, adding new lessons to the primers of humanities' knowledge.

His presence among human beings aims at reaching countless backward souls, stimulating them to progress and being, for them, a reason for lasting intimate transformations.

In the next case, of task workers, the purpose, in everything, is different from that of Missionaries, since he who descends to the physical world with the mark of task mediumship, receives this opportunity as a tool for the progress of his own spirit, whether or not he can, according to the use of his free will, be a factor of growth and liberation for other spirits, linked to him, whether through the bonds of work or karma.

The purpose of mediumship is, therefore, in these cases, to create a Christian conscience in the mind of the worker and, through the discipline of service with Jesus, to educate his heart to manifest Charity, Love for others and self-detachment.

The task medium is that spirit mired in debt who, having his credit completely curtailed by previous default, receives a last chance for negotiation, where the exercise of mediumship represents the readjusted installments of his late payment.

It can be seen, then, that the marked difference between one way of interpreting the mediumistic faculty and another, can elevate – or make it fall – the candidate for spiritual reform. (Intimate Reform).

While one (missionary) exalts virtue and elevates the dedicated soul, the other (the task worker) demonstrates the spiritual backwardness of whoever carries it, with the bearer of the mediumistic faculty having the obligation to reaffirm themselves in Vineyard of the good, every day of his life, until his existence was concluded.

Therefore, brothers, do not let yourselves be deceived by the traps of vanity, pride or selfishness. Give yourselves body and soul to the exercise of Christian mediumship disinterestedly, help those who cry, those who suffer, those who die. These sufferers are brothers that you left behind in the course of so many existences, obtuse eyes that you found each other, when looking only at themselves.

Those brothers of yours who stood up alone and left, they left in the long line of your debts, brothers in similar conditions, so that you could help, because if they progressed due to their own effort, this does not exempt you from the debt, of having committed to help them and not keep your promises.

Be meek. Accept your burden, for it is light, since the Beloved Master, Missionary of Light, on Earth, supports you when there is an overload of work upon you.

May the peace of the Lord of the Worlds reign over the Earth again!

We leave you, without ever abandoning you, because as long as there is faith, kindness and love for others, we will be there, serving and loving, as Jesus taught us.

Question: Welcome, brother, in the name of Light! I don't remember if the brother has already spoken to us or if this is the first time. In any case, Margarida will be happy to hear of his presence.

Answer: Tell Margarida that the spirit, after fulfilling its tasks before the Law of God and owing nothing to the laws of men, is free to manifest itself wherever it wants, after receiving authorization from its Superior Brothers.

I go through the “Work Centers” where the messages I wrote, in the form of books, are used in the preparation of the workers of the Christian Vineyard, as instruments of self-improvement.

There, I try to dedicate a few moments of work, helping to understand the written word, introducing new concepts or awakening memories that can help others.

By whatever means possible, I ask for dissemination of the following thought: in the same way that incarnated man is free to make his choices, spirits are given the freedom to come and go, manifesting themselves or remaining silent, wherever and however they wish requiring authorization only from the Cities of Light, from where the guidelines that command the karma of the collectivities reach the Planet.

May you all be on Peace. May Jesus bless and support us as we continue working.

59 - We all are trainees

Hail the Light that guides us!

Brothers, you know well that the people sent to this House of Initiation, already in their inner core, have the necessary affinity with the teachings taught here. However, I am addressing, at this moment, the mediums and indoctrinators who really seek to expand their faculties.

It is necessary to understand that the Being, in some existence, was either as medium or an indoctrinator and that, in the current existence, the tasks to which they dedicate themselves are those that their spirits, together with their guides had chosen.

As a medium, the creature needs the discipline to direct his mind towards concentration at the time of spiritual work; of study that broadens them the minds, breaking down ingrained concepts that prevent them from moving forward. Therefore, seek, in your studies, to open the veil of knowledge to understand the mechanisms you have for improve the spirit and, above all, dedicate yourselves with Love to the task that regenerates the guilty past.

In relation to indoctrinators, although they no longer work as mediators, their spirits latently have the tools of those, and develop the ability to speak, striving to clarify, comfort and even warn, dressing in the image of the teacher who, instructing the disembodied brothers, gives them the first lessons of what the world they are entering will be.

Indoctrinating friends, be aware of the responsibility you assume in the face of the spirituality that awaits you, when you disconnect from the medium.

This patient will restart his spiritual life in the Colony Servants of Jesus, with the information that was passed on, hence the need for incessant study of the doctrine and careful reading.

In the Colony Servants of Jesus, there are many courses for teachers and mediums, with qualified instructors in the category of Andre Luiz, Chico Xavier and Emmanuel.

When sleeping, we suggest you seek the House for the necessary clarifications to complete the task, and on the physical plane, intensify your studies to consolidate past lessons and, in this way, the dialogue with the suffering brothers will come naturally and the mediums will feel more ease in carrying out their tasks.

We are all learners, but it all starts with the desire to learn more.

ELEMENTALS

60 – Most of Elementals are sheltered with Intraterrestrial beings

Clairvoyance:

I saw a goblin (earthly elemental) arriving. He approached, brought by an Instructor. He climbed on the table and sat down on a tiny chair placed right in the middle of our work table. Mentally, I began to communicate with him, as follows:

– Who are you, little friend?

- It is me. Don't you remember me anymore from Morro do Chapéu?

– Hello, Kaplum! Sorry for not recognizing you, it's been a while since we've seen each other. What do you tell us again?

– Nature is crazy: Water falling upwards, animals disoriented, flowers opening and closing at the same moment. Nothing is the same as before. Everything is changing too quickly.

– And you, where are you?

– Most of the Elementals are already sheltered with Intraterrestrial beings.

We are working with them and have already learned lots of new things, techniques for using Nature's resources.

We are going to work hard on the planetary transition, because we are small and agile; we can fly and swim, we will be useful in many places, helping people.

– How good Kaplum can serve others...

– Flowers, animals and everything else are not abandoned. We always go out to do our tasks, but at the end of the day, we always return to our cities.

Human beings really continue to destroy everything without mercy. When will they understand that the pain they cause to the Earth always comes back to them as pain too?

– Well, am leaving now. They said my time is up.

It was good to see you again. Give everyone a hug for me. Goodbye.

Then he jumped out of his chair, got down from the table and left, accompanied by a local Instructor.

Dialogue between Medium and Elemental

Brothers!

The dynamic balance among Elements that make up the Planet is stabilized by “Beings”, whose life creates connections and combinations that allow the worlds to communicate.

There are “Beings” that make up the environment, whose function is to control chemical-physical reactions that exchange on the planes and subplanes of matter.

They are the ones who process the phenomena of cleaning and recycling elements, sanitizing, whenever necessary, the terrestrial psychosphere.

They are the “soul of nature”. Together, they make up the “spirit of the planet” and, separately, they trace their evolutionary trajectory as animated beings. Strongly magnetized to inanimate elements, they configure the subtle presence of life manifest in its most delicate expressions and develop, by manipulating natural phenomena, the beginnings of human intelligence.

They connect human and the non-human, at the same time that connect what in our conception is alive and non-living.

They are the evolutionary key, eagerly sought by human beings. Their consciousness, when matured by centuries of work done to Nature, they incarnate in dense matter, like apes that will have their brain structure developed for reasoning.

Each of you carries memories of the time when you were an Elemental of nature. Each of you carries the primordial strength of one of the elements and through it you can find the path to healing faster and easier for the wounds of the flesh.

By accessing the memory of that one you once were, you, as a matter of principle, exercised the practice of black magic, once upon a time, committing your souls to non-transferable karma. And it is by submitting yourselves to that strength and placing in the service of the Creator, in this turbulent time, that you will redeem the debts contracted before the Mother Nature.

Question: Brother, the subject is very interesting and difficult to understand. Can I ask questions?

Answer: Yes.

Question: Do you mean that, we were Elemental?

Answer: You were one and several elementals. The genesis of these beings is a difficult lesson to present at this time, but, briefly, we can state they are born as a collective/group and stand out as their internal forces mature, gradually awakening the awareness of free creatures, but subject to the Superior Forces.

Question: Do they have freedom to follow or not a person who wants to dominate them through black magic?

Answer: Depending on the stage of evolution the sorcerer is in, the strength and knowledge he has on the subject.

Question: Once dominated, can't they free themselves from the yoke of negative forces, if they want?

Answer: As we said, only if you have already developed the ability to master the balance between instincts, negative and positive polarities.

They are neither bad nor good, but their development and action alongside the forces of nature give these brothers the first conscious lessons in the meaning of positive and negative practices, as well as their awareness and intention to provoke them.

For this reason, they are susceptible to domination by already developed and trained minds, whether perverse or good.

Guided by Superior spirits, they perform beneficent feats and learn the profound meaning of doing good and evil.

Guided to abysmal zones by perverse minds, they learn sad lessons of fear and pain, reproducing them in the manipulation of the forces they dominate.

May the Creator's goodness leads these brothers, at this planetary time, along the paths of compassion, love and forgiveness.

Shama Hare, 05/19/08

Clairvoyance:

Again, I saw a large number of Elementals led towards the East to receive a strong charge of energy from Master Maitreya.

The sky opens and very strong lights fall, bathing and ascending the mental Elementals of the earth, water, air and fire.

Tranquility involve them, who were previously euphoric and too agitated. They accumulate positive energy in their little bodies, which makes them more connected to the Forces of Light.

Commander Ashtar Sheram works on this radiation of energies designed to help you.

62 - Beings of Nature

Human beings are unaware of disturbance they have caused in the balance among forces that govern Planet Earth.

Even with all the effort exerted by Elementals of four elements of Nature, and helped by intraterrestrial and extraterrestrial brothers, the consequences of imbalances caused are much greater than we can readjust.

The Earth has its own spirit that lived dormant, and in its gentle sleep, it generated the forces that maintain the developing planetary consciousness.

Interrupted in its sleep by the unregulated movements of the planetary psyche, it seeks readjustment and rebalance, in line with the Law of Progress. When readjusting itself, it pours uncontrollable forces onto the Earth's surface, whose presence denounces the insignificance of beings parked in ignorance.

We have nothing more to do but follow the awakening of the "Earth's Spirit" and its effects on humanity, helping here, soothing there, assisting there and always clarifying.

Neither we, nor intraterrestrial and extraterrestrial beings can interfere. She is within her rights!

We tried to warn them, we begged them to stop. We worked intensely to comply with the "superior orders", which we knew were acting on us, in order to stop the destruction. Nothing happened; Now, all we can do is administer the medicine to alleviate, as far as possible, the symptoms that increase every day, as we can no longer achieve a cure.

To the greater medicine we send our patient. We know that the harshness of the procedures to be adopted will be proportional to the violence of the disease that affects the humanity.

Still, we have not abandoned our Earth. In the water, in the air, on the earth and in the fire, our presence is still noticeable, and it will be so, until the end comes and we are collected in the comfort of the dormitory cities that will shelter us (referring to the Intra-Earth Cities).

Afterwards, we will start again with you, on the task of recolonizing the planet, but this time, you will see us and we will be able to speak directly to you. We will no longer run the risk of being enslaved, because men will be different and their hearts will be clean. Your mind will only seek peace, and harmony will prevail among the Beings of Nature. Until that day arrives, we will remain invisible to your eyes of flesh, but if you wish to see us and speak with us, seek the silence of your heart, the beauty of your thoughts and the sweetness of your prayers.

Peace among all Beings created by God.

63 – No help is refused

Sisters, a lot of work for few hands.

In distant parts of the Orb, mutilated people ask for help and men don't listen to them.

Only those who have learned the meaning of “doing good without looking at who” understand.

Together with Caravaners of Mary a, we rescue suffering ones drying tears and contributing so that the earthly astral support the pain, anguish, despair and other negative emotions, leaving the environment unbearable for those who unprepared for helping.

Shoulder to shoulder with dedicated brothers, we are creating “working groups” and establishing support bases for doctors and other specialists who arrive here for friendly help.

All help is welcome, no matter how simple it is.

Therefore, no matter what level of education and profession the incarnate has, necessary is love, good will, discipline and obedience, thus fulfilling the rescue and help program.

64 – Negative forces drag weak minds

Clairvoyance and astral trip:

When I saw a tall building in front of the sea, I soon realized it was an upscale area of some city. Everything was so real and I found myself accompanying the Beings of Light in that building.

They communicated mentally, and I noticed them entered an apartment and went to the room of a 14 or 15 years' young man. In the astral, the room was all red, in the physical plane, he stared at the computer. I realized that game was about killing the opponent to make score. The boy stared at the screen and seemed mesmerized.

As if we had entered the screen, I saw us in a dense astral region, with men and women attacking each other, unruly sex, and amidst this confusion, Brothers of Light rescuing teenagers who were involved in that energy.

Hail the strength of light.

Hail Mary's Love.

Backward forces drag weak minds and create bridges in creatures that meekly allow themselves to be carried away by fear, mental weakness and lack of faith.

Young people are harassed by “dark beings” to be part of their organized army acting in various fronts. In addition to what everyone thinks, not only in drugs, but the dark ones also entice their victims by seeking them out in electronic games where, through hypnosis, they feed young people who are weak and unprepared to deal with this type of manipulation.

Violent films also exert a great hypnotizing power on young people, and gradually, they begin to suggest these boys and girls, increasing the number of minions in the field to implement their evil plans.

Fathers, mothers, relatives and the entire family circle must develop a high moral education in children, not worrying about providing them with material goods, giving them responsibilities with examples.

The family works as a protective shield, and if this fails it affects the weakest and most unprepared ones, turning them into young people and wild children.

Everyone is responsible for their evolution and the family group they have assumed.

EPHYSUS – TEMPLARY OF THE SUN

65 - Ephesus, Templary of the sun

Clairvoyance:

I saw arriving a man dressed in different clothes, with a white cross on his front. He spoke in a language I didn't understand. I was very moved by his presence; as if he were familiar to me.

Mentally, I greeted him and asked to speak in a language I could understand.

I don't know which resource he used, but I started to understand what he was saying.

Message:

Hail the Sun God, Guardian of life on Earth!

Sisters, the time has come for us to leave from our “Initiatory Temples”, in the secret chambers of the earthly underground and join the great Army of Light that marches on the surface, in an intense fight against darkness.

Developing our psychic intellect at most of our capacity and applying the knowledge acquired in the practices of “white magic”, we have been contributing, over the millennia, to the GFBU [3]. We built devices that could be controlled by the human mind, already developed in its psyche, and could be used at the appropriate time, in the fierce fights predicted for the “end of times”.

We have been warned that “this time” has come; and now, it is the appropriate and ideal time for us to put into operation the defense arsenal that we have built in our Temples. Therefore, it will be used on the battlefields in the terrestrial battles that follow.

We abandoned our Temples and divided ourselves into different parts of the Planet, each of us guided to a certain human group, whose developed mental capacity and imbued with Christian feelings, already collaborate with the Great Plan, in progress, of planetary cleansing.

Their minds have achieved an ideal development of mental control that enables them to utilize appropriately, the equipment we create and which is activated by the force of thought.

The equipment we brought you that used in confrontations with darkness, in the last fights, is in the adjustment phase in your bodies, still requiring some adaptations, which were provided by the Medical Team that accompanies you.

Armor and weapons that are like an extension of your bodies and, once activated by your minds, transform into the appropriate form for each fight.

This fighting arsenal was forged in small quantity, only for a few beings previously selected by their Masters, as capable and in a position to use them productively.

Across the Orb, twelve Groups were chosen. We were also instructed how to find and train them in using the new equipment.

This small Group (GESH) was selected for its expertise in fighting, its capacity for resistance in facing the adverse events of life, its faith and trust in superior designs, and also for its courage and determination in carrying out the tasks assigned by Master Jesus.

You carried out the necessary tests with each piece provided and in the next fight you will use the complete set for the first time. You are still in the adaptation phase, as it is through practice and persistent use that you will definitively adapt to the equipment and it to you, because, as if it had life, the arsenal we offer you will absorb your character and temperament, corresponding, immediately, at your request.

In this small Group, only those most advanced in mental and psychic development received the new equipment.

Neophytes will use equipment provided by the Army of Light.

We greet you in the name of Light.

Ephysus – Templar of the Sun

He continues:

The armor molds itself to each body shape and, through the mental activation of its owner, its characteristics and shape change.

Likewise, weapons adapt anatomically to the body and, activated by will, are released as an appendage of that body.

In the position in which you find yourself in the Abyss, clothing can provide you with invisibility and not be perceived by the Beast's sensors, as you cross borders never crossed by incarnated human beings, without being sucked in by the Beast's lethal magnetism.

Furthermore, it greatly reduces the absorption by your bodies of the local dense and toxic energy. This clothing also allows you to absorb the superior energy continuously sent to you from the Superior Planes by your Instructors and Masters, guaranteeing your physical and psychic health in such an unhealthy place.

When you are fully adapted to the equipment, it will be like part of your body and will respond to the stimuli of your bodies in healthy automatism, as you do when breathing and thinking.

Take care of your minds, as this is the blessed receptacle of your progress. There is the center of force that, once activated by will, give you the renewing impulse upwards and beyond the dense borders, reaching the Light.

66 - The cup of gall is antidote for your ailments

Brothers, peace and kindness in your hearts.

There are lots of many afflicted hearts on Earth. By the thousands, they receive back the dense harmful load poured onto their earthly brothers throughout their existence in matter.

They suffer stinging pain, physical and moral; however, few ones understand that the cup of gall is an antidote for their ailments, refreshment for the in debtor spirit.

Slaughtered in the most intimate fibers, few creatures sublimate themselves to rise on the treadmills of evolution.

Everyone who is in matter, pouring the cup of pain, remains attached to the vile feelings that transform into bile and revolt, still anesthetized by illusion of dense matter.

Those who enter the astral plane, in the same conditions of alienation as the corrective, which is pain for the soul, remaining in the zones of lack of emotional control and rebellion, lose the opportunity to see their future tests mitigated. They overload the astral zones with energies of low vibrational content, which, when added to others of Brothers who have a balanced mind, whose faith in the Creator is already manifested in favor of others, issue prayers for the sufferers of both planes of life and join the great Army of Christ that helps and supports souls in imbalance.

Let us work brothers in favor of the suffering ones, as there are more pains than joys in an accelerated crescent, in the Earth of “end times”.

Peace and Love!

67 - Guardian Angels of the Universe

In the name of peace, here we are!

In the whirlwind of galaxies, there are many worlds of high spiritual evolution, whose humanity has already surpassed the lower zones; evolved, it aspires to the soft emanations of subtle dimensions.

In them, there are many beings who, with compassion with humanities of the lower planes, planets of Atonement and Trials, elevate their minds to the Creator and emit light-energy to the worlds of primary evolution, whose humanities are still bewildered and deluded. to renew their strength and reduce their burden.

From time to time, some of those angels of light abandon their celestial abodes and wander through the dense universes, spreading sublime energy that consoles and strengthens with new hopes, the thousands of spirits undergoing expiatory trials.

From their powerful minds, leave for worlds like Earth – at the end of evolutionary cycle, where physical and moral suffering, as well as moral profligacy and vices, violence and superlative madness, keep the environment saturated with harmful energy, like viscous pitch – its sublime and powerful energies, opening a path through the density and reaching the hearts where faith and hope are born, driving them towards renewal and ascension.

Their eyes and minds fixed on Earth send an extra amount of light-energy to mitigate the negative impacts of the tragedies shaking the humanity at the “end of time”, supporting it in the face of redemptive trials, providing relief from heavy burden of those who have already awakened their consciences towards the light and wish to change themselves, renewing attitudes by practicing the Gospel of Christ.

The Guardian Angels of the Universe sprays energy of beauty, kindness and peace onto Earth.

Brothers, let us take advantage of them to benefit the Planet in its painful transition, to leave the valley of pain and tears towards the dawn of peace.

I greet you in the name of God, our Creator Father, who sows joy and peace in hearts; however, it is poorly understood or unreachable by still primary human minds.

Peace for you all.

ESTEVÃO

68 - We were part of a beautiful family

Brothers, too strong bonds of love have united us since ancient times.

We pilgrimage together with our Beloved Master, each one within their possibilities.

Entranced and intoxicated by His Source of Love and Wisdom, we remain in His Bosom, communing with Good News.

We increasingly strengthened bonds of friendship in the fraternal struggle for our spiritual redemption. At the slightest discouragement that affected us, our valiant brothers, the Apostles, helped us, giving an example of courage and humility in the face of life's setbacks.

We were part of a beautiful family, in the real sense of the word, in which we were loved and treated in the same way by our Fair and Loving Father.

However, we saw ourselves distanced from the living flame of the Lord, when our Master and Savior was called to return to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Everything we learned and experienced with Him was almost forgotten, as disbelief, fear and ingratitude took hold in our minds; and, thus, each one traced his destiny, full of bitterness, suffering, disappointment and selfishness. Each one, within their errors and defects, distanced themselves from their brothers and confreres in the work of the Christian Vineyard.

But, behold, the time has come for the Kind Rabbi to gather you once again into his Bosom and encourage you to live in the Father's Kingdom.

Again, He calls on you to strip away all the insanity and evil that you once imposed on your aura, to cleanse your wedding tunics, to transform yourselves into a new and regenerated man, leaving behind the old and backward man.

Brothers, we are One, in the work of fraternity with love having Jesus to guide and govern us, and we belong to a great Universal Family, children of the same Father, who supports us in all our journeys of spiritual ascension.

Brothers, do not be discouraged! Go ahead! There are more sheep straying from our Divine Shepherd's flock, lost on the way, waiting for our help to alleviate their pain.

Once, it was you who received charitable assistance in the abysmal pools; today, you once again commune with us in the Hosts of Light.

Be one of those who contribute to the Army of Christ in resisting evil and, in His name, answer the call for the rebirth of your spirits in a new time, where peace and goodness will reign on Earth.

Hail the Light!

Blessed Divine Jesus, who leads us from Above!

69 – Croquis of what will be the Earth

Clairvoyance:

I saw a very large and crowded hall. All the people were sitting down silently, listening to a lecture. The Being who spoke emitted a very strong light radiating the environment. His presence was remarkable and firm were his words. I had the distinct sensation of being inside a spaceship, but I did not ask any questions to the Instructor who accompanied me, as the environment did not allow for conversations. I will share a part of that long conversation.

Brothers,

Hail peace, blessed the Creator.

We are gathered again, so that you, future residents of the Renewed Earth, have a notion of what will be the Earth that awaits you.

During the preparatory studies for the new life that must begin, there are points that deserve some clarification.

The cities that will be populated by you and other brothers who will be guided, already have their bases ready, just waiting for emergence after the period that will precede the verticalization of the Earth's axis. This time interval is for remodeling the geographical aspects of the new home, such as: plants, animals, soil, in other words, the composition of the new habitat.

The population of new Planet will not only be made up of former residents prepared to be there, but also of many other beings from other planets who, like you, have been striving for an intimate renewal and have assimilated and understood the importance of communing with the Hosts of Light for evolution of their spirits and environment in which they live.

The Intraterrestrial brothers are also preparing themselves to inhabit the renewed Planet. The cities with their projects of society, politics and religion, are ready, and, over the days and years, free will act, shaping behavior compatible with the new race, which has already solidified in its mind love, tolerance, forgiveness, obedience and respect for Divine Laws.

Subtle bodies require subtle foods, and the preparation phase that everyone will go through on the school spaceships and Intraterrestrial Cities aims at this: adaptation of those rescued to the preparation of new foods and development of new work skills. To this end, studies of new technologies and assistance will be offered to access memories of skills acquired in past lives and which are latent within each person to help the development of this new way of material life.

Superior Beings offered themselves out of love for humanity, to incarnate and protect the Renewed Earth through Masters, Psychologists and others until society is established.

Brothers, this is a croquis of what the Earth will be like after cleaning the loads of pain and suffering that it carries in the body.

Medium: At this moment, he addresses his words to us, incarnates.

We invite everyone, when reading these brief words, to meditate and, in the hearts, feel what it will be like to live in a world of peace and harmony, where everyone, united in a single purpose, seeks contact with the Creator of the Universe.

Incarnating brothers, may the Divine Spark within each one of you shine, transforming your spirits.

Blessed is God and Christ.

70 - There is no way to stop the “Doomsday”

Brothers, Peace be with you!

Dissension is no longer permitted or possible without painful consequences; to succumb to addiction or wild instinct is to fall into the stronghold of beasts.

Without imposing self-discipline, the Servant of Jesus fall helpless before the overwhelming force of darkness over the Planet.

The Earth quickly makes space in the darkness, seeking the light of renewal. At high speed, it opens Portals that allow the “drainage” of the lower astral banishing from there, in a cauterizing cleansing, the leeches that hurt their core.

It opens Portals of Light to the Superior Planes that pour abundant energy into its body cauterizing the gangrenous wounds.

The Earth says goodbye to this dimension and seeks, at high speed, the refreshment of the higher dimension.

Ungoverned, the “negative forces”, frantically, try to cling to the Planet at high speed and, to remain anchored for as long as possible on the vibrant Earth, they “cling” to the incarnate and disembodied spirits in a liberating struggle, or anesthetized by illusion; they attack the “Nuclei of Light” and seek to retain their forms on the material plane, believing that they will achieve victory on Earth.

Brothers, there is a war between Light and Darkness and, to achieve victory, you must banish the shadows from within you, in a continuous fight against negative tendencies, so that the Light anchors in your hearts and transport you safely to a Better world.

Superlative fights await everyone, each with their share of debts.

Forward, brothers, there is no way to stop the “Doomsday”!

Jesus guides us, on Earth and in Heaven.

71 – Chaos means plowing of the land to new sowing

The Lords of Karma hover over the Earth so that, in compliance with God's Laws, a large number of creatures fulfill their destinies, draining the toxins from their guilty souls.

Thus guaranteeing the reduction of sentences through pain and rehabilitating themselves before the Major Laws, as they delighted in persistent rebellion for millennia.

Misfortunes and pain, imbalances and madness approach creatures on Earth causing planetary chaos.

The “planetary transition” is a reality and the apocalypse manifests itself in matter. The invisible world is overcrowded with unbalanced spirits who seek to settle accounts with their incarnated enemies.

The karma of each creature is fulfilled to restore peace and harmony in rebellious hearts.

No event is without the control of Superior Forces. Chaos represents the plowing of the land for the new sowing.

The brothers of humanity were unable, throughout their existence on Earth, to sublimate their brutalized, animalized feelings, and, in this hour of intense planetary instability, when the forces of nature rebel against the aggressions received, when the Intruding Planet emits its primary vibrations, interfering in the psyche of creatures, larger is the effort for those who wish to modify and redeem themselves before the Divine Consciousness.

All of us terrestrial ones had more than enough time to achieve the balance of the Law of Progress; and it will not be untimely that, whoever it is, will reach salvation.

Love and forgiveness is the key to salvation, and, in practicing the Lessons of the Divine Friend, He who is the Way, Truth and Life, human beings will find spiritual progress.

Blessed is Jesus!

Fenelon

When an offense received is forgiven, the creature frees itself from part of the guilt of bad actions in the past.

When you develop love in your heart and are able to love your neighbor as yourself, you achieve liberation from Worlds of suffering.

Love and forgiveness is the path for evolution.

Peace.

72 – The Earth dies to reborn splendidous in another dimension

Brothers and friends,

Holders of knowledge, you answer for spreading it among men.

Love is the liberating force of the soul; feelings contrary to it are like anchors for the spirit, preventing it from moving forward.

The Planet disappears in this gross dimension. Somehow, the earthly science has already detected the Orb's death, without, however, finding answers to its doubts and solutions to the difficult equations of ecosystem imbalance.

You have knowledge that allows you to inform your brothers that the Earth dies in this dimension, but it will be reborn splendid in the dimension above this, towards the progress established for the Worlds of Atonement.

Inform the brothers of humanity that they can also evolve and that the endless chance for everyone continues; however, each one in the Orb that deserves to inhabit.

The evolution of Worlds and Beings is infinite and the time that each one remains in the slow lanes of the lower dimensions is determined by the choices of each individual.

Pain is not punishment, it is blessed freedom from guilt, a tool that polishes the guilty spirit.

Brothers, you have knowledge, therefore, it is easier for you to evolve, as you cannot claim ignorance if you are unable to evolve.

Tell the world that the Son Jesus remains by your side and the Great Father sends His wards to help you face the "final phase of the planetary transition".

Go, brothers! Hand in hand with the Extraterrestrials and intraterrestrial fishing souls for the Lord's flock.

Jesus guides us.

73 - Cleaning the astral plane helping needy spirits

Dear brothers.

May God bless and protect you. This is the work will be Light that will not go out.

Maybe you cannot yet appreciate the reality of blessings in this task.

Most of the brothers helped are spirits in needy, like children thrown on the street.

The simple fact of being listened to and treated with affection is, for them, as if they were in paradise. It is because they have already lived in the astral, experiencing unspeakable pain. This moment means a rebirth.

Never forget this. You are like a lighthouse, like a safe haven. Do not let this blessing disappear in your hearts always full with an inextinguishable, friendly and fraternal love. It is Light that comes from the Hands of Christ Jesus

So be it.

The battles between Light and Dark intensify and the Warriors of Light and Love are insistently called to fight.

The call is for everyone willing to receive the higher vibrations today. It is large the of fighters for Christ and those linked to Him strengthened by the auric energy of beloved Master.

The strategies used by expert “Dark Commands” all levels of the populations. The monopoly of certain activities makes certain products difficult to access for many, preventing the enrichment of culture and development of the soul.

Disposable anti-moral and ant-cultural packages are thrown into the air. Then, they are activating clarifications of sensuality and violence.

Sex, once a creative energy, today, for the majority of young people, is destructive, bringing abortions, illnesses, prostitution and other aberrative practices.

The persistent rhythmic beats of certain musical groups penetrate the mental plane of unprepared ones accelerating the flow of electrical current in the nervous centers and, through this process, create true “human zombies” to act under the impulse of violence and sex.

Light and Darkness will confront each other, until the Father intervenes with His Hand and gives the final sign.

GALILEO

75 – We shall act in the Scientists’ distorted minds

Blessed Master Jesus, who brought us together in His Name!

Today, we gather in Confraternities to plan our actions for helping the humanity to which we belong, and the Planet that sheltered us in its bosom to heal our ills and correct the errors, which brought us far from the homes we fell into, from our Home planets.

We seek to act in the areas in which we once stood out, when we were incarnated. We unite our minds to somehow lessen the impact of the unreasonable decisions that men make even against themselves.

At the present time, we seek to act on the distorted minds of scientists, who seek to improve atomic energy for warlike and deadly purposes.

This energy was donated by the Space Engineers for peaceful use. But, due to the “pacts and agreements” with Dark Forces, they sought the “morally weak scientists” to develop the destructive use of this powerful energy.

Under permission of the Lords of Karma who evaluate the vulnerable collectivity to this attack, we work in union with Extraterrestrials and Intraterrestrials who are most experienced in the use of this force, for not to let this weapon of destruction be further perfected.

Likewise, together with the Spiritual Governor of Brazil, Ishmael; We are strongly committed to not letting the “black tentacles” envelop the country, as has been happening through some of the representatives of the Evil Forces that aim at reaching this Nation.

The end of the “evil structure” will come, yes, with the course of the Planetary Transition, until its end. But, it will not come with the destruction of the Planet, or with domination over humanity, as the Evil Forces attempt.

Master Jesus, Spiritual Governor of the Earth, for us, is a renowned scientist, who assists and guides us at this time, the destiny of the Planet.

Peace in our hearts sure that the Light guides our lives.

Galileo Galilei, 03/26/10

Remarks: During the message, the name of this scientist always came to my mind, but I had doubts about signing, as I knew he was an astronomer and I didn't know about another area of science in which he worked. At the end, I saw a man in front of me laughing sweetly and said.

“Be sure that I have always been an astronomer, my daughter?”

76 – He, who was granted him to lead this great country

Dear brothers

After the recovery phase of the insane attitude committed against myself; calm conscience after a long period of suffering and guilt and, considering the mitigating factors of which not even I myself was aware, I tell you, dear Brazilian brothers, praying for serenity and reflection, in these moments of pain devastating the Planet and our dear Brazil.

Just as I have received the loving support of those who thought they were little ones on Earth, hidden in the anonymity of the humblest servants around me, I recognize today; I elevated my thoughts to the Great Father, praying to bless this Country that I love very much, which representation is manifested in the figure of workers of the most diverse races: black Africans, white Europeans, native indigenous people or Asian brothers, all responsible for the progress of this great nation.

If the past filled me with undeserved glories, in the present, as a debt of gratitude, from the plane where I find myself, I want to reciprocate in prayer for blessings to these happy and hard-working people, wishing them a happy future, where each one's efforts surpass present problems and tribulations, I favor of the entire community.

I conclude by being grateful for the opportunity, while praying to the Lord, blessings of Peace and Harmony to you all.

A fraternal hug from the one who one-day, destiny granted the honor of leading this great country.

Peace with everyone!

77 - Fight with weapons of Love for the House that shelters you.

Hail Peace!

Brothers, Planet Earth, already exhausted in its strength, in its vital load destined for this end of cycle, shows its fatigue in not being able to maintain the life of a nature that was abundant, lush and generous. Energy is consumed quickly in maintaining the last resources that make up it.

It is noted, and now in a more visible way, that man, in his anger for progress and power, deals mortal blows to the morphology of his body, which consequences of these acts come to the eyes, such as animal deaths, arid soil and barren where it was once fertile, scarcity of water and, even so, humans believe these resources are inexhaustible.

There is no way to backdate the programming. Not the destruction of the Planet as the now desperate incarnates think, but rather the transformation of this House that will be lovingly rebuilt for the new evangelized residents.

It will come full of its resources, generous in providing for the new race that will inhabit it and will cleanse its history from sad episodes of abuse committed against it.

Let us await the events, as foundations will be torn down, pain and despair will be experienced by men; and only those who love their Planet will feel the pain that will come from inside themselves.

Fight with the weapons of love for the House that shelters you.

78 – We're linked by threads of hate unable to free ourselves

Clairvoyance: I saw a man walking in the lower Astral, with a twister crown on his head and a torn and dirty ermine cloak and with tiny animals walking around him. He had a scepter in his right hand with which he beat the crowd that followed him, made up of deformed, ragged men who mockingly revered him, mocking his pose as a king.

Then I received words from him.

I come to report how the crown weighs on the heads of those who govern, considering themselves absolute owners of their kingdoms.

I was born crowned and, as such, I led my life overriding the Laws that were Divine for some people, since they came from God, but which, for me, only served to restrict my power.

Today, in the mire of oblivion, I continue with my retinue of rags, mockingly called molambo cut.

Those who faithfully accompany me are not those who, through a gesture of lucidity or, through a suggestion from the Light, I helped.

No! Those who follow and persecute me are those who, firsthand, felt my commands, being linked to me by threads of hatred from which, up to now, after so long, we have not been able to free ourselves.

I had other opportunities to leave this court of illusion, but I failed in all of them, as the sovereignty deeply rooted in my being made me a proud and hateful despot.

The Friend of the Light who, during my reign, was a servant humiliated by me and mine court, today shows himself to have a wisdom that, with all the gold and velvet, I was unable to acquire.

He told me that his words come from the teachings of the uncrowned King, Master Jesus, and quickly, with pride that is characteristic of me, I mocked, telling him that this “King” was also disowned by his court, as like I was.

But when I understand a little about this Master's life, I realize that those who follow and love Him bring peace to their faces, unlike those who accompany me.

To those who read me and believe my story, know that gold, jewels and power do not bring to the soul the reward that, deceptively, fools believe. Yes, they bring persecution and a lack of peace, and not the joy of serving that I see on the faces of the tireless workers of the Light who come to these dens, in search of the regenerated.

Upon learning of my exile, this “angel friend” informed me that he was yet another help and assistance from Above. I will reincarnate, with this court of failures that have accompanied me for centuries.

How long I will be linked to my persecutors, I don't know.

But I no longer have the strength left for any more pilgrimages into the depths of revolt. I ask for strength so that I can finally rise again, in yet another exile of atonement, and thus be able to transmit messages of light as the good Angel does.

God save us!

79 - Let us join Christ's Love

I accompany my valiant friend from one and another rescue mission that I am invited to serve. We are pilgrims of the invisible helping others, as work granted for our elevation.

When listening to human minds, how much debris we find that is no longer useful to them! And they stay there, piling up until become the unhealthy sore that causes the disease.

They are cancers, piles of feelings and egocentric thoughts amalgamated by turbulent and unruly lives of creatures. It is respiratory diseases that denounce the suffocation caused by inhaling harmful fumes, originating from burning of endless hatred.

These are digestive diseases that drag on through pain and discouragement caused by unspoken words, due to the guilt that weighs on your soul.

We could continue, describing to you, scenes of regrettable altercations generated, sometimes by invigilation, sometimes by human ignorance.

But nothing resembles the bitter karmic commitments made by those who spend their lives manipulating the opinion of the masses for their own benefit.

They will find themselves immobilized by the mental gangrene that causes mortifying paralysis, remaining inert, without action after having moved, at their inconsequential pleasure, the thoughts of others.

Those who value the doctrine of spirits and preserve their precious lessons must free themselves, every day, from the ties to which they used to have, not only aiming at avoiding the illness that will come, but, mainly, because they have found in headlight, progress key ignition which will avoid waste from unnecessary falling.

Among us, only the barrier of matter that thickens, but in no way differentiates our life, if we think about the progress within the reach of each spirit.

Let us continue, then, united by the love of Christ, serving and loving, without stopping our steps in empty discussions, whose questionable value denotes backwardness and inferiority of the soul.

May Jesus bless us”.

80 - Vigil and Prayer

Clairvoyance: I saw much fog and an Indian woman with a child in her arms. She wanted to ask for some kind of help, but she felt so angry that had not courage. Afterwards, I saw many children playing in front of a ravine. After the clairvoyance, I received the message:

Dear sisters!

Today, you must be in a vigil of prayer and study, concentrating your energies and contacts for communication.

At times, groups of Indians will be sent to you so that you can teach them. They will be grouped by vibrational category, therefore, the doctrine of one will be extended to the entire group.

With this measure, we aim to reduce the negative vibratory force that affects the physical plane from the spiritual plane.

Pure vibrations, sparks of light are born in hearts capable of activating the magnetic forces of sublime feelings.

Everyone thinks it is Christmas that inspires feelings. What few ones know is that when Jesus was reborn on Earth, free from all karma, he planted seeds of love everywhere he walked. The seeds grew cultivated by Angels of the Lord.

Thus, every year, on the occasion of Christmas, the trees of love, planted by the Divine Sower, bear fruits of light that are released with the breeze of festive thoughts to brighten up meetings, settling in hearts where can reborn and generate new seeds, depending on the care given to them.

Christmas is celebration when many people feel like children.
Christmas is time of peace, which makes hope stronger.

Clairvoyance:

I saw a huge flash in front of the Spiritist House behind our leader. After a while, the light decreased in intensity and I could see the figure of Master Jesus, sitting. From His radiant aura, energy projections emerged that took the form of children. These children ran towards the people who were listening to the lecture. Each child's energy merged with that of the corresponding adult. I, gradually began to notice that those children were ourselves. It was a great joy!*

Medium's note: After the mantra performed that day, I saw the same place as the flash with a pyramid of pure energy. A yellow light had been installed where I had previously seen Master Jesus. In front of the pyramid had a door, through which "different extraterrestrial beings" from the ones I had already seen entering and leaving.

83 - Construction of future projects

Sisters, the mind is such a powerful machine that a man experienced in manipulating the forces of nature can either influence communities for good or destroy lives in carrying out his nefarious plans.

In this encounter of "privileged minds", we can through each one's experiences, positively influence incarnated beings with ideas, technologies and abundant energy donated by Nature. We do not come together only to help the current civilization, but to build future projects to put into practice in the new civilization (Renewed Earth), as some of the new technologies cannot be implemented at the moment, due to the moral decadence of human beings

Some of us will be incarnated on the New Earth to put this new technology to use.

As the incarnated brothers present here, I suggest them to improve themselves so that can be part of the inhabitants who will know how to live in harmony with news, without destroying their Planet.

84 - May the Light of Master Jesus warm the cold heart

Blessed is Jesus, who guides us!

Hail Mary's Light!

Brothers, in our pilgrimages across the Earth, we have been rescuing the little souls of children who, in their fragile bodies and short lifetime rescue millennia of painful planting; small bodies, old souls in erraticism.

We look for these unfortunate people in slums, alleys, streets, abortion and prostitution centers, institutions for juvenile offenders where we realize how the lack of love, combined with hatred towards others can accelerate the downfall of a being.

She stops the message, turns her eyes upward and says a quick prayer:

Father, we implore, in the name of the mothers, who under the command of the Holy Mary ask for mercy with the children; May the incarnating and disincarnating beings think and not consider themselves judge and executioner, as everyone is a debtor and the harvest of such an act is painful.

May they seek, in the Blessed Mother's pure love for her children (humanity), the example of love, patience and forgiveness, even if, when putting them into practice, they do not have the understanding of those who accompany them on the evolutionary journey.

She continues the message:

We are many mothers, gathered on Planet Earth, helping to rescue these little unfortunate souls, working in catastrophes and, in some way, helping children who die under the violence of adults.

May the cold heart warm under the Light of Master Jesus.

Peace for you all.

ISAIAH THE PROPHET

85 – Prophet is one in communion with God

I see a crazy and bewildered crowd, being swept away by a huge wave and trapped by dense matter.

A mantle of fear and despair hovers over this crowd, as they did not seek, while time was a precious friend, to prepare for the “Great Event”.

Poor creatures!...

Why did they not know how to take advantage of the “precious addition”, offered by the Magnanimous Being, Jesus Christ?

Now, they beg for mercy and pity, even though they have not even bothered to contribute at least of what is required: intimate reform.

They will feel the excruciating pain of neglecting the time they didn't know how to take advantage of it.

Warnings have been brought since millennia ago, and didn't do any good to improve.

I, as one of the Prophets, come to confirm that God's Will and Law prevail throughout the Earth's Orb.

“It is Divine Wrath”? Many beings ask.

No, my brothers. It's a warning. It is the Father's Mercy that so many ask for, when we warn in advance about such events.

We warn you so that you can change, repair and prevent yourself, thus being strengthened when the warnings arrive.

A prophet is not someone who causes panic, nor is he someone who “makes things up” in his head.

Prophet is one who communes with God; as an Open Channel for Divine Communication. He transmits to his brothers the Word, Will and Laws of God.

Prophets predict what will come. He sees and feels what creatures will go through in the future. However, no one listens to them; no one understands them; no one gives them due credit or value on what they predict.

The Greatest of Prophets told you that many prophets came before Him and that many others would come after Him.

If what He professed no one believed, what about those who professed before and after Him? Also, no one will believe what was said, or predicted.

Believe in the prophecies, my brothers! They will happen, or rather, they are already happening.

Change, while there is still time. Act for yourself and the neighbor.

Don't wait for facts to happen, and only then believe them.

Act now, because later there will be no more time. Another opportunity like this will only happen in the coming millennia, with other Prophets, in other Orbs, similar or inferior to this one.

I call you to awaken! Don't park again.

May Jesus always be the North of your paths!

Hail Peace, Light and Love!

Blessed is Jesus!

Isaiah, the Prophet

Medium: Then I caught more few words:

Oh, Lord!... Father of Infinite Love!

I beseech you, have kindness and compassion. Give us strength and courage to guide our brothers.

Take away the anguish and sadness from our hearts, as we encounter dantesque scenes among the crowd.

Do not allow, Lord God, that we faint like the unwary ones, for pain and suffering we will announce amidst the mishaps.

If we lack hope and joy, extend Your Helping Hand to us.

Everyone remain in Peace of Beloved Jesus.

Peace forever!

86 – The request for help

Clairvoyance: When we started the usual irradiations, after the services on Tuesday, I saw that a gray-haired lady, perhaps in her 60 or 70-year-old in the room. She appeared to be elderly, but she radiated an intense charge of light-energy, incompatible with her appearance, which made her an unusual sight.

The energy that emanated was very pleasant. Along with her, a group of suffering suicides arrived; They had in their astral body, marks of their painful death and some still reproduced physical symptoms of the cause of death, as was the case with some were vomiting.

Then, that lady, who I recognized as Yvone Pereira, sent a thought of supplication to the Merciful Father, so that they would be answered. The next time, she sent us a message.

Communication:

Friends! Now, after the storm, everything finds calm, the natural state of existence.

All of us, gathered here, walk through life paths full of experiences, including suicide.

We have all looked for the easy, but mistaken, way out of voluntary death. No one acts against the Law with impunity.

Remembering the escalation of errors and supplications, collected under the Law of Progress, I come to you, with the aim of interceding for those who are here.

They were brought to hear the frankness of the words, which imbue with hope, even the most desperate soul with hope.

Here we are, under authorization of the Management Team of the work to ask, out of charity, that you help us, offering them an additional opportunity to vent their pain and adjust their inner fibers.

Only the Beloved Father will be able to repay them in kindness and light, for the blessing of charity requested.

With much appreciation and gratitude.

Yours sister,

Yvonne Pereira

87 – Too much pain at this time

As a suicide, I welcomed her into my arms. Now, I find her in a new life, working at Cristian Vineyard. How much joy, my daughter!

Wounds healed, it's time to dedicate yourself to work, in favor of those who still have them open.

How sad those early hours, remember? But now they are in the past, like memories. Today, he builds with his hands, which once took away the work of renewing his own progress.

Save the Law of Love, which embraces, shelters and elevates everyone, without distinction.

Then the sister addressed wise words to everyone:

Suicide cases are increasing throughout the world. We are especially frightened by the high rates of suicide among young people and children. The materialistic life, lack of worship of spiritual things added to violent harassment of our unhappy brothers, have been pushing many of them to end their lives while still at the birth of physical life, as the consumption of their Vital Energy will expire, separated from their family nuclei, and dear ones and friendship cultivated over many incarnations, in distant worlds, destined to the incorrigible rebels.

They must start again after draining the Life Force, in other worlds, as exiled.

What could we say, by way of collaboration, in the area of planetary rescue service?

Brothers, the pains of this hour are many and chaos settles on the Earth. Other pains will come and the chaos will become even stronger; however, you are agents of the transformations that are urgent at this time.

Make your lives a bulwark of faith and courage and that the insistent rebellion gives way humbly before the Greater Plan.

Dedicate your lives, yes, to the reconstruction of the moral, spiritual and social values of humanity, however, never give in to discouragement, entering through the wide door of suicide, as this path will lead you to a destination of no return.

If pain is present, soothe it.

Strength and courage!

God watches over you.

Peace in your hearts.

88 - From everything, I became nothing

Beloved brothers

Once immersed in material life, I suffered enormously.

After many years of a full and happy life, I lost everything I had: immense wealth in gold, jewels and money.

My family was destroyed, leaving me in the bitterness of loneliness and my friends, uninterested in the sick and poor man I had become, moved away mercilessly.

From everything, I became nothing and, at most of my suffering, a serious illness struck me, taking away my last hopes of happiness.

However, in a dream, an angel appeared saying about the immense debt I was repaying with my suffering, stating that the Creator does not abandon his children and that, once the storm had gone, a new sun, on the horizon of my life, would rise again.

I believed, because in my heart, despite being weak, faith lived. I continued my days, believing that, despite all the most negative predictions, God sustained my life, giving me one more chance to attest how much I was learning about humility and love the neighbor. Then, the glorious day arrived when the healing coming from the Father reached myself and, from the inside out, I saw my spirit reborn, which, with its renewed strength, rebuilt my body and brain.

I experienced new opportunities, taking advantage of them all: I created a new fortune, the lost and disbelieving family was restored to the peace of new times and until the end of that life, health was my inseparable ally on the journey of retribution, through the practice of charity, grace received from the Creator.

There is no greater grace than having your life touched by the love of God, the One for whom nothing is impossible and whose Love we cannot even understand yet, but who pours abundantly upon us, tirelessly, in the endless wait for our transformation.

Peace in your hearts, serenity in your minds and love in your working hands.

Hail the light guiding us.

When on Earth, I sought to serve the orders that came to me from Above, through the “mediumistic faculty”. Misunderstood, I paid with my life, for not satisfying the desire for power of the Kings and the Church that threw me into the fire.

Firmly, I did not give up on my convictions and I knew that I was not influenced by “Demons” as they said.

I was an earthly warrior. Today, I am a warrior for Christ, and, with the same love and courage with which I dedicated myself in that life, I also now go into battle with the sword of love and unshakable faith in the Father.

I fight with Lords of Darkness who are the same ones who, at that time, were Leaders of the Holy Church. They wear their crimson cloak and, to our sadness, demand the treatment of Bishops, Popes and Cardinals [4].

Defeated in the fights, they are sent into exile. We feel pain in our hearts as we see that secular pride has crystallized in their hard hearts.

We will not abandon them in exile and, with permission from Above, we will help them in this transition. They are, for me, dear ones who deviated from the path of light they could have taken and, in this way, changed their spiritual conditions.

We will fight for the light.

Yesterday, today and forever, Warrior of Christ.

[4] in mediumistic meetings, when these brothers embody, they present themselves with the same pride and superiority demanding the treatment they had when incarnating. Vanity, pride and arrogance still dominate them.

90 - Lord, grant me strength and courage to spread fraternity

I wished oh God, to alleviate the sufferings of all humanity and stop the fetid bloodshed flows presenting us with sad landscape pictures.

I wished, oh Master Jesus, to support the bale of the cross of our brothers who suffer, far from Your Light.

Holy Mary, sublime mother and source of Divine Love, support the stubborn souls who remain in numbing evil, arriving in another World of Purging and Pain.

Lord, being an instrument of Your Will, give me strength and courage to spread fraternity, encouraging everyone to live in equality.

Humble and obedient servant, with you I will move forward, reaching more and more people.

91 - I myself felt what is begging for help and receive mockery

I am thankful to you Father and spiritual friends for believing and granting me strength to work for the Light now.

Friends, it is not easy to give up pride and, in public, state yourself guilty, admitting mistakes that could have been avoided.

I was helped by the one (Tiradentes) who I considered my enemy, but who fought for me until I rose from the depths of the Abyss. It took time for me to understand what was the task and objective of the being I declared guilty of treason. Through friendly hands, study and hard work, I return to the dark places from which I left to help the unfortunate people who ended up there, through my actions or not.

I take part in rescue missions, rescuing slaves from the darkness, because I have felt firsthand what it is like to scream for help and only receive mockery and contempt in return.

I asked the Superior Friends and the Illustrious friend of old time to bring me here to work.

I know I still have a long way to go, but I've already found the path I need to follow.

Brothers, Peace of Christ and thank you for your faith in my work.

92 – He, who knew the Land of the Cross, he is always Brazilian!

The Land of Cross, having an important role in the elevation and assistance of this humanity, finds itself the target of the attacks of the Retrograde Forces that, illusorily, intend to dominate the Orb.

These Forces invest in cunning traps, attracting a large negative charge from the entire planet, converging it on the Land of the Cross, Brazil, in order to confront the Forces of Light, in the domain of creatures and destruction of the good and beautiful.

As this homeland is of supreme importance for future humanity, it is also covered with divine protection, and its people, full of fraternal souls, maintain a natural barrier against Darkness. If this were not the case, wars would have been started long ago and the Sidereal Planes would have failed.

Earth is still young, great Beings of High Spiritual Lineage converged here, in order to shape the ideal conditions for the planned Granary of Humanity. But many low vibration spirits converged on the Land of the Cross attracted by its Radiant Light, and also provided the contamination of the selected cells to progress and disseminate fraternity and love.

Brazil and Brazilians have allowed themselves to be contaminated by inferior tendencies, brought by delinquent souls, however, the people, in their essence, still constitute the purity of the Fraternity and the Gospel, in their fervent practice, which provides the ideal conditions for Brazil remains the Homeland of the Gospel.

Souls with a low vibratory standard are reborn throughout the Planet, as a last opportunity to readjust themselves with the Law of Progress, but wherever they go, they leave a trail of blood and pain, evil and violence.

It is time for “final selection” and the souls who applied for regeneration fulfill God's plans and overcome their trials with gallantry, willing to suffer everything to remain faithful to Christ. However, the unprepared souls remain trapped in moral deviations and vile vices, becoming slaves to darkness and Beast.

The Foundations of Light maintain Brazil as the Homeland of the Gospel and the Barn of the World, despite the large number of inferior souls being reborn in its bosom, instituting chaos, violence, and moral bankruptcy of creatures.

It is the “final test of the Lambs”: coexistence with wolves.

Jesus is our Shepherd who leads His flock with wisdom and love.

Hail, Hail Brazil!

93 - Painful harvest awaits those far from Light

Hail the light of Master Jesus!

Brothers, I did not live as an Indian, but I carry in my heart love and respect for this nation that is so fraternal, meek and obedient to the Father's designs.

How many teachings and lessons our forest brothers brought us that are forgotten in their turbulent day-by-day lives.

If we learned to love and respect our planetary home, we would not be swallowed up by revolt that Elements of Nature present to us today.

I continue on educating and raising awareness among men so that they learn how the simplicity of love makes us freer and happier. But, unfortunately, men have become refractory to good lessons, good advice and are advancing toward power and ethnic and social supremacy, and thus leaves a trail of hatred, pain and revolt.

A painful harvest awaits those who distance themselves from the lessons of light brought by Beloved Master and another journey of hard learning awaits the Creator's children.

May those who already have the understanding of universal love in their hearts divulge to everyone the good feelings that we are one in the Father's eyes.

Light to you all

94 - Matter is transitory. Spirit is Eternal

May the Strength of Beloved Father, Omnipresent and Omniscient, envelop us!

Brothers, Peace in Jesus!

Poet that I was, I wrote about the legends and culture of our forest brothers. However, I was not a staunch defender of indigenous causes.

Through my literary works, I was able to show civilized people how polite, respectful and loving “Indians” are, as most call them.

Simple and humble people, with great appreciation and dedication, dedicate a large part of their lives to spiritual goods.

They share equally everything they receive.

They plow the land with respect, without mistreating it, drinking the fruits that come from it. They hunt and fish for their own subsistence, as they are still primary spirits, as we once were. They worship Tupian or Great Sun, gods of Thunder, Water, Earth, Wind, War, Moon, Song, Dance, in short, praise the Father, the gift of life.

Many civilized people know little about the knowledge that Indians bring within them. There are Indians who are more civilized than many so-called white men.

Naive and pure souls are like children who need guidance and support. And what did the white man do? He abused her innocence, her lack of knowledge; he usurped all their material possessions; and, as if that weren't enough, destroyed the entire Indigenous Nation, that is, massacred, exploited and discriminated our brothers.

Now, they feel on the skin what they did in the past, when reincarnated in indigenous villages or tribes, where the socioeconomic situation is extremely poor.

Wake up, brothers! All of us, whether white, black, brown, yellow, red, in short, we are one body and one flesh, just as Jesus taught us.

Matter is transitory, the body of flesh perishes. What vivifies is the spirit that builds our actions.

Let us obey, without exception, the Law of Progress. These brothers are moving towards evolution, just like us.

Fraternal greetings and joy for a future life, as one brotherhood. It is what I wish for GESJ.

Hail the Light Force!

Hail, hail, the Divine Master Jesus!

96 - Suffering redeems; Love elevates to Sublime Mansions

My brothers, not long ago we were with you, communicating the beginning of our redemption before the Father. Forgiven by the Divine Master, I also sought to forgive myself through work, in total and unconditional surrender. With tasks directed by the Divine Friend, I descended into the Abyss to fulfill Jesus' orders, finally becoming a “fisher of souls”.

Great is my joy of finally being able to face the humanity I betrayed, with the insane act directed at the Master, inspired by Darkness, due to the misunderstanding of my ideals.

I cannot go back in time and prevent the disastrous events that triggered my introspection, however, I can and have changed the history of many brothers, who for millennia atrophied their consciousness in the deep Abysses. There, now, we notice some clearings and the existing total darkness is already permeated by silver and soft light, in several points.

Under Divine insights, we work, but no longer spreading the Good News, as my brothers, disciples of Master Jesus, did in the Villages and Cities; but sowing love in arid hearts, immersed in darkness.

There is a lot of work and I time urges. Before planetary events expel the offenders, let us compulsorily seek them out in their homes of pain, relieving them of the painful burden of spiritual delay.

Suffering redeems and love elevates creatures to the Sublime Mansions of Peace and Light.

May Jesus be with us!

A long expiatory journey awaits these unhappy and delayed brothers, but the help we offer in the name of Jesus is the maximum opportunity that the love of Christ offers them.

In the name of the Planetary Christ, let us move forward toward the darkness, implanting the Light of Creation there.

Peace be with you.

97 - Many people judged me a crazy man

Cordial greetings to everyone!

I am very happy to meet people who share with me the reality of life in the subterranean worlds.

At the time when I tried to report, in the form of stories about the existence of intraterrestrial cities, many people thought I was crazy; that this was absurd, since life could not exist where there is only volcanic lava, magma and fire.

Friends, my true intention with my narratives was to alert people that highly prepared and selfless Brothers live with us, on this beautiful planet.

I never accepted, while incarnated, the idea that there is no life outside Earth. And since then, I believed that life existed within our Orb.

Such was my joy when I was able to see what, in fact, I had full faith and certainty about; In fact, I made sure of the existence of not just one, but several Intraterrestrial cities.

I would not be able to express, in words, the greatness of the work that our Intraterrestrial Brothers have been carrying out on the Planet.

Currently, many beings join you for redemptive work, where I have been helping in a friendly way.

In the tasks that his Group took on in the Vineyard of Jesus, under the command of Cel. Fawcett, I work to help incarnated and disembodied people, rescued in catastrophes that happen throughout the Orb and who are brought to the City of Letha.

How beautiful, brothers, is the love that our Lethan Brothers have for terrestrial human beings.

How great is the work they carry out, in the mission of planetary rescue, day after day, without ceasing, collecting and sheltering the creatures that even, one day, they could not even imagine, about material life that could come to live inside the earth.

Now, more than ever, everyone must become aware that not only is there life, but, above all, that they must prepare themselves to be entitled to enter and temporarily inhabit in the accommodations intended for terrestrial beings across several Intraterrestrial cities.

At times, I feel sorry for the bestiality that reigns on the earth's surface. How far have human beings come, acting so hostile towards dear Brothers, that they gave up living on their home planets!

What would our situation be like if it weren't for the help received from these fraternal and charitable hands?

Think and reflect, my friends!

Where will remain, when greater chaos devastates the entire Planet Earth? Where will they settle, when strong cataclysms massively devastate the entire Orb?

May the Flame of Divine Love, radiated by the Excellent Rabbi of Galilee, always remain pulsating in your hearts.

Hail the Peace and Divine Light of Master Jesus!

98 - Every Nation has the politician it deserves

Clairvoyance: I saw, on the astral plane, that one of the plenary sessions of the National Congress, in Brasília, had a large number of lower entities, divided into groups. I noticed that there was a feud among these groups, as they were disputing, on a physical level, who would lead the session that was about to begin.

I then received the following communication:

Hail the Light and Love!

Cordial greetings, brothers in Christ!

I have a lot of gratitude for your Group, and the work you have been carrying out on visible and invisible planes is so valuable that I could not contain myself with so much joy when I arrived here, in your Servants of Jesus Spiritual Colony.

If today, humanity gave due importance to the Postulates of Jesus, the Planet would not be the way it is. And I'm not just referring to the Brazilian Nation, as insanity, perversity, stupidity and corruption are spread throughout the Planet Earth.

The end of this civilization approaches and, at the same time, it closes itself or does not want to accept information about the final moments that daily devastate our Mother Earth, resembling humanity in the time of Sodom and Gomorrah, two cities which were once destroyed, along with their inhabitants, due to the practice of immoral acts.

It distressed me to have discovered such spiritual studies and practices so late, which are tools to support the polishing of our spiritual progress.

The arrival of selfless Brothers – from different galaxies, as well as from intraterrestrial cities – to help us in the process of intimate renewal, so that we are not deported again to another planetary Orb, is a subject little propagated and discussed in the political., economic and social scenario.

These are subjects so little discussed in our earthly life that when we are faced with the reality of life after death, we go into shock, due to our old beliefs and idiosyncrasies.

Reaching a certain maturity in spiritual work, we come across concepts, philosophies, doctrines, among other practices proclaimed in the past, which corroborate the Eternal and Sovereign Truth, contained in the Gospel of Jesus.

Only through love and forgiveness will we transform and free ourselves from the karmic pains and expiation.

Each Nation has the politician it deserves, compatible with its nature and behavioral habits. However, it is up to each and every citizen to change and deserve to receive more educated and better prepared politicians, both psychologically and morally speaking.

Let's not blame the system, which is flawed. In fact, creatures are flawed, and God, our Father, has all the adjectives for perfection.

Let us seek to correct our faults so that we can serve as an example to those who live with us. If we demand something from someone and they change, let us also start demanding from ourselves our improvement, our change.

Brothers! Let us obediently follow the guidelines of the Light that summarize everything we need to become worthy of serving the Master of Masters, the Beloved Jesus.

Peace, kindness and unity to all.

From your brother and friend,

JK (Juscelino Kubitschek)

99 – Once, our destinies met in Atlantis

Brothers, we greet you in the name of God, Lord of the Worlds, Uncreated Creator, whose resplendent beauty is shown in His Work.

I am Kyryon, Priest of the Intraterrestrial City existing here in Roraima, which you will visit soon. The first beings to come into contact with us.

Divine Mercy wanted you to answer our cry. We know that Divine Providence would be present to help us, but your presence brought Exceptional Strength to this region, which will provide the opening of the Portal of Light capable of supporting us in anchoring the Greater Force that descends to Earth.

One day, our destinies crossed, when I was incarnated in Atlantis. I already belonged to the Intraterrestrial where we live and I was designated, at that time, to form the group of priests incarnated in Atlantis to warn that humanity about the disastrous events caused by insane acts, by the lack of love in their hearts.

(Read Edgard Armond's work – Na Cortina do Tempo)

This day is long gone and humanity on Earth finds itself once again in a dangerous situation, due to its own destructive actions.

People do not listen, do not see and do not believe that the moments of profound transformation of the Earth are approaching and that the great selection between living and dead, announced by Christ Jesus, is already taking place.

Unfortunately, they succumb, but before that, they disturb, disrespect and vilify nature and others.

Your Masters came to our rescue and the Divine Jesus, Supreme Governor of the Earth, gave us His beloved presence in favor of the weak and disadvantaged, the humble and the wronged on Earth. His presence provided the activation of a great Propulsive Force that will contain the dizzying advance of the Retrograde Forces over this region.

May the Lord of the Worlds reward your benefactor action for this humanity.

Jesus, Divine Light, sustain and protect you, today and always.

Clairvoyance:

In the following concentration, I see some flashes of our presence in Atlantis, at the time of Kyryon:

Mrs. Margarida was a scientist, “initiated into the occult sciences”, but not yet converted to the Light.

We, others, were still of a delayed spiritual degree, without awakening our consciousness for spiritual life.

Then I saw us arrive at the Intraterrestrial City, where an imposing party awaited us. There was a ceremony for entering the City.

Finally, I saw many of Commander Yuri’s Rescue spaceships in intense activity rescuing incarnated and disembodied people [5].

The crew had the appearance of human beings.

[5] These Brothers are so evolved that have no form. They take the form that suits them in carrying out the mission of the moment.

Intense energy descends from a spaceship stopped above us. This energy radiates to the Spiritual Emergency Room in Viana-ES, founded by one of the GESJ's Instructors, Brother Ranieri Matias.

Around us, dark beings with frog faces appear and, at the same time, from the center of the Focus of Light, several Extraterrestrial Beings appear and form a circle around us.

Then I got the following message:

Brothers, strength and peace in your hearts!

Continue in peace, as we will be escorting you to your destination.

LAVOISIER

101 - Catastrophes are not divine punishments, but natural cleaning of the terrestrial psychosphere

From time to time, haunted by the malicious specters of the dominant thought forms in the planetary psyche, “the governors of the inhabited worlds” need to carry out the cleaning that characterizes processes of vibratory ascension.

As nothing in nature is created or lost, the process in question carries out a psychic purification, which throws the negative miasmas back into the cycle of their production, spilling their toxic load onto the collective that originally produced them.

This is how cataclysms are born, the catastrophes that have plagued terrestrial humanity for millennia, bringing pain and lamentation, in addition to a long procession of sadness.

Emotions linked directly to the psyche also reflect the spiritual condition of communities, because, if plunged into despair, this community will hardly find a favorable way out of the drama it is experiencing.

There are no inexplicable phenomena in the unfolding of events involving human beings and nature. Although some cause astonishment, horror and even disgust, every social or environmental phenomenon has its explanation within the parameters of logic and meaning, developed by the human brain.

If Science has not yet found its logic or unraveled its meaning, it is not a sign that they do not exist, but rather that Science does not yet have the necessary knowledge to understand them.

Both young and old scientists, either immersed in paralyzing pride, or mired in deteriorating selfishness, have separated from their scientific thoughts, fragments of knowledge, fundamental in assembling the great puzzle of life; only when humility allows them to bend themselves before the Creator, and love for others irrigates their hearts, will they have access to the missing pieces to fully unveil and understand the meaning of life.

Catastrophes are not divine punishments, they are phenomena linked to the psychic activity of human beings and represent the natural cleaning of the terrestrial psychosphere.

In peace we came and in peace we leave you. If allowed, we will communicate at other times.

LEONARDO DA VINCI

102 - Oasis of Peace and Harmony

Sisters who carry out the Father's will.

I could identify myself with several names or pseudonyms, but, of all my lives, in that one, as an artist, I was most in contact with God.

Yes, I was a poor imitator of what was revealed to my spiritual eyes; but I could not fail to show the poor in spirit how beautiful the vision of the angels is, how serene the appearance of those who carry in their hearts the peace of the Masters who serve the Father.

Today, all over the world, falls willingly into worldly pleasures, in a dizzying moral fall of men and women.

It is this state of voluptuousness that earthly human beings now experience.

What could an artist, in contact with the spiritual world and the physical world that surrounds him, materialize for everyone to see?

I say, friends, that these would be scenes so degrading and shocking that they would lead an atheist to make the sign of the cross, and this would be nothing more than the materialization of the invisible world, with which humanity lives daily, and which are created by the mind sick of being, so-called modern.

They would portray scenes of the Abyss, in a poor human imitation, and the ignorant do not realize what puppets they are, in the capable hands of the Black Magicians, who hypnotize crowds.

However, the Light illuminates the Darkness and, here, in this House of work (GESJ), there is an oasis of peace and harmony, necessary ingredients for love to be transformed by the hands of the mediators, into drops of light, in the form of messages, which the friends of peace send to the suffering ones

Hail the love that flows from the heart of God for everyone.

103 – Love, Serve and Work

Clairvoyance:

I saw many brothers talking, while we discussed matters relating to the conduct of the work in our House. They looked like Greek philosophers, wearing white tunics and low sandals, tied to their legs with a thin rope. Then, I received the following communication:

Brothers, the peace of Christ be with us!

The challenge of walking on Earth, embracing the comforting doctrine, while still barely understanding its transformative precepts and having to confront habits, thoughts and cultures, which are in every way adverse to the principle of the immortality of the soul, is great.

A 180° turn is made in the mind that leaves the logic of materialist thinking and dives willingly into redemptive spiritualism. However, in the difficulty of reconciling the imponderable realities of life with the demands of the physical world, a new man is forged, discovered again among the piles of unnecessary dense energy.

Working in the Christian spiritualist field, under the Sign of the Lamb, you face the test of renewal which, once overcome, will take you to vibrational levels, beyond animalized human instincts and passions.

Dignify Spiritism with your progress efforts, because perfection, none of you have to offer. However, the will to progress depends only on gathering intimate strength and moving towards the evangelist principles dictated by our Greatest Master and Friend, Jesus Sananda.

Let us become his disciples. We follow His example: love, serve and away work.

104 – Lord Jesus brought the Truth to men who distorted it

Beloved sisters, the immortality of the soul is an indisputable fact.

Only creatures that are too attached to matter and outdated childish dogmas do not accept, or pretend not to care about such a truth, which is extremely important for the incarnated creature.

The destiny of all beings, those who believe or do not believe in the survival of the spirit, after death of the physical body, is the encounter with the invisible plane, where their spirit came from, before taking on the body of flesh.

It is incredible the idea that earthly brothers remain on the sidelines of such a sublime reality, when they could vivify their spirits, propelling them to evolution.

Reincarnation, a tool for progress, is ignored by several religions. However, it is through reincarnation that the creature, in its most intimate communion with the “Beyond”, draws the forces of Divinity; however, ignorant, he does not accept, for himself, the invisible world as the habitat of his immortal spirit.

The third millennium unfolds for this humanity full of pains, already announced by several prophets. As creatures did not take advantage of the calm times to improve knowledge of themselves and the life given by God, they now find themselves materialistic and violent, at the end of the cycle of atonement and pain.

Certainly, envisioning the future, optimistic scientists deluded by perishable matter have predicted peace and harmony, progress and abundance for humanity. However, with his eyes fixed on matter, and ignoring the exuberant life after death, his prediction is illusory and fatuous, like his precarious “knowledge”.

Furthermore, the Master brought the Truth to men, but they, blinded by pride and arrogance, distorted it; however, the foundations of Light of the Gospel remain intact and alive for all who wish to fly beyond and upwards, from the Immaterial Spheres.

We greet you in the name of God.

LORD BLANC

105 – Let’s defeat the dark Leaders

Blessed Beloved Master Jesus!

Brother, in wartime, the soldier must prepare himself with the weapons that will be used in the fights.

Being enlisted in the Army of Light requires preparation from the candidate and discipline that goes beyond simple obedience to one's superior. Discipline of thoughts, words, feelings and diet is necessary, as the opponents of the Light use intelligent subterfuges that can take down a willing but unprepared soldier.

When incarnated, I was a commander, a warrior leader, but not always fair or honorable towards my companions or opponents. As a Lord, I managed to raise large contingents of men for the battles I participated in and won.

Today, I use my fighting skills and experience combined with the new awareness acquired to exercise leadership, training warriors of the Light who offer themselves to defeat the Darkness.

In the search for new good warriors, I found this group and, in contact with your Commanders, I joined you as my army for the next battles. And they will come in an increasing ferocity and cunning, as now, for the most part, they will be with the bosses we will fight. It will not be in a single fight that the great Dark Bosses will surrender, but in several battles, until the end. For this reason, I sought to join people who are committed and responsible for their duty as servants of the Light.

Peace of the Beloved Jesus in your hearts.

I asked who he was and then the answer came:

Today, I work as a Templar of the Order of the Rose, an incarnation into which I fell, because I did not understand the objective of such a noble group.

106 - We work with Extraterrestrial brothers

Clairvoyance: During the 12 o'clock (noon) mantra, I observed a man approaching me and, softly spoken, began to talk with me in French. He wanted to communicate and I told him: "My brother, I don't understand French. If possible, could communicate in Portuguese, please." I asked him to identify himself and said his name was Louis Pasteur. After finishing the mantra, he gave the next message, in Portuguese.

Greetings, sisters.

Please forgive me for the communication, as I am not skilled with this type of tool.

I and so many other scientist friends were attracted by the analytical and sagacious mind of Master Ramatis [6], who we call Pythagoras.

Our work today differs a little from the field in which we worked, although we do not move completely away from science, as the spirit is always an object of study. We work, together with "Extraterrestrial brothers", in the organic mineral maintenance that makes up the Earth.

It is a complex work and I will not elaborate on it, due to the fact that I do not have simple words to express myself or the need to do so.

As I approached you, it was an immense pleasure to see today, at image of Margarida, the logical mind of the friend from the past.

Today, friend, we are fighting for the same purpose and we will do so until the end.

6] Master Ramatis, (same Master Kuthumi, was the great Pythagoras, in Greece.

Blessed is Jesus.

107 – The Prayer

Astral Trip:

Before capturing the words below, the channel found itself outside of Brazil, inside a convent, walking down a long corridor.

Suddenly, he stopped at the door of a cell. He entered, and there was an elderly sister of charity, kneeling on the floor, next to a bed, with her eyes turned to the wall where was the portrait of Holy Mary, mother of Jesus.

From the tender and tearful prayer, which came from the afflicted heart of that being, the words were captured:

Mother, why did you place such a bitter cup in my hands?

I am old, tired and my efforts to have the words you gave me revealed are scarce, as my efforts have no response.

You did not want your children to be taken by surprise, but to have the conscious chance for change, even if this change came from fear of Divine Power and not just from Love for Him.

I'm tired, old and sick! I suffer knowing that my mission cannot be accomplished. All I can and have done is pray to the distinguished Father for them.

Mother, open the doors of the hearts of your little ones with the strength of your Light and reveal the secret to them. Although small groups engage in this work, there are thousands of beings who, in their ignorance, disbelieve these messengers, rooted in living by dogmas of extreme oppression and careless, unable to assimilate the Truth.

Dear Mother, touch the hearts of the Leaders of the Faith and may they soon release your letter and prepare this humanity for the Wrath of the Lord.

I thank you. Oh! Mary, mother of Jesus.

108 – Lucia of Jesus

Clairvoyance: Upon arriving at GESJ, before the opening of work, the energy of Master Ramatis was already present and very strong. I see his projection in the lecture hall.

As I concentrated, when Mrs. Margarida was already speaking, I felt the presence of dear Master Ramatis again. The projection of his image, and the intense energy that surrounded everything, caused a natural numbness in me before his presence, already known to me on other occasions.

I see Lucia arriving. She introduced herself as a little old woman, however, without wearing the nun's costume. She goes to Mrs. Margarida kisses her hands and then gives her a hug. She then turns towards me and transforms into a young girl, with braids that fall to her shoulders. She says:

Peace.

Peace in Jesus, our Divine Master who supports and guides us, today and always.

We greatly regret human folly and great disappointment with those who are responsible for the spiritual guidance of men on Earth.

The Roman Catholic Church has been making a lot of mistakes throughout its history.

On many occasions, the High One intervened so that the forceful deviations and concepts harmful to human evolution were changed; that prejudices were eliminated and the flag of truth was raised.

The beautiful Lady who appeared to us clearly conveyed her words to us. On new occasions, she reappeared, reaffirming and completing the revelations that could change the trajectory of humanity.

The impact caused by her words would be capable of transforming the Church and reducing the wave of violence and pain that was triggered on Earth.

Scared children, we were imprisoned by the sectarian Church, domineering and cruel, which, to guarantee the perpetuation of its empty dogmas, stopped and stifled the words that were brought from Above to, through humble and simple rural children, be revealed to the world.

I suffered all these years, imprisoned in the prison of the cold and lifeless convent, despite constant contact with the beautiful Being.

That Superior Being could very well be Mary of Nazareth, but how could three simple and ignorant children tell the difference?

The Church announced that it was so, not because it believed it, but to better manipulate the masses, who to this day allow themselves to be dominated by words of salvation, which they wish to achieve, without the slightest effort.

The revelations, in another way, came to the knowledge of humanity, however a, no longer with the force of the impact that, like a gigantic wave of extraordinary strength, would change the trajectory of human beings on Earth.

We give ourselves unconditionally to Jesus and it is only up to Him to judge our faults. If, on the physical plane, they made me powerless, now, free, I joined the Army of Jesus for the liberation of the Planet from the final agony.

Jesus is our guide and with Him we follow, today and always.

Hail Jesus!

109 - I have been in the swampy of sex

Clairvoyance:

During the lecture on the topic Sex Beyond Death held on September 14th, I saw a weak woman, crying and being supported by brothers who work at the House. I thought she would communicate, but some of the speaker's words touched her and she was removed from the room. Today, September 21st, I saw her again, recovered, but still supported, as if she had undergone surgery. Helped by brothers of the House, she communicated:

Thank you, Brothers of Light, for the opportunity granted to me, a faulty spirit, who, due to the excessive abuse of material power and ignorance of the existence of a “superior and sovereign will” to mine, led several journey companions to moral downfalls, altering programs made, with love, for that group.

I was in the pools of sex, because I used this sublime instrument to climb my power.

To my regret, as I study at this Spiritual School, it was clear to me how much delay I caused to my evolution and of my dear ones.

Thanks to the Instructors who lovingly encourage me to take one step at a time, I have recovered myself, knowing that the debt incurred in the sexual field I will have to pay in an exile of pain and lots of intimate struggles, to free myself from this negative stain on my life.

They allowed me to be here to say: Do not be deceived, my brothers. For human beings to evolve, there are no small or big faults; all of them cause the creature to slow down its progress.

Fight, while in the flesh, to undo the ties that bind you to debts of hatred, hurt and angry. Be grateful, but with sincerity in your heart. For my part, I come before you to thank the most loving Father for the infinite love that consoles us in difficult times.

Peace for you all

110 – God's Laws are perfect and unmistakable

Brothers, peace and kindness in your hearts.

When I was on Earth I didn't believe in anything other than the physical body. I believed that nothing awaited me after death.

As for the Roman Church, I found it hypocritical and disloyal to the human creature, as it supported the rich and despised the poor, using them only to maintain the appearance of its "austere power".

Faced with the false Catholic faith, if it weren't for the exultant beauty of life that amazed me, like the bright sun warming life, I almost disbelieved in God. I believed that a Majeure Force directed everything.

I did not find anything in the priests and their profession that clarified to me the objective of life and our destiny, after life in matter.

Naturally, I wanted to live eternally in matter, but that, logically, is not possible.

Today, after studying in schools on high planes, I discovered with ecstasy that life, a divine breath, is offered to us to evolve, on the different planes that we travel to evolve.

The Transient Worlds house still dense souls that also need dense bodies.

The Regenerated Worlds shelter souls that have already reached an evolutionary stage above pain and gnashing of teeth; and in the Evolved Worlds their humanities experience love.

Other worlds exist, where souls inhabit and continually evolve until they no longer need worlds to inhabit.

Evolution is the essence of life.

Brothers, be sure that evolving is loving and loving is freeing ourselves.

Not accepting the laws of the Catholic priests, I rebelled; however, the truth was still far from being discovered.

Today, I know that only by unconditionally loving others and God can we achieve liberation.

Human beings who remain in the vibratory zones of the patterns of the Worlds of Atonement and trials will have new opportunities to awaken and evolve, because “in the Father's House there are many mansions”.

Love more and more!

Luther

Human beings who are still so imperfect answers for religious doctrinal mistakes.

God's Laws are perfect and unmistakable.

Love and forgive and you will find liberation.

The one who says “Lord, Lord!”, calling Him without practicing His Lessons, is not worthy of calling Him.

111 - In search of the Lost Link

Clairvoyance: In front of our concentration circle, I saw five men arriving. Intuitively, I recognized them as Writers and Poets.

All of them, as soon as they saw me, smiled and gave me a serene and candid look. I felt like I had known them for a long time. A strong emotion took over me, as if it were missing them.

Suddenly, their Brazilian names came to my mind: Castro Alves, Casimiro Cunha, Jose de Alencar, Manuel Bandeira and Machado de Assis.

Only one of them addressed me, speaking on behalf of everyone, as below:

Walking I go, without fear,
Through the Ages, into Infinity, Towards Paradise.

In search of the Lost Link,
following in the footsteps of our Dear Master,
Little by little I'm getting there.
Facing the beasts of illusion,
Stopping the wounds in my heart,
I continue, today, in my liberation.
I was exiled, from a beautiful Planet,
In all its glory and beauty.

But, I didn't change myself with diligence and promptness.
Remembering the times gone by,
When I gave vent to my instincts,
I continue with faith and confidence
To the Peaceful Kingdom.

I receive from Above, as an increase of mercy,
This opportunity for my victory.
Opportunity for transformation,

Participating in this chain of union,
Towards the World of Regeneration.

Hail the Light Force!
Blessed is Master Jesus!

112 – Help the aborted children

Dear Margarida, blessed be your heart that put into practice [7] what we asked to the Beloved Leaders of the Colony, help for the aborted children.

May the valiant hearts of our companions give off love and solidarity towards the cadres who will take notice. May they have emotional structure and study of the doctrine, to guide, alleviate and give the balm of hope to those who suffer from rejection.

In the Colony, before the topic was discussed or remembered on the physical plane, a ward was already ready for us to receive these aborted people and, thus, give the appropriate treatment to each one after the doctrine and incorporation. Some cases have accelerated improvement, and happily believe in a new start.

It was God who enlightened his mind in this attempt.

Congratulations and a kiss on the heart of everyone who willingly helps.

Yours sister

MAGMA

113 - Volcanoes about to erupt

Clairvoyance:

I could see us going down in a kind of wagon, in a crater, into a volcano. The incandescent lava gets closer, but the interesting thing is that we didn't feel the heat radiated by it. A small portion of the lava enters the environment and takes the silhouette of a woman. Magma, a Being of light, already known to us.

She tells us:

Volcanoes will erupt. The lava pressure increases with bomb explosions on the Planet and the intense planetary imbalance that no longer can be contained.

The earthly men had every opportunity for evolution. They have intelligence and misuse it. Nature, attacked violently, responds with equal violence.

Man is unaware of the House he inhabits, causing irreparable disorders that would take millennia of years to rebalance, if the total planetary transition did not occur.

Nature screams the warning, but man ignores it and, considering himself above the balance of the planetary environment, destroys it. He will receive the harmful burden of aggression, in an intensity equal to that of destruction.

The volcanoes will soon become visible, with short intervals among them.

The chaos is only apparent. He who has eyes, who sees and who has ears, who hears.

Hail Jesus.

114 - New world opened before my eyes

Peace for all!

Brothers, following the example of our dear companion Chico Xavier and, in accordance with the words of Master Jesus that “The spirit blows wherever it wants”, here I am, presenting myself for the disobsessions work in the Servants of Jesus Spiritual Colony, an area where I acquired more experience and knowledge.

A new world appeared before my eyes, upon entering this Colony. I met human beings of great knowledge, with humility on their faces when transmitting their knowledge.

In front of me were creatures that called themselves Extraterrestrials and Intraterrestrials and I couldn't say that they came from suggestion or from my imagination, because what I had seen was real.

I am not the property of a place or a mind. If we want to overcome the levels where we find ourselves, just opening our minds to the new things arriving. Here I am, trying to broaden my horizons.

Peace and Light.

115 - How help and guide who chose ostentation of life?

Hail the peace of Master Jesus!

Sisters, mental disturbances accelerate in these turbulent times due to human rebellion, and attachment to values that do not support a robust faith, distancing of the being from the Sublime Teachings left by the Nazarene Master.

We realize, and nowadays it is more present, that at the “end of times” creature gives themselves to vices and passions without any shame that holds them back, to commit unfortunate actions. As a result of these attitudes, we notice an exaggerated increase in psychic illnesses, subjugations and possessions that often go unnoticed by modern human beings.

In relation to friendly spirituality, we work to help these brothers, when we are allowed and, even then, there is no vigilance on the part of the obsessed person.

Given this situation, how can we help and guide those who embrace life's splendor with open arms?

We study the patient's past lives, their merits and what is right for them to pass on. With this information, we treat and alleviate pain, when possible and, in some cases, we “let” them suffer moral pain, so that they can change their attitude towards life.

Moral decadence is the disease of the generations at the end of this cycle. We seek in the Father to minimize the consequences so that the evolutionary standard of this humanity does not fall further.

We remain confident.

Peace for all.

Manuel P. Miranda

116 – We must work hard

Blessed Jesus!

Hail the Divine Light that supports and guides us.

Sisters, spiritual work brings experience and transformation to the worker, because by helping suffering spirits, we often identify in them deviations still existent in us.

There are all kinds of disturbances in creatures that free themselves from the physical body and still bring, in the soul, emotional disturbances, emotions in disarray, feelings antagonistic to love and peace, a whirlwind of hate, selfishness, impatience, intolerance, vices of all stripes.

Anyone who is still dominated by any negative feeling or torturing addiction condemns themselves to remain in the purge zones of the earthly lower planes hindering and delaying their own evolution.

In the Psychiatry field, we find various disturbances and alienations that keep the spirit in zones of pain and madness and that will not be able to be solved in this planetary cycle that is ending.

Many spirits in total insanity and madness are transferred from Psychiatry asylums of the Beyond to “spaceships” destined to exile. They are mentally disturbed creatures who did not know how and did not want to tame their negative inclinations in the light of Forgiveness and Love taught by Jesus.

There are many Colonies in the lower astral plane that help, assist and support thousands of hallucinated souls from the Beyond. They are being emptied for the New Age Advent and the spirits transferred from one to another Planet.

We are no longer in time to attend to the reincarnation and rebalancing of thousands of souls stubborn in error, addiction and rebellion. The cases are carefully analyzed by Spiritual Tutors, evolved Beings of High Spiritual Rank, and each situation and each person's chances of remaining on Earth, or being sent into exile, are duly analyzed.

At the moment, there are few souls sheltered in Colonies of the lower planes in a position to follow a reincarnation plan that seeks to stay in the Land of Regeneration.

The current incarnation plans seek to reduce the negative charge of the spirit, before leading it into planetary exile.

Everyone will have the opportunity they deserve; therefore, spirits of low evolutionary level are already reincarnating to reduce the toxins adhered to their spiritual morphology releasing them to the earth; consequently, the physical world becomes more violent and troubled.

Certainly, the good ones, upon returning to the Planet to complete their purifying stages and reach the ideal level to inhabit the Regenerated Earth, must endure with gallantry, courage and faith the turbulent world of the “end of times”, enduring and overcoming all the tests to finally leave the World of Atonement and Trials.

Everything is perfectly planned and the chain of events of the “Doomsday” is underway.

The Laws of God in action show human beings their fragility in leading their own lives.

We just have to work more and more. Only then will we free ourselves.

Hail, Jesus, the Divine and Beloved Friend.

Manuel Philomeno Miranda

Medium: Brother, your language is different!

Manoel P. de Miranda: The language of the spirit is in accordance with the medium’s vocabulary. We do not want to subject you to an examination of the Old Orthodox Portuguese language.

We just wish to let our brothers of humanity know that the Apocalypse is a reality and that evil spirits are dying and other spirits of the same or worse degree of evolution are incarnating again, as a last chance granted by the Mercy of God to reduce their future penalties.

The good spirits are not replacing the bad ones who disincarnate, as the confreres think, for the advent of the New Age Advent.

The logic of the facts indicates that the Work of God is Evolution, Love and Perfection.

May Jesus bless us!

117 - Poet and writer, I was...

In the unbridled and empty search the soul alone walks lost in the mishaps of life.

Then cry, insecure and uneasy, holding back in the torturous valleys where there are no partner's brothers.

Sad, bitter and bloody moments until you remember that we are always supported by the Nazarene Master.

Relief and help for misfortune obtained from loving hands, of our dear Mother Mary

Soul still wavering fall into silence of mortifying errors.

At times, ask and beg, until the time comes,
in which it remains in the memory,
the desire for improvement.

Long way to go, in the infinite times of living,
the soul becomes great again.

Days of tenderness and happiness,
free from any obscurity, rewards in the depths of the soul, which lives in brotherhood.

I thank the Servants of Jesus, the blessed opportunity, for the beloved welcome of a soul that was once sad and empty.

Hands up, always giving thanks, never forgetting the lessons of

When we accepted the purposes of regeneration and the postulates of the Codification, in the labor for our salvation,

We spread seeds of hate along the paths.
Now we must pluck the thorns

eradicating all evil that could be a hindrance to our posterity.

MARIA MAGDALENA

119 – A that time, few of you were adults; others were children.

Brothers, beloved children.

From Above, effluvia of love radiate their vibrations upon you.

Be patient when facing the difficulties of the moment.

You are tested at all times and your words, thoughts and actions are monitored, by both Workers of Light and “Bosses of Darkness”.

So, considering your efforts to tame atavistic instincts and measuring the result by the current vibratory frequency, you are attracted to one side or the other.

Those who tune their activities with Sublime Lessons of the Nazarene, they are enveloped by His presence and, even imperfect, are located at His right hand.

Those who, on the contrary, do nothing to observe the Sublime Laws, dictated by the Kind Rabbi, they are magnetized in the void of the “Dark Forces”, to the inferior quality of brothers still in a primary stage of development.

Beloved children of God, take care of your destiny. Open your eyes to the infinite love that surrounds you and return to Him. God loves us with His unconditional Love

Until the planetary transition is completed, the effort for transformation must be all your concern.

We bring you peace.

We leave you on peace.

– Madam, I thought the message would be dictated by Mary, mother of Jesus.

– You feel her presence because she helps me make contact and you first identify her energy, as you have already captured it initially, and not of mine.

– You are welcome to our House. It is a great joy we welcome you.

– We are all a family and we met each other again. We are all here from that time. It was the Master who brought us together.

– Were we there too?

– And why do you think we came to meet you? You are part of the group that walked with Jesus, following his steps, listening to his words, praying his mantras. Some of you were adults; others, children. Some lived with the Master for a long time, others just knew Him, but everyone felt and received His Energies and had their spirits touched by His Love.

The time has come to experience his Teachings.

Let's follow Him. He awaits us and in His open arms we will rest, after the struggles of this painful and hard-fought life.

Stay in the peace of the Most High.

120 - Our union is from another Planet

Clairvoyance:

As I concentrated, I began to see a conference room and, a large table in the center. There were several men and some women, including Mrs. Margarida.

They were sitting, talking about Planet Earth. On the wall of the room, a too large screen started broadcasting a lecture by Master Ramatis. Everyone was silent to listen. The woman sitting next to Margarida was talking to her before the lecture.

I recognized several famous scientists from our history, participating in that meeting.

At that moment, Sister Margarida I could not fail to greet her, as our “brotherhood”, gradually is coming together.

Today, we discuss very different topics, but with a high spiritual content.

Our union does not just come from this planet, but long before we fail.

At this moment, we gather in the name of Master Jesus and use our knowledge to elevate the spirit and, not, through corrupted science.

Many of our friends will still say words of missing you.

Kisses in the heart. From your friend

MATHUSALEM

121 - Have you ever heard of Mathhuselah?

Clairvoyance: this name Mathhuselah repeated itself over and over in my mind.

I saw plus size beasts, which arms touched the ground and short lower limbs. They came out in droves from the ditch next to the Servants of Jesus Shelter and invaded the adjacent streets. Some, entering certain houses causing fights and violence; Others got on the motorbikes and said something to the incarnating ones who quickly changed their gaze and direction, looking for drugs, sex and violence.

The Being, who claimed to be Mathusalém, was a man of medium height, long beard and white hair. He wore a white robe and had a staff. He raised his right hand and shouted with great energy: "Enough!"

One by one, the bestial beings fell. Some tried to react and attacked him who always had his hand raised, repelled them. He had created an intense force field around himself that repelled invaders. This scene ended.

Soon after, I saw him floating in a certain place, like a square where he shouted:

"Have you ever heard of Mathusalém? I am here. I come to look for the ignorant! Enough of the ignominy!

I saw the world being created and now I see its destruction.

Enough with the rebellion and violence!”

Saying this, he raised his staff and a strong wind lifted the fallen beings to be helped.

And just like that, the rumor around stopped.

GESH – 09/12/09

122 – It’s time to serve Lord Jesus with our remained love

The creation of the Earth was preceded by many storms.

Men came to inhabit the Planet and, with the geological storms, came those of a moral nature.

Millennia passed and evolution enveloped the eras of transformation with its mantle.

The wild Planet has changed, and human barbarians from cave have emancipated themselves in the way they act, dress and behave.

For many ages, we have seen the Planet renew itself and human beings evolve in their appearance.

The Apocalypse arrived and, in that space of time, man modernized his social way, however, his soul was not evangelized.

I saw many of the creatures that lost their human form, born together with the Planet; and their hearts and minds did not follow the progress of the environment, into which Divine Providence launched them.

Now, like wild seeds, they will be thrown into sterile lands, so that they can, once again, and in the harshness of life, recognize the Father's Love for His children.

One day I was Mathusalém; Today, I am just a child of God. At the time of the Apocalypse, I am yet another servant of God.

We are apprentices of the Eternal Laws of the Father, ignorant wise men of eternity!

It's time to serve Master Jesus with our reserves of love, exploring the dark cliffs of ignorance and pain.

Our earthly clothing no longer exists, that's why I present myself.

It is urgent to turn on the light where the darkness remains.

It is urgent to welcome those who cry and those who launch the fire of destruction in brotherly hearts.

It is urgent to love and serve the Father.

I have nothing of myself to offer you, other than the desire to always serve the Creator.

The Earth is a single body and its humanity, a single brotherly people. Fictional boundaries disappear when we become Servants of God and children of Creation.

To love is to serve the Creator! There is no better way to revere the Father than by fulfilling His Greater Will.

Jesus is the most powerful Lighthouse that guides us. Without Him, we cannot reach the Father.

He who is the Way, Truth and Life.

123 – Practice the Christ's Lessons to reach higher spheres

Brothers, fraternal greetings!

While incarnated, I tried to bring development to this country. I sacrificed a lot to achieve progress in different sectors, both economic and social.

However, I would like to remind you that these victories were not the result of privileges; I achieved them on my own merit, due to sacrifices and self-denials, even in my private life.

I had to sacrifice hours dedicated to rest and leisure so that the purpose of order and progress in this country would be, at the same time, efficient and effective.

Brothers, the same applies now when it comes to spiritual life. We must abstain from earthly pleasures, fads, pomp and luxury, resigning ourselves to a simpler and humbler life. If we aspire to reach Higher Planes, let us seek to practice the Lessons of Christ, being submissive and obedient servants, dedicating our lives to rebuilding the moral, spiritual and social values of this suffering humanity.

We know well that our Superior Brothers come to our help, in an act of pure love and detachment so that we can, one day, reach them and vibrate in unison in the grandeur of the Superior Worlds.

Spiritual ascension is a slow and long process, and it is up to you, therefore, to persevere in modifying yourself and trusting in God's Designs, because, if today you suffer a lot, tomorrow you will achieve a better situation than you are experiencing at the moment.

I wish you harmony and hope, in a future where everyone will prosper.

Save the Light!

MIRAMEZ

124 - In your hands you have power to fall or rise your spirits.

Blessed Father who makes us brothers!

Friends, students of the Spiritist Doctrine, when you dedicate yourself to your studies, your minds open and, gradually, you realize that we are all owners and drivers of our destinies.

Upon entering the material world, the human being assumes, before the Father and the Spirituality that accompanies him, the commitment to repair faults, silence pride, undo the ties that link him in an unhealthy way to the beings, with whom he cultivated years of suffering.

The incarnated brothers do not understand yet that in their hands is the power of to fall or elevation of their spirits, and they waste the opportunity offered (reincarnation), by disconnecting themselves from the source of love, whether voluntarily, neglecting their tasks, like some mediums, either unconsciously, by taking on responsibilities that overload their daily routine work, leaving no time even for prayer.

In relief work in the spiritual world, we help lost, failed and regretful souls, as they learn that the future test will be harder due to having accumulated debts.

I come, through the authorization of the Mentors of the House (GESJ), to warn you: Do not waste the little time you have on the subject. It doesn't matter if you are 20, 30 or 80 years old, because your physical life time is a thousandth of a second that you have to make up for your faults in the face of eternity.

Friends, be grateful and persistent, face difficulties with gallantry so that upon returning to the Spiritual Homeland, you will take part in the “banquet of Peace”.

May the light be in your minds!

125 – Time of no time

The loving appeal coming from the Illuminated Heart of Master Jesus granted you space in time to satisfactorily conclude your vibratory option in favor of the Light.

It follows from this how accelerated you are in relation to terrestrial time. There is no longer the possibility of prolonging yourselves, sitting on the wall of indecision. Your choices define, at every moment, the path to follow. Each step opens a new path; therefore, you must rely on the elucidating dictates of doctrinal codification to be able to reach broader horizons of universal cosmic understanding.

May our voices echo within each of you, in order to understand that we speak to awaken you from the uncomfortable and illusory lethargy of matter, accelerating as much as you can your spiritual labors, aware that these are the legitimate tickets to the great journey which you will soon do. May your choice be the Light!

Hail Master Ramatis! Shalom!

Moises, 01/04/03

Note: This message refers to a request made by Divine Master Jesus to the Greater Command of the Forces of Light, Mr. Ashtar Sheran and GFBU (Great Universal White Fraternity) to give more time beyond the time predicted by prophecies, so that humanity give up the lethargy in which live.

We learned about this important call from Jesus through an extraordinary message from Master Ramatis that we received at 9:00 pm on Good Friday 1999, in a stream on the majestic Rio Negro, a large tributary of the Amazon River, where we anchored the boat to sleep.

Note: You can read this message in Divulcation no. 20.

126 - There is too much unbelief on Earth

Beloved brothers!

May the peace of the Most High be among you!

There is so much unbelief on Earth. Men disbelieve everything that seems convenient to them.

All knowledge intended for spiritual improvement and, therefore, associated with modification of negative habits and tendencies, is relegated to levels of insignificance.

Anxiously, beings cling to the transitory satisfactions of the senses, commanded by the nervous system of the physical body.

The satisfaction of primary senses occurs in the alienated brain, as one who has already awakened to the Light only finds himself satisfied through subtle impressions in the brain from his etheric counterpart.

There are no miracles or magic that can make the brain jump from low vibrational levels to vibrate at high levels.

This change in the production of brain energy flow is a task that must be carried out by each person, in the direction and meaning they have chosen for their own life.

However, the events that are quickly collapsing on the terrestrial surface do not depend on human disbelief; and before they can try to understand what is happening, everything will be finished.

Therefore, my children, as soon as possible, take responsibility for the de-alienation of your minds and, led by the Spirits of Light, valuable brothers and friends, who assist humanity at this time. Work hard on renewing the principles and values that dictate your procedures, acting at the same speed as the transformation of the world that is happening around you.

May the Peace of the Beloved Father be with you!

127 – Times before, I had the pleasure of visiting Stelta City

Brothers, cordial greetings!

May Peace be with you!

I am very happy to meet such a valuable Group. In the labors that I have been carrying out for the progress of my spirit, I arrived here, through our worthy brother Hercilio Maes.

As an assiduous reader of his works, about life after death, and the immortal spirit, I became aware of the “final moments” we are going through on our Planet.

Sympathizer with the doctrine proclaimed by Master Ramatis, I became another one of his disseminators, carrying the message of the Good News.

Sowing here and reaping there, I have been collaborating with some GESJ's Workers, with the aim of clarifying and guiding the suffering spirits who arrive at this Charity House from the most diverse abysmal regions.

After many sacrifices and troubles, I learned that, in the past, we were linked by bonds of friendship, however, we grew apart due to the direction each of us chose for our lives. Now, after having undergone radical transformation, we tie the bonds of fraternity and, united, we will advance in our spiritual progress.

Some time ago, I had the pleasure of knowing Stelta City, as well as our Intraterrestrial Brothers who live there. Accompanied by Hercílio, I could see that not only there is life inside the Earth, and make sure that our loving Brothers will shelter us there, in a gesture of pure kindness and selflessness.

I come, dear brothers, to establish my purpose with your Group, for cleansing in all planes and sub-planes of our Orb, as well as in the reestablishment of the Order of Peace on the New Earth.

I leave you a big hug, hoping that love and unity always remain in your hearts.

Hail Master Ramatis! Hail Master Jesus!

128 - We have also visited our Homeland Planet

The Doctrine of Spirits is an extraordinary source of knowledge and liberation; only he, who cannot strip himself of the antagonisms to the Divine Laws does not recognize it.

Dealing with Superior Worlds, revealing to humanity that there are other Worlds more advanced than Planet Earth and that intelligent and morally and spiritually elevated beings live there, is advanced wisdom that earthly science has not yet achieved.

In this understanding and acceptance of the different inhabited worlds, one will believe in the presence of beings outside the Earth and that come to help this humanity, in work or visit. They bring advanced technology to your advantage. Terrestrial beings will also reach the understanding that many of these extraterrestrial beings reincarnate on Earth to grant moral, spiritual and scientific impetus to backward humanity.

All this, the Doctrine of Spirits reveals; but only those who “have eyes to see” see and those who have faith, accept it.

Earth, a planet still behind in the evolution of worlds, wants to progress. It has begun its abandonment process from lower dimensions, to be born in a higher dimension, changing its category in the classification of the Worlds.

Believe it or not, it no longer matters, as there is no time to convince non-believers. However, vibrant and soft light is already noticed in some points of the invisible plane, far from the dense layers of the lower astral, where the new Earth is already emerging. The Planet, feeling the new pulse, accelerates to get rid of its worn and dirty clothes. Unbelievers or not, everyone will feel its upheavals and movements to cleanse themselves.

Believe in Jesus and practice His Lessons. By acting like this, we will understand that this is the path to liberation.

Hail Jesus, the Liberator of souls.

He continues:

Upon freeing itself from the physical body, the spirit becomes aware of itself and, if it has already glimpsed the light, an immeasurable world of opportunities will open up to its vision. Taking advantage of them, the spirit becomes radiant. And, of all the lessons, the greatest is knowing how to love.

Love, a universal feeling that liberates.

The lower planes will be the last earthly points to detach from this dimension, as being denser and heavier vibratory, it must be transmuted in its constitution, to cease to exist in the lower dimension and move to the immediately higher one.

After the descent, we visited higher planes and were amazed there.

We also visited our “Planet of origin” and then returned to stay here, working alongside Christ for the liberation of the beautiful Planet, Earth, which conquered our soul.

We went to the lower planes where we noticed the real situation of the spirit that remains in constant rebellion.

Light and Darkness inhabit the same Planet and also in the hearts of all God's children; and over the course of countless incarnations, the soul will abandon the darkness and live eternally in the Light.

May Jesus bless us!

129 – Heavenly Symphony of Light and Love

Brothers, peace in Christ!

The Celestial Symphony of Light and Love, governed by the Father, can be heard and felt by all of his creatures, whatever situation they find themselves in.

Songs of praise encourage you to come to us in the Spheres of Light, cultivating the sincere desire to serve and making you forget, even if momentarily, your pain and troubles.

Laments coming from all parts of the globe, continue to increase and join the morbid melodies of pain and sadness sung by “Bestial creatures”, with its unfortunate followers of bestial beings.

Reflect! For anyone who moves away from the universal melody, orchestrated and conducted by the sublime Jesus, will fall further behind in the scale of Divine Creation and have to begin a new cycle of pain and suffering in another planetary Orb.

We are neither helpless nor lost. Therefore, let us be instruments of this universal symphony, bringing for those who do not have eyes to see or ears to hear, the joy we feel when we cultivate love and forgiveness, and which will make our vibratory note elevate us to a world of regeneration.

Brothers, the “illustrious” beings, as you call them, are brothers on the journey, just like you, on the path of redemption. Creatures prone to error, personalities that have fallen in the past ages, who have committed various crimes, iniquities and a whole range of perversions, shackled themselves in the dark and tenebrous prisons of darkness.

With the awakening of the soul, free from madness, despair and fear, fighting to break the shackles of ignorance, these illustrious brothers seek to propel you towards the progress and to achieve the much-desired freedom of the immortal spirit, free from all the karmic ties.

Everyone is given the opportunity for spiritual ascension, to evolve, with only individual effort required.

Listen to the “Hosanna Hymn”, sung by your Elder Brothers, children of God, our Father, joining the current of peace, fraternity and unity, reaching out to more and more brothers.

Hail the Love and Light of Master Jesus, who leads Everyone from Above!

Fraternal greetings! Yours brother and friend,

130 - Everything is Evolution in the Universe

The Spark, when created, consists only of Light, and travels through the different kingdoms of nature in its evolutionary trajectory to build human consciousness.

After acquiring the human constitution, must go through the different races and sexes, constituted on the Planet where inhabits to consolidate the Divine Creation in the evolving Spark.

The different races on Earth have their own characteristics, which provide strengthening and evolution to the soul, in its cycle of improvement towards higher planes, when it will no longer need a physical body, whatever type it may be.

Each Planet in a delayed stage of evolution has one or more races, which arouse prejudice and subservience, but everything in the Universe is evolution and the races of all Planets are transitional conditions of souls in an ascended evolutionary stage.

It will not be a race that will determine the evolution of any creature, as its true transformation lies in practice and submission to the Creator's Greater Laws.

Let us continue, brothers, in building a renewed future, modifying the vibratory tune of each cell of the soul, conditioning it to inhabit a better world, which will still be made up of distinct races, but which will not represent a barrier to the fraternity and peace.

Let us love one another as the Father loves us.

Let us seek Jesus, imitating Him in His actions, as He acted, always loving and forgiving.

Jesus is the ideal standard that we must imitate to reach the horizons of Light.

131 - The Great Plan underway approaches its climax

Earthling brothers.

Peace, with you.

The Great Plan underway approaches its climax. Our time differs from yours, but the proximity of the events that define the end is already evident. Black gales sweep across the Earth and new diseases and natural catastrophes, increasingly intense, manifest themselves in the dense matter that you inhabit.

Men torment and intertwine each other on both planes of life and intertwine each other, increasingly tighter, causing confrontations, violence and pain.

If there were no control from the Almighty, the Earth would be at random in the universe.

Each one of you who emits a sublime thought of peace contribute to neutralizing part of the dense negativity surrounding you.

Stay alert, you who believe our warnings. Pray and watch, because the Beasts, closer to matter, become more threatening.

Accept the invitation of Peace from Master Jesus Sananda and with Him fight to reestablish God's Plans on Earth.

I greet you in the name of Light and I leave you the Peace of Jesus.

He continues:

Greetings from Christ.

You are called to fight. Keep yourselves in a state of alert.

Do not remove your armor and hold your sword firmly, raised and ready for the accurate blow that destroys darkness and restores the Light.

132 – Lots of you will recognize yourselves, in enemies, dear ones from the past

May Peace of Jesus be with you.

Having established the rules for the upcoming battle, your astral and mental bodies receive the appropriate equipment for the confrontation. Your spirits, disconnected from matter, have been taken to higher planes, where receive high instructions from Instructors of Elevated Spiritual Hierarchy, in order to strengthen you for the harsh reality that you will experience on both planes of life.

Many of you will recognize in your enemies of high lethality and deformity, dear ones from the past and, even if they do not recognize you, you will identify them, as a part of your previous memory has been activated for larger scope and understanding of the enemies you will face.

In all combats between Light and Darkness there is no intention, on the part of the Warriors of Light, to annihilate the enemy; there is a larger purpose, which consists to break them the steps in the soul's vertiginous fall into error and spiritual backwardness that, in this particular case, has persisted for millennia.

When you recognize any of those beings, you will understand the depth of the events that place you today, in the opposite position of those who were once companions; and you will have a panoramic view of your current spiritual condition, which will boost your desire to progress.

In all the struggles you face, there is always a greater purpose, beyond the one you know, of planetary sanitation in the “end times” event.

Direct your souls towards the Light of liberation, freeing those who, one day, you helped to exile other beings.

Do not hold back in your steps, as time moves quickly, ignoring those who are late.

Forgiveness and Love must be your flag of spiritual progress.

133 – Would be very difficult to practice forgiveness?

Clairvoyance:

When praying and elevating the mind to the High, I could see each of us and a thread of light connected our minds.

I have seen attack heading our way. They were small, toothy beings.

I have seen the battle of the Wesak Festival.

The opponents were the strangest possible, in size and shape. They were humanoids, robots and human creatures completely deformed, in their divine and physiological essence.

We fought nimbly and courageously.

Then I saw us in a spaceship, where Beings of Elevated Spiritual Hierarchy, including Shama Hare, were present talking about the fight we had and drew up plans for new battles.

Then I caught the following words:

Earthly people,

Work to raise the vibrational standard of your feelings.

You have the Code of high moral spirituality left by Jesus; You must project your minds into it, in a concentrated attitude of elevating spiritual conditions, which will condition you to increase the vibrational pattern of your souls.

Outside of love there is no salvation! It is through him that you will undertake the journey back to the Father's House.

As long as you impose suffering of any intensity on your fellow man, you will be doomed to wander around Planets with a low evolutionary frequency; where pain and suffering permeate the journey of creatures.

Would be very difficult to understand and practice forgiveness? It is by forgiving that one is forgiven...

Go brothers, and practice love!

134 – Unity, Calm and Prudence

My dear brothers!

The Lord's blessing is eternal and He offers you the Altar of Consecration so that you can analyze your existence. In the silence of the night, say: Thank you, Lord! We guide thousands of souls to meet Your Light.

Perennial peace should lead you to silence and, this, to sincere and frank dialogue with the Father.

As the hours go, the great moment will not delay and humanity will kneel down before the Lord's Voice.

Be alert! Your bodies suffer from the daily and nightly work, but nothing that cannot be overcome.

Unity, Calm and Prudence!

Nicodemus, 03/23/01.

135 – Happy are the Workers of the Light

Hail the Light!

Brothers, welcome to the Jobs for the year that begins. Celebrating hearts thank the Father for the existence of this Group which, for us, represents the presence of Mediators exchanging forces in the construction of the Father's Work.

Let us, side by side, join hands in effort to spread the blessings deserved to each creature and making public the existence of the revived Christ in each one of us.

Happy are the workers of the Light. Heralds announce everywhere: Christ was born and is alive in every worker who kindly extends his hands to his neighbor!

Hail the Strength!

Hail the Light!

Hail the faith that leads us!

136 – Like a surfer lost his board

Hail, Hail!

Far away in time, lie the thresholds of your human history. So far that your minds, in a normal state of consciousness, cannot access. However, to each one, Divine Mercy grants ability to access portions of past history, those, in particular, referred to present history.

Grant us Divine Mercy, such a gift, with the aim at giving the human mind a lucid understanding of the guiding thread of life, which clearly announces to those who develop the ability to see it, the meaning hidden in ordinary events.

Those who have not yet gained enough elevation to discern past and present remain immersed in history, debating like a surfer who lost his board in the open sea.

Divine Providence invites you to collect the energy scattered in vain in the uncontested struggle for survival and lead such forces in the direction indicated by the guiding star of Christ's Love.

It will show you the best path, which, according to the forces used, will lead you to a happy future.

May peace flood your hearts!

Nicodemus, 08/07/04

137 – Each lack of vigilance put you more trapped in darkness

Clairvoyance 1:

Scenes of the Group working in the astral world providing assistance to disembodied people, in a hospital.

Clairvoyance 2:

They explained to me that were scenes of the Group, helping in the Indonesian region. We rescued disembodied people when the giant waves occurred. The most serious cases needed to be referred for more detailed therapeutic procedures. Those who were in a reasonable state of mental balance received explanations and guidance about the planetary moment and what had happened. They remained in the large infirmary to rest and recover them.

Clairvoyance 3:

I saw several scenes of lust associated with carnival.

The people in the scenes released a sticky white substance that rose and mixed with miasmas of the psychosphere, forming a dark, greasy goo. This material solidified and remained on the place (in this case, I saw Jacaraípe Beach in North of the capital) functioning as a kind of insulator, blocking the healthy circulation of energies in the psychosphere.

The Extraterrestrials and Intraterrestrials were working there, melted this layer of greasy using special equipment and drained the resulting dirt into the high seas, thus seeking to alleviate its oppressive and suffocating effect.

Soon after, the communication came:

Hail brothers!

The work we do is distributed across various points along the Brazilian coast. Every effort we make is to alleviate as much as possible the effect of the strategies and traps of the “dark workers”.

What was shown to you did not occur due to simple unruliness on the part of unwary beings; It was also the result of vast manipulation carried out by “evil engineers”, who seek to extract, from humans, the dense matter to implement their plans of domination and subjugation.

As you know, the human mass, although believe to be free to do what they want, indeed, every day, become more slaves to their own wild instincts and, easy prey to the developed minds of evil.

Beloved children, dear brothers, wake up! There is no longer that much time and, with each fall, with each lack of vigilance, you become more and more trapped in the horrendous plots of darkness.

May the Light of the Master guide you!

May the Master's Love awaken you!

Peace forever!

Nicodemus, 02/12/05

138 – It's time to awaken in favor of the Peace, Light and Love

Brothers, hail the One who leads us from Above! Hail the Divine Jesus!

Sewers of Good, the dark clouds hover over your planet, generating acid rain of discord and violence among the incarnates.

Taking advantage of the reigning density in the astral psychosphere, microorganisms multiply that cause diseases in the human physical morphology weakened by creature of moral misconduct.

The Beast's followers also multiply on the dense astral plane.

We can see in this humanity the total disbelief in the survival of the spirit after death and in the continuity of a fully constituted life, full of activities that make it possible to continue progress or remain in pain.

The corporeal tenacity that prevents the lucidity of the incarnated soul, obscuring its memories, makes the creature obstinate towards matter, not accepting, for its own convenience, the continuity of existence after death.

Compassionate with human beings, for believing themselves infallible while incarnated and attached to the material vehicle (body of flesh), we came, from afar, to join efforts, in order to alert you that the last hour is coming and everyone who wants to awaken, wake up from material illusion and to the immortality of the soul.

It is difficult for us to understand that, after the birth of Jesus and His Word poured into human hearts, this humanity still remains trapped in dogmas and prejudices, dictated by fallible and bankrupt creatures undergoing expiatory trials, as human as their followers, full of guilt like their opponents and who still dominate the human masses, disseminating fake news accepted by guilty consciences of human beings, with people remaining tied, by the threads of distrust to the Almighty, who awards some elect to heaven and punishes the majority of His children with misfortunes on Earth and the eternal "astral hell".

No "scientific discovery" attested existence of heaven or hell, much less pioneered any life beyond the physical body. But, it is in the Immortal Lessons of the Divine Friend Jesus that the soul discovers itself alive and eternal.

Born to be happy and to evolve, the soul located in the lower ranges of the Worlds of Atonement and Trials takes time to free itself from its proud and rebellious personalism, attracting even more backward and perverse souls to keep them under control, preventing their liberation.

Behold, the last hour of awakening has arrived! Sister humanity, isn't it time to abandon the valleys of suffering?

Isn't it time to wake up?

Avoid religious dogmas that encourage prejudice and vanity.

Seek the simplicity and humility of the manger to free yourself from pain.

Free the soul means diving into love, forgetting one's own pain, serving others with renunciation.

It is time to awaken and act in favor of Peace, Light, Love.

NIETZSCHE

139 – Human losses bring revolt Injustice becomes commonplace

Beloved daughters.

Peace does not reign on Earth.

Human hearts struggle in all social classes in all countries on the Planet.

There are no borders to violence, and pain severely punishes humanity. Discords break out here and there, and a river of bloodshed on the Earth.

The flood is approaching, as the waters increase in the seas and the riverbeds no longer contain them. Desperation takes over the creatures, and collective deaths accelerate.

There is no hope for global peace in the hearts of the rulers of the great earthly nations, as the desire to possess and dominate one another grows frighteningly: it is economic domination or by military force.

In the sub-planes of the planetary surface, in the lower regions of the invisible plane, non-conformist, deluded and hate-filled spirits assume their positions as tenacious obsessors of humanity and carry out their revenge; they accumulate pain and recruit new followers on both planes of life.

They result in a greater amount of suffering, the total absence of love in the hearts. Faith sponsored by the illusion of material gains and abundance, entices multitudes to build “sand castles” that quickly undo, in the face of the torrent of “end of times” events.

Failure to comply with God's Laws is the greatest confirmation of the moral backwardness of this humanity. It is easier to hate your brother than to heed the call of the Sublime Lessons: Love your enemy.”

Homeless and without bread, communities succumb to natural disasters; and the temporal power acquired at the cost of moral falls does not prevent pain from manifesting itself in all hearts hardened in evil, in pride and in vanity.

Human losses generate revolts, and human injustices become commonplace.

Dying is natural, moral falls are processes that generate future pain.

Acting in accordance with the Creator's Laws is the destiny of all human beings.

Remember Jesus, who died on the cross without sin and lives eternally by your side so that you can forgive, love and evolve.

Those who are in darkness are because they refuse to heed the call of the Light, sounded within them in the waves of repentance.

Pain visits everyone, Light and Darkness, as it is the great selector of “end of times” souls.

Pain, like an X-ray plate, reveals the spiritual condition of the individual, community, Nation and Orb.

Pain is the psychic detonator announcing the end of this humanity that reveals a greater dose of low spiritual condition, of enduring it without revolt, or without corrupting oneself, using “other people's pain” for self-benefit.

Humanity will succumb to the pain of recognizing itself as spiritually bankrupt, seeing itself failed on the evolutionary scale of Beings and Worlds.

Pain sown abundantly among equals in an unfair way, returns through Divine Justice to select the souls in this “Doomsday”.

May Jesus bless this humanity and its beautiful Planet!

140 – Work in the Vineyard of Christ Jesus never ceases

Brothers in Christ, peace and kindness throughout Planet Earth!

Time runs quickly and approaches its final hour.

Several rescues are being carried out at all times in any geographic location on your planetary Orb.

The Intraterrestrials act more strongly, following the development of spiritualist works in Groups that remain faithful to the Spiritual Mentors, as these are the final repositories of subtle forces destined for the purpose of Good.

Even in the face of adversity, continue, brothers, in daily providing the strength necessary for collaborative work in planetary rescue.

For the worker who wishes to help in the Great Plan for the reconstruction of the New Earth, work must never be lacking. The work in the Vineyard of Christ Jesus never ceases.

Remember my effort to build an ark and house as many creatures as possible in it, in the face of the flood so propagated in the Old Testament, in the certainty that the Father would protect us in the bitterness faced.

Do not doubt the merciful assistance you receive from Intraterrestrial Beings and if adversity knocks at your doors, may understanding soothe your anguish and suffering, as no pain will unfairly reach anyone to whom it is not due. First of all, keep faith in the Creator, as everything is being directed according to His Will.

Whatever happens from now on, we want you to know: we are present and united as Lightworkers, guided and supported by the Nazarene Master, radiating “forces” that will sustain you, according to the needs and evolution of each one.

Follow in Peace and Love, of the Sublime Savior!

Hail the Light Force!

141 - Endless News

May Jesus always be the Lighthouse on the roads we travel.

Before, I dedicated myself to the health of my body; Today, I fight for the health of the spirit.

Upon arriving at Spiritual House, lots of new things opened up before my eyes. Thirsty for knowledge since long time, I began to recover, with the intention of investigating what was happening around me. Stronger, I sought out the medical team at the unique House to find out about the techniques and methods used in the treatments given to us, sick, and to those who were already recovered.

These are studies so complex and some that men don't even know about, that it wouldn't be clear to the incarnates to describe them. I'm just saying, from what's happening here, earthly medicine has a lot of room to advance.

They introduced me to men and women. They were doctors, nurses and volunteers, who, willingly, worked to recover the astral bodies that arrived here too deformed, with wounds and mutilated.

The healthy pride that fills my soul is inevitable, for being part of this harmonious, humble and knowledge-advanced team.

Many of extraterrestrials and Intraterrestrial I met have a simplicity and wisdom never seen on earth, which if it were in another environment could cause discomfort to those who call themselves intellectuals.

I always try to fulfill what is expected of me. Studies never cease and the news is endless.

I offered to be part of the Abyss cleaning team and from there comes the happiness of being part of a team where the greatest victory is the recovery of others.

Colleagues and apprentices, we all have our share of responsibility for suffering, in the physical and spiritual world, and each of us is given the opportunity to repay our debts.

Work without expecting name recognition, as these earthly practices have no place when you see how far man can reach.

May the Light of Master Jesus comfort and encourage everyone to work!

PADRE GERMANO

142 - Passion and vices enslave human beings

Sisters, we greet you in the name of God.

Alleviating consciences in addiction or suicide is still the path found by this humanity. They cannot contain the pernicious instincts that have held their spirits in the lower zones for millennia.

The current humanity has been repeating the same mistakes for millennia; now on one plane, now on another, vibrating always in the same harmful and backward bands.

From the plane where we are, above the crowd, we realize that few souls are able to break away from retrograde communities that are stubborn in error, evil and vices.

The efforts of the Superior Spirituality are increasingly intense, to awaken the brothers from the foolish illusion in which they live to accept the practice of Jesus' Lessons as the only path to liberation.

Passions and addictions are difficult for the soul to free itself from, and these, in turn, become full in the environments in which they exist.

Victims and perpetrators, of all times, remain entangled in the lower planes and we regret that only exile will separate them.

Brothers, let us love Jesus and practice His Lessons.

Serving is loving. Loving is to serve.

143 - Friends of yesterday

I don't come with a resentful soul, nor do I bring a bitter heart.

I have the sincere intention of warning you about misleading preaching, which, often, covered with the best intentions, never fails to lead you into mistakes, as they constitute untruths, despite being supposedly based on the Bible itself.

I, myself who once shared with you the joys of Sunday classes and, committed to the purpose of serving Jesus, sought, in every way, what best reflected his teachings, today, I come in public, to pray: listen to me carefully as to the warnings I intend to make.

I'm talking about Spiritism, which, when you often refer to it, mocks it, tramples on it and ridicules it.

This sublime doctrine expresses Christianity in its most beautiful purity and needs to be respected in all temples around the world.

His followers can no longer be persecuted and crucified like the first Christians, since selfless servants of the Master line up their hosts, bringing the Spiritual Bread to the suffering crowd that knocks at his door.

Friends! Don't see me as an enemy. We cannot face religious philosophy, comparing it to sports clubs, isolating those who do not sympathize with the associations of which we are members.

Indeed, I know a new truth that fills me with comfort and fulfills me. This doctrine taught me to continue to love them, despite the different label that many consider an obstacle to our approach.

It is for Christ I am here, praying for due respect for the new religion that is flourishing, capturing pure hearts, renewing the Christian spirit, reinvigorating hope in man's future, walking alongside progress and guiding us on the miracle of love.

May Jesus enlighten and support you!

144 - I've been in other Planets

Sisters, even though I am far away, taking courses and developing latent skills in my being, great is the affection I have for you.

The loving words addressed to me resonate in my heart.

I have been in other Planets, increasing knowledge in the medical field; I was taken by Extraterrestrials to study advanced techniques, leaving a little, my field of nuclear study, because the mind is thirsty for other knowledge.

I will try to apply these new techniques with love and dedication, in our teaching hospital, at Servants of Jesus Colony. We will teach classes for students initiated into spiritual medicine.

Problems on Earth are increasing and to our joy, over here, the young people who have already awakened are interested in starting their studies in medicine and here we are, to teach them.

Ultimately, the eternal cycle: learning, applying and transmitting knowledge.

Light in everyone's hearts.

145 – Pollution of the sea

Hail sisters!

Men who, in their intellectual supremacy, throw their war experiments into the sea, cannot measure the serious losses that, defenseless and hostage nature, absorbs.

The force of the impact and the energy generated by atomic explosions shake the plates that support the Earth, which, leaving their alignment, release toxic substances that kill, injure and harm the delicate marine flora and the animal kingdom system.

Men, in the search for “black gold”, harm the marine system in the same way.

We try to minimize the effects that explosions and drilling have on the seas, but the destructive power of these two actions together is great.

Beings coming from other planets, are here, helping the dying Planet Earth. These brothers surpass us in knowledge and technology and with humility teach us their techniques.

We thank the Father for this help.

Peace and Light!

Clairvoyance:

I saw tectonic plates moving during explosions and gas coming out of the cracks that were created. I also saw machines drilling the seabed and gas coming out of the openings, thus contaminating the water, killing plants, small animals and after that, whales floating dead on the surface. I had a strong feeling that more ecological disasters at sea will appear.

PAUL VI

146 - I was a man of high standing on Earth

Peace and kindness in the hearts of men.

I was a prominent man on Earth.

Conductor of souls and still ignorant, I led the minds of the faithful followers to cultivate a joyful heaven and a penitent hell for sinners.

Having lost my body of flesh, taken to heaven, I mean, to the astral plane, adjacent to life on the material plane, I realized how “human” I still was, as I thought I was worthy of being received in “heaven” by the Angels of the Lord singing Hosannas.

Beatified on Earth, by ignorant hearts that wish to perpetuate the illusory lie, I suffer with the petitions of the faithful who use the Saints and the miracles of the Church as crutches for the endless petition, without, however, making an effort to achieve salvation, because they were instructed by the religious that the sacrifice of fasting and speaking in the confessional is enough for their sins to be absolved by the priest.

How much ignorance is spread in the hearts of the faithful, souls who seek in Religion and its Religious Guides, the prerogative of evolution.

I suffer to see that erroneous ideas continue to be disseminated by dignified religious people and that many of the leading dignitaries of the highest religious rank know the truth, which I did not know, and use the good faith of the faithful to keep them ignorant and slaves to the church.

The moral bankruptcy of these drivers would attract “divine wrath” if it existed. But the “infernal beings” invade the monastery, where the Truth should reign.

Poor brothers! If they saw their spiritual companions, they would quickly retreat from their fateful moral downfall.

Today, I work for the dissemination of the Truth, for the true Work of Jesus.

I am nothing and I seek to redeem myself before the Lord, who is All Goodness and Love.

I recognize that I contributed greatly to the strengthening of dogmas that delayed the steps of the humanity, but I will not rest while lies cover the hearts of the faithful.

Wandering through the “Valley of shadows”, in the work of rescuing lost souls, I found the True Jesus who loves and leads us.

We struggle for implantation of the Truth, even if late, in the hearts of our brothers and sisters of humanity.

We fight for Peace and Love!

Paul VI, 09/11/09

PERICLES

147 - Only through Love, you reach the New Age

The purest Love comes from the Heart of Jesus and sent to Earth.

Source of Light and Peace, it is little used by this humanity stubborn in errors, vices and primary feelings, which it should have abandoned long ago.

Thirsty for material goods, creatures get lost at the crossroads of life, without a clear path that leads them to the line of evolutionary progress. Most park in low-vibration lanes that do not allow access to higher areas.

They do not perceive the illusory world that enslaves the primary senses and animalizes the spirit. Superficially, they connect with Divinity, believing that material offerings will provide the conquest of the “fictitious heaven”, created precisely to keep them away from reality and the guiding line of spiritual progress.

It will never be denied the opportunities that provide evolution to the God’s children.

At this moment, the Earth receives, among humanity, thousands of spirits distorted by the soul's misconduct: hatred, addictions, lust, desires for revenge, and so on.

Spirits that have been imprisoned in purge zones, in unfathomable abysses and that in this final hour will have to reincarnate, either to awaken their awareness of themselves, or to soften the caustic toxin adhered to their spirits.

No matter what the reason, but within the programming established by Above for this Humanity, the time has come for the reincarnation opportunity of this distorted category of spirits.

Those who preceded them in the matter should find themselves spiritually strengthened in faith and love, enriched with a solid spiritual condition that would enable them to receive late spirits into their midst to help them, committed as they are to these brothers.

Unfortunately, the hour of correction has arrived and humanity, unprepared, receives the inferior burden and becomes drastically contaminated with its poison.

Wars break out with greater destructive intensity, acts of vandalism and violence detonate throughout the Planet, in all nations. Cold and cruel murders multiply, children are offended in their purity and the elderly are disrespected in their fragility.

Where is the power of governments to contain violence?

What about religions that appease hearts?

They are all spiritually bankrupt human beings, candidates to consume themselves in disputes, the most banal, to defend the vices and deviations of the soul, which are often not said.

There is no way to stop the descent of these brothers into matter, as they are children of God like any other, and need of the blessed opportunity of reincarnation as the last chance to remake oneself, as an immortal spirit, on this Planet.

Thousands of Superior Beings come to Earth, many from other Systems of the Universe to provide minimum balance in the Planetary Transition that is taking place and to support the small nuclei made up of Good Men.

The “End of Times” has arrived and this humanity has not noticed, hypnotized by the “hiss of the Beast”, unprepared to face itself.

The wheat and tares reveal themselves, naturally.

Jesus leads everyone, on Earth and in Heaven.

Pericles

The strength of love breaks down barriers.

148 – I suffer the penalties of remorse

Clairvoyance:

I saw in a dark place; an elderly man being cursed by children who looked like an adult; women with their children on their arms throwing stones at him. After that, I saw him entering the Shelter, supported by two workers from the Servants of Jesus Spiritual Colony. He cried a lot and his steps were faltering, with a trembling voice he communicated.

Father, forgive me! Be merciful to my misery. I suffer the penalties of remorse. I suffer without knowing when this punishment imposed on me will end.

I know very well that I am not worthy of transmitting my words to earthly people. I am here in penury, supported by friendly hands and by the power of prayer that simple and kind souls direct to my spirit.

I closed my eyes to the serious problems that are now coming to the attention of the faithful.

Covered in moral wounds, I say that I could have done a lot for the little ones who had their innocence stolen, but to maintain a power that only brought me vanity and pride, I preferred to remain silent and with the moral bandage I pretended that nothing happened in our Holy House (Catholic church).

The ancient castle of power now has its bases corrupted and, gradually it will come to the ground showing how fragile man is before the power of God.

I ask for strength so that in the destiny given to me, in a new garment, I know how to honor the vows made and thus be able to help the afflicted souls who ask for help and support.

Father, may His eyes that ease our pain fall upon us.

149 - Dikes broken: Nature rebels against its greatest tormentor: humanity

Clairvoyance:

I saw a platoon or small Chinese army, dressed differently: a uniform with a square hat, with a round top. It was a “death squad”. They carried sharp swords and an “aura” of blood hovered around them.

I saw Tibet, and the Monks chanted mantras so powerful that they caused avalanches that covered the Chinese army.

Shortly after, I received the following message:

Intolerance among Nations reaches a high level, but natural catastrophes dampen their egos, eliminate their pride and, through intense pain, retreat their deadly armies.

Wars occur, even if you don't see them on the physical plane; however, human minds challenge each other and duel, emitting deadly sparks for planetary stability.

Between believing or not believing and remaining numb in the face of the fury of the ignorant, the Gospel of Jesus is the antidote, the protective armor, the source of faith and light that solidifies love in hearts, which breaks the dense band of madness and chaos, to achieve the victory of the progress.

The dikes have been broken and Nature rebels against its greatest tormentor: humanity!

The small beacons of light guide the afflicted to help, rescue, and liberation!

PROPHET JEREMIAH

150 - Hunger, cold, disease and destruction increasing is not the end yet

Brothers, here I am to tell humanity at the end of times to be careful, and not to fear the power of God, as He is just and infallible.

Before the wave sweeps away nations and powers, the people will see that those who stood up and claimed to be owners of this Earth are fragile and small, and the nation designated as “Tower of Babel” will have the same end as this one. They will see the nation of those who wear crowns lose their majesty, because their kingdom is corrupt in morals and pride dictates their orders.

Do not be intimidated, good men, by the serious moments that are approaching, in this beginning of transition. Hunger, cold, disease and destruction increasing, but it is not the end yet, it will be just another stage in separating wheat from tares.

Accelerated time, accelerated catastrophic events; and that no one thinks they are above good and evil, because each one in their own moment will settle the score with the House that welcomed them.

They will see that the chaos created by unbelieving people will just be the repetition of the lesson they have studied throughout history.

Strengthen your spirits, because in the time that will come after the darkness, you will need not only brave warriors, but people who lead and organize the groups in which you will be inserted.

Be strong, be brave and sure that your burning faith in the Superior Designs will guide you in your activities.

Blessed is Christ!

Save God!

PTOLEMY

151 - No place on Earth is safe from furious nature

From the borders of the invisible to the higher planes, superior energy of high vibration descends to Earth, which maintains planetary stability, opposing the intense load of harmful energy, dangerous for life on the Planet, emanating from creatures of low evolutionary degree.

Catastrophic events erupt here and there and collective deaths surprise the unprepared humanity. Between one hecatomb and another, time is reduced, until, simultaneously, they erupt throughout the Planetary Orb, causing any doubt about the serious hour you are living in to fall to the ground, “the end of a cycle of delay and rebellion” for this humanity and suffering for the Planet.

May the earthly beings understand the Law of Return, the Law of Cause and Effect. There is no injustice or abandonment by the Father to His children, there is compliance with His inexorable and immutable Laws, disobeyed by the inhabitants of the Earth.

Sumptuous palaces will fall. Hypocritical religions will see their cold stone temples in moral ruins by despotism itself. By bloodshed of innocent on their dogmatic foundations, they consolidated the moral backwardness of their despotic and exploiting souls.

“Peter’s House” falls in the most abject and undesirable way.

Landscapes, once harmonious, will succumb to the chaos of natural catastrophes. No place on earth is safe and unattainable from being struck down by nature's fury.

The Planet shakes trying to expel the blade that deeply hurts its core.

The wheat and tares mixed together are gradually selected by the vibratory ancestry of each being. The wheat suffers and purifies itself from the marks of spiritual backwardness. The tares suffer and rebels, causing greater pain in others.

The extinction of physical life is just one stage in the “planetary transition” process that is occurring massively across the globe.

Many beg and the Father for their pain to cease, on the physical and invisible planes, but they surrender to hatred, addictions and total moral decadence. They have lost the elevated notions of love and succumb to revolt. Stunned with horror, many will believe that Dante's hell has materialized on the physical plane, however, it is just the Law of Return acting.

He, “who sows winds reap storm!”. Therefore, the gales of desolation and gnashing of teeth have overtaken you, humanity that still remain blindfolded.

The Planetary Christ watches over everyone.

Ptolomeu GESH – 03/26/10

152 - They seek in logic, in illogic way, justify the unjustifiable

Hail the Light! Hail the Divine Master Jesus, who leads us from the Elevated Spheres.

Brothers, the more the process of “planetary transition” accelerates, when the Earth leaves the lower dimensions to be born in a higher dimension, the more the Forces of Good face the Darkness and clean up the Planet for the New Age Advent, the more the human beings refuse to accept the Christy Postulates, becoming more and more in tune with the harmful, inferior and cruel emissions of the Beast.

Hercolubus already appears in this Solar System and its primitive emissions act with larger intensity on the creatures.

One easily loses control of reason. Creatures, with uncontrolled emotions, become the playthings of the wicked beings that inhabit the invisible world around you.

The Servants of Jesus are persecuted as “Christians” were in the early days, and false prophets incite the faithful to religious prejudice and materialism, worshiping material possession as a vehicle for salvation.

The Beast is free in hearts perverted by crimes and animosity.

The “religious structures”, threadbare and misdirected are unable to save the faithful from the moral deviations that deeply affect them.

Fear imprisons people in their homes which, in turn, are filled with animosity: brother against brother, father against son, son against everyone. It is the manifestation of the Apocalypse.

Shamelessness in acting and dressing and moral profligacy dictating social conduct.

Perversity and immorality leave anonymity and take to the streets of cities, in all social classes. Few manage to raise their spiritual and moral standards above the prevailing decadence.

Temperatures changes abruptly, between cold and heat; the climatic seasons were lost in the chaos of environmental imbalance.

Natural disasters have become commonplace and the civil society is trying to mobilize to face the chaos of nature.

Collective deaths intensify, as the selection of just and of bad is accelerated; of leftists and rightists of Christ.

Animals, plants and minerals are deeply disturbed by the Planet’s psycho-physical instability and beings in a transitional stage of evolution from one kingdom to another are gradually transferred from their planetary habitat, so that their newest embryonic structure is not disturbed. and distort before the appropriate moment, in its subtle and delicate structure in new modeling.

Only majority of human beings do not accept the reality of facts, seeking in logic, illogic, to justify the unjustifiable.

God's Laws operate His Will.

Believing is not essential, unpostponable and urgent, it is the transformation of creatures, so as not to lose once again the opportunity to evolve and leave the Worlds of Atonement and Trials, to less painful stages of progress.

The antagonistic forces, Light and Darkness, clash with intensity and strength, in this apocalyptic moment.

Overcoming darkness and remaining in the Light is the great challenge for rightists.

Love each other, as the Father loves us!

153 - It is the Law of Love to always serve

Spiritual Medium:

I feel strong energy of Commander Yuri.

We are guided by Beings of Evolved Hierarchies of Light and feeling their presence and their strength in our words is natural, as all the strength and love that unite us into one people, as brothers in Christ, emanate from them.

If we did not defend in our time ideas that you disseminate today, about the presence of “superior brothers” leading, supporting and helping us, we made a lot of effort to understand the functioning of the Planet, Universe and Creation; and without the help of the Superior Extraterrestrial Hierarchies, our knowledge would find barriers and limitations that our mind would not be able to overcome.

We are children of God, one family, no matter where we live, nor our level of evolution.

The one in front helps the one behind.

MAGI

154 - Each one made his choice and had his opportunity

Clairvoyance:

I see a Shooting Star across the sky. Suddenly, it stops on top of the GESJ's building.

Afterwards, I saw the projection of three magnificent Beings, wearing clothing similar to what the priests of the Zoroastrian religion (Persia) wore. Each of them had a gift in their hand.

Finally, the communication came:

Hail, hail, Warriors of Light!

Hail, Servants of Jesus!

Brothers, just as we have already come to announce the coming of the Messiah, now we announce the arrival of the "New Age".

Likewise, we came to offer you three simple gifts.

The first is the sword, which you can use to awaken souls that are still delayed. The meaning of the sword is the Word of God. With wisdom and love, you can touch the being's core during the combat.

The second is the shield. The meaning of the shield is protection and help from God. With it, you will be protected against the attacks of Evil. Nothing will happen to you that is not programmed for you, as this shield is magnetized with the Love of Our Adored Master.

With these two instruments, the sword and the shield, you can overcome all obstacles and remain confident and courageous.

The third, and last gift, is the "book". This book contains the entire history of your Group (GESJ). Every person who is here, or who was here, made their contribution. It also contains what each individual will still have to do for the Group.

This book has life, where each character has their due role. And each subject in this story has his own importance. The meaning of the book is unity.

Therefore, this book will never end, the history of this Group will not end. It will be eternally marked in the Akashic Records and you will make use of the book as you unite for the victory of the Light.

Brothers, the “Final Battle” approaches!

We came to encourage you to the “Good News”.

They are all blessed and guided by the Greatest Star, Jesus of Nazareth, the Kind Rabbi of Galilee.

Once again, we greet and congratulate you.

Melchior, Baltazar and Gaspar

Hail, hail, Jesus!

RITA DE CASSIA

155 – Be ready in silence, without fear and much faith

Beloved brothers, take care of your mind so that your body does not perish. “A healthy mind, a healthy body”, an old saying once told us.

The mind drives your actions. If it enters a lower vibrational range, it receives bad fluids and attacks from inferior beings. If, on the contrary, it vibrates in a higher range, it receives healthy fluids for the remaking of your physical bodies.

It is necessary you do a daily exercise to strengthen your thoughts, and place them in communion with Forces of Good.

Moments of pain and torment will spread even further. We need balanced workers, both in the physical and in the astral body, prepared for the harsh and sad realities that are to come.

We need humble and courageous hands, which overcome obstacles, however difficult they may seem, with serenity and confidence, and not unbalanced people who harm our work, causing disorder.

Now, try to work your minds in tranquility and silence, without fear and with so much faith, so that in moments of affliction, which will devastate the Earth, you will be prepared.

Pray, sing, keep your mind connected to the Creator, ensuring that the blessings of the Good News are always present in your prayers in any adversity.

Fight courageously showing that you can persevere and accept the Designs of our Greatest Father.

I leave you, in the Peace of our Divine Savior!

Blessed Jesus!

SÃO PATRICK

156 - We ask Father, mercy for people who failed themselves

Clairvoyance: I saw in the sky of the USA, several gargoyles fighting, one ate the other's head and ripped off pieces of the body. In the cities, there is great chaos, fights and violence. The sea, with huge waves, advanced towards the Manhattan City. Then, I saw two big angels, each with a golden sword in their hands, and Saint Patrick in the middle, going into battle with the gargoyles.

Hail the Light.

We ask, Father, for mercy for these people who allowed themselves to succumb, before the shine of gold that blinded their eyes, to the path they should follow towards peace.

They were lost throughout history, because bathed in blood of their brothers and drowned in the tears of the defeated, they did not have the mercy to look and assist the needy.

Brilliant minds were sent to this Earth to boost humanity's progress, and even with the presence of all the spirits sent, they still turned help into a weapon of domination, which annihilates and enslaves nations.

The sending of new technologies and other's inventions for this nation is restricted. Its corroded foundations begin to show a sign of its fall, which will come precipitous; and this generation still has to see the end of the so-called racial, intellectual, cultural and economic supremacy.

The sea will absorb what would be the future nation, which, united with the Homeland of the Gospel, would serve as basis for the creation of the new evangelized race. But with Evil cemented in its pillars and without its recovery, its dominance will come to an end.

I ask the Hosts of Light, with their fearless army, to save the wheat that bravely fights to resist the total advance of darkness, before the wild sea covers its magnificent monuments.

Let's fight to the end, brave warriors of the light.

Hail the Father who leads us.

Saint Patrick

157 – Faith certainty of hope and proof of that we cannot see

Hail the Warriors of Light!

Hail the Servants of Jesus!

Brothers, just as David had to face the giant Goliath, you must, day after day, face the “evil giants” and calm the mob of “beasts”.

Enemies persecute you, the siege closes, but do not leave the door open in your hearts and minds for fear to build a nest.

The “evil warriors” are in larger number. Meanwhile, the platoon of Light must equip itself with the weapons of faith and courage, gaining more and more allies in battle, by distributing Love.

Faith is certainty of what we hope for and proof of all things we cannot see. Through it, we bear witness to Divine Will and Justice. Without faith, it is impossible for us to serve God, our Father, because whoever wants to get closer to Him needs to believe that He exists and that He is always present in the lives of those who seek Him.

Be firm and confident in your attempts to defeat the enemy, so as not to lose your constructed and desired trajectory towards the Light.

Warriors, I greet you in the name of the Messiah and Savior, the Rabbi of Galilee, Jesus!

Hail the Light Force!

Hail Jesus!

Samson, 03/27/10

SANTO AUGUSTINHO

158 - Jesus said: “My Kingdom is not of this world”

Peace in your hearts!

Brothers, thoughts of help, screams and laments come from your minds. You do not accept, resignedly, the life schedule established, often by yourselves, so that, through pain, you can reduce your debts with the Laws of God, and in blood coexistence with your past enemies, you can forgive and evolve.

Dissatisfied more and more, you beg the Divinity and “Saints” to reduce your share of pain and suffering on earth.

However, the Spiritual Guardians are at your side helping and supporting you through the painful process, sending you thoughts of courage, resignation, trust, faith and love. However, you neither feel them nor reach their superior emissions, because your attention is focused on solving material problems and on the miracle of healing physical pain, without, for this, making an effort to change your mental attitude of anti-fraternal behavior, and in sincere and real connection to the Postulates of Christ Jesus.

From the Superior Planes, Elevated Minds of good carefully supervise your life on earth, observing your actions and thoughts, awaiting your spiritual progress. You act always thinking about matter, about the perishable body.

Jesus said, "My kingdom is not of this world." However, you still did not understand His words. The physical world is the way used by the Laws of God, which govern the Universe to reach the Kingdoms of Heaven. Suffering, loving and forgiving are the resources to elevate you, above the "planes of gnashing teeth".

We hear the laments, because we walk with you, defending you and supporting you on the painful path; however, we cannot replace you in the test, as "the sowing is free, but the harvest is mandatory". Only the conquest of the eternal goods of the soul by one's own merit guarantees the spiritual ascension of beings.

Jesus bless us!

Santo Agostinho

Question: Are you the one from the "Gospel According to Spiritism"?

Answer: The brothers of humanity do not know of a "Saint", and unjustly designated me as such in that incarnation. However, I achieved my redemption, in subsequent incarnations, when I wore the tunic of poverty and humility.

Santo Agostinho
GESH – 10/15/10

159 – Without Love there is no salvation

Clairvoyance:

I saw giant waves covering Rio de Janeiro and Cristo Redentor fell.

Negative beings “sprouting” from the ground invading houses, buildings and, entire cities. Shortly after the clairvoyance I received the following message:

Dear brothers, may Peace and Love be among you and may the Divine Master Jesus bless us!

The theme “Without charity there is no salvation”, which the Superior Spirits brought to sensitize human hearts, connecting them to the sublime feeling Love, making them receptive to unite the Gospel of Jesus in their hearts and minds, it awakened feelings of fraternity in hearts, which until then had remained dormant.

Today, more spiritually mature, the man of this century is able to know that; “without Love there is no salvation”, a maxim that completes the human being, initiating him to the most evolved spiritual levels.

Gathered in Love of Christ, you must learn to love, because only through love can the soul free itself from vicious circles of spiritual backwardness.

To enroll in other “higher school”, the creature must have developed in their heart and mind, “Love” that brings detachment and freedom. liberates.

In a world of misery at the “End of Times”, Love is the indispensable ingredient to repudiate the reigning madness, because having it, the creature develops the necessary conditions to forgive the enemy that persecutes him, help the needy brother who appears in his path and sublimate one's own defects for redemption.

Out of love, Jesus came down to Earth always guiding us.

Peace and Love!

SANTOS DUMONT

160 – The so-called “wise” think that wisdom comes from them

Hail Divine Goodness!

May Peace be with you!

Dear friends, the journey becomes difficult when we still have to break the ties that bind us to illusions. We must give up on ourselves, for the sake of progress. And to have progress in a civilization, in general, all creatures must be united in a single ideal, in a single aspect.

Progress goes hand in hand with fraternity. All of us, being brothers, children of the same Father, nothing more fair and correct than the older and more experienced brother helping the journey of those younger and unprepared, whose steps are still shaky.

Brother helping brother and doing good without looking at whom, with so much Love just as Jesus taught us.

However, there are creatures who claim to be holders of knowledge, forgetting that they are instruments of the Divine Will, bringing knowledge to civilizations still backward, thus contributing to such people taking a jump in their evolution and leaving the primitive stage.

The so-called “wise” people forget that knowledge is not the result of their minds, it comes from highly evolved and qualified minds linked to the Father, through the Sidereal Engineers.

The Sidereal Hierarchies outline the program, so that each creature receives the opportunity to review their concepts and actions. But, to do this, they need working hands to collaborate in this process; brothers who, even in physical life, are similarly prepared and qualified to transmit Universal Wisdom to others.

However, these brothers remain in pride and presumption, believing that they are responsible for the progress of humanity. They think to be the only brilliant minds on the entire earth.

They think that if it weren't for them, humanity would not have evolved.

Brothers, how my heart hurts when I see that humility, such a simple and magnificent feeling, is lacking in such brilliant minds; If humility had always been constant and active within their knowledge, how far would humanity have progressed in its evolution? How much more fraternal we would be, living in a world without so much pain and expiation, where peace and harmony would reign.

Not that we should blame them for the moral and spiritual deviations of our humanity; even because, everyone is responsible for their thoughts, words and actions. However, much of our debts would have been paid to others and to our Planetary House.

No one is the exclusive holder of knowledge and we cannot forget that in our hands is the responsibility of guiding beings still at a lower stage of evolution.

Be sure: we will only take flight to the Celestial Lands when we become, in fact, humble and fraternal, communing with the Omniscience and Omnipresence of our Greatest Father.

Let us not claim to be “gods”; but rather, faithful servants of His Supreme, Sovereign and Magnanimous Will.

May the Light and Love of the Sublime Master Jesus always guide our steps!

Hail the Light!

Santos Dumont, 03/27/10

TANCREDO NEVES

161 - Stop and Think

Hail the Light! Hail Jesus!

Brothers, how could we demand a better government, if among the citizens there is still perversity, evil and corruption?

Stop and think! If we want a worthy, honest and compassionate representative in our country, let us start by changing ourselves, and then ask of others.

It is known, by everyone in this Group (GESJ), that we are going through decisive moments, at the end of the planetary cycle, and that each and every creature will have the opportunity to choose, definitively, between rightist or leftist of Christ; chaff will no longer remain on Earth after the planetary transition.

Therefore, the government you have at the moment is the one that best meets the needs of majority of the population.

For a politician who is suitable, it would be very difficult to have to live with other parliamentarians, in an environment where shady deals “roll” easily. It would be an almost impossible task to have to remain firm in your purpose, in order not to fall into the web of banditry.

Currently, it is more practical and advantageous to fill your pockets, or coffers with public money, than working hard and definitively end the existing poverty, as well as offering quality education and healthcare to everyone, without distinction.

It will be a difficult task for us, my dear brothers, to have to rebuild our entire beautiful Planet, in the New Age that awaits us.

Firstly, we must throw away all the disseminated dirt and all the slime embedded in every corner of the orb. Then, with a clean house, we must rebuild our homes, our cities, our states, in short, our nation.

Forward, compatriots! Let's move forward, convinced of our sublime ideals, following the model outlined and proclaimed by Master Jesus, to inhabit a peaceful, egalitarian and fraternal world.

“One nation, one people, one race, one creed and one language”, so He taught us. Then yes, we will have with us fair and honest rulers, worthy of representing us. May the Love of the Adored Master reign among the people!

I say goodbye, grateful for the blessing of the work, in the name of Light.

Peace forever!

THEREZINHA OF JESUS

162 - Your rescue depends on your improvement

Brothers in Christ!

Watch your thoughts and feelings, because much has been said and, however, few ones have realized this danger.

Many people go to sleep with bad feelings of hatred, revenge and revolt in their hearts. These are envious thoughts, perverse projects and plans to obtain advantages and victories over others, although dishonest.

The darkness has seen them as lighthouses, searching for the desired target in the dark. Just realize that there is a simple tendency, through this gap, to open space by recruiting these brothers; at first, imperceptibly, to carry out negative activities.

Be careful brothers! Danger surrounds you, as no one is free, except those who, being warned, watch themselves at all times, and still watch their neighbors following the Sublime Teachings of the Gospel of Jesus.

Forgiveness, tolerance, charity and indulgence, the brothers of this Orb have never needed these virtues as much as they do now.

Your rescue depends on your spiritual improvement; which chance has been given to everyone.

Who knows, now is the time!

Brothers, friendly sheep, the Lord is our Shepherd and we will lack nothing.

TIBERIUS

163 - If we don't love, we delay our evolution

Astral Trip: I was used to visiting areas of the lower astral or umbra line regions, with our great brother Andre Luiz. This afternoon, however, I was “caught” by surprise.

As soon as I left my physical body, I saw a white man, brown eyes, wavy brown hair, and wearing clothes typical of a Roman emperor.

Then I asked him:

-Could you tell me your name?

- My name is Tiberius, he replied.

- The same Tiberius, mentioned in one of our brother Rochester's books?

- Yes. Myself.

Afterwards, he explained to me that he would do a brief study and analysis of a certain region of the lower astral with me. He also told me that he is part of the Team of Workers of our Servants of Jesus Spiritual Colony and that he was authorized to be my Instructor on that excursion.

As soon as the explanations were finished, we entered a small spaceship. When we went down to start the walk, we were in an area where there were spirits with different types of mental illnesses.

The said place was very extensive. There were several rooms, and in each of them a type of patient with some mental disorder. In a certain place there were spirits unbalanced by the misuse of sex.

At a certain point, I saw some spirits having a Nervous Crisis because they wanted both drug and sex. It was as if they were in a withdrawal crisis and could no longer bear the lack of addiction.

Then I got the following message:

Every creature devoid of faith and trust in God's Designs does not free itself from the shackles of fear and insecurity.

The insane soul commits infractions, iniquities and infamies, in countless incarnations; he circumvents the Divine Laws and thus falls into the deepest abysses.

The moment the human being finds himself dissociated from the Immutable Laws, claims a lack of knowledge, avoiding putting into practice the obligations outlined and elaborated together with his Masters, Instructors and Guardians.

In the final moments in which you live, at every moment, different messages come to you about the Planetary Transition.

It has become a daily routine in your lives, the news reporting about various accidents, catastrophes and other types of disincarnating, confirming to you the "Ends of Times", or "Apocalypse". So, only the person who doesn't want to see the reality of the facts, doesn't see.

Regardless of the religion they profess, the “signs” are given, in different forms, according to each person’s spiritual background.

Whether Spiritist, Catholics, Protestants, Jews, Muslims, Buddhists, Theosophists, and Rosicrucian, and so on, everyone is always warned about the end of time in which the Earth and its humanity are.

Our brothers live in abysmal regions, in mudflats and swamps acting like crazy people, mentally unbalanced, desperate for having lost their physical form. They shout, curse, speak insults against God and against his Sovereign Will.

In short, those unfortunate people are unprepared for the reality in which they find themselves.

All of us, without exception, have to readjust ourselves with Divine Accounting; reestablish order and progress towards Sidereal Laws.

Even the human law, being flawed and changeable, there is the precept that, to every individual fault, correction must be applied. Therefore, the Law of God, which is wise, fair and immutable, determines that in addition to correcting our faults, we revert to love, every negative action we take against others.

The Law of Cause and Effect is not unfair, much less severe. It only shows us the path we must follow to settle our debts with our brother, complying with the Laws of Love and Progress, because if we do not love, we delay our evolution.

Brothers, dear ones!

May Jesus be our Sovereign Legislator, over everyone and all things.

Only He is All Perfection; only He can ease our pains, soften our hearts, warm our spirit and correct our imperfections.

Only through His Love can we regenerate ourselves towards God, our Father.

Be on Peace, and may your minds and hearts always remain strengthened in the Teachings of the Beloved Master!

Blessed is Jesus!

164 - “Libertas quae sera tamem! ”

“Libertas quae sera tamem!”

With this ideal, we thought we were fighting for the liberation of our beloved Minas Gerais State from the oppressor's yoke.

We did not realize that in those days of struggle, we freed our spirits from ancient repressions and errors towards the great evolutionary jump. If we did anything for our homeland, it was a pale reflection, graced by our debtor spirits who took the liberating flight.

We continue fighting on the astral plane, now, embraced by different ideals, no longer restricted to a state or nation, but raising the Flag of Christ in our hearts. Thus, “universalist love” dominated us and we continued working for the entire Planet and its humanity.

We were again incarnated in many struggles, and we faced it, no longer for liberation of the national oppressor, but for liberation of man by the intimate man, for the liberation of the brother of humanity from the yoke of vile feelings, which keeps him tied to matter.

The liberating milestone of our spirits will be engraved in our hearts forever.

165 - Yes, we are part of the story

Hail the freedom to think and speak freely.

Brother, it shouldn't cause surprise when a character from national or world history comes to mediums to attest that they still live, think and speak.

Today, we do not rely on the importance of the name, because it is fleeting, because when incarnated, many agreements are signed and pacts are sealed between the lines of history, which could not be made public.

We struggle like everyone else, with our imperfections, and, daily, we seek virtues to solidify them in the soul.

Yes, we are part of history, but, in many cases, out of pride, ambition and vanity we, unconsciously, mention the importance of our name gave us, to influence crowds, boosting the progress of the country and its people.

Many of us arrive morally bankrupt and are not flattery and applause that welcome us, when we arrive here. We are received (at the mediumistic meeting) as patients, as we actually are.

I love the country that welcomed me, and for it, I fight bravely for its spiritual freedom. I fight with the sword of love, which shines brighter in the hands of the Warriors of light.

I neither seek glory nor praise, I call myself a soldier of Christ, one more in the huge contingent. And, until the end, I will always seek to position myself as a rightist, as the example must be set daily, because the position is not given to us based on the importance of the name.

Until the end, we work for the victory of the Light, which is certain.

Light to everyone.

166 - Humanity distills fuel provoking pain and suffering

The whirlwind of negative energies on the Planet causes cataclysms.

Incessantly, humanity distills the fuel that generates pain and suffering, as the harmful energy released by their thoughts and actions returns double to themselves who generated it, in the form of the generalized imbalance established in the Orb.

To deceive yourself that it is a passing and decreasing phase, and that human beings will evangelize themselves as they begin a new millennium, is to cover the sun with an umbrella without cloth.

Brothers, guide your actions in the Roadmap of Christ, and you will be able to go through the storms of “planetary transition” victorious and with a lighter soul, conditioned to inhabit a better World.

Jesus bless you all.

167 - Like the blind leading the blind...

Surreptitiously, the arms of darkness envelop creatures tuned to their lower vibrational ranges. Even “modern religions” make mistakes, losing tune with the Light, falling to the lower rungs due to the negligence of their leaders or the failure of the human creature.

Like the blind leading the blind, the crowd walks towards areas of planetary exile, stumbling over their vices and hatred.

Many creatures incarnate on earth, coming from lower zones to fight and to evolve in matter. However, forgetting the pain of distilling in the purgatory pools of the lower astral plane, causes harmful feelings and negative tendencies to emerge that will again come to dominate them.

There is no guarantee of success on Earth for those who wish to progress in the spirit; however, there is victory of the spirit in the afterlife, for those who suffer and love on Earth.

Peace for all.

ULISSES GUIMARÃES

168 - “Brazil, Heart of the World, Homeland of the Gospel”

Dear sister Margarida, through this channel, since I am no longer on the physical plane, I come to thank you for the blessed help, given to me by the Friendly Spirituality of the Servants of Jesus Spiritual Colony.

I still remember the day I went up that ramp (referring to the ramp that gives access to the second floor of our House) supported by two doctors from the spiritual plane.

Bewildered, I could not understand the cause of my death. It was for political reasons, I'm sure now, because I fought hard for Democracy in our country. And, at that time, I suffered a lot from political persecution.

But, with divine blessings, I have been recovering myself and, today, together with some political companions who have already spoken out here, in this Group, I work on cleaning and rebuilding the National Congress, both on the physical and on the astral plane.

Sister, you can't imagine how much the look you gave me when I passed through your State meant to me, you don't know how much it meant to me. At that moment, I was unable to assess the value, the immensity of that gesture.

Being now on the astral plane, I know that it was a call to fight, for the restoration of Order and Peace, throughout the Earth's Orb.

We know each other from past lives; we were militants or guerrillas, as we used to say. However, today, we fight in favor of the Army of Christ, in favor of an egalitarian, just and peaceful world.

Like Getulio, JK and Tancredo, I know how difficult it is to put an end to the rot spread among the majority of parties and their respective political representatives.

However, we did not give up. We have conviction that we will see our nation, Brazil, shining in the New Age as the Homeland of the World.

We will have a Brazil free of external debts, free of inflation, free of corruption, free of inequality, in short, free of impunity and injustice.

All strength, light and love will be distributed from Brazil to sustain and support other peoples on their progressive journeys. Here, everyone will find a safe haven so that they can reestablish themselves and move forward in their tasks, in the construction of cities, states, and so on, in other regions of Planet Earth.

As our valued friend Humberto de Campos says: "Brazil, Heart of the World, Homeland of the Gospel".

I say goodbye, greeting you, in the name of the Light.

VOLTAIRE

169 - We cannot stagnate in a single shape

Blessed Christ who guides us!

Brothers, after the coming of the Great Brother, Jesus, lots of messengers came to Earth bringing teachings that encouraged the earthly people to get out of the mental and intellectual backwardness in which they were.

Even in these times, philosophers, scientists, literary and mathematicians, a group of minds guided by Superior Spirits bring ideas that would lead them to evolve faster. But what do we see now? A people submissive to the Golden Calf, and already at the gates of a New Age cultivating transitory matter, instead of the eternal spirit.

Tireless messages bring words of encouragement and warning: and the same ones who worshiped the God of clay are those who preach the words of God according to their standards of honor and ethics.

Universal Laws do not take long to act, and fall on everyone's shoulders because they are results of bad actions carried out, with painful violent deaths, which hurt the hearts of those who see others as brothers.

To those incarnated, although time does not go back to make up for mistakes, it is still possible to change the course of each one, through constant search for understanding and application of the Laws of Love left by Master Jesus.

Overcoming the barrier of delay, the evolutionary impulse never seen by you will come.

Let everyone understand that spiritual progress is in their hands.

Peace for you all!

Voltaire

Note: Afterwards I continued concentrating and he said:

“In each blessed opportunity in reincarnation, we take on forms, thoughts and habits that place us in the environment we are in. We cannot stagnate with just one form. We evolve, we make progress, and when assuming new functions, the spirit becomes rich in experiences that enable it to come to you with due evaluation and permission, bringing messages of encouragement to overcome the stage in which you are at this time.

May we continue together in a healthy and honest dialogue!

Peace for you all!

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

170 – Spiritual progress isn't merit. It's individual effort and work

Hail Peace! Hail Love!

Brothers, there are more things between heaven and earth than our vain philosophy supposes.

Just as there are dwellings on the surface, on the astral plane there are also different types of dwellings, destined for our progress.

“There are many mansions in the Father’s House” compatible with our vibrations: prison planets, hospital planets, school planets of atonement, regeneration school planets and evolved planets.

The Earth, in constant movement of rotation and translation follows the dynamism of the Cosmos; and the same, in line with the Divine Laws, drives each creature to evolve.

From dimension to dimension, everything occurs in accordance with the Law of Evolution, as there are many Worlds that must be inhabited to begin a cycle of progress. The evolution of beings is necessary and every creature is free to follow the path wished, however, they are obliged to assume the consequences of their choices.

Every creature, aware of the Immutable and Sovereign Laws, knows that we acquire freedom of choice (use of free will), when we change from unconscious being to rational being and therefore we must not neglect or get rid of the purposes of the Laws of Balance and Progress, through the different Kingdoms of Creation, as these same laws guide us to angelhood.

The mind is free to build projects of ascension or to develop less worthy objectives, delaying the encounter with happiness of spiritual evolution.

If we are at a lower evolutionary level, let us be worthy of reaching higher spheres. Spiritual ascension is each person’s own merit, effort and dedication. We must not put up barriers when God calls us to resume our evolutionary journey.

Once this life is over, we will be welcomed into the great selection of “end times” as rightists or leftists of Christ; As leftists, we will inevitably be exiled from Planet Earth if we follow the path of ease, satisfying our primary desires and remaining dependent on feelings of hatred and revenge, power and fleeting glories.

Our consciences will dictate the “vibrational quantum” that we have to deserve better living conditions, or drag us to Lower Worlds in the future. It is an arduous task, as we know, but it simply requires a significant amount of our individual effort.

Let us work and love for the benefit of our transformation, and in this way, we will emerge victorious and commune with the Hosts of Light.

May Peace of the Lord of the Worlds be upon us, today and always!

May Love of Master Jesus be our stronghold guiding our steps.

Save the Light! Hail Jesus!

William Shakespeare

GESJ – 06/22/10

He continued:

God did not create the sky for decoration, nor the stars for our delight.

There are so many beautiful paths that I have never taken,

but, all of them, I will tread.

That each verse, of this simple poem,

be the awakening of my storms,

propagating through the tracks of my Planet

so that I no longer fall asleep.

ZEUS

171 - Everyone lives with wolves

Brothers, with great joy, we await the event for which the Earth received a great charge of energy.

The light that sheds on creatures always aims at awakening hardened hearts and minds paralyzed in self-indulgence. Great events are expected soon.

Have a firm mind in order not to let yourselves be carried away by the wave of negativity that devastates the Earth, also involving good people, but having a naivety, which can no longer be maintained in these times of turbulence.

Everyone lives with wolves. Keep your eyes open and your mind sharp to notice the traps set up on every corner, ready to trap the unwary ones.

Brothers, being a “servant of Jesus” requires skills that defend you from “attacks of darkness”. Do not let yourself be deceived by false promises of a fictitious heaven, taken by storm. Vain illusion passed on by religious leaders who use private interests.

Brothers, do not forget Love preached by Master Jesus. Be faithful to your convictions, responsibilities and obligations before this humanity and before the Father.

Peace for you all!

172 – Love without borders no more. Racial barriers increase.

Earthly people, listen to the call of the Light.

The shrill sounds of trumpets have already announced the beginning of the Apocalypse.

The sounds of hecatombs are present in many countries and, contritely, every part of the Earth emits groans of pain due to the insistent and endless human aggressions. The response to so much violence began to be issued.

The intensity of suffering imposed will be received back.

You chose pain when you removed Love from your actions.

Love without borders does not exist and make racial barriers stronger.

Similar races destroy each other and brotherly peoples are enemies.

Families, as aggregating cells of “universal fraternity” have fallen apart, and hatred dominates the human hearts.

Greed dominates your actions and disrespect for life completes the Planet's desolate scenario.

You ask God for forgiveness, but you do not know how to forgive your closest neighbor, because you have forgotten Love.

May the Greater Light that surrounds you at this time, restore your path of Light towards progress and awaken your consciousness even today.

Love more and more!

BIOGRAPHY

ALICE A. BAYLE

Alice La Trobe Bateman (Alice Bailey) was born in Manchester, on June 16, 1880, and died on December 15, 1949.

She was an English researcher and writer. She is one of the heirs of the theosophical school founded by the greatest esotericist in the West, the Russian Madame Helena Blavatsky. In the autumn of 1919 she was contacted by the Tibetan master Djwhal Khul and from this meeting came the 24 books written between 1919 and 1949.

AVARES DE AZEVEDO

Manuel Antonio Alvares de Azevedo, was born on September 12, 1831 in São Paulo and died on April 25, 1852.

He fell victim to tuberculosis when he was just 21 years old. All of his works were published in posthumous books: the poems “Lira dos Vinte Anos”, the play “Macário”, and the book of stories “A Noite na Taverna”, and others.

AMELIA RODRIGUES

Amelia Augusta do Sacramento Rodrigues when incarnated, she was a notable poet, professor emeritus, renowned writer, and playwright. She was born at Fazenda Campos, Freguesia of Oliveira dos Campinhos, Municipality of Santo Amaro da Purificação-BA, on May 26, 1861, and died in Salvador-BA on August 22, 1926.

Amelia Rodrigues' thought identifies with Fenelon's contained in “The Gospel According to Spiritism”: “Education is forming good men, not just instructing them.” She dedicated herself to journalism as a contributor to the religious publications “O Mensageiro da Fé”, “A Paladina” and “A Voz”.

ANTONIO CONSELHEIRO

Antonio Vicente Mendes Maciel, popularly known as Antonio Conselheiro was a Brazilian religious and social leader. He was born in Quixeramobim-CE on March 13, 1830, and died in Canudos-BA on September 22, 1897.

There are reports from Conselheiro's followers who stated that the blessed man had the ability to perform miracles and that he made predictions about the end of the world.

ARIMATHEA

Joseph of Arimathea appears in the four Gospels, which mention him in the context of the Passion and Death of Christ.

In the cruelest moments of the crucifixion, he was not afraid to expose himself, and asked Pilate for the body of Jesus (the apocryphal "Gospel of Peter", from the 2nd century, says that this request was made before the crucifixion). Once permission was granted by the governor, Joseph of Arimathea unfastened the crucified man, wrapped him in a clean sheet and, with the help of Nicodemus, deposited Jesus in the tomb on his property, which no one had used before, after closing it with a large stone.

According to some legends, Joseph of Arimathea was in possession of the chalice of Holy Supper, taking it to Europe. This chalice became known as the Holy Grail, so mentioned in the Arthurian Legends.

ARISTOTLES

The Greek Philosopher Aristotle was born in 384 BC, in the ancient city of Stagira, and died in 322 BC.

His philosophical thoughts and ideas about humanity have significant influences on contemporary Western thought and education. Aristotle is considered the creator of logical thinking.

ARCHIMEDES

He was born in Syracuse-Greece, around 287 BC, his father was an astronomer called Phidias. As a young man he studied in Alexandria.

He was one of the most important scientists and mathematicians of Antiquity, and one of the greatest of all time. He also invented several types of machines, both for military and civil use.

He also discovered the principle of the lever, and the quote is attributed to him: "Give me a lever and a fulcrum and I will move the world".

Archimedes died after the capture of Syracuse during the Second Punic War, around 212 BC.

ARY BARROSO

Ary Evangelista Barroso was born in Uba, Minas Gerais on November 7, 1903. He died in Rio de Janeiro on February 9, 1964.

Author of hundreds of compositions in varied styles, such as choro, xote, march, foxtrot and samba. Author of the famous “Aquarela do Brazil” and Boneca de Pixe, among others.

AUTA DE SOUZA

He was born in Macaíba (RN) on September 12, 1876, and died in Natal (RN), on February 7, 1901.

She was a Brazilian poet of the second romantic generation, author of Horto. She wrote romantic poems with some symbolist influence and of high aesthetic value. According to Luis da Camara Cascudo, she is “the greatest mystical poet in Brazil”.

BATUÍRA

Antonio Gonçalves da Silva (1839-1909), known as “Batuíra”, was born in Portugal and came to Brazil when he was just eleven years old. He landed in the state of Rio de Janeiro and moved, definitively, to capital of São Paulo.

“Batuíra” was also a “healing medium”; he created Spiritist Groups and Centers; held conferences on various doctrinal topics; he distributed free leaflets and pamphlets advertising Spiritism, and thousands of books throughout the country.

BEETHOVEN

Beethoven was born on December 17, 1770, Bonn, Nordrhein-Westfalen, Germany and died on March 26, 1827, at the age of 56 years old in Vienna, Austria.

In 1807 he was already completely deaf. Even though he was deaf, as incredible as it may seem, Beethoven continued playing the piano, conducting orchestras and, above all, composing. In fact, his most famous works were composed when he was partially deaf, and his masterpiece, the Ninth Symphony “Choral” was composed when he was already completely deaf, unable to hear his own music.

BUDDHA

Buddha is not a person's name, but a title: it means "one who knows the truth" or "one who has awakened", applied to someone who has reached a highest level of understanding. Thus, there have been several Buddhas in the history of Buddhism. Of all, the first, Siddhartha Gautama, is considered the most brilliant and also the founder of Buddhism, in the 6th century BC, that is, more than 2,600 years ago.

CAIO MIRANDA

General Caio Miranda (1909-1969), was an officer and, at the end of the 1950s, was a member of the Theosophical Society in Brazil. A soldier with a strong and controversial personality, he was also, at the same time, very charismatic and soft. At this time, as a theosophical literature, he read a lot about philosophy, occultism and Yoga. He was part of the Esoteric School (Internal School of the Theosophical Society) and had a Spiritual Master.

Works: "Thus I heard from the Master", "The great Flame", Liberation through Yoga, and others.

CAMÕES

CARDEAL RICHELIEU

Armand Jean du Plessis, (Cardinal de Richelieu), was born in Paris on September 9, 1585 and died on December 4, 1642.

Consecrated Bishop of Luçon in 1607, he was orator to the clergy in the States General of 1614, becoming part of the council of the regent Maria de Medici around 1616. He became cardinal in 1622. Prime Minister and Secretary of the Holy Inquisition of Louis XIII. He ruled France for 18 years and established the absolute monarchy.

CASIMIRO CUNHA

Poet from Rio de Janeiro, he was born in Vassouras-RJ on April 14, 1880. Coming from a very poor home, son of Casimiro Augusto da Cunha and Maria dos Santos Cunha, he had a single sister, Leonor. Fatherless at the age of 7, he only attended primary school. A convinced spiritualist, he became blind in one eye at the age of 14 after an accident, and completely lost his other vision at the age of 16. At a young age he began his collaboration with the “Vassourense press”. He was one of the founders of the Spiritist Center “Bezerra de Menezes” in Vassouras.

CATARINA DE MÉDICIS

Catherine Maria Romola di Medici, French queen of Italian origin. She was born in Florence on April 13, 1519, daughter of Lorenzo de Medici, Duke of Urbino.

She marries at the age of 14 to Henry, son of King Francis I of France. Mother of ten children, she tries to influence the reign of her husband, who assumes the throne as Henry II between 1547 and 1559. Charles XI, still a minor, ascends to the throne in 1560, and Catherine becomes regent of France. She died in Blois-France, on January 5, 1589.

DANTE ALIGHIERI

Dante Alighieri was born in Florence, on June 1, 1265, and died in Ravenna, on September 13 or 14, 1321. He was an Italian writer, poet and politician. He is considered the first and greatest poet in the Italian language.

*He was much more than just a writer: at a time when only writings in Latin were valued, he wrote a poem, with an epic and theological bias, La Divina Commedia (The Divine Comedy), which became the basis of the modern Italian language and culminates the affirmation of the medieval way of understanding the world.*

DEMOSTENES

Demosthenes was born in Athens in 384 BC and died in the island of Calauria, now Poros in 322 BC.

He was a prominent Greek orator and politician who dominated the rhetoric in speeches in Athens.

His life as an orator and politician was dedicated to the defense of Athens, which was threatened by Philip II of Macedonia.

EDGARD ARMOND

Responsible for implementing the Spiritist Federation of the State of São Paulo (FEESP) where he collaborated for more than three decades, systematized the study of the Doctrine in evangelical terms and established courses to assist the development of mediums.

ESTEVÃO

Stephen was one of the seven men chosen by the disciples, shortly after Christ's resurrection, to take care of the distribution of assistance to the church's widows, so that the apostles themselves could have more free time for their spiritual tasks.

He stood out from others in faith, grace, spiritual power and wisdom. He was someone who accomplished much more than the special work assigned to him, as he stood out among the main ones in the operation of miracles and in preaching of the Gospel. Because of all this commitment to Christ, he soon became the target of the Jews, who took him before the Sanhedrin on charges of blasphemy. And when Stephen claimed that Jesus was standing at the right hand of God, he was seized and stoned to death.

FÉNELON

François Fenelon, pseudonym of François de Salignac de La Mothe-Fénelon (6 August 1651 – 7 January 1715), was a French Roman Catholic theologian, poet and writer, whose liberal ideas about politics and education clashed with the “status quo” of the Church and State at that time. He belonged to the French Academy of Letters.

FREI DAMIÃO

Frei Damião de Bozzano, born Pio Giannotti, in Bozzano- Italy on November 5, 1898 and died in Recife (PE) on May 31, 1997.

He managed to draw crowds to listen to his lectures and became a phenomenon of religious popularity in the Northeast, comparable only to “Padim Ciço”, from Juazeiro do Norte. By the way, Frei Damião is acclaimed by local Catholics as the legitimate successor of Father Cicero Romão Batista.

GALILEO GALILEI

Great Physicist, Mathematician and Astronomer, Galileo Galilei was born in Pisa-Italy on February 15, 1564. He was one of the main representatives of the Scientific Renaissance of the 16th and 17th centuries.

It was through observing the phases of Venus that Galileo began to see the basis for Copernicus' vision (Heliocentric – The Sun as the center of the Universe). For his heliocentric vision, the Italian astronomer had to go to Rome in 1611, as he was being accused of being a heretic.

He died in Florence, Italy, on January 8, 1642, blind and condemned by the Catholic Church for his scientific convictions. He had his works censored and banned. The same institution that condemned him acquitted him long after his death, in 1983.

GETULIO VARGAS

Getúlio Dorneles Vargas was born in São Borja-RS on April 19, 1882.

He entered politics in 1909. In the Presidency of Brazil, he adopted a nationalist policy. In 1934, he promulgated a new Constitution. In 1937, he closed Congress, banned all parties, granted a Constitution, installed the Estado Novo and governed with dictatorial powers.

In the labor area, he created the Labor Court (1930), the Ministry of Justice and the minimum wage (1940), the CLT (Consolidation of Labor Laws) (1943), the professional card, the 48-hour work week and paid vacation. He returned to the presidency in the 1950 elected by the PTB (Brazilian Labor Party), which he helped found. In his last term, he created Petrobrás.

He committed suicide in the midst of the political crisis, with a shot in the chest, in the early hours of August 24, 1954, inside the Catete Palace, in Rio de Janeiro, leaving a testament letter in which he pointed out the nation's enemies as responsible for his suicide.

HENRIQUE ANJOU

Henry II was born in 1154 in Le Mans (France). He died near Tours, France in 1189.

First monarch of the Angelic dynasty and in whose government he limited the authority of the nobility and the church and consequently strengthened royal power. Endowed with great leadership power, and energetic in his actions, he created a powerful bureaucracy, faced feudal power and forced the nobility to submit to ordinary courts.

HERCULANO PIRES

José Herculano Pires was born in Avaré-SP on September 25, 1914, and died in São Paulo-SP, on March 9, 1979. He was a Brazilian journalist, philosopher, educator and spiritualist writer.

He stood out as one of the most active promoters of spiritualism in the country. He translated the writings of Allan Kardec and wrote both philosophical studies and literary works inspired by the Spiritist doctrine.

Jose de Anchieta was born on the island of Tenerife, one of the Canary Islands dominated by Spain at the end of the 15th century, on March 19, 1534, Saint Joseph's Day, which is why he was named.

Jose de Anchieta died in the city of Reritiba (current Anchieta) in Espírito Santo/Brazil, on June 9, 1597. Thanks to his active role in the first century of colonization of Brazil, Jose de Anchieta gained several titles, such as: “apostle of the New World”, “founder of the city of São Paulo”, “healer of souls and bodies”, “charismatic”, “saint”, among others.

JUSCELINO KUBITSCHKEK

Juscelino Kubitschek de Oliveira was born on September 12, 1902 in Diamantina-MG. In politics, he was mayor of Belo Horizonte (1940-1945), governor of Minas Gerais (1951-1955) and president of Brazil, from 1956 to 1961.

As president, he built hydroelectric plants, roads, promoted industrialization and modernization of the economy. One of his main achievements was the construction of the city of Brasília and the institution of the Federal District, which marked the transfer of the federal capital (until then in Rio de Janeiro) on April 21, 1960. In a post-Vargas era, his government was marked by social and cultural changes.

He moved away from politics and dedicated himself to work as a businessman. He died in a car accident at kilometer 165 of Via Dutra, near Resende (RJ), on August 22, 1976.

LAVOISIER

Lavoisier was born in Paris on August 26, 1743 and died in Paris on May 8, 1794. He was a French chemist, considered the creator of modern chemistry.

He was the first scientist to enunciate the principle of conservation of matter. Furthermore, he identified and named oxygen, refuted the phlogiston theory and participated in the reform of chemical nomenclature. Famous for his studies on the conservation of matter, later immortalized by the popular phrase: “In Nature nothing is lost, nothing is created, everything is transformed.”

LEONARDO DA VINCI

He was born in Anchiano, Italy, on April 15, 1451 and died at the age of 67 on May 2, 1519, in Amboise, France.

According to a legend, the Pythoness of the Delphic oracle warned Pythagoras' parents that the expected son would be a man of extreme beauty, intelligence and kindness, and would contribute in a unique way to the benefit of all men. When the child was born, his parents named him Pythagoras in honor of the Pythoness who had predicted an unusual life for him. He was born in 570 BC on the island of Samos, in the region of Asia Minor - Greece.

From his childhood, Pythagoras revealed himself to be a child prodigy. At the age of 18, he already knew and mastered much of the mathematical and philosophical knowledge of the time. Receive It received a lot of scientific and philosophical influence from the Greek philosophers Thales of Miletus, Anaximander and Anaximenes. Through astronomical studies, he stated that planet Earth was spherical and suspended in space (an idea little known at the time). He found a certain order in the universe, observing that the star, like the Earth, revolved around the Sun.

From his youth, Pythagoras made numerous trips and pilgrimages. In one of these, he went to Egypt, where he stayed for around 25 years, and took part in many conversations with priests in the temples, from where he extracted knowledge that would support his future teaching. Impressed by the pyramids, he developed the famous Pythagorean Theorem. According to this theorem it is possible to calculate the side of a right triangle, knowing the other two. In this way, he was able to prove that the sum of the squares of the legs is equal to the square of the hypotenuse. He probably died in 497 or 496 AD in Metaponto (southern region of Italy).
